OH, HENRY!

Only a nose separated Henrythenavigator (Kingmambo) and New Approach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) at the end of Newmarket's G1 2000 Guineas a fortnight ago, but the margin widened yesterday as Susan Magnier's charge became the latest to complete the double in The Curragh equivalent. Sent off at 5-4 after losing the battle for favoritism, Ballydoyle's latest star tracked his great rival throughout the contest and had too many guns when let loose three wide inside the final furlong. At the line, there was a 1 3/4-length margin back to the 11-10 pick and more than a degree of comfort in the manner of success. "He's a very classy horse with a lot of natural speed," commented Aidan O'Brien after greeting his fifth win of this racer. "He has come forward from his first run, has relaxed and quickened and done everything right." ## BOLGER LIABLE TO BOUNCE BACK WITH ABU

While Jim Bolger lost out with New Approach (Ire) in yesterday's G1 Irish 2000 Guineas, Saoirse Abu (Mr. Greeley) has the chance to provide consolation in today's fillies' equivalent at The Curragh. Matiya (Ire) in 1996 was the last filly use a placing in the Newmarket Guineas as a springboard to success here, and that Classic remains the best guide to this contest. Consistently underestimated by the betting public so far in her career, Ennistown Stud and Jackie Bolger's chestnut belied her inflated odds at this venue when besting Henrythenavigator in the G1 Phoenix S. in August before repeating the dose at the expense of Listen (Ire) in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. the following month.

www.aththeraces.com

Staying on when third of the May 4 Classic, she has sound claims of emulating Finsceal Beo (Ire) to provide her Coolcullen trainer with back-to-back renewals. "She seems very well and she is not a filly that takes a lot of work, so we have not had to ask her many questions since Newmarket," Bolger said. Cont. p2-3

IRISH 2000 GUINEAS cont.

Henrythenavigator was obvious ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ material when opening his account at the first time of asking at Gowran Park in May and made the necessary step forward to take the G2 Coventry S. at Royal Ascot the following month. While deep ground at this venue provided excuses when he was subsequently runner-up in the G1 Phoenix S. in August and third to New Approach in the G2 Futurity S. in September, he nonetheless entered the May 3 G1 2000 Guineas with a question mark against his level of ability. That was quickly dispelled with an impressive turn of acceleration to cut down last year's champion and, while he needed a measure of courage to finish the task there, his raw speed was enough to settle the rematch in no uncertain terms. Always traveling easily in third as New Approach adopted his customary front-running tactics, he was in front in a matter of strides when switched out and had no difficulties throughout the final 150 yards. "Johnny [Murtagh] is naturally confident, but this week he said that he would win without coming off the bridle and how right he was," O'Brien added. "He is very relaxed and has a change of gear, so all the options are open to him. He is still in the [June 7] G1 Epsom Derby and everyone knows what a special race that is, but the boss and Sue will make that decision." Jim Bolger, trainer of the runner-up, was disappointed that the race was staged on ground which was changed officially to firm before racing. He told PA Sport, "I think it is unfair that we didn't have proper Guineas ground. There was no need to have firm ground, and he was leaning left all the time. He will come back here for the [June 29] G1 Irish Derby if the ground is good."

IRISH 1000 GUINEAS

Here, Kitty Kitty...

Imagine (Ire) provided Aidan O'Brien with the first of his two editions seven years ago, and her third foal is here to bid for a repeat of history. Like that luminary, Diane Nagle and Susan Magnier's Kitty Matcham (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) boasts group-winning form at two and has even upstaged her at this point by going one better and winning the G2 Rockfel S. at Newmarket in October. Her return at that track saw her finish an encouraging ninth in the 1000 Guineas, the form of which has already been boosted by the success of also-ran Lush Lashes (GB) in York's G3 Musidora S.

Ballydoyle also have Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's Savethisdanceforme (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), who was one place behind Kitty Matcham in the 1000 Guineas. She had previously shown a liking for this circuit when winning the Listed Lanwades and Staffordstown Studs S. in October and Mar. 30 G3 Park Express S. on her seasonal bow, but needs the heavens to open.

Halfway to Heaven (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}), who was sent to Longchamp for the May 11 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches, covered herself in glory when third there, having previously split Dr Ronan Lambe's Carribbean Sunset (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) and Saoirse Abu in the Apr. 6 G3 Leopardstown 1000 Guineas Trial S.

In smashing the existing track record by over a second, Fleeting Spirit set some of her own headlines on a day of high-class sport. At the top of the tree at two over five and six furlongs, she showed blinding speed to win the G3 Molecomb S. at Goodwood in July and Doncaster's G2 Flying Childers S. in September either side of a third placing in the G2 Lowther S. at York in August. Only the subsequent G1 1000 Guineas heroine Natagora (Fr) could stop her in the G1 Cheveley Park S. at Newmarket in October and she had reportedly made further progress during her winter vacation. Despite breaking awkwardly from the stalls, the bay was ridden with confidence off the fast early fractions. When the button was pushed, there was nothing that could match her burst up the centre of the track which succumbed the warring duo Borderlescott and Desert Lord against the far rail. Slow pace? No problem. Mauralakana was her usual unhurried self as Herboriste tried to take it all the way, but when Kent Desormeaux pressed the button at the top of the stretch, the neatly made bay accelerated smartly past her rival to win by daylight as the favorite. "She was bought as a broodmare prospect for Australia," said winning trainer Christophe Clement. "The plan is for her to be covered by Sept. 1, and then go to Australia. So, we will be looking at the [GI] Beverly D. [Aug. 9]. Of course, things could change." Winner of last year's GIII Locust Grove H. for trainer Patrick Biancone, she made her way to her new connections for $900,000 at KEENOV. The French-bred kicked off 2008 with a victory in the GIII The Very One H. Mar. 8 at Gulfstream before coming up second-best to Hostess in the GIII Orchid H. Mar. 30. She rebounded to best J'ray (Distant View) in the Mairzy Doates H. at Calder Apr. 26 in her most recent outing.

decided on a return to sprinting after his disappointing

Colm O'Donoghue, the bay was switched wide as the

Subsequently off the board in both the Apr. 13 G3

Gladness S. and May 5 G3 Athasi S. at this track, the mare signed off in style with a dramatically improved performance here. Held up towards the rear early, the bay arrived pulling double out wide and, when she swept to the front at the furlong marker, the contest was settled. "She did it well and I am totally stunned, as she worked quite average last week," trainer Charles O'Brien explained. "We decided to give her one more go, but I might just pull the plug now." Grecian Dancer

Coragil Cat labored through his NW1X condition for 16 starts before turning things around in a one-mile optional claimer at Fair Grounds

Mar. 8. Emboldened by that effort, the dark bay added the Timeless Native S. over this course and distance May 3--setting a track record in the process--and kept up his upward surge here. Jim Tafel's homebred, dismissed at 11-1, was unhurried in seventh as second choice Spotsgone (Bright Launch) showed the way through a :45.56 opening half-mile.

Coragil Cat came out to deliver his challenge, hit the front approaching the furlong marker and drew off for his third straight score. "He's trained excellently since his last race, so we decided to run and give him a chance here," said winning trainer Greg Geier.

Racegoers at Doomben stood in unison and applauded Apache Cat as the bold chestnut streaked to his fifth straight and most decisive Group 1 win when he romped clear at the merest urging by jockey Corey Brown. Sent out the favourite despite a troublesome week with uncertainty surrounding blood tests, the powerful chestnut with striking white markings simply did what he does best, settling in third on the fence behind Murtajill and Helideck (Aus) before easing out at the 250-meter mark to annihilate his rivals. Murtajill held ground for second while 40-1 chance Turffontein flashed home late to snare third, a further half-length back.

Apache Cat

Apache Cat matched Tulloch's record set in 1957 when the Tommy Smith-trained champion captured a Group 1 quintet. "That was his best win. He was never going to lose," Brown reported. Trainer Greg Eurell ruled out a tilt at the G1 Stradbroke H. at Eagle Farm June 7, saying the homebred gelding would run twice in Melbourne in spring before being pointed to the Hong Kong Sprint at Sha Tin in December.

TDN Star of the Week

Brought to you by FASIG-TIPTON

EDDIE WOODS

Accomplishment: Woods purchased Big Brown for $60,000 as a yearling at Fasig-Tipton in October 2006 and returned the following April to sell the colt for 190,000 to Paul Pompa Jr. at the Keeneland Two-year-olds in Training sale. Kentucky Derby winner Big Brown, who added the GI Preakness S. May 17, will try and complete the Triple Crown in the June 7 GI Belmont S.

Birthdate: Apr. 13, 1958
Birthplace: Dublin, Ireland
Family: Fiancée Angela Mellerick, son David, 13

Current residence: Ocala, FL

What did you do to celebrate Big Brown's Preakness win? Screamed and yelled and jumped up and down and screamed and yelled and jumped up and down, and then went to dinner at The Oregon Grill.

How did you get into horse racing? Was born into it. My dad was a jockey and then trained; back then you kind of got press ganged into the family trade, someone had to water off at night. It's worked out well, though.

Personality wise, who's been your favorite horse? I have always been fond of Mr. Ed, but nowadays I think I'm drifting towards Big Brown.

If you could have dinner with one historical figure, who would it be? Napoleon Bonaparte--we would be on eye level.

If you're having friends over for dinner, what's on the menu? Lots of good wine, a good steak and Caesar salad, and some more of that wine.

What are your hobbies outside of racing? I like to walk in the woods, that's how I play golf best.

There has been a renewed debate about synthetic tracks, it seems, after the problems at Santa Anita, the breakdown of Eight Belles, etc. What's your view of synthetic tracks for both training and racing? Synthetic tracks are a step in the right direction, but there is still a ways to go; they do cause their own unique problems and will probably always do so, but time and experience will improve things. Anything that can be done for the health of the horse has to be done.

Favorite sports team/favorite athlete? Denver Broncos, Tiger Woods.

Funniest movie? Cars.

Last Purchase? Patio furniture.

6	2	Mooretown Lady (Ire)	Montjeu (Ire)	Rogers

All carry 126 pounds bar Finsceal Beo & Mooretown Lady, 123.

Duke of Marmalade faces a depleted challenge as he bids to cement his position as Ballydoyle's leading older horse. Solid throughout last term, he made the first three in the G1 St James's Palace S., G1 Irish Champion S. and G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. without garnering the winner's prize, but put that right on his first four-year-old start.

Duke of Marmalade's defeat of Saddex (GB) and Sageburg (Ire) in the Apr. 27 G1 Prix Ganay at Longchamp has already been boosted by subsequent Group 1 wins for both, and he sets a high standard here. He may be helped further by the inclusion of his stable companion Red Rock Canyon, who was one place behind him when the pair followed home Dylan Thomas (Ire) in the Irish Champion S. on his final start at Leopardstown in September. Finsceal Beo was winning her second Guineas on this card 12 months ago and, despite being winless since, showed definite signs of a revival when just over two lengths fifth in the Mar. 29 G1 Dubai Duty Free at Nad Al Sheba last time.

Oriental Tiger comes here off the back of wins in the Apr. 6 G3 Grand Prix Aufgalopp and Apr. 27 G2 Gerling Preis at Cologne and bids to defy a subsequent penalty. That extra burden also applies to last year's G1 Deutsches Derby hero Adlerflug, who was disappointing when down the field on his return in the Gerling-Preis. Egerton proved his love of this track once again when third behind Quijano (Ger) and Adlerflug in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden in September, a race in which he was runner-up in 2004 and fourth two years later. He was also successful in the G3 Baden-Wurtemberg-Trophy in October and will strip fitter for his comeback seventh in the Grand Prix Aufgalopp.

Dream Rush, a multiple Grade I winner last season, faces the starter for the first time since finishing fifth in the Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint Oct. 26 at Monmouth.

Dream Rush Horsephotos

The bay did her running for West Point Thoroughbreds in 2007, but was acquired by Halsey Minor for $3.3 million at FTKNOV. While she was slated to return in March, a minor problem kept her in the barn, and trainer Rick Violette Jr. has her ready now. "She's matured since her three-year-old campaign," said Violette. "Aside from the little hiccup with the injury, she's been doing everything we've wanted." Third to Dream Rush in the GI Test S. and second by a nose to eventual champ Maryfield in the GI Ballerina S. at Saratoga, Baroness Thatcher comes into this contest off a head loss in the GI Humana Distaff H. at Churchill on the Kentucky Derby undercard. A pair of classy five-year-olds are also in the field. Any Limit, a multiple graded winner last winter, came back from an 11-month break to run third over a soft course in the Upper Noosh S. May 17, and should appreciate being back on the main track here. Sangrita, heroine of the GII Chilukki S. at three, was sidelined for 14 months before returning to be second to Change Up in a Gulfstream optional claimer Jan. 25, but hasn't been out since.

Tony Dutrow will saddle a pair of runners in Belmont's Memorial Day feature; fittingly, his charges will flank the field from the rail and outside posts. Lord Snowdon, coming off a fourth in the GI Carter H. Apr. 5, has the inside, while Premium Wine, the Carter third, will break from post nine. "I am very excited about running in the Met Mile," said Dutrow. "It is an enormous opportunity to be able to run in a race as big as this one. And the thing is, I am not in there with horses that can be overlooked. It's not like I am running 75-1 shots and people are saying, 'What is he doing in there?' This is a great, important race, and I feel we're in it with horses that belong here." Dutrow added, "They started out like they weren't supposed to be in this type of race, and yet they have kept getting better and better. They are training so well that I figured I had to take a chance in the Met Mile."

GOMEZ GETS 'MACHO' MOUNT West Point Thoroughbreds' Macho Again (Macho Uno), second to Big Brown in the GI Preakness S. May 17, will be piloted by Garret Gomez when he takes on the Triple Crown hopeful in the GI Belmont S. June 7. The Eclipse Award-winning reinsman replaces

Horsephotos

Julien Leparoux, who had ridden the colt to victory in the Derby Trial S. prior to the Preakness. "Julien has done a great job with him," acknowledged trainer Dallas Stewart. "But after talking with [West Point Thoroughbreds' managing partner] Terry Finley and the owners, it was decision based more on a 'home court advantage' for the rider. Gomez is a New York rider, and he knows that mile-and-a-half track. That's not taking anything away from Julien or anything, but Gomez rides there every day, and he's going to ride a bunch on the card." Stewart continued, "We're going up there trying to win it, not that we think we couldn't win it with Julien. Terry just felt that it would give us a little bit of an edge to have someone that rides there every day."

Getting Ready to Spin the Wheel...

New York Racing Association officials reported yesterday that the connections of Casino Drive (Mineshaft) will make an announcement Wednesday as to the colt's rider in the GI Belmont S. Kent Desormeaux, who was aboard in the chestnut's score in the GII Peter Pan S., has the call aboard Big Brown in the final jewel of the Triple Crown.

BOARD RECLASSIFIES STEROIDS; TOUGHENS PENALTIES In an effort to eliminate the race-day use of anabolic steroids in race horses in the state, the California Horse Racing Board acted Tuesday to reclassify the medications and stiffen penalties for violations. Testing will begin July 1. "This is an easy one," said CHRHB Chairman Richard B. Shapiro. "Anabolic steroids have no place in competition sports, including horse racing. Period! End!" To satisfy the 45-day public notice requirement, the new classifications will be posted immediately, and there will be a public hearing at Del Mar July 17. A larger regulatory package of penalties and classification changes, which has been making its way through the regulatory process, is expected to be enacted in time for the Breeders' Cup at Santa Anita Park Oct. 24-25. The Board previously had banned all steroid use, with the exception of very low levels of boldenone, stanozolol, nandrolone and testosterone. Under the new classifications, a positive for any of these substances would result in disqualification, purse redistribution and a minimum 30-day suspension for a first offense. Additional measures adopted by the CHRHB to protect the integrity of racing have included:

- Increasingly extensive pre-race examinations of all horses entered to run.
- Increased scrutiny of horses as they make their way to the gate.
- Improved racing surfaces.
- State-of-the-art drug testing at the Board's primary laboratory.
- A necropsy program that generates information used to prevent catastrophic injuries to horses.

Shapiro indicated that the effort to ensure the welfare of horses and riders would continue. "In the future, we'll be looking at inbreeding and some of the other possible contributors we might consider as adding to the frailty of racehorses today," he added. For more information, go to www.chrb.ca.gov.

LEAR'S PRINCESS INJURED West Point Thoroughbreds' Lear's Princess (Lear Fan), who defeated champion Rags to Riches in the GI Gazelle S. last year, has suffered an ankle injury and will be sidelined. Tenth as the favorite in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, the bay filly is winless in three starts this season, including a third-place finish to Ginger Punch in the GII Louisville S. May 2. "She came out of her race at Churchill with some heat and inflammation in her left ankle, so we're sending her to Dr. [William] Baker at the Woodford Veterinary Clinic," trainer Kiaran McLaughlin told Daily Racing Form, adding that he hopes the filly will return in "30, 60, or 180 days." Also a stakes winner on the turf, Lear's Princess has a record of 10-4-3-1 and earnings of $491,870.

HORSEMEN COUNTERSUE CDI The Kentucky division of the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association (KHBPA) upped the ante in their ongoing dispute with Churchill Downs Inc. (CDI) over account-wagering revenues, filing a suit against CDI in federal court Friday. Filed in response to the legal action taken by CDI against the horsemen, the KHBPA's suit claims that Churchill is in violation of their current contract, and that the stand-off is costing millions of dollars in purses. KHBPA has also asked the court to reverse the 20-percent purse cut that was enacted by CDI May 14. According to Daily Racing Form, the Kentucky horsemen are insisting that bets placed through Churchill's ADW platform TwinSpire.com result in the same percentage of money deposited in the purse account as the bets placed on track. Due to the dispute, ADW companies have not been able to take wagers on Churchill races since the meet opened Apr. 26.

By the Light romped through a four-race juvenile campaign, beating New York-bred fillies in her first two outings, then dusting colts in the Oct. 6 New York Breeders' Futurity at Finger Lakes. The bay met open company for the first time in the Dec. 7 Delta Princess S. and, sent off the 2-1 chalk, galloped home a 5 1/4-length winner. Off since that effort, she was odds-on in her return. By the Light broke a bit awkwardly and found herself at the back of the tight pack through an opening half in :45.25. The crowd's choice angled outside at the top of the lane and produced a determined late run that saw her drawing clear at the wire.

Acquired in utero for 850,000gns at the Tattersalls December sale, Monastic Springs had posted pedestrian workouts at Colts Neck Stable down in New Jersey, but showed a solid turn of foot after an eventful trip in his career opener. Let go at 12-1, the bay was jostled at the start and raced in traffic down the backstretch. Jockey Edgar Prado had his hands full as he rated the colt off the pace, and had to steady off heels on the far turn and again at the top of the lane. Looking for running room, Prado took aim at an opening between horses, but bumped with Bob's Star (Storm Cat) en route to the hole, forcing him into the rivals on his outside. Unperturbed by the chain reaction, Monastic Springs accelerated once in the clear and caught He Struck It Rich (Seeking the Gold) in the final strides for a neck score. The stewards took a look at the tape, but allowed the original order of finish to stand. Ipi Tombe has an unraced two-year-old filly by Pivotal (GB) named Pin Turn (GB), and was bred to Giant's Causeway in 2008. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $31,200.

She rebounded to finish second by a neck in the Nov. 25 Bessarabian S. at Woodbine in her 2007 finale, and had been out just once since. The bay mare returned from a winter freshening to be fourth in the Apr. 9 GII Vinery Madison S. in Lexington, and proved ready to fire in her second start off the layoff. Settled in third as odds-on Fancy Diamond cut out honest fractions, Wild Gams found a narrow slot between horses at the head of the stretch and caught the pacesetter in the waning yards.

Trevor's Clever, who graduated for a $40,000 tag at Oak Tree, finished second by four lengths to Behindaththebar in a Santa Anita allowance Apr. 3, but failed to build on that effort when seventh to Madeo going 8 1/2 furlongs over this strip Apr. 30. Unhurried early as heavily favored Madeo pressed Pistol Pete Afleet (Northern Afleet), the grey colt drew closer entering the lane. He collared the favorite in deep stretch and had enough to last as his rival battled back along the rail. "I think he bounced last time he met Madeo," said assistant trainer Ted West. "After the race we did a nuclear scan on him because we couldn't find a thing wrong with him, we were just at a loss. We did complete blood chemistry on him and everything came back perfect so I just figured he must have bounced...It sure looks like he's back; we beat a pretty decent field today." Madeo, coming off two straight scores, needs some more experience, according to rider Mike Smith. "It was like he had never run before," said the Hall of Famer. "He pulled up, he ducked in, he jumped out...he did everything he possibly could to get beat. He's used to running at something. I was throwing him down all I could, but he was just very green."

The dark bay didn't start again until Apr. 18, when she tired late to be fifth in main-track allowance at the Arcadia oval, and was the 3-1 second choice in her second start back. Off at 2-1 here, the bay rated just off the pace, forged to the front as they raced out of the turn and needed just a tap of the whip to draw off to a five-length victory. Slight choice Vixana (Gone West) rallied for second. Sweet Awakening (Street Cry {Ire}), last from the gate, made a mild middle move, but flattened out to be fifth. Ignored at the windows here at 53-1, the chestnut balked at the gate and came away slowly to trail the field through the opening six furlongs. Thrust found his best stride, rallied five wide and looked to be on his way to a good second as Waveland Avenue (Grand Slam) led inside the final furlong, but that 3-1 shot broke down badly approaching the wire. Gobbler's Knob (Wordly Manner) was unable to avoid his fallen foe and lost his rider. Dakota Phone (Zavata) was steadied late on his way to a runner-up finish. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $30,800. Folk Opera earned a ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ tag when besting Brisk Breeze (Ger) in a Newbury maiden in April, but was third behind Kayah (GB) and that rival in the Listed Lingfield Oaks Trial the following month and spent the next year on the shelf. Returning with a game win in a handicap at York's Dante meeting 10 days previously, the chestnut allowed Miramare a clear lead and was not hard pressed to pick up that rival before asserting from the furlong pole. "She is temperamental to say the least and is a bit of a handful, but she is in control," Frankie Dettori commented. "She is progressive and I am sure there is a bit more to come. She likes a lead, but tends to wait for the others when she gets to the front and I was convinced the leader would stop going that pace."

Successful at this track in his second go last June, Unnefer finished runner-up in three subsequent juvenile starts and came back this term to bag a conditions event at Newbury Apr. 18. Lining up off a second to G1 Derby hopeful Tajaaweed in the May 9 G3 Dee S. at Chester, he made headway from the rear to lead exiting the dip and kept on strongly under a sympathetic drive up the hill to register a first stakes score. "The ground is quite firm and he wasn't over happy on it," explained winning rider Ted Durcan. "I slotted him in behind and he picked up really well. As a half-sister to A. P. Valentine, Heart Shaped would be forgiven any shortcomings on the track, but she showed that she has the talent to go with the pedigree with this gutsy win. Third on debut behind Cuis Ghaire (Ire) and Silver Shoon at Naas 10 days previously, the flashy chestnut demonstrated how much that first outing can bring one of Ballydoyle's juveniles forward by reversing placings with the latter. Keen early after a slow break, she was anchored behind Silver Shoon by Johnny Murtagh before being pulled out to challenge approaching the final eighth. Gaining the edge with 150 yards remaining, she drew on reserves to hold on in a pulsating drive to the line. "She came on a good bit for her first run and will head to Royal Ascot for the [June 18] G2 Queen Mary S.," commented trainer Aidan O'Brien on a day to remember for the Ballydoyle operation. Click for the Racing Post chart.
