TDN Feature Presentation GRADE 1 SANTA ANITA DERBY

"If I were going to target one sire to try and breed or buy All Weather runners by, it would have to be PLEASANT TAP... he has fantastic numbers." - Bill Oppenheim, TDN 4/2/08

THE COLONEL AND THE CAT

WinStar Farm LLC's Colonel John (Tiznow) and West Point Thoroughbreds' El Gato Malo (El Corredor), the top two three-year-olds in California, head a field of 11 which was entered for Saturday's GI Santa Anita Derby in suburban Los Angeles. If all horses go postward, it will match the 2005 renewal as the largest field since

Colonel John Benoit

13 ran in 1981. While Colonel John will be the first Santa Anita Derby starter for trainer Eoin Harty, the Irishman is no stranger to the event. As chief assistant to Bob Baffert from 1993 to 2000, Harty helped prepare a total of six starters, including the victorious Cavonnier (1996),

Indian Charlie (1998) and General Challenge (1999). Never worse than second in his five career trips to the post, Colonel John rallied from midpack to complete the exacta in the GI CashCall Futurity Dec. 22, but showed versatility in his latest, tracking a much softer pace before going on to a half-length success over El Gato Malo in the GIII Sham S. Mar. 1. Harty is extremely high on his colt. "When you've been around horses for a long time, you know the really good ones from the horses that just seem to have enough talent," he commented. "He's always struck me as a horse that will show up on Derby day and run a credible race."

On the Derby Bubble...

Despite his status as one of the leaders of his generation, El Gato Malo has a lot on the line this weekend. With graded-stakes earnings of $130,000, the bay gelding could use some additional purse money to guarantee his spot in the Kentucky Derby in a little more than four weeks. Trainer Craig Dollase believes his horse is ready to put up a good effort, but is not looking to squeeze the lemon dry. "He's really coming to this race very focused. Hopefully, this is not going to be his best race," the conditioner commented Yankee Bravo (Yankee Gentleman) and Coast Guard (Stormy Atlantic) are in need of a top-two placing if they harbor any ideas of making the gate on the first Saturday in May. Neither horse is without a chance. Yankee Bravo broke his maiden in one European start and has since won a pair of stakes since being returned to this country. His most recent appearance, his first on a conventional dirt, resulted in a very promising third to Pyro in the GII Louisiana Derby Mar. 8. Jockey Alex Solis is full of confidence. Asked if his mount is ready to factor on this stage, he said, "I think the other ones should worry about whether they're ready to compete with him." Coast Guard, runner-up in the GII R.B. Lewis S. Feb. 2, looks to atone for an eighth-place effort in the GIII El Camino Real Derby on the Bay Meadows main track Mar. 8. He returns to a synthetic surface on Saturday.

Inner Light Added to Wood Field...

IEAH Stables and WinStar Farm, who will be represented by GII Remsen S. hero Court Vision (Gulch) in Saturday's GI Wood Memorial, will also send out Inner Light (Songandaprayer) for the nine-furlong event. A $650,000 FTFFEB purchase, the chestnut colt was third to "TDN Rising Star" Saratoga Russell in a six-furlong Gulfstream allowance Feb. 9, but stretched out to the one-turn mile and posted a two-length score over the GIII Bay Shore S. bound Jockey Ridge in Hallandale Mar. 7. "We've kind of looked at the Wood for a while for Inner Light and we decided to give him a chance to play the game," said trainer Bill Mott. "He's always been overanxious, but he seemed to settle much better in his last race. Will he handle two turns? We don't know for sure, but it seems he is heading in the right direction." Inner Light will run as a coupled entry with Court Vision. IEAH Stables purchased an interest in the colt following his Gulfstream allowance victory, according to WinStar President Doug Cauthen. --Alan Carasso

Big Truck Joins Tagg at Keeneland...

Trainer Barclay Tagg was on hand yesterday at Keeneland to oversee his string of horses, including Eric Fein's GIII Tampa Bay Derby upsetter Big Truck (Hook and Ladder). The conditioner is still mulling over his options for the New York-bred, and said a local start is not out of the question. "I might run him in the [GI Apr. 12 Toyota] Blue Grass and I want to see how he handles the Polytrack. That's why he's here," Tagg commented. The Kentucky Derby-winning trainer said that should Big Truck not display a liking for the synthetic surface, he remains a possibility for the GIII Holy Bull S. at Gulfstream Park Apr. 12.--A.C.

NOBIZ LIKE SHOBIZ SIDELINED Elizabeth Valando's Nobiz Like Shobiz (Albert the Great), unraced since his eighth-place finish in the GI Hollywood Derby Nov. 25, will remain on the sidelines at least a bit longer, trainer Barclay Tagg said yesterday when reached by phone. "He's had a few little things come up which have kept him away," the conditioner said yesterday from Keeneland. "I don't have any fixed plans for him right now."

The striking bay colt had a very busy season in 2007. Winner of the GI Wood Memorial, he was 10th in the GI Kentucky Derby, but made a successful late-season transition to turf, taking the GII Hall of Fame S., the GIII Kent Breeders' Cup S. and the GII Jamaica H. in succession. He was a creditable fourth to Kip Deville in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile over the boggy Monmouth turf Oct. 27 prior to his disappointing effort in California. Tagg returned the colt to training in February at Palm Meadows, where he posted three breezes on the grass, including a bullet half-mile in :51 Feb. 22. He currently has a record of 13-7-2-1 and earnings of $1,544,730.--Alan Carasso

BELL TO MANAGE MILL RIDGE DAY-TO-DAY

Alice Headley Chandler, owner of Mill Ridge Farm in Kentucky with her husband John, has announced that the day-to-day management of the nursery will be handled going forward by her son, Headley Bell. "I have lived a blessed life, doing just what I want to do: associate with the finest horses, clients, friends and an industry that I love," Mrs. Chandler commented. "Thankfully I am in wonderful health and I continue to be surrounded by a fabulous team that will skillfully lead us in the future. John has been such an integral part of the success of Mill Ridge and he enthusiastically shares with me in the excitement of our future with Headley as managing partner. Headley has played a key role with Mill Ridge the past 30 years providing consulting services to our clients through his role as President of Nicoma Bloodstock and he and Nicoma will continue in that capacity, as well." Asked whether he welcomes the added responsibility, Headley Bell said, "Very much so. We've anticipated this for some time and it is something that I very much look forward to, mostly because Mom is in such good health and she can really enjoy it."

NTRA REPORT FROM CAPITOL HILL

IMMIGRATION

Faced with a shortage of immigrant workers in seasonal businesses such as landscaping and summer resorts, the business community continues to pressure Congress to reauthorize a bill that would exempt foreign workers who have held H-2B visas from the annual 66,000 cap. Until recently, returning immigrant workers were exempt from the cap, but that legislation lapsed last year. Efforts by Sen. Barbara Mikulski (D-MD) to revive the bill proved futile.

Rep. Charles Boustany (R-LA) and Rep. Bart Stupak (D-MI) are pursuing separate strategies to move immigration legislation. Boustany has offered a petition to bring a bill to the House floor, which has some 50 Republican supporters. However, House Republican leaders are more focused on an immigration enforcement measure sponsored by Rep. Heath Shuler (D-NC). Stupak's bill has 145 co-sponsors.

Meanwhile, the H-2B program is under attack by representatives who cite news reports of widespread abuse of immigrant workers. Still others call for reforms to crack down on illegal immigrants. The growing gridlock and a Presidential election year make it unlikely that Congress will address immigration issues before 2009.

OFFICER ROCKET (GB) (c, 4, Officer--Ocean View {MGISP, $154,846}, by Gone West) dead-heated for the win in the 2006 Gill Arlington-Washington BC Futurity, but had gone winless in 10 subsequent appearances. Seventh in the Gill Ohio Derby in his final start at three, the 40,000gns TATDEC weanling and $190,000 OBSMAR juvenile returned with a sixth in this track's King Cotton S. Feb. 2. He improved to finish runner-up in course-and distance allowance Feb. 28 and missed by a head in his latest, a Mar. 15 money-allowance tilt. Favored at 13-10 to halt his skid, Officer Rocket argued the pace from the inside beneath Calvin Borel, but surrendered a narrow lead as they turned for home. He still trailed at the eighth pole, but fought back gamely to decision Biglie Smallworld (Meadowlake) by a head. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Lifetime Record: GSW, 15-4-4-1, $291,610. FOREST ATTACK (c, 4, Forestry--Joy Valley {Brz} {SW-Brz}, by Ghadeer {Fr}), claimed for $40,000 from breeders Aaron and Marie Jones while winning his second start Aug. 23 at Arlington, has been nearly unstoppable on Polytrack. A winner for a $15,000 tag over this surface Nov. 29, the half-brother to Riboletta (Brz) (Roi Normand), Ch. Older Mare, MGISW-US & G1SW-Brz, $1,467,086-US, added another score at that level Dec. 20 at Turfway. He was second by a length in his first Turfway allowance attempt Jan. 25, but rebounded for a 7 1/2-length tally Feb. 28 over this strip while earning a 98 Beyer Speed Figure. Bet down to 3-5 in taking another class rise, the dark bay recovered from a stumble at the start to race in third, He went a bit wide entering the stretch, but hit the front approaching the eighth pole and edged away to hand Foster (Coronado's Quest) a 2 3/4-length defeat. Forest Attack is also a half to Super Power (Brz) (Roi Normand), Horse of the Year-Brz, Ch. 2yo & 3yo Colt-Brz, MG1SW-Brz; and Tamara Princess (Brz) (Roi Normand), SW-US, $114,250. UNRACED EMPOWERED AMONG DANTE

ENTRY Cheveley Park Stud's Empowered (Ire) (Fasliyev), who makes his debut at Leicester today, yesterday featured among the 76 entries for the G2 Dante S. at York May 15. The half-brother to G1 Epsom Derby winner Authorized (Ire) will bid to follow the path of his half-sibling, but the owners' Racing Manager Chris Richardson is cautious for the moment. "Obviously, being related to Authorized, [trainer] Peter [Chapple-Hyam] has a soft spot for him, but I think the proof will be in the running," Richardson said yesterday. "Once he's had an outing, we'll know what ground and trip he likes, but we do hope he will be good enough to run in the Dante S. He's one of those horses who grew a lot as a two-year-old and was quite backward. Also, I think Peter had a few horses who were coughing towards the end of the season, and he was one of them. We just took a view that we'd let Empowered get over that and, hopefully, he'll be a stronger and fitter horse for it." Also in the £150,000 contest is Derrick Smith's maiden Washington Irving (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), a 3/4-brother to Alexandrova (Ire) who may return in a conditions event at Leopardstown on Sunday and is one of a team of 23 from Ballydoyle. Sir Michael Stoute has entered a quartet headed by Khalid Abdullah's Ascot conditions scorer Confront (GB) (Nayef), while Godolphin's nine-strong entry includes the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere winner Rio de la Plata (Rahy) and G1 Racing Post Trophy hero Ibn Khaldun (Dubai Destination).

Observations on today's European racing scene
sponsored by COOLMORE

2.20 Longchamp, Cond, €34,000, 3yo, f, 1mT
GOLDIKOVA (IRE) (Anabaa) looked a group performer in the making when recording impressive wins at Chantilly in September and October and is eased back into action by Freddie Head en route to bigger objectives. The Wertheimer brothers' homebred half-sister to the very smart Gold Sound (Fr) may not find it entirely straightforward under a four-pound penalty taking on the likes of Khalid Abdullah's Chasing Stars (GB) (Observatory), a one-time winner for the Criquette Head-Maarek stable from the family of Reams of Verse and Elmaamul.

4.30 Leicester, Mdn, £4,000, 3yo/up, 9f 218ydsT
EMPOWERED (IRE) (Fasliyev) will be the focus of attention at the Midlands venue, as he is a half to last year's G1 Epsom Derby and G1 Juddmonte International S. hero Authorized (Ire). Like that stellar performer, he is in the care of Peter Chapple-Hyam and David and Patricia Thompson of Cheveley Park Stud will be hoping that their acquisition has inherited his share of his sibling's ability.

REGAL CUP PLAN Michael Jarvis yesterday revealed that Peter Savill and Susan Magnier's Royal and Regal (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) is being aimed at the May 16 G2 Emirates Airline Yorkshire Cup. Having been transferred from Andre Fabre's stable following his success in the G3 Jockey Club Cup at Newmarket on Champions' Day, the four-year-old will tackle York's £140,000 mile-and-three-quarter contest. "He came from France to me during the winter and he's settled into things well and is coming along nicely," Jarvis said. "He's obviously a nice horse and is in good form at home. He may have a prep run in the [Apr. 19] G3 John Porter S. over a mile and a half prior to the Yorkshire Cup, but we'll just have to see if he's ready enough for that Newbury race." Also featuring among the 39-strong entry yesterday was Diane Nagle and Susan Magnier's dual G1 Ascot Gold Cup hero Yeats (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), as well as Aidan O'Brien's other prominent stayers Septimus (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Mahler (GB) (Galileo {Ire}).

HAATEF OPTIONS OPEN Kevin Prendergast is pondering the first target of Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Haatef (Danzig) in 2008 and could travel the four-year-old to Britain for the May 14 G2 Duke of York S. or last year's G2 Diadem S. winner could stay in Ireland for the G3 Gladness S. at The Curragh Apr. 13. "Haatef has been entered in the Duke of York S. at York and he could go there," Prendergast confirmed yesterday. "He's also entered in the G3 Gladness S., but it depends on the ground where he runs. He's doing well and I am happy with him. He's won on good ground, but he wouldn't want it too fast. In last year's 2000 Guineas at Newmarket the ground was too fast for him, but it was a bit better when he won at Ascot and I'm pleased with the way he's wintered." Also among the 55 entries for the Duke of York yesterday was Bridget Swire's G1 July Cup winner Sakhee's Secret (GB) (Sakhee), Budget Stables' G1 Golden Jubilee S. hero Soldier's Tale (Stravinsky) and Joseph Allen and Coolmore's US Ranger (Danzig).

Gull Wing closed last term with a fifth in the Listed Gillies Fillies' S. over an extended 10 furlongs at Doncaster Nov. 10 and posted a career high on seasonal bow in a thrilling finale to this marathon. Reserved off the pace in sixth until easing into contention at the three-furlong pole, she responded gamely under a final-quarter drive to inch out the brave Shipmaster in a bobber.

SONNY RED (IRE) (c, 4, Redback {GB}--Magic Melody {GB}, by Petong {GB}) went postward as the 4-5 chalk coming back from a second in the Mar. 22 Listed Cammidge Trophy at Doncaster. Settled in a close sixth after the break here, the €26,000 GOFNOV foal and 26,000gns DONSEP yearling came under pressure at the quarter-mile marker and kept on well under a sympathetic drive to deny Hoh Hoh Hoh (GB) (Piccolo {GB}) by a head at the wire. Former European champion sprinter Reverence (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}) raced prominently for most of this comeback run, but faded inside the final furlong to finish fifth. SHE'S A SHAW THING (GB) (f, 2, Reel Buddy--So Discreet {GB}, by Tragic Role), a 5,000gns TATOCT yearling, was an impressive winner at Warwick Mar. 24 and the form of that debut score was franked by the subsequent victory of runner-up Percolator (GB) at Lingfield on Monday. Swift from the gate to seize immediate control of this, the 13-8 second choice enjoyed splendid isolation by halfway and was pushed to the line in the closing stages to secure an impressive six-length success from Sally's Dilemma (GB) (Primo Valentino {Ire}). TATHKAAR (GB) (f, 3, Dr Fong--Royal Patron {GB}, by Royal Academy), sixth in the Listed Spring Cup at Lingfield on her sophomore bow Mar. 15, was supported into 6-4 favoritism and stalked the early pace under cover. Enjoying a rail run in the straight, the 20,000gns TATOCT yearling hooked up with Erlydors (Ire) (Captain Rio {GB}) passing the quarter pole and outgamed that rival to score by a head. Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-0, £5,299.

Leading throughout, the 1-4 pick was unextended in the straight and coasted to the wire in hand to record a facile 1 3/4-length win from Pedrovic (Ire) (Ekraar).
