SONGSTER BACK TO TRAINING

Darley has announced the MGSW Songster (Songandaprayer--Peppy Lapeau, by French Deputy), who entered stud this year at the operation's Kentucky base, will return to training due to "undetermined fertility issues." Stallion Nominations Manager Charlie Boden said, "It's obviously an unfortunate situation, but one that happens occasionally in our business. Our goal now is to take care of the breeders that committed to Songster the best we can. After that, we look forward to seeing him perform once again on the track." The five-year-old, winner of the GII Woody Stephens BC S. and GIII Hirsch Jacobs S. at three for trainer Tom Albertrani in Sheikh Mohammed's colors, raced in the Godolphin blue in 2007, capturing the GIII Bold Ruler H. in his finale last May. The black horse entered stud with a record of 8-4-3-0 and earnings of $367,740.

BEJARANO INJURED AT SANTA ANITA

Jockey Rafael Bejarano, involved in a spill in Thursday's last race at Santa Anita, suffered fractured vertebrae in the accident. He will be sidelined two-to-four weeks. Bejarano was injured when his mount, Parisian Art, collapsed at the eighth pole of an apparent heart attack and threw him to the ground. He was taken to Arcadia Methodist Hospital, and released last night. The 25-year-old visited orthopedic surgeon Dr. Dan Capen Friday. "[Capen] said that the fifth and sixth vertebra touched from the impact, and [they] have cracks in them," his agent, Joe Ferrer said. "They didn't crack through, just in the front. He put a brace on Rafael to keep him stable. He should be able to ride in a month. It could have been worse. If it was cracked all the way through, it would have been harder to stabilize." Ferrer added, "Dr. Capen will look at Rafael in another week, but he said he should be out, tops, four weeks, and we could be looking at maybe two or three weeks. He said Rafael is young and he'll heal fast." A native of Peru, Bejarano is currently the second-leading rider in the country with $3,745,780 in purses.

After settling for minor awards in four straight stakes starts, Indian Sun (Indian Charlie) had blinkers added for a Santa Anita turf allowance Feb. 23 and battled his way to a nose score. Jockey Alex Solis, who has been aboard the bay colt in every one of his starts, is hoping he will show the same form when he returns to the all-weather and to stakes competition for the GII San Felipe S. at Santa Anita. "We put blinkers on last time, and that worked a little bit," Solis said. "Indian Sun is a horse with a lot of talent and he's just learning. Before the blinkers, he wasn't paying attention. That's the reason we put shades on him. He's a nice horse; we'll see what happens." Indian Sun was second in the GIII Generous S. on grass last year and in the GIII San Rafael S. on synthetic in January. San Felipe cont. p2

Making the Grade?

Bob Black Jack (Stormy Jack), winner of the Dec. 26 California Breeders Championship S. and the Jan. 26 Sunshine Millions Dash in his last two starts, has tried graded company just once before. Off at 11-1 in the Nov. 22 GIII Hollywood Prevue S., the dark bay raced in the middle of the pack and lacked a late kick, finishing fourth. The Cal-bred tries a distance beyond seven panels for the first time as he returns to the graded ranks in the San Felipe. "Those last two races have been pretty easy wins for him," said trainer and co-owner James Kasparoff. "They helped build his confidence, and this horse is ready for bigger challenges." He will have to be. Headlining the field is GI Del Mar Futurity winner Georgie Boy (Tribal Rule). The gelding was sidelined after beating Salute The Sarge "where the surf meets the turf." He came back to take the Feb. 10 GII San Vicente S. by a decisive 3 1/4 lengths. Jockey Michael Baze, picking up the mount from the injured Rafael Bejarano, will be piloting Georgie Boy in his first route attempt. Trainer Kathy Walsh is hopeful her charge will get the San Felipe trip. "The thing that matters most is a good mental attitude," Walsh Told Daily Racing Form. "You can't get rank. He's going to have to be mentally on top of his game. He has to relax."

The wild card in the field is Shediak (Fr) (Selkirk). Imported from France, the bay was second in the G3 Prix La Rochette and third in the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere last year. He makes his all-weather bow, but has worked sharply on the Hollywood Cushion, going five furlongs in a bullet :59 1/5 Feb. 23. The Aga Khan-bred gets Lasix in his sophomore bow.

Golden Yank won his first three starts, including the Jean Laffitte S. at Delta Downs in November. Caught between horses during the eventful stretch run of the Dec. 7 GIII Delta Jackpot S., the bay gelding ended up third, beaten a neck. He makes his three-year-old bow here. Z Fortune also suffered his first loss last time out, finishing runner-up to Pyro in the Feb. 9 GIII Risen Star S. at Fair Grounds. Visionaire, third in that test, came back to take the GIII Gotham S. at Aqueduct. Looking to get back to winning ways, Z Fortune lures Garrett Gomez to Oaklawn this afternoon. The winner of the Nov. 24 GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. at Churchill, Anak Nakal made his return in the Feb. 24 GII Fountain of Youth S. at Gulfstream, but never got into gear and ran eighth. He gets the chance to redeem himself.

Gulfstream Feb. 24. "My main focus with him leading up to the [Kentucky] Derby is to try to get his fitness level where we need it on the big day," trainer Nick Zito told Daily Racing Form. "Some might feel these first two races were unconventional prepwise, but we already know what he is. He doesn't have to show he belongs. He's already the champion." The Eclipse winner will have his final Kentucky Derby prep in the Apr. 5 GI Wood Memorial at Aqueduct. "Obviously, there will be questions asked as we move along," Zito added. "This race will be tougher than the last, although I wouldn't want too hard a race in Tampa. When we go to the Wood, it will be a different story, although right now I'm not looking past Saturday, since I've learned in this business you never know what can happen from day to day."

Visionaire Likely For Blue Grass...

GIII Gotham S. winner Visionaire (Grand Slam) came back from his Big A success in good order, trainer Michael Matz reported, and has been on a little holiday since his return to Palm Meadows. "I am giving him some easy days," Matz said. "He's been back under tack Thursday and Friday; I had him take a trail ride that is available here. Next week he will go back to the track and start galloping." The Team Valor International colorbearer will most likely make his next appearance in the Apr. 12 GI Toyota Blue Grass S. at Keeneland. He could point for the GII Illinois Derby a week earlier, but the GI Wood Memorial S. that afternoon has been ruled out. "He's run his big race," said Team Valor International President Barry Irwin. "Ideally, we would like to have him run well without peaking in his last race before the Kentucky Derby." Irwin remarked that he liked the idea of giving Visionaire five weeks to recover from his effort in the Gotham. "The three weeks between the Blue Grass and the Derby may be a little close for this particular colt," he added, "but because it comes on Polytrack, it should lessen the impact to the body." According to Matz, "The colt will tell us what he wants to do. If he bounces back quickly, maybe it would make more sense to run him in the Illinois Derby. Let's see how he acts in the coming weeks."

LADY CHACE (f, 3, Tiznow--Squall City {SW, $173,190}, by Carson City) was sent off the 1-5 chalk in her June 28 debut at Monmouth Park and did not disappoint, waltzing home by 10 3/4 lengths. A generous 9-2 in her return to action, the $290,000 KEESEP acquisition hounded odds-on Melissa Jo (Fusaichi Pegasus) from the outset, overtook that rival in upper stretch and went on to a 6 1/2-length victory. Winner for a $35,000 tag at Monmouth Park last summer, Explosive Heat has seen his fortunes change of late. The homebred put together a three-race winning streak last fall, including a head success in a one-mile event over the local main track Nov. 8 followed by a facile win over this surface Jan. 11. The skein was snapped by a runner-up effort in the Feb. 6 Ground Storm S., and the chestnut offered good value in a salty test here. Entered for the claiming tag, Explosive Heat chased the pace outside, poked a head in front after six furlongs and held on late as Angliana turned in a determined late bid. Throng (Silver Deputy) finished fifth. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Gibson County Dead:

Ocala Stud stallion Gibson County (In Excess {Ire}--Miss Gibson County, by Winrightt) died Wednesday after an apparent heart attack. He was 11. Racing in the colors of breeder Mike Pegram, the bay captured three stakes for trainer Bob Baffert, including the 1999 California Breeders' Champion S., and also finished third in the GII San Vicente S. the following season. He compiled a record of 25-5-3-5 and earnings of $376,465. Despite covering a two small books of mares in 2003 and 2004, Gibson County got off to a quick start at stud. From 42 named foals, 25 have started, and 19 of those are winners. He was represented by stakes winner Genuine Talent among his 2006 juveniles, and Sunshine Millions Oaks heroine American County has emerged this season. Gibson County, who stood as the partnership of Pegram and Luke, Kevin and J.B. McKathan, was bred to 107 mares in 2007.

Lattice, winner last season of the GII American Derby, makes his first start since finishing seventh in the GI Secretariat S. Aug. 11. Trainer Al Stall Jr. saddles the four-year-old for the first time this afternoon and is seemingly not expecting a peak performance. "He's a big, heavy horse who's going to need racing, probably," he told Daily Racing Form. Inca King bested Lattice in last year's GII Jefferson Cup S. and has a course-and-distance victory in the Dec. 24 Woodchopper H. The Heiligbrodt runner was most recently a tiring eighth in the GIII Fair Grounds H. Feb. 9, a race in which Sterwins ran on to be third.

The three-length winner of the GII Saratoga Special S. Aug. 16, the bay was runner-up to Tale of Ekati in the GII Futurity S. at Belmont Sept. 15 and concluded his season with a third-place effort in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. Voted the Sovereign Award as the top two-year-old to have raced in Canada and an Eclipse Award finalist in the U.S., Kodiak Kowboy was the prohibitive 2-5 chalk in his three-year-old bow. Trying a route of ground for the first time, the Abercrombie homebred was a close-up third early on as Drift to the Lead (Yonaguska) made the running in her two-turn bow. Set down in upper stretch, she took aim on the front-runner leaving the eighth pole and wore her down for a head victory as the slight 2-1 second choice. Oaklawn Distributing Purse Equally for No-Contest:

Oaklawn Park officials, who declared Thursday's ninth race a no-contest after the starting gate failed to be moved during the running of the 1 1/16 miles allowance, will pay out the $35,000 purse evenly to all 11 participants. "It's a great idea," said trainer Don Von Hemel. "Everybody who participated deserves something for what they went through...Oaklawn Park is showing good faith by doing this." Those sentiments were echoed by all of the trainers involved, including Gary Hartlage, trainer of 3-1 morning-line favorite French Kiss. "It's real good that Oaklawn is doing this," Hartlage remarked. "I'm just thankful that all the fillies in the race came out okay, and now we'll just go to the next round." Oaklawn's Assistant General Manager/Racing, David Longinotti added, "We would like to commend the jockeys for their heads-up riding, especially Calvin Borel, who was on the lead [aboard Richwood Silver] as the field turned for home. Not only was Calvin successful in pulling up his horse, but he did an exceptional job of alerting the other riders in the race. His actions, and the actions of all of the jockeys, was truly professional. No rider or horse was injured--that's what is most important."

Sixth in his Mar. 23 bow at Gulfstream Park, the dark bay was runner-up in a Keeneland Apr. 15, but ballooned to fifth in a June 2 maiden at Belmont Park. The rank outsider in this field at odds of 27-1, Papa Bear raced off a swift early pace and gained ground on the turn. Angled out for the drive, he rallied late for a half-length victory over Mr Gruff (Mr. Greeley). Cat Brulay (Storm Cat) was fourth. Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-0, $40,470.

DENMAN MASTERS THE STAR

Denman (Ire) (Presenting {GB}) overcame his revered stable companion Kauto Star (Fr) (Village Star {Fr}) in a memorable renewal of the G1 Cheltenham Gold Cup yesterday. Touted as the greatest match in decades in the lead-up, the blue riband of the jumping season proved more one-sided than many expected as the 9-4 second favorite galloped clear of his barnmate--and last year's champion--to score by seven lengths. Ridden by Sam Thomas, the imposing chestnut took up the running with a circuit of the Prestbury Park venue remaining and never looked likely to be caught by the 10-11 crowd's choice. Trainer Paul Nicholls, whose trifecta was rounded out by Neptune Collonges (Fr) (Dom Alco {Fr}), was full of praise afterwards. "What a great performance and good for the whole team," he said. "He's just good. Neptune Collonges has been improving all the time and Kauto ran a good race too, but they were beaten on the day by a better horse." Earlier on the nine-race card, which included races rescheduled from Wednesday's abandoned meeting, last year's G1 St Leger seventh Celestial Halo (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) captured the G1 Triumph Hurdle for the Nicholls team.

MASLAHA (GB) (f, 3, Selkirk--Mingora, by Mtoto {GB}), runner-up in a mile maiden on debut here Feb. 20, was hammered down to 10-11. The bay filly raced close to the early pace before quickening to the front approaching the final eighth. Putting her seal on the race instantly, the homebred registered an easy 3 1/2-length defeat of Bahamian Bliss (GB) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}). Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, £3,025.

YORKTOWN (FR) (c, 3, Red Ransom--Wedding Night {Fr} {SW-Fr}, by Valanour {Ire}), who disappointed when last of six in the G3 Prix des Chenes on his last start at Longchamp in September, was sent off the 9-10 favorite to get back on track. Soon in a stalking position, the €180,000 DEAAUG yearling took over with a quarter mile remaining and required only hand riding to comfortably beat Murcielago (Fr) (Spinning World) by a length. Drift Ice, who triumphed in a 1600-meter Carnival handicap at Nad Al Sheba on Valentine's Day, failed to land a blow in his latest, finishing 13th behind Elusive Warning in the G3 Burj Nahaar Mar. 6 over the same track and trip. The bay raced in the rear here, moved into contention at the half-way mark and hit the front late for his first stakes success. "They went very quickly, which has helped as his stamina was always going to be the key to his chances," remarked winning rider Kevin Shea. "He is a real tough horse and has been a great servant." Drift Ice's six-year-old full brother Kayak (SAf) sold for Dhs460,000 at the Dubai International Racing Carnival Sale to Ali Saeed Belhab. Dubai Report cont. p9

ALO PURA (GB) (f, 4, Anabaa--Rubies From Burma {SP-Ire}, by Forty Niner), a 210,000gns TATOCT yearling, missed by a half-length in her career opener at Newmarket July 20 before graduating nine days later going a mile at Ascot for trainer Michael Jarvis. The bay didn't see action again until Dec. 21, when she ran third in a local handicap. After filling the same spot in a similar contest Jan. 4, she was runner-up in a 1200-meter contest Feb. 1 and, two weeks later, missed by just 3/4 of a length going the same distance last out. Alo Pura raced in midpack early, challenged for the lead with 300 meters remaining and outbattled Secret Place (GB) (Compton Place {GB}) to win by a head. FORBES TOPS INGLIS MARCH MELBOURNE

SALE The winning four-year-old gelding Forbes (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}--Indent {NZ}, by Pompeii Court) brought a bid of A$200,000 from Northwest Bloodstock to top yesterday's Inglis March Thoroughbred Sale at Oaklands Junction. Selling as lot 240 from the stable of Lloyd Williams, the bay will now join Queensland-based trainer John Wallace. Of the 290 head offered, 258 (89 percent) sold for an aggregate A$1,996,600. The average was A$7,739 and the median was A$2,600. In all, 32 lots were passed in. "We saw some well-performed horses generate good competition at all levels," said Peter Heagney, director of Inglis's Melbourne division. "We have seen buyers from all over Australia active today and, considering it was a large catalogue, a clearance rate of nearly 90 percent is ample proof of the depth of the sale." Complete results are available on www.inglis.com.au.

HIGHVIEW STUD REDUCTION SUNDAY New Zealand Bloodstock will conduct the Highview Stud Depleting Sale Sunday at the Hamilton-based operation. There are 91 head to be offered, including 28 weanlings, 20 yearlings, 36 broodmares and seven racehorses. Among the sires represented by weanlings and yearlings are Align (Aus), Danroad (Aus) and Johar, who stood two seasons at the stud. Highlighting the broodmares is Senorita Dane (NZ) (Senor Pete), a Group 3 winner carrying her first foal by O'Reilly (NZ). The six-year-old will sell as lot 78. Highview will open to visitors at 10 a.m. that morning, and selling will begin at 1 p.m. with a minimum price of NZ$1,000 for every lot. Catalogues are available on www.nzb.co.nz.
