PATINACK LEADS THE WAY AT INGLIS

Nathan Tinkler's newly established Patinack Farm, which made a big splash at Karaka as leading buyer, continued the theme on the first day of the Inglis Premier Yearling Sale in Melbourne yesterday. Patinack picked up 12 yearlings for A$1,895,000, helping push the average up by 25 percent and the median by 40 percent. Among six fillies purchased by Patinack was a much-admired daughter of Encosta de Lago (Aus) out of MGSW

Hip 147 www.stallions.com.au

Royal Sash (Aus) (Royal Academy). Offered by Three Bridges Farm, she brought a co-session topping A$380,000. "We saw her as an outstanding filly," said Tinkler's agent, Roger Langley. "We are keen to develop a broodmare band from good quality black-type families, and this a lovely filly--a great walker with good residual. We think she is a cracking type." Langley added, "If we assumed this filly was going to either Magic Millions or Easter, I think we have bought particularly well on that basis." Patinack also gave A$230,000 for hip 27, a Flying Spur (Aus) filly from the Willow Park Stud consignment. "This filly was also accepted for Easter, but we kept her in our Premier draft because we sort of chose to be bigger fish in a smaller pond, and we are very happy with the result," said Willow Park's Glenn Burrows. Tinkler, 31, a former electrician who recently sold his Queensland mining company, purchased Alanbridge Farm in the Hunter Valley and Riverslea Farm, near Darley Australia in the Segenhoe Valley. Patinack has also acquired four stallions for stud duty, including MG1SW Husson (Arg) (Hussonet) and G1SWs Teranaba (Aus) (Anabaa) and Wonderful World (Aus) (Agnes World).

SO SHARP IN THE DAVONA DALE

Bsharpsonata (Pulpit) stamped herself among the leaders of her division with her fourth consecutive victory in Sunday's GII Davona Dale S. at Gulfstream. One of only two graded stakes winners in the field--the other being 3-5 favorite Game Face (Menifee)--Bsharpsonata was sent off the 5-2 second choice in the six-horse affair. In no hurry when exiting the stalls with regular pilot Eric Camacho aboard, the Clover Leaf Farms II homebred soon moved up to fourth. She was comfortably in sight of early leader Robbie's Gal (Straight Man), who rolled through opening splits of :22.81, :45.29 and 1:10.18. Ready to mount her challenge turning for home, Bsharpsonata was forced to steady as a rubber-legged American County (Gibson County) ran out of gas after pressing the pace, directly in the path of her oncoming rival. Swinging out around that tired filly, the Florida-bred zeroed in on the wilting Robbie's Gal, the foe with ease and drew off with authority, scoring by two lengths over Game Face. "I was really worried all the way down the backside," said trainer Tim Salzman. "She was shut off down inside behind horses, but [Eric Camacho] was so patient and rode just a tremendous race on her to wait until he got clear." According to Salzman, the filly will make her next start in Keeneland's GI Ashland S. Apr. 5. cont. p2

Bsharpsonata, a seven-length winner in the one-mile Irish Sonnet S. over the dirt at Delaware last September, failed to fire and finished fourth over a yielding turf in Monmouth's Epitome BC S. Oct. 26. Back in the winner's circle following a pair of stakes on the grass--the Nov. 24 Selima S. at Laurel and the Tropical Park Oaks at Calder Jan. 1--she made it three straight with a nose victory in a sloppy edition of the GII Forward Gal S. going seven panels over the main track here Feb. 9. "I've been inside, outside and have had to split horses with this filly; she can do anything," said winning rider Eric Camacho. "Last time she won, I said she could run on anything: mud, turf, pavement. You can add rocks to that now. Everyone said that her Beyers were low at Delaware Park and no one respected her today. She proved them wrong."

Sting in This Tale...

First-time consignor Monterey Stud's Matt Brown was in a celebratory mood after his Exceed and Excel (Aus) colt was snapped up by trainer Gai Waterhouse for co-session topping A$380,000 early in the day. "He is a lovely loose colt with a lovely intelligent face and beautiful markings," Waterhouse said. "I saw him and all of a sudden I thought, 'there is the jewel.'" Brown had previously consigned 12 yearlings through his uncle's Kilora Farm, and that draft has yielded no less than 10 winners, including five city winners and two stakes performers. The consignor confessed he'd had a sales-eve nightmare that he missed the auction ring appearance of his star colt. The sales-day reality was potentially worse--the laid-back colt, uncharacteristically aggressive during a pre-sales inspection less than an hour before he went into the ring, set about attacking trainer Lee Freedman. "The horse had just been bitten by a wasp, and he was kicking and trying to bite Lee," Brown explained. "I thought, 'there goes Lee,' but I understand he was underbidder." He added, "After selling under my uncle's banner, we decided this year, with six yearlings, to do it ourselves and stay in Melbourne, and they say fortune favours the brave." The colt's dam Oubladee (Aus) was Brown's first mare purchase, a A$35,000 buy Perfect Timing...

Newcastle-based trainer Paul Perry went to A$210,000 to secure an elegant grey filly by Swettenham Stud sire Dash For Cash (Aus) for A$210,000. The filly is a half-sibling to Saturday's Premier Race winner Carnero (Aus) (Carnegie). Anthony Mithen, from Rosemont Farm, said the filly had been extremely popular even before Carnero's success Saturday. "She is a lovely filly," Mithen said. "She was out a lot, and then all of a sudden she became something extra special--they say timing is everything. She has a brilliant temperament, but she is a tired girl tonight. I don't think anyone here at the sales has not asked to see her and she has been sensational, she just hasn't put a foot wrong."

184, c, Commands (Aus)--Silver Jubilee (Aus),
by Quest for Fame (GB)

Consigned by Yallambee Stud

Woodlands Stud stallion Commands is posting respectable results on the racetrack, with Group 1 winner Paratroopers (Aus) collecting the G2 Expressway S. a week ago to become Commands' seventh individual SW this season. He is second only to Encosta de Lago (Aus) on that list. Commands, who covered 154 mares off a fee of A$66,000 in 2007, is headed for a third straight top 10 finish on the general sires list this season, having finished seventh for the past two years running. The son of Danehill averaged A$199,788 for 33 sold last season, off a fee of A$30,000. Yallambee is among the biggest Victorian vendors, with 39 catalogued, and this colt is typical of the quality one can expect from the Woodard family's stud. He is bred on the same cross as SP Leige (Aus) and Silverpoint (Aus); and his dam has a colt by Yallambee resident stallion God's Own (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) at foot and is back in foal to God's Own (Aus).

247 c, Encosta de Lago (Aus)--Titanic Rose (Aus),
by Flying Spur (Aus)

Consigned by Phoenix Broodmare Farm

Inglis has heavily promoted the fact that star Hong Kong sprinter Sacred Kingdom (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) is a Premier sale graduate, and this colt is among nine by the same sire catalogued here. Flying Spur's damsire Rolls is of course, the second dam of Encosta de Lago; the cross has thus far produced Group 3-placed Astounded (Aus) and SP Butzie, by Encosta de Lago stallion Delago Brom (Aus). This colt, to be offered by Damian Gleeson's boutique farm Phoenix, is out of a half-sister to MSW Titanic Jack (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}). Titanic Rose had a colt by Giant's Causeway knocked down for A$200,000 at Magic Millions 2006.

255 c, Elvstroem (Aus)--True Believer (Aus),
by Is It True
Consigned by Blue Gum Farm

This charismatic bay is the spitting image of his own sire, with the exception that the yearling has two white hind socks, whereas Elvstroem has one. The strongly made colt is out of a winning half-sister to G1 Australian Cup victor Old Comrade (Aus) and SW All The Aces (Aus), and True Believer has three winners to date, all by Encosta de Lago (Aus). The first yearlings by Elvstroem, winner of five Group 1 races including the Dubai Duty Free, are generating much excitement. With representatives such as this strapping colt, the hype seems justified.

286 c, Flying Spur (Aus)--Wet Suit (Aus),
by Naturalism (NZ)
Consigned by Fulmen Park

G1 Golden Slipper victor Forensics (Aus) (Flying Spur {Aus}) made a timely winning return at Randwick Mar. 1, when she collected the G2 Light Fingers S. to put her sire back in the spotlight. Flying Spur has had some noteworthy stakes-placed horses of late, including Group 1 placegetter Magnus (Aus), but few to salute the judge until Forensics rectified things. This colt is surely an early type, as he is by a Golden Slipper winner and out of a half-sister to champion juvenile Victory Vein (Aus). He is the first foal from the daughter of Naturalism (Aus).

332 c, Exceed and Excel (Aus)--Arletty (Aus),
by Centaine (Aus)
Consigned by Willow Park Stud

Top-end consignors Glenn Burrows and Joan Faras opted to reshuffle their traditional Easter and Magic Millions drafts this season to return to Premier for the first time since 2004 with a select draft of seven, including two by hot freshman Exceed and Excel (Aus). This elegant, grown chestnut is out of MSW Arletty (Aus), the dam of two winners to date; she has a Stravinsky juvenile that fetched A$150,000 at Easter last year. Arletty is from the immediate family of Group 1 winners Legs (NZ), Guyno (NZ) and Sixty Seconds (NZ).

What They're Saying At The Sales...

Pedigree Analyst Jane Henning:

"There are some very nice first season sires and I think there is a lot of hype about those. Then there's horses like Exceed and Excel (Aus) and Hussonet that have really produced in the last few months, and there is a lot of demand, and higher prices, for those. Everyone is champing at the bit to get out there and spend some money, and if you didn't go to New Zealand, then this is where you start."

Inglis Melbourne Director Peter Heagney:

"This is a really good start, but we have a long way to go with two more sessions, so we won't be counting our chickens yet. We were very pleased with our catalogue this year, but we do have 180 more horses and that, in itself, could have meant that results were a little more diluted. We were not overly confident, but we were somewhat buoyed by the strength of the New Zealand sale. However, they had a few advantages over us-- no EI, no disruption to their racing, and a strong international market, which we weren't confident we could have here. I think I can definitely say now the market has no qualms about horses that have had EI. Horses that have had EI are back racing, and racing really well, in Sydney, they are highly competitive against horses that did not have EI, so it doesn't seem as if it makes any difference."

Trainer Gai Waterhouse:

"I think it is a strong sale. I expected the market to be buoyant still; the economy is strong, but the market may be affected [by rising interest rates] later in the year or next year."

Ten Meropa, a $67,000 KEESEP yearling and 70,000gns TATHIT purchase, graduated second time out going six furlongs over the Polytrack at Wolverhampton last June. Out of the money in a Goodwood handicap in August, the dark bay finished well to be third when returned to that synthetic surface Aug. 30. Sixth in his final European start for trainer Jamie Osborne in the G3 Sirenia S. at Kempton Sept. 8, the colt was let go at 12-1 for his U.S. bow. Off a step slow at the start, he languished behind early splits of :21.70, :43.70 and 1:06.98. Angled six wide turning for home, Ten Meropa--who was on his wrong lead the length of the stretch--wore down favorite Sky Cape to score by a widening margin.

Mar. 29. Winner of last December's GIII Vernon O. Underwood S., Bushwacker finished 11th most recently in the Sunshine Millions Sprint at Gulfstream Jan. 26. The six-year-old worked five furlongs in :57.40 at Hollywood Friday, the fastest of 31 moves at the distance. "That's only half of it," explained trainer Bill Currin. "He galloped out in 1:09 3/5. He's ready. I worked him with no Lasix, because I can't use it [in Dubai]. He's sound and ready to travel." Joe Talamo gets the mount in the Shaheen. Also heading to compete in the World Cup undercard, Barbecue Eddie, runner-up to In Summation in the Jan. 1 GIII El Conejo H. and most recently in the Jan. 21 GII Palos Verdes H., will have two more workouts before leaving for Dubai. "If everything goes well, we'll be there," trainer Brian Koriner said. The gelding finished third in last year's GI Ancient Title H, which was won by Idiot Proof (Benchmark), also slated for the Shaheen. Idiot Proof worked a half mile in :47.80 at Santa Anita Saturday.

BLACKBERRY ROAD BREEZES Dogwood Stable's Blackberry Road (Gone West) breezed five furlongs in 1:02.20 at Fair Grounds yesterday in his final major work in advance of Saturday's GII Louisiana Derby. The work was the 28th fastest of 60 at the distance. "He went fine," said trainer David Carroll. "He's never been a big work horse. We just needed to give him a little maintenance move." Runner-up to Z Fortune in the mile GIII LeComte S. Jan. 12, the dark bay was fifth after encountering traffic in the GIII Risen Star S. Feb. 9. "It doesn't look like it's going to be a real big field," Carroll added. "But it's going to be a good field. What we'd really like to have more than anything else is a clean trip." Also out for a maintenance breeze at the Fair Grounds Sunday was stablemate Denis of Cork (Harlan's Holiday). Undefeated in three starts, the bay negotiated five panels in 1:01.60. The Florida-bred is scheduled to make his next start in the GIII Rebel S. at Oaklawn Mar. 15.

UNBRIDLED VICAR GETS TUNE UP Jim Tafel's Unbridled Vicar (Vicar) breezed five furlongs in 1:02.40 at the Fair Grounds Sunday morning in preparation for Saturday's GII Louisiana Derby. "He worked very good," said trainer Greg Geier. The colt finished fourth most recently in the GIII Risen Star S. Feb. 9. "The [exercise rider] was pleased and I was pleased," Geier added. "So we're all ready to go now." In his seasonal debut, the gelding was runner-up to Denis of Cork in a one-mile and 40 yard allowance at the Fair Grounds Jan. 19.

Visionaire Heads to Gotham...

Visionaire (Grand Slam) will make his next start in Saturday's GIII Gotham S. at Aqueduct, trainer Michael Matz told Daily Racing Form. Third behind Pyro last time in the GIII Risen Star S. Feb. 9, the chestnut breezed five panels in 1:00.60 at Palm Meadows Saturday.

"We finally settled on the Gotham, because it looks like the best alternative at this time," Matz told DRF. "The Louisiana Derby is coming up very tough, and I want to give him the best chance I can to earn some money and see where he fits in the Derby picture." The colt, who has raced over four different tracks in four starts, will be making his first start in New York. "Obviously the inner track's a question, but he's got a good head on him and has handled every track we've tried him on so far."

Shediak Makes U.S. Debut in San Felipe...

Paul Boghossian's Shediak (Fr) (Selkirk) will mark his U.S. debut in the GII San Felipe S. at Santa Anita Mar. 15, reports the Daily Racing Form. A winner first time out in a Deauville allowance Aug. 7, the French-bred finished runner-up next time in the G3 Prix La Rochette at Longchamp Sept. 9. In his seasonal finale for trainer Andre Fabre, the colt was third behind Rio de la Plata in the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere Oct. 7. Initially with Richard Mandella after his state-side arrival, the sophomore was later sent to join the string of Doug O'Neill. "When Paul bought the horse, that was one of the things we thought about--could he handle the main track in the United States?" O'Neill told DRF, adding, "He's got amazing form [in France]. He's absolutely an exceptional horse. If he can transfer that form on the main track, he could be any kind."

HEY BYRN (c, 3, Put It Back--Restraining Order {MSP}, by Skip Trial), second in last year's Affirmed S. at Calder, demolished a talented allowance field with a 14 1/2-length victory over one mile Feb. 10. Trying nine furlongs for the first time, the bay colt sat just off pedestrian fractions of :24.74, :50.17 and 1:13.82. He powered to the lead with a furlong to run and easily pulled clear to a six-length triumph at 2-1. "I'm really pleased with the way this horse has come around this year," said winning trainer Eddie Plesa, Jr. "It's on to the [Mar. 29 GI] Florida Derby from here, although we'll need to find another rider because Edgar [Prado] will be riding in Dubai that day." Hey Byrn was a $30,000 OBSAUG yearling and a $160,000 OBSMAR juvenile. Longshot Wonder Mon (Maria's Mon) closed late for second, 3/4 lengths in front of pacesetting Sleuse (Grand Slam). Bordeaux Bandit (Vindication), up close early, tired to fourth, while favored Alaazo (A.P. Indy) stalked the pace before tiring to sixth and last. [Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Karakorum Starlet, second in the Jan. 1 Interborough H., bested state-bred foes to take the Jan. 11 Ruby Rubles S. over track and trip before a fifth-place effort in the Feb. 16 GII Barbara Fritchie H. last time out. The chestnut mare was pressured through opening fractions of :22.79 and :46.57. She kicked clear turning for home before completing the five furlongs in :58.99, and held on gamely along the rail down the stretch for a narrow victory over Wishing Wishes. "She's just a nice horse, and I am glad for [owner] Karakorum [Farm]," said winning trainer Jeff Odintz. "We have a nice mare that just keeps ticking along. Just like a car, all we have to do is change the oil on her. Karakorum puts a lot of hard work into this, and this one has been our best horse so far. Hopefully, she has a lot more races in her." Winning rider Stewart Elliott added, "She tries hard and puts herself right in the race. She broke great, and she was right where she was supposed to be. It was all a question of whether she could hold them off at the end and she did." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

TEMPO FIVE (g, 4, Five Star Day--Lively Tempo, by Lively One), who debuted with a win for a $15,000 tag at Mountaineer last July, was claimed for $25,000 from a successful effort at Presque Isle Downs in September before adding a half-length victory versus $50,000 claimers at Keeneland Oct. 12. Making his first start since then, and his first start on the turf, the chestnut gelding battled on the front end, opened a clear advantage in upper stretch and held sway to best Panel (Rahy) by a half-length at 7-2. MANDURO NAMED HORSE OF THE YEAR

Manduro (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}--Mandellicht {Ire}, by Be My Guest) was yesterday named France's Horse of the Year at a special ceremony staged at Auteuil racecourse. Last year's G1 Prix d'Ispahan, G1 Prince of Wales's S. and G1 Prix Jacques le Marois hero, who now stands as a Darley stallion, was also crowned champion older horse in the 29th edition of the awards organised by the publication Courses et Elevage, and decided by a ballot of French racing journalists. Baron Georg von Ullmann, who raced Manduro, was on hand to accept the title. "I am very honoured and would like to thank Mr Fabre and all his team for the good work they have done with this horse," he said. "I would also like to thank the French for taking him to their hearts, despite the fact that he was not bred here and is not by a French sire." Heading the three-year-old colt category was G1 Champion S. winner Literato (Fr) (Kendor {Fr}), who has been sold to Godolphin by Herve Morin; Princess Zahra Aga Khan's Darjina (Fr) (Zamindar) was at the top of the sophomore filly tree. Her exploits in winning the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches, G1 Prix d'Astarte and G1 Prix du Moulin saw her finish runner-up in the Horse of the Year category. His Highness the Aga Khan's two-year-old filly Zarkava (Ire) (Zamindar) was also named the champion juvenile, courtesy of her impressive success in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac. Stefan Friberg's G1 Cheveley Park S. scorer Natagora (Fr) (Divine Light {Jpn}) was runner-up, with Coolmore's recent acquisition, the G1 Criterium International hero Thewayouare (Kingmambo), in third.
