GROUP 1 PRIX GANAY

LANE'S END

BELONG TO ME
STAY CLOSE (GB) - 1st HENRY S. CLARK S. $12,500
FOR EARNINGS OF $290,526! Live Foal

HERE COMES THE SUN

Today's G1 Prix Ganay offers a clean slate for Khalid Abdullah's Zambezi Sun (GB) (Dansili {GB}) as he faces a potentially exciting four-year-old campaign. Despite winning the G1 Grand Prix de Paris at this venue in July, the homebred rounded off his sophomore season somewhat anti-climatically. Only third behind Soldier of Fortune (Ire) in the G2 Prix Niel back here off a summer break in September, he was eighth after being hampered on his third visit for the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe the following month. Trainer Pascal Bary is hoping for better fortune this time. "He seems in very good form at present," he commented. "After the Grand Prix de Paris, he had an interrupted preparation for the Prix Niel with a foot problem. He still ran a good race there, but it was not ideal leading up to the Arc, and that is probably why he didn't run to his best. That is all behind him now, and he is training very well, so we are hopeful. He likes it good or faster, so the decent ground will help."

Put Up Your Duke...

While last year's hero Dylan Thomas (Ire) is secure at stud, Aidan O'Brien is looking to fill the void from the ranks of Coolmore's now-familiar older horse brigade. One that might fit the bill is Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's Duke of Marmalade (Ire) (Danehill), who returned from a serious fracture to take part in some of the major battles last term. Fourth in both the English and Irish G1 2000 Guineas in May, he went down by a neck to Excellent Art (GB) in the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot the following month before filling fourth spot again after a break in York's G1 Juddmonte International S. in August. Runner-up to the aforementioned Dylan Thomas in the G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown, he wound up with a third in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. back at Ascot.

'HARLEM' ROCKS THE WITHERS

Unbeaten Harlem Rocker (Macho Uno) rallied impressively from off the pace to defeat J Be K (Silver Deputy) by 2 1/2 lengths in Saturday's GIII Withers S. at the Big A. Sitting in third while J Be K rattled off fractions of :23.91 and :46.41, jockey Eibar Coa swung out the "TDN Rising Star" on the turn for home, came charging on the outside to take over in the stretch, and had the race in hand while racing a bit greenly in deep stretch. "He's still green, but he's one of those improving horses," Coa said. "Every time he runs, he just gets better. He's not 100 percent yet, which is kind of scary because he can be better than this. I was a little concerned that he was too close to the pace today, but he took me there himself. At the five-sixteenths pole I thought that if J Be K was good enough, he would beat us, but I knew my horse was going to finish. At the end he was playing around because he's still a little green, but he showed he can compete with these horses." Cont. p4

26 years!

The Stakes record for Santa Anita's G2 San Felipe had stood for 26 years. Not even Point Given, Fusaichi Pegasus and the mighty Affirmed could lower it. Consolidator stopped the clock at 1:40 flat. Now that's fast.

“It was possible that the pins in his leg were niggling him all last year,” trainer Aidan O’Brien told Racing Post after announcing that Red Rock Canyon (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) was lame and would miss the gig. “During the winter, [vet] John Halley and his team did a couple of procedures and they appear to have been really helpful. I am very happy with Duke of Marmalade, as he is working well. We would prefer good ground.” There is a doubt surrounding the participation of Galaxy Racing’s Anna Pavlova (GB) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) due to the drying conditions; connections will decide today.

Triple Threats

SMOOTH AIR STATUS UNCERTAIN Mount Joy's Smooth Air (Smooth Jazz) is on the fence for next Saturday's GI Kentucky Derby after being treated for a fever.

Adam Coglianese

"He has a low grade fever and he is being treated with anti-biotics," said trainer Bernie Stutts Jr. "He has an elevated white cell count that shows infection. His temperature is normal [Saturday morning] and if it stays down and I am able to train [Sunday], we'll be OK. He doesn't need to work. He's fit." Second to

Big Brown in the GI Florida Derby Mar. 29, Smooth Air breezed seven furlongs in 1:25.80 at Calder last Saturday and shipped to Churchill the following day. "He had a clean bill of health before leaving Florida," Stutts added. "I don't think it came from shipping, because that would show up right away. We trained him Thursday morning, but when we came back to the barn at noon, he had left some feed in the tub and he always eats everything. We knew then we had a sick horse." Stutts continued, "He didn't go to the track Friday and Dallas Stewart's vet Dr. [Phil] Tripp worked on him and gave him plenty of fluids and got his temperature down. But [Friday] afternoon it went back up higher than it was the day before." Stutts is still looking for his first Derby starter at age 70. "He's a horse with a future," Stutts said. "Nobody is looking more to run in the Derby than I am, but he has to be 100 percent to run."

Pletcher Pair Breezes at Keeneland...

Trainer Todd Pletcher sent out his Derby hopefuls Monba (Maria's Mon) and Cowboy Cal (Giant's Causeway)--the one-two finishers in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. Apr. 12--for five-furlong works at Keeneland yesterday morning. Monba worked with stablemate Ready's Echo, covering the distance in 1:02.60 and galloping out three-quarters in 1:14.60. "We normally work him in company," Pletcher explained. "He won't do much on his own. It was kind of in the norm for him in terms of what he does. He's not an overzealous work horse--I thought he did fine." Stonerside homebred Cowboy Cal stopped the clock in a minute flat during his drill and galloped out in 1:12. "I thought he worked extremely well," Pletcher said. As for GI Coolmore Lexington S. winner Behindatthebar (Forest Wildcat), a decision has yet to be made on his Derby status. "He galloped well this morning, and we're just kind of playing it by ear."

Monba trackphotographer.com

Gayego on the Go...

GI Arkansas Derby hero Gayego (Gilded Time) thrilled trainer Paulo Lobo by breezing five panels in 1:01 over a muddy surface at Churchill yesterday morning. Jockey Mike Smith was aboard for the drill. "Perfect," said Lobo. "Exactly what I wanted--it was an awesome work." The dark bay colt registered splits of :12.40, :24.40, :36.60 and :48.60, and galloped out in 1:14.80. "He was very relaxed out there today," said Smith, who steered Giacomo to victory in the 2005 Run for the Roses. "He wanted to please. And when I galloped out with him, he pulled hard on me. He wanted more."

Hey, What's the Story?

Bea Oxenberg's Hey Byrn (Put It Back) needs a few dropouts to make the Derby cut, but the GIII Holy Bull S. winner posted five furlongs in 1:01.20 at Calder yesterday. "We're still ready to go to the Derby if he were to get in," said trainer Eddie Plesa Jr., "although that looks pretty doubtful. He worked a good five-eighths this morning [second-fastest of 33]. If he doesn't get in the Derby, we'll watch the race and see who drops out after that and look at the [GI] Preakness [May 17] as an option. Another possibility would be the [GII] Ohio Derby [at Thistledown May 31]." Fourth to Big Brown in the Florida Derby, Hey Byrn is currently 27th on the graded-earnings list with $140,000...Fellow Calder-based runner Golden Spikes (Seeking the Gold), second in the GII Illinois Derby at Hawthorne Apr. 5, will go on the road again for his next outing. "I was looking at the [GII] Peter Pan at Belmont [May 10], but that race might come up a little tougher with Keep Laughing and some others in there," noted trainer Marty Wolfson. The colt's other option is the same afternoon in the $400,000 GIII Lone Star Derby.

Successful in Newbury's G3 Greenham S. last April, Major Cadeaux appeared not to quite get the mile of the G1 2000 Guineas when sixth at Newmarket last May on his only try at this trip. Following a second in the G3 Criterion S. on Newmarket's July Course the following month, the chestnut was fifth in the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest over 1300 metres at Deauville in August before returning to run second in the Apr. 13 G3 Gladness S. staged on heavy going at The Curragh. Restrained to race with only one rival behind off the modest early fractions, he responded quickly when asked to extricate himself from a pocket at the quarter pole and ran down Rob Roy 100 yards out for a cozy score. Connections of the winner are pointing at the G1 Juddmonte Lockinge S. at Newbury May 17, while Rob Roy will either contest that mile race or head to Longchamp for the May 18 G1 Prix d'Ispahan.

He may not line up in the starting gate all that often, but when he does, watch out. Surf Cat, the 2006 winner of this race, faced the starter only three times last season, placing second in a pair of sprints--the GI Triple Bend Invitational H. July 7 and the GII Pat O'Brien H. Aug. 19. He ended the campaign with a rare off-the-board finish (fifth) when trying grass for the first time in the GII Oak Tree Mile Oct. 7. Freshened for his six-year-old season, he resurfaced with a third-place finish in the Jan. 21 GII Palos Verdes H. before annexing the GII San Carlos H. Feb. 16. The dark bay was last seen crossing the wire second in the Apr. 5 GII Potrero Grande H. Kept within striking distance by Alex Solis here, Surf Cat fought his way past the pace-setting Desert Code after a long drive. "He's really coming around," Solis said. "He was real kind today. In some of his earlier races, he was a little mad and sour, but as he goes along, he's getting better and better. He's coming back to his old self." Trainer Bruce Headley added, "I thought this race set up perfect because he had a couple of nice speed horses out in front of him. Alex [Solis] got him to relax and it seems like that's his best race when he relaxes like that. The pace set up perfect because he wasn't out with them or in between them, he was trailing them. His best races have been like this. We'll place him in either The Californian or the Metropolitan Mile, it depends on the weights."

Nathan Fox on Storm Surge

"STORM SURGE possesses

all of the attributes of the majority of STORM CAT'S best sons at stud. He was a very fast, sound stakes winner at two that went on to win graded stakes around two turns at three. He is by one of the best stallions in the world and out of a mare by another, which is also one of the best broodmare sires in the world. He is from a family that is known for producing great sires like Saint Ballado, Rahy, Singspiel, and Devil's Bag. STORM SURGE is a correct, well balanced individual with great scope and a terrific hind quarter, deep heart girth and long angular shoulder. This is a horse with tremendous potential, and I am breeding several of our best mares to him this year." Nathan Fox, Richland Hills Farm owner

Sporting Art began his career with two straight victories while racing in Britain last summer, then finished fourth in the G3 Sirenia S. Sept. 8. The bay repeated that effort while closing out his European campaign in the Listed Stardom S. Sept. 15. Freshened and turned over to Christophe Clement, Sporting Art began his U.S. campaign with a second-place finish in a Gulfstream allowance Feb. 20 and entered off a win in the GIII Palm Beach S. Mar. 29. Favored in this field of 11, he raced in eighth after getting checked on the first turn. With Javier Castellano aboard, the Jon & Sarah Kelly colorbearer was angled out at the top of the stretch and turned in a smart stretch rally to deliver the score. "Sporting Art got shuffled back on the backstretch, but got clear in time to go on and win," Clement offered. "There are races this summer at Arlington [Turf Triple] and Virginia [Colonial Turf Cup and Virginia Derby]--we'll look at those." Castellano added, "The main thing I wanted to accomplish in this race was to give my horse the best possible trip. I think that is what made the difference today. The first time I rode this horse he might have needed a race, but the time after that I was very impressed, and even more so today."

Monterey Jazz really started to come of age late last season, beginning a three-race winning streak in an $80,000 optional claimer traveling one mile over the Hollywood grass Nov. 10. He followed with wire-to-wire tallies in the grassy GIII Sir Beaufort S. Dec. 26 and the GII Strub S. over the Santa Anita Cushion Feb. 2. Favored at 7-2 in the GI Santa Anita H. Mar. 1, the dark bay tired to finish 12th after setting an ambitious early pace. Back at his preferred distance here, the speedster set an uncontested lead and increased his advantage to the wire. "The plan was to just get him to the lead and cruise along," said jockey David Flores. "He was really able to relax on the lead today and when he hit that second turn he just had another gear. I made sure he was square in the gate and he broke well. I didn't have to rush him to the lead, and once he got around the first turn, I didn't want to look back."

Monterey Jazz answered a lot of questions with his win yesterday, according to co-owner Joe Masino of Class Racing Stable. "We wanted to find some things out today with regard to how he'd handle shipping and how he'd handle a dirt surface," he said. "He ran a great race and this gives us a lot of options. David is four-for-four aboard him and we'll keep going back to David as long as we can." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Criminologist got good in the second half of 2007, rattling off a four-race streak that was capped by victories in the GIII Athenia H. Oct. 13 at Belmont and the GIII Cardinal H. Nov. 17 at Churchill. The grey returned from a winter freshening to finish second by a half-length at even-money to Sharp Lisa in a one-mile allowance over a yielding Keeneland turf course. Odds-on here, the Janney/Phipps colorbearer settled near the back of the pack as All is

Vanity attempted to make all of the running. Criminologist swung three wide into the lane, headed the pace-setter inside the final furlong and came home a popular winner. Having won at Newmarket and Newbury in the summer, Centennial rounded off his juvenile campaign by following home the subsequent G1 Criterium International winner Thewayyouare in the G3 Prix Thomas Bryon at Saint-Cloud in October. Sent to the lead after the opening exchanges of this return, the grey kicked clear passing the quarter pole and stayed on willingly to repel Whistledownwind in the climb to the line. "I was pleased with him, as he needed his race a bit today," commented trainer John Gosden after greeting his fifth winner. "Jimmy said the last 100 yards felt a long way on him because of the dead ground--his mother was fast, but I like the way he has the attitude to stay and I think he'll get a mile and a half alright. I think he's a horse still on a learning curve, and a mile and a quarter here in April is a tall order, but it's a race I like and it tells you a lot. The G2 Dante S. [at York May 15] is an interesting option, as is the [May 10] G3 Lingfield Derby Trial." Click for the free racingpost.co.uk chart.

Enterprisingly ridden by Terence Hellier here, he was jumped out to lead and enjoyed a soft lead on the back stretch before finding extra when challenged first by Selmis and later by Golden Titus. Perspicacious trainer Murray Baker landed an old-fashioned training coup when Nom du Jeu became the fourth Derby winner for Montjeu (Ire), joining an illustrious group that features Motivator (Ire), Hurricane Run (Ire) and Authorized (Ire). Nom du Jeu settled among the tail-enders here, stealthily tracking well-supported Largo Lad (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}). A torrid beginning inevitably took its toll on the latter, and as the plan to stalk the fancied runner into the race unravelled, Nom du Jeu's rider Jeff Lloyd instantly switched to the rails, where he surged to beat fellow Kiwi raider Red Ruler (NZ). Cont. p11

SURF CAT, Fasig-Tipton KY July
 Winner of Yesterday's Mervyn LeRoy H. (GII) at Hollywood Park

Congratulations to owners Aase Headley and Marsha Naify, and trainer Bruce Headley

South African expatriate Lloyd, enjoying his first Australian Group 1 success [and his 81st overall], said he had long been convinced the colt was capable of winning the Derby. "I've been working him the last couple of weeks," he said. "He is a difficult horse, quite keen and heady, but he was better off where he was, and when they slowed up the pace there was a hell of a lot of jostling and nowhere to go either out or in." Nom du Jeu was sent out at 25-1 at his first outing since Mar. 23 when the headstrong colt was runner-up in the G3 3YO Classic at Awapuni. Baker had planned to start the dark bay in the G1 Rosehill Guineas Apr. 12, but a spiked temperature prevented Nom du Jeu from participating in the race won by Dealer Principal (Aus). "He is a genuine staying horse," said Baker. "I think he is a handy horse. If the NZ Derby winner had been in this race he would have probably distanced them--he's a real good horse--but this horse is a good stayer, an old fashioned English-type horse." Baker said Nom du Jeu, from the first of four Southern Hemisphere crops for Montjeu (Ire), was still six months from reaching a physical peak; while he would not commit to a G1 Melbourne Cup tilt for the sophomore, he warned Aussies that C'est le Geurre (NZ) would take a ton of beating if sent to Flemington on the first Tuesday in November. The Cambridge-based Baker also trained Nom du Jeu's dual Group 1-winning dam Prized Gem, who won the G1 Brisbane Cup and G1 Kelt Capital S. in 2002.

Caught in the Ruck...

While Nom du Jeu's connections took home a tick over A$1-million for the win, a tale of woe unfolded for other runners and their jockeys, with Darren Beadman, rider of well-supported Largo Lad (Aus), limping back to the scale with a torn boot after being pushed in to the running rail, after which his mount sought to over-race before finishing second last. NSW Racing Stewards took a dim view of the scrimmage in Sydney's blueriband race with Larry Cassidy, rider of Steel Giant (Aus) (Carnegie {Ire}), held accountable and suspended to May 19. Hong Kong-based Zac Purton is out until May 18 for causing strife that cost 3-1 favourite Littorio (Aus) ground.

That Triple Honour was more than capable of winning the Doncaster H. is blindingly obvious in hindsight. One start back, the three-year-old went within a nose of Weekend Hussler (Aus) in the G1 Randwick Guineas. Of course, Weekend Hussler is unanimously regarded as a truly extraordinary racehorse. He has a Timeform rating of 129 with Triple Honour, before his victory today, among half a dozen sophomores on 121. On a brilliant blue Sydney day after a dreary week of rain, Glen Boss settled the elegant bay in eighth and when a gap appeared, the gelding, carrying just 112 pounds, exploded through close to the rails, with sheer courage enabling him to keep at bay a fast-closing Casino Prince. cont.

After his eye-catching effort Mar. 29 against Weekend Hussler, Triple Honour was disappointing a fortnight later when 2 3/4 lengths back in the G2 Hobartville S. behind the filly Serious Speed (Aus). But Boss, enjoying his fourth Doncaster win in five years, said, "I dismissed his last run. The more I went over it, the more I was sure it was the wrong set of circumstances for him." The Doncaster victory was a confidence-boosting springboard for talented Rosehill trainer Chris Waller, handpicked recently by Bob Ingham to train horses carrying the all-cerise colors after the Woodlands-Darley changeover occurs. Triple Honour is by the Danehill sire Honours List (Ire), a FF3-million yearling who won the Railway S. for Aidan O'Brien before going amiss.

Sent out the firm favourite, the conspicuously marked chestnut Apache Cat duly delivered a knockout blow in the form of a 2 1/4-length win, his third at racing's highest level and his 12 stakes success overall. Apache Cat, whose broad white blaze and powerful physique is accentuated by white blinkers, settled five lengths off the lead and jockey Corey Brown admitted he was worried when veteran Takeover Target skipped clear of a tiring Magnus (Aus), but Apache Cat reeled him in and asserted late. "I was a little concerned when we hit the turn and Takeover Target looked like he would be hard to catch, but to his credit, my bloke digs deep, he knows where the winning post is," said Brown. "He took a little while to get going in the heavy ground, but once he got into gear up the rise, he attacked the line really solidly." Trainer Greg Eurell is no stranger to overseas competition, having represented Australia in showjumping at the 1984 Los Angeles Olympics.

The emphatic win of his "masked assassin" cemented plans to campaign abroad; Eurell has feature sprints in Japan and Hong Kong in mind for the gelding ahead of a possible tilt at Royal Ascot next year. "If he's as successful as we hope he'll be in Japan, then I know the owners are keen to look at Royal Ascot," Eurell said. In the short term, Apache Cat will point to Brisbane's G1 BTC Cup May 10 and G1 Doomben 10,000 May 24.

The "Purple Army"--connections and supporters of gifted colt Sebring--swarmed into the enclosure to celebrate heartily when the Golden Slipper victor adroitly backed up a week later to win the second leg of the Triple Crown in professional fashion. Sebring, with regular rider Blake Shinn back aboard, stalked modestly performed filly Love and Kisses as Von Costa De Hero (Aus) raced wide without cover, looming as the field swung around the turn. The prospect of the glamour colt breathing down his neck did not perturb Shinn, who let Sebring surge to the front to deny a fast-finishing Samantha Miss by a length. Love And Kisses held on for a close-up third. Gai Waterhouse is widely regarded as a brilliant asset to Australian racing for her indefatigable enthusiasm and charisma, but behind the "froth and bubble" is a trainer of formidable determination; since winning a 10-year battle for the right to actually train at all, Waterhouse has made Randwick her personal realm, collecting 47 Group 1 trophies since 1993, including five Sires' Produce S. wins. "He is the champion two-year-old, there are no two ways about it," Waterhouse affirmed.

"This is the most dominant male seen in Australia for a long, long time; he donkey-licked them in the Slipper coming from last, he has won the Sires' over 1400 meters on a heavy track and he will be even better of the 1600 meters of the Champagne S. He's a very relaxed colt; he's not fazed by anything, and I've trained him to win the Triple Crown."

Hong Kong race fans will be looking to Viva Pataca to bounce back from his gallant second-place finish from a wide draw in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic and assert his superiority once more back on home soil in the here.

He will again have to overcome a wide draw, but trainer John Moore appeared cautiously optimistic at the track on Saturday morning. "Everything is well in terms of his recovery from the trip Dubai--he is at his right weight and things have gone well. Whether he is at his absolute best, only the race itself will reveal," he said. Simon Stokes, racing manager to Gestut Farhof, owners of Quijano, was another to express cautious optimism. "I am hoping there will be a strong pace, as that will help our horse settle," he said. "I think the New Zealand horse [Sir Slick] will lead from gate one, and that will suit us. Quijano has won over 2000 metres, but not at this level. This race will tell us whether we go the 2000-meter route or whether we step him back up to 2400 [meters] for the future."

Joyful Winner ran third in the Champions Mile in 2006 and placed second a year ago, and trainer John Moore hopes his charge can complete the cycle here. "I suppose he's getting a bit long in the tooth, but he's very genuine, isn't he?" said Moore of the seven-year-old. "His last run was full of merit [runner-up in the G2 Chairman's Trophy Apr. 6], where he was impeded about 300m out but still ran on well to finish third. But he's that kind of horse--he has to go back and he's sometimes liable to run into a bit of trouble. But right now he's a very fit horse and he'll be in the finish again, I believe." As for last year's hero Able One, his other runner in the Champions Mile, Moore commented, "I'm not sure if he will be able to lead and make all like he did last year because he might have Joy And Fun for company, but if he is allowed to dictate terms, well, history has a habit of repeating itself. He worked well [Friday] morning [22.9 seconds his final split on the all-weather] for Eric Saint-Martin and pulled up very nicely."

GOSDEN PAIR BUILD UP John Gosden yesterday issued an upbeat bulletin on his weekend Guineas contenders Raven's Pass (Elusive Quality) and Infallible (GB) (Pivotal {GB}). Stonerside Stable's G3 Solario S. winner was runner-up in the G3 Craven S. at Newmarket 10 days ago, 24 hours after Cheveley Park Stud's homebred Infallible had captured the meeting's G3 Nell Gwyn S. "They both worked yesterday and Infallible did a lovely piece of work, skipping two or three lengths clear of another under Jimmy [Fortune]," he said. "It wasn't demanding; just a nice exercise as she's inclined to look about in the clear. I was happy with her and she cantered this morning, while Raven's Pass breezed solidly over about 7 1/2 furlongs on the Al Bahathri gallop. He was very comfortable doing that and cantered this morning."

NATAGORA READY Stefan Friberg's Natagora (Fr) (Divine Light {Jpn}) was reported firmly on course for Sunday's G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket. Having come through her prep in Maisons-Laffitte's Listed Prix Imprudence in smooth fashion Apr. 14, last year's G1 Cheveley Park S. winner and G1 Prix Morny runner-up will line up as one of the favorites for the mile Classic. "Everything is under control following her reappearance and she went quietly on the grass again on Wednesday," the owner's Racing Manager Patrick Barbe commented. "It was just an easy canter and she is happy--eating well and training well. All the lights are green and we hope for the best. She won very easily in the Prix Imprudence, especially as the ground was against her. On the other hand, the heavy going probably made it more of a stamina test. In that testing ground, the distance, while not quite equivalent to a mile at Newmarket, was close to it. I don't think we have any doubts about her getting the mile at Newmarket. The dam is by Linamix and the second dam is by Margouillat, so she has a lot of stamina in the pedigree." Ground conditions could be on the testing side by the weekend after a wet forecast. Clerk of the Course and Director of Racing Michael Prosser revealed that the current description is good to firm and added, "The weather is beautiful today, breezy and sunny, but the forecast is unsettled. There is currently rain forecast every day from tomorrow through to Friday."

Bold Start captured an optional claimer last July in his only other appearance on the Churchill lawn, but was off the board in his next two starts. He disappeared after finishing sixth in the Aug. 25 GI King's Bishop S. Back after a five-month layoff, the dark bay returned to be third in an optional claimer at Gulfstream Jan. 19. The winner of an allowance test at that track Feb. 1, he shipped north to run fourth in the Mar. 8 GIII Toboggan H. at Aqueduct and was coming off a fifth in a high-priced optional event on the all-weather at Keeneland Apr. 9. Bold Start broke on top and never looked back, digging down deep as Firerock Base came at him to earn the narrow score.

The winner of the GIII Locust Grove H. last season, Muralakana was also second by a neck in the Sept. 3 GIII Glens Falls H. at Saratoga, but was sidelined after finishing sixth behind the likes of Nashoba's Key and Citronnade in the Sept. 29 GI Yellow Ribbon Invitational S. Looking sharp off the layoff, the bay mare made a winning return in the Mar. 8 GIII The Very One H. at Gulfstream. She was sent off the 19-10 chalk in the Mar. 30 GIII Orchid H. and had the lead in deep stretch, but was caught near the line and ran second. Odds-on this time, Muralakana settled in sixth through three-quarters in 1:14.16 and edged closer at the three-eighths pole. She had to wait for an opening at the top of the lane, but switched to the outside and hit the gas, getting up for a narrow score. "She'll probably run next in the Sheepshead Bay [GII, Belmont Park, May 24]," trainer Christophe Clement said. "After that, we'll have to see. She's owned by an Australian breeder [Robert Scarborough] and could be sent home to be bred in July."

The speedy Lookinforthesecret reeled off five straight victories at Tampa between December and March, taking four on the main track before capping the streak with a 3/4-length triumph in the Mar. 15 Turf Dash. The chestnut was second by a neck in the Apr. 5 Hilton Garden Inn Sprint S. at Tampa, but was back in the winner's circle again yesterday. Taking up his customary spot on the front end, he dashed off a half in :43.27 and had enough left in the tank to reach the wire comfortably in front.

 The versatile Ginger Brew broke her maiden on the Woodbine all-weather Oct. 26 in her only start at two, then opened 2008 with a solid second in an allowance on the Gulfstream grass Jan. 9. She switched to the main track at Hallandale Feb. 16 and filled the runner-up spot once again, then stretched to two turns and returned to the lawn to capture an allowance Mar. 15. The crowd's choice to make it two in a row, Ginger Brew stalked the pace while racing wide, accelerated to the front down the lane and was under a drive as Life Is Sweet closed late.

Go Go Shoot captured three of his first four outings, including the Jan. 21 Jimmy Winkfield S. and the Feb. 18 Fred Capossela S. on the Big A inner track. The gray gelding fought it out on the front end early in the Apr. 5 GIII Bay Shore S. before tiring to be fourth. The heavy favorite in this softer spot, he was pressed through the opening quarter, but opened up on his three rivals in the stretch and was kept to the task to the wire.

 Sir Michael Stoute was enjoying success in the G1 2000 Guineas at around this time in 2001 with Golan (Ire), and while his full-brother may not be as precocious, Tartan Bearer certainly has a fair share of ability. Catching the eye when staying on into second in a seven-furlong Newmarket maiden on debut in November, the blaze-faced chestnut had suffered from foot problems in the interim, according to connections, but attracted heavy support as the 2-5 favorite on this return. Racing keenly in the second rank early, the homebred made his move with a quarter mile remaining and, after being galvanized by Alan Munro, surged 2 3/4 lengths clear of stable companion Warringah (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) at the line. Golan was a MGSW-Eng, GSW-Fr, G1SP-Ire, and earned $1,624,185. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, £4,035. INGLIS CLASSIC SESSION KICKS OFF TODAY

Inglis's unremitting television promotion of its Classic Yearling Sale, which kicks off its three-day run today, was rendered delightfully superfluous when Classic sale graduates Triple Honour (Aus) (Honours List {Ire}), a A$50,000 buy, won yesterday's G1 Doncaster H. and brought his bankroll to A$1.3 million, while stylish filly Raise (Aus) (Arena {Aus}), a A$72,500 purchase, won the G3 Adrian Knox S. on the same card. An up-side-down sale calendar courtesy of the Equine Influenza disruption means the Classic, usually among the first of six annual majors in Australia, is the last this year. While the elite Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale was the gourmet feast buyers have been salivating for, the inaugural "Easter Session II" was an unremarkable second course. Classic, however, has always been the source of well-priced racehorses and, as a second tier of consignors moved into the Newmarket complex on Anzac Day, it was obvious there were plenty of well-prepared youngsters. Easter Session II will probably find its niche if Inglis retains the format for 2009. It was dented by a number of factors, one being the limited amount of time would-be buyers had to inspect the 195 yearlings. This resulted in buyers asking to look at specific horses rather than viewing an entire draft. Secondly, a trainer-led bench bought exceptionally good value yearlings at the median or less at Easter, and recent history shows it is this sector that tends to yield plenty of stakes winners. The third factor negating the impact of Session II was simply bleak weather, but Sydney has since turned on its most dazzling autumn sunshine ahead of the Classic sale. Inglis Director Jonathan D'Arcy said, "With the introduction of Easter II, some of the better horses ended up there, so we are probably looking at an average of around $30,000 to $35,000. But, having said that, a lot of trainers from interstate are attending the sale." At the Classic Sale last year, 427 sold at a gross of A$16,708,409 and an average of A$39,129. Top price was A$350,000 for a colt by Street Cry (Ire). The sale, comprising 533 lots, begins at 3 p.m. at Newmarket.

Widden in Vogue...

Widden Stud, which sold Triple Honour (Aus) at this sale last year, has 17 on offer by in-form stallions, with Lot 83, a Choisir (Aus) half-brother to SW Canny Fly (Aus), attracting admirers. "He is a nice, big, strong, lengthy Choisir, he stands over a bit of ground," commented Widden's Ryan McEvoy. Another popular colt is 111, a half-brother to SP Lady Cay (Aus) by Viscount (Aus). "He is a nice style of horse, he looks like a real runner," said McEvoy. Others among Widden's draft include a Danewin half-sister to promising two-year-old Warpig (Aus) and a forward-looking Red Ransom colt from the immediate family of G1SP Beauty Watch (Aus).

Figures Add up for Lomar Park...

Fastnet Rock (Aus) was runaway leading freshman sire at Inglis Easter and his draft are expected to be sought after here, with one potential star being Lot 373, a fetching filly from proven producer Misty Dawn (Aus) (Mister C). "She is the image of her father," says Lomar Park's Paul Davies. Long-time breeder Fred Peisah's Lomar Park Stud has an impressive record--over the past four years Lomar has sold 68, and of those, 58 have raced (46 as two-year-olds), winning 78 races in total, and yielding 13 stakes performers. The stud is home to emerging Danehill stallion Arena (Aus), the sire of Raise (Aus) and Rena's Lady (Aus).

Velvet Touch...

Boutique Southern Highlands farm Velvet Stud, owned by leading Australian fashion designer Lisa Ho and her husband Philip Smouhart, is only in its second year, but has a smart draft of four including Lot 438, a Falbrav (Ire) filly out of Queen Emma (Fr) (Irish River {Fr}), herself from the family of G1 Hong Kong Cup winner Agnes Digital (Jpn). Eight-time Group 1 winner Falbrav stood at Arrowfield for three seasons and has recently burst into prominence with three first-crop winners, putting him second on that sires' table. The last was the A$550,000 Inglis Easter graduate Fravashi (Aus), an eye-catching winner for Woodlands trainer Peter Snowden at Canterbury less than a week ago.
