OBS MARCH HOPES TO SUSTAIN MOMENTUM

The Ocala Breeders' Sales Company begins its two-day 2008 March Selected Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training this morning at 11:00 a.m. Long viewed as a 'racehorse' sale, a place to find hard-knocking runners for good value, March has evolved into an auction that the major players can't afford to miss. That's evidenced by the eight Grade I winners in 2007 who got their beginnings as OBS March prospects. Chief among that group, and featured prominently on the cover of the March catalog, is last year's GI Breeders' Cup Sprint hero and Eclipse Award winner Midnight Lute (Real Quiet). The now five-year-old was offered by consignor Eddie Woods at the 2005 renewal, but was bought back for $290,000. The champion sprinter has now earned over $1.6 million for owners Mike Pegram and Watson & Weitman Performance. Two graduates from last year's sale won Grade I stakes later in the season. The B. Wayne Hughes-owned Into Mischief (Harlan's Holiday), who was sold by M & H Training and Sales for $180,000, won the GI CashCall Futurity. Irish Smoke (Smoke Glacken) was purchased by Buzz Chace on behalf of West Point Thoroughbreds for $285,000 and went on to annex the GI Spinaway S. at Saratoga. Scanlon Training Center consigned Irish Smoke, who was later sold as a racing prospect for $775,000 at the Fasig-Tipton November Sale. In addition Goshawk Ken (Bernstein) was named champion juvenile colt in Japan in 2007. The M & H Training and Sales consignee was sold to Durham Co. Ltd for $160,000. The OBS March Sale really hit its stride two years ago, when the average eclipsed the six-figure mark for the first time. In 2007, the average was $108,545, up 33 percent from the previous year, and that figure held well last year when the average was $104,905. Though that figure was down 3.4 percent, March established a new record median of $82,000, a healthy 9.3-percent boost from the previous year's record. OBS March cont. p2; Adena Springs sale ATW p1

CURLIN MARCHES TOWARD DWC

Having his final serious prep for the Mar. 29 G1 Dubai World Cup, Curlin (Smart Strike), with regular exercise rider Carmen "Carlos" Rosas in the irons, worked six furlongs in 1:13.54, at Nad Al Sheba Racecourse yesterday morning. Scott Blasi, assistant to trainer Steve Asmussen, said the goal was to get the first furlong in :13 and change and the last in :12 and change, noting, "that's exactly what he did." The powerful chestnut, who began the move with an opening eighth of a mile in :13.40, completed his task with a final furlong in :12.19. "That was his major move for the Dubai World Cup, and I couldn't be happier with how he went and the rhythm he is in," explained Blasi. "It was exactly what we had in mind, and he galloped out strong." The reigning Horse of the Year was a physically imposing colt during his three-year-old season, and Blasi indicated that the four-year-old has improved since his GI Breeders' Cup Classic triumph. "He's just a stronger, more mature horse," he said. "He's thicker-- and he's put on weight in all the right places. He was a big horse as a three-year-old, but he's a lot bigger now." According to Blasi, Curlin will have one more timed workout before the Dubai World Cup, but it will not be as demanding as Monday's six-furlong drill.

Yesterday, buyers were out in abundance as cloudless skies and a nice breeze made for optimum conditions. Zayat Stables' Sohby Sonbol, trainers Richard Mandella, John Sadler, and Dan Hendricks and Tom Amoss, and bloodstock agent Bob Feld were among those in attendance. A day earlier, conditioner Barclay Tagg was out bright and early after his big upset win with Big Truck in the GIII Tampa Bay Derby. The brisk action at the barn left sale officials optimistic that March's good run will continue. "I thought the crowd has been very good over the last few days," said OBS General Manager & Director of Sales Tom Ventura. "Based on the feedback I've gotten from buyers and consignors, we've got a really good group of horses." Ventura added that comments about the newly installed SafeTrack surface on the OBS training track continues to be uniformly positive. OBS held its first breeze shows over the track in February. "At this point, hard-pressed to find somebody doesn't like the track," he said.

Behind Candy Store, a Sweet Heart...

It can't be said that Katie O'Connor doesn't have her priorities straight. For the horsewoman, family comes first, everything else second. Just about a dozen years ago, O'Connor, then a full-time trainer at Woodbine, learned her 1 1/2-year-old daughter Allison had juvenile diabetes. Diabetes is always a serious condition, but in young children, the situation can quickly turn dire should they slip into hypoglycemic shock.

For O'Connor, it was a no-brainer. A day after learning the diagnosis, she decided to give up her training career at Woodbine and instead shift to a job that was less transient and time-consuming and one that allowed her to more closely monitor her daughter's health. She moved to Ocala soon after and began breaking and training yearlings. Later, she short-listed yearlings for pinhooker Donna Wormser and started to resell a few horses herself each year through other consignors, notably Hartley/DeRenzo.

Fast forward to 2004. O'Connor, a native of Canada who was initially exposed to the industry through show horses, had finally launched her own juvenile pinhooking operation when a series of serious family illnesses required her time and attention. Selflessly, she pulled the plug on her young venture and for two years focused on her kin once again. Cont. p3

“Whatever you’re in, you have to be in 100 percent,” O’Connor explained. “If not, then you don’t do justice to the people you work for or the horses you have; certainly if you’re looking after people, you have to be in that 100 percent, or they don’t get the care they need.”

But O’Connor is back on her own now and is doing business as the quirkily named The Candy Store (“The candy is the horses. See? They’re sweet. And this is the store,” O’Connor explains.)

If karma accounts for anything, the future certainly should be bright.

The Candy Store comes to the March Sale with a small three-horse draft, but O’Connor has been pleased with the action around her stalls in Barn 2. The probable standout is hip 191, a colt by Pulpit out of Arabic Song (Ire) (Alhaarth {Ire}), a stakes-winning and multiple Grade II-placed mare. O’Connor purchased the colt, named Alli Kat, for $50,000 at the Fasig-Tipton October sale. Alli Kat is the combination of her and her daughter’s names.

“He’s a really cool horse,” said O’Connor. “We’ve had some obstacles with him. When he got here, he got a sliver on his face. But I was real happy with his work. He worked in :10 3/5, galloped out in :21 4/5 and pulled up in :34 \(video\). He’s a big, two-turn horse, and I would imagine he’s turf or dirt. He’s stretchy and pretty and by the right sire.”

Today, O’Connor is still thinking of others, and hopes The Candy Storm can be a means of helping those affected by diabetes.

“I hope someday to do well enough to pledge the proceeds from one horse at each sale to the Diabetic Association,” she said.

And horses aren’t the only O’Connor animals helping to fight diabetes. Allison, who turns 13 on Apr. 7, is a breeder of Jack Russell terriers. A portion of her proceeds go to the Association, a bit goes to Allison for her hard work, and the rest, Katie O’Connor said proudly, “Goes into the college fund.” -L.M.

The bay, a $50,000 KEESEP graduate, worked an eighth in :10 \(video\). He is a son of the stakes-placed mare Points West. Shari Eisaman said, “He’s a big, strong, good-minded race horse.”

Hip 32, Macho Uno--Queen Majesty, by Regal Classic
*Consigned by McKathan Bros., Agent IV

By sophomore sire Macho Uno (Holy Bull), this bay is out of the unraced mare Queen Majesty. He worked an eighth in :10 1/5 \(video\). Kevin McKathan said, “He’s a big, two-turn horse. He’s a real standout, the kind that keeps the dream alive.”

Hip 46, c, Posse--Reverse the Call, Phone Trick
*Consigned by Eddie Woods, Agent XL

This fellow’s good looks are revealed by his $200,000 price tag at last year’s Fasig-Tipton Selected New York-breds sale. The half-brother to stakes winner Long Distance (Expensive Decision) breezed a furlong in :10 1/5 \(video\) at the first breeze show. “He is very quick-looking, kind of what you’d expect from that sire,” said consignor Eddie Woods. “He’s correct and a nice, smart horse, and he’s probably as good a New York-bred as you’ll ever see. He’ll be a good summer horse.”

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will indicate first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

Hip 48, c, City Place--Romantic Honor, by Honor Grades
Consigned by Hoby and Layna Kight, agent for Welcome Gate Farm

By the unraced freshman sire City Place (Storm Cat), the Florida-bred stopped the clock in :21 2/5 (video) in his quarter mile workout. The $95,000 KEESEP graduate is a grandson of Romantic Summer (On to Glory), the dam of MGSW & G2 Godolphin Mile hopeful Diamond Stripes (Notebook), SW Summer Book (Notebook) and GSW Summer Note (Notebook). "A lot of people are liking him," Hoby Kight said. "He's a big, two-turn looking horse that's fast."

Hip 57, c, Cherokee Run--Sasin (Ire), by Last Tycoon (Ire)
Consigned by McKathan Bros., Agent III

Hip 57, a $70,000 KEESEP yearling, worked an eighth in :10 1/5 (video). His second dam, Skisette (Ire) (Malinowski), produced Italian highweight Late Parade (Ire) (Astronof {Ire}). Kevin McKathan said, "He's a stretchy, two-turn horse."

Hip 66, f, Trippi--Sennen Cove, by Cox's Ridge
Consigned by Ocala Stud

This Ocala Stud homebred worked a quarter mile in :21 2/5 (video). She is a half to Ensign Ray (Blue Ensign), MSW & GSP, $329,325. Michael O'Farrell of Ocala Stud said, "She's a very athletic filly; she breezed well, galloped out extremely well. She looks the part, acts the part."

Hip 110, f, Friends Lake--Tack Room, by Tale of the Cat
Consigned by Halcyon Hammock, agent

Out of the winning mare Tack Room, she hails from the first crop of GI Florida Derby winner Friends Lake (A.P. Indy). The bay--who worked a quarter mile in :21 3/5 (video)--was acquired for $87,000 at Keeneland September. Hal Hatch of Halcyon Hammock commented, "She's very athletic. She's out of a Tale of the Cat mare, and she has a lot of that sire in her. She's quick, sharp, very balanced. She wants to be early; she's very precocious."

Hip 128, c, Pure Prize--Time for a Crown, by Time for a Change
Consigned by Leprechaun Racing, agent

This chestnut, from the family of GSW E Z Warrior, completed an eighth of a mile in :10 (video). He was acquired for $30,000 as an OBSAUG yearling.

Hip 132, f, Roar of the Tiger--Toss the Change, by Time for a Change
Consigned by Hartley/De Renzo Thoroughbreds LLC, agent

From the first crop of Roar of the Tiger (Storm Cat), the $75,000 FTKJUL yearling hails from the family of GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness winner Charismatic (Summer Squall) and GI Blue Grass S. hero Millennium Wind (Cryptoclearance). The Mar. 9 foal is a registered Florida-bred. She worked a quarter in :10 1/5. Dean De Renzo offered, "She's gorgeous; I think she's one of the nicer fillies here. She looks like Sardula--big, black, Storm Cat-looking filly. We wanted to showcase her here, because the stallion's here." She worked an eighth in :10 1/5 (video).

Hip 134, c, Dynaformer--Trading, by A.P. Indy
Consigned by Nick de Meric, Agent XII

Folks who made the trip to Tampa Bay Downs Saturday saw this colt's half-sister Awesome Chic stage the upset in the GIII Florida Oaks. That update aside, this fellow has plenty to recommend him. His A.P. Indy dam is a half-sister to the good race horses Survivalist (Danzig) and Polish Miner (Danzig), while his second dam is a full-sister to top sire Seeking the Gold. Hip 134 worked an eighth in :10 2/5 at the initial show (video).

Hip 141, f, Touch Gold--Unbridled Girl, by Unbridled
Consigned by Nick de Meric, Agent XII

This miss is another from the de Meric consignment who received a significant update recently. Her half-brother is the Harlan's Holiday colt Denis of Cork, who put himself squarely on the Derby Trail with a resounding victory over Sierra Sunset and Liberty Bull--both big winners this weekend--in the GIII Southwest S. Feb. 18. Denis of Cork, himself a $250,000 juvenile last term, is now unbeaten in three starts.

Hip 141 was a $45,000 buy-back at last year's Keeneland September Sale. She breezed an eighth in :10 2/5 at the first show (video).

Hip 175, c, Congaree--Ali's Dancer, by Marshua's Dancer
Consigned by W.D. North Thoroughbreds, Agent II

This California-bred hails from the first crop of MGISW Congaree (Arazi). He was purchased by trainer Brian Koriner for $130,000 at BESOCT. Out of the MSP mare Ali's Dancer, he is a half to Sweet Stepper (Candy Stripes), SW, $448,638 and Winning Stripes (Candy Stripes), MSP, $220,885. The handsome chestnut worked a quarter in :21 3/5 (video).

Hip 196, c, Lemon Drop Kid--August Storm, by Storm Creek
Consigned by Off the Hook LLC, agent

Purchased by Off the Hook for $150,000 as a KEESOP yearling, the bay drilled an eighth of a mile in :10 1/5 (video). The Mar. 13 foal is a son of MSW & GSP August Storm.

Hip 199, f, Mr. Greeley--Bacardi Cat, by Tale of the Cat
Consigned by Jerry Bailey Sales Agency, agent

The daughter of the unraced dam Bacardi Cat got an eighth of a mile in :10 2/5 (video). Her second dam--Jadana (Ire) (Pharly {Fr})--produced MGISW Jade Hunter. This filly RNA'd for $245,000 at Keeneland September. "She's been very well-received," Jerry Bailey offered. "We actually offered her at Keeneland September, but she drew hip number one and I think that compromised her a little bit."

What They're Saying At The Sales...

Mike Mulligan, Leprechaun Racing, on the depth of his consignment:

"I don't remember any one consignment having a better breeze show than this for as long as I've been doing this, and we certainly haven't had one this consistent from top to bottom. We really stopped buying that lesser horse and really went for the physical. We gave up a little bit on pedigree and sire power on some of the horses, but of my 12 syndicate horses, they cost $800,000--so they weren't cheap. We've got a $77,000 Trust N Luck, a $150,000 Forest Camp, a $75,000 Rainmaker, a $77,000 Scrimshaw--so they're supposed to be fast. They're gorgeous, and probably outsold their pedigrees as yearlings."

Consignor Hoby Kight on OBS March and the company's new SafeTrack surface:

"Personally, with the SafeTrack, I think it's getting harder for the buyers to distinguish the good ones from the other ones. It may be better in the end as far as getting more horses sold, but I think you're not going to see as many breakout horses, because you're not going to have all these people landing on the same horse. In the past, everybody would land on the best few horses in the sale, and that's what would drive the process. Now, I think the money's going to get watered down a little bit, and you're not going to have all the guys going at it. For us [pinhookers], you counted on that, on having one or two of those horses, and the rest of them you just got sold. You're only going to buy so many good horses."

Consignor Dean DeRenzo on the state of the market:

"It's like the other sales this year; it's been pretty busy. I don't think the prices are quite as high as in the past, but I think the sales results as far as RNAs have been pretty consistent."

On the SafeTrack, which has seen a concentrated grouping of horses which have worked fast:

"I think it's a little confusing for the buyers. It used to be the top horse would stand out after going in :10 flat. And now, you might see one consignment have nine :10 flat works. You can't have one consignment and have nine great ones; it just doesn't happen (laughs). I think the buyers will have to readjust their ways a little bit, and they will. They'll figure out which ones they like by pedigree and conformation, as well."

Consignor Eddie Woods on traffic around the barns:

"I think it's been pretty steady and pretty normal for what we see in this place. I don't know if there are any buyers missing. If there are, we'll know after the fact."

Consignor Barry Eisaman, when asked about the new SafeTrack, and whether any of his horses moved significantly up or down over the surface:

"It's been a wonderful addition to the sales company. I don't think it takes a poor horse and makes him into a superstar. For example, in our consignment of 25, the way they filtered down from best to worst on the farm is about the way they worked here. We didn't have an Average Joe that suddenly became a star. Buyers that are strictly numerically inclined will have a tougher time, but those who use their other horsemanship skills and other tools--the way they go, physicals--you can separate those horses."

Consignor Kevin McKathan when asked if he and brother J.B. try to single out Classic-looking horses as yearlings:

"No, we pretty much just buy physical horses. Obviously, a horse that can get around two turns, buyer can maybe be a little more aggressive on and you can get a little more money."

FIELD TAKING SHAPE

A prospective field of 10 evenly matched sophomores is expected to pass the entry box Wednesday when post positions are drawn for Saturday's $500,000 GII Lane's End S. at Turfway Park. Wertheimer and Frere's

Chitoz (Forest Wildcat) has made his last two appearances on the turf and will return to a synthetic surface for the first time since finishing second by a neck in last year's GIII Kentucky Cup Juvenile. He has made two starts since, including a fourth over the Gulfstream turf course

Feb. 20. "Chitoz obviously ran well last year at Turfway over the Polytrack," said trainer Todd Pletcher. "With a race under his belt this year, we're hoping to see an improved effort on Saturday. Pletcher will also be represented by Duke of de Buque (Dixie Union), a New York-bred half-brother to Balto Star, winner of the race in 2001 when run as the Spiral S.

Zayat Stable's Halo Najib (Halo's Image) rates a big chance in Saturday's race. Runner-up to Court Vision in last year's GIII Iroquois S., the chestnut took the OBS Championship S. Feb. 11 over the SafeTrack surface at the Ocala Training Center. He was on less than two weeks' rest when he was sixth in the GII Fountain of Youth S. Feb. 24. Halo Najib won his maiden at first asking on the Keeneland Polytrack last Oct. 11.

Racecar Rhapsody (Tale of the Cat) embarks belatedly on the Triple Crown trail. Third in the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S., the ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ was a close fourth in his most recent appearance, the GIII Delta Jackpot S. Dec. 7. The bay colt is owned in partnership by Jerry Carroll, owner of Turfway Park from 1986 to 1999.

The other probable entrants are: Courtlandt Farm's Adriano (A.P. Indy); Ken and Sarah Ramsey's Cannonball (Catienus); Bravo and Tango Stable-Verdis Corp's El Aleman (Point Given); West Point Thoroughbreds' Macho Again (Macho Uno); Equine Prep Management's Medjool (Monarchos); and Woodford Racing, W.S. Farish & George Bolton's Turf War (Dixie Union).

DWC Meeting Fields Rounding Into Focus...

2007 Horse of the Year Curlin (Smart Strike) heads an international cast for the Dubai World Cup meeting Mar. 29, which culminates the 2 1/2-month Dubai International Racing Carnival. Last year's GI Preakness S., GI Jockey Club Gold Cup and GI Breeders' Cup Classic hero won his Feb. 28 Dubai prep with consummate ease and will take on two-time Grade I winner Premium Tap (Pleasant Tap), campaigning in Saudi Arabia after he was sold to the Saudi Royal family following the 2006 season, and Jalil (Storm Cat), a $9.7 million KEESEP purchase in 2005, who has accounted for his last three starts at Nad al Sheba, including his most recent start in the G2 Maktoum Challenge Round 3 Mar. 6. Also in the field is local favorite Asiatic Boy (Arg) (Not For Sale {Arg}), winner of the 2007 G2 UAE Derby and this year's GIII Al Shindagha Sprint; G1 Japan Cup Dirt hero Vermilion (Jpn) (El Condor Pasa); and G3 Maktoum Challenge Round 2 winner Lucky Find (SAf) (Rich Man's Gold), who is cross-entered in the Godolphin Mile. Representing the United States are GSWs Well Armed (Tiznow), A.P. Arrow (A.P. Indy), and GISW Great Hunter (Aptitude). Cont. p9

The Turf specialists lineup for the G1 Sheema Classic, and heading the affair is G1 Breeders' Cup Turf champion Better Talk Now (Talkin Man), who added of last year's G1 Manhattan H. Also used to competing at the highest level is Youmzain (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}), third in this event last term. Winner of the G1 Preis Von Europa at three, the Irish-bred was runner-up to champion Dylan Thomas (Ire) in last year's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. and the G1 Prix De L'Arc de Triomphe. John Moore brings over Hong Kong representative Viva Pataca (GB) (Marju {Ire}), while Richard Gibson leads over world traveler Doctor Dino (Fr) (Mutathir {GB}), winner of last season's G1 Hong Kong Vase and G1 Man O' War S. Offering some intrigue on the day is the G1 Dubai Duty Free, which offers the likes of European juvenile champion filly Finsceal Beo (Ire) (Mr. Greeley), winner of last year's English and Irish G1 1000 Thousand Guineas; and Italian champion miler Ramonti (Fr) (Martino Alonso {Ire}), who collected four Group 1 victories in 2007. Also slated for the Duty Free is Darjina (Fr) (Zamindar), a perfect five-for-five in her native France, including a score in the G1 Prix du Moulin De Longchamp, G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches and G1 Prix D'astarte. Is is the case every year, a strong cast of American performers head over for the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen, including GISW's Idiot Proof (Benchmark) and Benny the Bull (Lucky Lionel), and GSW winners Diabolical (Artax), and Bushwacker (Outflanker). Three-year-olds face off in the UAE Derby and among them are GSWs Etched (Forestry), Massive Drama (Kafwain), and Strike the Deal (Van Nistelrooy). Among contenders for this year's Godolphin Mile is U.S.-based Diamond Stripes (Notebook), Barcola (Old Trieste), Elusive Warning (Elusive Quality), Rosberg (A.P. Indy), Notional (In Excess {Ire}), and Zakocity (Precocity). For a complete list of likely entrants to the DWC day races, click here.

Red Rocks to Pass Meeting...

Trainer Brian Meehan has confirmed that Red Rocks (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), winner of the 2006 G1 Breeders' Cup Turf and third to English Channel in his title defense last October, will bypass the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic. He was fifth in last year's Sheema Classic and was last seen finishing ninth to Doctor Dino (Fr) in the G1 Hong Kong Vase Dec. 9. "Red Rocks was stiff and sore after running in the Hong Kong Vase and we decided to give him a longer rest," Meehan told Racing Post. "It may well be that his season will start at Sandown in the [Apr. 25 G3] Gordon Richards S., a race he won last season. Once again, his campaign will be geared to another challenge at the Breeders' Cup." This year's G1 Breeders' Cup Turf is to be held at Santa Anita Oct. 25.

Tomcito Breezes for Florida Derby at Gulfstream...

Instead of working Peruvian champion Tomcito (Street Cry {Ire}) at his Palm Meadows base, trainer Dante Zanelli Jr. called an audible yesterday and put the G1 Derby Nacional (video) winner on a personal van bound for Gulfstream Park. The colt responded by working five furlongs in :58 4/5 for the G1 Florida Derby Mar. 29. It was the fastest of 24 moves at the distance. "I was looking for something just under a minute and figured it would be quicker because he was at Gulfstream," said Zanelli. "I wasn't expecting 58, but he did exactly what we wanted with the way he finished, the way he came back to the barn, and with the way he's cooling out." Triple Threats cont. p10

The first two Spanish Steps 2yo's offered this year have averaged $227,500. Hip 54 at Barretts sold for $300,000 and a filly at OBS February sold for $155,000.

According to leading KY and Fair Grounds trainer Bernie Flint "I have won over 3,600 races and the Spanish Steps filly we bought at OBS February is one of the best 2yo's I have ever had."

Big Truck Possible for Holy Bull...

One of the major changes officials at Gulfstream made to its stakes schedule this season was to push back the GIII Holy Bull S. from the beginning of the meet to two weeks after the Florida Derby. The race, also lengthened this year to 1 3/16 miles, may attract Big Truck (Hook and Ladder), who upset War Pass in the GIII Tampa Bay Derby Mar. 15. Trainer Barclay Tagg, who sent out Nobiz Like Shobiz to win the 2007 Holy Bull when it was contested at a flat mile, says the New York-bred is doing well following his weekend effort. "He's been going and going since last fall, but he's none the worse for wear," said assistant trainer Robin Smullen. "If he makes another start before the [May 3 GI] Kentucky Derby, it would only be in the Holy Bull. But Barclay could train him up to [the Derby]."

For any breeder whose budget puts the top-tier stallions well out of reach, there's an important question to answer. Would you prefer to use a highly accomplished racehorse with a less-than-fashionable pedigree, or a blue-blooded horse, which, for one reason or another, failed to become a graded winner?

Many breeders are happy with the latter approach, especially if the stallion in question is by the most sought-after sire of his generation. Arguably the best advocate for this approach was the late, great Northern Dancer, as several of his non-group/graded winners hit the Grade I target as stallions. Of course, the finest examples were Danzig, with around 200 stakes winners to his credit; Vice Regent, who numbered the champion sire Deputy Minister among his 105 stakes winners; Fairy King, who supplied winners of the Derby, Arc and Japan Cup; Night Shift, sire of a wide variety of Group 1 winners; and Sovereign Dancer, whose legacy included Louis Quatorze, Gate Dancer and Priolo.

Mr. Prospector has also lent some support to this type of strategy, with such sires as Allen's Prospect, Crafty Prospector, Hussonet, Not For Love, Our Emblem, Silver Ghost and Two Punch all showing that a graded win isn't essential to stallion success (Two Punch is the only member of this collection to have even won a stakes race).

Inevitably, breeders were also keen to give Storm Cat's sons every chance at stud--even the ones which fell some way short of Grade I standard or failed to show the precocious talent for which Storm Cat's name has become synonymous.

Thursday's ninth race at Oaklawn Park was declared a non-race because of a mechanical malfunction at the start of the race. According to track officials, the tractor pulling the starting gate inoperative. As the horses turned into the homestretch in the 1 1/16-mile race, the jockeys were alerted that the starting gate was stuck on the track, and pulled their horses up. The stewards immediately declared that the race, a $35,000 allowance for three-year-old fillies, be declared a non-race. Storm Boot, a non-stakes winner who didn't race at two, was among the first to reward breeders for their leap of faith, and he was soon followed by Forest Wildcat. Although Forest Wildcat did manage to win a pair of Grade III sprints, he didn't do so until he was five and not before he had been sold for a modest $57,000 at the end of his third year on the track. He has justified his chance by siring four Grade I winners. Stormin Fever, another Grade I sire, also won nothing more important than a Grade III race.

It has been a similar story with Stormy Atlantic, whose early career was limited by injury to just one start each at two and three. Finally able to have a full campaign at four, he won a pair of sprint stakes, but was still without any black type at the graded level by the time he retired to stud in Florida. The fact that he is standing the current season at $45,000 in Kentucky tells its own story. A further example is Catienus, who finally became a stakes winner (not at graded level) as a five-year-old. As the sire of Precious Kitten, Dawn of War and Talent Search, he is steadily earning himself better and better opportunities.

Devon Lane, yet another son of Storm Cat, earned only $6,317 in winning three very small races as a three-year-old, yet his daughter River's Prayer sold for $1.5 million at the end of a 2007 campaign which saw her become a Grade I winner with earnings in excess of $900,000.

The latest name to be added to this collection is that of Tribal Rule, whose son Georgie Boy is on target for the Santa Anita Derby, following his all-weather victories in the GI Del Mar Futurity and GII San Felipe S.

Tribal Rule clearly had his problems as a young horse, as he never made it to the track at the ages of two or three. Indeed, it wasn't until the November of his four-year-old season that he finally made his debut, when second over six furlongs at Santa Anita. Even then it was another nine months before he was seen in action again, but he proved well worth the wait, as he achieved Beyer ratings of 109 and 106 in collecting a pair of sprints at Del Mar in August 2001.

The Blood-Horse recorded that:

"Not since Kona Gold ripped up the seaside three years ago has an older sprinter caused a stir at Del Mar like Pam and Marty Wygod's Tribal Rule. The five-year-old son of Storm Cat was at it again on Aug. 24. After steamrolling maidens three weeks ago, he dusted off initial-level allowance company just as easily, galloping six furlongs in 1:09.09. Tribal Rule has made just three starts, but the Wygods and trainer Julio Canani are thinking Breeders' Cup Sprint."

Unfortunately, Tribal Rule's troubles continued. It was July 2002 before he managed to make his fourth start, when a narrow second in another fast time at Hollywood Park, and he came out of the race with a sesamoid injury. The Wygods quickly announced that the six-year-old would retire to their River Edge Farm in California, at a fee of $5,000 in 2003. He was no doubt made all the more welcome on account of his dam Sown being a half-sister to Pirate's Bounty, who sired over 60 stakes winners during a successful career in California, at River Edge.

Although Tribal Rule obviously had soundness issues, plenty of California breeders were prepared to take the risk, no doubt keen to use a fast Storm Cat horse with the added attraction of being a half-brother to Key Phrase, a Grade I seven-furlong winner. Incidentally, Key Phrase had also produced a colt by Storm Cat and this colt--Yankee Gentleman--also developed into a smart sprinter at four in 2003, when he landed the Pirate's Bounty H. in very fast time.

Tribal Rule has achieved an encouraging percentage of stakes winners with the runners from his first two crops, but he has only 39 named juveniles this year and a small yearling crop. However, his early stallion success brought him a book of 132 mares in 2007 and he will no doubt be very popular again this year. In other words, he should have the ammunition to take his career to another level from 2010 onwards.

Georgie Boy settled very well before producing a telling burst of finishing speed in the San Felipe over 1 1/16 miles, but will he be as effective over 1 1/8 or 1 1/4 miles?

As I said, Tribal Rule and his close relative Yankee Gentleman showed excellent speed over six furlongs, so it is to be hoped that there is some stamina in the bottom half of Georgie Boy's pedigree. There is, in the form of The Minstrel, but this excellent mile-and-a-half performer occasionally sired a high-class sprinter, a good example being Peterhof, Georgie Boy's broodmare sire. Despite being by a Derby winner out of a half-sister to a Derby winner (Mill Reef), Peterhof showed none of the expected stamina, perhaps because he was very small, with a short action. Both his group wins were gained over five furlongs at two.

Georgie Boy's first three dams were all stakes winners, but were all by stallions based in Washington State. His dam Ippodamia and second dam Timely Bet were sprinters, the latter being a daughter of Just the Time, winner of the GI Futurity S. over 6 1/2 furlongs at two. The third dam Missa Bet did win over a mile, but there's little encouragement here for thinking that Georgie Boy is going to be better suited by a longer route.

MARCH MADNESS AT ADENA As March Madness descends upon the sports world beginning this evening, it seems only appropriate that a group including a pair of prominent names associated with the world of basketball would make headlines at last night's Adena Springs Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training at Frank Stronach's Williston, Florida, farm. Bidding on behalf of University of Louisville basketball coach Rick Pitino and partners Ol' Memorial Stable, trainer Cam Gambolati was extended to $380,000 to acquire a colt by A.P. Indy which is the first foal produced by six-time graded-stakes winner and Grade I-placed Smok'n Frolic (Smoke Glacken). Others involved in the partnership include former University of Kentucky and pro hardcourt star Jamal Mashburn, Rick Avare and Chris Sullivan. "He was just a big, magnificent colt," Gambolati commented. "How can you get a pedigree like that for that kind of money? He's just a grand looking individual. He's going to need time because he's not going to be a sprinter." Adena Springs acquired Smok'n Frolic for $1.25 million out of the 2004 Keeneland November Breeding Stock sale. The nine-year-old is also the dam of a yearling colt of 2007 by Stronach's Horse of the Year Ghostzapper. Gambolati and crew have played with success in the past at the Adena sale. In 2006, the group paid $190,000 for a colt by El Prado (Ire)--Perfect Six. Now known as Buffalo Man, the four-year-old was a dual stakes winner in 2007 and added a victory in this year's GIII Appleton H. at Gulfstream Park.

Pompa and Circumstance...

That owner Paul Pompa Jr. has a few extra shekels these days is not hard to understand. The 49-year-old resident of New Jersey invested $425,000 in a colt by Street Cry (Ire) at last year's Keeneland September sale and realized a tidy profit when he resold the attractive bay for $2.1 million at last month's Fasig-Tipton Calder sale. With Hidden Brook Farm as agent, Pompa, the owner of 2007 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies third-place finisher Backseat Rhythm, was the successful bidder on a pair of juveniles last night, including hip 124, a colt by Adena stalwart Awesome Again out of Taxible (Holy Bull). The colt's second dam is GI Spinster S. winner Hail a Cab. "He's just a great looking Awesome Again and Awesome Again is doing so well right now it's hard to overlook," said Hidden Brook's Chris Brothers. "He's just a big strapping colt and he looked great on the track." Brothers said the colt is likely to end up in New York, where Pompa's horses are trained by Pat Reynolds. Pompa also bought hip 55, a filly by Holy Bull, for $170,000.

Hip 66 an Elite Purchase...

Combining the collective forces of Ben McElroy and Gabriel Duignan, Elite Horse Racing was the winning bidder on hip 66, the top-selling filly on the afternoon. A daughter of 2000 champion two-year-old and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner Macho Uno, the bay was produced by Lil Punkindo (Maria's Mon), a stakes winner of $115,620. "[Macho Uno] has gotten off to a very good start at stud," McElroy offered. "She's very athletic and it looks like she'll be early enough."

Stronach Pleased With Results...

With seven more horses sold, gross receipts were ahead by eight percent over last year. The average was static, though the median was down 30 percent. Frank Stronach was not disappointed in the results. "We're here to sell," he stated. "I thought it was a very good sale. I'm very happy with it. You have to have fun in this business, you have to grin."

TEIDE (c, 4, Mt. Livermore--Cascassi, by Nijinsky II) cruised to a nine-length maiden score on the Aqueduct inner track 13 months ago, then disappeared. He returned to be second in an off-the-turf allowance at the Big A Nov. 22, and had been out once since, finishing third in an allowance test in the slop at Gulfstream Feb. 21. The 9-5 chalk to get his picture taken this time, the chestnut colt rated in sixth through a moderate opening half, rallied wide around the turn and grabbed the lead in deep stretch. Teide held on as Maria's Charm (Maria's Mon) closed late to take it by a length. Lifetime Record: 6-2-2-1, $75,734. O-Darley Stable. B-Gainsborough Farm LLC (KY). T-Kieran P McLaughlin.

Lightmyfirebaby finished sixth in a down-the-hill test Dec. 30, then stretched out to a mile and took a Feb. 9 allowance by a nose with Chantal Sutherland in the irons for the first time. Brought back on nine days' rest, she could do no better than sixth at the next level Feb. 18 and she was coming into this effort off a fourth in a one-mile allowance Mar. 10. Settled in fourth down the hill, Lightmyfirebaby came wide across the dirt, hit the front leaving the eighth pole and prevailed.

Chattahoochee War had been shut out since taking the Gill Transylvania S. during the 2005 spring meet at Keeneland, but he finally found a field he could handle here. The bay horse started just once in 2006, finishing second in an optional claimer at Saratoga in August before going to the shelf for 370 days. Making his return at Del Mar last August, he was third in the Harry F. Brubaker H., then faded to sixth in the Sept. 22 Gill Bay Meadows BC H. The Amerman Racing runner was last seen filling the place spot in an optional claimer at Hollywood Nov. 29. Sent right to the front, he cut out six panels in 1:11.32 and drew clear down the lane for a handy score. GISW Boboman (Kingmambo), off since last June, rated off the pace, but had no closing kick and trailed home last.

PUFF MADDIE (f, 3, Yankee Gentleman--Miss Maddie Puff {SP}, by Northern Baby), a $32,000 KEESEP made one appearance at the races at two, finishing an even seventh in a Dec. 2 maiden at Hollywood Park. Adding blinkers for her three-year-old debut as an 11-1 chance, the bay filly was rated off the early pace, rallied inside favored Rate of Exchange (Exchange Rate) into the stretch and went on to post a two-length victory over that rival. Triple Pick Six Carryover at Santa Anita:

For a third consecutive day at Santa Anita, bettors were stumped by the Pick Six sequence at Santa Anita, resulting in a carryover of $699,574 into Thursday's live racing program. Yesterday's Pick Six kicked off with Chattahoochee War ($9.40) in the third race followed by Ciacci's Angel ($20.20) in the fourth. Bootleg Annie ($11.00) took the third leg and El Falcon ($5.00) was the lone betting favorite to score in race six. Chantal Sutherland booted home Lightmyfirebaby ($19.20) in the featured Irish O'Brien S. and Puff Maddie ($24.00) triggered the carryover by registering the upset in the finale. Yesterday's Pick Six pool began with a two-day carryover of $169,781. Thursday's Pick Six features three allowance races and three claiming races. Three of the races are carded for the Cushion Track and three for the turf.

FRETWELL & O'NEILL TO SPLIT

Owner John Fretwell and trainer Eoghan O'Neill are to terminate their partnership with immediate effect, according to the Daily Mail. O'Neill moved into Fretwell's purpose-built Averham Park complex in Nottinghamshire in 2004 and the pair achieved almost immediate success with Silent Times (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) in the G2 Champagne S. and Always Hopeful (GB) (Mind Games) in the G2 Richmond S. Always Hopeful subsequently ran third in both the G1 Prix Morny and G1 Middle Park S. during a banner 2005 season. "I have parted company with Eoghan O'Neill, but it's a private affair and I don't want to be commenting on it," Fretwell told Racing Post. The operation's best success this campaign came courtesy of Medicine Path (GB) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) in the Feb. 3 Listed Ladybird S. at Kempton. The four-year-old finished third to subsequent G1 Epsom Derby winner Authorized (Ire) in the 2006 G1 Racing Post Trophy and is set to continue his career in the care of Peter Chapple-Hyam. The owner's other horses are due to be split between another of Fretwell's existing conditioners, Ed McMahon, and Kevin Ryan, Chapple-Hyam and Jeremy Nosedá.
