AFTER TAKING THE G1 AUDEMARS PIGUET QE II CUP

GRAND OLD DUKE

Aidan O'Brien secured back-to-back renewals of the G1 Prix Ganay for Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor as Duke of Marmalade (Ire) (Danehill) battled to a game success in the Longchamp feature yesterday. Twelve months after Dylan Thomas (Ire) enjoyed the first of O'Brien's two conquests on the Bois de Boulogne, the colt who earned a 'nearly' tag during 2007 finally broke through at the top level under a positive ride from Johnny Murtagh. Committed at the quarter pole, the 4-1 second favorite had to dig in to repel the late threat of Saddex (GB) (Sadler's Wells), but responded to every call to record a half-length verdict. "He's a brave horse who deserved that after placing so many times at this level," O'Brien said. Cont. p2

AMERICAN SWEEP AT SHA TIN

A pair of American-bred runners captured two prestigious races Sunday afternoon at Sha Tin in Hong Kong. First, the local hero Good Ba Ba (Lear Fan) notched his fourth consecutive Group 1 event and stamped himself as one of the favorites for Horse of the Year honors with a powerful victory in the G1 Champions Mile. His jockey, Olivier Doleuze, was effusive in praise of his mount. "It's hard to explain the feeling you get on the back of this horse," he said. "I've been lucky enough to ride some very good horses in my career, but this one is something special. Winning today I felt that I was going into the history books; he's now surely the Horse of the Year." With the win, Good Ba Ba gets an automatic berth in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile. One race later, Archipenko (Kingmambo) swooped to take the G1 Audemars Piguette QEII Cup. It was the first Group 1 tally for the four-year-old, who only joined trainer Mike de Kock's yard in December. "I know it might sound crazy after winning a Group 1 race, but I think he is still improving and he can go and win another one," de Kock said. "We'll be thinking about him in terms of Royal Ascot, but I'm not sure what race we will target there yet." Sha Tin Results, p2-3

Entering the G1 Prix Ganay, Duke of Marmalade boasted a sole win in a Curragh maiden in June 2006, but that failed to tell the whole story. Injured following his runner-up placing in the G2 Vintage S. at Good-wood, he was a creditable fourth in both the G1 English and G1 Irish 2000 Guineas last May before finishing second in the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot. Fourth after a refresher in the G1 Juddmonte International S. at York in August, he ran Dylan Thomas to 1 1/2 lengths when second in Leopardstown's G1 Irish Champion S. before another honorable effort when third in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. back at Ascot the following month. Ridden prominently on this comeback, the bay was allowed to find his own rhythm as Spirit One (Fr) (Anabaa Blue {GB}) was sent into a clear lead by half-way. Rolling by that rival with a quarter mile remaining, his main threat, Saddex, was steadily turned back as Murtagh resorted to mainly hand riding in the final 50 yards. "He has a wide range of possibilities open to him now, but the first one is obviously the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup [at The Curragh May 25]," O'Brien added. Zambezi Sun (GB) (Dansili {GB}), sent off the 2-1 favorite, traveled strongly stalking Duke of Marmalade but found disappointingly little when asked to quicken in the stretch. The winner's second dam, Lassie Lady, is a half to Broodmare of the Year Weekend Surprise, dam of A.P. Indy and Summer Squall. It is also the family of GI Kentucky Derby hopeful Court Vision. Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Archipenko opened 2007 with a win in the G2 Derby Trial S. at Leopardstown, but finished off the board in his next four outings. The bay colt turned it around when taking the Feb. 21 G2 Al Fahidi Fort at Nad Al Sheba, and he was coming off a third in the Mar. 29 G1 Dubai Duty Free S. Rated in fifth through the opening exchanges here, he was revved up as they hit the straight and uncorked a strong late run that carried him to a decisive success. "He came out of the gates very well and then came back into my hands and settled nicely," jockey Kevin Shea said. "He's the kind of horse that prefers to have some daylight, so I was happier having no horse outside me. When I pulled him out in the straight, I gave him two cracks and he dropped down well and I knew it was going to take something special to beat us." Click for the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Good Ba Ba made it five in a row and took his fourth in Group 1 company with this impressive victory. The six-year-old capped off 2007 with a win in the Dec. 9 Hong Kong Mile, then added the Jan. 20 Stewards' Cup and the Mar. 16 Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup. At the back of the pack early yesterday, the favorite shot to the front when asked and proved much the best.

"We've always tried to keep something in the tank with this horse and not do too much with him," trainer Andreas Schutz said. "He's best when he's fresh, and I think he's getting better and better. Halfway down the stretch he was still on the bridle and I was worried that he'd get there too soon, but then in a couple of strides he was two lengths clear, and it was all over." As for the future, Schutz said, "We'll not make any hasty decisions...however, I think we are odds on to stay in Hong Kong, and a big price against us going to the Yasuda Kinen or the Breeders' Cup." Third in the G1 Deutsches Derby and runner-up in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden in 2006, Oriental Tiger was runner-up again in the G2 Hansa-Preis at Hamburg last June before being rested after running sixth of six in Dusseldorf's G1 Deutschlandpreis the following month. Back to winning ways on his first start off the layoff in the G3 Grand Prix Aufgalopp at this track Apr. 6, the bay confirmed the form of that contest, making every yard of the running under Terence Hellier for an ultimately comfortable success. Last year's Deutsches Derby hero Adlerflug (Ger) (In the Wings {GB}), who was sent off the 19-10 favorite, was prominent early before failing to make a serious impact. Veteran Silver Tree, winner of last summer's GII Fourstar Dave H. at Saratoga, ended 2007 with a fifth-place effort in the Sept. 21 GIII Cliff Hanger H. at the Meadowlands. He returned five months later to run second in the restricted Shotintheheart S. at Gulfstream Feb. 14 and added a runner-up effort in the Apr. 5 Turf Classic S. at Tampa Bay Downs last time out. Sent off the tepid favorite in the field of seven, Silver Tree shadowed pacesetter Buddy's Humor (Distorted Humor) through moderate fractions. He forged to the lead in upper stretch and pulled clear for a confident score. "He acts fresher than the two-year-olds in the barn," admitted Leana Willaford, assistant to winning trainer Bill Mott. "We know him really well; we've had him since he was a two-year-old himself. We'll see how he comes out of this race and take it from there." Winning rider Edgar Prado added, "He's a nice, healthy horse and he knows his way around the racetrack. Wherever he is, when you call for his run, he gives it to you."

While all the focus was on Proviso, it was Belle Allure who led home a shock exacta in this trial for the G1 Prix de Diane at Chantilly June 8. Off the mark at Deauville in August, the chestnut had failed to shine in better grade when fourth in the G3 Prix d'Aumale at Chantilly in September and ninth in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac here on Arc day. Switched off in rear early as Proviso made the running, she swung wide in the straight and swept by that rival and Wait and See with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining before putting her seal on the contest in a matter of strides. "That wasn't such a surprise to me, as she needs to come from behind in a truly run race," trainer Rupert Pritchard-Gordon commented. "She had a slow pace in the d'Aumale, and when we tried to use her inside post position in the Marcel Boussac, we found out not to put her in the race too early. She needs time between her races, so ideally we'll wait for the Prix de Diane now." Stephane Pasquier reported that Proviso failed to pick up in the straight and may have been unsuited to making the running. Click for the Racing Post chart.

Juddmonte homebred Coastal Path continues to impress as a potential top-league stayer and was not hard pressed to maintain his perfect tally on this four-year-old bow. Returning to the scene of his biggest successes in the G3 Prix de Lutece in September and G2 Prix Chaudenay the following month, the bay traveled easily in mid-division while kept wide throughout the early stages. Making his move along the 'false straight,' he gathered in Orion Star passing the eighth pole before asserting for a comfortable score. "It's nice to see him keep his unbeaten record and he loves this good ground," the owner-breeder's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe said. "We think he's a horse for the [June 19] G1 Ascot Gold Cup, and he may have one more run beforehand in probably the G2 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier [at this track May 18]."

Triple Threats

COLONEL FIRES BULLET AT CHURCHILL

GI Santa Anita Derby winner Colonel John (Tiznow) proved he has no problem with conventional dirt, turning in a sparkling five-furlong work at Churchill Downs yesterday in :57.80. The move was the best of 62 at the distance for the colt, who has raced and trained almost exclusively on synthetic tracks. "I'm happy with the way he did it," trainer Eoin Harty said. "He did it within himself and that's what I liked. That track was fast today; maybe faster than it should be. But everyone else was working fast, so that's part of my thinking. And [exercise rider Karine Lhuillier] wasn't pushing on him."

Harty is not concerned about how Colonel John will handle the surface change. "Dirt is not an issue," the conditioner asserted. "I thought he handled it well today.

He trained on dirt as a two-year-old and he handled it well then. I've been confident in him in that regard all along." Clockers caught the WinStar Farm homebred in fractions of :12, :23.20, :34.60 and :46. He galloped out in 1:11.20. The second-fastest five-furlong move was turned in by the speedy filly and Derby contender Eight Belles (Unbridled's Song) (:58.20) and the third fastest was recorded by GI Kentucky Oaks hopeful Proud Spell (Proud Citizen) (:58.40). Colonel John had been expected to work Monday, but the drill was moved up in the face of forecasted heavy rains Sunday night in Louisville.

Motion Happy With Adriano's Work

Trainer Graham Motion's Adriano (A.P. Indy) had his final serious work for Saturday's Kentucky Derby, going five furlongs in company at Churchill yesterday in 1:00.80. Regular exercise rider Xavier Azipuru was aboard for the work, accomplished through fractions of :12.20, :24.40 and :36.60. Adriano galloped out six furlongs in 1:14.40. "Xavier worked him all winter on dirt and turf," Motion said after the drill. "He said he worked as good or better than he's worked all year. I caught him in :24 or maybe a little bit better for the last quarter, and I was pleased with that. I wanted to see him finish up like that."

Mott Duo Work

Trainer Bill Mott, looking to avoid the rainy weather, sent his two Kentucky Derby hopefuls out to work yesterday at Churchill Downs. Court Vision (Gulch) went five furlongs in company in 1:00.80. Third in the GI Wood Memorial last time out, the colt recorded fractions of :13, :25.60, :37.20 and :48.80 and galloped out in 1:14. Z Humor (Distorted Humor), coming off a third-place effort in the GII Illinois Derby, went the same distance in 1:01.20, also working in company. "Court Vision went well," Mott said after training hours. "He worked good and cooled out very quickly. He only took one deep breath and everything's looking pretty good." Mott was also pleased with his other Derby hopeful. "Z Humor is doing equally well," the trainer said. "He had a good work this morning, finished up well and looked smooth doing it. Anytime you have a horse on the improve, anything can happen."

Smooth Air on the Mend

Smooth Air (Smooth Jazz) continued to show improvement from the low-grade fever he has been battling since last week. The colt returned to the track for the first time since Thursday, jogging a little more than a mile. "I didn't sleep well last night, but I will tonight," said trainer Bennie Stutts, Jr. "I came in this morning and saw that empty feed tub and knew he was all right."

Jones Fillies Fleet in Churchill Works

Trainer Larry Jones's star fillies Eight Belles (Unbridled's Song) and Proud Spell (Proud Citizen) both worked five furlongs yesterday at Churchill Downs. Eight Belles, considered likely for the Kentucky Derby, covered the distance in :58.20, while her stablemate completed her work in :58.40. Proud Spell, likely to start in the Kentucky Oaks, went through fractions of :11.40, :22.60, :34.40 and :46.40 and galloped out in 1:12.80. Eight Belles clipped off fractions of :11.40, :22.60, :34.20 and :45.80, galloping out six furlongs in 1:12 and seven furlongs in 1:25.40. Gabriel Saez was aboard for both works. "Proud Spell's work was exactly what I wanted," Jones said. "I told Gabriel I wanted a good work in her, something like she did prior to the Breeders' Cup [Juvenile Fillies where she finished second]. She's had a couple of slow works over on the 'Poly' at Keeneland and she needed this. It was good for her." Of his other filly's drill, Jones added, "Eight Belles probably went a little quicker than she needed, but it's fine. She was all run out there today and she's quite capable of turning in those kinds of works." Saez, a 20-year-old Panamanian, will be aboard both fillies in their Classic engagements.

Absolutely Cindy Joins Oaks Fray

Absolutely Cindy (Arch) joined the list of GI Kentucky Oaks hopefuls after working three furlongs in :37 yesterday at Churchill Downs. The filly, winner of the John Battaglia Memorial S. against males at Turfway Mar. 1, was sixth in the Apr. 5 GI Ashland S. and seventh over the turf in the Apr. 16 GIII Appalachian S.

STORMIN NORMANDY (c, 4, Stormin Fever--Patriotism, by Pleasant Colony), a $100,000 FTNAUG yearling and $375,000 FTFEB juvenile, had won five of his last six before this, including a tally in the Hudson H. for statebreds at Belmont last October and a restricted allowance at Aqueduct in January. Well beaten in the GII General George H. at Laurel Feb. 18, he easily handled open allowance foes at Aqueduct Mar. 22 and was making his first start beyond seven furlongs as the 7-5 chalk. The IEAH colorbearer sprinted out to lead, but was allowed to slow it down through a quarter in :23 2/5. Moon Catcher, winner of last summer's GII Delaware Oaks for trainer and co-owner Tim Ritchey, et al., was purchased by Marsha Naify for $1.35 million at the Keeneland January Sale. Making her first for Christophe Clement, Moon Catcher ran a well-beaten sixth to Sugar Swirl in the GII Shirley Jones H. at Gulfstream Mar. 29 and was dropping into this confidence booster as the 6-5 pick. Tracking early, she ranged up at the quarter pole and drew clear under urging to win.

Shilla, bred on the same cross as the speedy Artax, won the restricted Fanfreluche S. here last October before going to the sidelines off a third-place effort in the Glorious Song S. Nov. 18. She collected her second stakes event in the Apr. 5 La Voyageuse S. in her three-year-old bow and improved to five-for-seven lifetime with this game effort. The crowd's choice kept a wary eye on the pacesetting Gloriously, challenged at the furlong grounds and was up to win by a neck. "She is small in stature, but she's got a big heart and she's a fighter," said winning trainer Nicholas Gonzalez, who was winning a stakes event for the fourth straight weekend at Woodbine. "She showed that today." Gonzalez said the June 18 Woodbine Oaks would be the filly's target this summer.

TDN presents
STAR OF THE WEEK
 Brought to you by Fasig-Tipton

Benoit photo

Accomplishment: Mitchell was the leading trainer at the recently concluded Santa Anita meet with 33 wins. He capped off the meet with an upset victory with Big Booster (Accelerator) in the GII San Juan Capistrano Invitational H. Apr. 20.

Birthdate: Apr. 25, 1948.

Birthplace: Bakersfield, CA.

Family: Married 27 years to Denise. Daughters Shea, 21, McCall, 24.

Current Residence: Redondo Beach, CA.

Biggest accomplishment in racing? Well, there's a few. I claimed a horse named Star Over the Bay that I won a Grade I race with. I bought Kela privately, and he was second in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint, and won the GI Bing Crosby and GI Pat O'Brien. But right now, I think the best horse I've ever trained is a horse that I have right now, Ever a Friend. He just won the GI Kilroe Mile. So now I get to lay awake at night until October, thinking about keeping him sound and fresh for the GI Breeders' Cup Mile. I really think he's that caliber horse.

If you could have dinner with any historical figure, who would it be? Billy Graham. My wife and I are Christians, and we try to walk the walk. I'll find him on TV when I'm channel surfing, and I've heard his messages over and over again. I just admire him, because what he speaks, that's the way he lives.

Favorite vacation spot? We love to travel. My daughter's in Hong Kong right now, working for Disney World there. She plays Belle in their Beauty and their Beast production. I've been to Hong Kong twice; I ran a horse there, and an owner took me one time. We're going back in September when Del Mar is over to see my kid, and I'm really looking forward to it.

Favorite food or meal? My wife has me eating healthy these days. When she's not around, I go for fried chicken and stuff like that, but you know what I really like is sushi. Little by little I was introduced to it, and now I just love it.

Favorite music? I'd probably say Bruce Springsteen. I've seen him in concert three or four times, and I just saw him here a few weeks ago at The Pond. He still puts so much into his shows. And over the years I've gotten every Bob Dylan song you could have. I've always love him, but my family can't figure out why. My daughter hears him sing and can't quite understand why I'd like that voice (laughs).

If you weren't in horse racing, what would you be doing? Ah, I'd probably be a drunk in the street (laughs).

Lindsey's Wish gave her owners Roll Reroll Stables the first half of the stakes double at Prairie Meadows Saturday night, as the operation also took the Golden Circle S. one race later with the three-year-old Stormy Atlantic colt May's Storm. Lindsey's Wish, a romping five-length winner on debut here Apr. 6 and favored to make it two straight, rallied to catch Amazing Tale and asserted late. A claim of foul was lodged by the jockey of the runner-up, but stewards ruled that contact at the 16th pole was incidental.

CHRB Making Racing/Training Contingency Plans:

The California Horse Racing Board heard from industry representatives about possible contingency plans being developed for stabling, training and racing in California should Bay Meadows and Hollywood Park cease to operate. During Thursday's board meeting, CHRB Chairman Richard Shapiro called for the organization to become active in creating contingencies. Shapiro added he would be scheduling a meeting of the Strategic Planning Committee within three weeks. Southern California racing is threatened by the possible development of Hollywood Park and track president Jack Liebau is unable to commit to racing at the Inglewood oval beyond this year. Among ideas put forward by industry leaders at the meeting should Hollywood Park close is the expansion of Fairplex for year-round stabling and training. Other stabling options include the expanded use of Del Mar and San Luis Rey Downs. In Northern California, threatened by the expected closing of Bay Meadows, the Pleasanton fairgrounds may be expanded to accommodate year-round stabling, training and additional racing dates. Golden Gate Fields is also likely to offer expanded racing.

Harlene, third in the California Cup Juvenile last November, began the year with a third-place effort against state-bred maidens Jan. 3, but weakened to eighth against open-company maidens in his second start of the year Apr. 5. Getting blinkers on here for his third start of the year, the 33-1 longshot saved ground while shadowing the pacesetters. He rallied around rivals down the stretch and finished with a flourish to just nail Dewey's Special at the wire. "That was truly unbelievable," winning trainer Doug O'Neill said of the driving finish. "He's always trained like a horse that the distance wouldn't be a problem. And, though it was a little ambitious to run a maiden against winners, it was restricted to Cal-breds, it was three-year-olds only--we thought we'd take a chance. That's the beauty of this game--you take a chance, and every now and then, you can have a moment like that."

*Gambler's Justice finished first, but was DQ'd and placed third.

The progressive Bel Air Sizzle needed some assistance from the stewards, but captured her first stakes success via DQ as odds-on favorite Final Fling took the brunt of a roughly run stretch drive. A late-closing winner in an open maiden race at Santa Anita Mar. 16 and then facing Cal-bred allowance foes Mar. 27, Bel Air Sizzle was made the second choice here off a good third-place effort in the grassy GII Providencia S. Apr. 5. Last of eight through three-quarters, the dark bay took the overland route leaving the turn and closed well to be up for second. She was promoted, however, when stewards ruled that the pacesetter Gambler's Justice, first across the wire, came in on the rail-skimming Final Fling, causing that foe to hit the rail and take up. "A win is a win no matter what," said Bel Air Sizzle's jockey Rafael Bejarano. "She was pulling and dragging me a little bit turning into the backstretch. I was trying to hold her and stay behind. On the second turn she started running again and made a big move leaving the quarter pole on the outside. This horse tries really hard." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Tutta Bella was taking the plunge into stakes company after winning three of her last four. The first victory in that sequence came way back July of 2006. The dark bay then went missing for 19 months before returning to be fourth in an allowance for statebreds Feb. 14. Consecutive wins, the first against statebreds, the second facing open company, sprinting down Santa Anita's hillside course Mar. 14 and Apr. 5 set her up for this, and the lightly raced five-year-old came through for those who her sent her to post the second favorite. Given a smart ride by Garrett Gomez, Tutta Bella led the field through modest :24 4/5 and :48 2/5 splits, kicked away two furlongs out and dug in to beat the closing Comedy Girl by a neck. The odds-on Tiz a Blend (Cee's Tizzy) shadowed the winner early and was just nosed out of show honors. "I was on the outside and didn't really plan on making the lead," Gomez admitted. "Nobody really wanted to go, and when I pulled her over I was able to slow them down and try to turn it into a three-quarter race. When that other mare came up along side, she started digging in."

An astute pick-up by trainer Ted West and owner Jeffrey Sengara, Stella Mark has gone from $50,000 claimer to stakes winner in four starts. Stella Mark was halted away from trainer Doug O'Neill out of a fourth-place effort on the grass at Santa Anita in early January. He won first off the claim on the Cushion Track Feb. 22, then was fourth in an open NW1X Mar. 14 before clearing that level going 8 1/2 furlong Apr. 12. Cutting back in distance as a longshot, Stella Mark saved ground in fourth as Cost of Freedom and Grade I winner Johnny Eves (Skimming) dueled. Stella Mark came after that pair in deep stretch and was going away late. "We had tried to buy him privately in May of last year, but he had pretty sore feet so we kind of passed on him," revealed the winning trainer. "I think he ran once or twice after that, then ran bad and had the layoff. They had him in for $50,000 after that and we thought the feet had been taken care of and it looked like he was working good. I have to give all credit to Jeffrey because I wasn't that impressed with his feet when we went to look at him. I think we got a good one."

Margins: 1, 2 1/4, 3/4. Odds: 12.50, 0.70, 18.10.

Spenditallbaby gave her sire the first leg of an early daily double. The chestnut, third in last year's GII San Clemente H. in August, hadn't raced since missing the board in the Cal Cup Distaff H. sprinting on the grass at Santa Anita in November. Freshened off that one and sent postward a 12-1 outsider, she sat last of six as the leaders cut out a suicidal :43 2/5 half, then rallied stoutly down the center of the track as odds-on Tiz Elemental settled for second. "I told [jockey] Michael [Baze], 'Don't worry about a thing and when you hit the stretch, just let her run,'" said winning trainer Barry Abrams, before adding that the usually temperamental filly behaved herself before the race. "It was the first time she actually didn't try to kill me," he said. Mistical Plan (Game Plan), making her first start since running fifth in last year's GI Kentucky Oaks, rallied from third and briefly took the lead in upper stretch, but tired in the final furlong and was fourth.

Mr. Wolverine went to the sidelines for over a year after a fifth-place effort in the 2006 GII American Invitational H. He made only two starts last year and returned in 2008 with a Jan. 26 allowance win at Santa Anita and was coming off a narrow loss to Celtic Dreamin (Game Plan) in the Mar. 16 Crystal Waters H. Mr. Wolverine settled in third as Epic Power set pedestrian splits with favored Lava Man in close attendance. The three foes locked horns in upper stretch, with Mr. Wolverine moving best of all. MGISW Lava Man, making his first start since finishing sixth in the California Cup Classic H. last November, lacked a late kick and finished third. "Corey [Nakatani] had him in a great spot and he ran well--[Mr. Wolverine] just ran huge," Lava Man's trainer Doug O'Neill said. "I would have loved to have seen him get by the three-horse [Epic Power], but that one ran big as well. We'll just go over him good and see how it all plays out here. We'll have to kind of see how he comes out of it and evaluate him then."

Sidelined after a third-place effort Nov. 4, the bay mare returned to be second in a Mar. 31 state-bred allowance in Arcadia. Sure, Hollywood's Cushion Track was playing to speed yesterday, but Dancing in Silks' blazing-fast winning time in this was impressive nonetheless. The gelded Cal-bred closed to be second, beaten 3/4 lengths, as an 8-1 shot on debut at Santa Anita Apr. 6, and was getting another furlong to work with against this field comprised of fellow maidens. Altering his race tactics, Dancing in Silks cut out the running through a half in :44 2/5, then kicked on the afterburners in the stretch, sailing home full of run. His final time was 1:14.24; the track record, held by Banner Lodge, is 1:13.79. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

COX TAKES TOPPER AT CLASSIC SALE Vin Cox, who maintains he achieved value-for-money purchasing eight yearlings at an average A$294,375 at the Inglis Easter Yearling Sale, struck again at the Inglis Classic Sale, securing the first session sale-topper on Sunday afternoon. The Sydney-based bloodstock agent went to A$90,000 for a colt by Beautiful Crown, offered as Lot 110 by Emirates Park Stud. Cox echoed the views of many when he said, "It is a good solid sale for the right horse, but...the pedigree rarely matched the individual. [That] is pretty good money for a Beautiful Crown, who stood last year at A$15,000, but the money is there for the right horse and [this colt] is an example. He is a lovely, big, strong colt and I have had a lot of luck with Beautiful Crown." The Chief's Crown stallion stands at Alanbridge, a farm soon to be rebranded Patinack. Cox had previously purchased the stakes-placed Beautiful Crown filly Chaud Roche (Aus), who has earned almost A$200,000, as well as SP Cigar Royale (Aus) and sophomore Weekend in Paris (Aus), who was fourth in the Listed Gimcrack S. at two. Despite activity by a wide range of local and interstate trainers, as well as buyers from Hong Kong, New Zealand, South Africa and Singapore, the average for the first session was A$29,273, compared with A$43,926 last year. A total of 88 horses changed hands for A$2,576,000, with two horses being knocked down to online bidders. The sale continues from 11 a.m. Monday, with a third session starting at the same time Tuesday.
