'CAL' LASSOS TROPICAL PARK DERBY

Stonerside homebred Cowboy Cal (Giant's Causeway) stayed perfect on the grass with a two-length tally in yesterday's GIII Tropical Park Derby at Calder. With John Velazquez in the irons, the 3-5 favorite raced with pacesetting Joey the Scholar (Double Honor) through fractions of :23.18 and :47.15, gained command on the turn for home and drew away impressively in the stretch to take it in style over stablemate Why Tonto (Indian Charlie). "This is such a super horse to ride," Velazquez said. "We were in the spot we wanted the entire race, but going around the first turn and for a bit down the backside, he got a little aggressive. I was able to settle him down though, especially once we got the lead. It seemed like he was pouring it on in the stretch, but he was actually relaxed and doing it pretty easily." 'IN' THE RIGHT PLACE AT THE RIGHT TIME

All eyes were on the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint runner-up Idiot Proof (Benchmark) in yesterday's GIII El Conejo H. at Santa Anita, but it was GISW In Summation (Put It Back) who stole the show. Sitting a perfect trip trailing the field of four while Idiot Proof dueled through wicked fractions of :21.01 and :43.25, the 3-1 second choice revved up four wide in the stretch and drew away to post a one-length victory over Barbecue Eddie (Stormy Atlantic) while setting a new track record. Idiot Proof tired to finish third as the 3-5 favorite. "The race went very well for us today," Nicholas Bachalard, assistant trainer to Christophe Clement, said. "We got the pace we hoped for and it worked out very good for us. I think the horse will stay here for one more race [the Jan. 21 GII Palos Verdes H.]." Cont. p3

Team Valor's Alexandra Rose (SAf) (Caesour), a Group 2 winner in her native country, came charging down the center of the course to annex yesterday's GIII Monrovia H. at Santa Anita. Sixth through fractions of :21.91 and :43.72, Alexandra Rose was swung out four wide by jockey Rafael Bejarano entering the home stretch and rallied to a 3/4 of a length victory over Society Hostess (Seeking the Gold). "This was the first time I've been on her," Bejarano said. "I didn't want to use her speed too early, so I was able to follow the speed. When we passed the quarter pole she was handling the course real well and she tried real hard. She tried to get out with me just a little bit, but she's a very good horse." Society Hostess was disqualified from second and placed fifth for interference in the stretch. Cont. p4

Cowboy Cal Stays Perfect on the Grass...

Cowboy Cal could only manage a seventh-place finish in his debut over the Saratoga main track Aug. 25, but has been flawless since switching to turf. Sent off at 5-2 in his grass debut at Belmont Sept. 26, the dark bay cruised under the line a 4 1/4-length wire-to-wire winner. Freshened following that effort, he resurfaced to take the Nov. 24 Laurel Futurity by 6 1/4 lengths against a field of 13. Cowboy Cal made it three straight on the grass with a sharp score in yesterday's Tropical Park Derby, but may get another shot on the dirt, according to trainer Todd Pletcher. "He trained really well on dirt from the beginning, but his first race was a little disappointing, although it was a sprint," Pletcher said. "Then, he worked good on the grass and the Giant's Causeways do well on turf, so we mapped out a program that included the Laurel Futurity and he was pre-entered in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf and so was Why Tonto, but neither one got in. We will definitely try Cowboy Cal back on the dirt, possibly the [GII] Fountain of Youth [S., Feb. 24], and go from there."

July 29 and the Arlington Sprint H. Aug. 25. Freshened following the Arlington Sprint, he resurfaced to complete the exacta in Hollywood's GIII Vernon O. Underwood S. last out Dec. 2. Jockey Corey Nakatani was aboard In Summation for the Bing Crosby and Underwood as well as yesterday's El Conejo. "The race set up the way I thought it would," Nakatani commented. "We were in the perfect spot and they had to commit to go. I thought he should have won last time. He was intimidated by the winner [Bushwacker] and I thought he should have come down. He improved today off that race." Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

IN THE HUNT FOR THE HUTCHESON

The GII Hutcheson S. has typically been contested during the heart of the meeting, but Gulfstream Park officials opted to move the seven-furlong contest up to the opening weekend of the 2008 season. Todd Pletcher has saddled the last five winners of the Hutcheson--King of the Roxy (2007), Keyed Entry (2006), Proud Accolade (2005), Limehouse (2004) and Lion Tamer (2003)--but, as of this past weekend, wasn't expected to enter any of his eight nominees. A field of seven newly turned three-year-olds are expected: Big Truck (Hook and Ladder), Golden Spikes (Seeking the Gold), Grand Minstrel (Grand Slam), Halo Najib (Halo's Image), Notgivinmyloveaway (Not for Love), Silver Edition (Silver Deputy) and Smooth Air (Smooth Jazz).

Ahmed Zayat's Halo Najib won first time out for trainer Dale Romans at Keeneland Oct. 11 and came back 17 days later to run second by a half-length to Court Vision in the one-mile GIII Iroquois S. at Churchill. The chestnut weakened late as the favorite in the 8 1/2-furlong GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. Nov. 24, finishing fifth under the Twin Spires. The chestnut breezed a half-mile in :47.80 at Gulfstream Sunday.

Grand Minstrel, an Edward Evans homebred, has been improving steadily for trainer Jimmy Jerkens. The grey colt is stepping up in class after an authoritative, five-length score in Aqueduct's Capote S. Dec. 12. Shipped to Florida afterwards, the son of MGSW Colonial Minstrel (Pleasant Colony) fired a bullet a Palm Meadows to ring in the New Year, covering five-eighths in 1:00.20.

Won races that make stallions.

NORTH AMERICA

PLETCHER, GOMEZ AND STRONACH STABLES

TOP EARNERS OF 2007 Todd Pletcher and Garrett Gomez repeated as North America's leading earning trainer and jockey, respectively, according to figures released yesterday by Equibase Company LLC, while Stronach Stables was the top earning owner of the year. Pletcher topped the leading trainers' list for the fourth consecutive year in 2007, winning 289 races from 1,228 starts for earnings of $28,111,697.

Gomez Benoit

That total eclipsed the North American earnings mark of $26,820,243 Pletcher set in 2006. Steve Asmussen finished second on the trainer's list with earnings of $23,898,844 from 488 wins and 2,273 starts. The top five trainers were completed by Bobby Frankel, Doug O'Neill and Bill Mott. Gomez was North

America's top earning jockey for the second consecutive year. He rode the winners of 265 races from 1,258 mounts for earnings of $22,800,074. Robby Albarado was second with 253 wins from 1,260 mounts and earnings of $19,399,249. Rounding out the top five are John Velazquez, Cornelio Velasquez and Rafael Bejarano. Stronach Stables, North America's leading owner in 2002, won 128 races from 537 starts and earned $7,076,138 in North America during 2007 to lead all owners. Runner-up was Zayat Stables, LLC, which won 98 races from 521 starts for earnings of $6,171,916. Completing the list of top five owners were Stonestreet Stables, Padua Stables and George Bolton and Midnight Cry Stables. GI Preakness and GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner Curlin was North America's top earning Thoroughbred with $5,102,800. Control System opened her career last winter with three straight wins, culminating with a track-and-distance victory in the Mar. 24 GIII Cicada S. Sidelined after that effort, the bay filly returned to run third in the Sept. 16 Dream Supreme S. at Belmont and again in the Oct. 27 Ms. Woodford S. at Monmouth before a 2 3/4-length victory in the Dec. 1 Garland of Roses S. last time out. Second choice in this short field of four, Control System stalked the pacesetting favorite Oprah Winney through fractions of :22.36, :45.91 and :58.76. She took over under urging on the turn and drew clear for an easy win. "She is pretty easy to ride," admitted winning jockey Julian Pimentel. "Once I took a hold, she took back and when I asked her, she took off again. She did pretty much what I asked her to. She is a pretty nice filly." As for what is next for Control System, winning trainer Michael Trombetta, via telephone from Disney World, said, "We always wanted to try her a little bit longer, so the [Feb. 16 GII Barbara Fritchie [Breeders' Cup H. at Laurel] will give us a good chance to try that and we get to run her at home. I'll probably just train her up to the race." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Einstein Nearing Return:

Midnight Cry Stable's Einstein (Brz) (Spend a Buck), sidelined since an eventful run in the GII Dixie S. at Pimlico last May when he lost his rider while trying to avoid a spill, worked six furlongs at Gulfstream in 1:11.80 on Monday. The 2006 GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup S. winner has been in steady training since mid-November. "He worked awesome," trainer Helen Pitts told Daily Racing Form. "He bruised the outside of his cannon bone when trying to avoid the fallen horse in the Dixie, so I decided to just give him some time off. He's getting pretty close to being ready, although I haven't decided when or where his first start might be just yet."

The versatile Bsharpsonata captured Delaware's Sept. 22 Irish Sonnet S. over the main track. The bay filly switched to the turf for a fourth-place effort over a yielding Monmouth turf in the Oct. 26 Epitome Breeders' Cup S. and rebounded with a 1 1/4-length win in the Nov. 24 Selima S. at Laurel. Bsharpsonata, a tracking fourth while racing three wide here, forged to the lead turning for home and held on determinedly. "This is such a nice filly to ride because she lets you put her wherever you want to in the race," explained winning rider Eric Camacho. "Going down the backside I wanted to rate her in behind horses, but we were getting pushed to the outside and when she saw that daylight in front of her she got a bit rank. I got her settled though and, coming around the last turn, I just turned her loose." Trainer John Salzman, who saddled Bsharpsonata for his son, trainer Tim Salzman, added, "I brought her down here over a week ago to acclimate and work over the course. She's a good filly and we're hoping she'll be as good back on dirt as she is on turf. There really isn't anything for her on turf at Gulfstream, so we're going to point her for the seven-eighths race, the [Feb. 9 GII] Forward Gal, and then the [Mar. 2 GII] Davona Dale."
