THREE CHIMNEYS
The Idea is Excellence.

Catch Dynaformer's LUCARNO in Today's Brigadier Gerard S. [G3]

NASHOBA'S KEY DIES

Multiple Grade I winner Nashoba's Key (Silver Hawk--Nashoba {Ire}, by Caerleon) was euthanized yesterday morning after suffering a catastrophic injury to her left hock. Bred in California by her owner Warren B. Williamson, the five-year-old won the first seven starts of her career, including the GI Vanity H., the GII Milady Breeders' Cup H. and the GII Clement L. Hirsch H. over synthetic tracks and the GI Yellow Ribbon S. on the turf. A 3-1 chance in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf, the bay endured a tough trip over the boggy going, but was beaten just two lengths in fourth. In two starts this season, she was runner-up in the Sunshine Millions Filly and Mare Turf before taking the GI Santa Margarita H. Mar. 9. "In a freak accident at 5:30 a.m. this morning at Hollywood Park, Nashoba's Key kicked the wall of her pen and broke her hind leg," trainer Carla Gaines said in a one-paragraph release. "She was euthanized shortly thereafter. She brought a lot of joy to everyone's lives that were lucky enough to be associated with her and we will all miss her very much." Nashoba's Key posted a record of 10-8-1-0 and earnings of $1,252,090.

PANTY RAID RETIRED

Glencrest Farm and Dan Tayloe's Panty Raid (Include--Adventurous Di, by Private Account), a Grade I winner on turf and Polytrack and a Grade II winner on the dirt, has been retired from racing due to a torn suspensory. Bred in Kentucky by Heaven Trees Farm, the dark bay filly was a $110,000 Fasig-Tipton Kentucky yearling purchase, then was resold to Glencrest for $275,000 as a Keeneland April Two-Year-Old in 2006. Victorious in one start that season, she took the GII Black-Eyed Susan S. in May and displayed her versatility by annexing the GI American Oaks in her first and only try on the turf last July. She added a score in the GI Juddmonte Spinster S. in the fall and was one of three Todd Pletcher-trained sophomore fillies to become a finalist for the Eclipse Award. She retires with a career record of 10-5-1-1 and earnings of $1,052,380, but is not scheduled to be bred in 2008.

Triple Threats

Prado Named on Casino Drive...

Jockey Edgar Prado, who dashed the Triple Crown aspirations of War Emblem and Smarty Jones with massive upsets in the GI Belmont S., has been tabbed to ride second favorite Casino Drive (Mineshaft) in the final jewel of this year's series June 7. "The reason we decided on Edgar was his experience in the Belmont. I think he is the best choice for the," said Nobutaka Tada, racing manager for Japanese businessman Hidetoshi Yamamoto. "On behalf of the owner and the trainer [Kazuo Fujisawa], we appreciate the interest from all of the jockeys from all over the country in riding him in the Belmont. The fact that so many jockeys were interested in riding him encouraged us even more to run in the Belmont. There are so many good jockeys here and it was a very difficult decision to pick up the right one." Prado will be riding in his ninth Belmont, having upset the 2002 renewal with 70-1 Sarava before spoiling the most recent Triple Crown bid with 36-1 Birdstone in 2004. Meanwhile, Casino Drive was out for a "vigorous gallop" Wednesday morning at Big Sandy. Tada says not to expect a whole lot more leading up to the race. "At the moment, we are pleased with him and we will not go any faster in the mornings," he said. "We walk him fast one hour before he goes to the track, warming up muscle and tendon; it's good. Then, we go to the track. Then, he walks again nearly one hour to cool down. That's what we do in Japan, and we will do it here."

Big Brown Gallops...

Big Brown (Boundary), the GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness S. hero, made his second straight appearance at the track after spending the Memorial Day weekend in the barn of Rick Dutrow Jr. About 25 minutes after Casino Drive left the building, the strapping colt appeared with exercise rider Michelle Nevin and had a more serious gallop. Ian McKinlay, who has been enlisted to help Big Brown overcome his quarter crack issues, remains upbeat about the colt's progress. "The foot has cooled out and he's getting pretty antsy, as you can see, in the barn, so the best thing for him is to get him to the track and let him do what he wants to do," McKinlay offered. He continued, "The first thing we looked at [Wednesday] morning, you can go around the hairline and where there was an abscess it drained, so you have a pocket and physically you can feel a little hole. It's definitely improving. Both feet are the same temperature. When one foot is warmer than the other is when you have a problem. The skin is drying right out and the horse seems fabulous." While wire mesh currently holds the crack together, McKinlay anticipates applying a patch of acrylic adhesive along with some fiberglass mesh tomorrow. "We're just trying to stay out of the way and let nature take its course," he said.

Tomcito Breezes Seven-Eighths...

Tomcito (Street Cry {Ire}) tuned up for the Belmont yesterday morning, going seven furlongs in a leisurely 1:29.88 for trainer Dante Zanelli Jr. It was his first move since undergoing a myectomy three days following his distant seventh-place effort to Casino Drive in the GII Peter Pan S. May 10. Alan Garcia, who will have the mount in the Classic, was aboard the colt for the first time yesterday morning. "He did what we wanted," the trainer commented. "The idea was to let him stretch out and get [Alan] Garcia adjusted to him. He was happy with the breeze. I didn't want to do anything fast." Garcia replaces Cornelio Velasquez, who rode Tomcito in the Peter Pan. "My uncle started Alan Garcia in Peru, and this is what the owners and my uncle wanted," said Zanelli. "This is taking away nothing from Cornelio, he rode a good race, it was just that the horse displaced [his palate]."

Allegretto makes her seasonal return as she bids for back-to-back successes in this marathon contest. Following her defeat of Balkan Knight here 12 months ago, the Cheveley Park colorbearer was also successful in the G2 Goodwood Cup and Longchamp's G1 Prix Royal-Oak on either side of a highly creditable second to Peeping Fawn in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks. Royal and Regal will pose a major threat and has proven himself in the top league as a stayer when winning the G3 Jockey Club Cup at Newmarket in October and Newbury's G3 John Porter S. on his return Apr. 19. He was only denied in the shadow of the post by Geordieland (Fr) in the May 16 G2 Yorkshire Cup and escapes a penalty. Thundering Star is a fascinating contender as the first British runner from the Mike de Kock team housed here and last year's G1 Canon Gold Cup hero will offer a line to France's big staying hope Coastal Path (GB), having trailed that rival when eighth in the G3 Prix de Barbeville at Longchamp Apr. 27.

NTRA REPORT FROM CAPITOL HILL

EXPLANATION OF FARM BILL BENEFITS FOR EQUINE INDUSTRY

Members of the equine industry will benefit from two provisions contained in the Farm Bill that became law last week:

Equine Equity Act The Equine Equity Act, secured in the Farm Bill by Sen. Mitch McConnell (R-KY), is a provision that amends the depreciation schedule for racehorses to a uniform three years. Under previous tax law, racehorses were depreciated over either three or seven years, depending on their age when "placed in service." Beginning January 1, 2009, all racehorses (including yearlings) will be depreciated over three years, which more accurately reflects the years a horse is likely to race.

Disaster Relief Horse breeders are now eligible for the first time for emergency federal loans following disasters such as hurricanes, floods, ice and drought. Other livestock producers have been eligible for these loans in the past. Also, horse breeders who suffer losses in areas that are declared disaster areas by the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) will receive relief funds under a new disaster assistance program. Disaster relief is available upon enactment of the Farm Bill.

Mrs. Lindsay sets a lofty standard here, having established herself as one of the world's leading distaffers in her brief career so far. Runner-up to West Wind (GB) in the G1 Prix de Diane at Chantilly in June, she improved enough to reverse that form in Longchamp's G1 Prix Vermeille in September before capturing the GI E. P. Taylor S. at Woodbine in October. She was fifth on her seasonal bow in a red-hot renewal of the G1 Prix Ganay in which the first three home, Duke of Marmalade (Ire), Saddex (GB) and Sageburg (Ire), have all gone on to win Group 1s. Last year's G3 Hessen Pokal winner Fair Breeze returned to beat Claire et Bleu by four lengths in the G3 Prix Allez France at Chantilly Apr. 29, while Andre Fabre relies on the German import Guardia, who has improvement to find on her fourth in the Listed Euroselect-Preis at Cologne in September.

Last year's G1 St Leger hero Lucarno encounters a swollen field on his first subsequent start for the John Gosden team also responsible for the progressive Pipedreamer. While the former's finest hour came over the extended 14 furlongs of the Doncaster Classic, he had enough speed to finish fourth in the G1 Epsom Derby and win York's G2 Great Voltigeur S. over a mile and a half. Last year's Cambridgeshire H. winner Pipedreamer, who represents Cheveley Park Stud, showed he was up to this standard when third behind the subsequent G1 Lockinge S. runner-up Phoenix Tower in the G3 Earl of Sefton S. at Newmarket last time Apr. 17. "It's obviously a big step up again, but he ran really well in the Newmarket race last time and that was slightly muddling," the Stud's Managing Director Chris Richardson told PA Sport. "The ground should be fine for him I think and we'll learn a bit more about him. I think a good run will guide us with regard to what we aim for in the future."

STORM EASES CHANTILLY GROUND

Chantilly has been hit by a storm which has significantly eased the going ahead of Sunday's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club. A release from France Galop outlined a measure of the impact on ground conditions. "A violent storm hit the area on Tuesday night with 21 millimetres of precipitation measured the following morning at the racecourse, which ground is rated as very soft," the statement read. "Light showers are also expected on Wednesday and Thursday, but the weather should be fine the next three days." Officials predict that the Jockey-Club course should be good-to-soft on Sunday.

Moynahan Defects at Forfeit Stage...

At yesterday's forfeit stage Paul Cole withdrew the G1 2000 Guineas sixth Moynahan (Johannesburg) and Brian Meehan the Sangster family's G2 Royal Lodge S. winner City Leader (Ire) (Fasliyev). Connections of the G1 1000 Guineas heroine Natagora (Fr) (Divine Light {Jpn}) have yet to confirm a jockey, while Aidan O'Brien has confirmed that Susan Magnier's Achill Island (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) will take his place in the line-up under Johnny Murtagh and Godolphin are set to declare Ibn Khaldun (Dubai Destination). Today sees a supplementary stage and the balloting system will have to be applied if, as expected, the number totals more than 20. Among those who could miss out are His Highness the Aga Khan's pair of Beret Rouge (Ire) (Red Ransom) and Montmartre (Fr) (Montjeu {Ire}).

UNE HISTOIRE DU CHATEAU

Considered the jewel of all French Classics, Sunday's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club, or French Derby to apply its anglicized mantle, will be the 168th renewal of the Chantilly showpiece since first being staged on Apr. 24, 1836--56 years after the Epsom barometer and 30 years in advance of the Irish equivalent. The initial running, instituted at the behest of Lord Henry Seymour and named in honor of Britain's then-ruling authority, took place over 2,500 meters and Seymour had double cause for celebration when his orange-and-black colors were carried by Frank (Fr) to defeat four rivals in the inaugural running. The distance first experienced a change, to the 12-furlong standard, in 1842, and that trip remained in place, but for the outbreak of war, before another 300 meters was pruned off in 2005. The race has guested at three other tracks; at Versailles in 1848, at Longchamp on seven occasions--including in 1942 when a record field of 28 went to post--and at Tremblay, over a temporary 2,300 meters, in 1943 and 1944. A dead-heat has occurred five times, two of which were decided by a run-off, and this year marks the 100th anniversary of the last time it happened. Ragmar (Fr)'s nose defeat of Polaris Flight in 1996 is the narrowest winning margin recorded for the contest, while Old Vic (GB)'s seven-length romp in 1989 remains the widest. Unusually for a Classic, two different horses with the same name, Monarque (Fr), have prevailed in the event. The first, a son of The Emperor, was victorious in 1855 for breeder Alexandre Aumont and the second, a son of Saxifrage, was triumphant in 1887 for Alexandre's son, Paul. This season will witness Natagora (Fr)'s attempt to become the ninth filly to claim the rosette and the first filly to win since Saltarelle (Fr)'s success in 1874. Daniel Wildenstein's Moonlight Dance was the last distaffer to make the line up, but finished unplaced in 1994. Until 1946, the Jockey Club was restricted to horses born and bred in France, but it wasn't until 1982 that the first foreign success was provided by Robert Sangster's Assert (Ire).

The owner's green, blue and white silks were back in the winner's circle one year later, courtesy of Caerleon, but Sangster was denied a hat trick in 1984 when Darshaan (GB) finished ahead of Sadler's Wells. That renewal, which also featured Rainbow Quest hitting the board, is considered by many purists to be the finest ever staged and its lasting legacy is the winner and runner-up's continued mention in the same sentence. Ghislaine Head's Bering (GB) recorded the fastest time over the 'old' distance, when clocking 2:24.10 in 1986. His Highness the Aga Khan's Darsi (Fr) sets the current standard at 2:05.80. Other notable records for the contest include Marcel Boussac's 12 wins as an owner, His Highness the Aga Khan is second best with six, Tom Jennings' 10 victories as trainer and Yves Saint-Martin's nine as jockey.

☆ SALES NEWS ☆

EXCEED AND EXCEL COLT TOPS NATIONAL SALE WEDNESDAY A colt by Exceed and Excel (Aus) topped yesterday's second session of the Magic Millions National Weanling Sale at the Gold Coast. The weanling sold for A$360,000 to the bid of leading Singapore trainer Michael Clements, acting on behalf of New Zealand-based Noble Bloodstock. He is out of dual-winning Canadian mare Miss Behave (Bold Reve-nue) and was consigned by Scone-based Bellerive Stud, agent. "He's one of the nicest horses in the sale," Clements said. "We are delighted to be able to buy him." The session topper may see the sale ring again soon, but Clements left open the option of racing the colt. "We'll just wait and work on the options--but we would be more than happy to race him," he said. "He looks a real racehorse." Through two of three sessions of the weanling sale, Magic Millions has sold 279 lots for a total of A$15,348,000 and an average of A$55,000. The clearance rate is 84.04 percent. The sale continues today at 11 a.m. and is followed by a general session on Friday.

KATIYRA PLEASES His Highness the Aga Khan's Katiyra (Ire) (Peintre Celebre) continues to give all the right signals ahead of her tilt at next Friday's G1 Juddmonte Oaks at Epsom. Trainer John Oxx confirmed the G3 Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial runner-up is on course for the mile-and-a-half Classic yesterday. "So far, so good, she's in good form," he said. "We had a four-week interval with which to work between the Guineas Trial and the Oaks, which is nice for her as we had a bit of a rush to get her ready for that. Obviously, she has to step up in her work again at the end of this week but I couldn't be happier--she's looking well and she's relaxed in herself."

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

FUSAICHI PEGASUS TO SHUTTLE TO CHILE Kentucky Derby winner Fusaichi Pegasus (Mr. Prospector--Angel Fever, by Danzig) will shuttle to Chile for the 2008 Southern Hemisphere breeding season. The 11-year-old stallion, who stands at Ashford Stud in Kentucky, will shuttle to Liliana Solari's Haras Don Alberta in Chile. He had previously shuttled to Coolmore Australia, where he sired champion sophomore of 2007 Haradasun (Aus). Fusaichi Pegasus, who captured the roses in 2000, is also the sire of Grade I winners Roman Ruler and Bandini.

KY HORSEMEN DEMAND PURSE REPAYMENT

The Kentucky Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association claims on behalf of its membership that upwards of $3 million is owed to horsemen in unpaid revenue from wagering and has asked a federal judge to force Churchill Downs to repay funds lost due to the 20-percent cut in purses enacted May 14. The KHBPA has also accused CDI of breaching the contract currently in place by not honoring a clause which treats bets made through advance-deposit wagering platforms as on-track bets and by lowering purses without the consent of the horsemen. The group also contends that it has not seen any wagering revenue from Churchill's TwinSpires.com in 2007 and 2008. The clause governing advance-deposit wagers was included in contracts "a number of years ago," Douglas McSwain, an attorney for the horsemen, told Blood-Horse. "We didn't want to have to battle them in this fashion, but we've been left with no choice," McSwain told the publication. The horsemen also assert the purse cuts were retaliatory in nature and therefore also in breach of the existing contract.

★ NEW YORK ★

NYRA Franchise Talks Could Restart:

New York Governor David Paterson is considering taking another look at the New York Racing Association franchise, according to The Blood-Horse. NYRA was awarded a 25-year franchise by Eliot Spitzer, who preceded Paterson in holding the state's top office before resigning in March after a prostitution scandal. Paterson served as Spitzer's lieutenant governor. During that deal, NYRA gave up ownership claims on Aqueduct, Belmont and Saratoga while receiving over "$100 million in bailout and loan forgiveness." Paterson acknowledged that it would be difficult for his administration to nullify the deal enacted under Spitzer. NYRA, still operating under a temporary agreement, must have that either renewed or approved by Paterson prior to the beginning of the Saratoga meeting.

Clem Florio Passes Away:

Clem Florio, a longtime handicapper for the Maryland Jockey Club, passed away Sunday from cancer. He was 78 years old. Florio spent the better part of 40 years in the press box in Maryland, and was responsible for making the morning line for Pimlico and Laurel Park for eight years (1993-2001). He also worked as a turf writer for the Baltimore News-American from 1965 to 1978 and for the Washington Post from 1978-1987. "Clem had the heart of Secretariat, the moxie of Affirmed, the pep of War Admiral, the magnetism of Citation," said longtime friend and colleague Vinnie Perrone. "And he could sing better than any of them." Also a prizefighter for a short time, Florio compiled a record of 8-6 boxing at the middleweight level from 1950 to 1964, according to www.boxrec.com.

Santa Anita Asphalt Base Could Be Replaced:

Plans to simulate the effects of a drenching rainstorm at Santa Anita Park have been canceled after Ian Pearse of Pro-Ride Racing Australia announced that preliminary testing has shown the asphalt base at the track does not drain sufficiently, or in some cases, not at all. "I dug quite a few holes in the profile [surface] and filled them up with water," Pearse told the Blood-Horse. "Eighty to 90 percent of them didn't drain at all, and the other 10 percent drained slowly. I could see that the asphalt layer wasn't draining. I'm recommending removing the surface and putting in a brand new base. The options [for replacement] would be a porous asphalt base or a specialized grid layer." It is now more likely that the base will be replaced, possibly in mid-July. That would impact training operations at the Arcadia oval, which alternates with Hollywood Park as off-site stabling while racing is on at Del Mar. Santa Anita President Ron Charles told the Blood-Horse that if the decision is made to go ahead with the replacement of the base, negotiations would take place with Hollywood Park so that horses could train over that surface.

Futurity, Debutante Nominations Due:

Horsemen are reminded that early nominations of $250 are being accepted through Friday for the GI Del Mar Debutante and GI Del Mar Futurity to be run Monday, Sept. 1 and Wednesday, Sept. 3, respectively. There are no sustaining payments required. For those missing the early nomination date, a supplemental fee of $10,000 is payable at the time of entry. Nomination forms can be downloaded on line at the Del Mar website (www.dmtc.com/horsemen) and can be returned by fax at (858) 794-1049. Nominations can also be emailed to nominations@dmtdc.com.

TATTS BOOST MILLIONS SERIES Tattersalls yesterday announced a new £250,000 six-furlong race to be added to the Tattersalls Timeform Millions races from 2009. Known as the Tattersalls Timeform Millions Sprint, the contest will take place on Newmarket's Rowley Mile in September next year and will be the fourth race open to graduates of Book 1 of the previous year's Tattersalls October Yearling Sale. Total prize money now stands at £2.3 million, to which the auctioneers have committed £680,000, while reducing the owners' entry costs from £10,000 to £6,000. Tattersalls will fund the Sprint and also the 10-furlong Tattersalls Timeform 3YO Trophy, whose prize money has been reduced from £400,000 to £250,000. Prize money for the flagship Tattersalls Timeform Million and Tattersalls Timeform Fillies' 800, both run over seven furlongs, will remain at £1 million and £800,000, respectively. The sales company's Chairman Edmond Mahony said, "The six-furlong Tattersalls Timeform Millions Sprint will add an entirely new dimension to the Tattersalls Timeform Millions and will ensure unrivalled opportunities for owners of yearlings purchased at Book 1 of our October Yearling Sale. Prize money levels continue to be a major concern and we are delighted to be able to create a series of races which maximise the opportunities for owners to run for huge prize money while keeping their costs down as much as possible."

FALCO MAY TAKE IN SUSSEX Wertheimer et Frere's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains hero Falco (Pivotal {GB}) could be shipping in to Goodwood to take part in the July 30 G1 Sussex S., for which 65 entries were unveiled yesterday. Trainer Carlos Laffon-Parias is considering the £300,000 one-mile contest for the Longchamp Classic winner after a stop at Royal Ascot. "He's going to Royal Ascot for the [June 17 G1] St James's Palace S. and we could go to Goodwood, depending on how he runs there," the trainer commented. "He worked for the first time since his Longchamp victory on Monday and he looks well. I was pleased with that win, but we were expecting him to run well because he has always shown us a lot of ability. They went very fast in the Poulains and you have to be near the front on the mile track at Longchamp with 20 runners, because it is difficult to come from behind. But he can run from off the pace as well. Obviously, it's up to the owners, but I would love to run Falco in the UK because I think it is the best place to win a Group 1. Falco's a late horse and is still improving with every race. He's a very big fellow, so he needs his works and he's getting better with every start. I think Falco would cope with the unique demands of the course, as Longchamp is also a pretty demanding track." Cont. p4

Of the other overseas entries, Susan Magnier's dual Guineas winner Henrythenavigator (Kingmambo) heads a team of 20 from Ballydoyle, while Alain de Royer-Dupre has engaged Princess Zahra Aga Khan's triple Group 1 victoress Darjina (Fr) (Zamindar), Jim Bolger has entered Michael Ryan's multiple Group 1 winner Finsceal Beo (Ire) (Mr. Greeley) and Mike de Kock supplies Sheikh Mohammed Bin Khalifa Al Maktoum's G1 QEII Cup scorer Archipenko (Kingmambo). Godolphin's 2007 winner Ramonti (Fr) (Martino Alonso {Ire}) heads a 10-strong entry for the operation, including the G1 Lockinge S. victor Creachadoir (Ire) (King's Best). Knavesmire was out on the first day of the turf flat season and showed ability to be third in Doncaster's Brocklesby S. Mar. 22. Third again at Newcastle Apr. 5, the bay graduated at Redcar May 1 before finishing sixth in the Listed Marygate S. at York last time May 16. Breaking well and racing close to the early pace, she had only her stable companion Caranbola to contend with approaching the final furlong and soon gained the upper hand before holding her game rally to lead home a one-two for trainer Mel Brittain. "I came here hoping to be placed at least and Knavesmire is a decent filly who wasn't beaten far at York last time," he said. "This stiffer track suited her, but I think I'll leave Royal Ascot now and she can have a break along with Caranbola." Click for the Racing Post race chart.

CORRYBROUGH (GB) (c, 3, Kyllachy {GB}--Calamanco {GB}, by Clantime {GB}) looked a sprinter to follow when scoring at Sandown last time Apr. 25 and was hammered down to 1-2 to follow up. Allowed time to find his stride in rear by Ryan Moore, the 57,000gns TATOCT yearling got rolling inside the final quarter and duly inhaled Hammadi (Ire) (Red Ransom) inside the final 150 yards en route to a cozy 2 1/2-length success. "He's a wonderfully relaxed horse and he's probably a little bit sharper than Kyllachy, so when he's mature I think he'll handle just about anything," trainer Henry Candy said, comparing him to his former stable star. "I think he'll be good enough for the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye [at Longchamp Oct. 5], but we'll see how things go and Sandown will be next for the [June 14] Listed Scurry S. if the ground is okay." Ezima was a major improver during the fall, winning the Listed Finale S. at The Curragh and Listed Trigo S. at Leopardstown before finishing runner-up to Red Moloney (Sahm) in the Listed Carlingford S. on Dundalk's Polytrack. Returning to be fifth in the May 5 G3 Mooresbridge S. back at The Curragh, the bay revived the winning thread after a tussle with Hasanka here. Settled in fourth early while trapped wide, she joined that rival before the final eighth and, after getting the upper hand shortly after, asserted to book a ticket to the June 28 G3 Curragh Cup.

As a close relative of the brilliant Azamour (Ire), Arazan would not have been expected to be an early two-year-old racing before the Royal Ascot meeting, but John Oxx had seen enough to declare him for a six-furlong race at The Curragh on Saturday. Re-routed here due to the fast ground at that track, the homebred showed why he had been considered for a speed test by breaking sharply and leading under Mick Kinane. Left in second at the three-furlong pole after an aggressive move by Johnny Murtagh on the 9-10 favorite Egypt (GB) (Dansili {GB}), he quickened to reel in that rival under hand riding with 150 yards remaining. Firmly on top at the line, he had a widening two-length margin of comfort there. "That was a good start to his career," Oxx said. "The ground had dried up at the Curragh, but it was ideal here and he'd been showing a bit. We'll look at the Listed Golden Fleece S. [at Leopardstown July 2] or the G2 Railway S. [at The Curragh June 29]." Arazan is a half brother to Ahsanabad (Ire) (Muhtarram, MGSP-Ire) and to Azamour (Ire) (Night Shift, Hwt. 3yo-Ire at 9.5-11f, Ch. Older Horse-Eur, Hwt.
