NO CHANGE OF COSTUME IN SANTA ANA

She had to withstand a jockey's objection, but Juddmonte homebred Costume (GB) (Danehill) came away with her second straight Grade II victory in yesterday's Santa Ana H. on the grass at Santa Anita. It was trainer Bobby Frankel's eighth win in the race. Put on the front by jockey Garrett Gomez, who rode her to victory in the GII Buena Vista H. Feb. 18, Costume was coaxed through uncontested fractions of :23 4/5 and :48 1/5 around the turn and up the back-stretch. As they wheeled off the turn for home, a host of challengers mounted their bids, but Costume dug in and took the four-horse blanket photo by a neck. David Flores, who was aboard runner-up Immortelle (Brz) (Vettori {Ire}), lodged an objection after Costume came out in the shadow of the wire and bumped his mount, but stewards disallowed the claim. Cont. p2 Click for the brisnet.com chart, the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. SHEIKH MOHAMMED BUYS INGHAM LOT

In a blockbuster deal announced early Monday in Australia, Darley's Sheikh Mohammed has agreed to purchase the entirety of the Ingham family's bloodstock operation, the country's largest. Financial details were not disclosed. Included in the purchase, subject to approval by the federal government's Foreign Investment Review Board, is the 6,200-acre Woodlands Stud at Denman, home to 10 stallions--including Octagonal (NZ)--and about 600 mares; Woodlands at Cootamundra in southern NSW; the Crown Lodge training complex in Sydney; and Carbine Lodge stables in Melbourne; as well as all bloodstock owned by the Ingham family, some 1,200 horses. Jack Ingham, who died in August 2003, and his younger brother Bob began their breeding empire in 1953. They purchased Woodlands in 1985 and founded the biggest privately owned breeding and racing operation in the Southern Hemisphere. "The sale of the bloodstock business was not something I was contemplating," Bob Ingham said. "Once approached by Darley, I decided it was an opportunity that I should accept. I will, however, be keeping our racing colors and will continue to race horses." Woodlands Manager Peter Flynn, Crown Lodge trainer Peter Snowden, Lobb and an estimated staff of 6,000 will stay on under the new ownership. Sheikh Mohammed quote, p2

Slow into Stride...

A maiden winner in France last year, Costume came to the States for a fall campaign, but failed to get a win in five subsequent starts, including a string of four straight fourth-placed finishes. The bay finally broke through in her latest when she was all out to hold Black Mamba (NZ) (Black Minnaloushe) by a neck in the one-mile GII Buena Vista H. over this course Feb. 18, and saw her task in the Santa Ana--run a furlong longer than the Buena Vista--get a bit easier when that foe scratched. Asked about his filly's ability to handle the added ground, trainer Bobby Frankel commented, "The difference was the pace was slow today and speed's hanging on very well. She's a game filly. I think when they got to her, she started to stick her head out." Of the contact at the finish, Frankel added, "It was close. I thought it was right on top of the wire, so I thought maybe it would be all right, but I wasn't sure. If they'd have taken it down, I couldn't beef, because they did come together. [But] it wasn't like it was at the sixteenth pole." Frankel won this race last year with Citronnade.

Announcing the purchase of the Ingham family's bloodstock operation in Australia, Darley's Sheikh Mohammed said, "I have long admired the love Australians have for the horse and for racing. The Ingham family have made a significant contribution to Australian racing and to the Thoroughbred and I am looking forward to building on their success. I am delighted to be making this commitment."

Last Wednesday, Gulfstream Park official William Greely ruled that Ronchalon Stable's Green Girl (Fr) be disqualified from her win the GIII Suwannee River H. because her jockey was thrown during the post parade and had to dismount behind the gate to avoid being thrown again, and therefore she did not carry her assigned weight from paddock to post, as required by track rules. This decision overturned a Feb. 15 ruling by Gulfstream stewards in Green Girl's favor. The following is a statement from Ronchalon manager Patrick Cooper on Wednesday's ruling:

"As is to be expected we are disappointed, but not surprised, at the outcome of the enquiry into the running of the Suwannee River H. William Greely has applied the strict letter of the law to a ridiculous and simplistic rule. We have been the victims in what was essentially a dispute between Gulfstream Park and a disgruntled owner.

"Having won the race by virtue of having the best racehorse, we have since had to spend a considerable amount of money on legal fees in a dispute in which we were unwilling participants. Twice the stewards ruled in our favour, firstly by letting Green Girl run and secondly when we won the appeal of that decision. We lost the third decision. So despite being 2-1 ahead, we are disqualified with no options but to go to the law to have it overturned, if we were so minded.

"No doubt, Gulfstream Park will now quietly change the rule under which we have been disqualified, which will be to the benefit of everyone in racing, but too late for Green Girl. We have read Mr. Zwerling's platitudes about defending the betting public and his attacks on the Gulfstream Park stewards. His filly may be the winner on paper, but never will be in any photograph. A good horserace and an exciting occasion have been ruined by the manipulation of the rules.

"We will abide by the latest ruling as we did with the other two decisions that went in our favour. It has been a bad day for horsemen and a sad one for sportsmen."

After two dark days, the sale will resume with four more sessions running Sunday, Mar. 30 through Wednesday, Apr. 2.

☆ HIP HAPPENINGS ☆

Hip 19, c, Redoute's Choice (Aus)--Marshow (Aus), by Marscay (Aus)
Consigned by Baramul Stud

Among Baramul's squadron of Redoute's Choice colts is Lot 19, a half to Group 1-placed Into the Night (Aus) (Rhythm) and to Britomart (Aus) (Zabeel {NZ}). Britomart has recorded three wins since the catalogue was printed. This colt replicates the very successful Danehill/Marscay (Aus) cross that has produced Group 1 winners Elvstroem (Aus), Catbird (Aus), etc. Marshow foaled a Testa Rossa (Aus) colt last spring before being covered by Fastnet Rock (Aus).

Hip 29, c, More Than Ready--Merlene (Aus), by Danehill
Consigned by Coolmore

The bonny champion filly Merlene was a A$100,000 yearling buy at Easter 1995 for the late media magnate Kerry Packer and good pal Lloyd Williams; she won five of six outings, becoming Danehill's third straight G1 Golden Slipper winner, and retired with more than A$1.5 million in earnings. The mare changed hands again in 2006 when knocked down for A$875,000, in foal with this colt, to Coolmore, acting on behalf of John Camilleri's Fairway Thoroughbreds. Her 2005 filly by Encosta de Lago (Aus) was purchased by Charles Laird for A$775,000; the youngster, named Merlene de Lago (Aus), recently became her sire's 50th stakes winner when she won a listed event on debut at Turffontein in South Africa.

Consigned by Strawberry Hill Stud

John Singleton, who co-owned MG1W Strawberry Road (Aus), the Australian Horse of the Year in 1983 who made his mark at stud in the U.S. before his death in 1995, has thus far secured five of the bay's U.S.-bred daughters for his aptly named Strawberry Hill Farm. Between them, the mares have thus far produced six stakes winners, including Milva's daughter All American (Aus), the David Hayes-trained G1 Blue Diamond S. runner-up who occupies the third line of ante-post G1 Golden Slipper betting at 10-1. All American's half-sister by current leading Australian sire Encosta de Lago (Aus) is expected to be among the first session star yearlings. She is out of the Allen Paulson-bred Milva, who has a More Than Ready filly at foot and was covered by Holy Roman Emperor (Ire). All American was a A$220,000 purchase for agent Mark Pilkington at this sale last year.

The 22,000gns TATDEC weanling and 60,000gns TATOCT yearling opened his U.S. account with a fifth going down the hill at Santa Anita in September, and came back to take an optional claimer going a mile at the Oak Tree meet Nov. 1. Second in the Dec. 26 Gill Sir Beaufort S. and Feb. 2 Thunder Road H. on the Santa Anita turf, he was overmatched when sixth in the Mar. 1 GI Frank E. Kilroe Mile H. The chestnut colt was the 2-1 second choice to improve with this switch to the all-weather and the drop in class. Rated in fifth through six panels in 1:14.35, Mr Napper Tandy was on the far outside as he rallied into the stretch. He took over as they neared the eighth pole and outfinished By Spot (Brz) (Capitao Bank {Brz}) despite drifting in late to win by a length. Lifetime Record: GSP-Ire & US, SP-GB, 12-3-7-0, $158,555.

INFLUENCE FOR CLASS

"A graded stakes winning 2-year-old, Successful Appeal could have been expected to get a lot of speedy sorts. However, he has been a real upgrading influence for class, and many of his runners have demonstrated more versatility than one might have expected."

ZILLA (f, 4, Stormy Atlantic--Glowing Gal, by Sunny's Halo), a half to Hero's Glow (Ghazi), SW, $234,164, may not have the talent of another chestnut four-year-old filly by Stormy Atlantic in Bruce Headley's barn--the brilliant Magnificience--but she's proven plenty useful thus far early in her career. The $75,000 KEESEP yearling missed the board as the favorite in her debut at Santa Anita last September, but made amends as the chalk next time over course and distance Nov. 1. Working well for her four-year-old debut, Zilla was settled near the back of the field as the leaders blazed through :21 3/5 and :44 1/5 splits. Moved wide for the stretch run under Alex Solis, she came with a resolute rally, made the lead and held entymate Chosen Royalty (In Excess {Ire}) safe by a half-length. The pair were the 2-1 favorite in the wagering. Lochinvar's Gold (Seeking the Gold) was third. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $57,400. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

MINI DO (f, 3, Hold for Gold--Mini Dee, by Private Terms) had been knocking on the door in a trio of starts on the main track. She was third on debut on opening day at Santa Anita, ran second four weeks later, then completed the trifecta once again sprinting 6 1/2 furlongs here Feb. 24. Making the move to the lawn at 7-2 odds as part of an entry, Mini Do jumped out to lead the way over a course that has been playing to speed. Well clear after a half in :43 4/5, she responded to the urging of jockey Tyler Baze and was 2 1/2 lengths to the good of longshot Cuffed (Officer) at the wire. Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-2, $49,920. MADEO (c, 3, Mizzen Mast--Passion Flower {SW, $280,629}, by Deputy Minister) was slow into stride in his Mar. 1 debut going 6 1/2 furlongs at Santa Anita, but closed some ground late to be fifth. Off to a better beginning this time, the 2-1 favorite settled in fourth through an opening half in :45.15. He went after the leaders when they straightened for home, took control at midstretch and was under wraps as he hit the line 6 1/4 lengths to the good. Cajun Corredor (El Corredor) held on for second. A.P. Answer (A.P. Indy) faded after pressing the pace and trailed home last. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $30,080. “PURIM is the most promising stallion prospect that I have owned since his sire DYNAFORMER. He is an imposing individual that possesses great bone, and he proved himself at the highest levels of competition on both turf and dirt. I am a strong believer that the best stallions come from sire-producing female families and PURIM hails from one of the best, the family of DR. FAGER and UNBRIDLED.”

SYDNEY VALENTINI H. cont.

Peppers Pride moved to within one victory of the all-time Thoroughbred record for 16 consecutive wins with this popular score. The record is held jointly held by Cigar, Citation, Mister Frisky and Hallowed Dreams. Bred and owned by Joe Allen, who has dubbed her “New Mexico’s Horse,” Peppers Pride attracted national attention as she extended her unbeaten skein to 14 when she took her 2007 finale, the Dec. 16 New Mexico Racing Commission H. at Sunland. Heavily favored in her comeback, the dark bay miss was ideally settled off the dueling frontrunners under regular jockey Carlos Madeira, came out for the drive and was going away late. Peppers Pride won this event in 2007, as well.

TDN presents
STAR OF THE WEEK
 Brought to you by Fasig-Tipton

George Schwary

Accomplishment: Schwary's homebred Georgie Boy proved he could handle two turns with his game win in the GII San Felipe S.

Birthdate: March 27, 1932.

Birthplace: Whittier, CA - home of Richard Nixon.

Family: Married for 44 years to Martha; daughters Suzanne and husband Tom, and Marie, who will be married to Tom Maltese in May; grandchildren Michael, 4 and Alexandria Marie, 1.

Current Residence: Porter Ranch, CA.

Primary Occupation: Retired from retail home appliance and television business in 1987; became involved in real estate and property management, as well as investing in the stock market, playing golf and restoring old cars (I have three 1957 Thunderbirds); and also there are the horses and, best of all, the grandchildren.

How did you get into racing: Right after World War II, my uncle took me to Hollywood Park. I made my first bet with two borrowed dollars on a horse named Black Money--it won, I was hooked. During high school, I would sneak over to Santa Anita for a couple of races, and I started going back to the race tracks in the late '90s. In 2002, a good friend Dr. Fred Debs had an acquaintance who was going through a divorce and had horses in a partnership and wanted to sell his share. It has just mushroomed from there; I now have 16 horses, and two more on the way.

How did you acquire Ippodamia (Georgie Boy's dam): I got her out of a claiming race in Northern California, on the advice of my trainer Kathy Walsh. Kathy said she would make a good broodmare. I never got to race her, but Kathy did some research and recommended Tribal Rule as a sire. I have a yearling by Old Topper, and Georgie has a full sister just born in Kentucky, where I sent Ippodamia to be bred to Street Sense.

Biggest thrill in racing: Winning the GI Del Mar Futurity and having Kathy Walsh be the first woman trainer to do so.

Favorite vacation spot: The Orient--they are going 24/7.

What's in your CD player right now: The Supremes.

Funniest movie: "European Vacation," with Chevy Chase.

Childhood Ambition: To be in foreign trade, to travel and import and export goods from around the world.

If you could have dinner with one historical figure, who would it be, and why: Ronald Reagan; he did a great job as president.

Last Purchase: I-Phone; I'm still learning how to use it!

Perfect Day: A day without one problem.

CONGRATULATIONS!

from Fasig-Tipton's own

All eyes were on last year's G2 Premio Ribot runner-up Miles Gloriosus here and, although he failed to win, he was shouldered with a harsh penalty and went down only by a short neck to the progressive Le Rossignol. The winner had smart form on this surface and had a fitness edge, having already raced eight times since the start of November; he had finished third in a course-and-distance conditions event only 16 days previously. His cause looked less than promising when he was still sitting last and was being chased along at the end of the backstretch, but, when taken wide to the stands side to race alone, Le Rossignol picked up to collar the favorite in the final strides.

IDIOT PROOF TO ADD BLINKERS FOR SHAHEEN

Pam and Marty Wygod's homebred Idiot Proof (Benchmark) worked five furlongs yesterday at Nad Al Sheba with blinkers and will add the hood for the first time in competition in Saturday's G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen. "In his last two or three starts, every time he tries to pass a horse, he starts to lug in," Robert Sise, assistant to his father Clifford, explained. "So [jockey] David Flores suggested we might want to try blinkers. In the mornings, he's straight as an arrow, so you never know." Because of the angle down the chute at Nad Al Sheba, timing Idiot Proof's work was difficult. Sise said one clocker caught the four-year-old in 1:02 flat, while jockey Iggy Puglisi, aboard for the work, said he got the move in 1:00 and change on his watch. "It was great," said Puglisi, who was working Idiot Proof for the first time. "He was relaxed and got on the bit." Sise added that last year's G1 Breeders' Cup Sprint runner-up, second in the Phoenix Gold Cup H. in his most recent Feb. 16, has taken to new environs in Dubai. "For horses, it's awesome here," said Sise. "You can graze them around the barn and there are round pens for them to go out in and roll. He's very happy."
