WAR PASS INJURED; OUT OF DERBY

Robert LaPenta's War Pass (Cherokee Run), last year's champion juvenile, has been injured and will be forced to miss the May 3 GI Kentucky Derby. According to trainer Nick Zito, the colt has a small fracture in the sesamoid of his left front ankle. "It's at the back of the ankle, and it pulled away from the sesamoid," Zito said. "It's very small. In fact, [veterinarian Dr. Rick Fischer] took the picture again and had a technician look at the digital images, because there's no swelling there. He's actually walking sound." Zito said it was too early to tell if surgery would be required. The injury may have occurred during War Pass's runner-up effort in the GI Wood Memorial S. The dark bay appeared to exit the race in good order, but a few days later his connections felt something wasn't quite right. "We had some good days, but we started to get some bad days," said Zito. "The Wood was a killer--anybody who saw it knows it was a gut-wrenching performance. The race took its toll, but when he got back to the barn at Belmont, he was great--that's the heart he's got." As for his prognosis, the conditioner said, "What I've got to do is give him a few months off, see the healing process, and go through all the motions. I'll take the pictures over to Dr. [Larry] Bramlage on Monday, see what he thinks and we'll go from there." The winner of the GI Champagne S. and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile at two, he has compiled a record of 7-5-1-0 and earnings of $1,583,400.

Horsephotos

ANOTHER DERBY HORSE FOR PLETCHER?

Just over a week ago, it looked like they might run the 134th Kentucky Derby without reigning Eclipse Award trainer Todd Pletcher. But, after saddling Behindatthebar (Forest Wildcat) to a one-length victory in yesterday's GII Coolmore Lexington S. at Keeneland, Pletcher could have as many as three in the gate on the first Saturday in May. It has not yet been determined if Behindatthebar will head to Louisville with GI Toyota Blue Grass hero Monba (Maria's Mon) and Blue Grass runner-up Cowboy Cal (Giant's Causeway), a possible Derby candidate. Padua Stables' Satish Sanan, the colt's majority owner, said after the Lexington, "We don't know if he likes the dirt or not, but we will get together and decide what to do." With the Lexington purse of $201,5000 in the bank, the bay colt would sneak into the Derby field on earnings. Cont. p3

SEBRING A SLIPPER SENSATION

Sebring (Aus) (More Than Ready) became the first undefeated winner of the G1 Golden Slipper S. with a determined victory over glamour colt Von Costa de Hero (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) at Rosehill Saturday. Favored for this race for the past three months, Sebring looked to have ruined his chances when last of 16 out of the barriers. But the tenacious colt stealthily made up ground before bursting clear in the straight--only to have the shadow of the larger-than-life Von Costa de Hero appear, sprinting from out wide like a freight train. But in a battle of David-and-Goliath proportions, little Sebring pinned his ears back and fought Von Costa de Hero tooth-and-nail to the line. If 30,000 racegoers were uncertain of the result, exuberant jockey Glen Boss was not, raising his whip in a victory salute as a large group of owners decked out in the Star Thoroughbreds purple and white went wild. "Everyone said to me, 'This horse has not run for seven weeks,' and I said 'Why worry about it, he has got one thing on his side, [trainer] Gai Waterhouse,'" Boss said. "He is a special horse; I think when he steps up in distance he is going to get better and better." Cont. p2

Having won two barrier trials before Christmas, Sebring made a winning racetrack debut Jan. 19 in a two-year-old open race, and repeated the dose Feb. 16, winning the Listed Canonbury S. He then added the Listed Breeders' Plate Mar. 1 to his tally, but, after receiving treatment for an infection, he was not seen in the traditional Slipper lead-up races. It could be expected that the colt would be on the muscle for his first start in seven weeks, but such was not the case. "I tried to get him gee-ed up in the barriers, but he blew the start," Glen Boss said. "He walked out. It didn't concern me, because he got into a good spot early and kept his composure. There were a couple of times when he lost his footing and he seemed to drop off, but no sooner had it happened and he quickly picked up again. He came out so quick at the 200 meters, I felt like he was going to win, but [when Von Costa de Hero closed], I was getting a bit desperate; I looked like a goose all over him." Gai Waterhouse said Denise Martin's Star Thoroughbreds, which operates in an office adjacent to the stable headquarters in Randwick, deserved victory at the highest level. "This is sensational," said Waterhouse, celebrating her third Golden Slipper trophy. "This is everything you dream about--here is a horse owned by people who have $10,000 or $20,000 to spend on owning a horse, and they win a $3.5-million race. This is what racing in Australia is all about. It is a triumph for syndication, for Star Thoroughbreds."

Waterhouse, whose 2004 Triple Crown winner Dance Hero (Aus) led the Slipper field out under grey skies yesterday, said Sebring would be pointed toward the Triple Crown, providing he took no harm from his Slipper outing. The second leg is the A$800,000 AJC Sires' Produce S. at Randwick Apr. 26, ahead of the A$450,000 Champagne S. over a mile at the same track May 3.

Big Win for the Little People...

Denise Martin linked up with Waterhouse 14 years ago, and estimates she has since brought some 3,000 first-time owners to racing. Their successes include G1 Flight S. winner Danglissa (Aus), but Sebring was the first Slipper runner for Star Thoroughbreds. He is raced by James Hazzisevastos, David and Luke Henderson of Team Henderson Racing Syndicate, Shahan Mekertichian, Margaret Butler, John and Anne McDonnell, Denise Dunphy, Brian Leonard, Joseph Screnci and Wendy Mullens. "They are terrific people and, even before today, they have become lifelong friends, and now they have a wonderful colt together," said Martin. The syndicate snatched the A$2-million winning purse from the well-heeled connections of the placegetters on a day when modestly priced horses shone. Darley recently purchased a 50-percent share in Von Costa de Hero in a deal that reportedly valued the colt at A$10 million.

Behindatthebar made his debut for trainer Craig Dollase on the Santa Anita all-weather Jan. 12, finishing second. The bay followed up with a maiden score Feb. 2, then Padua bought a majority share. Sent off the 5-2 chalk in the Mar. 8 GIII El Camino Real Derby, the colt never got untracked while trying conventional dirt for the first time and finished fifth. Facing softer in an allowance going 1 1/16 miles at Santa Anita Apr. 3, Behindatthebar rallied to win by four lengths and was headed to Keeneland. Back on short rest, he was well back as Samba Rooster led through a half in :45.21, and edged closer after three-quarters in 1:09.48. Angled outside for the final drive, he caught the crowd's attention with his awkward gait, then drifted in nearing the eighth pole, but buckled down when straightened out in the final furlong and edged clear. Click for the brisnet.com chart, the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. She hadn't visited the winner's circle since taking the GII Bayakoa H. at Hollywood in December of 2006, but Foxysox hung on gamely to win the cavalry charge to the wire here. The chestnut mare opened 2007 with a seventh in the GII Santa Ana H. in March, then disappeared. She returned to be ninth in the Dec. 16 GII Dahlia H., but improved to be third in the Jan. 14 Paseana H. going long and the Feb. 10 Wishing Well II H. down the hill. Off at 11-1 in this year's edition of the Santa Ana Mar. 23, Foxysox had to wait for room before closing to be fourth, beaten just a half-length. Jockey Victor Espinoza had the mare a little closer to the pace in third off moderate fractions yesterday. She fought her way to the front inside the final furlong and held on as Black Mamba and I Can See charged at her, taking the tightest of three-way photos. Click for the brisnet.com chart, the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Rite Moment was purchased privately by Winning Move Stable, et al, at the end of her 2007 campaign, and has proved an astute acquisition. The bay opened 2008 with a pair of optional-claiming victories at the Big A Jan. 1 and Jan. 18. Runner-up in the Feb. 9 Correction H., she bounced right back to post a 13 1/4-length triumph in the Mar. 6 Limit S. at a mile and 70 yards. The four-year-old dropped back to six panels for the GII Distaff H. 16 days later and scored again, and she picked up her fifth win of the young season yesterday. Head and head with Cowgirls Don't Cry through a half in :45.72, she inherited a clear lead when that rival ducked in during the stretch drive and nearly hit the inside rail. Rite Moment went on about her business as Lady Marlboro closed to get second. "She has answered every question I've ever asked--what a pleasure to be associated with her," trainer Gary Contessa said, adding, "I'm really thinking she needs a little break now."

Two starts back, Golden Velvet overcame a sponge in her nasal passage to finish in a dead-heat for first with yesterday's GII Bed o'Roses H. runner-up Lady Marlboro in the Jan. 6 GIII Sabin H. at Gulfstream. It wasn't until several days after the race that members of trainer Kiaran McLaughlin's crew noticed an offensive odor when working around the filly's head, and a thorough exam revealed the sponge. Undaunted, Golden Velvet was back in the gate for the Mar. 9 GII Rampart H., but this time had to be steadied in the early going before finishing an even third. The second choice behind Rampart runner-up Tessa Blue here, she tracked the favorite through a half in :48.31 and six furlongs in 1:13.35. The Darley homebred collared the pacesetter in the stretch, fought her way to the front, then pulled away to an impressive win. A Listed winner in France and runner-up in the G3 Prix Paul de Moussac and the G1 Prix Jean Prat, Stoneside had not had much luck since shipping to the U.S. The Irish-bred was third in the Oct. 13 GII Oak Tree Derby, but finished off the board in the Sept. 2 GII Del Mar Derby, Dec. 26 GIII Sir Beaufort S. and Feb. 17 Daytona H. over course and trip last time out. The crowd was understandably reluctant to back him, but the bay looked like different horse after the two-month break. Rated just off the leaders through a half in :43.83, he hugged the rail into the stretch and finished well along the inside. Stoneside caught Tenga Cat inside the eighth pole and edged clear as Night Chapter closed for second. "I had a perfect trip," jockey Martin Pedroza said. "[Trainer Julio Canani] didn't want this horse on the lead today. He told me to lay about five or six lengths off the pace and to try and find somewhere to run at the top of the stretch. They were really high on this horse at Del Mar, and Julio loved him today. We've had a lot of luck together." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs.

He had finished off the board in his last three starts, but Ryan's for Real turned it around with a decisive victory here. The five-year-old gelding was three-for-10 last season, capping the campaign with a five-length score in an optional claimer at Laurel Dec. 5. Moved into stakes company off that effort, he was fifth in the Jan. 5 Native Dancer S. and fourth in the Feb. 18 GII General George H., both in Maryland, and a lackluster seventh in the Apr. 5 GI Carter H. last time out. Off at 6-1 to get back into the game in his Hawthorne debut, Ryan's for Real jumped out to a clear lead after a quarter in :23.61. Fairbanks, the 4-5 chalk, ranged up alongside the frontrunner after a half in :47.55 and had the lead by a half-length after six panels in 1:12.05, but Ryan's for Real found another gear in the stretch. Nathan Fox on Storm Surge all of the attributes of the majority of STORM CAT'S best sons at stud. He was a very fast, sound stakes winner at two that went on to win graded stakes around two turns at three. He is by one of the best stallions in the world and out of a mare by another, which is also one of the best broodmare sires in the world. He is from a family that is known for producing great sires like Saint Ballado, Rahy, Singspiel, and Devil's Bag. STORM SURGE is a correct, well balanced individual with great scope and a terrific hind quarter, deep heart girth and long angular shoulder. This is a horse with tremendous potential, and I am breeding several of our best mares to him this year.” Nathan Fox, Richland Hills Farm owner

“STORM SURGE possesses

Trained by Andre Fabre at two and three, Royal and Regal booked a Classic ticket when winning the Listed Prix de l'Avre at Longchamp in May, but could fare no better than eighth in the G1 Irish Derby at The Curragh in July. Finding his feet over staying trips, the bay was third in Longchamp's G3 Prix de Lutece in September and G2 Prix Chaudenay the following month before improving again to win Newmarket's G3 Jockey Club Cup on Oct. 20, Champions' Day. Settled wide tracking the leading group early in his 2008 bow, he traveled strongly into the race under Neil Callan as Tempelstern maintained his advantage under an enterprising ride from Tom Queally. Royal and Regal finally subdued the longtime leader with 100 yards remaining and held off Zaham despite veering in front of that rival late, surviving an inquiry to get the score. “His last two pieces of work have been very good and he was pretty fit today,” his rider said. “I think he's a horse that will progress as he goes further and he's still inexperienced and green. The key to him is this soft ground, and he'll be an even better horse next year.” Connections will aim the winner at the G2 Yorkshire Cup at York's Dante meeting May 16. Click for the Racing Post chart.

some mitigating circumstances to enhance her burgeoning reputation and book her ticket to the May 4 G1 1000 Guineas. While her last-to-first rattle when taking Sandown's Listed Star S. in July was impressive, it was only after reports of the bay's recent homework started to spill out of Arundel that she rocketed to the fore of the Guineas betting. Kept in the stands' side group of three racing away from the main runners, she lost ground on the pack when the screw was turned, but her natural acceleration overcame that disadvantage and she quickly had the measure of Dream Day when alongside that rival with 100 yards remaining. "When you have a filly that has had a long layoff, they tend to forget what racing's all about," jockey Richard Hills commented. "I was expecting her to pick up when I asked her, but it took her six or seven strides to realise what I wanted and her last furlong was her best. It wasn't the prettiest trial, but she's unbeaten, and is going to improve and stay a mile." Click for the Racing Post chart.

Successful over six furlongs in a maiden here in September and a conditions event at Newmarket in November, the bay tackled an extra panel on his return in the Mar. 15 Listed Spring Cup on Lingfield's Polytrack and emerged triumphant again. Restrained while stalking the early fractions here, he swooped inside the final eighth and overhauled Bobs Surprise for a snug score. "[Jockey] Richard [Hughes] said he wasn't liking the ground, but he thinks he will stay a mile," trainer Richard Hannon said. "We'll have a good think about supplementing him for the Guineas now." Click for the Racing Post chart.

Classy filly Tuesday Joy gave Gai Waterhouse the first leg of a memorable Golden Slipper day double when she produced a stunning turn of foot to prove superior in her first start over 2400 meters and against older horses. Drawn awkwardly in barrier nine in an 11-horse field, Tuesday Joy settled in sixth on the rails early. Jockey Darren Beadman eased her out in the straight, and she came around the heels of the leaders and romped to the line. "She is a superb mare, isn't she?" Waterhouse enthused. "Beadman had her in a lovely position and, when she quickened, she just exploded. I just love her. She is quality through and through, and the stride she has got--I get goose bumps watching it!" As for what is next, Waterhouse added, "We would be mad not to run in the [G1] Queen Elizabeth S. [May 3, Randwick]. Going to Europe is an option, and we will talk about it in the next few weeks; there is no rush." Tuesday Joy, the winner of the G1 Coolmore Classic on this day last year, had her spring aspirations curtailed due to the EI outbreak in NSW. She resumed from a break of almost a year to finish a close second to Racing To Win (Aus) in the G2 Apollo S. Mar. 8. At her next start in the Mar. 22 G1 Chipping Norton S. at Randwick, she was slowly away from the barriers and ran a head second to Casino Prince (Aus), before turning the tables to win the G1 Ranvet S. over 1900 meters at Canterbury Apr. 5.

The tide has certainly turned for Eskimo Queen, who lost her rider last June when sent out the favourite in the G1 Derby, and was scratched at the barriers from the G1 Caulfield Cup after injuring herself when her next door neighbour Maldivian (NZ) did the same. Winner of the G1 Queensland Oaks June 2, her form has been indifferent since and, after finishing well off the board in the Melbourne Cup, she resumed from an 18-week break for an eye-catching sixth in the G3 Schweppes Trophy Mar. 8 at Flemington. However, she was 10th in her next appearance, the G1 Queen Of The Turf S. at Canterbury Apr. 5. Eskimo Queen clearly relished a track that has had nearly 50mm of rain in recent days, taking a prominent position early before conceding the lead to Hot Danish, who set a moderate tempo. The brave mare regained the advantage in the straight and scored a deserving win from short-priced Hot Danish. "She showed a bit of staying power today. She just wants the jar out of the ground," trainer Michael Moroney said. "But we were a bit worried about the heavy stuff, as she was untried in that. She is a quality mare and she has had a lot of bad luck, so it was good to see her win a Group 1 again and be back in the winner's circle." Eskimo Queen is no stranger to sale rings, having gone under the hammer as an NZ$2,500 weanling, a NZ$10,000 yearling and, to the bid of Moroney's brother Paul, for NZ$20,000 as a ready-to-run horse.

TDN presents
STAR OF THE WEEK
 Brought to you by Fasig-Tipton

Jack & Laurie Wolf

starlightracing.com

Accomplishment: The Wolfs began Starlight Stables in 2000 and enjoyed immediate success with the likes of Harlan's Holiday, Purge and champion Ashado. Last week, Starlight's Monba (Maria's Mon) punched his ticket to the Kentucky Derby with a victory in the G1 Blue Grass S. at Keeneland.

Birthdate: Jan. 30, 1967 (Laurie); May 4, 1949 (Jack).

Birthplace: DeRidder, LA (Laurie); Louisville, KY (Jack).

Family: Daughters Lauren, Elinor, sons Bryan, Jake.

Current Residence: Jack: Backside at Churchill until May 3, then Louisville and Saratoga Springs.

Personality wise, who's been your favorite horse and why? Jack: Harlan's Holiday. He had so much fun training and racing; he was always game. He was a playful horse with a little mischievous side to him. Currently he's enjoying his breeding duties at Airdrie Stud.

Do you still own part of him? Do you have any of his babies that stand out? Laurie: Yes, we still own a piece of Harlan's Holiday. We have had two babies hit the ground this year, with one more to go. They are like my children; I can't choose between any. I love them all.

Favorite racetrack? Laurie: AGGGHHH, I can't pick one favorite. Keeneland, because there is not a more beautiful track for spring and fall racing; Saratoga because we have a home there and enjoy summer racing everyday of the meet.

What are your hobbies outside of racing? Jack: Flying, boating and skiing.

Favorite vacation spot? Jack: Anguilla, but it's been awhile. Horse tracks have become our vacation destinations.

Favorite sports team/athlete? Jack: Starlight Racing/Monba.

If you could have dinner with one historical figure, who would it be? Jack: The Wright Brothers.

Last purchase? Jack: Swim trunks, to hangout with my kids in the pool.

Funniest movie? Jack: Animal House.

Favorite music? Jack: Delta Blues and Radio Disney.

What's the best advice you've been given about horse racing?
 Laurie: Do your homework and enjoy the ride.

CONGRATULATIONS!
 from Fasig-Tipton's own
 Graded Stakes-Winning Star of the Week:

His name has been trademarked, and the leggy Weekend Hussler, an A$80,000 Inglis Premier yearling, is undoubtedly the most marketable commodity in Australian racing right now, after matching the feat of legendary Kingston Town (Aus) by scoring his sixth Group 1 win this season. The gelding goes to the paddock unbeaten in four straight Group 1 outings this term, capturing the G1 Oakleigh Plate and G1 Newmarket H. before taking on Sydney's resuming stars to narrowly win the Mar. 29 G1 Randwick Guineas. Rated off the pace here, Weekend Hussler strode confidently to the outside on the turn and, as the crowd rose to cheer, burst clear to put the result beyond doubt. Trainer Ross McDonald joked that people who had followed his advice to "put their house on him" would now own apartments as well. "He is the best that I have had," McDonald said. "He has a great cruising speed and he can quicken off that fast speed, he has got a great motor. You hear the three cheers when he hits the front, and only good horses get people doing that."

Heavenly Glow cost just A$10,000 at the Magic Millions National Sale last year, but the sleek chestnut brought her earnings to A$336,500 overall with an eye-catching win here. Galileo's Daughter set the pace throughout and led to the 300-meter marker when Heavenly Glow, given a ground-saving ride from her wide barrier by veteran Robert Thompson, scooted clear for a decisive score. Country trainer Ross Stitt, a part-owner of the filly, sent Heavenly Glow to Rosehill-based Allan Denham to give her the opportunity to capture a feature race, and she will now be among favourites for the Apr. 30 G1 AJC Oaks. Heavenly Glow was a last start third by a neck in the Listed Keith Nolan Classic at provincial Kembla Apr. 6 in her stakes debut. Thompson, enjoying his first Group 1 win since partnering Sharscay (Aus) to win the Canterbury Guineas in 1995, said, "She was getting too much weight up there, so Ross decided to send her to Allan Denham, and he could not have sent her to a better trainer."

Smooth Air Works at Calder...

Having his final workout before heading to Churchill Downs for the May 3 GI Kentucky Derby, Mount Joy Stables' Smooth Air (Smooth Jazz) breezed seven furlongs in 1:25 4/5 at Calder yesterday morning. Runner-up in the Mar. 29 GI Florida Derby last time out, the colt galloped out a mile in 1:40 4/5. "He feels great and is ready to go," said exercise rider Jodi Gelb. Added 70-year-old trainer Bennie Stutts, "That was a great work." Stutts, who has never before had a Kentucky Derby starter, and Smooth Air will both fly a Tex Sutton charter to Louisville today. "I don't want to be far from the horse," the veteran conditioner confessed. Manoel Cruz, the three-year-old's regular jockey, will have the mount once again on the first Saturday in May. The 37-year-old Brazilian rider has led the standings at Calder four times, but will be aboard a Derby runner for the first time.

G1 Secretariat S. winner Shamdinan looks to regroup in his second start of the season. The four-year-old followed his Grade I score with fifth-place finishes in the GI Man o'War S. and GII Jamaica H., but improved to be second at 25-1 over the boggy Monmouth course in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf.

Making his 2008 debut in the Feb. 23 GI Gulfstream Park Turf S., the chestnut pressed the pace, but was through before they hit the stretch and beat just one. He was transferred to the West Coast after that disappointing effort and makes his first start since here. Winless in seven starts last year, Porfido got back on track with an optional-claiming score going nine panels on the turf at Santa Anita Jan. 18. Fourth in the Feb. 23 GII San Luis Obispo H., he was closing in the Mar. 22 GII San Luis Rey S. at a mile and a half, missing by 3/4 of a length in second. The lightly raced Victorian Prince makes his seventh career appearance, and his first in stakes company. The four-year-old was second for a $40,000 tag at Santa Anita Mar. 8, but proved he could handle the Capistrano trip with a game front-running score in an optional claimer at the extended route Apr. 5.

Meiner Charles, the only two-time stakes winner in this full field, is looking for his fourth straight victory. The colt won the G3 Keisei Hai before capturing the traditional Guineas prep, the G2 Yayoi Sho last time out. From two limited crops, Kentucky Derby winner War Emblem already has three graded stakes winners and one of them is Shonan Alba. The Yoshitaka Ninomiya trainee won the G3 Kyodo News Service Hai in February, but was rank early as the favorite in the G2 Spring S. and came home a tired third. Black Shell, runner-up in the Yayoi Sho, gets the services of the legendary Yutaka Take.

Inglis
INGLIS EASTER YEARLING SALE

SKIES ANYTHING BUT CLOUDY AT INGLIS

Steady rain throughout the week has not deterred hordes of potential buyers from inspecting yearlings ahead of the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale, which kicks off at 3 p.m. today at the Inglis Newmarket sale complex at Randwick. Buyers from Hong Kong, Japan and South Africa, as well as a smattering of North Americans, including trainer Todd Pletcher's father J.J. and U.S. buyer Jon Kelly, are in attendance, along with a strong contingent of local trainers. Inglis Managing Director Mark Webster said the sale company hoped to finish on par with last year's figures. "We are aiming to come close to last year," Webster commented. "We are not expecting to exceed last year, which was 25-percent up on average. The market is strong, but I don't think we can record a similar gain this year. But we are in a better position than we thought we would be, and if we can come close to last year's average, we will be happy. Vendors are run off their feet, and that has been happening since Monday. I think it is a good sign." Inglis has been at pains to point out the number of Group 1 winners bought around the sale median, and Webster said the Golden Slipper result, with a A$130,000 colt saluting, underscored the fact that top horses could be bought relatively cheaply. "I am very happy with Sebring (Aus) (More Than Ready) winning--we didn't sell him, but Denise [Martin] and Gai [Waterhouse] have a wonderful group of owners [and] they are great ambassadors," Webster continued. "It is absolutely fantastic for the industry--you don't have to billionaire to own a Slipper winner." Webster is also encouraged by the diversity in the catalogue. "The other point I would make is that I believe the progeny from a wide range of stallions will sell well," he offered. "It won't just be Redoute's Choice (Aus) and Encosta de Lago (Aus)--there are probably 10 hot stallions whose yearlings buyers will compete for, but there won't be a heap of people fighting over a handful of horses."

Ready Right Now...

More Than Ready has 24 yearlings catalogued and their collective profile has escalated in the wake of the Golden Slipper win of Sebring (Aus). Vinery Stud's Adam White points out that More Than Ready was the champion first-season sire with representatives such as Group 1 winners Perfectly Ready (Aus), Benicio (Aus) and Carry On Cutie (Aus). "He has had an unbelievable run this season with his two-year-olds, and now he is leading two-year-old sire by over A$2 million," he stated. "He has got some lovely types at Easter, especially fillies. We always had a lot of faith in him. We always knew he would be a great horse, but the mares he covered in his third and fourth year, we thought he would go a little quiet and then come back. What he is doing now is happening 12 months earlier than what we thought. His best crop, in terms of mare quality and types, are yearlings now. They are mares he served after he was champion first-season sire." White nominated a More Than Ready filly from Regrowth (Aus) (Unbridled's Song), to be offered as lot 328 by Segenhoe Stud, among the Southern Halo stallion's stand-outs. Regrowth is a half-sister to the dam of 2007 G1 Golden Slipper winner Forensics (Aus) and her second dam True Blonde (Aus) is a half-sister to influential sire Snippets (Aus).

Distaff Diversity...

One feature of a superlative catalogue is the number of yearlings who are the first or second foals from outstanding racemares. While familiar Easter names such as Egyptian Ibis (NZ), Jade Tiara (Aus), Tambour (Aus), Tugela, Picadilly Circus (Aus), Prawn Cocktail (Aus) and Twiglet (Aus) are represented, there are a significant number of first foals from newly retired Group 1-winning mares. In the first session, examples include G1 New Zealand Oaks winner Bramble Rose (lot 13); G1 Coolmore Classic winner Danni Martine (Aus) (lot 66); and G1 SAJC Oaks winner Dowry (Aus) (lot 88). The first foal from G1 Hong Kong Derby winner Elegant Fashion (Aus) (lot 96) has been withdrawn. Another feature is an increasing trend towards mares with international suffixes as Australian breeders steadily increase their purchases abroad. This year the catalogue features 62 yearlings by U.S.-bred mares, 20 from Ireland, 18 from Great Britain, and several from South Africa, Canada, France and Argentina.

INGLIS AUSTRALIAN EASTER YEARLINGS

Lot 13, c, Redoute's Choice (Aus)--Bramble Rose (NZ), by Shinko King (Ire)

Consigned by Tyreel Stud

The Fleming family's Tyreel Stud is synonymous with Inglis Easter as longtime leading vendor by average. Last year the boutique broodmare farm at Agnes Banks on the Hawkesbury River sold nine at an average of

A$812,222, compared with the overall sale average of A$332,545. Tyreel's Easter draft features six yearlings from Group 1-winning mares and three half-relations to Group 1 winners, including this strongly made first foal from G1 New Zealand Oaks winner Bramble Rose (NZ).

"He is a lovely colt, very well-developed, and very well grown for a first foal," Tyreel manager John Vincent reported. "He is out of an Oaks-winning mare and he is not going to be particularly precocious. He is a classic type that stands over a lot of ground, with a lovely length of rein. This is probably the best draft on type we have ever brought to Sydney, we have been busier with inspections this year than we were last year, and we had a great sale then."

Lot 44, c, Redoute's Choice (Aus)--Coogee Walk (NZ), by Success Express

Consigned by Haunui Farm

The progeny of Redoute's Choice (Aus) dominated last year's auction, with 57 going under the hammer at an average of A$662,105. He is having a fairly quiet season with seven stakes winners this year, but with some 70 yearlings catalogued here, the Arrowfield sire looks set to dominate Newmarket again. This colt from New Zealand champion sprinter-miler Coogee Walk (NZ) is a half-brother to MSW & G1SP Activation (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}), himself a A$300,000 Easter graduate in 2002. "He is bred by Marie Leicester, and he has grown into an outstanding individual and will undoubtedly be on many buyers' lists," said Mark Chitty. The Chitty family's Haunui Farm has been in the spotlight this season with graduates including G2 Moonee Valley Cup winner Gallic (NZ) and Mission Critical (NZ), winner of the G1 Waikato RC International S.

Lot 67, c, Shamardal--Danse D'ecole, by Daylami (Ire)
Consigned by Darley Australia

First-crop sire Sharmardal has 14 in the Easter catalogue and Darley has just one representative in its six-strong Easter draft. The colt has Fall Aspen as his third dam and is out of a stakes-placed half-sister to Medaaly and Desired, the dam of Desideratum and Poet Laureate. "He is a strong, leggy, imposing colt with a nice profile and a he's great mover," said Darley's John Sunderland. "We are very excited to be selling a Shamardal at Easter, he was a great racehorse and it looks like he will be a great stallion."

Lot 90, f, Elusive Quality--Duelling Girl, by Dayjur
Consigned by Darley Australia

Elusive Quality is making his mark with AJC Oaks contender Bernicia (Aus) and G1 winner Camarilla (Aus) and this filly is a half-sibling to Darley stallion Keep The Faith (Aus) (Sunday Silence), a A$1.2-million yearling purchase for Darley who was fourth in the G1 Canterbury Guineas, and to smart three-year-old Pistols (Aus) (Dehere), a A$1.1-million yearling buy for Woodlands. Darley's John Sunderland said, "She is a quality filly, very correct, with a lovely deep girth and nice action. She is a lovely big scopy filly. The mare has already produced two very good horses, so she ticks all the boxes. I love her attitude, I have since she was a foal, she has got great determination, she is a tough, genuine filly." Duelling Girl's Dehere colt last year fetched A$700,000 to the bid of agent John Foote. The mare is a half-sister to SW Faithful Son (GB), Always Fair and Asaasy.

Lot 113, c, Exceed and Excel (Aus)--For The Good Times (Aus), by Hennessy

Consigned by Segenhoe Stud

Among a 15-strong draft at Segenhoe, this colt is a full sibling to Good Times Roll, an unraced two-year-old filly sold for A$150,000 to trainer Dale Sutton of Woodside Park. Exceed and Excel (Aus) has 33 yearlings catalogued here--with eight first crop stakes-performers and Golden Slipper runner Sugar Babe (Aus), his progeny are selling like hotcakes. A total of 62 under the hammer thus far this year have sold for an average A$235,585. Segenhoe manager Royston Murphy said, "He is a strong colt, a solid, typical Exceed and Excel colt; once he matures a bit and balances out he will be lovely."

Lot 115, c, Fastnet Rock (Aus)--Fragmentation (Aus),
by Snippets (Aus)
Consigned by Highgrove Stud

Champion sprinter Fastnet Rock's first crop of yearlings have created immense excitement (54 sold to date this year at an average of A$242,880) and this colt,

Lot 115 Martin King Sportpix

from boutique Queensland breeder Ron Gilbert's Highgrove Stud, is garnering plenty of admirers. "He is a strong, athletic colt, a very relaxed customer," Gilbert commented. "He has a lovely temperament typical of the breed, very typical of his father. I would like to breed a yearling like him every year, he is just outstanding. We have bought Fragmentation's half-sister on the strength of this colt."

Side-by-side in the gate, Awesome Ashley and Drop a Line proved inseparable at the wire and posed for their pictures. Drop a Line graduated over Presque Isle's Tapeta last fall before missing by a neck on this strip Oct. 20. The J. Mack Robinson homebred made three starts on grass over the winter, finishing second to Stormy West Jan. 28 at Gulfstream before losing the lead late when fourth in an optional claimer Feb. 17 at the Hallandale oval, and was the 6-5 choice in this return to synthetic. Awesome Ashley, an allowance winner at Churchill last June, was sidelined following a sixth in the Heed S. at Saratoga Aug. 10, returning to mirror that effort in a Gulfstream optional claimer Mar. 6, and was 5-1 here. She saved ground in the early stages in fourth as Drop a Line raced three wide. The favorite got first run and hit the lead, but Awesome Ashley rallied to finish on even terms. The fillies were 1 3/4 lengths clear of Silence Dogood (Grand Slam).

(Alysheba), a listed-winning half-sister to French and U.S. champion Hatoof and the 2001 GI Shoemaker Breeders' Cup Mile winner Irish Prize. Marc-Antoine Bergracht's MAB Agency had the final say on the filly, as they had earlier for the session's top-priced colt by Anabaa. Consigned by Eamon Fitzpatrick's Kilminfoyle House Stud as hip 100, the colt--from the extended family of the MGPS Spider Power (Ire)--was knocked down to MAB for €95,000. Later in the afternoon, Satwa Queen (Fr)'s trainer Jean de Roualle paid €90,000 for a daughter of Verglas (Ire), also from the Gascony-based Saubouas. Out of a three-parts sister to the triple group winner Wagon Master (Fr), she provided a handsome return on the 28,000gns paid at Tattersalls October. Margaret O'Toole is a regular at this sale and she was on hand again yesterday to purchase Grove Stud's hip 128, a Gulch colt out of a half to the graded-stakes scorer Nunatall (GB) for €85,000. Trainer John Hammond went to €82,000 to secure hip 133, a daughter of Celtic Swing (GB) from the draft of Mark Dwyer's Oaks Farm Stables who is out of a half to the 1997 G1 Fillies' Mile winner Gloriosa (Fr). Carlos Laffon-Parias paid €77,000 for the Bloodstock Connection's hip 15, a daughter of Hernando (Fr) out of a half to Manndar (Ire). Jean-Pierre Deroubaix's French Bloodstock Agency snapped up Fearmor Stud's hip 74, a colt by Oasis Dream (GB) out of the listed-winning and group-placed Trinity Joy (GB), for €75,000. As at Kempton, Doncaster and Newmarket, the clearance rate stood up well, while the average and median set new records. The average of €35,034 represented a six-percent increase on 2007, while the €28,000 median was up by nearly 8 percent. During Arqana's horse-in-training sale yesterday, the highlight was Joseph Biraben's hip 173, the three-year-old filly Sara Jane (Fr) (Miesque's Son). A twice-placed granddaughter of MGSW An Empress, she was knocked down to Eric Leray for €42,000. The morning's breeze session was marred by an accident in which Bansha House Stables' rider Maria Ryan was injured. Full results are available on www.arqana.com.

LISTED WINNERS JOIN GODOLPHIN

Godolphin have completed the acquisition of the recent Listed winners Il Warrd (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) and Campanologist (Kingmambo). Formerly campaigned by Sheikh Ahmed al Maktoum, Il Warrd won his maiden at second asking at Ascot last July before closing out his juvenile campaign with a sixth to now-stablemate Rio de la Plata in the G2 Vintage S. the following month. The 240,000gns TATOCT yearling purchase made a successful three-year-old debut, winning the Easter S. at Kempton Apr. 12 by 4 1/2 easy lengths. Campanologist was a two-time winner as a two-year-old, but could do no better than 10th in the G2 Royal Lodge S. at Ascot in September. The former Sheikh Hamdan bin Mohammed runner is perfect in two appearances this season, including a victory over the Kempton all-weather Mar. 15 prior to his half-length success in the Feilden S. at Newmarket this past Wednesday.

2.25 Leopardstown, Mdn, €20,000, 2yo, 6fT
FOUR STAR GENERAL (IRE) (Danehill Dancer (Ire)) is a close relative of Spartacus (Ire) and Johan Cruyff (GB) and debuts for Susan Magnier and Anne Keogh in a potentially smart contest. Ballydoyle's colt meets a pair of Jim Bolger-owned and trained fillies in Ailleagan (Hold That Tiger) and Solasai (Malibu Moon). While the former is out of a half to Mr. Greeley, whose Finsceal Beo (Ire) won this race two years ago, stable jockey Kevin Manning is riding Solasai, whose second dam is a sister to Terlingua and Pancho Villa.

4.35 Leopardstown, Mdn, €20,000, 3yo/up, 1 1/4mT
MOONSTONE (GB) (Dalakhani (Ire)) is one of a quartet of Ballydoyle runners here and it may be significant that she is the mount of Johnny Murtagh over some promising colts. Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith's newcomer is a close relative of L'Ancrese (Ire) and Cerulean Sky (Ire) from the family of Catcher in the Rye (Ire), whose half-brother Decree (Ire) (Pivotal (GB)) debuts for the same ownership and stable.

3--Zaahid (Ire), 126, c, 4, Sakhee--Murjana (Ire), by Pleasant Colony. £3,265.

Margins: NK, 3 1/4, 3/4. Odds: 9-2, 13-2, 11-2.

Brought along in the typical softly-softly approach synonymous with Sir Michael Stoute, Lang Shining captured a Newmarket maiden in July before finishing runner-up in a handicap at Sandown the following month. Off the board on his final 2007 start in a classified stakes at Ascot in September, the homebred returned with a career-best to suggest he can scale the ladder this term. Ridden close to the early pace, the chestnut rolled by the determined Benandonner inside the final 50 yards before digging in to hold that foe's rally.

Thirsk, 3.50, Cond, £12,000, 4yo/up, 6fT, 1:15.59, gd.

UTMOST RESPECT (GB) (g, 4, Danetime {Ire}--Utmost {Ire}, by Most Welcome {GB}), eighth in an Ascot handicap last time Sept. 29, raced in a handy fourth from flagfall here. Sent to the front approaching the final eighth, the 15-8 chance was pushed out late to score by 1 3/4 lengths from Big Timer (Street Cry {Ire}). Lifetime Record: 7-4-0-1, £48,049.

O-The Rumpole Partnership; B-Mrs H B Raw; T-Richard Fahey.

Newbury, 1.40, Mdn, £9,000, 3yo, 1mT, 1:42.67, sf.

MOYENNE CORNICHE (GB) (c, 3, Selkirk--Miss Corniche {GB} {SW-Eng}, by Hernando {Fr}), fourth on his sole start at Nottingham in October, broke well and raced in the front rank early. Asked to extend at the quarter pole, the 6-1 shot drew clear, despite running greenly, to record a four-length success from French Art (GB) (Peintre Celebre). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £6,092.

O/B-J L C Pearce; T-Geoff Wragg.

Nottingham, 5.30, Mdn, £4,000, 2yo, 5f 13ydsT, 1:03.03, sf.

+ LISBURN (IRE) (f, 2, Bahamian Bounty {GB}--Golden Fortune {GB} {SP-Eng}, by Forzando {GB}), a €14,000 TATIRE yearling, was swift from the gate and disputed the lead from the outset. Taking a slight lead approaching the closing panel, the 25-1 outsider required a forceful late drive to stave off Harwalla (Ire) (Desert Style {Ire}) by a head. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £2,590.

O/T-Mel Brittain; B-Chevington Stud.

Wolverhampton, 8.45, Mdn, £3,600, 3yo/up, 1m 141yds (AWT), 1:52.38, stn.

+ HOLLANDER (IRE) (c, 3, Fasliyev--Pietra Dura {GB} {SP-Ire}, by Cadeaux Genereux {GB}), a 13-2 chance, recovered from a tardy start to track the leading pair down the backstraight. Easing into second rounding the home turn, the 32,000gns TATOCT yearling was ridden to the front at the eighth pole and kept on strongly under a drive to deny Military Power (GB) (Dubai Destination) by a short head in the bobber. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £2,457.

O-Chris van Hoorn; B-Tower Bloodstock; T-Denis Coakley.

Snaefell garnered last term's Listed Bud Light S. at the Curragh and closed his season with a fourth in the Listed Waterford Testimonial S. at the same track before returning this term to bag a handicap back there again Mar. 30. Postioned in a close-up third for most of this, he came under pressure at halfway and would not be denied under a final-quarter drive to oust old foe Tax Free on the line for a second stakes score.

Naas, 3.35, Cond, €25,000, 2yo, 5fT, 1:05.20, yl.

Coaxed along to challenge approaching the final furlong, the 2-1 second choice kept on well under a sympathetic drive to edge Americas Dreaming (Ire) (Statue of Liberty) by a short head in the bobber. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €16,275.

On the front end from the bell, the €240,000 GOFORB yearling came under a drive with 1 1/2 furlongs to go and kept on in determined fashion in the closing stages to hold Tobar Na Hinfé (Ire) (Nash Me {Ire}) by a diminishing head. The winner is a three-quarter sister to High Maintenance (GB) (Danehill, SW & GSP-US, $137,184). Lifetime Record: SP-Ire, 3-1-1-1, €17,792.

O-Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier & Michael Tabor; B-C C Buckley; T-David Wachman.

Naas, 2.35, Mdn, €12,000, 3yo, 1mT, 1:41.50, yl. LEO'S PRIDE (IRE) (c, 3, Medicean {GB}--Alpine Park {Ire}, by Barathea {Ire}), a last-out fourth at Dundalk Mar. 7, was settled under cover behind the front rank until moving into third at the top of the three-furlong straight. Pushed along to challenge at the two pole, the 13-2 chance was driven out to score by 2 1/2 lengths from Sufad (GB) (Alhaarth {Ire}). The winner was a 105,000gns TATDEC foal and a €600,000 GOFORB yearling. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, €8,917.
