MIDNIGHT LUTE OUT

A field of seven was drawn yesterday for Monday's GII Palos Verdes H., but it didn't include likely sprint champion Midnight Lute (Real Quiet). "He would have to gut it out going six furlongs, and I don't think he's ready for it," trainer Bob Baffert told Daily Racing Form. "He worked so good last week that I got excited. But it's a long year, and I don't want to get ahead of myself. We'll stick to our original plan [the GII San Carlos H. Feb. 16]." In Summation (Put It Back), winner of the GI Bing Crosby H., has been assigned the rail. He was last seen annexing the GIII El Conejo H. Jan. 1. MGSW Surf Cat (Sir Cat) has been assigned the two slot. The six-year-old has been on the sidelines since finishing fifth in the GII Oak Tree Mile Oct. 7. El Conejo runner-up Barbecue Eddie (Stormy Atlantic) will exit from the three stall.

NOWNOWNOW TRANSFERRED TO IRELAND

Fabien Ouaki's Nownownow (Whywhywhy), winner of the inaugural Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf, will join the yard of trainer David Wachman in Ireland for the 2008 season, Racing Post reports. Twice second in three tries on the main track to begin his career, the bay colt broke his maiden in the With Anticipation S. at Saratoga in his turf debut Aug. 31. Runner-up in Keeneland's Bourbon S. Oct. 7, he relished the soft ground in the Oct. 26 Juvenile Turf, coming from well off the pace to best Achill Island (Ire) by a half-length. Nownownow was saddled by Francois Parisel on Breeders' Cup day following the suspension of Patrick Biancone. Wachman told Racing Post that he has had no contact with Ouaki regarding the reasons behind the move, though speculation points to the colt's penchant for off going. Expected to arrive at Wachman's base in Tipperary in March, Nownownow is reportedly quoted at odds of 33-1 for the G1 English 2000 Guineas and 40-1 for the G1 Epsom Derby by William Hill.

SUNSHINE MILLIONS ATTRACTS 136 PRE-ENTRIES

A total of 136 California- and Florida-bred runners have been pre-entered for the sixth annual Sunshine Millions, which will take place next Saturday, Jan. 26, at Gulfstream Park and Santa Anita Park. "We are extremely pleased with the large number of pre-entered horses," said Rick Hammerle, Santa Anita's racing secretary. "We have 72 horses pre-entered to run here at Santa Anita, and 64 have pre-entered to run at Gulfstream. We're confident we're going to have full fields in eight races." The eight races have a total purse value of $3.6 million. Among the marquee names entered is dual Eclipse Award finalist Nashoba's Key (Silver Hawk), who's been nominated to the $1-million Classic, but will most likely opt for the $500,000 F/M Turf. "We're going to look at both races, but most likely she's going to run on the grass," said trainer Carla Gaines. "She's undefeated on the grass here and it's a $500,000 race, so it's probably the obvious spot at this stage." California-bred McCann's Mojave (Memo {Chi}), winner of last year's Classic at Gulfstream, will be back to defend his title at Santa Anita. Based at Golden Gate, the eight-year-old worked a mile in 1:38.20 yesterday morning over the Tapeta surface. "[Jockey Frank] Alvarado worked him and he went super," said trainer Steve Specht. "He went off easy, I had him in :50 and change the first half and he came home the last quarter mile in :23 and three. He's ready." McCann's Mojave was one of 26 pre-entries for the nine-furlong Classic, which will be limited to 12 starters. Among the runners who did not qualify are lamawildandcrazyguy, Summer Book and Sweetnorthernsaint.

SOLID STATISTICAL GROWTH AT NYRA Officials at the New York Racing Association released the year-end figures for 2007, highlighted by growth in purse distribution (6.9 percent), on-track handle on racing from Aqueduct, Belmont and Saratoga (2.7 percent) and on racing from NYRA tracks and simulcasting (2.8 percent). All-sources wagers declined by 1.1 percent, a number less than the drop of 1.6 percent in the number of racing days (244 from 248). "After a slow start at Aqueduct, 2007 was a very good year at NYRA," said Charles Hayward, New York Racing Association president and CEO. "We had a solid increase in on-track handle, led by a record-breaking $123 million bet on-track for the Saratoga meet. On the track, we had some historic moments with Rags to Riches defeating Curlin in a thrilling Belmont S., and a memorable Travers win by Kentucky Derby winner Street Sense. Remarkably, every Breeders' Cup winner either prepped or was based at a NYRA track." Business was off a bit at the recently concluded Aqueduct winter meeting, owing to a sloppy renewal of the Breeders' Cup, NYRA officials said.

Flower Alley
 "SUPER EXCITED"

ABOUT FIRST FLOWER ALLEY FOAL

The first Flower Alley foal is a bay colt out of the stakes winner Country Vision, by Cahill Road, foaled on January 8 at Millennium Farms, near Lexington, KY. "He's a really nice baby, with plenty of size, bone, substance and just a lot of quality about him," said Marc Wampler, who purchased the mare at the Keeneland November Sale for his client, James Hindman's Rich Meadow Farm. "I'm super excited about the foal," said Wampler. "In fact, I called [Three Chimneys] the day after I saw the colt and bought a season to breed one of my mares back to him in '08. If they all come out looking like this one, you'll be all set."

Jockey Ridge, a $7,000 FTMDEC yearling, blossomed into a $110,000 FTMMAY juvenile six months later. He earned an 81 Beyer Speed Figure when finishing a distant second to Lieutenant Ron in an Aqueduct maiden Nov. 10, and had several sharp local works since arriving in Florida. Sent off as the 2-1 choice here, the bay colt came away cleanly from post eight and was soon in front, setting splits of :21.97 and :44.40 while Eibar Coa sat motionless in the saddle. He was shaken up a bit turning for home and responded nicely, opening up daylight before being geared down late to score by 4 3/4 lengths. Excess Capital (Distorted Humor) came on to nip A Diehl (Aldebaran) for second at the line. Power Failure Forces Late Gulfstream Cancellation:

Gulfstream was forced to cancel the last two races on the card yesterday due to a power failure just before the seventh race and again during the race itself, according to Daily Racing Form. Track President Bill Murphy told the publication that there were two power surges. "At this point all we know is that a situation occurred somewhere in our vicinity, but not on the track grounds, which led to power surges which first cut off our regular supply of power to the track and then the backup generator, which had kicked in following the original surge," he said. Power was restored to parts of the facility by early evening. The casino was also forced to be shut down. Racing is expected to resume today.

He rebounded with a track-record setting performance when shortened up to 5 1/2 panels in Calder's Birdonthewire S. Oct. 13, but another route try established his metier. The bay set the pace in the one-mile Jean Laffitte S. Nov. 9 at Delta, but faded to finish a distant fifth. Cutting back here, Carson's Legacy settled into stride several lengths off the lead, shifted gears in the lane and drove past pacesetter Yonegwa for his second stakes success.

6th-FGX, $39,250, Msw, 4&5yo, f/m, 5 1/2f (off turf), 1:05 2/5, ft.

DOWELL HOUSE (m, 5, Danzig--Pico Teneriffe {MGSW & MGISP, $583,646}, by Red Ransom), out of action for 13 months, returned to run fourth over Saratoga's main track Aug. 29. The full sister to Westmoreland, SP, $196,994, tired late to be fifth on the turf at Belmont going seven panels Oct. 17 and was sidelined once again. She returned with a runner-up effort in a local off-the-turfer on New Year's Day, and was bet down to 4-5 in this similar affair. The Melnyk homebred raced in third, made her move in the lane and hit the wire a half-length in front of River Rosie (Gilded Time), with six lengths back to the others. The winner is also a half to Marchfield (A.P. Indy), SW, $433,886. Diverse (Kingmambo) was scratched. Lifetime Record: 5-1-1-0, $36,032.

O-Melnyk Racing Stables Inc. B-Eugene Melnyk (KY). T-Richard E Dutrow Jr.

7th-OPX, $33,000, Msw, 3yo, f, 5 1/2f, 1:05 1/5, ft.

HOLISTIC (f, 3, Holy Bull--Twice Tempted, by Wild Again) battled for the lead before settling for second in her Nov. 18 bow at Aqueduct. The 9-5 favorite here, she loomed boldly on the turn and scampered home a four-length winner. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $30,200. O-BA Man Inc, John Fletcher & James Osborne. B-Richard D Maynard (KY). T-Daniel C Peitz.

Riding For a Cure Fundraiser Set for July 14:

Riding For a Cure, a third-party fundraiser for the University of Chicago Cancer Research Foundation, will team-up with the Midwest's premier horse show facility, the Lamplight Equestrian Center, for its annual fundraising effort July 14. "We are incredibly thrilled and energized that Lamplight Equestrian Center has joined Riding For A Cure to support the search for the cure of cancer," said Christine Gabriel, the founder of Riding For A Cure. "Lamplight is a premier show facility that will enable us to expand our reach in the equestrian community by involving passionate riders who want to fight cancer the best way they know how--with their horse. This type of sponsorship from Lamplight takes Riding For A Cure to a new level of awareness in its fundraising efforts to support the University of Chicago Cancer Research Foundation." Riders from Arlington Park are expected to compete in the annual 20-mile trail ride. For more information or to volunteer or make a donation, contact Lindsay Heil at (847) 401-9266 or lindsay@ridingforacure.org.

Porfido, a two-time champion in his native Chile, had failed to get his picture taken in 11 starts in this country, but held solid company. The bay finished fourth in the GI Clement L. Hirsch Memorial S. at Oak Tree Oct. 6 and followed with a fifth-place finish in the GIII Carleton F. Burke H. Oct. 28. He closed out the season with a third-place finish in Golden Gate's Tanforan S. last out Nov. 10. Backed as the third choice here, he raced with the early pace in second, took over on the turn for home and won for fun.

5th-SAX, $55,920, Alw, Opt. Clm. ($80,000), NW1X, 3yo, f, a6 1/2fT, 1:13 1/5, fm.

PASSION (f, 3, Came Home--Rajmata, by Known Fact), an impressive maiden winner at first asking over the Arlington Polytrack July 13, completed the trifecta in Saratoga's GII Adirondack S. Aug. 15. Given the rest of the season off following a well-beaten ninth in the GI Spinaway S. Sept. 2, she resurfaced on the grass here with a game wire-to-wire tally after dueling through fractions of :22.28 and :44.82 as the 9-5 chalk. It was three lengths back to Tropical Bid (Valid Wager) in second. The victress, a $260,000 KEEAPR juvenile, is a half-sister to Kumari Continent (Kris S.), GSW & GISP, $263,590. Lifetime Record: GSP, 4-2-0-1, $64,250.

DIVINE LEGACY (f, 3, Full Mandate--Caught Ree, by Eastern Echo), a half-sister to MGSP Bashert (Tiger Ridge), brought $170,000 as a KEENOV weanling, the highest from her sire's first crop in 2005. She debuted Dec. 22 at Hollywood, but raced in seventh all the way around. Dismissed at 8-1 here, the Florida-bred bay settled into stride in fifth as 7-5 Arboreta (Empire Maker) showed the way under a good hold until they reached the far turn. The favorite began to back up, but Divine Legacy ranged up three wide, hit the front late and held sway by 3/4 of a length over the rallying Smooth Performer (Bertrando). Arboreta wound up last of six. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $30,400.

SWEETER STILL (IRE) (f, 3, Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}--Beltisaal {Fr}, by Belmez), a half-sister to Belle Artiste (Ire) (Namid {GB}), GSW-Ire, $134,701, debuted with a fourth in the Listed Flame of Tara S. at The Curragh Sept. 15 in her lone try for Aidan O'Brien. Acquired privately by her current connections, the dark bay finished ninth, beaten 4 1/2 lengths, in the GIII Miesque S. at Hollywood Nov. 24 in her Stateside bow, and was the 5-2 second choice here while facing maidens for the first time. After breaking from the rail, the Irish-bred was unhurried racing down the hill and crossing the main track. She angled to the far outside, accelerated nicely and drove past Miss Fremont (Rahy) to score by 3/4 of a length. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $32,963.

✓ APPOINTMENTS

MADELEIN BASSON

- Appointed to the position of Director of Client Communications and Relations at Hill 'n' Dale Farms.
- Previously served as Assistant Farm Manager under Joe Ramsey.
- John G. Sikura, president of Hill 'n' Dale Farms said, "Madelein is a terrific horseman and knows our horses and clients extremely well. Her appointment will allow up-to-date access to all client horses through both internet access and monthly reviews. It will be a great tool for clients to feel closer to their horses at Hill 'n' Dale under the direction of a person they have grown to trust. Madelein is accomplished in all facets of the farm and this is a great opportunity to use her skills in an area we want to excel."

Thoro-Graph Race of the Week
by Jerry Brown

Saturday, Aqueduct, post time: 3:49 p.m. EST

AQUEDUCT H., $75,000, 3yo/up, 1 1/16m

PP	HORSE	SIRE	JOCKEY	ODDS
1	Pink Viper	Smoke Glacken	Maragh	5-2

Showed promise as a juvenile, but didn't get an inch better until a full year later when he became one of several Paraneck horses in the last couple of months to improve dramatically overnight. Normally we would play against a horse that runs a big new top following a big new top, but when a barn's horses start moving up, it's tough to tell where it will end.

2	Angliana	Giant's Causeway	Garcia	8-1
---	-----------------	-------------------------	--------	-----

Developed a lot from three to four and put in a string of very strong figures before going wrong about a year ago. His recent return was just fair, but Kieran McLaughlin brings him back fast, which is a good sign, and there's a good chance he'll return to his best now. This horse also has an inside draw and one of the true rail riding jocks, so he should save ground.

3	Judiths Wild Rush	Wild Rush	Lopez	6-1
---	--------------------------	------------------	-------	-----

Is another that is second off the layoff and comes back on even shorter rest than Angliana. This horse is not what he was a couple of years ago when he was banging out negative Thoro-Graph figures, but he does have lots of good ones, and Julian Canet is very strong second off the layoff (see trainer profile).

4	Malibu Moonshine	Malibu Moon	Hill	12-1

Ran a couple of figures back over the summer that would make him competitive with these, but nothing has happened in his last six starts that would make us like him here.

5 Evening Attire Black Tie Affair (Ire) Dominguez 2-1
 Is another that has seen better days, but he did put together a solid, sound campaign last year at age nine. This gelding's last six figures are all in a one point range, and it's tough to play him to go forward now at age 10. That leaves him about a point short of really competitive here and he'll be a short price; he's tough to like.

6 Shuffling Maddnes Real Quiet Elliott 5-1
 Ran a big one in his last start at three and has yet to better that level, though he returned to it several times last year, including his last. Every time he has run a top in the past he has bounced and while he probably will pair up one of these days, it's tough to know when.

7 Sinners N Saints Saint Ballado Luzzi 8-1
 Comes from the always dangerous Rick Dutrow barn. But he has had this one for a long time, and he's never run fast enough to seriously contend here, and he drew an outside post to boot.

Bottom Line: Evening Attire taking money is what makes this one bettable. The main contenders look like the three inside horses.
