Big Brown Exits Preakness in Good Order...

Unfazed by his facile victory in the GI Preakness S., Big Brown (Boundary) was on the muscle as he walked the Pimlico shedrow yesterday morning, and trainer

Big Brown at Pimlico Sunday
Jim McCue/MJC

Rick Dutrow Jr. was feeling good about his chances in the June 7 GI Belmont S. "If he comes out of it good, trains good, I don't see a problem," said Dutrow. "It looks like he's ready." The conditioner did not see the distance of the final jewel in the Triple Crown as an obstacle. "He's not an aggressive-type horse where he wants to run off with the jock early on," he continued.

"He'll do whatever Kent [Desormeaux] wants him to do at the time. He just falls into the race. That's going to help him get a mile and a half." Big Brown becomes the fourth horse to exit the GI Kentucky Derby and the Preakness with his perfect record intact. The other three were Majestic Prince, second to Arts and Letters in the 1969 Belmont; Seattle Slew, who completed the sweep in 1977; and Smarty Jones, who got caught in the final yards of the 2004 "Test of the Champion" by Birdstone. "Everybody wants to see something great," Dutrow said. "Maybe we're going to see that. That'd be a lot of fun. Everybody's going to find out where he belongs. If he wins his next race, he's going to be up there with any good horse that's ever run. When everybody's talking about him, he'd be in the same breath as Secretariat, Affirmed, all those good ones." Cont. p2

SAGE TIME

The Longchamp crowd expected trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre to be triumphant in yesterday's G1 Prix d'Ispahan at Longchamp, but the identity of his winner was something of a surprise. Victory was considered more likely for 4-5 favorite Darjina (Fr) (Zamindar), but 11-1 chance Sageburg (Ire) (Johannesburg) collared that stable star inside the final furlong to score by 2 1/2 lengths at the Bois de Boulogne track. "He had come on a lot for his last run and we had done plenty of schooling with him because he has a tendency to be nervous," the trainer explained. Cont. p2

GRADE 1 PREAKNESS S.

On to the Belmont?

Icabad Crane (Jump Start), third in the Preakness at 22-1, could take on Big Brown once again in the $1-million Belmont. "I think it's definitely a possibility," trainer Graham Motion said. "Obviously, we want to see how he is, but I think [jockey Jeremy Rose] feels that the distance is not an issue with him. I think with a cleaner trip [Saturday], there was a good shot that we would have been a good second. With that in mind, we might pursue it." Motion was pleased with the way his charge came out of the race. "He seems absolutely fine, no problems," he said. "His eyes are a little swollen just from getting a lot of dirt in his face, but he seems well and quite perky, really." Motion added, "Because he's so laid-back about everything, [racing] doesn't seem to knock him out quite like it might another horse. He just takes it in his stride. He obviously ran hard and he's tired, but he seems fine." Trainer Dallas Stewart has not yet decided where Preakness runner-up Macho Again (Macho Uno) will go next. "We really haven't given it a hard thought yet," Stewart said. "We've got three weeks to think about it. You've got to make sure everything is right with the horse and the horse is doing good. And our horse ran back in three weeks [after his win in the Derby Trial]. We'll get him back on the track and see how he does."

Overnight Ratings...

NBC's coverage of the Preakness earned a 5.1 national rating and a 12 share in the overnights, down 6 percent from last year. The prerace programming received a 3.5 rating and a 9 share, off 15 percent from 2007, while the broadcast of the race (5:45-6:45 p.m.) produced a 6.2 rating and 14 share, down just three percent from a year ago. The 133rd running of the race drew a crowd of 112,222, fifth-largest in Preakness history. It was the eighth consecutive year the on-site attendance exceeded 100,000.

Trained by Andre Fabre at the start of his career, Sageburg (Ire) (Johannesburg) didn't see a racecourse until June in his sophomore season, but made up for lost time by taking a nine-furlong conditions event at Chantilly on debut and a similar event at this track the following month. The grey stepped into listed company with a facile victory in the Prix Ridgway at Deauville in July, but could manage only fourth in the G2 Prix Niel at Longchamp in September. He returned for the G2 Prix Dollar in October, but endured a troubled trip and ran fifth, although he was subsequently promoted to fourth following a stewards' enquiry. Making his debut for Alain de Royer-Dupre in the Apr. 27 G1 Prix Ganay, he finished a creditable third, and benefitted from a drop in trip to register a personal best in this. Settled in third as Turfrose (Ger) (Big Shuffle) set honest early fractions, Sageburg was asked to stretch once straightening for home. He took over from Darjina (Fr) (Zamindar) while under a drive 150 yards from the wire and was allowed to coast home late. A trip to the Royal meeting might now be in the cards, according to de Royer-Dupre. "When the time came to make entries for Royal Ascot, I was not quite sure what his best trip would be, so I only put him in the [June 18 G1] Prince of Wales's S., but we will see in time what our plans will be," he said. Of the runner-up he added, "I gave [Darjina] a long break after Dubai and, as she is very lazy at home, she might have needed the race. Looking at her in the paddock beforehand, it looked like she was carrying a bit too much condition. I think we ought to keep her at a mile, so there is a good possibility she will go to Royal Ascot for the [June 17 G1] Queen Anne S." Belle et Celebre ran fourth in a debutantes event at this track last October and improved to finish second behind Albisola (Montjeu {Ire}) in her season closer at Fontainebleau the following month. She came back to run second at Saint-Cloud Apr. 22, and benefitted from an enterprising ride by Christophe Lemaire to break her maiden in this stakes bow. The win initiated an afternoon Group 1 double for trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre, and also completed a banner weekend for breeders Gilles and Aliette Forien after this filly's half-brother Appel Au Maitre (Fr) secured victory in Saturday evening's Listed Walter Nilsens Minnelop at Ovrevoll in Norway. Sent to the front after an early dawdle, Belle et Celebre maintained control until pushed along when pressed in early stretch.

It looked like she might be overcome by the closing pack, but she would not be denied and rallied bravely under a drive to hold on. "I wasn't certain to run her earlier in the week because she was still a maiden, but the owner was keen to go and it proved the right choice," admitted de Royer-Dupre. "I asked Christophe Lemaire to observe how she behaved on the way to post and judge if she was relaxed enough to go on the lead. He did a superb job and, quite often here, when you get first run you can last to the line. If she comes out of this well, she will return in the G1 Prix de Diane [at Chantilly June 8]." Saddex fulfilled the promise of a one-time fourth in the G1 Deutsches Derby by lifting the G2 Gerling-Preis at Cologne in his four-year-old debut and followed up with a victory in the G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly last June. He claimed a personal best in the Aug. 12 G1 Rheinland-Pokal at Cologne next time and emerged with credit by finishing sixth in the Oct. 7 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp. His exotic campaign closed with an 11th in the Nov. 25 G1 Japan Cup and he came back this term to finish second in the G1 Prix Ganay at Longchamp Apr. 27. Unaffected by one false start here, Saddex was reserved off the pace in seventh soon after the break and was urged closer at the top of the long straight. He set his sights on Pressing when moving into second with 400 meters to run and kept on strongly under a drive to oust that rival in the shades of the post. Successful in a newcomers' event at Clairefontaine last July, Coastal Path doubled up at Deauville the following month before bagging the G3 Prix du Lutece in his first visit to this track in September. Climbing higher to add the Oct. 6 G2 Prix Chaudenay to his portfolio, he came back to lift the Apr. 27 G3 Prix de Barbeville over course and distance last time and stayed perfect with another wide-margin success in this. The unbeaten Juddmonte homebred remains on target for the June 19 G1 Gold Cup at Royal Ascot. "He confirmed all his qualities once again and beat the same horses even easier this time so he has obviously improved," commented Juddmonte spokesperson. "The plan is still to go for the Gold Cup, but everything will be decided after M. Fabre has discussed the matter with [Racing Manager] Teddy Grimthorpe and His Highness Prince Khalid [Abdullah]." Salsa came at the start. "Coming out of the gate, if you watch the head-on, I clipped heels with the two-horse [Rapidity (GB) (Mind Games {GB})], his left leg with my right leg," Pedroza explained. "He kind of sat down for a minute and I had to ask him to get going. Once I got to the front, he was just galloping, just cruising. When I saw that horse come to me, I just chirped to him and he was gone." Salute the Sarge tired to fifth. "That was the game plan, to let him break and let [Two Step Salsa] go and see if we could run him down," explained Michael Baze, aboard the beaten favorite. "That horse just kept going along and I think it just broke my horse's heart. My horse was sitting real comfortable, but when they asked the winner, he just re-broke. When a horse takes off in front of you, it's hard to build up your confidence and keep hanging on." These include a new track record at Saratoga, leading owner title at Saratoga, 2 in the Breeders' Cup. A good start for a client in only its third year of racing.

Note: This stable's owner, racing manager and 5 trainers are all exceptional, they participate in all purchase decisions, and also bought horses not listed here that were not on EQB's short-lists.

Verdana Bold, a debut winner over the turf at Laurel last December, added an allowance win over the dirt at the Maryland track in her third start before a fourth-place effort in the Feb. 9 Marshua S. In her first start North of the Border, the chestnut filly captured the Apr. 13 Star Shoot S. Stretching out past a mile for the first time in her career, Verdana Bold was loose on the lead through fractions of :24.04, :47.26 and 1:10.68. She carried a four-length advantage into the stretch, but saw that lead all but vanish as even-money favorite Grace and Power closed late to just miss at the wire. While keeping all options open, trainer Dan Vella admitted his charge could be headed back to the turf. "The family does like turf," Vella said. "She's won on the turf before. We'll keep our options open. This was our most important goal. Now we'll start looking for another one." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Famously bought for a mere A$1,250 by taxi driver-turned trainer Joe Janiak, the eight-year-old war horse Takeover Target showed he was not ready for retirement yet with a gutsy performance that established a new course record at Kranji. Tracking from the outset, Takeover Target rallied along the rail and took command as they turned into the stretch. It looked as if the hard-charging Magnus would roll on by, but Takeover Target kept on finding more down the length of the stretch and had a half-length cushion at the line. The Hong Kong-based Sanziro came flying down the line and was just nosed out of place honors.

The race was marred by the break down of Hong Kong's Absolute Champion, who broke his oft-fore fetlock on the backstretch and was euthanized. After the race, Janiak admitted that he didn't have Takeover Target fully cranked for this. "He's probably got about 10 percent improvement in him," Janiak said. "Imagine if he was fit. What time would he have run then!" Janiak added that Takeover Target will be aimed toward the Royal Ascot meeting in England in June. F-T MIDLANTIC TWO-YEAR-OLD SALE

STARTS TODAY The two-day Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Preferred Two-Year-Olds in Training Sale begins today at 10 a.m. at the Maryland State Fairgrounds in Timonium. During last week's under-tack previews, a son of Repent turned in the fastest furlong work of :09.80. Selling as hip 455, the bay colt is out of Crowning Touch (Thunder Gulch) and is a full brother to this year's GII Robert B Lewis S. winner Crown of Thorns. He is consigned by Raul Reyes's King's Equine, Inc., agent. Crowning Touch is an unraced half sister to champion sprinter Smoke Glacken (Two Punch), as well as multiple graded stakes winner Smokey Glacken (Forestry). The fastest quarter-mile drill at the two under-tack sessions was turned in by hip 402, a son of freshman sire Lion Heart (Tale of the Cat), who completed the work in :21. Consigned by Crupi's New Castle Farm, agent, the juvenile is out of Bye the Bye (Balzac) and is a half brother to Grade I winner Schossberg (Broad Brush). Hip 84, a daughter of freshman sire Roaring Fever (Storm Cat), worked a furlong in a co-fastest :10 1/5 during Thursday's under-tack preview. Consigned by Eddie Woods, agent, the dark bay is a half sister to the dam of last year's GI Lane's End Breeders' Futurity winner Wicked Style (Macho Uno). Hips one through 324 sell today and will be followed by lots 325 through 650 Tuesday.

WICKED STYLE RETURNS WEDNESDAY Wicked Style (Macho Uno), winner of last year's GI Lane's End Breeders' Futurity, will make his sophomore debut in Wednesday's eighth race at Churchill Downs, a one-mile turf allowance. The Ashbrook Farm colorbearer opened his career with three straight victories, taking an Arlington maiden in July before adding the Sept. 1 GIII Arlington-Washington Futurity and the Oct. 6 Futurity. He suffered his first loss when 10th in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. Trainer Rusty Arnold was preparing Wicked Style for the GII Kentucky Jockey Club last November when the colt was sidelined by injury. Wicked Style has drawn the rail in Wednesday's 10-horse field, which also includes 2007 GI Toyota Blue Grass S. winner Dominican (El Corredor).

Them There Eyes, winner of the grassy Scoot S. at Aqueduct last November, returned from a five-month respite to run fifth in the restricted Personal Girl S. over the Big A's main track Apr. 6. A winner of an open optional claimer when back on the grass Apr. 24, Them There Eyes was returning to a Belmont lawn over which she'd previously won two of four. Relaxed in seventh through three-quarters, the four-year-old unleashed an eye-catching move leaving the far turn and drew clear. "This is a nice filly," said winning trainer Kathleen Feron. "We gave her a little layoff, and she came back great. I'm very proud of her."

The dark bay went missing after that one, though, and was making her first start in over 14 months as the crowd's 3-1 second choice. The Timber Bay colorbearer broke on top as Forest Jazzy (Foresty) raced up to join her on the outside. Jockey Javier Castellano took hold of Senorita Swinger on the turn and relinquished the lead before angling wide. In the stretch, the pair angled back to the rail, engaged Shopit (Yes It's True) while in tight and asserted in the dying strides to take it by a neck. Forest Jazzy faded to fifth. Put on the front end under Cornelio Velasquez, Break Point opened up by daylight and led through :22 4/5 and :46 2/5 splits and responded to an energetic hand ride to draw off and score by 4 3/4 lengths over Trippin' Easy (Trippi). MAGNIFICIENCE (f, 4, Stormy Atlantic--Fashion Delight {SW & GSP, $122,950}, by Fappiano) broke onto the scene in a big way last year, romping by 6 1/2 lengths in a Santa Anita maiden in March before earning a 109 Beyer figure in a runaway victory in the GIII Santa Paula S. in April. The ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ failed to build on her early season successes after being sidelined with an ankle chip, but was working lights out for her return here at four. Stalking in the two path up the backstretch, the chestnut was still a length back as they cut the corner for home. While she didn't show her trademark burst of speed, she reeled in her 25-1 stablemate Little Boss Chick (Arch) and, with one final surge, got her nose down on the wire. KELTRICE MARE TOPS INGLIS GREAT SOUTHERN BROODMARE

Multiple winner Dyna Myta (Aus) topped Sunday's broodmare session of the William Inglis Great Southern Sale when selling to Brett Howard's Randwick Bloodstock Agency for A$95,000. A daughter of Keltrice (Aus) from the Scenic (Ire) mare Keshiki (Aus), lot 603 had won at Caulfield, Flemington and Moonee Valley during a race career that has netted five wins and more over A$250,000. Overall, 187 horses sold yesterday for a gross of A$1,956,150 at an average of A$10,461. Realizing the co-second highest price of the session was lot 461, The Kulm (Aus) (Grand Lodge), who fetched $90,000 when knocked down to William Inglis, agent. The 12-year-old mare, who is the dam of recent G3 South Australian Oaks winner Queen of Queens (Aus), was sold in foal to dual Group 1 winner Niello (Aus). The stakes-placed mare Wellington Dreamer (Aus) (Al Qahira {NZ}), dam of last year's G3 SA Oaks winner Watches (Aus), also sold for A$90,000. Lot 493, purchased by Tim Stewart and Associates (Vic), is believed to be in foal to Elvstroem (Aus). The Great Southern Sale concludes Monday with the remaining offering of broodmares, including a supplementary draft of stakes-placed mares and a selection of racing and breeding prospects. For complete sale results visit www.inglis.com.au.

SOUTH AMERICA

PERFECTLY SOLD TO SAUDI PRINCE

According to the Dubai Racing Club, three-year-old Perfectly (Arg) (Sunray Spirit), second by a neck in the Apr. 12 G1 Gran Premio Raul y Raul E Chevallier in just his second start, has been purchased on behalf of Saudi Arabian Prince Sultan bin Mohammed bin Saud al Kabeer. The dark bay colt will be pointed for the major three-year-olds races in Dubai next year. Bred and raced by Stud Aladino SA in Argentina, Perfectly broke his maiden by two lengths in his Feb. 22 debut at San Isidro. He started his career for trainer Roberto Pellegata, who also handled subsequent G2 UAE Derby winners Honour Devil (Arg) (2008) and Asiatic Boy (Arg) (2007).
