FRITCHIE UNDER HER CONTROL?

Locally based with trainer Mike Trombetta, Thomas McClay and Harry Nye's Control System (Lion Hearted) makes her first afternoon appearance at Laurel as the favorite in today's GII Barbara Fritchie H. Making just the eighth start of her career at her fifth different venue, the Pennsylvania-bred is the lone member of the field to have taken down a graded stakes with her win in the GIII Cicada S. last March. She comes into this off consecutive stakes wins, including a 3 1/2-length defeat of Karakorum Starlet (Skip Away) in the Jan. 1 Interborough H. at Aqueduct. Control System is not nominated to the Breeders' Cup and is therefore running for $225,000. Karakorum Starlet is an improving five-year-old New York-bred mare who tries graded stakes company for the first time in her career. "I have never had a horse this good to be able to come down for the Barbara Fritchie," trainer Jeff Odintz said. "I wanted to take a shot because she is deserving of it off her last race and in her daily training regimen. Every time she runs she shows like she is ready to move up to the next level." Karakorum Starlet punched her ticket to the Fritchie with a two-length success in the Jan. 11 Ruby Rubles S. at the Big A. Trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. is represented by two runners, including the defending race champion Oprah Winney (Royal Academy). Eighth as a 6-1 chance in the Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint Oct. 26, the gray has found Control System too tough in her last two, finishing third in the Dec. 1 Garland of Roses H. and in the Interborough. The other Dutrow runner is Baby Bird (Cape Town), runner-up in Laurel's Anne Arundel S. in 2006. Fritchie field p2

Control System Adam Coglianese

PREMIUM TAP FOURTH IN KING'S CUP

Yesterday's G1-KSA Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques Cup in Saudi Arabia was supposed to be a mere formality for dual Grade I winner Premium Tap (Pleasant Tap) en route to the G1 Dubai World Cup Mar. 29. But Kharimes (Arg) (Lode), the winner of the 2006 G1 Argentinian 2000 Guineas when raced in that country as Joe Louis (Arg), registered the upset over the defending race champion, who could do no better than fourth, beaten about three lengths. At the wire, Kharimes had three-parts of a length on Shabel Almidaan (Ire) (Fasliyev), campaigned in Europe as Critic by Highclere Thoroughbred Racing. Another head back in third was Aloquhwan (Ire) (Germany), the former German Group 3 winner Omikron, who filled the same spot behind Premium Tap in the 2007 King's Cup. The winner, ridden to victory by former U.S.-based jockey Wigberto Ramos, covered the 2400 meters in 2:28.07. Trained in the U.S. by John Kimmel, Premium Tap won the GI Woodward S. and the GI Clark H. in 2006 and was third to Invasor (Arg) in that year's GI Breeders' Cup Classic. Purchased by Saudi King Abdullah Bin Abdul/Aziz Sons, he took last year's King's Cup, Saudi Arabia's most important race, prior to a runner-up effort to Invasor in the World Cup. Chart p2

BIN SUROOR 'DISAPPOINTED' IN GUINEAS

RESULT A day following his 3-4-5 finish in the G3 UAE 2000 Guineas at Nad Al Sheba, Godolphin trainer Saeed bin Suroor pronounced himself "disappointed" with the results, but remains hopeful for the future. "We were looking for a better result in the UAE 2000 Guineas, but the better horses won on the night," bin Suroor commented. "I think that all three of our colts will be better with a step up in distance, especially Numaany (A.P. Indy) and Etched (Forestry). Those two will also improve for their first run this year." Etched, winner in his final U.S. start of the GIII Nashua S., raced in midpack throughout and was a bit keen before finishing fourth, six lengths behind the victorious Honour Devil (Arg) (Honour and Glory). Numaany, who broke his maiden eventfully at Aqueduct Nov. 2, came widest into the Nad Al Sheba stretch Thursday night and made some late progress into fifth, beaten 8 3/4 lengths. The next logical step for both colts is the Listed Al Bastikiya S. on Super Thursday Mar. 6. That event is a course-and-distance prep for the G2 UAE Derby over 1800 meters Mar. 29.

- Maiden Claiming Races - purses of $18,000/up and a minimum claiming price of $40,000

SUWANNEE RIVER RESULT UPHELD Gulfstream Park stewards affirmed the outcome of the Feb. 3 GIII Suwannee River H. after hearing testimony from trainers Christophe Clement and Mark Hennig, jockey Eibar Coa, track veterinarian Mary Scollay-Ward and starter Jeff Powell. Clement saddled the winner, Green Girl (Fr) (Lord of Men {GB}), who unseated jockey Rene Douglas two times on her way to the starting gate. After being unseated for the second time near the gap, Douglas followed Green Girl to the gate by foot. Todd Pletcher and Hennig, trainers of the second and third-place finishers--La Dolce Vita (Quiet American) and J'ray (Distant View)--immediately protested the results to the stewards, claiming that Green Girl gained an unfair advantage by not carrying her weight assignment throughout the post parade. In a 2-1 decision, a majority of the panel denied the protests, citing that there wasn't any evidence that the winner gained an unfair advantage.

CURLIN IN FLORIDA STOPOVER Horse of the Year Curlin (Smart Strike) arrived early yesterday afternoon at Gulfstream Park and was to spend the night with the rest of the Steve Asmussen string before continuing on to Dubai on Saturday afternoon. "We had a good trip to Florida. He's a great traveler," said assistant trainer Scott Blasi, who will supervise Curlin's training in the Middle East. "When we get there he will have three days in quarantine before going to the track. He'll have just one more work before the race." The strapping chestnut is set to prep for the Mar. 29 G1 Dubai World Cup in a 2000-meter handicap at Nad Al Sheba Feb. 28. Blasi added, "Steve will be over for the prep and then come back for the World Cup. He's really matured. We're pleased with the way everything is going. He's gotten the work in that he needs and is on schedule. One thing's for sure, he knows he's going somewhere to do something."

CORRECTION: The table of Breeders' Cup Challenge races which appeared in yesterday's TDN listed the wrong dates for Calder's GI Princess Rooney H. and the GII Smile Sprint H. The two anchors of the Summit of Speed program will take place Saturday, July 12.

All horses in the TDN are bred in North America, unless otherwise indicated

Is this year's GI Haskell hero in the field? The last two winners of the Monmouth headliner--Any Given Saturday last year and Bluegrass Cat in 2006--proved victorious in this contest. Calder sensation Wise Answer swept three stakes races, including a 10-length triumph in the FSS In Reality S. Oct. 13, but could only finish third when cut back to seven furlongs in the Jack Price Juvenile S. Nov. 10. A turf venture didn't work out, either, as he ran seventh in the Gill Tropical Park Derby Jan. 1, but the J D Farms homebred has a pair of bullet works since and stretches back out on dirt. Among his rivals are Z Humor, who makes his first start since dead-heating for first in the Gill Delta Jackpot S. Dec. 7; and Fierce Wind, who has romped in his last two starts, a Dec. 16 maiden at Calder and a Jan. 21 allowance at Gulfstream.

Shamdinan to Return in Gulf Park Turf:

Shamdinan (Fr) (Dr Fong), the surprise runner-up to English Channel in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Turf at Monmouth Park, will make his 2008 debut in the GI Gulfstream Park Turf S. next Saturday, trainer Angel Penna Jr. confirmed. "Everything has gone well with him so far," the conditioner commented. "[Jockey] Julien [Leparoux] will be here to ride him. If all goes well in this race, he'll go to Dubai [$5-million G1 Dubai Sheema Classic over 12 furlongs Mar. 29] after that."

Horsephotos

Owned by Triple B Farm, Shamdinan made an immediate impact on the American turf, taking the GI Secretariat S. by a half-length Aug. 11. He was fifth in the GI Man o' War S. and the GII Jamaica H. in his next two starts prior to his Breeders' Cup effort. Shamdinan has a pair of wins from nine starts and current earnings of $1,140,746.

"HAT TRICK is a very good looking horse as was his father Sunday Silence. Not only is he good looking but he also had speed, power and strong spirit which he showed impressively in winning G1 races in Japan and Hong Kong. We think his style of running, conformation, and pedigree makes him highly suitable to synthetic surfaces. I've seen a lot of sons of Sunday Silence and HAT TRICK is probably the best miler he has produced."

Tagg Giving Jockey Ridge Benefit of the Doubt:

Trainer Barclay Tagg is still looking for answers for why ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Jockey Ridge (Broken Vow) turned in a subpar effort in entry-level allowance company last Sunday. "He came back fine," the Kentucky Derby-winning Tagg commented. "He ran such a big race before that, and he was back on three weeks. The numbers guys say they bounce if you don't run back in six weeks. I don't know." He continued, "Also, the track was drying out and sticky. Maybe he didn't like it. You'd like them to run well on anything, but when they don't like it, there's nothing you can do about it."

Delosvientos, a 15-length winner of Calder's Arthur L. S. in July, tried to run with Commentator Jan. 17 at Gulfstream, but faded badly to be sixth in that rival's track-record-setting performance. He had no company on the front end this time and, despite trying to convince jockey Manny Cruz to buzz the railbirds, maintained a six-length advantage at the wire.

Woodbine Stakes Schedule Offers Over $22m:

Officials at Woodbine Race Track near Toronto have announced a stakes schedule encompassing 103 added-money events, six of which have been added to the Breeders' Cup "Win and You're In" incentive. "We are thrilled with our 2008 stakes schedule," said Steve Lym, Woodbine's director of racing and racing secretary. "Our prominent late season turf stakes have always been popular with fans and horsemen, and now that we have six 'Win and You're In' events, those cards will be even more exciting." To that end, the $2-million (Canadian funds) GI Pattison Canadian International S. and the GI E.P. Taylor S. have been pushed forward by two weeks, giving the victors the option of taking part in the Breeders' Cup World Championships. Other highlights on the calendar include the GI Woodbine Mile; the GI Northern Dancer Breeders' Cup Turf; and the Queen's Plate and Breeders' S., the first and third legs of the Canadian Triple Crown. Jane Beshear Named to World Games Foundation Board:

Jane Beshear, wife of Kentucky Governor Steve Beshear, is the latest addition to the Board of Directors for the 2010 World Equestrian Games, to be held in Lexington. An avid horseperson for over 30 years, Mrs. Beshear previously served as a member of the Kentucky Horse Park Commission and is currently the acting secretary for the Kentucky Horse Park Foundation. "I am pleased to be able to offer my equine experience to the World Equestrian Games Foundation Board as we move toward 2010," said Beshear. "This event is an excellent opportunity for the state of Kentucky and I am honored to lend my experience to help make it a success." Added Chairman of the Board John Long, "She is the quintessential horsewoman who will benefit the Foundation from her involvement, experience and dedication to the equine world." The Alltech FEI World Equestrian Games will take place at the Kentucky Horse Park from Sept. 25 to Oct. 10, 2008.

Grayson-Jockey Club Research to Fund $1.2m in 2008:

The Grayson-Jockey Club Foundation announced that it will allocate over $1.2 million for equine research in 2008. The funds will support 14 start-up projects and 10 second-year proposals. "This continued increase is testimony to the generosity of board members and many others in the world of horses," said Edward L. Bowen, foundation president. "These individuals and companies understand the importance and effectiveness of scientific research as well as the reality that progress requires funding." In addition to funding individual projects, the foundation is teaming with The Jockey Club to present the second "Welfare and Safety of the Racehorse Summit" at Keeneland Mar. 17-18. "The Summit is a concentrated effort to help the racehorse and fits perfectly within the broader goals of the foundation to help all horses," said Bowen. "At the same time, the overall slate of projects announced fits the Foundation's tradition of funding work that stands to benefit horses of all breeds and uses."

VAL ROYAL RECOVERING FROM SURGERY

Val Royal (Fr) (Royal Academy--Vadlava {Fr}, by Bikala {Ire}), who underwent surgery Monday following an acute episode of colic, will be out of covering duties until April, according to the National Stud. The stallion was back at his Newmarket base the following day. The 12-year-old, who is the sire of the sire of last season's G1 English and Irish 2000 Guineas winner Cockney Rebel (Ire) as well as MGSW Valbenny (Ire), is reported to be recovering well.

ALMAJD FACES RACE AGAINST TIME

Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Almajd (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) may be forced to miss the early-season Classics after undergoing surgery on chips in a joint, connections told the Racing Post. Angus Gold, racing manager to the ★ "TDN Rising Star's" ★ owner/breeder, revealed that the impressive Newmarket maiden winner who was later fifth as the favorite in Newbury's G3 Horris Hill S., may not make the Guineas. "Almajd had a very minor operation to clean up chips in a joint at the beginning of January, but he is back walking and we will just have to see," he told the trade daily. "I haven't spoken to Sir Michael Stoute yet, but it is not going to help, and his participation could be in doubt."

HELENUS COLT TOPS MM PERTH SALE DAY 1

A Helenus (Aus) (Helissio {Fr}) colt topped the action at yesterday's opening session of the Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale. Consigned by Wyadup Valley Farms as hip 23, the son of the unraced mare Willow (Aus) was sold to Mornington trainer Pat Carey for A$210,000. Willow is a half-sister to graded stakes winner Afraah (Aus) (Danehill). Helenus, 2003 champion three-year-old in Australia, is a freshman sire of 2008. An Exceed and Excel (Aus) filly out of the stakes-winning mare Vintage Dance (Aus) was acquired by Slade Bloodstock for A$190,000. Hip 11 was consigned by Mungrup Stud. For the session, 96 yearlings were sold for A$4,931,000, posting a record average of A$51,365. "The session kicked away in great style and bidding was strong early," Magic Millions Managing Director David Chester reported. "There appeared to be a bit of a lull in the middle stages when we didn't sell as many as we would have liked, but thankfully buyers got back into the swing of it late. Quality yearlings seemed to attract great interest from a big line of buyers. It was particularly pleasing to see buyers from around Australia as well as South Africa, Singapore and Malaysia at the complex tonight and we're heartened to know more are planning on arriving in the coming days as the sale continues."
