DERBY CHAMP FINE; ON TO PREAKNESS

A day after Big Brown (Boundary) rolled to an emphatic 4 3/4-length win in the G1 Kentucky Derby, trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. was already looking ahead to the G1 Preakness S. at Pimlico May 17. "I'm kind of worried about it," said Dutrow. "When the horse goes into the race the right way, good timing and all, I don't see anyone beating him. But now that's not happening. We've got to come right back off that huge race. It's just two weeks away." As for the colt's schedule, Dutrow added, "I don't believe that I'll breeze him between races. I might do a little blowout at Pimlico a day or two, or even the day he's in, but I'll just wait and see. The weather's got a lot to do with it and he's got a lot to do with it, too." Dutrow said that bay will remain at Churchill for a few days before he is shipped to Baltimore. Feature Pres. cont. p3

Victory is Divine...

Natagora appeared all speed in her early two-year-old career and her successes in the Listed Prix la Fleche at Longchamp in June and Maisons-Laffitte's G3 Prix du Bois and G2 the following month saw her typecast as a natural sprinter. When Myboycharlie (Ire) inflicted her sole defeat in Deauville's G1 Prix Morny in August, she did not recoil and looked as determined as ever when making every yard of the running in the Cheveley Park here in October. No winner of that six-furlong contest had gone on to victory in this since Sayyedati (GB) in 1993 and, despite her return win over seven furlongs of the Maisons-Laffitte straight course in the Apr. 14 Listed Prix Imprudence, stamina doubts remained. Casting those aside from the outset, Lemaire was positive and enterprising in grabbing the initiative and crossing gradually to the stands rail to stack up his opponents. Maintaining a relentless cruising speed, Natagora sapped the energy from the immediate chasers before the rearguard arrived on the scene in the final quarter mile. Shaking off the Cheveley Park Stud duo Infalible (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) and then Spacious in the pulsating final climb, she was in the best place as Nahoodh (Ire) (Clodovil {Ire}) ran into a pocket when delivering a potential race-winning move in behind. "They all came to her and she went to the end," her trainer said. "The filly was perfect and the jockey was perfect. We decided to make the running if nothing else wanted to, as she has so much speed and use the rail to help her. The only thing that worried me was whether she would stay, as Newmarket's mile is very difficult but she did win over seven furlongs on very soft ground last time. We were in the same situation [as Nahoodh] five years ago and today we won." Bary will see how the grey comes out of this test before deciding on a target. "She has had a hard race today and I don't want to do something wrong with her, so I will let her decide now. The G1 Coronation S. [at Royal Ascot June 20] could be the best race for her."

The Vanquished...

Connections of Spacious have ruled out a tilt at the Oaks and trainer James Fanshawe said, "She ran very well. Jamie [Spencer] said she just needed a stronger pace. She will not be going up in trip and is not a mile-and-a-half filly. We will just see how she comes out of this before making any plans." Trainer Jim Bolger said of the third-placed Saoirse Abu and fast-finishing sixth Lush Lashes (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), "I am very pleased with both of them. Kevin [Manning] came back and said with another furlong Saoirse Abu might have got there and Kerrin McEvoy said Lush Lashes could have done with further. They just needed a bit more real estate." Of the hard-luck story Nahoodh, jockey Richard Hughes had no doubt what would have happened had he enjoyed a clear run. "I had a great position at half-way, traveling well and just when I was going to move up a place or two about the three-furlong pole she hit a flat spot," he explained. "Then at the two-furlong pole, she came good again. Then I just ran up the ass of the winner. Nine times out of 10, they would have come off the rail when they heard the crowd. I felt I would have won."

Trainer Beau Greeley confirmed yesterday that Tres Borrachos (Ecton Park) would make his next start in the May 17 GI Preakness S. at Pimlico. "He's still at Churchill Downs," said Greeley of the colt, who finished third in the GII Arkansas Derby Apr. 12. "He will work [at Churchill] Wednesday, again the following Tuesday [May 13th] and ship to Baltimore. Tyler Baze will ride."

GRADE 1 KENTUCKY DERBY

Heartbreak in Eight Belles Camp

Trainer Larry Jones's camp endured a roller-coaster weekend, starting out with Proud Spell's victory in the GI Kentucky Oaks Friday followed by a runner-up finish in the Derby by Eight Belles, but very quickly had to face the lowest lows of the game when the latter filly broke down in both front foreshoes and was euthanized on the track. A day after Larry and Cindy Jones were back doing what they do best, tending to their string at Barn 43 at Churchill Downs.

"Everybody meant well," said Jones, regarding the onslaught of media attention that immediately followed the grey's mishap. "I can understand everybody wanting to see what was going on here. The filly had won over a lot of people in the last week, and I think she won a lot of people over with the way she ran in the race." According to Jones, he didn't see anything in the filly's way of moving to indicate that there was a problem. "We have some photographers that we really got to know last year with [Hard Spun, runner-up in last year's Derby], that were on the first turn taking pictures as everybody was galloping out. They say that they have great pictures of her and she's got her ears up and was not in any kind of distress galloping out around the turn. I don't know what happened and when. Just all of a sudden, it just went." Jones said that Eight Belles would be cremated, but he was unsure of owner Rick Porter's plans for the interment of her remains. As for the rest of the string, including Proud Spell, Jones indicated that they would ship back to Jones's homebase of Delaware Park today.

"Your first impulse is to be overprotective of everything you're around, but with them being athletes, you've got to still do the business and do it right," he said. "You've got to get to business as normal again. Are we going to be over jubilant and all? No, it's going to be very depressing for several days around here. But we're going to do the work because we have to, not because it's going to be fun to do."

Onward and Upward...

Denis of Cork (Harlan's Holiday) exited a third-place finish in Saturday's Kentucky Derby in good order, but will take a pass on the Preakness S. May 17, trainer David Carroll indicated yesterday. "He ate up good and his legs were cold [Sunday] morning," he said. "He will skip the Preakness for sure and we are looking at the [GI] Belmont S. [June 7]. We would probably go up for four or five days before the race, whenever we can get a plane." Trainer Barclay Tagg indicated that New York-bred Big Truck (Hook and Ladder), 18th, will likely resurface later in the season on the grass in state-bred competition. Derby sixth Colonel John (Tiznow) will remain in Kentucky for a while before a decision is made as to the colt's next start, while Anak Nakal (Victory Gallop), seventh, is likely to bypass the Pimlico Classic in favor of the 1 1/2-mile Belmont. Todd Pletcher's duo of Cowboy Cal (Giant's Causeway), ninth, and last-place finisher Monba (Maria's Mon) will part ways. The former, who reportedly sustained a small laceration, will get some time off at his owner's Stonerside Farm, while the latter will head to New York. Others looking for a change of venue, 17th-place finisher Gayego (Gilded Time) is scheduled to return to trainer Paulo Lobo's California base today, while Adriano (A.P. Indy) was also set to ship out of Kentucky today, returning to Graham Motion's base at Fair Hill in Maryland. "He is doing well this morning, but his days on the dirt are probably over," said Motion. "If all goes well, we will look at the [July 19] Gil Virginia Derby [at Colonial Downs]."

GALILEO MARE TOPS EASTER BROODMARE OPENER Personify (Aus) (Galileo {Ire}), in foal to Redoute's Choice (Aus), attracted a final bid of A$2 million to top yesterday's opening session of the Inglis Australian Easter Broodmare Sale in Newmarket. The stakes-winning four-year-old mare was consigned by Kulani Park as part of the unreserved reduction of Paulyn Investments and was knocked down to Kieran Moore. Personify, who sold for A$650,000 as an Easter Yearling in 2005, was purchased last year by Paul Makin for A$1,025,000. She is out of the group-winning mare Procrastinate (Aus) (Jade Hunter) and is a half sister to South African champion Laisserfaire (Aus) and to Group 1-placed Foreplay (Aus). Personify was one of four mares to reach seven figures during Sunday's session of the three-day auction, with the Swettenham Stud Unreserved Dispersal Sale providing many of the day's fireworks. The dispersal saw 52 mares sell for a total of A$11,232,500 and an average A$216,000. Darley purchased Group 3 winner Living Spirit (Aus) (Hennessy) from Swettenham for A$1.5 million. The seven-year-old mare is in foal to Nadeem (Aus). Also selling from the dispersal, Larrocha (Aus) (Danehill) fetched a final bid of A$1,375,000 from Tom Magnier. The regally bred Group 1 winner is out of Kensington Gardens (NZ) (Grosvenor {NZ}) and is a full sister to Group 1 winner Blackfriars (Aus), group winner Manton (Aus) and Group 1 placed Lions Gate (Aus). Larrocha is in foal to Encosta de Lago (Aus). "We couldn't have been happier," Swettenham's Adam Sangster said. "The great thing is that we were supported by the people who have supported us over the years and it is a gratifying result to see them going to such great homes. This is something which I think Dad would have been proud of--certainly the family is very proud. It's a little bittersweet, but this is a rebirth for us at Swettenham Victoria as we concentrate on the stallions from now on." Blue Sky Thoroughbreds went to A$1.4 million to bring home G1 AJC Flight S. winner Cheeky Choice (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}), also in foal to Encosta de Lago. The four-year-old is out of Christchurch (Aus) (Caerleon), an unraced half sister to Group 1 placed Danasia (Aus) (Danehill). Inglis sold 206 broodmares yesterday for a total of A$32,763,750 and an average of A$159,047. The median was A$85,000. At the close of business, William Inglis Managing Director Mark Webster proclaimed the first session a success. "We've had four mares break the one-million dollar mark and achieved a new record broodmare average of A$159,000, with a strong clearance of 83.1 percent," Webster said. "We've worked hard to secure high-quality broodmares for this sale and vendors have been rewarded." The sale continues today at 10:30 a.m.

Admire Jupiter overcame a slow start to earn his first Group 1 triumph. The colt was considered a leading contender for the 2006 Japanese Triple Crown races, but a leg fracture sent him to the sidelines for much of that season. He returned to training last summer and was coming off a win in the G2 Hanshin Daishoten in March. Admire Jupiter had been expected to race close to the pace, but after missing the break, the chestnut settled into fourth behind a moderate pace. Turning for home, he moved into contention and outbattled Meisho Samson in the final strides for the victory.

Four times a winner at three, including in Longchamp's G3 Prix de Lutece, one-time "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Getaway did not appear at four until Deauville's G2 Prix Kergorlay, which he annexed in convincing style in August. Subsequently runner-up in the G3 Prix Gladiateur back at Longchamp the following month, the bay was dropped back in trip for that track's feature G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in the absence of the injured Manduro (Ger). His late surge to finish on the heels of the first three in the Fall highlight suggested that he could start to make up in part for the loss of his stable mate and Andre Fabre was charting familiar ground in the race in which he reintroduced Shirocco (Ger) in 2006. Settled in mid-division off moderate early fractions, he loomed alongside Sixties Icon with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and soon dashed clear for an emphatic score. Connections of the winner are looking at two more trips to Britain for Epsom's June 6 G1 Coronation Cup and the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. at Ascot July 26, with the Oct. 5 Arc again the ultimate aim. "I was slightly concerned before today's race, as although he goes well fresh, he is not the easiest horse to work at home," said Fabre. Captain Gerrard's trail-blazing exploits earned him a trio of stakes successes last term in Ascot's G3 Cornwallis S. in October, the Listed Roses S. at York in August and Listed Harry Rosebery S. at Ayr in September. Also third in Goodwood's G3 Molecomb S. in July, the toughened youngster emulated the 2006 scorer Dandy Man (Ire) in besting his elders when upsetting Sakhee's Secret here. Always in front against the stands rail, the bay had to dig deep as the favorite loomed on the uphill climb to the line, but proved equal to the task. "It was the plan to make the running, but I was worried when they were chasing him up as his engine is always revving," trainer Bryan Smart said. "He might be exceptional, so we'll look at the G2 Temple S. [at Haydock May 24] and G1 King's Stand S. [at Royal Ascot June 17]. He's an old-fashioned sprinter who never stopped improving last year and loves the sport." Tough Tiz's Sis, winner of the GII Hollywood BC Oaks over this track and trip last June, was a good third in the nine-furlong GI Gazelle S. at Belmont later in September. A hard-fought nose winner over the classy Hysterical Lady next time out in the GI Lady's Secret S. over Santa Anita's Polytrack Oct. 7, the bay was a well-beaten seventh in the Monmouth slop in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff Oct. 27. Runner-up in her next three starts, including the GII Bayakoa H. Dec. 1 over this track and trip and in the GI Santa Maria H. at Santa Anita Feb. 9, the four-year-old was a 3/4-length winner in her most recent race in the one-mile Harry Hensen H. at Sunland Park Mar. 16. Well backed here, the filly jumped out to an early lead, but allowed Dawn After Dawn (Successful Appeal) to get the jump on the first time. Up to that filly's throat with a half mile left to negotiate, Tough Tiz's Sis took over a sixteenth out and was all out to best Santa Teresita. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Margins: 4, 5, 2. Odds: 2.35, 3.85, 4.75.

Haras Vacacion colorbearer Filarmonia rewarded her backers with a clear-cut four-length victory over arch-rival Arriba Baby to clinch the inaugural Campeonato Palermo de Oro championship series for fillies and mares. With the victory, the gray filly earned her connections an additional 170,000 Argentine pesos to her first prize money winnings. Winner of the G1 Gran Premio Internacional Copa de Plata last December on the turf at San Isidro, Filarmonia redeem her image as Argentina's top distaffer after exiting a third-place finish in the G1 Gran Premio Gilberto Lerena at Palermo on Apr. 5. Saturday's score represented her second Group 1 tally and first on the dirt.

Brazilian-bred Runforthedoe, a nine-length maiden winner over the distance in his latest after an unsuccessful debut, scored a breakthrough victory here and entered his name atop of the two-year-old colt rankings with a magnificent 3/4-length victory over Group 1 winner Bigness Emperor in the Gran Premio Montevideo, reserved for Argentina's top juvenile colts on the dirt. The TNT Stud's homebred closed steadily on the middle of the racetrack to earn a hard-fought victory in the closing meters under Brazilian ace Jorge Ricardo. Runforthedoe became the first Argentine graded winner for his sire.

 NORTH AMERICA

MIXED BAG FOR DERBY A near-record 157,770 packed into Churchill Downs Saturday to see Big Brown romp in the GI Kentucky Derby, spurring modest growth in on-track wagering, but overall handle was down for the 134th running of America's most famous race. It was the second-largest draw in Derby history, trailing only the crowd of 163,628 that witnessed Cannonade II win the centennial Derby in 1974, and marked the seventh time in 10 years that Derby Day attendance topped 150,000. Total wagering from all sources on the Kentucky Derby, which includes on-track and off-track wagers, was $114,557,364, down 3.2 percent from the 2007 all-sources total of $118,317,714. On-track wagering totaled $12,118,527, an increase of 0.3 percent compared to the $12,076,490 wagered on the race in 2007. Off-track wagering on the race was $102,438,837, a decrease of 3.6 percent compared to 2007's $106,241,224. The ongoing dispute between horsemen, tracks and ADW companies limited wagering on some sites, such as TwinSpires.com and Xpressbet.com, to the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic and the Derby, adversely affecting the handle for the entire card, said track officials. "The strength of this year's Kentucky Derby Day racing program was evident in our on-track results with increases in both on-track wagering and attendance," Churchill Downs President Steve Sexton said.

Northern Netti was an instant success while debuting at Woodbine last October, scoring a front-running 4 1/4-length triumph. Sidelined after that effort, the speedy filly chased the pace in her return en route to a half-length triumph at Woodbine Apr. 6. Making her stakes debut and looking to remain unbeaten in her third start, the bay filly rated in second behind pacesetting favorite Dance Gal Dance. She took charge nearing the quarter pole and powered clear to an easy win. "Well, she's undefeated, and she can run," trainer Reade Baker said of the winner. "There was nothing for her at home and we saw this race, and we wanted to win a stakes with her. We are going to come back for the [June 7 GI] Acorn. She's fast, she's impressive, and she deserves a chance." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Four years after a daughter of Cape Cross named Ouija Board (GB) made her first real step towards the dizzy heights in this contest, Saphira's Fire gave that sire another boost with a convincing success. Coming off a maiden score on Wolverhampton's Polytrack Apr. 14, the bay was anchored in rear early before swooping wide to overhaul Don't Forget Faith and Cruel Sea at the furlong marker and drawing away. Connections are looking at Royal Ascot now and will attempt either the June 20 G1 Coronation S. or Listed Sandringham S. two days earlier. "Her dam finished third in the Pretty Polly," conditioner William Muir said. "This filly didn't run as a two-year-old as she just had a few niggling problems. Martin [Dwyer] said she just cocked her ears when she heard the crowd and he just had to give her a couple of smacks to keep her mind on the job."

Labeled a ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ following his smooth success in a conditions event at this track in October 2006, major plans went awry when he trailed in a distant fifth in the G2 Dante S. at York last May. Kept to handicap company without success thereafter, the bay returned gelded this term and looked a different proposition when fourth behind Lang Shining (Ire) in Newbury's Spring Cup Apr. 19. Settled at the fore of the peleton tracking the leading quartet throughout the early stages, he rallied to inhale the long-time leader Oceana Gold in the final 50 yards for a hard-earned success. "We probably made an error last year going for a Derby prep and we were struggling then," trainer Roger Charlton said. "I don't know whether the gelding has helped or not, as he's a genuine horse and things went wrong for him last year. He's done well to win over nine furlongs, as he'll stay further. He'll stay in valuable handicaps now and I'd imagine we'll prepare him for something at Royal Ascot."

Reeling in Ougba (GB) (Red Ransom) with 100 yards remaining, the homebred asserted to score by a half length. Trainer Marcus Tregoning has Royal Ascot in mind now. "Although he's shown plenty of pace at home, I haven't done an awful lot with him so I was particularly pleased he wasn't too green as much as anything else," he said. "We didn't overdo it--if anything he was under done--and he should hopefully come on a bit more. Eventually, with maybe one more run he might be good enough to go to Royal Ascot." Chinese White earned the ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ accolade with an impressive debut score at Leopardstown in her sole juvenile start last September and posted another wide-margin success in this seasonal return to book her ticket for the Classics route. Positioned in fifth after the opening exchanges, she made smooth headway to lead at the quarter-mile marker and was urged clear from there for a comfortable first stakes success. "I was pretty confident beforehand, although she's been slow coming of her coat and it's only in the last week, when we got a bit of sun, that she's begun to come forward," explained trainer Dermot Weld. "Her last piece of work showed me she was forward enough to run today and, hopefully, there will be a lot of improvement in her. She was a little bit green when she hit the front in the center of the track whereas she had the rail [to help] when she won easily at Leopardstown. She will learn a lot from today and I'd be confident she'll get a mile and a half." Weld also indicated an ambitious campaign lies ahead for the grey sophomore and added, "The logical race would be the [July 13 G1] Irish Oaks, but I'll speak with [owners] Sir Anthony and Lady O'Reilly and we'll see how she comes out of the race and then we'll make a decision. She is in the [June 6 G1] Epsom Oaks, she's in Group 1 races in France [the May 18 Prix Saint-Alary and June 8 Prix de Diane], but I wouldn't rule out Epsom." Click for the Racing Post chart.

Duellant was a first-up seventh at Baden-Baden last October and continued on the upgrade following a last-out win at Cologne Mar. 24 to claim a career high in this German Derby trial. Positioned in a staking second for the most part, he was pushed along at the top of the 500-meter straight and came under a final-furlong drive to hold the late rally of the aptly named Little Fighter.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners.
