STER-WINS THE BEN ALI

Looking for his initial graded score at the age of five and making his first foray on a synthetic track, Eugene Melnyk's homebred Sterwins (Runaway Groom) put up a career effort to upset Go Between (Point Given) at 13-1 odds in yesterday's GIII Ben Ali S. at Keeneland. The gelded gray rallied widest of all and charged home a clear-cut 3 1/4-length winner over

Equi-Sport

the crowd's odds-on choice. Cont. p2

EIGHT BELLES, PROUD SPELL WORK

Trainer Larry Jones sent out his star three-year-old fillies Eight Belles (Unbridled's Song) and Proud Spell (Proud Citizen) to four-furlong workouts yesterday at Keeneland. The pair will be among the favorites for the May 2 GI Kentucky Oaks if their respective owners go that route, but both are also being considered for the GI Kentucky Derby a day later. Fox Hill Farms' Eight Belles covered the distance in :46 3/5, second fastest of 39 at the distance. Brereton Jones's Proud Spell stopped the clock in :50 1/5, 28th fastest. "We just wanted to stretch their legs," said Jones's assistant--and wife--Cindy. "[Eight Belles] went a little too fast, but the other one was perfect." Cindy said plans call for the two fillies to ship to Churchill Downs on Friday and to work five-eighths Sunday. And as for the big Oaks/Derby question? "We don't know," said Cindy. "The decision will be made at entry time."

MITCHELL GOES OUT WITH A 'BIG' BANG

Trainer Mike Mitchell was in Florida yesterday inspecting horses at the OBS Spring Sale, but that didn't stop him from putting an exclamation on a strong meet at Santa Anita, which concluded Sunday with the 59-year-old on top in the trainer standings with 33 wins. Fittingly, the Mitchell-trained veteran Big Booster (Accelerator) rallied from last to post the 7-1 upset in the 1 3/4-mile GII San Juan Capistrano H. on the Santa Anita sod. Big Booster, a $62,500 claim last year for Mitchell, was making his first start on the grass since May of 2007. The gelding was a close-up third in the GIII Toyko City H. on the main track Mar. 29. It was the first stakes win for the seven-year-old, who placed in a pair of Grade I events last term. Cont. p2

INGLIS EASTER OFF TO A STRONG START

Buyers and consignors alike were in a celebratory mood as the first session of the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale drew to a close Sunday. The opener was highlighted by hip 42, a A$1.8-million Redoute's Choice (Aus) filly, an excellent clearance rate of 85.6 percent and an average of A$343,670, compared with A$296,958 for a first session last year that offered twice as many lots. William Inglis & Son Managing Director Mark Webster said a diverse buying bench and impressive clearance rate were pleasing signs. "It's been a great start to the sale and I'm looking forward to it continuing over the next three sessions, with a great number of outstanding yearlings still to come," Webster said. Cont. p7

Sterwins made his previous eight starts on the grass, a surface on which he won the With Approval S. at Woodbine last August and the Buddy Diliberto Memorial H. at Fair Grounds in December. Third to Daytona (Ire) in the GIII Fair Grounds BC H. Feb. 9 and fourth in the Allen Lacombe Memorial H. at that track Mar. 15, Sterwins was last of six here as It's a Bird (Birdonthewire) led the way. Sterwins fanned wide leaving the turn and was full of run down the lane. "He's always trained good over the Polytrack," said winning trainer Malcolm Pierce. "We were just waiting for one of those turf races to get rained off one day, but it just never happened. We ended up entering him in here and taking a shot." Heavily favored Go Between also rallied wide, but couldn't match strides with the winner. "When that horse [Sterwins] on the outside opened up on him, his resistance just fell through," said jockey Garrett Gomez. "But he's had a couple of tough races and traveled across the country. So he ran okay." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Acquired for just $1,200 as a FTKOCT yearling, My List has proven a dynamic purchase for trainer Nick Gonzalez--who picked out the filly--and owner Tucci Stables. The dark bay filly concluded her 2007 season with a victory in the Bessarbian S. at Woodbine in late November--her first stakes tally--and added the graded variety in her 2008 debut. Allowed to settle well off the leaders, My List was pushed along on the turn, came with a resolute rally and ran down even-money Bear Now late. It was the third stakes win this month for Gonzalez. "I bought the filly just for a joke for my wife [assistant trainer Martha]," said an elated Gonzalez. "I sold her to [Tucci Stables], and I'm glad I did. They were nice enough to let us keep training her. Two years and almost a half million dollars later, thing have been good for everybody connected." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Saturday, Shadwell's Muthaba (Ire) (Red Ransom) punched her ticket to the May 4 G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket with her decisive score in the G3 Fred Darling S.; Sunday, it was Shadwell homebred Moiqen staking a potential claim on the 2008 Classics. Moiqen, who opened his account at Navan in October, was no match for the impressive four-length winner Famous Name (GB) in the G3 2000 Guineas Trial S. over a mile here Apr. 6. Relishing the step up in trip, the homebred raced in third early before rolling to the front with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and holding the late challenge of Hebridean. "He is in everything, but I'll have to speak to the owners before we decide where he goes," trainer Kevin Prendergast said. "He did that well and there is a chance that he could come back here for the [May 11] G2 Derby Trial. He is the best I have." Click for the Racing Post chart.

that rival with a dominant final quarter mile in Europe's first Classic of the year. Settled off the pace in fifth after the initial strides, Senlis made headway in the straight to challenge at the quarter-mile marker and put the contest to bed in a matter of strides when quicken-

Following in the hoofsteps of his sire, who took this race in 2001, Captain Thule went gate to wire to take the first Japanese Classic by a comfortable margin. The gray colt earned his first stakes win in the Listed Daily Hai Nisai last October, then ended the season with a third in the Asahi Hai Futurity Dec. 9. He had been out just once since, finishing fourth behind Meiner Charles in the Mar. 9 Hocht Hai Yayoi Sho at this distance. Looking to turn the tables, Captain Thule shot right to the lead, set a moderate pace and held on for a handy victory.

Triple Threats

PREAKNESS FOR BEHINDATTHEBAR? Trainer Todd Pletcher, who already has two likely GI Kentucky Derby runners in the form Monba and Cowboy Cal, said a third possible, Saturday's GI Coolmore Lexington S. winner Behindatthebar (Forest Wildcat), would likely pass on the Run for the Roses. "I'll have to talk with Mr. Sanan first [Satish Sanan, whose Padua Stable is the majority owner in the colt]. The first thought would maybe be to look at the GI Preakness S. [May 17]."

Kentucky Derby. The homebred covered the distance in 1:01 4/5. Working with four-year-old stablemate Longley, Adriano clicked through internal fractions of :25, :37.60 and :49, and galloped out six furlongs in 1:16. Jockey Edgar Prado, who will ride Adriano in the Derby, was aboard. "I was happy with it, but it looked like he just got to goofing off a little bit when he got by Longley," said trainer H. Graham Motion. "I almost put blinkers on this horse before the Lane's End, but I think on the day [of the race] he's fine. He just gets to loafing a little bit when he gets in front." Adriano will likely get his final pre-Derby work next Sunday. Courtlandt's Don Adam was on hand to watch the work, and related how the striking chestnut got his name. "I was in Italy with one of my good friends and we walked into this office as we were buying granite and marble for a project," Adam recalled. "On the name plate on the person's desk was 'Adriano,' and he elbowed me and said, 'That's you.' [Adam's middle name is Adrian]. So ever since then, he's referred to me as Adriano."

INGLIS EASTER YEARLING SALE

The Right Choice...

Newcastle trainer Kris Lees signed for the session's highest-priced lot. The Redoute's Choice filly is the second foal from the Woodman mare Coliape (Aus), and so is bred on the same cross as champion mare Miss Finland (Aus). Offered by Reavill Farm, the bay will race in the same colours as promising juvenile Samantha Miss (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) for owner Ron Croghan. Lees gave A$1.5-million for GSP Samantha Miss here last year. That filly runs next in the G1 Sires Produce S. this Saturday at Randwick. Commenting on this year's acquisition, Lees said, "We paid a little more than we expected, but she is a lovely athletic filly and her full brother [Smart Choice {Aus}] is showing a lot of ability. There are a lot of nice fillies here, but I thought she was one of the best." He added, "She looks a two-year-old type, and we will try and get her into next year's Slipper." Coliape, out of the G1SP Sir Tristram (Ire) mare Rose Reward (NZ), is a half-sister to dual Group 1 winner Lotteria (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) and a half-sister to Group 1-placed Rose of Sharon (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}).

Quick from the Gate...

The smaller first-day catalogue and a 3 p.m. start might have made for a relaxed Sunday afternoon, but the action ringside was frenetic from the outset. The first yearling through the ring, a Coolmore-consigned

A$1.1mil Redoute's Choice

Rock of Gibraltar (Ire) colt from a half-sister to Encosta de Lago (Aus) and Flying Spur (Aus), set the tone, fetching A$550,000 to the bid of trainer Anthony Cummings. Cummings was purchasing primarily for Patinack Farm. "He is a terrific horse with a terrific pedigree," said Coolmore's Peter O'Brien. "Rock of Gibraltar generally throws a scopey horse that develops as they get to three, and this fellow is all strength and substance; you could hop on him tomorrow. He has a stallion's pedigree, and the mare has already produced a Group 2 winning two-year-old in Ballybleue (Aus)." The first two seven-figure yearlings came not long after. Ingham Bloodstock went to A$1 million for lot 24, a daughter of Flying Spur (Aus) out of Cantenac (Aus) (Marauding {NZ}). A half to MGSP My Only Hope (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}), she boasts G1 New Zealand Oaks heroine Burletta (NZ) as her second dam. Ingham Bloodstock was the leading buyer of the session, purchasing five yearlings for a total of $3.875 million, and getting four of the top nine lots. "It's a very, very strong sale, and the good horses are bringing big money," Bob Ingham said. Just four lots after the first million-dollar baby, New South Wales owner David Fuller purchased hip 28, a Redoute's Choice (Aus) filly out of the Zabeel (NZ) mare Castellina (NZ), for A$1.1 million. Offered by Arrowfield, the bay is out of an unraced half-sister to G1 Oakleigh Plate winner Dantelah (NZ) (Volksraad {GB}), as well as to three other stakes-placed horses. She was offered by Yarraman Park, whose Arthur Mitchell revealed that her dam died last year. This is the first A$1-million yearling for Australia's reigning champion sire.

Ingham Back in Action...

Wearing a bright cerise woollen jumper and accompanied by family members, Bob Ingham yesterday signaled he has no intention of bowing out of racing, spending an average of A$775,000 on five fillies during the first session. The Ingham family recently sold its

A$1-mil Flying Spur filly
www.inglis.com.au

entire Woodlands Bloodstock operation to Sheikh Mohammed for a reported A$498 million, with the sale expected to be formalised within days. But Ingham, who has enjoyed success of late with family-owned Hoystar (Aus), winner of the G3 Nivea Visage S. at Canterbury Apr. 6 before scoring the Listed Schweppes Trophy on Slipper day, said he never considered taking a back seat. "I have been doing this too long to stop doing it," he said at the sales. "I enjoy it and the family--my two daughters and my two sons--enjoy it. It is something we'll keep doing." Ingham's buying foray began with a A$525,000 Fastnet Rock (Aus) filly out of a half-sister to G1 Golden Slipper winner Merlene (Aus); one lot later, Ingham signed for an A$800,000 Redoute's Choice (Aus) sister to Golden Slipper winner Stratum (Aus). He then upped the ante, going to A$1 million for the daughter of Flying Spur (Aus). Later in the evening, Ingham purchased another Flying Spur filly. The half-sister to SW Brockman's Lass (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) was offered by Widden Stud and went under the hammer for A$700,000. "She was a lovely filly, and we are honoured that the Ingham family purchased her from us," said Widden's Antony Thompson. "In the early days, Bob and Jack Ingham kept horses at Widden Stud and bred horses with my father." Thompson added, "Brockman's Lass was renowned for her speed, and we expect this filly to be precocious. Obviously, Flying Spur is the sire of a Golden Slipper winning filly in Forensics (Aus), and he has had so many great fillies. This filly is a lovely walking filly, and you would imagine that not only will she be precocious, she will go on with it at three."

Ingham's final purchase for the evening was an A$850,000 filly by Encosta de Lago (Aus) from Emulate (Aus). The filly, offered by Coolmore, is a half-sister to Plagiarize (Aus) (Stravinsky), who won the G2 Silver Slipper in the Ingham's cerise colours. Ingham has appointed trainer Chris Waller, who was with the group at the sale.

A Matter of Timing...

The question of whether the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale should return to its traditional Easter dates or go to a fixed annual date to coincide with the autumn racing carnival is yet to be decided, according to Inglis Managing Director Mark Webster. The traditional Easter date has caused headaches for buyers, as in recent years it has clashed with sales at Keeneland and Tattersalls as well as key international race dates such as the Dubai World Cup carnival. "Our plan is to stick with the carnival at this point in time," said Webster. "Our our role will be to work with Racing NSW and I have already been talking to [Racing NSW CEO] Peter V'Landys, and with the race clubs, to come up with the best solution for the carnival, and then we would work in with the carnival. My personal preference is to try and lock in a carnival, so that everybody can plan when the Slipper is, when the Derby is, and we can build our sale in around that." In the wake of the equine influenza outbreak, the NSW government organisation NSW Events has poured A$750,000 into promoting autumn racing. "Our partnership with Events NSW has really revolved around promoting the carnival," he continued. "We haven't used it to leverage buyers to this sale because it all happened really too late for that; we had lined up buyers to come to this sale well before our partnership with Events NSW was formalised. But I think next year we will see even greater benefit out of that partnership in terms of being able to attract even more buyers from Europe and America to the sale, hopefully."

All The Bester...

Veteran bloodstock agent James Bester purchased Golden Slipper runner-up Von Costa de Hero (Aus), Slipper runner Hips Don't Lie (NZ) and Slipper entrant Stripper (Aus), and he was among prominent buyers during the first session.

Encosta de Lago--Egyptian Ibis filly

Bester went to A$600,000 for an Encosta de Lago (Aus) filly from Egyptian Ibis (NZ), the dam of Hong Kong MG1W Grand Delight (Aus).

The filly was offered by Coolmore, and Coolmore rep Peter O'Brien said, "She looks a real two-year-old; she is a terrific mover with great balance and a great forearm and shoulder, and she is tough." Bester said she represented good value at the price. "She is by the champion sire, because that is what he will be this year--his runners nearly won the G1 Golden Slipper, G1 BMW and G1 George Ryder, with seconds in all of them," Bester pointed out. "The mare herself is a stakes winner who has already thrown a Group 1 winner, so I thought this filly was exceptional value. She is a beautiful, really athletic filly, and she will be trained by David Hayes." He added, "She is a half-sister to a horse that cost A$2 million in El Cairo." Sold at this sale last year to agent Rob McAnulty, El Cairo (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) was fourth to subsequent Golden Slipper winner Sebring (Aus) in the Listed Canonbury S. Feb. 16. Bester, who has enjoyed enormous success in recent years with modestly priced purchases such as the A$70,000 filly Virage de Fortune (Aus), subsequently sold as a A$3.4-million broodmare, also secured a Danehill Dancer (Ire) filly for A$150,000 and a Choisir (Aus) half-sister to G1 VRC Oaks winner Bulla Borghese (Aus) (Belong to Me) for A$140,000.

Fastnet Rocks On...

Freshman sire Fastnet Rock (Aus) (Danehill) proved popular with buyers during the opening session of the Easter Sale, with 10 yearlings averaging A$362,000. The group was led by an attractive colt that made A$800,000 when secured by former Crown Lodge trainer John Hawkes. Offered for sale by Highgrove Stud, the powerful bay colt is the second foal of Fragmentation (Aus), who is a Listed winner of four races by outstanding broodmare sire Snippets (Aus). Stratheden Stud's Judy Marheine was delighted with the sale of her Fastnet Rock (Aus) colt. Lot 20, from SW Calming (Aus) (Zeditave {Aus}), went to astute judge Les Samba for A$610,000. "He was a lovely colt, and I was thrilled when Les said that he would be put away and given time because I really think he is going to be better with a little time," said Marheine.

What They're Saying At The Sales...

Bloodstock Agent and Keeneland Australia Rep Vin Cox:

"Without wanting to state the obvious, it is extraordinarily strong. It is probably the best collection of horses you will see in a long time, and all the buyers are here. It has been a fantastic sale. I think [seeing yearlings from international mares in the catalogue] is going to occur more and more--it's the outcross blood from America. If you look at the two-year-old stakes results, the influence of the American mare has been phenomenal, particularly across horses that have raced in Australia. In my view, the sustained speed of the American racing stock is what is coming through in our two-year-old racing."

Bloodstock Agent James Bester:

"The sale is very strong, particularly at the top. Fillies that we were hoping to buy for A$600,000 are making a million. That was predictable, with Bob Ingham lashing out and Darley and Patinack active."

What They're Saying cont. p11

Inglis Managing Director Mark Webster:

"It is a very strong start. We are certainly happy with how it is playing out and it has certainly exceeded our expectations for day one. I think it has been well discussed around the sale yards that day two and thereafter, this sale is probably stronger on pedigree and type, although there [were] some lovely horses in today. People tend to compare the days, so we are happy that day one has kicked off so well. We are averaging close to A$350,000 up, so that is very positive. The clearance rate is [better than] 85 percent which, for day one of a yearling sale of this ilk, is very, very good. We have been lucky because a lot of the sires have been performing well, it is not just about Redoute's Choice (Aus) and Encosta de Lago (Aus), there are sires like Fastnet Rock (Aus), More Than Ready and Exceed and Excel (Aus) that are doing well, and that is improving the median, the average and the clearance rate."

INGLIS AUSTRALIAN EASTER YEARLINGS

Lot 165, c, Redoute's Choice (Aus)--In The Past (GB), by Zafonic

Consigned by Tyreel Stud

Redoute's Choice (Aus), who covered 163 mares last spring at an advertised fee of A$330,000, dominated the Magic Millions Sale last month. The Arrowfield stallion had 25 go under the hammer at an average of A$671,600, including a pair for A$2.2 million apiece, and this colt is widely expected to be among his Easter toppers. The yearling is a half to Woodlands' third-season sire and G2 Silver Slipper S. winner Domesday (Aus) (Red Ransom). Domesday, a A$450,000 Easter purchase for Woodlands, was the first foal from In The Past, a three-quarter sister to Xaar (GB).

A 1/4% CHECK-OFF AT KEENELAND MEANS 100% FOCUS ON YOUR INTERESTS IN WASHINGTON.

The Keeneland September Yearling Sale is more than the largest yearling sale on the planet. It also is a chance for buyers, sellers, consignors and their clients to contribute 1/4% of their horse's sale price to the NTRA Legislative Action Campaign. That's $2.50 for every $1,000 your horse brings at auction. 100% of contributions are earmarked for Federal lobbying to protect and advance horse racing's interests in Washington, D.C.

Attention Keeneland sellers, consignors and their clients: Please note your commitment to the NTRA Campaign when completing the sales entry form. Deadline to pre-commit is Thursday, May 1.

Supporters also are eligible to receive preferred pricing from NTRA Advantage, offering products and services from companies like John Deere, Sherwin-Williams and Office Depot. For more information, contact Joe Bacigalupo at (800) 792-6872 or visit www.SupportHorseRacing.org.

Lot 203, c, Redoute's Choice (Aus)--Lavishly (Aus), by Sunday Silence

Consigned by Arrowfield Stud

Arrowfield-bred Lavishly (Aus) placed in the G3 Furious S. at three, and this colt, her second foal, has been much-admired. Her first foal, a French Deputy colt, was a A$400,000 purchase here last year for Belmont Bloodstock; he will race in Arrowfield's colours and is currently with trainer Paul Messara. Lavishly herself is a half-sister to SW Lunaspur (Aus); her second dam Luna Blue (Aus) is a half-sister to Linamix (Fr). "He is a super-active colt, exuding energy, and quite masculine," commented Arrowfield's John Messara. "He reminds me of Flying Spur at the same age, who I thought was a great type at the time. He is a lovely, loose, nice-walking colt, a really high-quality individual. I think he will be popular. He is one of the nicest Redoute's that I have seen."

Lot 237, c, Dehere--Milanova (Aus), by Danehill

Consigned by Tyreel Stud

The first living foal from a full sister to champion Holy Roman Emperor, this colt is by Coolmore's proven sire Dehere. Coolmore-bred Milanova, herself twice Group 1 placed and the winner of the G3 SAJC Tokyo City Cup, foaled an Encosta de Lago (Aus) filly that died; this colt is her second foal. The dam's half-brother Mount Olympus (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) was knocked down to trainer Gai Waterhouse for A$3 million at this sale last year; he has yet to make his debut. He will race in Coolmore's navy silks for a group of six owners.

Lot 257, c, Encosta de Lago (Aus)--My Juliet (Aus), by Canny Lad (Aus)

Consigned by Emirates Park Stud

This is a full sibling to Mnemosyne (Aus), a A$400,000 Inglis Easter Sale purchase for Woodlands Stud in 2004 who scored six wins, including the G1 Queen of the Turf S. and the G1 1000 Guineas. Encosta de Lago (Aus) is a runaway leader on the Australian general sires list, with seasonal progeny earnings swelling to a whopping A$8.4 million.

Lot 277, c, Encosta de Lago (Aus)--Oceanfast (Aus), by Monde Bleu (GB)

Consigned by Yarraman Park Stud

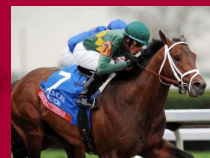

This colt is a full to three-time champion and four-time Group 1 winner Alinghi (Aus), an A$80,000 purchase at the Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale of 2003 who retired with earnings in excess of A$3.5 million. Their full-sibling, Perfect Persuasion (Aus), fetched A$2.6 million to the bid of Demi O'Byrne here in 2006, and another full sibling fetched A$1.4 million to the bid of Tim Stakemire last year. Of this year's offering, Yarraman's Arthur Mitchell said, "He is a really nice. He is very like Alinghi--he is definitely the most like her of all Oceanfast's foals. He has lovely short cannons on him and, if he can run, he really is a serious stallion prospect. We are really excited about him. He is a not a great big horse, he is a nice size; he has a lovely head and he is a good mover, too."

☆ CLASSIC CORNER ☆

ELLETTELLE NEWMARKET DOUBT The Jesse Club Syndicate's G2 Queen Mary S. winner Elletelle (Ire) (Elnadim) looks likely to miss the May 4 G1 1000 Guineas, trainer Ger Lyons announced yesterday. Also third in the G2 Cherry Hinton S. on Newmarket's July Course and the G1 Phoenix S. at The Curragh in August, she has not been seen since finishing sixth in the G1 Cheveley Park S. on the Rowley Mile in October. "She is doing okay, but I'm not sure whether she's going to make the English Guineas," her conditioner said yesterday. "The weather has held her back a bit in her coat and, although she's fit, she's not as heavy as I'd like. We have the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas [at The Curragh May 25], so it's not the be-all and end-all. Johnny [Murtagh] feels she should have been third in the Cheveley Park, so that puts her bang there in any of the Classics if she's trained on, and the question mark is the mile. She's not going to run unless we're one hundred-percent happy with her."

$1.5 Million Storm Cat Juvenile Debuts Thursday:

Mr Mistoffelees (Storm Cat--Country Romance, by Saint Ballado), who was knocked down to Coolmore's Dr. Demi O'Byrne for $1.5 million at the Fasig-Tipton Calder juvenile sale in February, debuts Thursday at Keeneland. The two-year-old colt has drawn the three hole in the 4 1/2-furlong event on the main track. Mr. Mistoffelees is owned by Derrick Smith, Michael Tabor and Mrs. John Magnier and trained by Todd Pletcher. After the Calder sale, Mr Mistoffelees resumed his training at Palm Beach Downs before shipping to Keeneland, where he has worked exceptionally well. The dark bay colt breezed four panels in a bullet :46 flat (1/78) Apr. 12, then came back to work the same distance from the gate in :46 flat (2/75) Apr. 19. John Velazquez gets the call Thursday. Mr Mistoffelees was purchased for $300,000 as a Keeneland September yearling by Carl Bowling and Ricky Leppala and was resold by the latter at Calder. It was the third-highest price of the sale.

Fire at Fab Oak Stable Claims 11 Horses:

A barn fire at Fab Oak Stable in the early morning hours Saturday claimed the lives of 11 horses, the Lexington Herald-Leader reports. No people were hurt in the blaze, which took place on the Woodford County property, near Versailles, around 2:30 a.m. Woodford County Fire Chief Bennie Green told the Herald-Leader that a neighbor noticed the fire, which at that time had enveloped nearly the entire structure. The identities of the horses killed were not immediately available, and there was no indication of what caused the fire. Fab Oak is owned by Fabien Ouaki, 48, who resides in Paris, France. Fab Oak's Nownownow won last year's inaugural Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf and is slated to compete in Newmarket's G1 2000 Guineas May 3.

Stisted Wins for Her Husband in Comeback:

Journeyman jockey Jenny Stisted, who gave up riding after she married trainer Scott Lake and had two children, returned to action yesterday for the first time in more than six years. Stisted won the eighth race at Pimlico aboard Baltimore Raven (Meadow Monster), who is trained by her husband and owned by Home Team Stables. It was just her second mount of the day for Team Lake. "That was nice," said Stisted, who will turn 39 in June. "When you are on the right horses, you can't go wrong. I thought if I could get my weight down, why not come back? The first race [aboard Young and Fabulous in the sixth], I was more nervous about being fit, but after that race I knew I was fine. So much comes back to you when those gates open. It is fun." Before this afternoon Stisted's last mount was aboard Bellwether for her husband at Laurel Park on Jan. 9, 2002.

Mast Track started off the season with a narrow score in a 6 1/2-furlong, $62,000 optional claimer here Feb. 9 before finishing a game second over this track and trip Mar. 28. Given blinkers for the first time here, the bay settled off the pace in third, angled out for room at the quarter pole and rallied to the front late to make it two in a row over a synthetic surface. The race marked the return of Cecil Peacock's multiple Grade I winner Brother Derek, who had been on the sidelines since running third in the GII Strub S. in February of 2007. On his toes in the post parade as the 4-5 pick, the five-year-old settled into a good tracking position, saw the eventual winner sweep past in upper stretch and gamely chased after that one in a creditable runner-up try. Now with Dermot Weld, the bay showed he retained ability with a conditions score at Tipperary 10 days ago, and benefitted from positive tactics to garner a first stakes win here. Sent to the lead by Pat Smullen as the favorite Followmyfootsteps was restrained by Johnny Murtagh, he quickened entering the straight and had already inflicted the damage by the time Alarazi closed late. "He is a colt that is going the right way and he settled in very well when he came to me," Weld said. "He likes an ease in the ground and the [May 11] G3 Amethyst S. looks a logical race for him."

GREAT LEIGHS OPENER A SUCCESS

Great Leighs, the first British racecourse to open since 1927, staged their first card yesterday without a major hitch. After Temple of Thebes (Ire) (Bahri) had become the first winner in the maiden, trainer Ed Dunlop said, "I'm delighted to make a bit of history, and I'd bring horses here any day to race and train." Fellow conditioner John Gosden also gave the Essex venue the thumbs up. "It's a big galloping track and very wide," he commented. "It's a properly designed bend with good depth and gradient, and the horses seem to like it. I wouldn't hesitate bringing my better two-year-olds here, as it's an exceptionally nice track. They get full credit." Representative Tim Jones said, "I think the configuration works really well, and I haven't yet heard anyone say anything other than it's riding superbly well." Among the future plans for the track is a Breeders' Cup trial meeting pencilled in for Sept. 27.
