NASHOBA'S KEY BACK ON TRACK

Nashoba's Key (Silver Hawk), who opened her career with seven straight wins in Southern California last year before struggling through a rough trip when fourth in the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf and chasing home Quite a Bride in the Jan. 26 Sunshine Millions F/M Turf, regained her winning form with style in yesterday's GI Santa Margarita Invitational H. at Santa Anita. The five-year-old mare scored Grade I wins over the all-weather, in the GI Vanity H., and over the turf in the GI Yellow Ribbon H., was returning to the main track for the first time since winning the GII Clement L Hirsch H. at Del Mar last August. Nashoba's Key, sent off the prohibitive 1-2 favorite, loped along in second as Dawn After Dawn (Successful Appeal) led the field through fractions of :24.70, :50.03 and 1:14.27. She gained command into the stretch and never looked back, extending her advantage to 4 1/2 lengths at the wire. "It was a beautiful race for her, wasn't it?" asked winning trainer Carla Gaines. "The pace was very slow, but she was sitting right where she should be. When [Garrett Gomez] pushed the button, she exploded." Cont. p3

PYRO TO DARLEY AFTER RACING CAREER

A day after Pyro (Pulpit--Wild Vision, by Wild Again) cemented his position as early favorite for the Kentucky Derby with a win in the GII Louisiana Derby, it was announced yesterday that the three-year-old colt will stand at Sheikh Mohamed bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Darley in Lexington at the conclusion of his career. Pyro launched himself to the front of the sophomore division with a visually impressive win in the Feb. 9 GIII Risen Star S. "His turn of foot in the Risen Star was just so visually impressive," said Dan Pride, COO of Darley America. "Add to that his assertive victory in the Louisiana Derby and we feel extremely excited and privileged to have him coming to Darley. He has all the ingredients to be a superstar on the race-track and at stud." Pyro, a Winchell Thoroughbreds homebred, was also second in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile and GI Champagne S. "To have our homebred Pyro retiring to Darley is extremely exciting," said Ron Winchell. "Although we're certainly a bit prejudiced about him, I really do think that the success he has shown on the track will follow him to the stallion barn." Pyro is expected to race in the Winchell colors through this year's Breeders' Cup.

The consistent Spring Waltz, first or second in all eight of her previous starts, rode a three-race win streak into her stakes debut yesterday. The gray mare was coming off a 13-length romp over track and trip in a Feb. 17 optional claimer. Allowed to settle off the pace early, Spring Waltz inched closer on the turn, forged to the lead between foes with a furlong to run and drew clear to the wire. "There was no question that I was concerned with getting stuck behind horses on the final turn," admitted winning jockey Javier Castellano. "We had to squeeze through a little bit, but she's got a big heart. As soon as we made it through, she hit another gear and took off. I really like riding her because I can do whatever I want to do on her. In her last race she was on the lead and this race I put her behind horses. [Trainer Brian Lynch] told me that he wasn't going to tell me how to ride the race, but that he did have a little concern with the early speed.

"He wanted me to be patient, but he said it was up to me. She's a very nice filly." Spring Waltz didn't make it to the races until she was a four-year-old last summer, but has proven worth the wait. "She had several issues as a young horse, including shin problems, but [owner Frank Stronach] said to persevere with her, that he thought he believed she would be worth the wait," Lynch explained. "So she didn't start until last year as a four-year-old and she developed through her conditions, improving all the time. I think she'll run in the two-turn stakes [GII Louisville Breeders' Cup] on Derby Day at Churchill Downs when we'll have Sugar Swirl for the [GI] Humana Distaff. I think I'll have both of them through those races, and then they'll go with Bobby [Frankel] while I go back to Canada."

A Coglianese

Hystericalady won last year's GI Humana Distaff and GII Molly Pitcher Breeders' Cup H. and missed by just a nose in the GI Lady's Secret S. and capped a successful season with a game runner-up effort behind Ginger Punch in the Oct. 27 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff. She tired to fourth while making her 2008 bow in the Feb. 2 SI Santa Monica H., but was more than up to the task in her second outing of the year yesterday. The chestnut mare settled into a stalking second as Clever Strike set tepid fractions of :23.87, :48.27 and 1:12.81. She took over under her own power turning for home, drew clear and finished well in hand.

The Santa Margarita was a reunion for Nashoba's Key and Gomez, who rode the mare in the first three starts of her career last winter. "She's gotten a lot better since I rode her last year," Gomez admitted. "I thought maybe the one would go with Sadler's filly [Dawn after Dawn], but Victor [Espinoza] made an easy lead and I was fine with that. I've been riding that filly and I was confident Victor would get her to relax and they'd come back to us down the backside and they did. We were able to sit just outside her and I think that gave us our best opportunity to win. It's great to be back on this filly." Nashoba's Key versatility, makes Gaines's job easier. "She seems to love both surfaces [turf and synthetic]. I'm not sure which one she prefers more. That makes it easy to pick races for her." Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}), second choice on the morning line, was scratched after trainer John Shirreffs determined she wasn't 100 percent after missing training time before the race. MR. SEKIGUCHI HAILS FROM A SENSATIONAL FAMILY OF SIREs AND RUNNERS THAT JUST KEEPS GETTING BETTER

Mr. Sekiguchi is an $8 million yearling by Storm Cat out of Welcome Surprise, a half-sister to A.P. Indy and Summer Squall.

The dam of Mr. Sekiguchi is also a half-sister to Weekend Storm, the dam of Court Vision, winner of the Grade 2 Remsen and a leading contender for the 2008 Classics, and Kipling, who did not earn blacktype as a runner but now stands in Kentucky after siring 7% Stakes winners from his first 4 crops, including 2007 Breeders' Cup Mile (G1) winner Kip Deville.

Triple Threats

INDIAN BLESSING EARNS A REST

Last year's champion juvenile filly champion Indian Blessing (Indian Charlie) will be rested after suffering the first loss of her career when second in Saturday's GII Fair Ground Oaks and could miss the May 2 GI Kentucky Oaks. "I think I might just might freshen her up," said trainer Bob Baffert yesterday. "I don't know about the Kentucky Oaks. I might not run her." Baffert added the Fair Grounds Oaks was not a complete loss. "We learned something in the Fair Grounds Oaks," the trainer said. "Garrett [Gomez] tried to get her to slow down, but she was fighting him. We realized that you've got to just let her go or she's not going to give you that extra kick. She's just fast. Her weapon is to run them off their feet and just separate herself and let them come get her."

DERBY HOPEFULS LOOK FORWARD AFTER SATURDAY STAKES ACTION

Pyro (Pulpit) exited his win in Saturday's GII Louisiana Derby in fine shape. "He's doing wonderful," Evan Downing, assistant to trainer Steve Asmussen, said yesterday. "He's perfect this morning." Asmussen said Saturday that Pyro would likely work one more time at Fair Grounds before shipping to Kentucky for the Apr. 12 GI Toyota Blue Grass S. My Pal Charlie (Indian Charlie), second as a 60-1 longshot in the Louisiana Derby, was also doing well Sunday. "That was a lot of fun yesterday and I like the way he looks this morning," said trainer Al Stall, Jr, who also saddled Ketchikan to a runner-up finish in last year's Louisiana Derby. "That race yesterday was very exciting. When [My Pal Charlie] started to open up in midstretch, my heart started pumping and my blood pressure went way up. I thought they might have to get the paddles out to keep me going." Stall said plans for My Pal Charlie are undecided. Third-place finisher Yankee Bravo (Yankee Gentleman) has likely earned himself a spot in the Apr. 5 GI Santa Anita Derby. "He seems fine this morning," trainer Paddy Gallagher said yesterday from Santa Anita. "It was no disgrace losing to Pyro. He's very, very good. That was Yankee Bravo's first race on dirt and he seemed to handle it well." Proud Spell (Proud Citizen), who handed champion Indian Blessing the first loss of her career when winning the GII Fair Grounds Oaks Saturday, is also in fine fettle. "We feel our filly is getting better all the time," said trainer Larry Jones. "She was a late May foal, so she's really just now coming to hand. After the Silverbulletday last month, our filly came out of the race pretty tired, but this morning she's acting like she hasn't done anything."

GOTHAM RUNNERS LOOK FORWARD

GIII Gotham S. winner Visionaire (Grand Slam) came out of his late-closing win in good shape and will ship back Palm Meadows Tuesday. "I couldn't see much of the race on TV because of the fog," admitted trainer Michael Matz. "I was extremely pleased with the race considering where he came from." As for what is next, Matz added, "We'll wait to see how he is when he gets back to Florida before deciding on his next start. He seems to run best with four to five weeks between races." Previously unbeaten Giant Moon (Giant's Causeway) struggled home last over the muddy track in the Gotham, but returned from the effort in good shape. "He was trying to grap a hold of everybody in the barn this morning," reported trainer Rick Schosberg. "His legs were ice cold and he ate up tight. His energy level is through the roof." Giant Moon could start next in the GI Wood Memorial or GII Illinois Derby, both Apr. 5.

COUNTRY STAR GEARS UP FOR ASHLAND

Country Star (Empire Maker), who worked five furlongs Thursday at Hollywood Park in 1:02.80, will have four more works prior to making her sophomore debut in the Apr. 5 GI Ashland S. at Keeneland. The Bobby Frankel trainee won the GI Darley Alcibiades as a maiden over that track last October. She has been off since winning the Dec. 15 GI Hollywood Startlet. "We'll see about the [Kentucky] Oaks after the Ashland," said Frankel.

Louis Olah Dies:

Louis Olah, the longtime "colors man" in the jockeys' room at Aqueduct, Belmont and Saratoga, passed away Saturday night at the age of 79 following a brief illness. Olah won his first race as a jockey in 1946 and retired in 1966 and had served at NYRA for 41 years. He is survived by Clare, his wife of 58 years, and daughter Donna. Viewing will be held at Romanelli Funeral Home in Ozone Park on Mar. 11 from 7 to 9 p.m. and Mar. 12 from 2 to 5 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m. A memorial service will be held Mar. 12 at 8 p.m. at the funeral home.

PEACE CHANT (War Chant) returns after a 10-month absence. The Stonestreet Stables colorbearer, second to Too Much Bling in the 2006 GII San Vicente S., managed just three starts last term, but won two allowance races and was beaten only a half-length by Sailors Sunset (Petionville) in the GII Los Angeles H. in May. The five-year-old hasn't raced since and in his comeback gets a tough, stakes-quality allowance field that includes his old friend Sailors Sunset. Declan's Moon (Malibu Moon) won a Hollywood allowance last July, but went unplaced in two stakes and has been on the shelf since September. Hewitts (Concerto) has won two straight, while last year's GII Swaps S. runner-up Albertus Maximus (Albert the Great) scales back to sprinting while trying to break a four-race winless skid. DEADLY DEALER (c, 4, Concerto--Deadly, by Williamstown) was briefly on the Derby trail last year after a big allowance win over this surface, but a well-beaten third to Curlin in the GII Arkansas Derby revealed possible distance limitations. The colt ran poorly in the GII Woody Stephens S. that June and in a Saratoga allowance in July and was subsequently shelved for the remainder of the season. Given a 3-1 chance by Gulfstream's faithful to get it done on return, Deadly Dealer dueled Disfunction (Vying Victor) into submission, responded gamely when favored Forefathers (Gone West) ranged up and maintained a nose advantage to the line. I LOST MY CHOO (f, 3, Western Expression--Fairy Queen, by Tom Rolfe), a half to Kevin's Decision (Expensive Decision), MSW, $218,374, was a 23-1 bomb when she defeated Gulfstream maidens on the grass Jan. 6, but was a respectable 7-2 shot doubling up with an allowance victory Feb. 1. The 2-1 chalk going for three in a row here, the Flying Zee New York-bred raced along in fifth off a sensible pace, launched a wide rally in the lane and was up late to post the half-length tally over Shes All Eltish (Eltish). MAGIC MLLIONS ADELAIDE BEGINS Adelaide Magic Millions Yearling Sale annually records modest averages, however, in recent years the catalogue has yielded more than its share of stakes winning graduates with recent Group 1 winners Divine Madonna (Aus) (Hurricane Sky {Aus}), Devil Moon (Aus) (King Cugat), Young Centaur (Aus) (Jeune {GB}) and Spin Around (Aus) (Spinning World). "From a relatively small catalogue, no sale can rival ours for true value for money,"
 Magic Millions' Adelaide manager Grant Burns said.
 Recent stakes winner include the Leon Macdonald trained stablemates Augusta Proud (Aus) (More Than Ready) and Tosstestaroan (Aus) (Testa Rossa). Burns said the last year's Equine Influenza outbreak had led to a number of interstate yearlings not making it to the 2008 catalogue. "On paper, the catalogue appears a bit lighter this year, but we've got some really attractive prospects for sale." The sale features members of the last crop of 1994 Melbourne Cup winner Jeune (GB) who has 10 catalogued. Jeune died at the age of 17 after 10 years at stud at the Hayes family's Lindsay Park Stud at Angaston in South Australia. Two South Australian based sires with big line ups in the catalogue of first crop yearlings are Willo Grove Stud's Mugharreb
 (GB) (Gone West) with 28 and Lindsay Park freshman
 Face Value (Aus) (Red Ransom), with 27.

Last year, a total of 229 from 352 catalogued sold at an average of A$40,059 and aggregate of A$9,173,500, with top price of A$280,000 for a filly by Redoute's Choice (Aus). The sale begins at 6:30pm at the Morphettville Sales Complex, slightly later than scheduled due to the fact the last race on Adelaide Cup day is not until 5:55 p.m. The second session starts 11 a.m. Tuesday ahead of a third session starting 6 p.m. on Wednesday.

WHITE YEARLING OFFERED AT MM GOLD

COAST A three-quarter sister to MG1W Might and Power (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}) is attracting plenty of attention ahead of the Magic Millions Gold Coast Sale as a rare white thoroughbred. Lot 583, to be offered by Craig Anderson's Amarina draft, is by the bay Zabeel
 (NZ) out of Carmina Burana (NZ) (Star Way), a chestnut. Anderson said the filly, who is being sold on behalf of breeders Pinnacle Thoroughbreds, was a lovely individual who would attract buyers for more reasons than just her rare colour. "As an individual, she's very attractive and has plenty to appeal. Her pedigree is fantastic," he said. Might and Power won 15 races during his illustrious career including the spring's big three--the Caulfield and Melbourne Cups and Cox Plate. He earned over A$5.2 million. The first four sessions of the Gold Coast sale runs from Mar. 24 through Mar. 27, and the filly will go through the ring during the later stages of the third session Mar. 26.

35, c, Blevic (Aus)--Sunday Shoes (Aus), by Kenvain (Aus)
Consigned by Kambula Stud

The Toole family's Kambula Stud is off to a cracking start on all fronts in 2008 with resident stallion Blevic, a G1 Victoria Derby winning son of Scenic, notching no less than five individual winners last week, including Adelaide Cup aspirant Exalted Ego (Aus), who won the G3 SAJC Carlton Draught S. by almost four lengths. In the sale-ring, Kambula hit the headlines at Perth MM
 selling an Exceed and Excel (Aus)--Magic Heaven (Aus) filly for A$310,000. The 1200-acre property on the Yorke Peninsula in South Australia stands only Blevic and from modest opportunities the elegant bay, who stood last season at A$5,500, has sired 14 stakes winners to date. This neat, strong colt is the first foal from a stakes placed mare who won six races and more than A$190,000. Sunday Shoes (Aus) has a colt by Stratum (Aus) and is back in foal to Blevic (Aus).

37, f, Flying Spur (Aus)--Super Snooper (Aus), by Zeditave (Aus)

Consigned by Caithness Breeding

This bright chestnut filly from grand producer Super Snooper (Aus), the dam of six winners from six to race, including SW Forest Spy (Aus) (Shinko Forest), is by reigning champion sire Flying Spur (Aus). Super Snooper missed in 2006 and was covered by Dane Shadow (Aus) last spring.

Sean and Cathy Dingwall's Caithness Breeding will also offer a bay filly by Lucky Owners (NZ) from Hip Hop (Aus), the dam of classy sprinter Tramuntana (Aus) (Singspiel {Ire}) who was a surprise third to (Aus) Weekend Hussler and Magnus (Aus) in the G1 Oakleigh Plate a fortnight ago.

46, c, Bel Esprit (Aus)--Tennessee Moon (Aus), by Marscay (Aus)

Consigned by Ballarto Lodge

Bel Esprit (Aus) (Royal Academy) covered 265 mares last spring at a fee of A$20,000 at Eliza Park and he is very much in vogue courtesy of recent SW Bel Mer (Aus), Belcentra (Aus) and Gabbidon (Aus); he is currently trailing Hussonet on the second season sire table. This colt is very similar to Bel Esprit, a strongly-made youngster with plenty of presence, and he hails from a well known family. He is out of a half-sister to MSW two-year-old Tennessee Morn (Aus) and his second dam is MSW and outstanding producer Tennessee Vain (Aus) (Whiskey Road). Tennessee Moon (Aus) has a Bel Esprit colt at foot and is in foal to Econsul (NZ).
