SCINTILLATING?

When it comes to Newmarket in the Spring, few trainers know their way about as well as Richard Hannon. The veteran trainer is back tomorrow with a live contender in Scintillo (GB) (Fantastic Light) in the G3 banshahouse.com Craven S. Successful with subsequent G1 2000 Guineas winner Tirol (Ire) in 1990 and with Umistim (GB) and King's Ironbridge (Ire) in 2000 and 2001, the East Everleigh stable is looking at White Beech Farm's G1 Gran Criterium winner to add to the tally. Runner-up to subsequent G2 Champagne S. winner McCartney (Ger) in Salisbury's Listed Stonehenge S. in August, he ran third behind City Leader (Ire) (Fasliyev) in the G2 Royal Lodge S. at Ascot the following month before his defeat of Gladiatus in the San Siro highlight in October. "He maintained a high level of form, especially during the second half of the season," the trainer's son and assistant Richard Hannon, Jr. commented. "Apart from Italy, he ran a cracker to finish third to City Leader in the Royal Lodge after being placed in two Listed races. The form of those worked out really well. It's always nice to see good, solid form like that in the book." cont. p2

CRAVEN BREEZE-UP BEGINS TWO-DAY RUN

Tattersalls' flagship Craven Breeze-Up Sale gets underway after racing in Newmarket at 5:45 p.m. this evening with high hopes of a good trade ahead of some smart workouts on the Rowley Mile yesterday morning. Many of the major owners were represented, including Sheikh Mohammed, whose bloodstock advisor John Ferguson bought G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere winner Rio de la Plata for 170,000gns at this sale 12 months ago. "The quality of horses seems to be high and there are plenty of opportunities for people looking for a nice horse," said Ferguson. "A good number breezed well and I'm looking forward to seeing them over the next few days." A total of 194 lots are catalogued. cont. p3

PROVISO NEARS RETURN

Khalid Abdullah's Proviso (GB) (Dansili {GB}) is set to make her sophomore bow in the G3 Prix Vanteaux at Longchamp Apr. 27. Last year's G3 Prix du Calvados winner and G1 Fillies' Mile runner-up will use the race as a prep for the G1 Prix de Diane (French Oaks) at Chantilly June 8. "Proviso is in great nick and coming along really well," the owner's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe said of the ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ yesterday. "[Trainer] Andre [Fabre] is pleased with her and said she is really coming to herself. I think she'll go to the Prix Vanteaux and then we'll make a decision on her, but her main aim is the Prix de Diane."

Over to Him...

Khalid Abdullah's colors were carried to victory here by the great Dancing Brave in 1986 and, with the Sir Michael Stoute-trained Confront (GB) being rerouted to Saturday's G3 Greenham S. at Newbury, it is up to Twice Over (GB) (Observatory) to fly the flag in tomorrow's G3 Craven S. Unbeaten in two starts here in an October maiden and conditions event the following month, the homebred from the family of Passage of Time (GB) hails from Henry Cecil's stable. Having collected this prestigious trial with Lyphard's Wish (Fr) in 1979, Warren Place had to wait until 1994 to follow up with King's Theatre (Ire) and has not been represented since Painted Room was fifth seven years ago. "He's in good form and has pleased Henry," Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe said yesterday. "He won nicely both times and is fairly unexposed. He's been going very well recently and everything he has done in his galloping has been straightforward. We are looking towards the Derby, but he's by a miler in Observatory, so the question is whether he'll stay a mile and a half. If he shows he's good enough here, we'll look at the 2000 Guineas."

Tomcito Drills at Keeneland...

In his final preparatory move in advance of Saturday's GII Coolmore Lexington S., Tomcito (Street Cry {Ire}) worked three furlongs out of the gate in :34.60 Tuesday morning at Keeneland. With rider Manfredy Guzman, the two-time Peruvian Group 1 winner galloped out a half mile in :46.80. "He had worked out of the gate before his Grade 1 win at a mile and a quarter in Peru," said trainer Dante Zanelli. "He was close to the pace that day [Oct. 20] and won by [9 3/4 lengths]." With $151,292 in earnings, the bay would need to hit the board Saturday to have a chance to get into the Derby lineup. "I think even if he finishes third [purse of $32,500], I will be all right," added Zanelli. "I am not worried. I think I have the horse to beat. He is getting better and better and he was not even blowing [after the work]."

☆ TATTS BREEZE UP ☆

Pros and Con...

Rio de la Plata was sold from Con Marnane's Bansha House Stables, and the Co. Tipperary consignor--which has 23 catalogued this year--was flat out with viewers yesterday afternoon. "We've been very busy, although I'd hope to be, having sold two Group 1 winners at last year's sale. It's good to see the same old faces here" said Marnane, who felt that the turf in the later stages of the breeze was not suitable for all horses.

"It was very disappointing that the ground cut up later on and the American-bred horses just could not let themselves down on it," said Marnane. "I'd also be against letting people standing on the right hand side as they galloped, because it balked the two-year-olds. When they see the people there, they were inclined to stop. Everyone should stand on the left, it's not fair on the consignors or buyers."

Marnane's team includes Lot 97, Benedicte (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), a half-brother to G1 Middle Park S. winner Amadeus Wolf (GB) (Mozart {Ire}), who cost 210,000gns as a yearling; Lot 52, an Arch colt who moved well; and Lot 37, a son of Cozzene, who strode out impressively.

Willie Browne's Mocklershill Stables was another with an eye-catching draft. Among them was Lot 189, a Mr. Greeley filly; and Lot 160, a Giant's Causeway colt who cost $260,000 as a yearling.

Kip Elser's South Carolina-based Kirkwood Stables looks set for a good sale with several of his shining on the gallops. Standouts included Lot 34, named Madame Guillotine (Proud Citizen), who should show a good advance on her $35,000 yearling cost; Lot 54, an Action this Day 3/4-brother to dual Group 1-winning sprinter Les Arcs (Arch); Lot 151, a Toccet filly; and Lot 168, a son of Mr. Greeley.

Locally based Emma O'Gorman also appears to have a strong team. These include Lot 50, a Danehill Dancer (Ire) colt, and the following Lot 51, an Irish-bred son of Indian Ridge (Ire).

Pricy yearling purchases include Lynn Lodge Stud's Lot 78, a Mr. Greeley colt who made $260,000 at Keeneland September; and a pair from the draft of Yeomanstown Stud: Lot 142, a $250,000 Medaglio d'Oro colt; and Lot 81, a 160,000gns Dansili (GB) colt.

Among the other smart workers was Lot 172, a Danehill Dancer (Ire) colt consigned from Mark Dwyer's Oaks Farm Stables; Lot 184, a son of Stroll offered by Jamie Railton; and Lot 135, an Invincible Spirit (Ire) colt consigned from Norman Williamson's Oak Tree Farm.

"I think we saw some smart two-year-olds this morning," said Tattersalls Marketing Director Jimmy George yesterday. "The breeze was extremely well attended and things went very smoothly."

Tomorrow's session also begins at 5:45 p.m. For catalogue and outs, visit www.tattersalls.com.

High Rock (Ire) had tongues wagging and eyes popping in Sunday's G3 Prix la Force and his impressive success is a timely reminder of how "The Rock" can make a major impact in 2008. This a half to the 2001 GIII Dance Smartly H. winner Alexis (Ire) and Ballydoyle's listed scorers Miss Helga (Ire) and Freshwater Pearl (Ire). (Click for work video)

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

SHOWING UP RETIRED Lael Stables' Showing Up (Strategic Mission--Miss Alethia, by T.V. Commercial) has been retired and will enter stud in 2009, said Barclay Tagg yesterday. "He's perfectly sound," Tagg told Blood-Horse. "He had a couple of little problems with his hind suspensory, but he's 100 percent now." Winner of the GII Lexington S. and the GII Colonial Turf Cup in the spring of 2006, the $60,000 FTMMAY juvenile added victories in that year's GI Secretariat S. and GII Jamaica BC H. and finished third against older horses in the GI Man 'o War S. He concluded his sophomore campaign with a score in the GI Hollywood Derby. In his sole start at four, the chestnut finished runner-up to Kip Deville in the GII Maker's Mark Mile. He retires with seven wins from 10 starts and $1,660,500 in earnings.

Weekly Sales Ticker
 by Bill Oppenheim

Sponsored by
BRADLEY THOROUGHBRED BROKERAGE

"Last year the European Two-Year-Old sales continued their upward growth pattern with a 15 percent rise in gross, but they may be suffering from the same trends this year as the North American sales outside of Ocala. The number sold at Doncaster dropped by 25 percent, and the gross dropped by 19 percent, but the average was up, by eight percent. Keeneland, meanwhile, remained above the $200,000 average mark for those sold, which was only 40 percent of the catalogue – though that was at least up from 36 percent in 2007."

☆ CLASSIC CORNER ☆

SENSE OF JOY INJURED

Khalid Abdullah's G3 Prestige S. winner Sense of Joy (GB) (Dansili {GB}) will miss the G1 1000 Guineas, it was announced yesterday. Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe broke the news of the John Gosden-trained ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆. "She has sustained a soft tissue injury which will rule her out of the 1000 Guineas," he told the Racing Post. "Further investigations as to the extent of the injury are now being made."

WEATHER WATCH FOR NAHOODH

Trainer Mick Channon will be hoping that Newbury's ground does not turn soft as he prepares Jaber Abdullah's Nahoodh (Ire) (Clodovil {Ire}) for Saturday's G3 Fred Darling S. Last year's G2 Lowther S. winner will use the Dubai Duty Free-sponsored prep as a stepping stone to the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket May 4. "Soft ground is a worry and most of my horses want top of the ground," he said. "She's a filly you need to understand, like a lot of Clodovils. Much will depend on what happens in the next few days, but I'm very keen to run her this week. She's very hairy in her coat, but when you give them a run it invariably flies off them."

GREENHAM FOR CONFRONT

Khalid Abdullah's Confront (GB) (Nayef) will drop back to seven furlongs for Saturday's G3 Greenham S., connections announced yesterday. Successful over a mile in an Ascot conditions event in October, the Sir Michael Stoute-trained homebred has pleased in his recent homework and will look to book his ticket to the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket May 3. "Physically, he's done exceptionally well and, although it's taken a while to hit his stride this year, the last three or four times I've watched him he seems to be getting there," the owner's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe commented. "He's from the family of Reams of Verse, so it's a Classic family."

Margins: 3, 6 3/4, 8 1/4. Odds: 1.70, 3.70, 2.80.

Coyoteshighestcall, claimed for $25,000 last September, had won seven of nine starts since then, including five in a row. The dark bay was coming off a 4 3/4-length victory over track and trip in a Mar. 17 starter handicap. Favored in the five-horse field, Coyoteshighestcall was always travelling close to the front. He powered to the lead with a three-wide move on the turn and cruised under the line for his first stakes win.

TVG Todd Pletcher sends out the first runner for Chapel Royal (Montbrook) in Lets Go Stable's IBERIAN GATE (Chapel Royal). The dark bay filly, out of MSW White Cliffs (Dover Ridge), has been working sharply over the Keeneland strip for her debut. The field also includes the first runners for freshman sires The Cliff's Edge (Gulch) and Peace Rules (Jules). The former is represented by Lookbeforeyouleap from the barn of trainer Thomas Short, while the latter has the Steve Asmussen-trained Mostly Peace. brisset.com pps

TOBA OFFERS SUPPORT TO THG:

Thoroughbred Horseman's Group gained strong endorsement from the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association (TOBA) in its efforts to promote simulcasting through all account wagering companies and other outlets offering a fair contribution of revenue to horsemen and racetracks. "The Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association is in complete support of the goals of the THG to require fair pricing for advance deposit wagering companies," TOBA Chairman Bill Casner said after a meeting last week between THG leaders and the TOBA Board of Trustees. "The shift in wagering from on track to ADW has created the phenomena of 'handle up, purses down.' It is only reasonable to ask ADW companies that have no investment in bricks and mortar or horseflesh to pay their fair share to purses. Racetrack companies that own ADWs are obviously conflicted by the current pricing model. Racetrack ADWs can retain more revenue from an account wager and pay less to purse accounts than when the same bet is made at their track. This loophole must be closed. A more equitable pricing model will help to ensure the future of our industry." Other organizations that have joined the THG since the end of last year are the Maryland Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association, Tampa Bay Downs Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association, Mountaineer Park HBPA, Oklahoma HBPA, Minnesota HBPA and Indiana HBPA. Members that joined previously are the Thoroughbred Owners of California; Florida HBPA, representing horsemen at Gulfstream Park and Calder Race Course; Kentucky HBPA; Texas Horsemen's Partnership; Louisiana HBPA; Pennsylvania HBPA; Ohio HBPA; Delaware Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association; Arkansas HBPA; Virginia HPBA; and HBPA of Ontario, Canada.

JAM OPTIONS OPEN Faisal Salman's Listed Masaka S. winner Jazz Jam (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) could contest either the May 18 G3 Premio Regina Elena (Italian 1000 Guineas) or French equivalent. The Paul Cole-trained homebred would need to be supplemented to the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches at Longchamp May 11. "She came out of Kempton well and takes everything very easily--she's never under pressure and stressed, she's just a nice straightforward filly," said the conditioner's son and assistant Oliver. "It will probably be the Italian Guineas now, but we might supplement her for the French."

DUBAI DUTY FREE TO SPONSOR IRISH DERBY

Dubai Duty Free were yesterday announced as the new sponsors of the G1 Irish Derby after signing a five-year contract with The Curragh management. Becoming just the third sponsor of the mile-and-a-half Classic after Irish Sweeps and Budweiser, the world-famous retail operator will help the June 29 contest reach €1.5-million in prizemoney. "The Irish Derby is a major race meeting attracting widespread media coverage across Europe and beyond and is therefore in line with our global strategy of promoting Dubai and Dubai Duty Free," said the Managing Director Colm McLoughlin. The track's Commercial Manager Evan Arkwright added, "Dubai Duty Free are unbelievably committed to making the Irish Derby one of the most prestigious sporting occasions in Ireland and it's great to have such a big international brand involved."

TALE OF TWO CITIES (IRE) (Sadler's Wells) represents Ballydoyle in this intriguing contest--won in 1998 by Greek Dance (Ire) and has a substantial family tradition to uphold. Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's brother to High Chaparral (Ire) was third behind the promising Red Eye Express (Ire) at Cork in October before finishing last of six in the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud the following month. He meets Susan Roy's unraced Checklow (Street Cry {Ire}), a Jeremy Nosedo-trained colt from the family of the 1991 GI Arlington Million hero Tight Spot.

SKADRAK (Forest Camp) is officially the highest-rated once-raced maiden in the history of the European Free Handicap and earned that lofty mark with a short-head second to the well-regarded Atlantic Sport in an Ascot maiden in July. Iraj Parvizi's colt hails from the Brian Meehan barn and meets Cheveley Park Stud's Virtual (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), a John Gosden-trained close relative of Iceman (GB) who was runner-up to the smart Almajd (Ire) in a course-and-distance maiden in October.

FEERICK LAUNCHES ONLINE COMPANY

Racehorse owner and breeder Valentine Feerick has unveiled a new online auction enterprise based on the eBay format. Named www.re-offer.com, the site offers range of listings of racehorses and breeding stock, as well as syndicate shares and stallion nominations, with the option of registering as “authenticated buyers” and tracking bids. “Increasingly in the current economic climate, it seems to us that it is very important for breeders and owners to liquidate their bloodstock assets at a time that suits them, rather than fit in with the schedule of a sales house,” Feerick explained. “We also felt it would be great if sellers had a chance to re-offer a lot for sale if they had made a slight error with their original reserve price.”
