DUKE AHOY

Seeking his third victory in this contest, trainer Todd Pletcher will saddle a pair of runners in Saturday's $500,000 GII Lane's End S., Chitoz (Forest Wildcat) and Duke of de Buque (Dixie Union). The latter will be stepping up from New York-bred company for the first time, but he's a half-brother to Balto Star, who gave Pletcher his first victory in this race back in 2001, when it was known as the Spiral. That gelding established a record winning distance of 12 3/4 lengths since Turfway's marquee event was extended to nine furlongs in 1988. The Anstu Stable homebred is coming off a wire-to-wire, 5 1/2-length score in a first-level allowance for state-breds Feb. 8 at Aqueduct. "Duke of de Buque is a horse we always thought would like the turf, and since he's a half to Balto Star, who could run on both dirt and turf, we think Duke of de Buque will handle Turfway and the Polytrack well," said Pletcher. "The Lane's End is a good option for him." Having drawn the rail, the sophomore is 12-1 on the morning line. Chitoz, second by a neck in the GIII Kentucky Cup Juvenile over this surface last fall, ran fourth in his lone 2008 outing, a turf allowance at Gulfstream Feb. 20. "Chitoz obviously ran well last year at Turfway over the Polytrack," Pletcher added. "With a race under his belt this year, we're hoping to see an improved effort."

SHADWELL SPONSORING TRAVERS, SUBURBAN

The New York Racing Association announced that Shadwell Farm will be a presenting sponsor for the GI Travers S. and GI Suburban H. through 2009.

"Shadwell Farm is proud to announce its partnership with the New York Racing Association by sponsoring both the Suburban and the Travers," said Rick Nichols, Shadwell's vice president and general manager.

"Shadwell has been supportive of New York racing and anxiously look forward to our involvement both at Belmont Park and Saratoga Race Course as a wonderful honor and an exciting new experience." Gavin Landry, NYRA senior vice president of sales and market development, added, "Beyond the seven-figure investment that Shadwell has made in New York racing, what is most important is Shadwell's commitment to a partnership with NYRA and the desire to associate with the NYRA brand, representing the best racing in the world." The $400,000 Suburban, at 10 furlongs for older horses, will be run June 28 at Belmont, while the $1-million Travers will be contested Aug. 23 at Saratoga. Dubbed the Midsummer Derby, the Travers is the oldest continuously conducted stakes race in the U.S.

MINOR ACQUIRES FIERCE WIND

Fierce Wind (Dixie Union), slated to make his next start in the GI Florida Derby Mar. 29 at Gulfstream, has been purchased privately by Halsey Minor, according to Daily Racing Form. The three-year-old will remain with trainer Nick Zito. He is currently riding a three-race winning streak, including a half-length defeat of Big Truck last out in the Sam F. Davis S. Feb. 16 at Tampa Bay whilst in the colors of Four Roses Thoroughbreds. The son of Post Parade (A.P. Indy) breezed a half in :49 at Palm Meadows Tuesday. Cont. p2

War Pass Update...

Sam F. Davis runner-up Big Truck (Hook and Ladder) went on to trump Zito's War Pass (Cherokee Run) in the GIII Tampa Bay Derby last Saturday. After undergoing a thorough examination, the champion returned to gallop at Palm Meadows Wednesday, and remains on target for the GI Wood Memorial S. at Aqueduct Apr. 5. "We took all the tests we could after the race on Saturday and everything is negative," Zito told Daily Racing Form. "Hopefully, we'll just be able to put a line through that one and move on to the next race. We'll keep going forward from here, plan a work and see how things are going. All we can do at this point is take things one step at a time."

Sierra Sunset Injured...

Sierra Sunset (Bertrando) emerged from last weekend's GII Rebel S. victory with a "small fracture line in his left front ankle" and will be sidelined indefinitely, according to Daily Racing Form. Trainer Jeff Bonde told the publication that his charge would fly back to Northern California when an available flight emerges. "It doesn't require surgery," Bonde told DRF. "He just needs time off." Sierra Sunset, who finished second to Denis of Cork in the GIII Southwest S. Feb. 18 in his start prior to the Rebel, is expected to be out of action for at least three months. Bred in California by Pam and Martin Wygod, Sierra Sunset is raced by the partnership of Philip Leberz, Al Mariani, George Schmitt and Carol Wirth Trust.

Desormeaux Picks Up Georgie Boy Ride...

Kent Desormeaux will be in the irons aboard Georgie Boy (Tribal Rule) in the GI Santa Anita Derby Apr. 5. The gelding was ridden by Michael Baze when he won the GII San Felipe S. Mar. 15; Baze had picked up the mount after regular rider Rafael Bejarano sustained fractured vertebrae. It will likely be a one-time mount for Desormeaux, whose services for the GI Kentucky Derby have been secured by GII Fountain of Youth S. hero Cool Coal Man. "It was a tough call, but it was a mutual decision," trainer Kathy Walsh explained. "Michael is a fine rider and did a good job in the San Felipe, but [owner/breeder] Mr. [George] Schwary felt a more experienced rider was in order, even though Kent is tied up for the Big Dance." In other Santa Anita Derby jockey changes, Corey Nakatani now has the call on Colonel John (Tiznow). Garrett Gomez rode the WinStar colt when he won the GIII Sham S. Mar. 1.

Florida Derby Taking Shape...

In addition to Fierce Wind, next Saturday's $1-million GI Florida Derby is expected to include Elysium Fields (El Prado {Ire}), among others. The GII Fountain of Youth S. runner-up breezed six furlongs in 1:12 Tuesday at Gulfstream, and galloped out seven panels in 1:26....Unbeaten ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Big Brown (Boundary), who will make his stakes debut in the Gulfstream feature, went five-eighths in 1:00.40 Wednesday at Palm Meadows. "Obviously, he's going to have to earn some graded money to get into the Kentucky Derby," trainer Richard Dutrow Jr. told Daily Racing Form. "But I'd also like him to win this race and look like a Derby horse doing it." The participation of Nistle's Crunch (Van Nistelrooy) depends upon a workout today. "Looking at the probables, I'm leaning toward running," said conditioner Ken McPeck. "He's a grinder...he needs a race like this to set up for him. The big question now is, 'Is he fast enough to win?' He might not have the speed of some of these, but he's got more experience than [the contenders] and he's done the mile-and-an-eighth thing."

ANOTHER GROUP 1 WIN

HELENE MASCOT won last Sunday's Hong Kong Derby - his second Group 1 win in the past two months.

His other northern hemisphere Group 1 winners include PRIDE, VALLEE ENCHANTEE, CASTLEDALE, DAI JIN, PEARL OF LOVE and SUDAN.

The Galaxy has proven an excellent launching pad to the breeding barn for stallions including Snippets (Aus), Bletchingly (Aus), Luskin Star (Aus), Snowland (Aus) and Arrowfield's young sire Charge Forward (Aus)--and back-to-back wins in the Randwick sprint would enhance the resume of Magnus, set to stand at Eliza Park this spring. The five-year-old is no slouch, acquitting himself abroad when third in Miss Andretti's Gs King Stand S. at Royal Ascot last June, but after being forced to chase home the crack sprint mare on more than one occasion, Magnus has now had the misfortune to run into emerging superstar Weekend Hussler (Aus), finishing in that horse's tailwind at his last two outings in the G1 Oakleigh Plate and G1 Newmarket H. The Peter Moody trainee has been the subject of heavy support in ante-post betting despite the fact he will give 14 pounds to promising sophomores such as Hurried Choice. Magnus is likely to appear at Royal Ascot again this year before retiring to stud. Hurried Choice, raced by South African Marcus Jooste, has not been out of the frame in three starts this year; she is a last-start winner of the G2 Challenge S. at Randwick Mar. 1, but only two three-year-old fillies have won this race since its inception in 1972. The other filly out to balance the books in a race that has been dominated by older males is the Lee Freedman-trained Gamble Me, a Gooree Stud-homebred out of the Pleasant Tap mare Good Gamble, herself out of a full sister to Seeking the Gold. The consistent Gamble Me was a last-start winner of the Listed Moomba Plate Mar. 8 at Flemington.

The Gai Waterhouse-trained Tuesday Joy won the G2 Wakeful S. against her own sex in spring '06 before finishing second to Miss Finland (Aus) in the G1 VRC Oaks. Last autumn, she won the G1 Coolmore Classic before finishing third in the G1 AJC Derby. She then filled the same spot on the G1 AJC Oaks April 11 at Randwick. The Apollo S., over 1400 meters, was her first outing since that date. Stable foreman Tania Rouse said, "I loved the way she hit the line; her last 200 meters was very strong, and she's only going to be better over 1600 meters at Randwick."

HILL 'N' DALE CONTINUES SPONSORSHIP OF

MILE Hill 'n' Dale Farms has extended its sponsorship of Aqueduct's GI Cigar Mile through 2010. In 2008, the $300,000 Hill 'n' Dale Cigar Mile will be run Nov. 29. First run at Aqueduct in 1988 as the NYRA Mile and renamed the Cigar Mile after its illustrious 1994 winner, the race has been the Hill 'n' Dale Cigar Mile since 2005. "We're very enthusiastic about sponsorship of the Hill 'n' Dale Cigar Mile," said John G. Sikura, president of Hill 'n' Dale Farms. "The one-mile distance is so significant to breeders and the race is perfectly positioned on the racing calendar to attract Breeders' Cup runners in search of Eclipse honors." In 2007, the race was won by Daaher (Awesome Again), while Discreet Cat (Forestry) established the stakes record of 1:32.46 in 2006.

A FEIN DAY

Few people looked beyond juvenile champion War Pass in last Saturday's GIII Tampa Bay Derby, but it was Eric Fein's Big Truck (Hook and Ladder) who burst into Kentucky Derby consideration with a late-running victory in the 1 1/16-mile race.

Fein, who owns a title insurance agency on Long Island, purchased Big Truck for $90,000 out of last year's Fasig-Tipton Midlantic May sale from Niall Brennan's consignment.

Horsephotos

For the New York native, being involved with racing was a lifelong dream.

"I always loved the game," Fein admitted. "I grew up right near Belmont and I said, 'One day, if I could afford it, I would love to buy horses.' That's how it really started."

He got his first taste of racehorse ownership just five years ago.

"As part of a group, I bought a horse named Rogue Agent in 2003. And one-seventh of him got me addicted. That horse ended up doing very well; we claimed him for $30,000 and he won about $400,000 for us. He did well for me and got me into the game a little deeper."

Today, that involvement includes 25 horses and a burgeoning breeding program.

"We just started [breeding] a few years ago," Fein explained. "I had my first baby run at Gulfstream last week [Bontempi (Sligo Bay {Ire})] and he ran fourth in a maiden special weight down there [Mar. 10]. He ran very, very well. I have five or six mares now giving birth, and we're going to start to upgrade the sires."

Fein finds runners in various places.

"We do some claiming," he said. "And a lot of my horses are from two-year-old sales."

Asked the attraction of buying juveniles, Fein said, "I like the excitement of taking a risk on a horse off of breeding and an eighth-of-a-mile sprint as hard as they can. Taking a shot and hoping they turn out to be a Big Truck. That's really what it is. It's excitement and the anticipation of what they could turn out to be. And, hopefully, the group that you've assembled to figure these things out for you, comes up with the good ones. It looks like we have one of them."

Fein was recently back in action at the two-year-old sales, buying a son of Toccet for $150,000 at Monday's opening session of the OBS March sale. The juvenile was another consigned by Niall Brennan.

"I had another Toccet that I bought at a yearling sale last year and he's turning out to be a nice horse, too," Fein said. "So we kind of liked the sire and we liked the consignor. We love Niall Brennan."

While he waits for that newest acquisition to mature, Fein can look forward to the coming spring with Big Truck.

"I think he came out of [the Tampa Bay Derby] pretty well," he said of Big Truck. "So far, so good."

As for what is next, Fein added, "We're not sure. I leave that up to [trainer] Barclay Tagg. I guess he's maybe going to have the [Apr. 12 GIII] Holy Bull [S. at Gulfstream] as a race, or train to the Derby, if that's where we're going to go. That's where we hope to go."

Whatever success his runners have on the track, Fein is committed to seeing his horses treated well after their racing careers are over.

"I have a very soft heart for these animals, too, so if there is anything seriously wrong, I stop on them," he explained. "I find them a good home for retirement if it's a gelding, or, if it's a mare, I make them mothers. I'm very, very big into the after-care of these horses. Even though it's a business, we still have to take care of these horses." -- Jessica Martini

SUWANNEE RIVER RESULT REVERSED

Gulfstream announced yesterday that the result of the Feb. 3 GIII Suwannee River H. has been reversed. Green

Girl (Fr) (Lord of Men {GB}) crossed the line a half-length in front of La Dolce Vita (Quiet American). However, Green Girl twice dumped rider Rene Douglas and ran off during the post parade. Immediately after the finish, the trainers of La Dolce Vita and third-place-finisher J'ray (Distant View) filed a protest, citing Gulfstream's rules that the assigned weight must be carried "from paddock to post and post to finish." During a Feb. 15 hearing, Gulfstream stewards denied the protests in a 2-1 vote. La Dolce Vita's owner, Gary Zwerling, filed another protest, which was heard Wednesday by racing official William Greely. Greely's decision included: "The record shows without question or any real disagreement that Green Girl did not carry the full weight from paddock to post. The requirements of Article II (D)(1) are very clear; and the Hearing Officer determines that Green Girl did not comply with the requirements. The Hearing Officer also determines that none of the exceptions to full compliance with the requirements of any of the subsections of the 'Paddock to Post' rule are applicable here to justify or excuse the obvious violation of Article II (D)(1)." As a result, the now-retired Green Girl has been disqualified and placed last, while La Dolce Vita has been declared the winner. Fourth-place finisher Waquoit's Love (Not for Love) was moved up to third.

'GERRY' TO TRY A MILE Trainer James Fanshawe yesterday revealed that last year's G2 Gimcrack S. winner Sir Gerry (Carson City) will be aimed at the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket. Despite disappointing when trailing in the G1 Middle Park S. at that track in October, the Gerry Galligan-owned colt impressed when taking York's feature juvenile contest two months previously. That success came over six furlongs, but his conditioner is hopeful that the colt will stay the extra quarter mile of the May 3 Classic. "You can forget his Middle Park run, as he had gone in his coat by then," Fanshawe told PA Sport. "He literally went in his coat overnight and was very quiet for about three weeks afterwards. He seems in very good form and we are still dreaming at the moment, but I am very happy with him. Timeform say he will stay a mile and we are hopefully going to go to the G3 Greenham S. [at Newbury Apr. 19] with him. We will get more of an idea about the trip after that, but he has really grown and developed over the winter."

DYLAN AND ART TO COOLMORE AUSTRALIA

Dylan Thomas (Ire) (Danehill--Lagrion, by Diesis {GB}) and Excellent Art (GB) (Pivotal {GB}--Obsessive, Seeking the Gold), are set to join the stallion roster at Coolmore Australia for 2008. Dylan Thomas won six individual Group 1 races, including back-to-back renewals of the Irish Champion S., as well as the Irish Derby, the King George and the Arc. He is a half-brother to European champion juvenile filly Queen's Logic (Ire) and is bred on a similar Danehill/Sharpen Up (GB) cross to Danehill Dancer (Ire). Excellent Art, who is from the family of top sire Chief's Crown, showed brilliant form at two, when he took the G1 National S. by nine lengths on his stakes debut and rounded off the season by landing the G2 Mill Reef S. Excellent Art was rated European champion three-year-old miler on the 2007 World Rankings after victory in the G1 St. James's Palace S. "The Coolmore sires are enjoying a fantastic year on the racetrack worldwide, and in Dylan Thomas and Excellent Art, we have two very exciting additions to the roster for 2008," said Coolmore Australia manager Michael Kirwan. "Both are champions, and both are great-looking sons of sires of sires. It all adds up to the most impressive roster we've ever had."

Also in the catalogue will be Kulani Park's draft featuring unreserved dispersals of its own band of mares and as agent for Pauly Investments. "The two-day select session will provide buyers with an outstanding array of choice, with a host of pedigrees that are synonymous with Easter standard," said Inglis' Managing Director Mark Webster.

NEW-LOOK AUTUMN CARNIVAL Sydney's autumn racing carnival kicks off on Easter Saturday with substantial program changes forced by the Equine Influenza pandemic that ravaged NSW last spring. The headline events at Randwick on Saturday are the G1 Chipping Norton S. and G1 Galaxy, instead of the traditional G1 AJC Derby and G1 Doncaster H. Change to the AJC's big-race programming have been forced on the club by EI, but this year's carnival is now being used as a test for future race programming.

The NSW Racing industry aims to emulate Racing Victoria's successful business model, where, since the "state-wide" carnival concept was introduced in 1993, race club attendance has bloomed by 87 percent. The NSW Government has given the local racing industry A$750,000 to promote the Sydney autumn carnival this year, with almost A$2 million pledged next year, providing that dates for key races such as the Derby and Doncaster are fixed. Fixed dates would end a 150-year tradition of structuring AJC's autumn carnival dates around Easter. "We are looking forward to our best-ever autumn racing carnival, particularly as we emerge from what has been a most difficult period," said Racing NSW General Manager of Racing Greg Rudolph. "With Victorian stars Apache Cat (Aus) (Lion Cavern), Weekend Hussler (Aus) (Hussonet) and Divine Madonna (Aus) (Hurricane Sky {Aus}) set to take on our best, there will be some great clashes." The Carnival kicks off Mar. 22 and concludes May 10 with Hawkesbury Race Club's A$500,000 Gold Cup Day.

LAIRD MELBOURNE-BOUND South African-based trainer Charles Laird, who has purchased 57 yearlings in Australia for a total spend of A$19,890,000 and average A$348,947 in the past three years, has applied for stabling at Flemington. Laird told Melbourne's The Age newspaper he plans to purchase a further 25 yearlings at Magic Millions and Inglis Easter, with the plan of keeping those purchases in Australia to race under his name next season. He said he and his family would settle in Melbourne by the end of next season. "I've bought probably 100 horses at the yearling sales here over the past few years and spent about A$30 million, and it's always been a long-term plan to come back and train and open up a breeding operation," Laird said in the report. "It's quite a scary move, but one I'm very excited about. I hope to start training here from next year with a full-time foreman as we have about 160 horses back at home that I will need to disperse."
