O'NEILL 'SPRINGS' DONN UPSET

Spring at Last (Silver Deputy) had faced the starter only once since his victory in last March's G2 Godolphin Mile, but that's all the conditioning the five-year-old needed to hang on for a half-length victory over A. P. Arrow (A.P. Indy) in yesterday's GI Donn H. at Gulfstream Park. Breaking from the one hole with Eibar Coa aboard, he pressed 4-5 favorite Daaher (Awesome Again) through an opening quarter of :22.95 before backing off. Placed in a perfect spot just off the pace as the heavy chalk duked it out through splits of :46.26 and 1:09.72, Spring at Last swung out three wide on the turn for home, took a decisive lead in the stretch and was saved by the wire after becoming a bit leg weary late. Daaher tired to finish a well-beaten seventh. Cont. p2

A 'THORN' IN THEIR SIDE

B. Wayne Hughes' Crown of Thorns (Repent), a seven-length maiden winner going seven furlongs at Santa Anita on New Year's Day, threw his hat in the ring for Triple Crown consideration with a sharp score in yesterday's GII Robert B. Lewis S. at Santa Anita. With Victor Espinoza in the irons for his two-turn debut here, he was a bit headstrong in the early stages while third as Meal Penalty (Tale of the Cat) set fractions of :23.32 and :47.85. Guided through an opening along the rail nearing the turn for home, Crown of Thorns bullied his way to the front, but was quickly challenged by Coast Guard (Stormy Atlantic) entering the home stretch. Given his cue by Espinoza, Crown of Thorns found another gear, drawing away impressively to score by 2 1/2 lengths over Coast Guard. Meal Penalty tired to finish last of five. "This horse does everything right," Espinoza said. "There was just a little opening and we got lucky and got through. I was a little worried about using him early, so when we made the lead, I just sat still on him. This horse is getting better with every race, and he can do anything. I really think we could put him on the lead and win that way too." Cont. p3

“He broke perfect from the gate, but I was a little worried because he was a little sharp at the beginning,” Coa explained. “He was about a half-length too close, but then he came back to me. I found my way out on the turn and just let him be. Then he took the lead in the stretch. This was the first time I’ve ridden this horse since he just shipped in from California. [Trainer Doug O’Neill] told me that he would be sharp and to try to get him back and then let him be, just like it happened.” According to O’Neill, Spring at Last will be heading back to Dubai for World Cup Day.

Spring at Last

“We were so excited because he had been training really, really well,” O’Neill said. “He had always shown us he was versatile, and obviously Eibar rode a great race. We all needed to see [that performance] before he stamped himself a classic distance horse. We don’t know which race [G2 Godolphin Mile or G1 Dubai World Cup] in Dubai [on Mar. 29] we want right now. We’ll talk it over with the owners, decide a strategy and play it by ear.”

Light on Experience, Not Talent...

Spring at Last finished second in the 2006 GI Malibu S. while making his first start for trainer Doug O’Neill. He only made five starts in 2007, finishing a good second in the GII Strub S. in February and a decent fifth in the GI Santa Anita H. in March before his triumph in Dubai. Freshened following his trip to the Middle East, the dark bay resurfaced with a $125,000 optional claiming tally over the Santa Anita lawn last time Dec. 26. Bridgejumpers, beware! When 1-5 Hystericalady (Distorted Humor) faltered in the stretch to finish fourth in a five-horse field, show prices escalated on the first three finishers. Intangaroo, a winner at first asking last June over Hollywood's Cushion Track, was runner-up in successive allowance outings over this surface Sept. 27 and Oct. 21, respectively. Third behind Overly Tempting in a Hollywood allowance Dec. 9, she cleared her first condition going six panels on this strip Jan. 11, but wasn't given much of a shot here. Jockey Alonso Quinonez kept her in fourth as Overly Tempting whistled through a half in :44.15. She moved three wide into the lane, but angled back inside and came flying to post the upset. Hystericalady, in second early, looked to be laboring on the turn. "We were running for third," admitted winning trainer Gary Sherlock. "She's a nice filly, and I would have been happy to hit the board...I hurt my hand from hitting on the box [during the stretch]." Crown of Thorns has come a long way in a very short amount of time since finishing fifth in his Hollywood debut Dec. 8. Richard Mandella trains the OBS March graduate, who was the highest priced juvenile by Repent in 2007. "I was worried as he went into the three-eighths pole, hoping he would get a little luck there, and as it turned out, he did," Mandella said. "This was pretty convincing, but he was pretty convincing in his maiden race the other day." As for what's next the conditioner added, "Maybe the [GIII] Sham [S. on Mar. 1] and then the [GI] Santa Anita Derby [on April 5]." Bred in Florida by Clover Leaf Farms, Crown of Thorns was produced by the Thunder Gulch mare Crowning Touch, a half-sister to champion sprinter and successful sire Smoke Glacken (Two Punch), MGSW Smokey Glacken (Forestry) and SW & GSP Capote's Crown (Capote). The mare has a two-year-old full brother to the Lewis winner. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Monterey Jazz, a Golden Gate maiden winner on the lawn last June, annexed a $40,000 optional claimer over the Fairplex main track in September. He completed the trifecta in a $62,500 optional claimer over the Santa Anita Cushion Oct. 26. Switching back to grass and stretching to a mile in his next two starts, he won an $80,000 optional claimer in wire-to-wire fashion at Hollywood Nov. 10, then added the GIII Sir Beaufort S. in front-running style Dec. 26. Seeking his third straight here, he broke on top, led by three lengths through a half mile in :45.89 and reported home a convincing winner. Favored Tiago rallied from last of eight to place second. "He broke good and he was relaxed, but when we got to the [clubhouse] turn he felt those other horses coming to him and he took off, so I just let him," jockey David Flores said. "I think he can go a mile and a quarter, no problem. He's just a machine right now." According to trainer Craig Dollase, Monterey Jazz is possible for the Mar. 1 GI Santa Anita H. "He's really improved immensely, and hopefully we've got some bigger and better races down the road," Dollase said. "David didn't fight him at all and he trains this way, too. He's really a freak of nature. We obviously found the right key with him now. He probably wanted to stretch out all along and I just didn't know that, so we've got a brand new horse on our hands, and he's the real deal."

THIS DATE IN HISTORY...

February 4, 1926...Wheatley Stables, formed by Mrs. Henry Carnegie Phipps, recorded its first win with a two-year-old filly named Sturdy Stella.

February 7, 1894...The Jockey Club was incorporated. As originally conceived, it was to assume the management of racing, previously overseen by the Board of Control. Included in The Jockey Club's functions were licensing, allotment of racing dates, appointment of officials and the interpretation and enforcement of racing rules.

February 7, 1969...Jockey Diane Crump became the first woman rider in America to compete in a pari-mutuel race, finishing 10th aboard 48-1 shot Bridle 'n Bit in the seventh race at Hialeah.

February 7, 1996...A racing oddity occurred at Oaklawn Park when the winners of seven consecutive races started from the number one post position.

Southern California and stretched to two turns for the GI CashCall Futurity at Hollywood Dec. 22, the bay set the pace for a half mile before tiring to finish seventh. He cut back to one turn here and quickly showed the early way beneath Kent Desormeaux, rattling off fractions of :21.99 and :44.20.

The bay drew off in the stretch to post an eye-catching victory. Favored Wincat pressed Eaton's Gift after bobbling at the start, but proved to be no match in the stretch. "He bounded from the gate and took the lead," Desormeaux commented. "No one gave it to him, he just took it. He was very comfortable there. Normally, when a horse turns back [in distance], you're concerned if they'll be void of speed. He was very fast today. I wasn't concerned about [Surrealdeal] closing in on me; I was watching [the TV infield board] the last eighth of a mile." Trainer Dale Romans said he would discuss possibilities for Eaton's Gift's next start with owner Ahmad Zayat. The victor's dam is a half-sister to ill-fated Canadian champion Knights Templar (Exploit) as well as a 3/4-sibling to SWs For All Seasons (Crafty Prospector) and Dial a Song (Mining). Passion made a promising start to her career, breaking her maiden by 7 1/2 lengths at first asking on the Arlington all-weather in July and finishing a solid third in the Aug. 15 GII Adirondack S. at Saratoga. The dark bay filly disappeared after a last-place showing in the Sept. 2 GI Spinaway S., however, and missed the rest of the season. Making her turf bow in her return, she went gate to wire to win an optional claimer at Santa Anita by three lengths Jan. 18 and was the second choice to make it two-for-two on the lawn. Passion was on the pace from the start, shook off one challenger on the far turn and then was all out to the wire to take the tight photo. "I rode the best horse in the race," jockey Rafael Bejarano said. "She broke sharp, but she relaxed real well. I think that's the key with this race--you have to get your horse to relax, no matter how fast you're going. When we got to the turn, I had a lot of horse and when we crossed the dirt, she just took off." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

"There were some question marks on him after the enforced spell he had in the spring, but he showed what good horses can do." Eurell added, "We had him nominated for the [G1] Hong Kong Sprint last December if he was going well enough, but this was the first real test he'd had against a couple of good sprinters, and we can earmark some of the good sprint races for him now."

SMART STRIKE-MAID'S BROOM, by DEPUTY MINISTER

Fee: $6,500 live foal, due November 15

Winner of the G1 Australian Guineas at three, the flashy chestnut had an adverse reaction to inoculations ahead of Hong Kong, and his spring campaign and trip abroad were subsequently scrapped. He settled near the rear of the pack early, but began to pick off rivals from the 400-meter mark and went on to deny fellow closer Swick by a neck. Favored Gold Edition (Aus) (Lion Hunter {Aus}) finished fourth by a neck, but, having struggled in the late stages, pulled up lame and was retired (see p.7).

Global Challenge, Indeed...

Previous winners of the Lightning, including Choisir (Aus), Takeover Target (Aus) and Miss Andretti (Aus), have gone on to success at Royal Ascot. The $8-million Global Sprint Challenge continues with a pair of races at the Royal meeting, the G1 King's Stand S. June 17 and the G1 Golden Jubilee S. June 21, and heads back to the Far East after the July 11 G1 July Cup at Newmarket (click here for more information). Eurell also has the Asian Mile Challenge as an option for Apache Cat. The four-race series, run over a three-month period in Australia, Dubai, Hong Kong and Japan, carries around A$9.52 million in prizemoney and a bonus of A$4.5 million if one horse sweeps all four races. The A$702,000 G1 Futurity S. over 1600 meters at Caulfield Feb. 29 opens this Challenge, but it may be too early for the Lightning hero. Cont. p7

Gold Edition Injured, Retired...

Star sprinter Gold Edition (Aus) (Lion Hunter {Aus}--Glimmers {Aus}, by Success Express) pulled up lame out of her fourth-place finish in yesterday's G1 Coolmore Lightning S. at Flemington. "I could see by her action she wasn't relishing the high speed she goes," trainer Ron Maund said. "We don't need to risk her. She's simply been wonderful." He added, "It's been a great ride. There probably won't be another Gold Edition, but I can look forward to her foals now." An A$130,000 Magic Millions graduate, the granddaughter of Danehill captured the G1 Ascot Vale S. and G1 Manikato S., and retires with a record of 37-17-12-1 and earnings of A$3,182,195. She provided racegoers with an indelible memory of her duel with Miss Andretti (Aus) in last spring's G1 Age Classic, ultimately finishing a close second. Breeding plans have not yet been determined for the grey filly. Co-owner Tanith O'Brien said, "The dilemma we have now is choosing a stallion for her. There isn't really anything in Australia for her, so we might have to send her overseas."

JOE BRAVO

Equi-photo

Accomplishment: Bravo came out on top in Tuesday's 2008 International Jockeys Championship-Robalco at Monterrico in Peru, which featured such top American-based riders as Rafael Bejarano, Edgar Prado, Eibar Coa and Alan Garcia. Bravo won two of the four races in the event and beat out Peruvian jockey Carlos Trujillo with 20 points to 17 points. Fondly called 'Jersey' Joe Bravo in The Garden State, Bravo has collected 13 riding titles at Monmouth Park.

Birthdate: Sept. 10

Birthplace: Longbranch, NJ

Family: Single, but hoping to stumble across Ms. Right.

Current residence: Aventura, FL

Are there any three-year-olds you're particularly excited about as Derby/Oaks prospects? I've got one word: ZITO.

Of all the horses you've been around, who has been your favorite in terms of personality? That's a good question. I love mean and aggressive horse for the races, but who doesn't love those cuddly ones (laughs).

Most fascinating backstretch character you've met? The Chief--the one and only Allen Jerkens.

Favorite sports team/athlete? The Philadelphia Eagles are my team, but M.J. (Michael Jordan)--number 23--is the man.

Any Super Bowl predictions? I'd love to see the Giants pull it off, but the Patriots are the best team I've seen in a while.

If you could have dinner with one historical figure, who would it be, and why? Well, I don't know if he is 'historical' yet, but Hugh Hefner is a god.

What is your favorite vacation spot? Atlantis in the Bahamas.

What's your favorite film? Rounders.

Best place to grab a burger in your hometown? The Windmill is the best, but the scales don't like it.

What would you do if you weren't in horse racing? Be a pro poker player. Ok, maybe i'm dreaming.

What was your childhood ambition? Basketball player. Yeah right--I'm five foot tall (laughs).

CONGRATULATIONS!

BAFFERT RUNNERS SCRATCHED Trainer Bob Baffert scratched Pussycat Doll (Real Quiet) and Air Commander (Point Given) from yesterday's GI Santa Monica H. and GII Strub S., respectively. "Air Commander left a little feed and Pussycat has been having some foot issues, and I didn't want to take a chance on running them," Baffert explained. Air Commander was coming off a 52-1 upset in the GII San Fernando S. Jan. 12. Pussycat Doll, a Grade I winner at three, four and five, hasn't faced the starter since taking the Storm Flag Flying S. at Belmont Oct. 19. The daughter of GISW HookedontheFeelin was purchased by Lael Stable for $2.3 million at FTKNOV.

LING LING QI (c, 3, Yonaguska--Holy Love, by Holy Bull) tried a traditional dirt surface for the first time in his third start Aug. 18 and came away with a 2 3/4-length maiden win at Ellis Park. The bay followed up with a second-place finish in the Sept. 3 Clever Trevor S. at Remington Park, but had not been out since. Off at 7-2 in his three-year-old bow, he tracked the pace from fourth, went after 7-5 Referee (Distorted Humor) as they raced down the lane and drove past the favorite to score by a neck. INFORMED DECISION (f, 3, Monarchos--Palangana, by His Majesty), a $150,000 FTKJUL yearling and $320,000 FTMMAY juvenile, needed the help of the stewards to keep her perfect record intact. The gray filly cruised to a 6 1/2-length debut score at Gulfstream Jan. 3, but was the 5-2 second choice behind 13-10 J Z Warrior (Harlan's Holiday) here. Zayat Stables' J Z Warrior, making her first start since a 10-length maiden victory at Saratoga July 29, pressed fractions of :22.41 and :45.14. She took over at the top of the lane and gave it her all as Informed Decision closed late, hitting the wire a nose in front. But jockey Kent Desormeaux struck Informed Decision in the face with his whip near the sixteenth pole, and the stewards demoted J Z Warrior to second. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $49,200.

Keep the Peace Ready for Stakes Debut:

Keep the Peace (Touch Gold), tabbed as a ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ following a sharp seven-length allowance score at Gulfstream Jan. 4, will put her undefeated record on the line in next Saturday's GII Forward Gal S. "It's a big step up for her, but with young horses at this time of year, it's tough to get a two-other-than [allowance] to go, and a lot of the others in the field are in the same position," trainer Eddie Kenneally said. "It would be huge for her to win a Grade II this early in her career." Keep the Peace previously annexed a Churchill maiden at first asking last November.

Barrier Reef came flying up the rail in his Nov. 8 opener over Aqueduct's main track, finishing third by 1 1/4 lengths. After a tardy start while stretching out to two turns Dec. 8, the grey launched a sustained rally in the lane and was tabbed a ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆. Things didn't go as planned in his stakes debut, the Jan. 5 Count Fleet S., however. The Darley colorbearer was positioned much closer in the early stages that day, but couldn't find another gear and wound up fourth. With that effort under his belt, the fourth choice settled in fifth, made a nice move to challenge for the lead on the far turn and outbattled Roman Emperor down the lane for his first stakes success. "After his last race, he came back blowing more than you would have expected him to," explained winning trainer Tom Albertrani. "Maybe he got a lot more out of that race, stepping up against a better group of horses. He trained a lot better going into this race. He was really on his game in his last couple of works." Albertrani added, "He was always on the bridle. Every step of the way, I was confident. Going down the backstretch, I thought he was going to win. Roman Emperor gave him a great fight, but we had a little more left. We'll go to the [GIII] Gotham [Mar. 8]." Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Runway Rosie captured the Sharp Cat S. at Hollywood Park in November of 2006, then had to wait nearly 15 months to get her picture taken again. The gray filly hit the board in four of her eight starts last year, running second in the GIII Santa Ysabel S. and third in the GI Las Virgenes S. before ending the season with a runner-up finish in the Dec. 14 Flat Fleet Feet S. in the slop at Aqueduct. A rallying sixth in the Jan. 12 Affectionately S., she finally returned to the winner's circle after an optional-claiming score Jan. 25 and was odds-on to make it two in a row. The crowd's choice pressed Bold Assurance through an easy half in :49.36 and galloped away from that rival in the stretch for a handy score.

2nd-AQU, $49,000, Msw, 3yo, 1m70y, 1:43 4/5, gd. SPURRIER (c, 3, Dixieland Band--Humble, by Valiant Nature) finished off the board in two starts last fall, then tried two turns for the first time on the Aqueduct inner track Dec. 26 and finished third. Off at 7-2 to show further improvement in his 2008 debut, the $45,000 KEESEP yearling trailed after the opening half, but angled outside for the stretch drive, took over in deep stretch and opened up for a 2 1/2-length victory. Sebastian Cat (Catienuis) completed the exacta. Lifetime Record: 4-1-0-1, $37,654.

Vanderkaay broke through Dec. 1 at Calder and celebrated the New Year with an allowance tally over the same surface. He came back a bit quickly Jan. 19 and finished fourth in the Pasco S. at Tampa, but got back on track here. After racing near the back of the pack in the early stages, the bay colt skimmed the rail, hit the front midstretch and pulled away for his first stakes success. "I actually got on this horse before he ever ran," jockey Rosie Napravnik said. "I knew he was nice and I'm glad I got to hook up with him again. Today we got a good trip. heated for third in the GIII Miesque S. on grass Nov. 24 and, after finishing second in the Blue Norther S. Dec. 30 at Santa Anita, ran champion Indian Blessing to a head in the GII Santa Ynez S. Jan. 13. The time of 1:19.89 established a new track record for seven furlongs. Golden Doc A is slated to run next Saturday in the GI Las Virgenes S. The purchase price was rumored to be just under $1 million, but new owner McCauley wouldn't confirm that figure. "Just say it was a good buy and I'm very pleased," he said. The Lexington resident, 50, recently sold his Toyota-Lexus car dealership, which he'd operated for 14 years. He is in the process of establishing Cutaway Farm. "I've had a passion for the horse business for years," he said. "I plan to fly in Thursday to see the filly run."

OBS Under Tack Show Today:

A maiden winner at Turfway in his Sept. 23 debut, Big Glen was seventh in an entry-level allowance on the Keeneland Polytrack Oct. 20 and fifth at that level on the turf at Churchill Nov. 15. He returned to Turfway for a one-mile allowance test Dec. 8, winning by a neck, and remained undefeated at the track while making his stakes bow yesterday. Storm Military capped off a stellar South American career with Group 1 wins at San Isidro in December of 2006 and February of 2007. The dark bay opened his U.S. account with a second-place finish in the Oct. 13 War Chant S. at Oak Tree, and came back to take an optional claimer on the Hollywood lawn Nov. 17. Making his first foray into graded company on this side of the equator in the Dec. 30 Gil San Gabriel H., the six-year-old was rank early and lacked a late kick, ending up fourth. He was favored facing a softer field here. Quickly into stride under jockey Garrett Gomez, Storm Military battled on the front end through six furlongs in 1:10.36, pulled clear in the stretch and was not threatened as Mr Napper Tandy closed for second.
