ASIATIC BOY, DIABOLICAL RETURN IN DUBAI

With his victory in last July's GII A.G. Vanderbilt H. at Saratoga, Diabolical (Artax) staked his claim as one of America's elite sprinters. But not long after, Diabolical was purchased from Puglisi Stables and co-owner and trainer Steve Klesaris by Sheikh Mohammed, who announced the four-year-old would not run in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint and instead target the 2008 G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen on the World Cup undercard. Diabolical, now five, reappears in today's G3 Al Shindagha Sprint at Nad Al Sheba and takes his first steps toward the Shaheen. "He is a nice horse who has been working well, but will certainly benefit from the run," said his new conditioner, Saeed bin Suroor. "His form is good and we are hoping for a big effort." Diabolical will be competing in the royal blue colors of Godolphin and will be up against a tough opponent in Asiatic Boy (Arg) (Not For Sale {Arg}). It looked as if the sky was the limit for the South American-bred colt last year when he became the first horse to win the UAE Triple Crown, a run that included a nearly 10-length romp in the G2 UAE Derby. But Asiatic Boy was unable to transfer that form to turf and he failed to make an impact in two efforts in England last summer, running fourth to Ramonti (Fr) in the G1 Sussex S. and fifth to Authorized (Ire) in the G1 Juddmonte International. Trainer Mike de Kock is hoping this return to the dirt can act as a springboard not for the Golden Shaheen, but for the big prize on World Cup day. "The Dubai World Cup is his aim and we intend to run him twice at the Carnival in preparation--this being the first one," he explained.

DISTAFF HAS PLENTY OF PUNCH

As expected, recently crowned champion older female Ginger Punch (Awesome Again) will kick off her five-year-old season in the Sunshine Millions Distaff at Gulfstream Saturday. Since her game victory in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff Oct. 27, Ginger Punch has posted seven workouts at Hollywood Park, including a four-furlong move in :48 1/5 Jan. 22. "She's looking way better," trainer Bobby Frankel told Daily Racing Form. "She had time to get weight on. At the end of last year, she was pretty light. She's not a big filly, and doesn't carry a whole lot of weight."

MOTT LOADED FOR SPRING CLASSICS Bill Mott, trainer of GI Kentucky Derby hopefuls Court Vision (Gulch), Majestic Warrior (A. P. Indy) and Z Humor (Distorted Humor), has begun mapping out plans for his top sophomores. Majestic Warrior, winner of the GI Hopeful S., worked three furlongs in :39 4/5 at Payson Jan. 19. The move was the bay's first workout since a sixth-place finish in the GI Champagne S. Oct. 6. He was placed on the shelf due to a hoof-wall separation. "If things go smoothly, he should be ready to run in March, so anything in March is a possibility," Mott told Daily Racing Form. "We probably want to go a mile plus."

Court Vision
Adam Coglianese

Following a second-place finish in his debut at Turfway, Court Vision rattled off three straight victories last term, including the GII Remsen S. last out Nov. 24. He has posted two workouts at Payson since--a three-furlong move in :37 2/5 Jan. 17 and a four-furlong breeze in :52 4/5 yesterday.

According to DRF, Court Vision is being pointed toward the GII Fountain of Youth S. at Gulfstream Feb. 24. Z Humor, last seen dead-heating for a victory in GIII Delta Jackpot S. Dec. 7, will start next in Tampa Bay's Sam Davis S. Feb. 16.

CURLIN'S OWNERSHIP STATUS STILL IN LIMBO FOLLOWING HEARING

The ownership of Horse of the Year Curlin (Smart Strike) remained unchanged following a hearing in a Kentucky state court Tuesday, according to published reports. During the hearing, Judge Roger Crittenden ruled that it was premature to foreclose on Shirley Cunningham, Jr. and William Gallion's Tandy LLC. Tandy LLC, the parent company of Midnight Cry Stable, has a 20 percent interest in Curlin. The remaining 80 percent is owned by Jess Jackson's Stonestreet Stables. Cunningham and Gallion remain jailed while awaiting a criminal trial regarding fraud charges. Another hearing has been scheduled for Feb. 19.

OVERSIGHT BOARD CHAIRMAN LOSES

UNILATERAL POWER Following a 4-1 vote Tuesday, the Non-Profit Racing Association Oversight Board now requires a majority of the board to approve any extension regarding the New York Racing Association's franchise, according to published reports. Previously, chairman Steven Newman had unilateral power to negotiate temporary extensions. "I don't think it's particularly helpful," Newman told Daily Racing Form. "I will obviously honor the resolution, but I honestly don't know what we will do if there is an extension and you have a problem with it. So be it." NYRA is currently operating Aqueduct on a second short-term extension which expires Feb. 13.
