CASINO DRIVE EARNS BELMONT SLOT

The legend of Better Than Honour grew further Saturday at Belmont Park when her son Casino Drive (Mineshaft), a 3/4-brother to reigning GI Belmont S. heroine Rags to Riches and a half to 2006 winner Jazil,

Casino Drive Adam Coglianese earned his way into the final leg of this year's Triple Crown with a surprisingly easy victory in the GII Peter Pan S. The handsome chestnut colt had but one trip to the races to his credit, an 11 1/2-length score in a maiden race at Kyoto Racecourse Feb. 23. He belied his inexperience in a big way yesterday. "He had so much to overcome: only one race, more than a two-month layoff, long trip and quarantine," said Nobutaka Tada on behalf of owner Hidetoshi Yamamoto. "Now, we have four weeks to go to the Belmont and he has four weeks to improve." Cont. p2

CARNIVAL TIME AT LONGCHAMP?

Godolphin's European campaign has yet to take off and although it is early days, the operation will be hoping that Rio de la Plata (Rahy) can prove the launch pad in today's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2000 Guineas) at Longchamp. "He's developed physically and we are very pleased with him," commented Racing Manager Simon Crisford on the chestnut, who will have only three outside him when he breaks from the 16 hole. "He's a very solid and honest horse who tries his best. He has a great turn of foot and has done well over the winter. We are expecting a good run, but he has a poor draw." French 2000 Guineas cont. p8-9

RECAPTURE THE GLORY OUT OF PREAKNESS

Recapture the glory (Cherokee Run), the GII Illinois Derby winner who was most recently fifth in the GI Kentucky Derby, will miss the chance to rematch with Big Brown after being declared out of Saturday's GI Preakness S. at Pimlico. The colt, owned in partnership by Louie Roussel III and Ronnie Lamarque, spiked a bit of a fever Saturday morning and blood was drawn. Lamarque made it official at 2 p.m., advising Pimlico officials of his decision. "The racehorse comes first," he commented. "He had a slight temperature plus a slight pulse in his right front toe. For the betterment of racing we are electing to give this horse some time and let him regroup. We are really going to miss the Preakness experience. We felt we had a live chance to turn the tables on Big Brown." Preakness News cont. p15

All In the Family...

Three months removed from his half-brother's win in the 1 1/2-mile Classic, Casino Drive was hammered down for $950,000 to the bid of Tada at the Keeneland September sale. Still, despite that lofty pricetag and the further racetrack accomplishments of Rags to Riches, it's a long way from the final Saturday of February in the Land of the Rising Sun to the first Saturday of June in the Big Apple, but that's exactly what was on the line. Slow into stride from the inside barrier, Casino Drive gained ground rapidly and settled in fourth as Mint Lane

Casino Drive (center) makes his move Adam Coglianesse

(Maria's Mon) took the field through swift fractions of :23.08 for the quarter and :46.31 for the half. He continued to hug the fence on the turn, then professionally knifed through an opening between the pacesetter and GII Illinois Derby runner-up Golden Spikes (Seeking the Gold) in upper stretch. He switched leads on cue and drew clear through the final stages, despite wanting to drift in just a bit. Jockey Kent Desormeaux, who in all likelihood will ride a different horse in the Belmont, is a believer. "Yeah, he can run a lot," he stated. "It's going to be fun. He's a phenomenal talent, and we've got our hands full with this one. It's going to be ultimately exciting for all of the fans. He's got that stride." Indizguys Stable and trainer Mike Mitchell for $40,000 in November of 2006, the gelding was soon moved up to the optional claiming ranks, winning two straight going long over the Santa Anita turf early in 2007. Rallying to be third, the English-bred was moved up to second via disqualification in the GII San Luis Obispo H. 13 months ago, before reeling off two straight in graded-stakes company that spring. Victorious in Santa Anita's GII San Juan Capistrano H. in April, the dark bay added a win in this race last May. Given a breather after that effort, the attractive gelding returned with a third in this term's San Luis Obispo Feb. 23, but failed to fire and finished sixth in the 1 1/2-mile GII San Luis Rey H. Mar. 22. He was fourth most recently in the San Juan Capistrano Apr. 20 and was let go at 9-1 while trying to defend his title here. Content to stalk the early pace in fourth through early splits of :24.69, :48.02, 1:12.49 and 1:37.32 for a mile, On The Acorn closed in on favored Champs Elysees (GB) turning for home, hooked up with that rival midstretch and battled late to inch by that foe in the final strides. "This horse has been training great ever since we turned him out," said trainer Mike Mitchell. "I thought the first race back was a super [third in the San Luis Obispo], and I thought it set it up for the next two races. I was scratching my head after the second race, because he just ran so bad. The last time in the San Juan Capistrano, I just thought he was up too close for him. This was just a perfect trip." Lucky Island broke his maiden in a six-furlong event over the turf at San Isidro in Argentina last June 17 before being acquired privately by Sheikh Hamdan's operation. Last of seven after a stumble at the break of a Calder optional claimer Dec. 29, the dark bay added Lasix and posted a big speed figure in taking a Gulfstream allowance Feb. 15 and was most recently an impressive allowance winner on the Wood Memorial undercard at Aqueduct Apr. 5. Settled in midpack along the rails, Lucky Island was forced to steady in behind rivals at the half-mile, but traveled supremely well to the quarter pole. Guided outside pacesetter Man of Danger at the head of the stretch, he overtook that rival at the furlong grounds and drove clear. "The first time we ran him, he bled," said winning trainer Kiaran McLaughlin. "Now, he is three-for-three for us on Lasix. This was a big step up from a 'two-other-than.' He proved he belonged. He looked great in there. By the fall, we could stretch him out. We'll keep him sprinting for now." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Street Boss won his maiden at first asking at Del Mar Sept. 2 before finishing runner-up to subsequent GISW Johnny Eves in a Santa Anita allowance Sept. 26. Unplaced in two subsequent tries, the chestnut made a successful four-year-old debut in a Santa Anita allowance Jan. 17, then was beaten a neck in Arcadia Feb. 13. He bounced back with an easy score Mar. 6, made it two straight Apr. 14 and was favored here in his graded-stakes debut. Shuffled back to last after clipping heels on the backstretch, Street Boss commenced his rally on the turn. His momentum carried him a bit wide into the stretch, but he took aim on pacesetting Sailors Sunset under a full head of steam and rolled by that rival with nary a crack of David Flores's whip. "He clipped heels at the start," Flores explained. "It was like he got mad after that happened. I could feel it in the middle of the turn, I had so much horse. I was just waiting for room. When he got clear at the top of the stretch he just blew away from them."

Fourth in her U.S. debut in this track's GIII Miesque S. Nov. 24, Sweeter Still graduated down the hill at Santa Anita Jan. 18 before tacking on a one-length success in the Mar. 1 China Doll S. in Arcadia. The dark bay held the lead at the stretch call of the GII Providencia S. on the Santa Anita Derby undercard Apr. 5, but was outfinished and dropped a nose decision. A strong favorite in her Inglewood debut, Sweeter Still bided her time from third early on as Dawn Before Dawn (High Yield) set a reasonable pace. She bid outside the frontrunner turning for home, opened a clear lead past the eighth pole and was just able to hold despite drifting out under a right-handed stick. A stewards' inquiry was conducted, but the result was allowed to stand.

Making the switch to a conventional dirt surface for the first time in his career, El Gato Malo switched out for the stretch drive and ran down a game Leonides for a narrow victory in this valuable event. A debut winner over six furlongs at Hollywood Park Nov. 18, the West Point runner made a successful transition to two turns and stakes competition, winning the Dec. 15 Gold Rush
 S. at Golden Gate Fields. He took advantage of a torrid speed duel to add the GIII San Rafael S. at Santa Anita Jan. 12, but found the talented Colonel John a bit too tough in his last pair, a runner-up effort in the GIII Sham S. Mar. 1 and a fifth in the Apr. 5 GI Santa Anita Derby. A lack of graded-stakes earnings ruled out a trip to Louisville, and, after giving careful consideration to a shot at the Preakness, connections decided on this softer spot. A headstrong Samba Rooster set out for the early lead as El Gato Malo found cover while not that far from the front. Given his cue by Rafael Bejarano on the far turn, he bulled his way out, brush-ing with Texas Wildcatter (Monarchos) in upper stretch, then leveled out and was along in the waning strides.

Alessandro Volta advertised his Classic credentials when winning Leopardstown's Listed Eyrefield S. in November and had excuses with a slipped saddle when only fourth in the G3 Ballysax S. back at that venue on his sophomore return Apr. 20. Taken straight to the lead by Johnny Murtagh here, he was shadowed by King of Rome and did that rival no favors when forcing him wide after the sharp turn into the straight. Challenged by Campanologist on his inside, he had that rival's measure despite wandering around as his stable companion reemerged with a late rally. "The track didn't suit him as he's a big galloping horse," his jockey commented. "I thought the way the early races had gone, I had better get him out in front and let him use that stride. He didn't come down the hill very well and didn't turn very well, but in the straight, he got his act together and galloped out well to the line and stayed on.
 He's a good mover and that should stand him in good stead for Epsom."

Sabana Perdida was very smart at two and three in Italy, but has turned inside out since joining the Alain de Royer-Dupre stable. Third behind Nannina (GB) and Satwa Queen (Fr) in the G2 Windsor Forest S. at Royal Ascot in June, she won Longchamp's G3 Prix du Pin on her latest outing in September. Never far away from the early pace set by her compatriot Verba, the bay unleashed a spell of acceleration to overhaul that rival in the final 150 yards en route to a comfortable score. "She is a classy filly and over seven furlongs on good ground, she has a very good turn of foot," Lemaire commented. "I think we'll see her at a very high level."

Jockey Corey Brown compared Apache Cat favourably to Darley's champion sprinter Exceed and Excel (Aus) after the bright chestnut scored his fourth consecutive Group 1 race, prevailing narrowly from Vormista to snare the A$259,300 first prize purse and bring his earnings to A$2,926,625 overall. "He's a superstar," said Brown, himself celebrating his 25th Group 1 victory. "He's the best sprinter I've ridden. Exceed And Excel was the best sprinter I've ridden up until now, but this horse has now gone to the top." Brown settled Apache Cat in third, powering three wide into the straight and keeping a firm hold on his mount until the 200-meter pole. He unleashed the gelding soon after, and the pair surged to best the hard-trying filly Vormista, who was paying close attention on the inside. Only a head separated the pair on the line. Swiss Ace closed late to snare third. Apache Cat's next assignment is the G1 Doomben 10,000 over 1350 meters May 24. Trainer Greg Eurell said Apache Cat's sheer will prevailed, adding, "This is a bit of a magic moment for me. He was nearly sold to Hong Kong as a young horse and, thank God, the sale didn't come off." Vormista's trainer Mark Minervini, meanwhile, is looking forward to a rematch in the Doomben 10,000. "Every time we've asked her to go up a level, she has answered the call," he said.

Godolphin Packs a Strong One-Two Punch...

This has been a happy hunting ground for the boys in blue in recent times and wins by Vettori (Ire), Bachir (Ire) and Shamardal sit alongside Noverre's disqualification in 2001. Successful in Goodwood's G2 Vintage S.

Rio de la Plata le-cheval bleu and the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere here either side of a second to New Approach (Ire) in the G1 National S. at The Curragh, Rio de la Plata signed off with a fourth in the G1 Dewhurst S. at Newmarket in October. Trainer Saeed bin Suroor has been pleased with the colt's progress over the winter and also anticipates a positive performance this afternoon. "Rio de la Plata has had a nice winter in Dubai and he is ready to go," he commented. "We are happy with the way he has worked this year and so far, so good. It will be a tough race, but he is already a Group 1 winner, having won at Longchamp last year, and I am looking forward to seeing a good run from him."

Licence to Il...

Godolphin's number two is the supplemented Listed Easter S. winner Il Warrd (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}), who will be having his first start for the stable following his transfer from Marcus Tregoning. His impressive performance on Kempton's Polytrack Apr. 12 sets him up as a lively outsider in the hands of Kerrin McEvoy. "I've ridden him at home and he gives me a nice feel, but obviously, this is going to be his big test against horses like Rio de la Plata," he said. Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's colors have yet to be carried to success here, but in Tamayuz (GB) (Nayef) Shadwell has the material to end the drought. Unextended in two juvenile starts, he returned to best Murcielago (Fr) and Hello Morning (Fr) (Poliglote {GB}) in the G3 Prix de Fontainebleau over this track and trip on his sophomore debut Apr. 13. Freddy Head's charge promises to improve for this faster ground and bids to become the 13th winner of that all-important trial to follow up here since 1982.

Of the vanquished in the Fontainebleau, more can be expected from Ballydoyle's Lucifer Sam (Storm Cat) and One Great Cat (Storm Cat), who were fifth and seventh, respectively. Despite jockey bookings suggesting they are behind the highly impressive Listed Loughbrown S. winner Georgebernardshaw (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), Aidan O'Brien won his third renewal 12 months ago with the outsider Astronomer Royal. The Wertheimer tradition, established in this race since 1972 by past heroes Riverman, Green Dancer, Red Lord (GB) and Green Tune, is upheld by Falco (Pivotal {GB}). He has to improve markedly off a course-and-distance conditions score last time Apr. 17 to provide Carlos Laffon-Parias with a first renewal.

POULE D'ESSAI DES POULICHES

Longchamp, May 11

She's Got the Look...

While attempting to beat Alain de Royer-Dupre's "pearl" Zarkava (Ire) (Zamindar) in today's G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches (French 1000 Guineas) at Longchamp is a tall order, David Smaga may have a potential spoiler in Modern Look (GB) (Zamindar). Khalid Abdullah captured this prize with Houseproud in 1990 and Zenda (GB) 12 years later and would have had a third edition had the stewards not demoted Price Tag (GB) two years ago. He has two shots at this renewal, and while Conference Call (GB) (Anabaa) has twice felt the draft from Zarkava's explosive power in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac and G3 Prix de la Grotte, Modern Look remains an unexposed danger. Successful in the G3 Prix Miesque at Maisons-Laffitte in November, Modern Look found only the subsequent G1 1000 Guineas heroine Natagora (Fr) too strong in the Listed Prix Imprudence back at that venue last time Apr. 14.

"We ran into the Guineas winner last time on ground that was much too soft for her, but she's been training very well since and looks great," Smaga commented. "We have good ground today, so we can be hopeful of a very good performance." Aidan O'Brien annexed this in 2001 with Rose Gypsy (GB) and saddles an interesting duo in Halfway to Heaven (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) and Psalm (Ire) (Sadler's Wells). While the former boasts the stronger form, having finished runner-up in the G3 Leopardstown 1000 Guineas Trial S., Johnny Murtagh is on the maiden Psalm, who was seventh in that Apr. 6 contest. "She was a bit unlucky last time when the saddle slipped up her neck and she's a small and slight filly," Murtagh explained. "We are drawn wide and the Aga Khan's filly looks the one we all have to beat, but her work has been very good and I think she'll run well." Andre Fabre's runners can never be ignored and Mayfair Stud's Azabara (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) will be attempting to become the multiple champion trainer's third winner. She had Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa) back in second in a course-and-distance conditions event last time Apr. 3, but has faster ground and an eight-pound swingaround to contend with here.

TDN presents
STAR OF THE WEEK
Brought to you by Fasig-Tipton

Dr. Gary Knapp

Accomplishment: Knapp's Monticule Farm bred and consigned GI Kentucky Derby hero Big Brown (Boundary) to the 2006 Fasig-Tipton October Sale, where Eddie Woods bought him for $60,000.

Birthdate: Oct. 24, 1943

Birthplace: Fergus Falls, MN

Current Residence: Austin, TX

Family: Wife Emily Knapp, daughter Jessica Knapp-Ziegler

Primary Occupation: Commercial breeder

Do you have any memories of Big Brown as a youngster? My most poignant memory of Big Brown is that of a yearling, and that was the day we sold him at Fasig-Tipton. The farm manager and I were standing at the back. They had just hammered him down, and then I saw this horse just go streaking down the walk path without his handler. He came out of the sale ring and said, 'I'm outta here.' Apparently he was not having fun (laughs). He sprinted to the back part, stopped at a fence and waited for someone to get him. He came out of that ring running and he hasn't stopped yet.

Favorite vacation spot? My wife and I have a home in Palm Beach, Florida, where we spend the winters, and it's marvelous. We love it there.

How did you acquire Big Brown's dam Mien? I got Mien (Nureyev) when she was being carried by Miasma (Lear Fan), who I bought at auction (for $350,000 in 1992). So we foaled her at the farm, raced her, and then brought her back to the broodmare band. Big Brown is her second foal.

Who did she produce this year and who is she going back to? She produced a Belong to Me filly and she will be bred back to Stormy Atlantic.

Favorite meal? That's a tough one--I like practically everything!

Drink of choice? Well, I drink an awful lot of Diet Coke.

What's on your CD player right now? Well, it could be some good Country and Western, it could be some good Classical, or it could be some good oldie rock. I'm pretty versatile. I picked up some of the country from Texas (laughs); George Straight, Patsy Cline.

What's your idea of a perfect day? Getting up early, having some coffee, walking across the farm in the very early morning. Probably there's some dew on the grass. Walking through the pastures and looking at the yearlings and the mares and their babies. I can do that 'til noon if I have time to do it. Frequently after that I'll have a workout, then get on some of my old polo ponies and ride around the farm.

Interview cont. p11

CONGRATULATIONS!

Graded Stakes-Winning Star of the Week:

Kentucky Derby Winner

★ BIG BROWN ★

Congratulations to his connections!

Dr. Gary Knapp cont.

What made you send Mien, Big Brown's dam, to Boundary? When I determine the breedings for my mares, I go through about a three-step process. The first step is to use the results of the Equix mating process. They have a biometric model they use to match up your mare's physical characteristics to a group of stallions that she fits best with. For me, that generates the set of stallions I consider breeding to. Then I take the mare and each of the stallions I consider breeding to and create a hypothetical pedigree and then take a look at that pedigree.

What you'll see with Big Brown is a cross of Northern Dancer, a cross of Damascus, and a cross of Round Table. If you look at the principal runners Boundary produced, some of those runners will have Northern Dancer crosses--3x3, 3x4, stuff like that. Some other of his runners have Damascus 3x4, 4x4. Others had Round Table. I looked at Big Brown, and I said, my gosh, all three of those crosses are in this pedigree (Northern Dancer 3x3, Damascus 3x4, Round Table 4x5), so I thought it was a good shot.

Plus, a few years ago, I did a brief study of all the winners of American Classic races, those being the Kentucky Oaks, the Coaching Club of America Oaks, and the Triple Crown races. Some 85 percent of those winners from 1914 to 2002 had one or more crosses in their pedigree of significant female families, as judged by the Bruce Lowe system. The pedigree of Big Brown has for crosses of a mare named Selene in it, and that's the third step--I make sure there's crosses to those mares in the pedigree. And that's how I got to Boundary. It's a bit mathematical.

How much did Boundary stand for at the time? He was $10,000. And that was probably one of the things that was nagging at me the most. Monticule is a commercial breeder. When you look at a $10,000 stud fee, you ask 'What is Mr. Market going to say about that?' You can't be real optimistic. You say, 'Man, I hope this foal turns out beautiful, because the market's going to really crucify me if it doesn't.' So that bothered me, but the other stuff I looked at and said, 'That's pretty cool; that's good stuff.'

You've done well with Danzig and Danzig-line horses--having sold the Danzig sons Prussian and the $9.2-million Plavius. Is he a big favorite of yours? Breeding to Danzig was not a hard decision. If you had a mare that fit him physically and the pedigree fits, it's not hard. The guy was producing 18, 19 percent stakes winners to foals, and what's not to like about that? The fact that Boundary was by Danzig I didn't particularly look at, I was just looking at the fact that one of the crosses that was prominent in Boundary runners was that Northern Dancer cross. And you got that cross through Danzig.

How did you first get into racing? I've loved horses ever since I was a small child. The first time I ever rode a pony I was three years old and I thought that was the biggest deal of my life. I continued my romance with horses until my mid-teens. Then I had a short interlude with motorcycles, and I found those to be even more dangerous than horses (laughs). And so I've been riding horses ever since.

Then in 1973, I came to the University of Kentucky to work on a doctorate degree. In June of '73, when I came here, Secretariat's picture was on the front of Sports Illustrated and being a horse lover and seeing that and seeing all the farms around here, I said, boy, I'd sure like to do this someday. It was a pretty easy sell. I bought the first part of Monticule in 1990, but at that point I was pretty busy with a business career. In '97, I started buying broodmares and continued buying a few each year. I've got 21 now, which is a good number to work with. I'd say four or five now are daughters of members of the broodmare band itself.

You live in Texas. Have you considered opening a farm there, too? When it comes to breeding and racing Thoroughbreds, it's very difficult to compete with the infrastructure Central Kentucky has. There are so many good horse people here, whether you're talking groomers or farriers or farm managers. If you tried to do a good solid breeding operation in some other places in the country, you'd be compromised by that lack of infrastructure.

If you were made commissioner of racing and you had broad powers, what changes would you make to racing? I don't know about specific changes, but I think all of us in this sport have to continually remind ourselves that the only reason we get to do this is because we have fans that love to be entertained by a good horse race. And anytime we do things in the industry that don't add to, or take away, the fact that people come to the track to be entertained, that we're not doing the industry good. Many people forget that's the final product. That's where we have to excel.

What did you do to celebrate the Derby? Went home and relaxed (laughs). We were at Churchill well after the last race went off. We had plenty of friends and family up in the Jockey Club suites, and I'm sure the service personnel were beginning to wonder when we'd leave.

There has been a lot of talk, both within the industry and out, about the breakdown of Eight Belles. What do you make of the situation? It's absolutely devastating thing to happen to a horse. I don't know anyone in the industry who isn't absolutely beside themselves when they see something like that happen, including myself, and I'm surprised I can talk about it right now without getting emotional, because it bothers the hell out of me. But unfortunately, that's the only injury that millions of millions of people see, and it's on TV and people connect it with 'Racing hurts horses.'

What they don't see is that, out in some farm's pasture, there could be 10 or 15 yearlings running through the pasture, and one gets hurt running, just because they love to run. They don't see the fact that, maybe somewhere in Central Kentucky today, a few horses are arguing over who's the dominant horse and they kick each other and they get hurt. People don't see that. A year ago, I had a beautiful Silver Deputy colt and he was running along in the pasture and slipped and went under a fence and broke a bone. We tried for weeks, but we couldn't save him. Horses exert themselves, horses have really got a heart, they really have a determination, and sometimes they push themselves too far and they hurt. It rarely happens, but it happens. But when it's on TV, people connect it with racing and make assumptions that sometimes aren't very valid.

Another thing that people don't realize is that the quality of that horse--the quality of Eight Belles--is that she said, 'I'm not going to let that horse run away from me; I'm going to chase him down.' That's the epitome of an athlete. If you look at any sport--hockey, baseball, football--and when athletes press themselves to the extreme, when they try like the devil to do the best they can, sometimes they hurt themselves. When they do, it's drastic and horrible and we hate it.

Having won the now downgraded G3 Premio Parioli (Italian 2000 Guineas) at this venue Apr. 20, Senlis bids to become the first to complete the Guineas-Derby double since Bonconte de Montefeltro (Ity) in 1969. Ramonti (Fr) came closest in that period, but was beaten a head in the 2005 renewal by De Sica (Ire) from the Emilio Borromeo stable. That trainer will be hoping that history does not repeat itself as he prepares Senlis for his date with destiny. Farrel, who had previously handed Senlis eight pounds and a 2 1/2-length beating in the Listed Premio Gardone at the San Siro Apr. 6, was only fifth when sent off the hot favorite for that mile Classic and bids to rebound for the Bruno Grizzetti barn successful with Rakti (GB) six years ago. Peter Chapple-Hyam collected with White Muzzle (GB) in 1993 and Single Empire (Ire) four years later and relies on Bouguereau, who was a neck second to the subsequent G3 Dee S. runner-up Unnefer (Fr) in a Newbury conditions event last time Apr. 18. Groom Tesse (GB) scored for the Camici family in 2004 and they put forward a live contender in Pernesso, who had Fathayer and Once More Dubai behind when the impressive winner of the Listed Premio Botticelli here last time Apr. 20.

This is the acid test for Washington Irving, who has a maiden tag to shed as he prepares for the June 7 G1 Epsom Derby. Since 2001, Ballydoyle's winners have included Galileo (Ire), High Chaparral (Ire), Yeats (Ire) and Dylan Thomas (Ire), so it is clear that only the top of the tree are tried out here. Runner-up to the subsequent G3 Ballysax S. third Unwritten Rule (Ire) in a course-and-distance conditions event Apr. 6, he is the chosen mount of Johnny Murtagh. "He is a big, rangy Montjeu with a big future and loads of scope," Murtagh offered. "He is improving and could be anything."
Moiqen had his stable companion Hebridean and Unwritten Rule behind when winning the Ballysax and the runner-up franked the form when taking Gowran Park's Classic Trial a week ago. Moiqen's jockey Declan McDonogh is hoping he can upset Ballydoyle's best-laid plans. "He's done nothing wrong, he's pleased us at home and he's pleased us on the track," he told PA Sport. "I think he has a favourite's chance. His form is holding up really well, with Hebridean going on to win, and we couldn't be happier with him."

"She had a setback at Christmas, so she didn't have her first canter until March, but has progressed quickly and everything has gone well." Caribbean Sunset had Halfway to Heaven (Ire) and the subsequent G1 1000 Guineas third Saoirse Abu behind when winning the G3 1000 Guineas Trial S. here last time Apr. 6 and sets the standard.

Sweet Hope gets the biggest test of her career this afternoon, but could prove equal to the task. The dark bay filly was equipped with a set of blinkers for the first time and graduated by five lengths over the Lingfield Polytrack Dec. 19. The daughter of High Heeled Hope, a multiple stakes winner and twice Grade I-placed in California at two, followed with a fourth going a route of ground at Wolverhampton Jan. 18, but made an impressive U.S. debut in her latest, taking a Bay Meadows allowance Apr. 13. Magical Victory won her maiden going two turns at Santa Anita on Valentine's Day, but cut back to one bend for her latest and finished well to be a half-length second to Homemade Brew in a six-furlong allowance at this track Apr. 25. The bay earned the bullet for a four-furlong work in a scorching :45 1/5 this past Thursday and should love the added real estate today. The top five finishers from Santa Anita's GIII Santa Paula S. renew acquaintances here. Lethal Heat was let go at odds of 7-1 coming back of 10 days' rest, but came three wide into the lane and went on to a handy score over P. S. U. Grad, who passed this spot in favor of yesterday's GIII Seniorita S.

Triple Threats

Kentucky Bear Works at Old Hilltop...

Bear Stables Ltd's Kentucky Bear (Mr. Greeley) prepped for Saturday's GI Preakness S. yesterday, breezing five-eighths of a mile in 1:01 over a sloppy Pimlico main track. Jockey Jamie Theriot, who guided the colt to a third-place effort in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. in his most recent appearance Apr. 12, flew in from Kentucky for the move. "I think it was a great work," Theriot commented. "I think he's at the top of his game. It's a great opportunity to get the pleasure to ride the kind of horses like this in this kind of race. It's a dream come true. You go as a little kid and want to ride in the Kentucky Derby, these Triple Crown races and have that opportunity and a great shot of winning them. I think he's peaking at the right time. I wouldn't change mounts with anyone." Trainer Reade Baker cautioned earlier this week not to anoint Derby hero Big Brown (Boundary) a Triple Crown winner just yet and wonders what toll the Derby may have exacted. "If Big Brown was in any other race other than coming from Kentucky to Preakness, all the wise guys would be saying he's going to bounce," Baker said. "So, just because we call them the Derby and the Preakness, why can't he bounce? He might be a good enough horse to overcome all that. He's certainly a good horse."

Kentucky Bear Jim McCue/MJC

Macho Again Back in the Mix...

One day after declaring Derby Trial S. hero Macho Again (Macho Uno) out of the race, connections have apparently had a change of heart and now plan on entering the colt in next Saturday's Classic. "Last night we sat down and really looked at the field," Stewart said. "There is one superstar in there [Big Brown] and I feel [Macho Again] can be competitive with the rest of them. He has never been doing better than he is now." The West Point Thoroughbreds runner turned in his final major work ahead of the race, going an easy half-mile in :50.80 yesterday at Churchill Downs. "The decision was not based on his work this morning," Stewart added. "He never has been much of a work horse. But we will see how he is in the morning, and we are seriously considering it. It's a once in a lifetime chance and Terry [Finley of West Point] has left the decision up to me."

Steady as She Goes for Racecar Rhapsody...

Jerry Carroll, Stan Kaplan, Ronald Plattner and Mark Guilfoyle's Racecar Rhapsody (Tale of the Cat) turned in his trademark steady five-furlong work yesterday morning at Churchill Downs, covering the distance in 1:01, matching each of his two previous breezes. "He worked well," said trainer Ken McPeek. "He laid off another horse and finished strong." The bay colt is just a maiden winner from six trips to the post, but he has already acquitted himself well in graded-stakes competition. Third in last year's GII Kentucky Jockey Club S., he returned from a 3 1/2-month absence to finish fourth in the GII Lane's End S. Mar. 22 and filled the same spot in the Apr. 19 GII Coolmore Lexington S., finishing just two lengths adrift of fellow Preakness combatant Behindatthebar (Forest Wildcat) after encountering traffic in the stretch. "He's a nice horse, but he's a horse that comes from behind and needs a clean trip," McPeek commented. "He needs plenty of ground." Racecar Rhapsody is expected in Baltimore Wednesday and Robby Albarado, victorious in last year's Preakness aboard Curlin, has the call.

☆ CLASSIC CORNER ☆

Direct Route for Curtain Call...

Patrick Cooper's Curtain Call (Fr) (Sadler's Wells) was taken out of yesterday's G3 Lingfield Derby Trial due to the prevalent fast conditions and could head straight to the G1 Epsom Derby. Trainer Luca Cumani revealed that last year's G2 Beresford S. scorer was most likely to be seen next time in the June 7 Classic. "We will probably go straight to Epsom now," he told PA Sport. "He worked this morning and worked well and we will just have to implement a plan B now to get him to Epsom. We will have to have a think about it over the next few days and map out a plan."

Cape Set For York...

Five Horses Ltd's Cape Amber (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}), who graduated at Newmarket last August, has booked her ticket to Wednesday's G3 Musidora S. at York, connections announced. Trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam gave the green light to the filly following her latest home spin. "I am pleased with how Cape Amber is coming along," Chapple-Hyam said. "She has never been extravagant at home, but that was the best she has worked so far this year. She has got to run somewhere, so we are planning to go to the Musidora next Wednesday. She will improve for a first run and the eventual step up to a mile and a half will see her improve a lot."

FINAL RULES RELEASED REGULATING FLORIDA HORSE SALES

The Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services have released their final Rules and Regulations to be implemented by HB1427, a law governing horse sales in Florida. The legislation, which was drafted to prohibit deceptive practices, was unanimously passed in 2007 by the Florida legislature and signed into law by Florida Governor Charlie Crist. The law required the Florida DOACS to conduct public hearings and draft rules and regulations to govern horse sales throughout the state. "It is important for the future of the horse industry to assure horse buyers are treated fairly," said owner/breeder Earle Mack, a proponent of the bill. "These new rules will go a long way to providing transparency and prohibiting some of the deceptive practices used by a minority of horse sellers. This is a giant step forward for Florida and I hope it is a starting point for horse sales throughout the nation."

Included among the rules outlined in the final draft:

- Full and accurate disclosure to the buyer and owner/seller of any dual agency tactics (where an agent works for the buyer and the seller)
- Sales agent or trainer must fully disclose and obtain the consent of the principal, in writing if practicable, any legal or equitable ownership interest, either directly or through an entity in which the agent or trainer exercises any ownership or control, or such agent shall not purchase on behalf of its principal, nor recommend that its principal purchase or have purchased, any horse in which the agent or trainer has such ownership interest
- Sales companies must publicly disseminate accurate sales results within 90 days after the close of a public sale or auction disclosing and/or correcting any sales results based upon the information sales company receives in the ordinary course of business, that sale should be properly characterized as "reserve not attained" or "not sold." The auction company or licensee shall make this disclosure in the same manner it used to publicly disseminate the initial sales results, as well as in response to any written inquiry to the auction company or licensee.

"I commend the concerned horsemen and horsewomen, the DOACS and particularly the Florida Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders and representatives of Ocala Breeders Sales Company, for their earnest efforts to accomplish the proposal of these breakthrough administrative rules," Mack added. "Without the ultimate cooperation of all involved it would not have been possible. These rules will provide substantial protection for all horse purchasers in Florida and will insure that continued focus upon integrity in the horse marketplace is a paramount concern for those interested in protecting this valuable source of commerce in the state."

Meal Penalty showed promise at two, winning his first two starts and finishing third in the Nov. 22 GIII Hollywood Prevue S. at Hollywood. The gray colt faltered in the Dec. 22 GI CashCall Futurity, however, finishing eighth, and could do no better than fifth in his first two starts at three, the Jan. 20 San Pedro S. and Feb. 2 GII Robert B. Lewis S. His connections found a softer spot for him last time out, and Meal Penalty responded with a front-running allowance victory at Keeneland Apr. 12. Odds-on to make it two in a row, he put a head in front after a half in :45.07 and drew clear. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Seaside Retreat captured the Charlie Barley S. on the turf at Woodbine in June of 2006 and was second in the GII Virginia Derby the following month, but was off the board in his next three starts. The bay disappeared after a sixth-place finish in an optional-claimer at Gulfstream in February of 2007. Returning in an optional test at Churchill Apr. 26, he made a mild move before flattening out and running sixth. An outsider in this six-horse field, Seaside Retreat closed from fifth to join the leaders at the eighth pole and drew away to the wire.

Birdbirdistheword hadn't visited the winner's circle since taking the GIII Delta Jackpot S. in December of 2006. The dark bay faced graded-stakes foes in his first three starts of 2007, finishing off the board every time, and was sidelined after running seventh in the GIII American Turf S. at Churchill in May. Returning after nearly seven months on the shelf, he was out of the money in three turf stakes, then switched back to the dirt and was fourth in the Mar. 8 Challenger S. at Tampa. The four-year-old followed up with a third in an optional claimer on the Keeneland Polytrack Apr. 18 and was the second choice to finally get his picture taken again here. Unhurried through the early exchanges, he closed ground on the turn and kept up the drive in the stretch, catching frontrunner Timbucto in the shadow of the wire.

Winding up his run as Aeroplane surged clear at the quarter pole, the veteran delivered a strong run to hit the front 75 yards from home and draw clear.

The Niarchos family colorbearer bids to add to a maiden win on seasonal return at Fontainebleau at the end of March and faces some choice rivals in the day's curtain raiser. They include Juddmonte Farms' Chasing Stars (GB) (Observatory), who will provide a pointer to the chances of G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches contenders Azabara (GB) and Goldikova (Ire), whom she chased home at this track last month. She is out of a half-sister to Elmaamul and Reams of Verse. Adding intrigue to the lineup is Listed Prix Djebel third Indigo Blue (Fr) (Night Shift) and the debutant Blue Gate (Ire) (Ocean of Wisdom), a half-brother to the speedy multiple stakes winner Swedish Shave (Fr).

Racing keenly towards the rear in the early stages, the homebred was carried wide as Ivy Creek (Gulch) broke down on the home turn but recovered with a surge under hand riding to reel in Munsef 30 yards from the post. "My horse is a bit of a baby and it took him a while, but when he quickened up he was always going to win," Ryan Moore commented. Fourth behind Don't Panic (Ire) at Doncaster Mar. 22, Zaahid was a creditable third behind Lang Shining (Ire) in Newbury's Spring Cup on his last outing Apr. 19. Racing in the midst of the central group initially, the homebred was asked to stretch at the quarter pole and took over with 150 yards remaining. Strongly pressed by Al Khaleej, the chestnut dug in bravely to repel that threat. "He's a really genuine horse," jockey Richard Hills said. "When he got his head in front, there was no way he was going to let anyone past him. At Doncaster it was very tacky ground and he didn't like it. And at Newbury he pulled hard and was out of his ground."

Tackled by Many Volumes (Chester House) in the straight, he was always holding that rival to score by a cozy half length. "That's just what we wanted and he's had a good blow afterwards," trainer Brian Meehan told PA Sport. "Things can change, but we're pretty likely to go for the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup [at The Curragh May 25] with the main plan being the Breeders' Cup again." INGLIS AUTUMN YEARLING SALE BEGINS

The William Inglis Autumn Yearling sale begins today, with 360 yearlings slated to be sold over two days. Both sessions, including Monday's second day of selling, begin at 11 a.m. Previous graduates of the sale include Group 1 winners Pompeii Ruler (Aus), Lazer Sharp (Aus) and Grand Journey (Aus), all of whom could have been purchased for less than A$20,000. "Year after year this sale produces quality gallopers that were purchased well within the budget of most buyers," said Inglis Director Peter Heagney. This year's catalogue features progeny by first-season stallions Danbird (Aus), Delzao (Aus), Denon, Elvstroem (Aus), Kempinsky (Aus) and Refuse to Bend (Ire). Among the sale's incentives is a race open only to graduates. The A$100,000 event for two-year-olds will be run next autumn. Additionally, those nominated to run in the autumn feature will be eligible for William Inglis's A$2.5-million race series in Victoria and New South Wales, which is also open only to graduates of the sale. For catalogue and outs, visit www.inglis.com.au.
