Leparoux. While connections of the G1 1000 Guineas heroine are yet to confirm a rider, Britain's 2007 Champion Jockey has entered the fray. Trainer Pascal Bary told PA Sport, "We will wait until after tomorrow's cancellation stage before making any decision. We want to see which jockeys will be available after the balloting." That could yet bring Soumillon back onto the agenda if His Highness the Aga Khan's Longchamp conditions scorer Montmartre (Fr) (Montjeu {Ire}) is balloted out. The current number of 24 will be cut tomorrow after Dermot Weld has withdrawn Casual Conquest (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}), and lots will be drawn to select the final horse eligible in the 20-strong field. Clerk of the Course Matthieu Vincent gave an official ground description of soft yesterday morning, with the eventual going still expected to read good to soft on Sunday.

ORATORIO COLT TOPS NATIONAL DAY 3

The third weanling session of the Magic Millions National Sale was highlighted by the sale of a colt from the first crop of Coolmore's Oratorio (Ire) (Danehill) for A$310,000. Melbourne-based agent Damon Gabbedy signed for a colt under his Belmont Bloodstock Agency banner. Gabbedy was acting on behalf of an new unnamed client, who would decide later whether the colt will be auctioned again as a yearling or be retained as a racehorse. Cont. p6

DUTROW DOWN ON CASINO DRIVE?

Trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. has had an apparent change of heart. Initially impressed by the American debut of Casino Drive (Mineshaft) in the GII Peter Pan S., the conditioner all but assured that the Japanese runner would complete the exacta behind Big Brown (Boundary) in the June 7 GI Belmont S. During a national NTRA media teleconference yesterday, Dutrow advised punters differently. "If I were you guys, I'd put other horses underneath," he opined. "This Japanese horse has got so much to prove, and I don't know if he's on top of his game training here. If I were you guys I would not depend on that horse to be second. He still has a long, drawn-out road to get there." Dutrow added that, despite his colt's minor setback over the weekend, the swagger he carried into the GI Kentucky Derby is back for the Belmont. "I really don't like talking big," he offered. "I may have done it for the Derby, [then] I quieted down a bit for the Preakness, but I'm talking big again about the Belmont." Nobutaka Tada, racing manager to Casino Drive's owner Hidetoshi Yamamoto, is taking the high road. Asked to respond Dutrow's statements regarding Casino Drive, Tada stated, "I have no comment on what he thinks. My job is just keeping my horse happy and training nicely every day. I am enjoying listening to his comments. It sounds like he knows my horse. I do not comment anything about Big Brown. I respect the horse, he's a nice horse. My job is not talking about him, my job is keeping my horse happy." Cont. p2

Eric Wing, Moderator, NTRA

Give us an update on Big Brown.

Rick Dutrow Jr: "He's as good as he's ever been. He was just galloping the last couple of days and it couldn't have went better. He's just happy as he can be. I cannot imagine that the three days that he missed is going to be any kind of issue at all."

EW: So, it's not like you might be giving away a couple of lengths next Saturday. It's more a case where, as long as he gets to the race in good shape, he'll be able to fire his 'A' race?

RD: Without a doubt, yes. The only way it changed our schedule was we were originally going to breeze him Saturday. I'm not going to do that. I could if I wanted to, but I just don't see it being important. I'm going to wait until Monday or Tuesday and breeze him. There's nothing but good weather coming here. Monday at the earliest, Tuesday at the latest. It's even possible that these couple of days that he missed might even work to our advantage. Everything else that we've been doing with Big Brown, no matter what's come up, it's been to his advantage. I just can't imagine this interrupting his way to get there.

Pat Forde, ESPN.com

Do you have any concern about other riders or trainers in the race trying to beat Big Brown as opposed to trying to win the race, trying to gang up and take him out of the Triple Crown?

RD: I don't believe that anyone would do something like that, because this is such a huge race. If somebody did something like that they might get assassinated after the race. I just can't imagine that someone would go and do something stupid just to keep us from winning the race. I am under the impression that all the trainers and jockeys are going into this race and they're going to try to do as good as they can. I just don't see or feel that someone is going to go out of their way to do something wrong to Big Brown in the race.

PF: There are some people that believe that that's exactly what did happen to Smarty Jones in 2004.

RD: I think maybe the way they trained that horse for the Belmont had a lot to do with him getting beat.

Horsephotos

Smarty Jones was breezing for the Belmont race at Philadelphia Park on a sloppy, sealed track. That just blew my mind away. I couldn't imagine anyone would do that with a horse, especially one going to win the Triple Crown. I also feel that he did not need to win the way he did in the Preakness in order to get to the Belmont the right way. If you noticed our horse, Kent might have asked him for a little run turning for home, which he did, but at the eighth pole he grabbed a hold and he knew we still had another race to go through. I think the connections of Smarty Jones just were not smart in order to get their job done for the Belmont. They should have played it a lot safer, a lot better. I don't see that everyone was after the horse in the race. I don't feel that the jockeys and the trainers would care if another horse won the Triple Crown. Why would they go out of their way to make themselves look not so good in the racing game. I just don't see it happening.

Debbie Arrington, Sacramento Bee

How are you holding up under all this pressure?

RD: I don't feel pressure. When I seen that little crack on his foot, I felt uneasy. But after talking to Ian on the phone--he even suggested where the quarter crack was--he says, 'Rick, don't worry, it's just a quarter crack. I just shod him the other day. There's no chance of this being a wall separation; he's telling me that before he even seen the horse. I felt uneasy then, but right now I feel as good as I can feel. I don't feel pressure. I feel as relaxed as I can be. We're in a good frame of mind here, not only me, but the horse and the people that work around him and the owners. Our whole team is huddling up, and we're as cool as we can be. I know it's a big race, but our horse is good, so I don't have to make it about me, it's all about him, and right now I'm as cool as a cucumber, I believe.

Jerry Bossert, New York Daily News

What is your report on Casino Drive?

RD: I did get a chance to see him come off the track when we were coming on. As I watched him run and as I see him in person, he can't beat Big Brown. There's no way in the world he can beat Big Brown. I'm not worried about that horse anymore. He's just another horse in the race, and Big Brown's going to have to school him like he's done every other horse he's run against.

Art Wilson, Los Angeles Newspaper Group

What would you say to the people who would like to see you be more humble and more modest?

RD: I have been trying to be humble and modest, but the horse keeps throwing out so many different signs.

Horsephotos

The media have a way of turning answers where it looks like I'm really talking big. They would ask are you going to win and I say, 'Yeah, we're going to win,' and the next day it's in big black type, 'Can't lose,' and all that kind of stuff. It's not really the way I've been answering the questions. If these people that think I'm talking too big, all they have to do is see the horse. There's no way of me downplaying it. I am relaying everything from Big Brown to the media, and the media just squirts it out to the public. I don't feel like I've been talking big, I feel like I've been talking facts.

Steve Crist, Daily Racing Form

Santa Anita announced last week that they're sticking with their synthetic track. Does that change your thinking about running in the Breeders' Cup Classic this year?

RD: No, I meant that I would not go back there with a stable of horses. I would go in and out to race. I just can't get the hang of it out there. I just can't connect. I'm hearing that the track is much better now. I'll be there for the Breeders' Cup Classic and other races that day. I meant that I would not go back with a full stable and try to make it. I tried it a couple of times, I won't do it anymore. I'll just keep concentrating on the East Coast, and hope for the best there.

Eric Wing, NTRA

If Big Brown turns for home with the race in hand, do you expect Kent Desormeaux to throttle him down again like he did in the Preakness, or do you expect him to cut him loose to put on a show for the fans, for breeders and the history books?

RD: Listen, when they turn for home, what we want is for Kent to put the race away and just glide to the wire like he did in the Derby and the Preakness. We are going to race him again and it's very important that we save our horse for those last two races [GI Travers S. and GI Breeders' Cup Classic]. We're going to need it.

Triple Threats

McKinlay Upbeat in His Update...

Noted foot specialist Ian McKinlay, also part of yesterday's teleconference, was decidedly optimistic about the progress made over the last several days by Big Brown. "He's probably the best we've seen him as far as what I'm looking for with the hoof," he explained. "The foot is cooled out. As of yesterday, a little abscess had drained out, so we filled that pocket you're always looking for when you're patching feet. Those are the things that can crop up and get you at the wrong time. The two things I was looking for happened, so I'm delighted with the way things are going." Asked whether he was confident that the quarter crack will have no bearing on the colt's performance, he stated, "The way everything is progressing...it should be no issue at all, especially when the feet are cold. I'm not concerned with it."

Tada a More Mellow Fellow...

While Rick Dutrow is outspoken about the chances of Big Brown a week from tomorrow, the connections of Casino Drive are more subdued. Racing Manager Nobutaka Tada acknowledged that the chestnut is not yet battle tested, but he believes there is untapped talent. "He doesn't have a lot of experience, but he showed us a brave performance in the Peter Pan," Tada commented.

Casino Drive Horsephotos

Had things been different, Casino Drive would have more miles under the hood. A stumbling incident while he was being prepared for a two-year-old debut last year resulted in cuts to his knees that delayed his first start, Tada explained. Casino Drive debuted a winner Feb. 24, but was subsequently forced to move around Japan to dodge the equine influenza outbreak. Tada remains quietly confident about next Saturday's task, and explained that the colt's much-discussed "work" Wednesday was by design, even if it was in stark contrast to his final move ahead of the Peter Pan. "The reason we did such a sharp work before the Peter Pan was because he was away from the races for two months," he explained. "He needed a strong work, so he went :59 and change. Since the Peter Pan, he's been doing very well and we don't want to tire his mind too much, so that's why we do slow work up to the Belmont." Casino Drive is scheduled to have two more works, similar to that of Wednesday, before the Belmont. He could return to the U.S. for the GI Breeders' Cup Classic.

Carroll Hopes Denis Un-Corks in Belmont:

While Rick Dutrow conditioned Saint Liam to Horse of the Year honors back in 2005 for owner William K. Warren Jr., the two will be adversaries next Saturday, as Warren's Denis of Cork (Harlan's Holiday), third to Big Brown in the GI Kentucky Derby, will try to assume the role of spoiler. Victorious in his first three career starts, including the GIII Southwest S. Feb. 18, the Florida-bred faltered to be fifth in the GII Illinois Derby Apr. 5, imperiling his chances to make the "Run for the Roses" field. A couple of defections opened the door, and the colt rallied from last to finish 8 1/4 lengths behind Big Brown. Carroll says his charge has come on for that effort. "The last two weeks he's trained exceptionally well," the Irishman offered while grazing his colt at Churchill Downs. "The two weeks before the Derby he did train exceptionally well. I felt coming off the [GII] Illinois Derby, a race we got little out of condition-wise, we went into the Derby off training. The Southwest was his last good race and the Illinois Derby was one of those throw-out races. He was definitely a little tired out of the Derby, it took a little bit out of him. But the last 10 days or two weeks, he's really turned the corner. He's training the way he was prior to the Derby." Carroll wouldn't trade places with anyone. "I'm very happy to go into the race the way we are," he said. "I think Denis doesn't have to apologize to anyone for his performances. He has one blemish and that was more due to management than his performance. We're looking forward to him running a good race in the Belmont." Strategically, Carroll expects Denis of Cork to be more prominent in the Belmont. "He should be laying a little closer to the pace," he said. "He's shown he could do that. He's a beautiful mover and he can click off those :12s all day long. I think he's got the right kind of style for the Belmont. Is it good enough? We'll just have to wait and see." Carroll has previous Belmont experience. His brother was assistant to Dermot Weld, who sent out Go and Go (Ire) to take the 1990 Belmont. He also worked six years for trainer Shug McGaughey and was along for the ride when Easy Goer thrilled the hometown fans in 1989. Denis of Cork is scheduled to breeze Monday in Louisville. and ships to New York the following day. Robby Albarado, in the irons for the Southwest win, replaces Derby rider Calvin Borel.

First-Season Success...

Damon Gabbedy was pleased to take home yesterday's National Sale topper, a colt from the first crop by champion and MG1SW Oratorio (Ire) (Danehill).

"He's just an outstanding individual," Gabbedy said after signing the ticket on hip 530. "He'd be the nicest weanling I've seen anywhere this year. He's by a very exciting first-season sire."

Oratorio coolmore.com

The colt was offered by his breeder, Ilala Stud's George Fraser.

"Right from the time he was foaled, he's been an absolutely outstanding individual," Fraser commented. "I thought he could make a good price, but A$310,000 is just a brilliant result."

The price was by far the highest attained by any horse sold by the Hunter Valley-based Ilala Stud. Hip 530 is the second foal from the eight-year-old Mistress Lili (Aus) (Filante {NZ}), a half-sister to triple Group 1 winner Defier (Aus) (Dehere).

"The mare slipped last season, but after producing such an outstanding foal by Oratorio, we booked her back to visit him again this season," Fraser added.

Oratorio, highweighted juvenile in France in 2004 after winning the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere-Grand Criterium, was highweighted in Ireland the following year at 9.5-11 furlongs with wins in the G1 Irish Champion S. and England's G1 Coral-Eclipse S. He also ran second to Dubawi (Ire) in the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas.

After three days of select weanling sessions, the National Sale grossed a record A$19,581,750. The average price of A$46,846 was also a new record. The RNA rate was a solid 16.6 percent, despite rising from last year's 8.1 percent. Magic Millions Managing Director David Chester was delighted with the results.

"With a record aggregate and average price and a really healthy clearance rate, we are definitely pleased," Chester said. "Quarantine and agistment issues with horses getting back to New Zealand because of EI has affected the sale I'm sure; they were just so much more active across all price ranges last year. To have buyers from New Zealand, Singapore, France, Ireland and the United States, the sale has really earned its status as one of the finest in the world."

Returning to claim her second win on French soil in the Apr. 29 G3 Prix Allez France at Chantilly last time, she bettered that effort with an impressive score against classy distaffers for a personal best in this affair. Keeping the leaders within range in fourth for most of the contest, she seized control at the quarter-mile marker and was driven out from there to comfortably hold the closing pack. In what amounted to a master class of guile from the front by Frankie Dettori, Finalmente earned a first group success at the expense of more vaunted rivals here. Graduating from handicap company last term, the bay acquitted himself with great credit to be fourth behind Yeats (Ire) in the G1 Ascot Gold Cup last June. He proved that was no fluke when third in both the Listed Esher S. the following month and the G2 Goodwood Cup in August, and was most recently fifth to Septimus (Ire) in the G2 Doncaster Cup 1st September. Allowed an easy lead over this rain-softened ground, the gelding turned his rivals' reluctance against them when the pressure was applied. Like Henry II scorer Finalmente, Smokey Oakey learned his trade in handicaps, and held his own despite increasing imposts to win at Ayr on his final three-year-old outing in November. He returned to best former Lincoln H. winners and proven group performers Blythe Knight (Ire) and Babodana (GB) in the latest renewal of that curtain-raiser at Doncaster Mar. 22, before finishing sixth in the G3 Earl of Sefton S. at Newmarket Apr. 17. Settled in rear early, the bay made steady progress against the fence and traveled strongly on the heels of the leaders in the straight. Arriving in the centre of the track as Maraahel delivered an apparent race-winning move towards the stands' rail, he grabbed the advantage in the final yards as the runner-up idled at the head of his group. "Conditions are the thing for this horse, as he likes a bit of ease in the ground," jockey Jimmy Quinn said. "I had a doubt in the back of my mind about the mile and a quarter, but as he's got older he's got stronger and more relaxed, and he's proved me wrong." Click for the Racing Post chart.

Trainer Jack Denham captured the AJC/Queensland Oaks double with the mighty filly Triscay (Aus) in 1991; his son, Allan, will send out Heavenly Glow in a bid to be the first to repeat the feat. In pursuit of her fourth consecutive win, she scored by 3 3/4 lengths in the G1 Arrowfield S. on heavy going at Rosehill Apr. 19 and followed up with another come-from-behind win in the G1 AJC Oaks a week later. Heavenly Glow won the May 17 G2 Doomben Roses last time. She has a record of nine wins from 16 starts, and overcast skies will not hurt her prospects as she tries to build on that impressive resume. Well-fancied Our Valpolicella does not have such glowing credentials, with three wins from 13 attempts, but she was slightly unlucky last start when 1 1/2-lengths sixth in the Doomben Roses. Before crossing the ditch, the Roger James-trained filly beat subsequent G1 AJC Derby winner Nom du Jeu in the G3 Manawatu Classic Mar. 29 at Awapuni.

G1 EPSOM DERBY

DERBY PLANS FIRING UP

Next Saturday's G1 Epsom Derby is beginning to take during the track's "Breakfast with the Stars" morning yesterday. Dermot Weld gave the green light to Moyglare Stud's Casual Conquest (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}) after the G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial winner pleased in a spin at Leopardstown Wednesday evening. "Casual Conquest worked...at 9:15 p.m., and I was satisfied with the way he worked," Weld said. "He wasn't as explosive at the end as when he won the Derrinstown, but Pat Smullen was very pleased with him, and said he idled when he hit the front. He's come out of the work well and I'm very happy with him. I will speak later today to Mr. Haefner, and my recommendation for him is to run at Epsom. I will encourage him to supplement the horse and to run in the race."

'Henry' Plan Washed Out?

Aidan O'Brien yesterday described Susan Magnier's dual 2000 Guineas winner Henrythenavigator (Kingmambo) as an unlikely starter due to the prevalent soft ground. "At the moment, we think the decision about running is going to be taken out of our hands," O'Brien said yesterday. "The ground in Epsom is soft this morning, and the forecast is not for any real drying weather between now and the Derby. Everybody knows that 'Henry' wants 'summer ground,' and it looks like it is not going to be like that. Being realistic for the horse, it is probably in the next day or so a decision will be made, but it is probable we will have to give the Derby a miss." Clerk of the Course Andrew Cooper hopes that the ground will dry before the main event and said, "It is quite a difficult one to read forecast-wise. There is a lot of other weather feedback and channels I go through that certainly suggest we are going into a relatively dry spell over the next few days." O'Brien, who still has a large team to call upon, added, "We hope to run four or five in the Derby. We obviously have Frozen Fire (Ger) {Montjeu {Ire}}, King of Rome (Ire) {Montjeu {Ire}}, Washington Irving (Ire) {Montjeu {Ire}}, Alessandro Volta (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) and Bashkirov (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), and they are all possibles at the moment. The two horses who ran at Lingfield [Alessandro Volta and King of Rome] both ran very good races and are going the right way. We are also happy with Washington Irving since his Leopardstown run, and Frozen Fire has been well since York."

Stoute Sorts Through His Trio...

Sir Michael Stoute has an enviable hand in next Saturday's Classic, with Ballymacoll Stud's G2 Dante S. winner Tartan Bearer (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}), Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's G3 Dee S. scorer Tajaaweed (Dynaformer) and Khalid Abdullah's G3 Chester Vase hero Doctor Fremantle (GB) (Sadler's Wells). He confirmed that Ryan Moore will renew his partnership with the former, with Kerrin McEvoy likely to ride Doctor Fremantle. "I am pretty certain Ryan would ride Tartan Bearer," he commented. "McEvoy has ridden Doctor Fremantle in a couple of pieces of work, and we're hoping he'll be available." Of Tajaaweed, who will be ridden by Shadwell's retained jockey Richard Hills, he added, "He's not the orthodox model--he's 16.3 [hands]--but I always think Chester is a pretty good prep, and he handled that well. He has an awful lot of talent. There's a slight doubt about staying--the dam's a half-sister to Mr. Greeley--but it's not a one-dimensional sprinting family, and he's always given the indication he will stay a mile and a half." Tartan Bearer and Doctor Fremantle both also received favorable mentions from the Freemason Lodge conditioner. "Tartan Bearer is never going to win by far, as he's very laid-back," Stoute continued. "On the formbook he's very progressive, and the Dante will have sharpened him up mentally, as well. All being well, Doctor Fremantle will be supplemented on Monday. He's beautifully balanced, medium-sized and will act and travel."

'Canon' Set to Be Unleashed...

Trainer John Gosden yesterday appeared to give the thumbs up to a Derby challenge with Anthony Oppenheimer's Bronze Cannon (Lemon Drop Kid), who beat Doctor Fremantle (GB) in a handicap at Newmarket's Craven meeting before following up on Sunday. "His form links in well with Doctor Fremantle, and he did it in good style the other day," Gosden said. "I still need to discuss it with his owner, but the feeling is he's keen to run. There's no reason not to be bold and have a go."

'Curtain' Gets A Sighter...

Patrick Cooper's Curtain Call (Fr) (Sadler's Wells) yesterday enjoyed a spin over Epsom Downs and pleased trainer Luca Cumani ahead of next Saturday's Blue Riband. Despite not having run since making a successful sophomore bow in a conditions event at Nottingham Apr. 23, last year's G2 Beresford S. winner found conditions in his favor at the rain-soaked Surrey venue. "It will have done the horse the world of good," Cooper commented. "Jamie [Spencer] said he handled the track very well and gave him a good feel. I have been pleased with everything he has done, and all I have to do now is keep him sound and safe until the first Saturday in June."

It's Down to Rio...

Godolphin will field a sole challenger in the Epsom Derby in the form of recent G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains runner-up Rio de la Plata (Rahy). Last year's G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere scorer was confirmed an intended runner by Racing Manager Simon Crisford after Ibn Khaldun (Dubai Destination) was declared on target for Sunday's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly. "We've decided to run Rio in the Derby and Ibn Khaldun will run in the French

Rio de la Plata APRH

Derby this weekend," Crisford explained. "We are very pleased with Rio, and he ran a very good trial in France. It may have looked like he was stopping in the final furlong, but there are two reasons why we hope he'll get the trip. He was very badly drawn in France and used an enormous amount of energy to finish where he did. The ground was also a bit too quick for him. He's bounced out of that very well, though, and we are very happy with him. We're happy that Rio will get a mile and a quarter, but not so sure about a mile and a half. We're guessing whether he'll get home over that distance, but he did run a great trial in the French 2000 Guineas."

CHINESE TARGETS EPSOM OAKS

Lady O'Reilly's unbeaten Chinese White (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}) will take her place in the line-up for next Friday's G1 Juddmonte Oaks, trainer Dermot Weld confirmed yesterday. Following her impressive success in the Listed Victor McCalmont Memorial S. at Gowran Park May 4, the homebred will ship in to Epsom for her biggest test. "She worked after Casual Conquest yesterday, and I was very pleased with her," he said. "It is now pretty certain that she will run in the Oaks. She is a very good filly and quickened nicely in her work. There are some very good fillies in the Oaks this year, but I think she is entitled to take her chance."

PAST...Danzig's Brilliant Miler son Survivalist bred the best book of mares of any stallion standing in North America under $40,000 last year as measured by Comparable Index.

...and PRESENT...Those foals have been arriving this spring to rave reviews:

"My client bred to Survivalist last year because I think he's going to be the next big thing in Canada. After seeing his first foals, you can bet I'll be advising my clients to breed back this season."

-Richard Moylan, Leading Consignor

...Make It a Bright FUTURE for Survivalist.

Survivalist is a Graded Stakes-Winning miler by the Great Danzig out of a full-sister to Leading Sire Seeking the Gold, two stallions who have sired over 280 Stakes Winners combined. And the Danzig sire-line in North America has never been stronger, having produced unbeaten and unbelievable dual-Classical winner Big Brown, multiple Classic-placed Grade 1 winner Hard Spun and Champion Lawyer Ron (G1) in the past year alone.

Winner of the one mile Gotham Stakes (G3) at Aqueduct.

Ran second in the $750,000 Grade 1 Wood Memorial.

Broke his maiden in spectacular fashion at Belmont as a Two-Year-Old, winning by 8 1/2 lengths.

First or Second in 10 of 15 career starts.

AMERMAN RESIGNS FROM CHRB John Amerman Wednesday announced that, effective immediately, he will resign his position on the California Horse Racing Board due to family commitments. Amerman has submitted a letter of resignation to Gov. Arnold Schwarzenegger, who appointed him to a four-year term two years ago. "My wife, Jerry, and I have purchased a residence outside of the United States, and we plan to spend a substantial amount of time during the year in our new home," Amerman explained. "In light of the CHRB's monthly meeting schedule and the need for special meetings from time to time, I concluded that I would not be able to properly fulfil my obligations as a member of the CHRB."

LA TURF CLUB SUES CUSHION TRACK The Los Angeles Turf Club, the subsidiary of Magna Entertainment Corp that operates Santa Anita Park, has filed a federal lawsuit against Cushion Track Footing USA, seeking more than $8 million in damages. The LATC alleges that the Cushion Track surface at Santa Anita was not properly installed, and that subsequent repairs were not adequately performed. Problems with the surface arose when it failed to drain after heavy rainstorms, and the track was forced to cancel 11 days of racing during the 2008 meet. According to the lawsuit, filed May 8, it cost $5.2 million for installation of the original Cushion Track, nearly $1.4 million for the initial repairs and, because those repairs did not resolve the problem, another $1.8 million for additional work performed by Pro-Ride, a rival synthetic surface provider. In addition to being reimbursed for those expenses, LATC is asking for a jury trial to determine unspecified damages for revenue lost due to the cancellations.

NYSRWB Passes Proposal for Steroid Restrictions:

The New York State Racing and Wagering Board yesterday voted to create new rules for Thoroughbred and harness racing in the state designed to restrict the use of stanozolol, boldenone, nandrolone and testosterone, and to institute permissible threshold levels for those anabolic steroids. The rules will be nearly identical to the model rule recommended by the Association of Racing Commissioners International. Violations will result in disqualification, and the trainer responsibility rule will apply. The proposal also included the establishment of a list for horses being treated therapeutically with anabolic steroids; the concentration levels in those horses would be monitored and would have to drop below threshold levels before they could return to racing. The NYSRWB will submit the guidelines to the Governor's Office of Regulatory Reform for approval. Once approved, there will be a public comment period of a minimum of 45 days before the new rules can be adopted.

CAMERON CRAZIES (f, 2, Lion Heart--D Hail Mary, by Defensive Play) finished a good second behind another daughter of Lion Heart, Pride, in her Keeneland bow Apr. 25. The chestnut fired a best-of-62 four-furlong bullet in :47 1/5 at Churchill May 13 and was 4-5 to go one better this time. Placed in a perfect spot in third behind a pair of dueling leaders, the $125,000 OBSAUG yearling took over in the stretch and was saved by the wire to hold off Blue Devil Racing Stable's Ride On Josephine (Johannesburg) by a nose. She becomes the sixth winner for her freshman sire (by Tale of the Cat). Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $27,830. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Harlem Rocker Headlines Woodbine's Plate Trial:

Undefeated ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Harlem Rocker (Macho Uno), who ran his record to three-for-three in the Apr. 26 Gill Withers S., will make his next start in Sunday's C$150,000 Plate Trial at Woodbine. The Adena Springs homebred drew off to a 2 1/2-length score despite evidencing his inexperience down the lane in the Withers. "He's still green, but he's one of those improving horses," regular rider Eibar Coa said after that race. "Every time he runs, he just gets better. He's not 100 percent yet, which is kind of scary because he can be better than this." Breaking from post six, Harlem Rocker will face seven rivals in the nine-furlong Trial while making his Polytrack debut.

Adena Springs Retirement Grad Joins ND Horse Park:

Adena Springs homebred Barracuda Boy (Unbridled's Song), a graduate of the farm's Canadian-based Retirement Program, has joined Horse Race North Dakota and North Dakota Horse Park as their official equine ambassador. A graded-stakes winner of $229,377, the seven-year-old gelding was injured after finishing third in the Jan. 5 Native Dancer S. at Laurel Park. He will headline Horse Race North Dakota's public education program. "We took on this project because we feel that public education on the subject of retired racehorses is integral to the overall health of the sport and the welfare of the horses involved," said North Dakota Horse Park General Manager Heather Benson. "The negative feedback from the recent Eight Belles tragedy only underscores the importance of public education on the subject live horse racing and Thoroughbred retirement. As such, the North Dakota Horse Park and Horse Race North Dakota are striving to provide an environment where questions can be answered and solutions can be found for our retired horses." Barracuda Boy will be stabled near the Horse Park grandstand during the meet. A public relations expert will also be in attendance to provide Thoroughbred retirement information and answer questions from the public.

Paralyzed Horsewoman Raises $1M for Research:

Assistant trainer Robin Cleary, who was paralyzed after a spill at Calder Race Course in 1996, will be honored at Calder today for raising more than $1 million for The Miami Project to Cure Paralysis's spinal cord injury research programs. "What Robin had done is simply amazing," said Miami Project President Marc Buoniconti. "I know of no other individual who has led such a grass roots effort to raise money for any charity. She is truly our shining star, and an example of how much one determined individual can do to make a huge difference in the lives of so many." Calder will present the check that will officially push Cleary's fund-raising efforts over the $1-million mark. Paralyzed from the neck down in the accident, Cleary divides her time between training duties with her husband Brian and spreading the word about spinal cord research. "Each year, I continue to try and expand my efforts and reach," she said. "I am so fortunate that the horse community, full of so many giving people, answered the call these past 10 years. I never thought it possible to raise the kind of money I have when I started. I'm humbled by their generosity and fortunate to have many dedicated and generous donors and friends who have given me the opportunity to help fund this research and be a part of finding a cure." Icesolator was ninth on debut behind the smart Art Connoisseur (Ire) at Newmarket Apr. 16 before getting off the mark at Goodwood May 3. Back there to win a conditions event five days later, the bay was forced to hand five pounds and more to a clutch of promising juveniles, but proved equal to the task. Fast away, he raced in a stalking second until leading at the quarter pole and quickened safely clear of the rallying Finjaan. "These One Cool Cats are a bit funny at home until you give them a run, and then they just improve and improve," trainer Richard Hannon commented of his charge's freshman sire, who was recording his second stakes winner. "He was a little bit of a playboy, but came home from Newmarket and behaved beautifully. I thought his five-pound penalty was going to be tough, but he knows his job and is a real pro.
