THREE CHIMNEYS
The Idea is Excellence.

FLAWLESS TREASURE (War Chant)
in the Sheepshead Bay H. (G2)

NEW DAY, DIFFERENT RESULT?

New Approach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) lost his unbeaten tag by the minimum margin in the G1 2000 Guineas and today's Irish equivalent will tell all if he has lost more. Four of the last five winners of this Curragh Classic were rebounding from defeat at Newmarket, and Princess Haya of Jordan's chestnut has shown the necessary fighting spirit in his brief career so far. Trainer Jim Bolger believes that the signs are that he can reverse form with Henrythenavigator (Kingmambo). "He's very well," Bolger told PA Sport yesterday. "Everything has gone well with him since Newmarket and we are very happy to be going to The Curragh. We haven't had to do much with him since his run." Cont. p2

NAHOODH HEADS GUINEAS THIRTEEN

Jaber Abdullah's Nahoodh (Ire) (Clodovil {Ire}) will face 12 rivals as she bids for a change of fortune in tomorrow's G1 1000 Guineas at The Curragh. Widely considered unlucky not to have at least shaken up Natagora (Fr) when a hampered fifth in the May 4 G1 2000 Guineas, last year's G2 Lowther S. scorer has the ideal chance to atone here. History is on her side, as in the last 10 years Tarascon (Ire), Hula Angel, Gossamer (GB), Yesterday (Ire) and Saoire (GB) all took this after failing to hit the board in the Newmarket Classic. "She's come out of the English Guineas well, is in good form and great heart," trainer Mick Channon commented. "[The Newmarket run] was just one of those circumstances that you find yourself in in racing and I certainly didn't blame Hughesy [jockey Richard Hughes]. We've still got the filly and let's hope we can put it right--she's certainly come on since, so I'd be very happy." Field p3-4

HOSTESS PRIMED FOR SHEEPSHEAD UPSET

William L. Clifton's Hostess (Chester House) snapped a year-long, seven-race losing streak in style in her latest, taking the GIII Orchid H. at Gulfstream Park Mar. 30, and looks to make it back-to-back graded victories in this afternoon's GII Sheepshead Bay H. at

Hostess Adam Coglianesse

Belmont Park. On the fringes last year, the dark bay was a closing fourth to subsequent champion Lahudood (GB) in the GI Flower Bowl Invitational at this track Sept. 29, but was only seventh in the GI E.P. Taylor S. Oct. 21. She returned to action with a seventh to Mauralakana (Fr) (Muhtathir {GB}) in the GIII The Very One H. in Miami Mar. 8, but trainer James Bond is willing to discount that effort. "Her first race this year, it was raining," the conditioner explained. "Instead of taking it off the grass, they shortened it from 1 3/8 miles to 1 1/8 miles and I foolishly stayed in." Despite a pair of entries from the Todd Pletcher barn, including New York-bred J'ray (Distant View), jockey John Velazquez opts to ride Hostess. "He gave her a brilliant ride last time and seems to get the best out of her," Bond stated. Mauralakana and J'ray meet for the third consecutive time, having run first and second, respectively, in the Mairzy Doates H. at Calder Apr. 26.

Doubts surround the participation of Khalid Abdullah's Famous Name, who showed a preference for softer ground when winning on debut at Naas in July and while beating subsequent G3 Ballysax S. scorer Moiqen (Ire) by four lengths in the G3 Leopardstown 2000

Famous Name

Guineas Trial last time Apr. 6. "Our intention, all being well, is to run, but if it was fast or good-to-firm I don't think we would," Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe told the Racing Post. "His participation is in the lap of the gods." The Curragh's Manager Paul Hensey is doubtful as to whether he will line up, due to the lack of significant rain. "We're good-to-firm at the moment and have very little rain forecast," Hensey explained. "We've been watering very cautiously and if Famous Name is a horse that does not act on good-to-firm, I'd say he's probably an unlikely runner. But that is Dermot's decision." While Henrythenavigator is undoubtedly Ballydoyle's number one, Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith's Jupiter Pluvius is a fascinating contender. Despite being a latecomer at two, he made a serious impact with two wins in the space of eight days at the end of October. He won a six-furlong maiden here and Leopardstown's G3 Killavullan S., in which Famous Name was among the vanquished. Jupiter Pluvius looked to be the stable's main English Guineas hope before a dirty scope ruled him out, and he warrants respect. No horse has won this at odds of bigger than 20-1 since 1976, and Joseph Duke's Sammy the Snake will need to perform a minor miracle to get involved. Trainer Brendan Duke is aware of the task ahead for the colt, whose sole outing came at this track in the opening juvenile race of the 2007 flat season some 14 months ago.

STORMIN FEVER
STORM CAT-PENNANT FEVER

A dominant 3 1/2 length MSW winner on Kentucky Oaks Day at Churchill, STORMIN FEVER's Whirlie Bertie returned with an effortless 7 3/4 length allowance score over older fillies at the historic track on May 22nd. Another STORMIN FEVER with a big, big future!

"He's been off for a very long time, as he sustained quite a serious injury and didn't start cantering until the last week of February," he commented. "I'm very happy with the way he works and it's all systems go, but it's been a really tight schedule and I've had to throw the kitchen sink at him. I would have loved another fortnight, but he's really tough and has taken everything he's been asked to do."

Mick Channon also has Liam Mulryan's Eva's Request (Ire) to call upon. She showed improvement when taking the G3 C L Weld Park S. here in September and was fifth behind Dr Ronan Lambe's Caribbean Sunset in the G3 Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial at Leopardstown May 11. She is no back-number according to her conditioner. "She'll be a lot better than her prep run and is a pretty decent filly," he continued. Caribbean Sunset, who accounted for Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and Susan Magnier's Halfway to Heaven and Ennistown Stud's Saoirse Abu in the Apr. 6 G3 Leopardstown 1000 Guineas Trial S., is joined by Moyglare Stud Farm's Mad About You as Dermot Weld looks for his fourth edition. The latter was third behind the aforementioned Saoirse Abu in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. here in September before filling the same spot behind Zarkava (Ire) in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac at Longchamp the following month.

Previously staged at Sandown, this race has endured a tumultuous recent history, and was run without starting stalls at Epsom in 2004. It has a new base now and has attracted a quality line-up as a result. Dandy Man makes his first start in the Godolphin blue and his first since a disappointing no-show in Longchamp's G1 Prix de l'Abbaye in October, but he had previously shown himself to be out of the top drawer when runner-up in Royal Ascot's G2 King's Stand S. in June and third in York's G1 Nunthorpe S. in August. "Dandy Man is working well," trainer Saeed bin Suroor commented. "He has shown us a lot of speed at home, as well as a good turn of foot. This race will suit him and he's ready to go. I would like to see a big run from him."

Jeremy Nosedo saddles Fleeting Spirit, who covered herself in glory at two when annexing the G3 Molecomb S. at Goodwood in July, Doncaster's G2 Flying Childers S. in September and going down by a neck to Natagora (Fr) in the following month's G1 Cheveley Park S. at Newmarket on her last start. "This was always the intention before the G1 King's Stand S. and although there is always a little bit of a query regarding fillies training on from two to three, I feel she's every bit as good and possibly even a bit better than she was," her conditioner said. "I couldn't be happier with her and although it's tough for three-year-old sprinters taking on these big, seasoned campaigners, she is looking particularly well and loves fast ground." Reverence took this in 2006 before going on to glory in the G1 Nunthorpe S. and G1 Haydock Sprint Cup that season, but had looked past his best days over the past 10 months. He showed some sparkle with a conditions success at this track last time May 10 and will be a major player if the ground eases. "If there wasn't rain and if the ground was as firm as it was on Thursday, then he won't run, but if it's safe he will," trainer Eric Alston told PA Sport. "He's in great order. He's back to himself now, I think."

☆ CLASSIC CORNER ☆

DOCTOR TO BE ADDED TO DERBY Khalid Abdullah's Doctor Fremantle (GB) (Sadler's Wells) will be supplemented to the G1 Epsom Derby, for which 21 entries remained after the latest forfeit stage. Connections announced that the G3 Chester Vase winner would be added to the list at a cost of £75,000. That will boost the Sir Michael Stoute team for the £1.25 million June 7 Classic to a maximum of three, alongside Ballymacoll Stud's G2 Dante S. winner Tartan Bearer (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}) and Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's G3 Dee S. scorer Tajaaweed (Dynaformer). Despite the inclusion of Princess Haya of Jordan's New Approach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), trainer Jim Bolger stated that he was left in due to an error and will not be lining up. The current ante-post favorite is Patrick Cooper's G2 Beresford S. winner Curtain Call (Fr) (Sadler's Wells), while Godolphin have left in two high-class contenders in the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere winner and G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains runner-up Rio de la Plata (Rahy) and last year's G1 Racing Post Trophy winner Ibn Khaldun (Dubai Destination). Aidan O'Brien can call on a seven-strong team, including Susan Magnier's G1 2000 Guineas winner Henrythenavigator (Kingmambo), Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and Magnier's G3 Lingfield Derby Trial scorer Alessandro Volta (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) and the Dante runner-up Frozen Fire (Ger) (Montjeu {Ire}). Among the remaining French entry is His Highness the Aga Khan's G2 Prix Greffulhe runner-up Ripple (Fr) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) from the Jean-Claude Rouget yard. Clerk of the Course and Director of Racing Andrew Cooper has a keen eye on the unpredictable British weather ahead of the blue riband. "The course at Epsom Downs is in good condition and at present the ground is generally good-to-firm," he said yesterday. "The forecast for the Bank Holiday weekend is for unsettled conditions, with the chance of rain on Sunday and Monday."

NATAGORA TO GO UP IN TRIP Stefan Friberg's Natagora (Fr) (Divine Light {Jpn}) will try a new trip in her next start, as connections have decided to stay on the Classic trail. Despite early indications that the G1 1000 Guineas heroine might stay at a mile for the June 20 G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot, Chantilly's June 1 G1 Prix du Jockey-Club and G1 Prix de Diane a week later are the options under scrutiny now. "She worked so brilliantly in her gallop at Chantilly on Wednesday that we have decided on the Jockey-Club or the Diane, as she knows the track and acts on it so well," trainer Pascal Bary told the Racing Post. "Unless there is an unforeseen problem, she will not be going to Ascot for the Coronation S."

OAKS IS IN BALANCE FOR LUSH Jim and Jackie Bolger's Lush Lashes (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) was one of 25 fillies remaining in the G1 Juddmonte Oaks at the latest forfeit stage, and her trainer has refused to rule out a tilt at the £350,000 contest. The impressive G3 Musidora S. winner has the alternative option of waiting for the July 13 G1 Irish Oaks at The Curragh, and ground conditions will be key to her participation in the June 6 Epsom Classic. "If the ground is good at Epsom, we will give the race very serious consideration," her trainer told PA Sport yesterday. Among the notables remaining are Five Horses Ltd's Musidora S. runner-up Cape Amber (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) from the Peter Chapple-Hyam stable, His Highness the Aga Khan's G3 Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial runner-up Katiyra (Ire) (Peintre Celebre) from the John Oxx barn and the Dermot Weld-trained duo of Chinese White (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}), who took the Listed Victor Mccalmont Memorial S. for Lady O'Reilly and Mad About You (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}), the Moyglare Stud homebred who was third in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. and G1 Prix Marcel Boussac last term. Aidan O'Brien has 10 entries remaining headed by Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and Susan Magnier's Listed Cheshire Oaks scorer Sail (Ire) (Sadler's Wells). Trainer Clive Cox will be represented by Dominic Burke's Listed Lingfield Oaks Trial scorer Miracle Seeker (GB) (Rainbow Quest) and her owner-breeder yesterday issued an upbeat bulletin. "She's bouncing, eating up and she's put on weight since her win at Lingfield," he said. "We think she's come on quite a bit with each race. I speak to Clive every other day and we are both excited about having our first Classic runner. She's a very settled filly and she traveled down the hill at Lingfield very well. She hasn't got a turn of foot, but she does possess gears and she's a real battler. She's a fantastic filly and we are all very excited. We know she will handle the track and the ground and stay the distance." Of those scratched at the latest stage are Lord Lloyd-Webber's Musidora S. third Dar Re Mi (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) and the top-class French fillies Proviso (GB) (Dansili {GB}) and Zarkava (Ire) (Zamindar).

WRITERS UP

AT SKYLIGHT, A MOVE TOWARD SAFETY by Lucas Marquardt

As trainer Niall O'Callaghan listened to the accusations of cruelty in the horse business following the breakdown of Eight Belles in the GI Kentucky Derby, he couldn't help but get angry.

While O'Callaghan felt some of the criticism was valid, much of it painted the industry as callous and indifferent to the well-being of its equine participants. To O'Callaghan, critics disregarded the steps that have been made in recent years to ensure the safety of horses in training.

"I'm reading about the filly and this, that and the other, but there are a lot of people spending a lot of money so these types of things don't happen," said O'Callaghan. "I believe we're fighting back, we're doing good things. Why should we take all this abuse from the media on how we treat our horses? The people who are criticizing us just haven't noticed, and that's disheartening."

The Irishman stands on good ground when he talks about the steps that have been made. Or, more accurately, on a good synthetic surface.

O'Callaghan is one of a handful of trainers who stable at Skylight Training Center in Oldham County, Kentucky, a 65-acre facility about half an hour from Churchill Downs. Carl Nafzger, who conditioned last year's Derby winner Street Sense, and protege Ian Wilkes also have runners at Skylight.

About two years ago, the trainers approached the owners of Skylight, Bill and Julie Wahl, about the benefits of synthetic surfaces and the possibility of converting Skylight's dirt track. Bill, a retired international director of security at UPS, purchased Skylight in 2002, and the track and barns are located, literally, in his backyard.

Bill was intrigued by the idea of synthetics. He investigated several options and eventually landed on Pro-Ride, the Australian-based company which garnered national attention over the winter when it was called in to refurbish the Cushion Track at Santa Anita during its drainage issues.

"I was surprised when they approached me," said Wahl. "Well, not Niall, because he's European and he was used to synthetic tracks. But I was surprised with Carl, who is what I considered to be an old-school trainer. But Carl was one of the driving forces behind the track."

Wahl said he chose Pro-Ride because it employs a polymer, rather than wax, to bind its surface. Wahl believes the polymer isn't as likely as wax to be affected by extreme cold or heat.

Work on Skylight's new track was completed last August and, thus far, O'Callaghan and company have been pleased with the results.

"I galloped horses for 25 years at The Curragh, at Newmarket in England, in Chantilly, and I've never seen a surface as good as this one," said O'Callaghan. "It's always the same. It's never muddy. It's always got a nice cushion. I like it because you never wake up in the morning and expect something different with it. And I would say that 90 or 95 percent--I mean almost all--of the hind-end soreness is gone from our horses, and any of our vets would tell you that. And about 40 percent of our front-end soreness is gone. It's amazing with the hind end, because the surface just doesn't slip at all."

For Bill Wahl, who took on the task of grooming the old dirt track himself, the switch has meant far fewer hours on his John Deere tractor.

"The dirt track we had was fantastic--it really was second to none--but it took a lot of time to take care of," said Wahl. "I was putting in from between four and 10 hours a day grooming and watering. Now, I'm down to about two hours a week."

Wahl added that he's been most impressed with the track's ability to handle inclement weather. Given its location, Skylight is subjected to 90-plus-degree heat in the summer, while in the winter the track faces ice, snow and sub-freezing temperatures. Cont. p10

"You can have a really nice dirt track, but you can only have a really nice dirt track so many days a year," said Wahl. "Remember Monmouth last year [during the Breeders' Cup]? No dirt track in the world could have been good that day. The trainers like this track because it makes their jobs easier--they know what they're going to get each day--but I think the horses like it, too, for the same reason. They really do seem a lot happier."

That happiness came at a price, though. According to Wahl, the cost of converting the track to Pro-Ride exceeded $1 million.

"You know, we're just a small private training center, and we took a significant financial risk installing a synthetic track," said Wahl. "But it's better for the horses, which means that it will ultimately be better for the owners, too. One of the greatest lessons I learned at UPS was that if you do things right and do what's best for the client, the financials will take care of themselves."

O'Callaghan and Wahl point out that tracks like Sky-light are just part of the solution in reducing the rate of injuries in horses, but a significant step they hope will help combat the view that racing is indifferent to horses' injuries.

"We've had such a rash of bad publicity here, but we are trying to do something about soundness," said O'Callaghan. "A lot of people--the Keenelands of the world, the Michael Dickinsons, the Pro-Rides--have put up a lot of money to make it safer for the horses, and I think that needs to be mentioned. We're out here, we know there's a problem, and we're spending large amounts of money--that some of us don't have [laughing]--to give the best care we can to the horses."

PORTION OF BIG BROWN EARNINGS TO BENEFIT FALLEN OFFICER, FAMILY The owners of Triple Crown aspirant Big Brown (Boundary) have announced that they will donate a portion of the colt's earnings from the GI Belmont S. June 7 to help establish a scholarship fund for the young son of a local police officer who was critically injured in the line of duty. On May 18, a driver with a suspended license slammed into Kenneth Baribault's police car during a traffic stop the Long Island Expressway. Baribault had pulled over a sport utility vehicle on suspicion of drunken driving when the driver of a silver Mercedes, whom police said was inebriated, plowed into the back of the police cruiser. The impact pushed the police car into the SUV and lifted it six feet off the ground, according to witnesses. Baribault is in a coma following surgery to reduce swelling in his brain. In a press conference held yesterday at Belmont Park, IEAH Stable principals Michael Iavarone and Richard Schiavo pledged their support to the family of the stricken officer. "In time like this, it is imperative we come together," said Iavarone. "We want to stand up and make something good happen. It's not just a financial thing--we want to be there for the family." Added Tom Suozzi, the county executive, "We are all pulling for Big Brown in the Belmont here on Long Island, but we are also pulling for Big Blue--Kenny Baribault. This means the family has one less thing to worry about as he recovers. It's one less burden in his family's life."

BY THE LIGHT (Malibu Moon) ran roughshod over NY-breds in three starts last year, trouncing colts in the NY Breeders' Futurity. The $190K FTMSEP yearling then annexed the Delta Princess S. by 5 1/4 lengths Dec. 7, but hasn't faced the starter since. Trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. has a 22% strike rate with runners returning from a layoff. Cutting back in distance is Overandabeauty (Grand Slam), a 1/2 to GISW Tapit. The $750K KEESEP yearling graduated over track and trip Sept. 15. Second going a mile at Gulfstream Feb. 24, she faded to sixth going nine panels in the GII Bonnie Miss S. Mar. 29, but drilled a bullet half at Saratoga May 14 in preparation for her return. brisnet.com PPs

The mare was acquired for 850,000gns with this colt in utero; trainer Alan Goldberg hits at 20% with his firsters, and Edgar Prado will wear the Jayeff B colors. Also making his debut is Yield Bogey (Langfuhr), a Fox Ridge homebred. The 4-year-old, a son of GSW Upper Noosh, has several good drills for trainer Pat Kelly. brisnet.com PPs

Things hadn't gone as smoothly this year for her, however. Third in a Gulfstream turf allowance Feb. 22, the bay was a distant fourth in the GII Bonnie Miss S. Mar. 29, and most recently rounded out the trifecta going a mile on Belmont's main track May 2. Back on the grass this time and stretching out to 10 panels, the 5-2 favorite was allowed to coast through splits of :51.01 and 1:16.64. The bay led early on the grass at that track Mar. 16, but faded to eighth, and came into this affair off a solid second at Churchill Apr. 30. Sent off as the 5-2 second choice while cutting back here, she was forced to steady early and raced in seventh. OBS June Catalogues Now Online:

The print catalogues for the upcoming Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's June Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training are in the main, but buyers can access the catalogues online at the company's website at www.obssales.com. A total of 562 juveniles and 29 older horses are set to go under the hammer over the course of the two-day event June 17 and 18. Selling begins each day at 10:30 a.m. Under-tack previews are scheduled for June 14 and 15 beginning each morning at 8 a.m.

Bonus Structure for Haskell:

Officials at Monmouth Park have announced a bonus structure for the GI Haskell Invitational S. in an attempt to attract the winners of this year's Triple Crown races. Monmouth is offering a bonus incentive that would reward the owner and the trainer of any horse who wins a leg of the Triple Crown $25,000 each for each race won in the series. If Big Brown, who has already won the Kentucky Derby and Preakness S., completes the Triple Crown in the Belmont, his owners and trainer would each receive a $75,000 bonus if the horse runs in the Haskell. "Obviously you always want to attract horses with Triple Crown races on their resumes," said Robert J. Kulina, vice president of racing and general manager of Monmouth Park. "The Haskell has stamped itself as the next logical step following the Triple Crown, the beginning of the second half of the season and a target race for horses looking at year-end honors." Recent champions that have competed in the Haskell include Point Given, War Emblem, Funny Cide and last year's Horse of the Year, Curlin.

Tequilas Dayjur captured her first two outings at Keeneland last fall, but her perfect record came to an end when she finished eighth in Pure Clan's GIII Pocahontas S. over this strip Oct. 28. The dark bay made a successful return under the Twin Spires Apr. 30 and was the second choice here. After breaking a bit awkwardly, the homebred pressed the pace before shaking loose in the lane en route to the win.

MAMBO IN SEATTLE (c, 3, Kingmambo--Weekend in Seattle {GISP, $147,245}, by Seattle Slew) broke his maiden by a head going this track's one-turn mile Nov. 10, then was promptly shelved. The bay returned to action with an even sixth in a two-turn allowance at Keeneland Apr. 12 and was coming into this effort off a runner-up finish in a post-Derby allowance May 3, a race in which he may have cost himself the win by drifting late. Bet in half from his morning line of 5-1 for this one, the homebred settled off the pace three wide, was one of four vying for the lead across the track at the quarter pole and kicked it in late to post a one-length win. Solemn Promise (Broken Vow) was second, a length ahead of favored Blackberry Road (Gone West). The winner is out of a full sister to A.P. Drainage Problems Resurface at Santa Anita:

A surprise rainstorm late Thursday night dumped as much as two inches of rain over the greater Los Angeles area, leaving some areas of standing water on the much-beleaguered synthetic surface at Santa Anita Park. The storm hit a little less than a week before the track is scheduled to conduct tests to simulate the effects of a three- to four-inch rainfall. The testing is set for next Wednesday, following which the track will be closed for training Thursday and Friday. "We're looking to see that water gets down to the asphalt and it drains through the asphalt," Charles told Daily Racing Form. "Getting two inches was a good test. With some additional work, we can have the racetrack in perfect shape for the Oak Tree meeting." Following the test, a final decision will be made as to whether to retain the synthetic main track or to replace it with a conventional dirt surface. There were few recorded workouts Friday morning at the track, with trainer Jeff Mullins telling DRF, "It's got soft spots and it's really inconsistent."

Zenyatta Works for Milady:

Jerry and Ann Moss's undefeated Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}) tuned up for the GII Milady H. May 31 at Hollywood, going an easy six furlongs in 1:13.40 beneath exercise rider Steve Willard. "She looked good," commented trainer John Shirreffs, who observed the move from the porch of the stable kitchen overlooking the backstretch. "She just went even." The half-sister to MGISW Balance is perfect in her four career trips to the post, including the GI Apple Blossom H. Apr. 5, a race in which she bested reigning Eclipse Award winner Ginger Punch by eight lengths.

ASCOT TARGET FOR TWICE OVER

Khalid Abdullah's Twice Over (GB) (Observatory) will be pointed at the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot following his third in the May 15 G2 Dante S. at York, trainer Henry Cecil announced yesterday. After scratching the G3 Craven S. winner from the G1 Epsom Derby, his conditioner outlined the provisional plan to head for the June 17 mile contest. "I was very disappointed after the Dante and initially thought he didn't stay and hated the ground," he explained. "He was perfect when he went there, was working unbelievably and in really good form, but in the race he was never going and when he came back his red blood cell count was very high. He had some little thing on him, which he probably picked up in transport, so we've treated him with antibiotics and he is 100 percent now. He can go to the St James's Palace a fresh horse--he has come on an awful lot from Newmarket and the way he works Ascot's stiff mile would be a good idea."

NO FIREWORKS AT IFFEZHEIM

Yesterday's BBAG Spring Sale returned solid but unspectacular returns, with a two-year-old daughter of Singspiel (Ire) proving the top draw when selling to the MAB Agency for €64,000. Bred and consigned by Gerd Sindermann, hip 108 is a half-sister to the listed winner Muskatsturm (Ger) from the family of last year's run-away G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) heroine Mystic Lips (Ger) and G2 Prix de Pomone and G3 Prix Allez France scorer Macleya (Ger). Dirk Eisele's BBA Germany made their presence felt as usual and snapped up hip 57, the Bo-Coeur Syndikat's juvenile son of Daylami (Ire). Out of a sister to the 2000 G1 Grosser Erdgas-Preis-winning champion Catella (Ger) who has already produced the group-placed Corriolanus (Ger), she hails from the extended family of Glint of Gold (GB) and Diamond Shoal (GB) and fetched €58,000. Gestut Fahrhof consigned the third highest-priced breezer when their colt by Groom Dancer was bought by Manfred Hofer for €52,000. Hip 64 is out of the 2002 G3 Deutscher Stutenpreis winner Divisa (Ger), whose page includes the listed scorer and 2004 G1 Derby Italiano second Dayano (Ger). Karl-Dieter Ellerbracke, the Company's president, was looking at the positives after the sale saw the average drop by 12 percent and median fall by the same. "It has been a difficult sale in view of the pending structural reform in German racing, as well as the problematic situation within the Baden-Baden Race Club and the withdrawal of many prominent lots," he said. "Under these circumstances one has to be pleased enough with the overall outcome, which accounts for the same number of horses sold as last year and the percentage being down by only roughly 10 percent."
