SMOKING HOT IN LAS CIENEGAS

Heading into the final turn, it appeared that 20-1 shot Bahama Mama (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) was on her way to victory. But after that leader--who was making her U.S. bow--blew the turn, it was Lightmyfirebaby (Unusual Heat) who gained the decision after her rival's disqualification in the GIII Las Cienegas H. at Santa Anita Sunday. Content to stalk Bahama Mama--a listed winner and Group 2 placed in Germany--behind a solid early pace, Lightmyfirebaby launched her bid turning for home. She was drawn wide when Bahama Mama missed the turn, dragging out a host of rivals, including Super Freaky (Smart Strike), who appeared to get the worst of it. A length behind the errant filly at the wire, Lightmyfirebaby was a neck in front of Wake Up Maggie (Ire) (Xaar {Ire}), but was moved to the top following the disqualification of Bahama Mama, who was placed fourth behind Super Freaky. cont. p2

STAR KAVA

Ground concerns forced Alain de Royer-Dupre to ponder long and hard before allowing "TDN Rising Star" Zarkava (Ire) (Zamindar) to take part in yesterday's G3 Prix de la Grotte at Longchamp. However, his decision was vindicated--and then some--as His Highness The Aga Khan's bay homebred tore up the French 1000 Guineas trial with a hugely impressive display. She remains firmly on target for Classic glory following a 2 1/2-length defeat of Conference Call (GB) (Anabaa), as the 7-10 favorite, in the Bois de Boulogne mud. "This filly is a pure jewel and that is why I was so concerned about the ground," admitted de Royer-Dupre. "I had no doubt about her ability to handle soft going, but I was worried about risking her on a bad surface which could have ruined her season."

Adriano to Kentucky Derby...

Adriano (A.P. Indy), winner of the GII Lane's End S. at Turfway, is likely to make his next start in the May 3 Kentucky Derby after an impressive work at Churchill Sunday, according to trainer Graham Motion. "I'm pretty sure we're going to go for it after this, I don't know why we wouldn't," said Motion. In company with stablemate--stakes winner Longley--the chestnut, with Edgar Prado in the saddle, breezed a half mile in :50 flat over a fast track. "He went nice," said Prado. "He started nice and easy and he finished good. When I called on him, he was there. He galloped out really well and it seemed like he handled it very well." The colt recorded internal splits of :13, :25.40 and :37.80 before galloping out in 1:03.40. "He seemed to handle it fine," said Motion. "I don't think the time was real flashy, but to be honest, I really wasn't asking him to do that. [The track] was kind of cuppy. I'm guessing they didn't put a lot of water on it because of the rain, so it just looked like it was a little loose." The move was the 29th fastest of 42 at the distance. "Believe me, I want to win the Derby as much as anybody else does, but I don't think it's engraved in my mind that I've got to get there," Motion said. "I think when we analyze it and we talk with [owner Donald Adam] and with Edgar [Prado], I think it is the right thing to do at this point." Prado, who also rides GI Wood Memorial winner Tale of Ekati and Monba, victorious in Saturday's GI Blue Grass S., would need to make a decision within the next 24 hours whether he would stay with the Courtlandt homebred in the Derby. "He's got to make up his mind, and I don't want to miss out on getting somebody else," explained Motion. Prado added, "Hopefully, everything will work out well. We hope [Adriano] will come out of the work beautiful and we'll play it from there. We just hope we make the right choice."

Gayego Heads to Churchill Monday...

Gayego (Gilded Time), winner of Saturday's GII Arkansas Derby, will be flown to Louisville Monday morning to prepare for the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs May 3. On the flight from Hot Springs to Louisville, the dark bay will be accompanied by Z Fortune (Siphon {Brz}) and Tres Borrachos (Ecton Park), second and third-place finishers in the nine-furlong event. "[Gayego]'s doing well," Martin Morales, assistant trainer to Paulo Lobo, said yesterday. "He's ready for the next one."

"They made the right call," said winning rider Alex Solis. "We were head and head before we crossed the dirt and [the bumping] cost me a length and a half. We got beat a length. This was my first time on her and I went by the fact she had a good form." Running at the allowance level for most of her early career, Lightmyfirebaby made the most of her stakes bow to win the Irish O'Brien S. against state-breds over this course and trip Mar. 17 before finishing second most recently in the Cal-bred Valentine Dancer H. Noel O'Callaghan's Alexander Castle (Lemon Drop Kid) could take his place in the line-up for Thursday's G3 banshahouse.com Craven S. at Newmarket. Trainer Kevin Ryan is keen to trial last year's G2 Champagne S. runner-up this week and will either take in the Newmarket prep or Saturday's G3 Greenham S. at Newbury. "He's in great form at home--all he's done is strengthen during the winter and he is much stronger now," his conditioner commented. "He was very weak last year and we always said that anything he did as a two-year-old would be a bonus. His homework has been very impressive."

☆ CLASSIC CORNER ☆

WATSON TO MISS GUINEAS The Comic Strip Heroes' unbeaten Winker Watson (GB) (Piccolo {GB}) will sidestep the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket May 3. Following last year's G2 Norfolk S. and G2 July S. winner being found to be suffering from stiffness on Saturday, trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam revealed, "We had him scanned and found that he had a problem behind. In view of that, it wouldn't be right for the horse if we pushed him and so it's highly unlikely that he will be running in the 2000 Guineas. Instead, I hope that we will be able to head to the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas [at The Curragh May 24] with him or Royal Ascot."

Zarkava earned the TDN Rising Star tag with an impressive two-length victory in a newcomers' contest over course and distance last September and justified that accolade with an imperious performance to lift the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac at the expense of Conference Call back here on Arc day. Afforded a patient ride in fifth from the outset of this seasonal return, she was urged closer at the quarter mile marker. The crowd's odds-on selection settled the contest in a matter of strides when accelerating to the front approaching the final eighth and cruised to the line in hand from there to impose her class and retain her unblemished record. "After walking the course I thought it was safe enough for her to run," said trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre. "Indeed, she won in great style so it will be the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches [over course and distance May 11] next." Click for the Racing Post chart.

Mr. Nightlinger was given little consideration at 21-1 in the GIII Shakertown S. at Keeneland Sunday, but the four-year-old proved the bettors wrong by getting his first career graded-stakes victory. On the engine from the start, the bay carved out early splits of :21.90, :45.57 and :57.42, while even-money choice Smart Enough stalked the pace in fourth. As Smart Enough was forced to check three furlongs out, the leader was enjoying an open track up ahead. With the former ready to challenge for the lead turning for home, Mr. Nightlinger found another gear in the stretch, winning by 1 3/4 lengths over the favorite. Fort Prado came from far off the pace to complete the exacta. "He's an up-close pace kind of horse," said jockey Jamie Theriot. "That was our strategy to let him run to the front. The fractions were kind of quick, but that was okay. When they [Midwatch] came up on him on the outside, he was determined not to let him get by."

Mr. Nightlinger made a good showing in last year's GIII Lone Star Derby for trainer Bret Calhoun, finishing third behind Slew's Tizzy. Moved to the care of Cody Autrey, he crossing the wire in the same spot in a pair of subsequent stakes appearances at Fairplex--the Derby Trial and Pomona Derby. Victorious over the Polytrack here last October, the four-year-old was first across the line in his seasonal finale in a $50,000 optional claimer at the Fair Grounds in December, but was relegated to third following his disqualification for interference. In his second start of 2008, the colt proved best to take another optional claimer at the New Orleans oval Feb. 10 before finishing fourth last time out in the Hot Springs S. at Oaklawn Park Mar. 22. Click for the

Some substantial reputations went to post here in US Ranger and Major Cadeaux, but it was Jumbajukiba's day as the gelding produced an impressive display of galloping in the deep Curragh ground. Having opened his stakes account in the Listed Platinum S. at Cork in August, he followed up in the G3 Solonaway S. on this circuit the next month and may have been taking a step too far when a subsequently disappointing seventh in Newmarket's G3 Joel S. in October. Sent straight to the front by an enterprising Fran Berry, he never looked in danger of relinquishing his advantage as the runner-up and third-place finisher floundered in the mud. "I don't know where we'll go with him now, but I'd imagine he'll come back here or go for a group race at Leopardstown," trainer Jessie Harrington commented. "He loves a dig in the ground. He got tired, but he was entitled to." Click for the Racing Post chart.

Tamayuz opened his account in the colts' division on the same day Zarkava (Ire) made a winning debut here last September and followed with a stirring performance in a one-mile conditions event in his season closer at Chantilly Oct. 8. Positioned fourth from the break in this pattern-race bow, the chestnut homebred was asked to get busy as the field passed the quarter-mile marker. He responded to jockey Davy Bonilla's every call from there, quickening smartly in the closing stages to deny the tenacious Murcielago in a thrilling finish for a career high. "I've always held this horse in high regard and his great quality is his power of acceleration," claimed trainer Freddy Head. "He was a little keen today and at one stage I thought he wouldn't get out, but once he did he quickened brilliantly and that was most satisfactory. On what he shows in the morning he gives me the impression he will stay further, but I'm not so sure when I see him on the racetrack. He is in the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket [May 3], but his next race may be the French equivalent [back here May 11]. High Rock set the seal on an afternoon of Classic trials with arguably the best performance of all with a mighty display in this French Derby prep. A first-up third at Deauville last August, he broke through in a Saint-Cloud maiden the following month and entered winter quarters with the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club on the agenda after a victory in the G3 Prix de Conde at this track in October. Jockey Christophe Lemaire earned his corn through the early fractions of this as High Rock fought for his head in keen fashion while positioned third behind a stop-start pace. Allowed an inch of rein rounding the home turn, he seized the initiative at the top of the stretch and powered ever clear in near-effortless fashion to secure a second pattern win by daylight. "The horse was keen today because he was very fresh as I hadn't given him too much preparatory work for this first run of the year," explained trainer Jean-Claude Rouget. "He has class and talent and proved it once again today. I'm sure his best trip will be at around a mile-and-a-quarter so we can now think about the Prix du Jockey-Club [at Chantilly June 1]."

☆ BLUE GRASS WRAP UP ☆

Derby Plans for Blue Grass Finishers...

Monba (Maria's Mon) and Cowboy Cal (Giant's Causeway), first and second, respectively, in Saturday's GI Blue Grass S. at Keeneland, will remain in Lexington for the time being, according to trainer Todd Pletcher. "We're not in any huge rush," said Pletcher in regard to shipping the colts to Churchill Downs. "We'll see how they do here the next few days, and map out a plan."

Kentucky Bear (Mr. Greeley), third in the Blue Grass, was full of energy and "bouncing off the walls," said Reade Baker's assistant Cassie Garcia Sunday morning. The colt will be sent to Churchill to prepare for the Derby, even though he may not have enough graded stakes earnings to make it into the Classic. Also heading to Louisville is beaten favorite Pyro (Pulpit), who ran 10th. "He is doing great," said Steve Asmussen's assistant Scott Blasi. Fifth-place finisher Visionaire (Grand Slam) will remain at Keeneland until about a week before the Derby and will have his final major work over the Churchill strip. A decision has yet to be made whether 11th-place Big Truck (Hook and Ladder) will make the trip to Churchill. "It's decision time," said Joe Rosalez, assistant to Barclay Tagg. "He came back fine, cooled out great, ate up his feed tub. He's a classy little horse." Making his way up North, Miner's Claim (Mineshaft), a troubled sixth, will be sent to Woodbine in Toronto and be aimed for a sophomore campaign this summer, possibly the GI Haskell Invitational at Monmouth Park or the GI Travers S. at Saratoga.

Ballado's Thunder, winner of a restricted stakes at Santa Anita a year ago, ran fourth to Nashoba's Key in both the GII Milady BC H. and GI Vanity H. at Hollywood last summer for trainer Rafael Becerra before going to the sidelines. The bay, now with Bill Mott, returned to be badly beaten when last of seven in the GII Rampart H. at Gulfstream Mar. 9 and was moving to the sod for the first time since last March. The 5-2 co-second choice raced close up, took over after a half in :49 3/5, rebuffed a challenge from favored Danzon in the stretch and was safe by a length over the closing Shytoe Lafcet at the line. Like a Rose gave owner Winning Move Stable and trainer Gary Contessa the first leg of a New York Stallion stakes sweep yesterday at Aqueduct. The filly, a $105,000 juvenile, ran second as the favorite in both of her starts in New York last summer, then returned from a lengthy shelving to break her maiden by 4 1/2 lengths as the odds-on pick at the Big A on Apr. 5. Let go at 8-1 wheeling back into stakes company, she came with a three-wide bid leaving the quarter pole and, in a three-horse blanket finish, got her nose down on the line.

"This is a filly who I loved from Day 1," said Contessa. "She has had one physical problem after another stopping her. I told Steve [Sigler of Winning Move Stable] at the Ocala Sales last year that I had to have her. I thought then that she was special, and today she proved she was special, on eight days' rest. She'll get a little time off now." Study Abroad was second, with favorite I Promise, also by Hook and Ladder, in third.

When he entered the ring at the Keeneland January Sale a few months ago, Fort Drum, a $135,000 yearling who began his career with Todd Pletcher, boasted one win from seven starts, but he'd run well enough in a few stakes races and trainer Gary Contessa saw his potential. Contessa purchased the colt for $145,000, and yesterday was rewarded when Fort Drum, making his 2008 debut, scored his initial stakes triumph despite an eventful trip. At the break, Fort Drum broke widest of all from post eight and veered sharply toward the outside rail. Jockey Eibar Coa coaxed his mount back to the inside, where they closed ground on the turn. Moved again to the outside for the stretch run, Fort Drum rallied to catch Almighty Silver, lugged in and brushed that foe, then straightened out as Express to Thewest rallied. "He runs like a moron," asserted Contessa. "He ran like a two-year-old making his first start. I have never seen a horse run this stupid and win." Of his astute purchase, Contessa added, "I went down to Keeneland in January thinking I could get him for $50,000-$70,000. Today's race is why I paid $145,000. This one I really like." This is traditionally used as a prep for Newmarket's G1 1000 Guineas and Pascal Bary has that target firmly in mind for Natagora. She scored here in both the G3 Prix du Bois and G2 Prix Robert Papin in July before her second in Deauville's G1 Prix Morny the following month and sign-off success in Newmarket's G1 Cheveley Park S. in October. "She is running to see how she goes over seven furlongs and on the soft going," her trainer, who took this in 2002 with Glia and 12 months later with Six Perfections (Fr), told PA Sport. "She's fine, she's done very well over the winter and she has been working well." Heading the opposition is Modern Look, who looked Classic material when winning the G3 Prix Miesque over this track and trip in November.

War Officer bids to follow in the steps of US Ranger, who collected for the Joseph Allen/Jean-Claude Rouget connection 12 months ago. He has stamina to prove, having showed bountiful speed when third in the G3 Prix Eclipse at Chantilly in October and when annexing Deauville's Listed Prix Montenica last time Mar. 21. Andre Fabre, who scored in 2002 with Massalani (Fr), relies on the unbeaten Elusif, who needs to improve off a narrow success in a conditions event at Longchamp in September.

Red Moloney is deadly on this type of testing ground and made the most of the prevailing conditions to capture the Listed Ballycullen S. in August before finishing third in the Listed Oyster S. at Galway the following month. He took to Dundalk's all-weather surface to win the Listed Carlingford S. in November, but was all at sea on Lingfield's equivalent when down the field in the Mar. 15 G3 Winter Derby on his seasonal return. Georgebernardshaw handled testing ground with aplomb when breaking his maiden over six furlongs on his sophomore bow here two weeks earlier and was even more impressive on this stakes bow. Always at the fore under a confident Johnny Murtagh, the imposing bay eased into a clear advantage passing halfway and was unchallenged through the final furlong. "I don't think any horse would like that ground, and he is a very pacey horse who wants better ground," Aidan O'Brien said. "We'll look at one of the Guineas for him after that."
