JOCKEY CLUB FORMS SAFETY COMMITTEE

The Jockey Club Chairman Ogden Mills Phipps Thursday announced the formation of a seven-member committee to study every aspect of equine health. The issues to be reviewed by the committee include breeding practices, medication and track surfaces. The committee will be comprised of Chairman Stuart Janney III, John Barr, Jimmy Bell, Dr. Larry Bramlage, Donald Disney, Dell Hancock and Dr. Hiram Polk Jr. "All seven of these individuals have dedicated a major part of their lives to Thoroughbred breeding and racing and have shown a consistent and unwavering concern for the welfare of Thoroughbreds," Phipps said in a press release. "We will reach out to involve others in the industry and we will do everything in our power to encourage changes that will benefit the breed in any way. We will do this in a timely manner." Three of the seven members of the panel participated in the two Welfare and Safety of the Racehorse Summits, and the recommendations resulting from the Summits will be the basis of the work done by The Jockey Club committee. The Summits, underwritten by The Jockey Club and Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation, were held in October 2006 and March 2008. A strategic plan drawn up after the first summit and a summary of recommendations emanating from the second are available at www.grayson-jockeyclub.org/summit. Responding to Thursday's announcement, NTRA President Alex Waldrop said, "The Thoroughbred Safety Committee is a major step that will provide the examination of the horse welfare and safety issues so badly needed in the wake of recent catastrophic injuries. The NTRA supports the committee's work and plans to work closely with it to build support for the committee's recommendations with the many constituencies we represent. At the same time, we will redouble our efforts to promote Thoroughbred racing to core and target fans as the safe, responsible sport that it is. Now more than ever, no practice, policy or tradition is more important than those that best protect and promote the health of the Thoroughbred athlete."

THE TDN QUESTION OF THE MONTH FOR MAY IS:

What are some positive steps racing should take in the wake of the Eight Belles tragedy, both for the safety of the horses and in light of the mounting public criticism of the sport?

WHAT THE DOCTOR ORDERED

Chester's tight ever-turning circuit lends itself to tactical dilemmas, but Ryan Moore had the timing honed to perfection when steering Doctor Fremantle (GB) (Sadler's Wells) to a half-length success in yesterday's G3 Chester Vase. Heavily supported into 11-8 favoritism off the back of a smart performance when second in a competitive Newmarket handicap, Khalid Abdullah's homebred needed the gaps in the short run-in but they appeared in time to overhaul All the Aces (Ire) (Spartacus {Ire}) and provide Sir Michael Stoute with a third renewal. "I missed the break, but he traveled well the whole way and as soon as I got the split I was always going to win," his rider commented. Doctor Fremantle met with defeat on his first two starts at Leicester in August and Salisbury in early October, on the latter occasion at odds of 1-3 on, but made amends with a five-length score at Nottingham later that month. Only a neck separated him and Bronze Cannon in a red-hot 10-furlong contest at the Craven meeting on his sophomore bow Apr. 17, where the duo spreadeagled a list of mainly unexposed types. Cont. p2

Championship Point took his third stakes contest at the chief expense of Heaven Sent (GB) in the Listed Wolferton H. at Royal Ascot in June, and after a brief spell in the wilderness, beat Spice Route in a conditions event at Ripon Apr. 17. Fourth behind Ask (GB) in the G3 Gordon Richards S. at Sandown eight days later, he benefitted from positive tactics to record a career-best here. Sent straight to the lead by Darryll Holland, where he was shadowed by Maraahel, he looked booked for the silver medal as that rival swooped at the eighth pole, but fought back in the final 50 yards to deny the Shadwell stalwart a fourth consecutive edition of this prize. "He really stuck his head out today and he was game as Maraahel is no mug," his rider commented. Click for the Racing Post chart.

Confidence Grows in Big Brown Camp...

Immediately following his tour de force in the GI Kentucky Derby, trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. seemed less than certain that Big Brown (Boundary) could repeat that performance in the May 17 GI Preakness S. But, after seeing how the colt came out of his Derby victory, Dutrow is no longer hedging his bets. "This is the best he has come out of a race since I've had him," the conditioner said during a press conference yesterday. "In his other two races, he ran down a little bit in front, but he didn't this time. He is eating up everything to this point and he looks as happy as he can be. Seeing the way he has come out of the Derby, I feel good about him." As for the competition Big Brown will face in the second leg of the Triple Crown, Dutrow remarked, "I'm feeling that we have the best horse, the fastest horse in the race. It's not coming up a stellar field--anyone can see that, especially me. The only horse I could have any respect for coming into the Preakness is Harlem Rocker (Macho Uno). He is three-for-three; there is a little buzz about him. But that's as far as it goes. If Brown gets over the two-week thing, and runs the way he has been running, he's going to be tough to beat. Judging by what I've seen, I don't see him falling off his game."

P.S.U Grad, a $375,000 Barretts May juvenile purchase, returned to Fairplex Sept. 15 to take the Barretts Debutante S., restricted to graduates of that sale. A well-beaten 10th when moved to a synthetic surface for the GI Oak Leaf S. Sept. 29, the dark bay was an improved fourth when placed on the grass--against optional claiming foes--in her 2008 bow at Santa Anita Jan. 18. Going a mile on Bay Meadow's main track Feb. 9, she came out one length on top in a $32,000 optional claimer before finishing a good second most recently in the six-panel GIII Santa Paula S. Mar. 20. Lovely Isle, beaten only a length in the one-mile GI Las Virgenes S. Feb. 9, tired to seventh after setting the early pace going a sixteenth further in the GI Santa Anita Oaks Mar. 8. The filly faded to fifth last time out in the Santa Paula S.

Equipment Change for Recapturetheglory...

Looking to avoid the problems encountered by fifth-place finisher Recapturetheglory (Cherokee Run) in the paddock before the GI Kentucky Derby, trainer Louie Roussel said yesterday that the three-year-old will have cotton stuffed in his ears and be sporting ear plugs at Pimlico. Recapturetheglory was unnerved by the crowd at Churchill. He had a handler on either side as he headed to the paddock to be saddled, but was barely in control as he came through the tunnel. "I was in shock," Roussel said. "I thought at any moment they might have to scratch him. He was completely out of it. I don't know what happened, if it was the crowd noise, but he just wasn't sane that day." The dark bay then threw jockey Eddie Baird as he was heading back through the tunnel on his way to the track. Roussel gave Baird credit for getting back on board after getting tossed. "It looked like he got the wind knocked out of him. He was on his back and his goggles were scattered everywhere. But he took a minute to get his breath back, then he got back on and rode a great race." Looking ahead to the Preakness, the New Orleans native added, "We'll do a couple of things differently. He has had cotton in his ears when he has been galloping at Churchill, and he'll have the cotton and the ear plugs on Preakness Day. They will pull them out at the starting gate. We also saddle in the infield--he won't have to go through a tunnel--which should help. I don't know how many lengths he lost by running half his race in the paddock, but I have to give him another chance to prove himself." Recapturetheglory heads to Maryland Saturday.

Macho Again Possible for Preakness...

West Point Thoroughbred's Macho Again (Macho Uno), winner of the Derby Trial Apr. 26, may make his next appearance in the GI Preakness S. May 17. "They want to keep our options open for the Preakness," said West Point representative Jeff Lifson. The colt, who galloped a mile and a half over a muddy track before the mid-morning renovation break at Churchill Downs yesterday, is also being considered for the May 31 GII Ohio Derby and the June 7 GII Woody Stephens S.

Won in recent years by subsequent G1 Epsom Derby heroes Oath (Ire) and Kris Kin, this has become a significant pointer to the blue riband and has attracted an unusually large field this time. Godolphin's Alexandros has not been seen since finishing third in Deauville's G1 Prix Morny in August. He had previously won the Listed Prix Roland de Chambure at Longchamp and G3 Prix de Cabourg back at the Normandy venue in July and Saeed bin Suroor is hopeful that he can book his ticket to the June 7 feature. "Alexandros is doing well and I am happy with his preparation," he said. "He is fit and healthy. It will be a tough race to win, but we are looking forward to a good performance from our colt on his first start this year." Aidan O'Brien saddles Achill Island, runner-up in last fall's G2 Royal Lodge S. at Ascot and Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf at Monmouth. He was sixth in the Apr. 13 G3 Prix la Force on his sophomore bow at Longchamp. "He got tired in very bad ground in France and we think he has come on a good bit for that," O'Brien said.

Peruvian star Tomcito, who finished third behind Big Brown in the GI Florida Derby Mar. 29 before a sixth in the GII Lexington S. Apr. 19, failed to make the Kentucky Derby field after falling short in graded stakes earnings. According to trainer Dante Zanelli Jr., the colt, who will bypass the GI Preakness S. next weekend because of the tight turns at the Baltimore oval, will use this race as a stepping stone to the GI Belmont S. June 7. "The bigger the track, the better," said Zanelli. "We are hoping to have a good showing [Saturday] and that will set us up for the Belmont. That's the goal."

El Gato Malo, fifth in the GI Santa Anita Derby Apr. 5, will sport blinkers for the first time Saturday. "He's been training in blinkers since the Santa Anita Derby, and he's been working well," said Craig Dollase. "He'll be making his first start over a dirt surface Saturday, but we're optimistic that he'll be up to the challenge."

With three straight Group 1 wins under his belt this campaign, Apache Cat has a stranglehold on betting here as the odds-on favourite. The five-year-old gelding won the G1 Lightning S. first-up at Flemington Feb. 2, then added the G1 Australia S. to his tally at Moonee Valley Feb. 16. He was then kept fresh ahead of his dominant 2 3/4-length win in the G1 TJ Smith S. at Randwick April 26. Trainer Greg Eurell noted that Apache Cat has not lost a race shorter than 1400 meters since he finished third in the Listed Aurie's Star (1200 meters) at Flemington in August 2006. Jockey Corey Brown, who has partnered the white-faced assassin in his last three outings, said Apache Cat's BTC Cup barrier draw was ideal. "He'll be able to do the same thing he did the other day [in the TJ Smith], position himself and pounce when he has to," Brown said. "He should get the absolute perfect run of the race."

☆ CLASSIC CORNER ☆

OVER READY Connections of Twice Over (GB) (Observatory) yesterday issued an upbeat bulletin ahead of the unbeaten colt's outing in Thursday's G2 Dante S. at York. Khalid Abdullah's homebred sidestepped the G1 2000 Guineas following his victory over Raven's Pass in the G3 Craven S. at Newmarket Apr. 17 and will prep for the June 7 G1 Epsom Derby in the extended 10-furlong trial. "He is in good form and worked yesterday morning on the Limekilns gallop," Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe commented. "[Trainer] Henry [Cecil] seemed pleased, as did [jockey] Ted Durcan and he is in good nick. Missing a Classic is always a nervous thing, but the main idea was to give him the correct run at the Epsom Derby and the Dante is the best trial, so at the moment we are happy with that decision."

☆ Watch Out for "TDN Rising Stars" ☆
 Stars of tomorrow grabbing the spotlight today...

Warrd and Boy Added to Poulains Field...

Godolphin's new acquisition Il Warrd (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) and the Calvera Partnership's Paco Boy (Ire) (Desert Style {Ire}) were yesterday supplemented for Sunday's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp. Connections paid €24,000 each to add the duo. Il Warrd boasts a 4 1/2-length success in the Apr. 12 Listed Easter S. at Kempton when trained by Marcus Tregoning, while Paco Boy scored a success for the Richard Hannon stable in Newbury's G3 Greenham S. Apr. 19. Their presence brought the total declarations to 20, headed by Il Warrd's stable companion Rio de la Plata (Rahy), who will be ridden by Frankie Dettori. Martin Dwyer will ride Il Warrd. Godolphin's Racing Manager Simon Crisford reports that Rio de la Plata, the reigning G1 Jean-Luc Lagardere winner, is ready for the one-mile Classic. "It was always the plan to go for this race as he liked the track last year," he said. "It seemed to suit him very well and he has had a good winter."

Tamayuz Gets Green Light...

Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's unbeaten Tamayuz (GB) (Nayef) will line up in Sunday's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp, trainer Freddy Head confirmed yesterday. Successful in the Apr. 13 G3 Prix de Fontainebleau over course and distance, the homebred pleased his trainer in a recent workout. "I am delighted with him at the moment and he worked very nicely on Tuesday," he said. "He is well within himself and all we have to do is wait and cross our fingers." Another to book his ticket on Tuesday was Sean Mulryan's G1 Criterium International hero The way you are (Kingmambo), who will be making his seasonal debut for the Andre Fabre stable. "He did a very good piece of work on Tuesday and everything seems in good order, so he has the green light to go," the owner's Racing Manager Herve Barjot commented.

Pasquier Favoring Look...

Stephane Pasquier looks set to partner the David Smaga-trained Modern Look (GB) (Zamindar) in Sunday's G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches (French 1000 Guineas) at Longchamp. While Khalid Abdullah is also represented by last year's G1 Prix Marcel Bousnac runner-up Conference Call (GB) (Anabaa) in the Classic, the owner-breeder's retained rider is almost certain to ride last year's G3 Prix Miesque winner, who was runner-up to Natagora (Fr) in the Apr. 14 Listed Prix Imprudence at Maisons-Laffitte. "She was running on over seven furlongs last time and has worked well and come on since," Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe said yesterday. "At the moment, Stephane is leaning towards her, but if she is drawn 16 of 16, he might think again."

☆ LETTERS TO THE EDITOR ☆

Unequivocally, the death of Eight Belles in Saturday's Kentucky Derby is one of the saddest tragedies that our sport has ever endured. The tragedy lies in the loss of a truly brilliant filly who gave everything she had to her very last moments. It also lies in the overwhelming devastation felt by the owner, trainer and jockey team who deserve our deepest sympathies right now, and in the deep sadness felt by every compassionate person who witnessed Eight Belles untimely death.

Immediately following this tragic loss, the group People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals (PETA) was quick to point the blame in the direction of the filly's connections, calling for the withholding of purse money and sanctions against the filly's owner, trainer and jockey. Let me say right now, as clearly as I can, PETA is absolutely wrong to present these baseless and unjust allegations against Rick Porter, Larry Jones and Gabriel Saez. These claims are slanderous, wholly unsubstantiated and indicate a blatant disregard for the truth. To say that a filly that draws away from 18 of the best three-year-old colts in the country before galloping out with her ears pricked was "doubtlessly injured before the finish" demonstrates the disturbing matter-of-fact tone used to mask their ignorance of the subject.

Despite these unfounded statements, it is vitally important that we, as a sport, don't cover our ears to all the criticisms directed towards horseracing in the wake of the Eight Belles tragedy. This is not a time to make this an "us" versus "them" affair. Our sport continues to suffer from a public image standpoint and it is important that we recognize this fact. The view that horseracing is primarily an elitist and even savage game driven by money and ego is completely inaccurate, but nevertheless, it is not uncommon among some on the outside of our sport. We must, through education, dialogue and a continued insistence on progress, help ourselves to factually dispel the myths that our critics perpetuate. In the last few years, the Thoroughbred industry has taken some very important steps in furthering the safety of our horses and the integrity of our sport. While the use of synthetic tracks is still in its infant and fact-gathering stages, their adoption demonstrates a very active pursuit of a safer environment for our horses. Recently, sales companies and racetracks have begun more fervent drug-testing and are beginning to implement stronger punishments for violators. While this represents progress, our testing methods must be improved and a violation must carry a punishment severe enough to truly discourage those who try to play outside the rules.

Also, our continued commitment to the safety and happiness of the horse is demonstrated in the proliferation of Thoroughbred retirement farms in which horses continue to be cared for after their racing days have ended. These are the points of progress that we must promote, but by absolutely no means can we rest on our laurels. As each of us should know, we have a long way to go if we are to mend the public relations void between our industry and the general public. Change can come, but it will only come as a result of a united effort. Horse racing continues to be a factional endeavor, and without a true, central governing body to regulate our sport and implement new regulations, we will only continue our baby-step approach towards progress. Racing must have a National Governing Body That Oversees the Enforcement of Standard Rules in Every State (and I don't mean the Federal Government).

As we all know, jumping atop a soapbox and preaching the gospel of progress is very different from getting our hands dirty and implementing true change. Now, during this unprecedented period of bad publicity, the horse industry must unite to bring about the changes that will help ensure the vitality of our great sport.

FRANKEL TEAM ARRIVES IN NEW YORK Multiple Grade I winner Precious Kitten (Catienus), along with over 30 horses from the Bobby Frankel barn, arrived at Belmont Park in New York earlier this week. Frankel told the Daily Racing Form that the winner of the GI Matriarch S. and GI John C Mabee H. will be nominated to the GI Just a Game S. June 7, but may also reappear in the GI Gamely BC H. at Hollywood May 26. Frankel also indicated that MGSW Costume (GB) (Danehill) and Ventura (Chester House), recent winner of the GII Madison S. at Keeneland, are also being pointed toward those races. GI Breeders' Cup Distaff heroine Ginger Punch (Awesome Again) will make her next start in the GI Ogden Phipps June 14, while SW and GISP First Defence (Unbridled's Song) is being pointed toward the GI Metropolitan H. May 26. GISW Country Star (Empire Maker), who finished sixth in the GI Kentucky Oaks May 3, is still in Kentucky and Frankel is awaiting results of a nuclear scan taken on the filly at the Hagyard Davidson and McGee clinic. "She was trying to get out," Frankel told DRF. I can't find anything wrong with her. Something's got to be bugging her. That's the second race in a row that she was trying to get out." The attractive filly finished fifth in her previous race in the GI Ashland S. Apr. 5.

THE LASTING INFLUENCE OF DANZIG

Unbeaten Kentucky Derby-winning sensation Big Brown is yet another Derby winner from the sire-line founded by the great Danzig.

Danzig's influence was felt on Kentucky Oaks Day as well when his maternal great granddaughter Proud Spell won the Oaks in convincing fashion.

Talk About an Opportunity...

Winner of the one mile Gotham Stakes (G3) at Aqueduct.

Ran second in the $750,000 Grade 1 Wood Memorial.

Broke his maiden in spectacular fashion at Belmont as a Two-Year-Old, winning by 8 1/2 lengths.

First or Second in 10 of 15 career starts.

NYRA, MID-ATLANTIC SIGN SIMULCASTING

AGREEMENT The New York Racing Association and the Mid-Atlantic Cooperative signed an agreement yesterday, which will allow NYRA simulcasts to return to 16 East Coast tracks. The agreement will go into effect today, just in time for opening day at Monmouth Park in Oceanport, New Jersey. The two factions have been locked in negotiations since Belmont Park kicked off its 2008 season Apr. 30. "NYRA is very pleased to have this agreement in place with such a major simulcast partner," said Hal Handel, NYRA Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. "We are glad to bring our races back to the fans at Mid-Atlantic tracks, and I'm sure the fans will be happy to have NYRA races back, especially as we head into the heart of the New York racing season." Mid-Atlantic Cooperative consists of Meadowlands, Monmouth Park, Freehold Raceway, Atlantic City Race Course, Philadelphia Park, Penn National Race Course, Mohegan Sun at Pocono Downs, Charles Town, Delaware Park, Dover Downs, Harrington Raceway, Ocean Downs, Rosecroft Raceway, Colonial Downs and Suffolk Downs. The two groups had previously signed an agreement, allowing the Mid-Atlantic tracks to simulcast the GI Belmont S. June 7.

CLARIFICATION: Caroline and Rob Webster have purchased the 55-acre section of Martin Stables South devoted to the training center, not the entire property. Eddie Martin, owner of Martin Stables South, will retain 285 acres of the Reddick, Florida, farm and continue his breeding operation. "Martin Stables South has invested heavily in the Florida Thoroughbred breeding industry through the acquisition of our five stallions and our 64-member broodmare band," Martin explained. "We intend to be a significant participant in the Florida stallion and breeding business for a very long time. One-hundred percent of Martin Stables Thoroughbred holdings will be based at our Reddick, Florida operation...our racing Quarter Horse interest will be developed in Louisiana and Indiana, and this sale gives us capital to facilitate this development." My Princess Jess began her career with narrow runner-up losses over the turf at Aqueduct Nov. 17 and at Gulfstream Jan. 6, but graduated third-time out at Hallandale Feb. 23. In her first start against winners, the dark bay filly was second in an Apr. 11 Gulfstream allowance. Forced to check early, My Princess Jess ran a ground-saving fourth, waited for racing room on the turn and angled to the outside for the drive to take over at midstretch and draw clear to the wire. Favored Namaste's Wish was last in the early going after a tardy beginning, but circled the field six wide into the stretch and closed well for second. I Lost My Choo (Western Expression) and Sherine (Precise End) were scratched.

Brad Martin Dismissed from Buckram Oak Suit:

Brad Martin has been dismissed from a Kentucky lawsuit involving the sale of Buckram Oak Farm in Lexington to Jess Jackson's Stonestreet Farm in 2005. Martin's attorney Michael Meuser confirmed his client was voluntarily dismissed from the suit on Apr. 24 and that Martin had paid nothing in exchange for the dismissal.

Eastern Tent Caterpillar Population Up Sharply:

Eastern tent caterpillars, which have been linked to the devastating outbreak of Mare Reproductive Loss Syndrome (MRLS) in 2001, are now wandering and experts warn that the population of the insects are at their highest levels since. "The eastern tent caterpillar populations are dramatically up this year--the highest I've seen since the MRLS crisis," said Dan Potter, University of Kentucky College of Agriculture professor of entomology. "The larvae are full size, many trees are totally defoliated and I've seen very large numbers of caterpillars moving along fence rails and wandering out many meters into pastures adjacent to the cherry trees we are using to conduct eastern tent caterpillar trials. Maturation and wandering of eastern tent caterpillars is occurring a bit late this year due to the cooler spring," he added. While there have been no reported cases of MRLS, Neil Williams, the University of Kentucky's Livestock Disease Diagnostic Center associate director and pathology section chief, said that it is prudent for equine professionals to remain vigilant. Entomologists at the University of Kentucky advise farm managers to keep pregnant mares out of pastures bordered by cherry trees or other hosts for the next few weeks. During the 2001 outbreak, an estimated 30 percent of the Thoroughbred foal crop was lost at an economic cost of $336 million due to losses in all breeds of horses.

Farm Bill Contains Tax Provision for Horse Owners:

House and Senate Conferees for the 2007 Farm Bill approved a final version of the bill yesterday, which includes legislative language to amend the depreciation schedule for racehorses. The final version of the Farm Bill is expected to pass both houses and be sent to the President for approval. Under current tax law, racehorses are depreciated over either three or seven years, depending on their age when it begins training. Legislation contained in the 2007 Farm Bill allows an owner to recover his/her costs over the period of time that the horse is likely to race. "This provision will provide enormous economic incentives to the horse racing and breeding industry and also bring more fairness to the tax treatment of one of the most important assets in our industry: the racehorse," said NTRA President and CEO Alex Waldrop. "A simplified, uniform depreciation schedule for racehorses will help keep buyers in the market for racing bloodstock and improve the overall economics of horse racing and breeding. The NTRA and the whole horse industry owe a significant 'thank you' to Kentucky's senior Senator Mitch McConnell for his steadfast leadership on this important issue, which is critical to Kentucky's signature agribusiness. We also thank Senator Blanche Lincoln (D-AR), Rep. Dennis Cardoza (D-CA) and other Members of Congress who supported this legislation."

LUNE ROSE (GB) (f, 3, High Chaparral {Ire})--Lunassa {Fr}, by Groom Dancer, a 19-2 chance, garnered minor prizemoney on debut at Fontainebleau Nov. 13 and took a tight hold in fifth for most of this return. Improving one place into fourth rounding the home turn, the €150,000 DEAAUG yearling pounced for the lead at the distance and powered clear from there to register an easy 3 1/2-length success from Shake the Moon (Ger) (Loup Solitaire). RUNAWAY (GB) (h, 6, King's Best--Anasazi {Ire}, by Sadler's Wells), a last-out fourth in the Mar. 30 G3 Prix Edmond Blanc at Saint-Cloud, took control after swinging wide off the first turn in this. Coming under pressure when tackled by Al Ken (Fr) (Kendor {Fr}) approaching the final quarter mile, the 2-1 chance was headed by that rival at the eighth pole, but rallied bravely under a drive to reassert for a short-neck win. The winner was purchased from the Juddmonte operation for 110,000gns at last year's Tattersalls July Sale. Lifetime Record: MSW & MGSP-Fr, 17 starts, 4 wins, 8 places, €165,950.

HUZZAH (IRE) (c, 3, Acclamation {GB}--Borders Belle {Ire} {SP-Eng}, by Pursuit of Love {GB}), successful in a competitive Newbury handicap on his latest start Apr. 18, was sent off at 15-2 and tracked the strong pace in a wide fourth early. Taking over with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, the 32,000gns TATDEC weanling and 36,000gns DONSEP yearling had to grit it out as Fervent Prince (GB) (Averti {Ire}) emerged late on, but was game and prevailed by a short head. "He is sure to get further and is the sort of horse who wants it and tries hard," trainer Barry Hills commented. "Something like the Cambridgeshire H. MARMALADE HAS GOLD TARGET

Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's G1 Prix Ganay winner Duke of Marmalade (Ire) (Danehill) will head to The Curragh for the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup at The Curragh May 25. Trainer Aidan O'Brien confirmed the Apr. 27 Longchamp scorer on course for the 1 5/16-mile contest. "He won nicely and the race doesn't seem to have taken anything out of him," he told Attheraces. "We are very happy with him and are hoping to come to the Curragh for the Tattersalls with him." The Ballydoyle conditioner also reported Magnier and Diane Nagle's Yeats (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) on course to attempt to win the June 19 G1 Ascot Gold Cup for the third consecutive year, with last year's G1 St Leger runner-up and G1 Melbourne Cup third Mahler (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) set to reappear in the Listed Saval Beg S. at Leopardstown May 28. Last year's G1 Fillies' Mile winner Listen (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) is also back in work following a setback that ruled her out of the G1 1000 Guineas. "She's just started back in slow exercise," he said. "It was only a small problem and we are hoping to have her back for the second half of the season."

DUBAI QUARTET ARRIVES FOR BIG RACES

A plane carrying four contenders for next weekend's Group 1 fixtures at Kranji Racecourse touched down Thursday afternoon at Singapore's Changi Airport following an eight-hour flight from Dubai. On board were a pair of runners from the stable of trainer Herman Brown, the most prominent of which was Jay Peg (SAf) (Camden Park), the recent winner of the G1 Dubai

Jay Peg turfclub.com.sg

Duty Free S. at Nad al Sheba Mar. 29. The five-year-old, a dual Group 1 winner in his native country, showed progressive form in Dubai, finishing third in a Feb. 22 handicap and runner-up in the G2 Jebel Hatta S. Mar. 6 prior to his Duty Free success. The form of that event has already been franked by third-place finisher Archipenko's victory in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup in Hong Kong Apr. 27. Jay Peg is being aimed for the S$3-million G1 Singapore Airlines International Cup May 18 and will be joined in the field by stablemate Mourilyan (Ire) (Desert Prince {Ire}), most recently eighth in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic.

Also on the plane were two Dubai-based hopefuls for the S$1-million G1 KrisFlyer International Sprint. Star Crowned (Kingmambo) comes into the six-furlong test off a highly creditable third to Benny the Bull in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen Mar. 29, while Salaam Dubai (Aus) (Secret Savings), third in the 2007 running of the Golden Shaheen, was last seen running fifth in the G3 Mahab al Shimaal Mar. 6. The KrisFlyer is also expected to attract top Australian sprinters Takeover Target (Aus) (Celtic Swing {GB}) and Magnus (Aus) (Flying Spur {Aus}).
