RECORD PRICE AT KARAKA'S SELECT SALE

For the second day in a row, a new record price was achieved at the New Zealand Bloodstock Sale at Karaka. Yesterday, a son of first-season sire Scaredee Cat (NZ) (Tale of the Cat) went for NZ$300,000 to Auckland-based Peter Walker. The bay colt, out of My Kinda Girl (NZ) (Mi Preferido), hailed from the Valachi Downs draft as lot 849. Scaredee Cat captured the G2 Ascot Vale S. at three before entering the breeding shed at Waikato Stud. Less than 50 lots later, another colt by a Waikato stallion also surpassed the previous day's record. Lot 898, a son of the venerable O'Reilly (NZ), was purchased for NZ$280,000 by Singapore buyer Jayven See. Consigned by Longlands Stud, the brown colt is the third foal from Poppies Last (NZ) (Masterclass), a half-sister to the dam of the highly rated Satinka (NZ). The highest-priced filly at Thursday's session was lot 722, a NZ$220,000 daughter of Cape Cross (Ire) purchased by Robbie Heweston. Consigned by Curraghmore Stud, the Australian-bred bay is out of Indian Dream (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}), who hails from the famed *Rough Shod family. In all, 13 yearlings have surpassed NZ$200,000 at this sale, compared with just one last year. With one session remaining in the Select Sale, 326 yearlings have sold for an aggregate NZ$20,405,000, with an average of NZ$62,592 and a median of NZ$50,000. The clearance rate thus far is 80 percent. The sale's final session gets underway today at 11 a.m. Selling at Karaka will continue with the Festival Sale on Sunday and Monday. Complete results and catalogues are available on www.nzb.co.nz.

When Brass Hat (Prized) attempts to defend his title in Saturday's GI Donn H., he will carry the hopes of the Bradley family, who has been plying their trade on the Kentucky circuit for over 40 years.

Brass Hat & Buff Bradley

Based at the family owned and operated Indian Creek Farm in Frankfort, Kentucky, William 'Buff' Bradley received his early education while working for his father Fred Bradley. He got his start on the farm at the age of 10 and was involved in every aspect of the farm, including foaling mares, breaking and training yearlings, sales preps, and galloping layups. While tending to daily operations at the racing center, Bradley took night classes at Kentucky State University, graduating in 1989 with a degree in business management. Following his graduation, Bradley went to work as an assistant to trainer Clarence Picou. During his four-year tenure with the midwest trainer, Bradley was responsible for overseeing Picou's strings at Remington, Oaklawn and Louisiana Downs. Most notable among the horses under his care was Free Spirit's Joy, who scored his biggest win for the team in the 1991 GI Super Derby.

Launching his own training career in November of 1993, Bradley handled a few horses for the late John Franks, who won the Eclipse Award in 1994 as outstanding owner. With father Fred firmly behind him since the onset, Bradley gradually began to build upon the depth and quality of horses under his care.

Brass Hat & Fred Bradley
www.buffracing.com

"[Franks] was the only person I had horses for when I first went out, and then I kind of expanded from there," explained Bradley. "I had horses with my father the whole time. He didn't have any good enough to run on the Kentucky circuit at the time, but we tried to upgrade the stock, and now we can compete in Kentucky."

Bradley and his wife Kim (who manages Indian Ridge), and their three children, Kory, Drew and Jett, reside at the Kentucky farm, which boards about 50 horses, primarily broodmares, yearlings and layups for Bradley's clients. Whether scouting the local sales for increasingly better racing stock for clients, or building a stronger band for Indian Ridge, Bradley's push to upgrade the operation's breeding stock paid dividends with the birth of Brass Hat, who was foaled in 2001.

"My dad and I foaled him, so I've been with him since he took his first breath," Bradley said. "We really appreciate that. We had him from the word go. He was kind of small early on and he didn't have the greatest conformation. We knew that we needed to give him some time to mature. We didn't start training him until his late two-year-old year."

All that Glitters is..Brass?

Unveiled early in his sophomore season, Brass Hat, campaigned by Fred Bradley, scored third time out in the Rushaway S. before finishing runner up to subsequent GISW Prince Arch in the Forerunner S. on the grass at Keeneland. A solid fourth behind future turf champion Kitten's Joy in the GIII American Turf S. at Churchill Downs, Brass Hat collected his biggest wins later in the season, taking the GII Ohio Derby and GII Indiana Derby. Exiting a ninth-place finish in the GIII Lone Star Derby with a condylar fracture, the gelding spent the next 11 months on the sidelines.

"They told us we had to give him lots of time off," said Bradley. "They told us we shouldn't expect for him to come back the way he was before, and they were right; he came back even better. We had two screws put in, but we ended up removing the top screw and left the bottom screw in."

After only a pair of starts in 2005, including a victory in the Prairie Bayou S. on the Polytrack at Turfway, the bay kicked off the 2006 season with a vengeance, taking the GII New Orleans H. followed by Gulfstream's GI Donn H. cont. p3

Poised for bigger and better things for his next start in the G1 Dubai World Cup, he found only

Electrocutionist too good, and was beaten just 1 1/2 lengths. Connections felt they followed Dubai's local rules concerning prohibited medication, but the gelding came up positive for Depa-Medrol after his Dubai appearance and was subsequently stripped of his second-place finish and purse money.

"It was great experience to go over there," Bradley said. "We thought we had a very good shot of winning and he ran really well to be second. A week later the test came back bad and, after appealing the issue, it turned out to be a no-win situation. It's unfortunate, because he didn't have any medication in him at all, and never has. That experience really hurt a lot of people in our stable, but we just had to move on."

Faced with one more race in the summer of 2006--the GI Stephen Foster H. at Churchill Downs--Brass Hat weakened to fifth and was later discovered to have sustained a fractured sesamoid to his right leg. He was once again forced to the sidelines, this time for 13 months.

"He came back in an allowance [$100,000 optional-claimer win at Churchill Downs, July 8, 2007] and hooked Student Council, and broke a 37-year-old track record," the trainer said. "He was in pretty strong form for that."

Should the seven-year-old run as expected Saturday, Bradley indicated that the next stop would likely be the Mar. 8 GII New Orleans H., followed by the GII Oaklawn H. Apr. 5. After that, the Kentucky horseman indicated the possibility of returning the gelding to the turf.

"We have't ruled out putting him back on the grass," he said. "He's bred for it. I think he would run well. Anytime that I ran him on the grass, it wasn't really the opportune time to run him; they weren't really races we were pointing for. I think he likes a good, firm footing. If he gets a hold of it, he runs. That's why I would never rule out the grass, maybe sometime in the summer."

While Bradley is reluctant to look too far ahead given the delicate nature of the old warrior's legs, he was quick to add that retiring the stable's biggest star would be just fine by him.

"He's 100 percent right now," Bradley offered. "He's prone to have problems; we hoped he would come back, but we never expected him to come back like he has. But if he didn't get to race anymore, as long as we could turn him out at the farm and he could have a good life there, we'd be OK with that. It has been very special for both of us. We appreciate it because we know how hard it is to get a horse like this. We have both gone our whole lives without having a horse like this, it makes it very special."

Canadian-born owner Mike Tarp said he doesn't run his racing operation like a business. That's fine, but Tarp may soon be fielding questions from owners who do if he keeps making savvy purchases like American County. Tarp picked up the modestly bred American County, a daughter of the young stallion Gibson County, for $65,000 at the 2007 OBS February Two-Year-Olds in Training Sale. Last Saturday, American County rewarded Tarp with a mild upset in the $250,000 Sunshine Millions Oaks.

Eleanor Gustafson

"That was probably my biggest win," said Tarp. "Running for a quarter of a million dollars? I've never done that before." The victory was the third for the Dale Romans-trained American County, who boosted her career earnings to $241,299, and was the first major stakes score for Tarp, who has been in the game for about 10 years now.

"For me, it's a hobby. It's sport," Tarp said recently from his winter home in Spring Hill, Florida, about a half hour north of Tampa by car. "It's fun and gives me something to do in the wintertime."

Tarp got his start in racing in Calgary, Alberta, where he owns Renfrew Chrysler, one of the biggest Chrysler dealerships in Canada.

"I always wanted to do it, so I finally just took the plunge," he explained.

At first, he campaigned a few inexpensive horses at local tracks, but five years ago he began to upgrade his stock and moved his stable to trainer Dale Romans.

"I have a house in Calgary, but my wife Margaret and I spend the winters in Florida, and I wanted to be able to see my horses run," said Tarp. "The rest of the year, we race at Churchill, Keeneland and Saratoga."

Some of his better horses have included the stakes-placed Mister Deux (Mister Jolie), a $190,000 OBSFEB purchase in 2002, who at first asking beat Peace Rules in a Saratoga maiden, and who later won an allowance race at Gulfstream.

Tarp also campaigned Vibs (Beau Genius), runner-up to Awesome Humor in the 2002 GIII Debutante S. at Churchill Downs. Tarp acquired Vibs as a $150,000 FTFEB juvenile.

"I've only bought two-year-olds in training," he said. "I've never bought a yearling. The reason I like the two-year-old sales is that you can get them out of the gate pretty quickly after the sales. Plus you get a chance to see them under tack."

Tarp said his racing stable now numbers around five or six, all of whom are with Romans. Tarp has also entered the breeding game, although somewhat reluctantly.

Six years ago, he purchased a Tale of the Cat filly named Magibel for $260,000 as a juvenile.

"She never did much, but Dale talked me into breeding her," Tarp said. "I didn't really want to go there, because I'm into racing, but Dale figured, for what we paid for her and what she was worth at that point, that we might as well take a shot on the other end. She's a baby factory now. She's produced two foals, one of which is a two-year-old this year--Maggis Lass. She's from the first crop of Tenpins."

Tarp said Maggis Lass is now in training in South Carolina, and he is hoping to see her at Keeneland or Churchill later this spring.

As for American County, Tarp and Romans have not yet picked out a spot for her. But one thing's for sure when she does race again: she'll be all business.

month break, trainer John Sadler told Daily Racing Form Wednesday. "Our goal is was the La Brea and the Sunshine Millions," he told DRF, emphasizing that the four-year-old filly is not injured. Thrown into $10,000 claiming company last April, the bay rounded out the season with four consecutive victories, including the GI La Brea S. at Santa Anita Dec. 29. The Florida-bred is expected to make her next start in the 6 1/2-furlong GIII Las Flores H. Apr. 6. Also likely to get a breather following her Sunshine Millions' effort is Nashoba's Key (Silver Hawk). Runner-up to Quite a Bride in the Filly and Mare Turf, the bay may return to action in the GI Santa Margarita H. Mar. 9. According to Carla Gaines, progress on the track re-surfacing at Santa Anita will influence her decision. "[She'll start] if the main track is nice after they do all that stuff to it," she told DRF.

HPC BAN IN EFFECT As of today, hydroxyprogesterone caproate (HPC), the substance at the centre of Takeover Target (Aus)'s controversial scratching from the G1 Hong Kong International Sprint in 2006, will be banned in Australia. The Australian Racing Board determined last July that Australia should begin testing for HPC, but, to ensure the industry was given ample notification, it elected not to start screening for it until Feb. 1. "From Friday we'll be running screens on a fairly significant number of blood samples just to test the waters," Racing NSW Chief Steward Ray Murrhiy said. "Although there is no evidence of HPC being used, we just warn trainers that testing will commence from Friday." Murrhiy said any horse that tested positive to HPC after Friday would incur an automatic disqualification, and the trainer would also be subject to penalty.

MISS FINLAND RETURNS Multiple Group 1 winner Miss Finland (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) will make her first start since November in Saturday's G1 Coolmore Lightning S. at Flemington, the first leg of the Global Sprint Challenge. The A$502,500 feature, which is contested over 1000 meters, is Australia's lone Group 1 event at that distance. In recent years, the Lightning has become the launching pad for Australian gallopers heading for international glory. Recent winners Choisir (Aus) (2003), Takeover Target (Aus) (2006) and Miss Andretti (Aus) (2007) all followed up their Flemington success with victory in England. Miss Finland has not faced the starter since finishing fifth in the 2000-meter G1 Mackinnon S. over 2000 meters Nov. 3. It will be her first start over the minimum trip since she won her career debut in January 2006. Her program this autumn will encompass the A$1-million Newmarket H. over 1200 meters at Flemington Mar. 8. She faces the likes of Gold Edition (Aus) (Lion Hunter {Aus}) among her nine rivals.

YANKEE BRAVO POSSIBLE FOR SHAM Yankee Bravo (Yankee Gentlemen), winner of the California Derby last Sunday, may make his next start in the Mar. 1 Sham S. at Santa Anita, according to trainer Paddy Gallagher. Undeclared in three starts, the colt kicked off his career with a maiden win in England before scoring in the Eddie Logan S. on the turf Dec. 29. "That was only his third race," Gallagher told Daily Racing Form. "You hope he can step up. I suppose we'll talk it over with the [owners]."

RMTC ENDORSES DEADLINE FOR STEROID

RULES The Racing Medication and Testing Consortium Thursday announced it is endorsing a Dec. 31, 2008 deadline for the nationwide adoption of model rules on the use of anabolic steroids in racehorses. Several racing jurisdictions have announced plans to implement race-day bans on anabolic steroids, but there have been many questions regarding legal thresholds and testing procedures. In an effort to resolve these concerns, the RMTC is funding research at the University of Florida Pharmacokinetics Laboratory that is expected to establish threshold levels and withdrawal times for both urine and plasma. The study will be completed in August. RMTC co-Vice Chairman and Thoroughbred Racing Associations President Chris Scherf said, "We realized that there are testing and logistical issues individual state racing commissions must work through before adopting this anabolic steroid model rule and implementing the penalty phase, but RMTC believes every racing jurisdiction should be strictly enforcing the regulation of anabolic steroids by the end of 2008." There have also been questions regarding penalties for anabolic steroid positives. RMTC and Racing Commissioners International have recommended a $500 fine and disqualification of the horse for the first violation; a $1,000 fine, disqualification and a 15-day trainer suspension for the second violation in a 365-day period; and a $2,500 fine, disqualification and 30-day trainer suspension for the third violation in a 365-day period. Penalties could be adjusted according to circumstances. Alan Foreman, CEO of the Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association and RMTC's co-Vice Chairman, stated, "This is a very emotional issue on all sides. It needs to be handled carefully, responsibly and uniformly. The next 11 months will give the entire industry sufficient time to address the testing and regulatory issues that need to be resolved and allow for the necessary adjustments. A national regulation and control of steroid use in racehorses, effective Jan. 1, 2009, would be a monumental achievement for the racing industry, and we should work in cooperation to realize this goal."

TURF WAR PREPS FOR SOUTHWEST Woodford Racing LLC's Turf War (Dixie Union), scheduled to make his 2008 bow in the Southwest S. at Oaklawn Feb. 18, prepped for that test at the Ocala Breeders' Training

Turf War (outside) Coady Photography

Center yesterday morning. The three-year-old breezed five furlongs in :59 1/5, galloping out six panels in 1:12 1/5. "That definitely was an 'A' work," trainer Mark Casse said. "Now we'll breeze him once more, then van him to Hot Springs eight or nine days before the Southwest. We'll have Calvin [Borel] breeze him an easy half at Oaklawn, and that should bring him up to the race in good order." A $100,000 KEESEP yearling, Turf War broke his maiden at Woodbine in his second start and came back to take the Swynford S. at the Toronto oval. Sixth when making his two-turn bow in the GIII Grey BC S. in October, he capped off the campaign with a dead-heat score in the Dec. 7 GIII Delta Jackpot Challenge and has earned $518,548 to date.

Pfizer and NTRA Join Forces:

Pfizer Animal Health and the National Thoroughbred Racing Association have joined forces to help fund laminitis research through the NTRA Charities--Barbaro Memorial Fund. The partnership's aim is to increase awareness of the Fund in the horse industry and encourage further support of cutting edge research into laminitis prevention and treatment. "Laminitis is a potentially devastating disease that affects horses at all levels of equine sports and across disciplines--from great Thoroughbred champions like Barbaro, right on to recreational horses loved by their riders and owners," said Kristin Ruff, marketing manager of U.S. equine business at Pfizer Animal Health. "We wanted to help raise awareness of the Fund's mission and encourage all kinds of horse people to donate what they can toward finding a cure." Alex Waldrop, president and CEO of the NTRA, added, "Pfizer's generous contribution and commitment to promote the NTRA Charities--Barbaro Memorial Fund will help further his legacy, both as a courageous and gifted racehorse and as the inspiration for promising new research on equine health." Information on Barbaro's legacy, as well as how to get involved with the Barbaro Memorial Fund and make a donation, can be found online at RidingwithBarbaro.org.

BRAVO TAKES JOCKEY CHAMPIONSHIP IN PERU

Jockey Joe Bravo beat out a field including Edgar Prado, Eibar Coa, Alan Garcia and Rafael Bejarano

to take the 2008 International Jockeys Championship-Robalco at Monterrico in Peru Tuesday. Bravo captured the last two races in the four-race event to earn a total of 20 points, taking home top prize of $8,000. Peruvian rider Carlos Trujillo was second with 17 points, and Bejarano finished third with 13. Garcia garnered four points, Coa had two and Prado was shut out. "Peru is a marvelous country and its racetrack is magnificent," Bravo said. "I felt right at home and I am very proud to have earned the championship." Bravo, 36, has won an unprecedented 13 riding titles at Monmouth Park.

DBS JANUARY CLOSES ON A HIGH

Doncaster Bloodstock Sales bade farewell to its Carr House Road complex after 45 years with yesterday's rousing finale to the three-day January Sale. The overall sale-topping price was registered by the winning three-year-old filly Blue Rocket (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), who was knocked down to Michael Owen Enterprises for 150,000 guineas. Consigned as hip 483 by Willie McKay's Martin Grange Stables, the G3 Nell Gwyn S. placegetter will enter the breeding operation run by the England soccer star from his Cheshire base. "What a wonderful way to end 45 extremely happy and successful years of trading from the Sales Paddocks, Carr House Road, Doncaster," commented DBS managing director Henry Beeby. "A top price of 150,000 guineas was beyond the wildest dreams of the founding members of DBS--Willie Stephenson and Ken Oliver--when they launched DBS with a combined kitty of £150 in May 1962. We have had a long and successful journey since that fateful day, and no one could have envisaged the progress that has been made in that time. We are proud that DBS is now an international player on the world stage, but maintains its very welcoming, personal approach that has been the hallmark of our success. We cannot wait to move to our new custom-built sales complex, but guarantee our many clients that the DBS personal service will remain undimmed. Trade this week has plainly reflected the state of the market but, before the gloom-and-doom merchants get carried away, it should be noted that our NH Foal Sale returned record figures yesterday combined with a highly respectable clearance rate. Yes, the industry faces many challenges, but we think it is vitally important that we retain as much positivity as possible. The bloodstock market relies on such an approach, and it is vitally important things are kept in perspective. Finally, on behalf of all the team at DBS, past and present, I would like to thank every single visitor to the DBS Sales Paddocks since May 1962 for their patronage, support, business, encouragement and friendship. It has always been fun to do business here, but no one can stand still. We look forward to the next chapter with huge anticipation." The sales company is set to move to a new £6-million venue in time for its Breeze-Up Sale Mar. 26 when a new commission structure--which charges 6 percent to purchasers and 1.5 percent to consignors--is put in place. The purpose-built complex will include more than 500 stables, a sales building which contains the auction arena and a further building which provides veterinary facilities as well as a grooms' canteen and showers. MEURICE PUT DOWN Last season's top juvenile Meurice (Aus) (Strategic {Aus}--Espadon {Aus}, by Danehill), winner of the G1 Champagne S. last April, shattered his near-side shoulder during trackwork Thursday morning and was euthanized at Randwick Equine Centre. "He was a supreme athlete and it is the saddest day of my career," trainer Gai Waterhouse said. She added, "Meurice had the most wonderful, open personality, the nicest of natures...When the veterinarian told us that he could not be saved, the boys and girls who have had the pleasure of working with this colt were devastated." Purchased last August by Darley, the bay compiled a record of 7-3-2-2 and earnings of A$970,300. He was preparing for his sophomore bow, having been sidelined during spring in the aftermath of the EI pandemic. Meurice recorded two stakes placings for Rodney Douglas before being switched to Waterhouse in Sydney. He promptly won the G2 Todman S. before finishing third behind Forensics (Aus) and Zizou (Aus) in the G1 Golden Slipper S. Runner-up to Camarilla (Aus) in the G1 Sires' Produce S. Apr. 7, Meurice turned the tables a week later by defeating that filly in the G1 Champagne S. Meurice was produced by the Danehill mare Espadon, a half-sister to Australian standout Rubiton (Aus).

INGLIS ANNOUNCES INITIATIVES William Inglis & Son Ltd has announced several new vendor-friendly incentives for breeding stock sales, whilst also retaining the popular incentive introduced last year: the commission-free sale of mares making A$100,000 or more at the Australian Easter Broodmare Sale May 4-6. The incentives will also apply to fillies, mares and weanlings sold at The Great Southern Sale to be held in May, and the Australian Weanling & Breeding Stock Sale, to be held in Sydney in late June. "We will be committed to funding international buyers to attend the sale, and have the ace up our sleeve with our new Live Internet Bidding Service that will allow our sale to reach a worldwide audience who can also take part in the auction," said Inglis Managing Director Mark Webster. There are four new initiatives this year, including the introduction of a pair of select sessions at the broodmare sale; the sale of imported mares covered on Southern Hemisphere time, and a special quarantine-approved session of these mares will be offered during the sale; the Family Deal, which will allow a weanling to be sold commission free at the Australian Weanling & Breeding Stock Sale June 26-30 if the dam was sold at either the Australian Easter Broodmare Sale or the Australian Breeding Stock Sale; and the Inglis Rollover, which allows for a broodmare/race mare that was passed in or withdrawn from the Australian Easter Broodmare Sale can have free entry to the Australian Weanling & Breeding Stock Sale.
