PYRO FINISHES LIKE A HORSE ON FIRE

It was like someone lit a fire under his tail. Last as the field for yesterday's GIII Risen Star S. straightened for home, Pyro (Pulpit) had a wall of horses in front of him, but he angled outside and rocketed home to win handily. "He's a tremendous horse," trainer Steve Asmussen said. "How good is he? He's good enough to do what we just watched. He accelerated home. Guess his workmate [Curlin] did the job, huh?" It was the first stakes win for the three-year-old, who was second in Grade I company twice at two. Cont. p2

INDIAN BLESSING ROLLS ON

Maintaining her perfect record, Eclipse Award winner Indian Blessing (Indian Charlie) held off the late bid of Proud Spell (Proud Citizen) to take yesterday's GIII Silverbulletday S. at Fair Grounds by a length. "She liked that dirt; it was exciting to see," trainer Bob Baffert said. "She handled a lot today. She showed today she can get the distance...I think she likes two turns better. We'll see how she is after the race, and we may come back [for the Mar. 8 GII Fair Grounds Oaks]." Cont. p5

Lou Hodges Jr

GRASSHOPPER TRIUMPHS IN RETURN

Making his first start since a second-place finish in the GII Super Derby in September, Grasshopper (Dixie Union) found a seam in the traffic at the top of the lane and drove on through to take yesterday's GIII Mineshaft S. at Fair Grounds by 2 1/2 lengths. "That was awesome," said winning jockey Robby Albarado. "He has such a quick turn of foot. I was very patient; I knew it had to open up, and when it did, wow!" Cont. p5

26 years!

The Stakes record for Santa Anita's G2 San Felipe had stood for 26 years. Not even Point Given, Fusaichi Pegasus and the mighty Affirmed could lower it. Consolidator stopped the clock at 1:40 flat. Now that's fast.

Out of the Shadows...

Pyro opened his career with a game nose victory in a Churchill Downs maiden test July 7, but ran into champion War Pass in his next three starts. The Winchell Thoroughbreds homebred stumbled at the break of their first meeting, an optional claimer at Saratoga Aug. 26, and made up some ground late to finish a distant third. Far back early in the Oct. 6 GI Champagne S. at Belmont Park, he finished full of run to be second, beaten just 1 1/2 lengths. The colt was up against it over the sloppy strip in the Oct. 27 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, and was roughed up when the gates opened, but he still managed to close the gap in the final furlong, hitting the line 4 3/4 lengths adrift of the Eclipse hero in second. Finally earning the spotlight yesterday, he gave notice that he will be one for War Pass to fear on the Triple Crown trail.

From Last To First...

Sent off the 9-10 chalk in the Risen Star, Pyro was hard held in last as 112-1 shot Rich Young Ruler (Victory Gallop) cut out leisurely fractions of :24.52, :49.50 and 1:14.62. He still had the entire field in front of him as they hit the stretch, but jockey Shaun Bridgmohan guided him through the traffic to get to the outside at the eighth pole

Pyro (far outside)

and it was all over but the shouting. Pyro hit not fifth gear, but sixth, shot to the front in the final yards and was drawing away at the wire. "I did what I was told to," said Bridgmohan. "It worked out very well. I was very patient. I was just looking for some daylight. When I got it, he gave it to me. I never hit him; I just tapped him on his shoulder." First Loss For Z Fortune...

Z Fortune, who ran his record to three-for-three with a 2 3/4-length score in the Jan. 12 GIII Lecomte S., closed from just off the pace to take the lead in the stretch. He couldn't hold off the winner, but fought off a determined Visionaire to get the place. "He is a nice horse," jockey Garrett Gomez said. "He is still learning, just like a teenager. He was half-way idling when he made the lead. I think the longer distances will definitely help this colt."

On To The Louisiana Derby?

Six horses have doubled up in the Risen Star and the Louisiana Derby, including Risen Star in 1988. This year's edition of the Grade II event will be run Mar. 8.

"It was a singularly spectacular performance, breathtaking in its dominance."

A Group 2 winner in her native Brazil, Double Trouble was fourth in the Apr. 25 GIII Wilshire H. at Hollywood to open her stateside account. She came back to take an optional claimer on the all-weather May 25 and an allowance on the grass July 1. Kept on the turf for her next six outings, she was third in three of those appearances, including the July 21 Osunitas H. at Del Mar and the Nov. 28 Intercontinental H. at Hollywood, before getting up for a nose victory in an optional claimer at Santa Anita Dec. 29. Trying the Polytrack this time, Double Trouble rated last in the four-horse field as Zardana (Crimson Tide {Ire}) took them through a half in :48.58. Tough Tiz's Sis and Somethingaboutlaura took over on the far turn, but Double Trouble drove past the leaders at the eighth pole and opened up to hit the wire a decisive winner. "I was sitting with a lot of confidence because she relaxed so well," said jockey Rafael Bejarano. "I was able to save some ground around the far turn and when we got out there at the top of the stretch, she won pretty easy." Purchased privately by Ron McCauley after running second to Indian Blessing in the GII Santa Ynez S. Jan. 13, Golden Doc A paid immediate dividends on the investment with this rallying score. The winner of the Oct. 20 Anoakia S. at Oak Tree, the chestnut filly was sixth in the Nov. 11 Mocassin S. at Hollywood, then switched to the grass and was third in the GIII Miesque S. 13 days later. Runner-up in the Dec. 30 Blue Norther S. on the turf at Santa Anita, she was gaining on the Eclipse Award winner in her latest and came up just a head short. Golden Doc A rated off the pace once again yesterday, launched her bid from the outside as they hit the stretch and outfinished Lovely Isle to join the ranks of Grade I winners. "I was confident the whole time... when you have the best horse in the race, you don't worry," trainer Barry Abrams said, adding, "It looks like we'll go Santa Anita Oaks [GI, Mar. 8], and we'll go from there, one step at a time. She loves this track; why go somewhere else?" Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

A conditions winner during his stint in Dubai, Well Armed was sidelined for more than 18 months after finishing 11th behind Discreet Cat in the 2006 G2 UAE Derby. The bay gelding finally made his return in an optional claimer at Oak Tree Oct. 4 and, after rearing at the start, closed some ground late to be fourth. Getting a clean break for an allowance at Hollywood Nov. 11, he led from gate to wire to win by 4 1/4 lengths. Well Armed attempted to make all of the running in his latest, the Jan. 12 GII San Pasqual H. going a mile and a sixteenth, but was caught in the waning strides and had to settle for second. They were closing in on him again this time, but the wire came just in time. Jockey Aaron Gryder had the winner in front through a half in :47.29 and six furlongs in 1:11.35, and they were 3 1/2 lengths clear at midstretch. Heatseeker cut into that margin as they drove to the wire, but Well Armed held on to take the photo. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. A seven-length winner of the Irish Sonnet S. going two turns over the Delaware main track Sept. 26, Bsharpsonata tried the turf for the first time in the Epitome BC S. at Monmouth Oct. 26 and acquitted herself well in a fourth-place finish. She came from just off the pace to take the grassy Selima S. at Laurel Nov. 24 and made it two straight with a 1 1/2-length victory in the Jan. 1 Tropical Park Oaks at Calder. Returning to a sloppy main track for this, Bsharpsonata was outfooted early as even-money Keep the Peace and Melissa Jo scrimmaged through an opening quarter-mile in :21.80 and a half in :44.25. Bsharpsonata began to gain ground approaching the stretch and joined Keep the Peace from the rail at the eighth pole. The two raced nearly inseparably for the remainder, with Bsharpsonata getting the decision on the bob. "I didn't want to get stuck on the rail, because it's been dead all day, but I played the cards I was dealt," explained rider Eric Camacho. "I knew I had it at the wire." She's still perfect. Champion Indian Blessing ran her record to five-for-five, but yesterday's result left a question mark as to just how far she can carry her speed. Dominant in winning the GI Frizette S. and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies last year, the dark bay filly just held on to beat Golden Doc A in the seven-panel GII Santa Ynez S. at Santa Anita Jan. 13, and the field was gaining on her again here. Jockey Garrett Gomez had the Eclipse winner in hand in second as 90-1 shot Miss Missile (Golden Missile) cut out moderate fractions. Indian Blessing took over as they raced out of the turn and opened up daylight in the stretch, but she was all out to hold on as a dogged Proud Spell closed the gap. "She has to learn how to handle two turns," Gomez said. "I think she can because she's a smart filly. She got a little tired with the super-long stretch at the sixteenth pole." Trainer Larry Jones said of the runner-up, "First race back, it was a nice effort. You don't want to knock them out. Our eye is on the...GI Kentucky Oaks [May 2] and even the Fair Grounds Oaks." Grasshopper made his 7-5 odds look generous as he powered to a decisive score at Fair Grounds yesterday. On the board in all seven prior starts, the handsome dark bay followed a six-length allowance score at Saratoga last July with a bang-up second-place finish behind Street Sense in the Aug. 25 GI Travers S. Beaten just a half-length at 9-1 that afternoon, the homebred colt was sent off at 3-10 in the Sept. 22 GII Super Derby, but couldn't hold off Going Ballistic and was a one-length runner-up. His connections opted to give Grasshopper the rest of the year off, announcing in November that he would return in this test. With everything going according to plan, the four-year-old rated in fourth while tucked in at the rail early. He squeezed through an opening between horses at the top of the lane and lengthened his stride once clear to win handily. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Daytona picked up his fourth straight stakes win with this front-running victory. Third when making his stakes debut in the El Cajon at Del Mar Aug. 31, the four-year-old was let go at 10-1 in the Oct. 13 GII Oak Tree Derby, but pulled off the upset with a 4 1/4-length tally. He followed up with a half-length score in the Nov. 25 GI Hollywood Derby and hung on gamely to cap off the season with a 3/4-length win in the Dec. 30 GII San Gabriel H.

Lou Hodges Jr

Jockey Mike Smith sent Daytona right out to the lead again yesterday, and he powered away from his rivals in the final furlong to keep the streak alive. "He's a special horse," trainer Dan Hendricks said. "That's one of the most relaxed races I've seen him run. Mike just sat and rode perfect. We learned a lot--he can change course, he can ship, and he can win again." As for what's next, he added, "We've got to think about it. We've got to decide whether to come back [to Fair Grounds for the GII Mervin Muniz Memorial Mar. 8], stay home or go to Dubai." Daytona was catalogued for Monday's session of the Fasig-Tipton Kentucky Winter Mixed Sale, but he has been scratched. MGISW Better Talk Now (Talkin Man), at the back of the pack early, was put to a drive at the top of the lane, but had little response and finished off the board. "He was just empty," jockey Ramon Dominguez said. "He didn't run his race." Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Shares in Shinzig, each valued at A$21,000, were being snapped up as late as one hour before post time for yesterday's C. F. Orr S., and those who took the plunge received an instant return on their investment when the six-year-old son of Danehill upset a bulky field. Shinzig was turned over to trainer Mick Price only recently after the El outbreak prevented Sydney-based Gerald Ryan from continuing to train. "This win gives me great satisfaction," Price told Australian Associated Press. "I think yesterday they were running around doing deals with 2.5-percent shares going off left, right and center. I think there are a few happy shareholders now." A close third to Tears I Cry (Aus) (Lacryma Christi {Ire}) in the G1 Emirates S. Nov. 10, the bay was making his first start since finishing runner-up in the G3 Eclipse S. Nov. 24. Fifth early on, Shinzig rallied and just outfinished Niconero for the win. Getting a bit more real estate for this effort, Seachange jumped best, but was eased back off the pace in third. Traveling on the bridle as the field cornered for home, she struck the front at midstretch and was always holding Kay's Awake in the run to the wire to post her seventh career Group 1 success.

Seachange, who will fly to Dubai via Singapore a week from tomorrow, is scheduled to take in the Mar. 6 G3 Jebel Hatta S. at Nad al Sheba prior to the G1 Dubai Duty Free S. Mar. 29.

Returning to take a Santa Anita allowance down the hill Dec. 30, she stretches out again in her second start back. The Darley colorbearer is out of GSW Saytarra (Seeking the Gold), a half to G1 Epsom Derby and G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe champion Lammtarra. Her stablemate, the contrary Caressive, was off the board in her first three outings, but posted an impressive maiden win at Hollywood Nov. 22. She faced undefeated Zenyatta in her latest, a Hollywood allowance test Dec. 15, and lacked a late kick, finishing fourth. Dawn After Dawn, beaten less than a length when third in the G1 Ashland S. last April, ran out of the money in her next three starts and was sent to the bench. The bay came back after a 4 1/2-month layoff to take an allowance going 6 1/2 furlongs on the Hollywood Cushion. Off at 10-1 in the Jan. 13 GII El Encino S., she dragged jockey Garrett Gomez to the front when her saddle slipped, then weakened late to be fourth behind the aforementioned Zenyatta.

GIII Hollywood Prevue S. winner Massive Drama gets a new rider as he shortens up off the one-mile GIII San Rafael S. at Santa Anita Jan. 12. Third in the sitting just off the leaders in the Dec. 22 GI Hollywood Futurity, the dark bay dashed off a half in :44 1/5 last time out before tiring to be third. He gets Eclipse winner Garrett Gomez in the irons today. Georgie Boy makes his first start since taking the Sept. 5 GI Del Mar Futurity. He was scheduled to make his return in the Sunshine Millions Dash Jan. 26, but trainer Kathy Walsh opted to scratch due to the highway-hard racetrack. Into Mischief, third behind Massive Drama in the Hollywood Prevue, turned the tables with a 1 1/4-length score in the Hollywood Futurity, but the preparations for his sophomore bow have been disrupted by Santa Anita's track problems. "It's been pretty messed up here training-wise, and it's been difficult to get a real good pattern," trainer Richard Mandella told Daily Racing Form. "He's fit enough to run, but it hasn't been so smooth that I can say I've got him on top of his game."

Impressive Maiden Winners Face Off in GP Alw:

Jockey Ridge (Broken Vow) and Bordeaux Bandit (Vindication), both tabbed as "TDN Rising Stars" following impressive maiden victories at Gulfstream in January, meet in a first-level allowance today. The former, owned by Alan Cook and trained by Barclay Tagg, followed a second-place finish to Lieutenant Ron in the Aqueduct mud Nov. 10 with a dazzling 4 3/4-length tally going 6 1/2 furlongs Jan. 18 (video). He stretches out to a mile off a pair of sharp works, including a four-furlong move at Gulfstream in :47 1/5 Jan. 30. "Obviously you can't take any steps backward at this time of year," Tagg told Daily Racing Form. "Right now I guess this horse has to be thought of as a Derby contender. He ran as a two-year-old and earned one of the highest Beyers [101] of any three-year-old this season when he won last time. Now we'll stretch him to a mile and see how he goes. If he scampers away and wins, then we'd have to start thinking about running him in a stakes somewhere." My MeadowView Farm's Bordeaux Bandit completed the superfecta in his Calder unveiling as the 7-5 favorite Nov. 23, but bounced back with a strong performance when stretched to a mile, most recently scoring by 5 1/2 lengths Jan. 12 (video). The $350,000 KEESEP graduate fired a three-furlong bullet at Palm Meadows in :35 Feb. 7. "He really ran a huge race last time, and he's training very well coming into this one," trainer Nick Zito told DRF. "He also has the advantage of having already run and won at a mile. Obviously I'd rather not have the rail, but he's not going to the lead anyway, so hopefully he'll break okay and just fall in behind the leaders." Click for the brisnet.com PPs.

Divine Park to General George:

Divine Park (Chester House), who suffered his first career loss when ninth in the GI Malibu S. at Santa Anita Dec. 26, has returned to New York from trainer Kieran McLaughlin's Florida string to prepare for the GII General George Breeders' Cup H. Feb. 18. Winner of his first three career starts, including the GIII Withers S. last April, Divine Park was being pointed for a summer campaign, but was sidelined by a bruised left hind cannon bone. Drawn widest of the 14 runners in the Malibu, Divine Park never really reached contention and raced wide, but was only beaten 5 1/4 lengths in the finish. "That day horses that went to the lead kept on going," McLaughlin told Daily Racing Form. "He didn't run terrible from post 14, only getting beat five lengths. This looked like a good spot to run him back on the East Coast."

Beau Dare, heroine of the Kentucky Cup Juvenile Fillies on Polytrack, spent much of her three- and four-year-old campaigns on the turf with mixed success, but closed out 2007 with a front-running tally over track and trip Dec. 26. Dismissed as the longshot shot on the board here, the bay with the distinctive blaze assumed command at the outset, raced through a half in :45.85 and kept digging in late for her second stakes victory. "I told all of the guys when I left the jocks' room that I wasn't going to get dirty," quipped winning rider C.C. Lopez. "They said, 'Yeah. We know you're a speed rider and all that.'" Trainer Bruce Levine confirmed the plan. "I just wanted to beat the one [Mulligatawny] to the punch. I told C.C., 'If you can, make it go.' I said I would take a shot and win that way; I'm not there for second or third. I told him, 'If you can head that filly, you can beat her. If you take back, the one-horse is gone.' He gave her a super, super ride." Levine said that Beau Dare's next start would likely be the GII Distaff H. Mar. 22. Mulligatawny (Crafty Prospector) gave way late to be fourth, followed by Spectacular Malibu (Malibu Moon).

the Fair Grounds grass Dec. 2. A 3/4 of a length winner over Stormin Baghdad in the F. W. Gaudin Memorial S. on the Fair Grounds main track Jan. 12, he took that one on again here, this time on the turf. Forwardly placed as Natural Speed set fractions of :22.31 and :45.62, Euroears gained a short lead in the stretch and held a one-length advantage over Stormin Baghdad at the wire. "The water has gotten deeper every time, and he has stepped up," said winning trainer Bret Calhoun. "He has tremendous ability, a big heart and a good mind." Jockey Ramsey Zimmerman added, "He takes deep breaths. It keeps him so relaxed. The way he breathes, you don't get that in all horses. Every time he took a deep breath, he had more confidence." EUROPE

O'BRIEN SPEAKS OUT Aidan O'Brien has relayed his thoughts on the Kieren Fallon situation to Irish Independent, stating that the former champion "can't afford another slipup" as he prepares to see out his 18-month worldwide ban. After admitting to having "serious chats" with Fallon in the recent past, the Ballydoyle conditioner said that he had "always had concerns" about the retained rider's dilemma. "The reality is that those demons were always there," he told the daily. "He mightn't admit that, but until he deals with them they will always be there. He is an extremely gifted sportsman and horseman, but that has probably been part of his downfall. Because he's so natural, he maybe doesn't have to work as hard as some other jockeys to get it right. I feel the loss for himself and his family more than us. Hopefully, he will be able to come to grips with his problems, but he's at the age now where he can't afford another slipup. If he can get it together now, he still has another chance of getting the last bit out of his career."
