ANOTHER CHAMP FROM HASILI?

Already the dam of champions Dansili (GB), Banks Hill (GB) and Intercontinental (GB), and Grade I winners

Heat Haze (GB) and Cacique (Ire), blue hen mare Hasili (Ire) might have yet another elite runner to brag about. Juddmonte homebred Champs Elysees (GB) (Danehill) added to his family's stellar success with a decisive score in the GII San Marcos S. at Santa Anita yesterday. The bay opened his 2007 campaign with a win in the G3 Prix d'Hedouville at Longchamp and was on the board in three of his next four appearances. He capped off his European stint with a second-place finish in the Oct. 14 G1 Gran Premio del Jockey Club, then headed to the barn of trainer Bobby Frankel. Making his U.S. bow in the Dec. 8 GI Hollywood Turf Cup, he was unable to catch alone-on-the-lead Sunriver, finishing second, but he got the job done yesterday. Cont. p2

HOW'S TRICK'S?

She's doing well, to judge by yesterday's performance. Trick's Picks (Favorite Trick) suffered through a 14-month losing streak, but she ended the drought in the GIII Tuzla H. at Santa Anita, coming from just off the pace to win by two lengths. The dark bay mare captured a Saratoga allowance in 2006 and ended the season with an optional-claiming victory at Churchill in November. Winless in seven starts last term, she was third in the GIII Gallorette S. at Pimlico in May and second in the GIII Taylor Made Matchmaker S. at Monmouth in August, but capped off the campaign with a pair of off-the-board efforts, including an eighth in the Dec. 16 GII Dahlia S. Trick's Picks joined the Doug O'Neill stable after that race, and turned it around in her first outing under new management. Rated well off the pace in fourth as Unspoken Word (Catienus) led them along through six panels in 1:10.30, she closed the gap on the far turn and slipped through an opening when the field fanned out at the top of the lane, drawing off late to win handily. "Doug told me the main thing with her is to keep her nice and relaxed and to try and get her to settle," jockey Victor Espinoza said. "She came out of the gate running, but I dropped the reins and she settled on her own. The speed in the race helped me. They came back and it worked out." Chart, p2

Jockey Garrett Gomez rated Champs Elysees at the back of the closely bunched pack as Ramazutti (Honor Grade) cut out pedestrian fractions, then wheeled him to the far outside at the top of the lane. The five-year-old answered all the questions in the final furlong, powering past the leaders and edging clear. "When he got to his right lead, he just went right on with it," Gomez said. "He's a true professional." Bobby Frankel did not indicate where the winner will head next, but did say, "He can go a mile and three-quarters. This was a little short for him." ☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

WAR PASS OK AFTER BOUT OF COLIC According to Daily Racing Form, likely two-year-old champion War Pass (Cherokee Run) suffered a mild case of colic Friday and was sent to Palm Beach Equine Clinic, but returned to trainer Nick Zito's barn at Palm Meadows Saturday morning. "War Pass showed signs of abdominal discomfort with the symptoms of a mild impaction at feed time on Friday," Dr. Joseph Migliacci told DRF. "As a result, we decided to send him to the Palm Beach Equine Clinic, where he could receive maintenance fluids all evening. It was basically a precautionary measure. He passed manure all evening, had a good night, and is back to normal this morning." The colt missed a scheduled workout yesterday, but Zito expected him to be back at the track today. "He came back looking great and I'll probably send him to the track Sunday," Zito told DRF. As for War Pass's schedule, he added, "We'll just have to adapt, but better this sort of thing happened now than in March, when it could force him to miss an important race like the Wood [Memorial]."

AN ACE IN THE CLAIMING GAME

Mike Mitchell, a staple on the Southern California racing circuit since the 1970s, has enjoyed a solid training career improving horses off the claim.

The conditioner claimed Kessem Power (NZ) for $50,000 in 1997 and went on to win two graded stakes with him in 1998--the GII San Luis Rey S. and the GII San Luis Obispo H. Star Over the Bay, haltered for $80,000, won three graded stakes for Mitchell out of the box, including the 2004 GI Clement L. Hirsch Memorial Turf Championship S. On the Acorn (GB), a $40,000 claim in 2006, rattled off back-to-back wins in last term's GII San Juan Capistrano Invitational H. and GII Jim Murray Memorial H. Leprechaun Kid notched the 2005 GII Del Mar H., one start after being claimed by Mitchell for $80,000. The 59-year-old also won graded stakes with Sun Boat (GB) and Symphony Sid after claiming the duo for $50,000 apiece.

According to Brisnet, Mitchell won with 90 of 336 starters (27 percent) making their first attempts off the claim between 2002 and 2007.

"Once you get a line on the trainers and who your competitors are, you then kind of handicap them right along with the horse," Mitchell said of the claiming game. "It's the closest thing to a poker game. You don't know what the other guy's got in his hand; you don't know if he's bluffing. And that's the way I look at claiming horses. Sometimes it comes down to me taking a look at a certain horse and walking away from him. If they've got a healthy and good look about them, I might claim them right off looks. Years ago I would claim everything, but now I'm a little bit more cautious. I'm a little smarter and walk away from a lot of claims now. It's not like I have to fill up an empty stall. I just don't want to fill that stall up with a bad horse."

Mitchell posted a breakthrough season in 2004, winning 97 of 391 races and more than $3.8 million in earnings. He won the first two Grade I stakes races of his career that term with the aforementioned Star Over the Bay and Kela, who annexed the GI Bing Crosby H. at Del Mar. The latter thrived under Mitchell's care after being purchased privately and went on to finish second behind champion Speightstown in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint.

"Little by little I realized that a lot of these owners can't afford to own a horse 100 percent now," Mitchell explained. "If I put three owners together, I could claim an $80,000 horse. If I took all of those guys separately, I could probably claim a $10,000 horse for one guy, a $20,000 horse for another guy, etc. I put a lot of my owners together as partners and they all get along good. When I partner them up, I can look for a little bit more expensive horse, and that's probably what's really changed my business."

Although he has enjoyed the majority of his success in the claiming game, Mitchell also recently developed GISW Romance Is Diane and GSW Sindy With An S. The former closed out her sophomore campaign with a win in the GII Bayakoa H. She recently resurfaced to place a solid third behind the highly regarded Zenyatta in the GII El Encino S.

Mitchell worked for conditioners Farrell Jones, Ron McAnally, Willard Proctor, Loren Rettele and Jack Van Berg before going out on his own in 1974.

"When I worked for Jack, Loren Rettele was the trainer of record," he said. "Loren was a really good horseman. Farrell Jones was probably the best teacher that I had. I also spent a lot of time off and on with Proctor. They were all good horsemen in their own right and I learned a little bit from each one of them."

Mitchell's dad, Earl, was also a trainer. His brothers, Earl, Jr. and Guy, followed in their father's footsteps as well.

"My dad originally trained for Desi Arnaz and we moved to a breeding farm that Desi owned in Corona, California, and that's probably the first time I was really introduced to horses," Mitchell said. "My dad had been training, but I really hadn't been around horses. Little by little my brothers went to work for my dad and I was kind of the last one that came into the horse business. When I did, it actually worked out good for me, because my dad didn't need me, so they sent me to the farm. I was able to learn the breeding business, worked with breaking babies and worked with our 10 stallions. By numbers, we were the second largest in California. It was a good experience. It was a real good foundation for me. I think it was very helpful in developing me as a horse trainer."

Soul City Slew On the Improve...

Soul City Slew (Slew City Slew), claimed for $100,000 at Hollywood July 4, was transferred to Mitchell following a sixth-place finish going down the hill at Santa Anita in the Blue Jay Way S. Sept. 30. He completed the exacta behind Bushwacker in a $100,000 optional claimer while making his first start for Mitchell at Hollywood

Nov. 10. The bay followed with a powerful 2 1/2-length victory at that level Dec. 8 (Video), and steps up in company for Monday's GII Palos Verdes H.

"He's doing great, but I realize that I'm probably running in a Grade I race by the way it sounds," Mitchell said. "It's a full field of nice horses if they all go. He came into me in pretty good shape, soundness wise. We just took our time with him and he's doing good. He ran good in his first start for us, then we ran him again and he ran awesome. He's earned a right to run against these horses." Soul City Slew has posted five workouts since his last start, including a five-furlong move on the Hollywood Cushion in 1:03 4/5 Jan. 12.

The stalwart Seachange proved a popular winner yesterday, leading every step en route to her sixth career Group 1 score. Given a bit of a break following a runner-up effort in the G1 Captain Cook S. Oct. 27 at Wellington, the big brown mare trialled smartly going 1000 meters at Paeroa Jan. 8, and kicked off her 2008 campaign in near-world record time here. There could be bigger things on the horizon for Seachange, though. Trainer Ralph Manning named the G1 Dubai Duty Free Mar. 29 at Nad al Sheba as her main target. "This is not an aim. This is just a race which she kicks off in," he told New Zealand Thoroughbred Update prior to the Telegraph. "Her aim is Dubai. That's when we want her at her peak." Seachange is slated to run next in the 1400-meter G1 Waikato S. at Te Rapa Feb. 9.

JAMES H. STONE PASSES AWAY Owner James H. Stone, who campaigned European champion and MG1SW Ardross (Ire), GISW and GI Kentucky Derby runner-up Menifee and GSW Chamrousse, died Monday. He was 82. Born in New York City and a decorated veteran of World War II and the Korean War, Stone founded an oil company in Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1952, and turned it into the billion-dollar corporation Stone Energy Corp. He served as chairman of Stone Energy until his death. Ardross was the finest horse to carry his colors, winning the G1 Ascot Gold Cup twice, as well as the G1 Prix Royal Oak and 10 Group 2 and Group 3 events. The bay was runner-up in the 1982 G2 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe and, during his four seasons on the track, was named champion older horse in England, Ireland and France. Both Menifee and Chamrousse were owned in partnership with Arthur B. Hancock III. A longtime resident of New Orleans, Stone is survived by his wife, Joelle Rogers Stone; as well as three sons, three daughters and eight grandchildren. Memorial contributions are suggested to Toys for Tots Foundation, P.O. Box 1947, Quantico, Virginia, 22134, or the National World War II Museum, 945 Magazine Street, New Orleans, 70130.

NAKATANI INJURED IN A.M. SPILL Jockey Corey Nakatani suffered a fractured right collarbone in a spill at Hollywood Park Saturday morning. Nakatani was working a horse for trainer Kristin Mulhall when the horse broke down. He was taken to Centinela Hospital after the accident, and is likely to be sidelined two to three weeks, according to agent Craig O'Bryan. Nakatani, 37, is currently 10th in the standings at the Santa Anita meet with five wins.

DELTA JACKPOT FINISH CONTESTED The connections of Golden Yank (Yankee Gentleman), beaten just a neck when third behind dead-headers Z Humor and Turf War in the Dec. 7 GIII Delta Jackpot S. at Delta Downs, have filed a lawsuit against the Louisiana Racing Commission contesting the order of finish in that race, the Daily Racing Form reports. The suit was filed Tuesday in Lake Charles, Louisiana. Attorney Byron Bonck is representing owner/breeder Millard R. Seldin Revocable Trust and trainer Gary Thomas. Jockey Gerard Melancon, who was aboard Golden Yank as he battled between Z Humor and Turf War down the stretch in the Delta Jackpot, claimed foul after the race, alleging interference by both winners. The claim was disallowed by the stewards, and the Louisiana Racing Commission upheld that decision in a subsequent appeal. The lawsuit seeks to overturn that ruling.

HAT TRICK won impressively Gr. 1 races in Hong Kong and Japan. This horse has a very correct body frame with speed, stamina and power. His sire line is successful in the major racing countries. HAT TRICK should be the right stallion to produce horses which can perform well on both dirt and synthetic surface. Sunday Silence left the USA, but came back home through his son, Hat Trick. We are glad to have him in Kentucky.

Trainer Barclay Tagg's roster of three-year-olds is getting stronger by the day. Last year's GII Futurity S. hero Tale of Ekati (Tale of the Cat) breezed a half in :48 2/5 at Palm Meadows Wednesday. The Charles Fipke homebred hasn't raced since finishing fourth in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Oct. 27. Plans remain fluid for his 2008 opener. "We had given him a couple weeks off and shipped him up there because he likes the track better," said Tagg. On Friday, Tagg saddled ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Jockey Ridge (Broken Vow) to a sharp score in his second start at Gulfstream. "He is a quality three-year-old," Tagg said of Alan Cook's colorbearer. "I don't know yet if he's Triple Crown horse quality, but he certainly is worth thinking about." Tagg also has yesterday's eight-length graduate Elysium Fields (El Prado {Ire}), and Big Truck (Hook and Ladder), who finished fourth in the seven-panel GII Hutcheson S. Jan. 5. "I really didn't want to turn him back to seven furlongs, but I didn't really have a lot of options," the conditioner explained of that effort. "I also don't think he cared very much for the slop that day."

The lightly raced Angliana won two straight optional claimers at Delaware in the fall of 2006, but failed to visit the winner's circle in his next six starts. He faced the starter twice in 2007, completing the exacta in the GIII Aqueduct H. Jan. 20 and finishing third behind Evening Attire in the Stymie H. Mar. 3. Favored at 3-5 to fire fresh off the bench in a $40,000 optional claimer at Philly Park last time Jan. 1, he finished second. With Alan Garcia in the irons here, he was well back in third as Pink Viper (Smoke Glacken) and Judiths Wild Rush vied for the early lead. The six-year-old began to rally three wide on the turn for home, took over in deep stretch and had the race won as Evening Attire came flying to earn the runner-up spot. "Alan [Garcia] gave him a great ride," assistant trainer Art Magnuson said. "This horse can fall behind very easily, but Alan kept him close. He's one of our old favorites at the barn. We didn't think he'd run again after the spring. He had a cyst in his sinus, and a couple of vets said he'd never run again. He had a great prep for this at Philly. I was looking at the big gray horse behind us in the stretch. This was really, really great."

CLOSETOATEN (f, 3, Unbridled's Song--Solid Eight {SW, $111,570}, by Fit to Fight), a half-sister to Euchre (Personal Flag), MGSW, $894,920, tired to sixth at first asking Nov. 7 at Churchill, but turned it around next out. The grey posted a front-running tally at Turfway Dec. 14 and was the 5-2 second choice this time. Unhurried early, she made a four-wide bid entering the stretch and drove past Cape Discovery (Cape Town) en route to a 1 1/2-length success. A $230,000 KEESEP yearling, she is also a half to Louie the Lucky (Saratoga Six), SW, $248,295; and C. C. On Ice (Hansel), SW, $207,819. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $34,130.

O-Carl F Pollard. B-Gaines-Gentry Thoroughbreds (KY). T-David R Vance.

8th-FGX, $40,000, Msw, 4&5yo, f/m, 1 1/16m (off turf), 1:48 1/5, sy.

PARRIS HILL (f, 4, A.P. Indy--Felicita, by Rubiano), a half-sister to Take Charge Lady (Dehere), MGSW, $2,480,377, rallied for the runner-up spot at Woodbine in her debut Dec. 7. Bet down to even-money this time, the Melnyk homebred saved ground early and angled three wide turning for home. Rider Patrick Husbands dropped his stick and stood up in his irons as he apparently misjudged the finish, but the grey was undeterred and made it to the line a neck in front of Pathologist (Gone West). Parris Hill is also a half to Eventail (Lear Fan), MSW & GSP, $300,895; and a 3/4-sister to Commendation (Capote), SW & MGSP, $315,738. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $35,288.

O-Melnyk Racing Stables Inc. B-Eugene Melnyk (ON). T-Mark E Casse.

6th-OPX, $33,000, Msw, 3yo, 5 1/2f, 1:06 1/5, ft.

BON JOVI BOY (c, 3, Not For Love--Instant Shopper, by D'Accord), a $100,000 FTMMAY two-year-old, finished seventh, beaten 23 1/4 lengths facing Empire-breds in his Belmont debut Oct. 20. Adding blinkers for his sophomore bow, the 6-1 chance was never far back after breaking from the 10 hole, and came with a steady rally in the stretch to take it by 3/4 of a length over 3-1 choice Rockin' Ronny (Seneca Jones). The victor is a full to Shopping For Love, MSW & MGSP, $613,669 and a half to Shoppers Gold (Gold Seam), SW, $176,314. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $19,984. O-Blaze of Glory Stable, Timothy F Ritchey & Carol Zacney. B-Frank Mancini (NY). T-Timothy F Ritchey.

Prince Cortez debuted for Equest Racing Stable and trainer Ronald Allen with a 3 1/2-length victory at Mountaineer Oct. 28, then posted a 3 3/4-length allowance tally at Tampa Dec. 8. Purchased privately following that effort, the bay resurfaced as the favorite here while making his first start for his new connections. Kept close to the leaders in third, he took over on the turn for home and coasted home to a two-length victory.

A + will first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

Colonel John Back on Work Tab:

Colonel John (Tiznow), runner-up in the Dec. 22 GI Hollywood Futurity, had his first breeze since that race at Santa Anita yesterday, going an easy half in :50.60. The three-year-old, winner of the Real Quiet S. in November, is pointing for the Mar. 1 GIII Sham S. "It was his first work, and I'll crank him up from here on for the Sham," trainer Eoin Harty said. "He was just stretching his legs, that's all." Another Triple Crown candidate, GISP Maimonides (Vindication), went six panels in 1:11.40 out of the gate at Santa Anita yesterday. The Bob Baffert trainee was forced to skip the Jan. 12 GIII San Rafael S. after his workout routine was disrupted by the bad weather in Southern California. It has not yet been announced when he will make his sophomore bow.

TOC Outlines Auction Sales Policies:

The Thoroughbred Owners of California issued a press release Friday endorsing a series of proposed recommendations by its Medication & Integrity Committee regarding auction sales practices. The TOC Board of Directors was unanimous in its support of the proposals during its December meeting, and sent letters to the leading sales companies, as well as the Sales Integrity Task Force, encouraging the adoption of its recommendations. TOC is backing a ban on anabolic steroids, full disclosure of ownership, full disclosure of all medical procedures and surgeries and the licensing of consignors and agents.

HAL J. EARNHARDT III

Accomplishment: Hal and his wife Patti bred and own likely juvenile filly champ Indian Blessing (Indian Charlie), the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies heroine who returned Jan. 13 to dig in and prevail in the GII Santa Ynez S. at Santa Anita despite setting blistering fractions. Her final time for the seven-furlong race, 1:19.89, set a new track record.

Birthplace: Mesa, Arizona Birthdate: Mar. 20, 1956

Education: Central Arizona College, rodeo scholarship

Family: Wife Patti, children Dodge, Daisy, Derby and Dream; granddaughter Presly, grandson Hal J. Earnhardt V (baby Tex)

Principal business: President of Earnhardt Auto Centers

Current residence: Beautiful Queen Creek, Arizona, with acreage full of Black Angus head and plenty of room for roping horses.

You're a fan of motorcycles. Do you still ride? I don't ride anymore. After having back surgery I would rather take my chances with roping and riding (horses). And, of course, I golf when I can.

How often do you get a chance to ride? Almost everyday. As a matter of fact, I just redid my roping arena. I've been team roping a lot lately.

Favorite car of all time? I like lots of cars in my business; there are so many to choose from it's hard to have a favorite. But I especially love trucks. I drive a 2008 Toyota Land Cruiser and a Dodge dually 1ton.

What are some of the charities you are involved with? I'm involved with The Child Crisis Center, as well as multiple charity events involving children in my community.

If you could have dinner with one historical figure, who would it be, and why? I would have to say Elvis Presley. I have a granddaughter who is named after him (Presly) and her horse is named Elvis.

What's playing on your CD player right now? Believe it or not, I have Nickelback--All the Right Reasons.

Most fascinating backstretch character you've met? Well, I guess I haven't really met one yet! BOBBY!

Favorite sports team? My son's basketball teams growing up.

What's your beverage of choice? My favorite choice of beverage is ice tea, a great merlot, or a cold Coors.

Favorite food or meal? This would be my grandmother's open face enchiladas, or a great steak anytime.

Predictions for the NFL playoffs? Indian Blessing and the Patriots!

CONGRATULATIONS!

from Fasig-Tipton's own Graded Stakes-Winning Stars of the Week:

ADMIRAL DUNDAS (IRE) (c, 3, Noverre--Brandish {GB}, by Warning {GB}), fifth on debut at this track in December, was sent off the 2-1 favorite. The bay colt raced under restraint on the heels of the leaders early. Rallying wide in the stretch, the 36,000gns DONSEP yearling ground out the win in the shade of the post, where he had a short head to spare over Mischief Making (Lemon Drop Kid). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £1,846.

XCELLENT INJURED Two-time New Zealand Horse of the Year Xcellent (NZ) (Pentire {GB}--Excelo {NZ}, by Centro {NZ}) crossed the line a comfortable winner in yesterday's G3 Trentham S. at Wellington, but was pulled up instead of completing his gallop-out, according to published reports. Jockey Michael Coleman immediately dismounted from the six-year-old, who walked back under his own power. Trainer Paul Moroney told NZPA, "The first prognosis is it's something like a cracked cannon bone, a sesamoid or something in the joint." While Xcellent has been plagued by tendon troubles since finishing third in the 2005 G1 Melbourne Cup, Moroney said, "It doesn't look like it is the tendons at all." The champion's lifetime record currently stands at 13-8-1-1 with earnings of NZ$1,643,325. Among his biggest wins were the G1 Kelt Capital S., G1 Darley S. and G1 Mudgway S. in 2005 and the 2004 G1 New Zealand Derby.
