

BIG BROWN GALLOPS WITH NEW WIRES

Triple Crown hopeful Big Brown (Boundary) galloped at Belmont Park Saturday morning after having a new set of stainless steel wires applied to his left front hoof.

Big Brown at Belmont
Horsephotos

According to IEAH Stables Co-President Michael lavarone, the GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness S. hero will have an acrylic and fiberglass patch placed on his hoof Monday and will work Tuesday. "We have time and we want to keep the patch off as long as possible to let the crack heal naturally," lavarone commented. Ian McKinlay is pleased with Big Brown's progress. "The little spot up top just keeps getting harder and harder," McKinlay said. "By Monday it should be in fabulous shape. There's no sense in taking any chances. The only thing that can go wrong is rushing. If we don't rush it, we're good." Confirmed to line up against Big Brown in the June 7 GI Belmont S. are Anak Nakal (Victory Gallop), Casino Drive (Mineshaft), Denis of Cork (Harlan's Holiday), Icabad Crane (Jump Start), Macho Again (Macho Uno), Tale of Ekati (Tale of the Cat) and Tomcito (Street Cry {Ire}). Ready's Echo (More Than Ready) and Da' Tara (Tiznow) are listed as possibles.

THE LEADING 'LADY

She was pinched back at the start, but it didn't matter. Unbeaten "TDN Rising Star" Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}) picked off her rivals on the far turn after trailing in fifth through a half mile in :48.19 and accelerated away smartly from Santa Teresita (Lemon Drop Kid) to take the GII Milady H. by 2 1/2 lengths at Hollywood Park yesterday. "Amazing, all I can say is just amazing," jockey Mike Smith said. "I'm telling you...I'm beside myself, I don't even know what to say. There's no word in my vocabulary to describe her. She was squeezed at the start and I just didn't want her to fall. I knew if she stayed up she was going to be tough to beat. On the turn I just wanted to get her running because she's so big. She just galloped, man." Cont. p6

A ROCK AND A HARD PLACE

Jean-Claude Rouget's quest for that elusive first Classic winner continues, and it is up to High Rock (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) to end the voodoo for the Pau stable in today's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly. For jockey Christophe-Patrice Lemaire, a retainer with Rouget meant surrendering the ride on his darling Natagora (Fr) (Divine Light {Jpn}), but he could hardly have a better sweetener in Robert Bousquet's impressive G3 Prix la Force winner. Rather than the six-length winning margin, it was the manner of his success in that Apr. 13 Longchamp prep which caused a stir, having pulled hard for the majority of the race before opening up with a potent surge. Lemaire is brimming with confidence, but has the grey filly at the back of his mind. Cont. p2-3.

“His last race was very good,” Lemaire told PA Sport. “He was fresh and showed a very good turn of foot and won brilliantly. I think he will come to the race in very good form. He is full of ability, and we expect him to run a very good race.

Of course, Natagora will be a big danger and she has the best form in the race. I think the trip won't be a problem for her, but the only thing is that everybody knows her now and there will be 20 runners in the race, so maybe she won't be able to control the race as she would like.”

Andre Fabre has captured this prize only once, but with arguably the best winner in recent times in Peintre Celebre 11 years ago. He has a strong team of three this time, headed by Sean Mulryan, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith's G1 Criterium International scorer The way you are (Kingmambo). His other contenders are Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Democrate (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}) and Wertheimer et Frere's Prospect Wells (Fr) (Sadler's Wells). Both Democrate and Prospect Wells were breaking their maidens in their respective trials, and the former holds Mme. Daniel the form of the G2 Prix Hocquart at Longchamp May 5.

Prospect Wells was treading the proven path of the recent Jockey-Club heroes Blue Canari (Fr), Dalakhani (Ire), Montjeu (Ire), Peintre Celebre, Ragmar (Fr), Celtic Arms (Fr) and Suave Dancer when taking the G2 Prix Greffulhe. The homebred had two short necks to spare over Ripple (Fr) and Trois Rois (Fr) (Hernando {Fr}) in that May 12 Saint-Cloud contest, and bids to go one better than his half-brother Prospect Park (GB), who was beaten a head by Blue Canari in the 2004 edition.

Smooth Air made his 11th-place finish in the GI Kentucky Derby a distant memory with a smart tally here. The bay splashed his way home to a one-length victory in the GII Hutcheson S. Jan. 5, then placed third in his route debut in the Sam F. Davis S. Feb. 16. He completed the exacta behind Big Brown in the GI Florida Derby Mar. 29, but could only finish within 21 lengths of the Triple Crown hopeful last time on the first Saturday in May. With regular rider Manoel Cruz in the irons this time, Smooth Jazz stayed close to the pacesetting Celtic Meal (Formal Dinner) through fractions of :22.52 and :46.34. Floated wide at the top of the stretch after Cherokee Artist gained the lead, Smooth Air took over from that one in the lane and won going away.

Bennie Stutts Continues to Live the Dream...

There may have not been a happier man than 70-year-old trainer Bennie Stutts Jr at Thistledown following Smooth Air's victory yesterday. "This is the proudest moment of my life," said Stutts. "I'm in a hurry to get back to him. I don't want him out of my sight." Owner Brian Burns said of Stutts, "He's come on the scene as a young 70."

Heatseeker just keeps on rolling since joining the Jerry Hollendorfer barn. He closed out 2007 with a 30-1 upset victory in the GIII Native Diver H. Dec. 8, then finished third in the GII San Pasqual H. Jan. 12. The handsome chestnut finished second, beaten a head to Well Armed in the GII San Antonio H. Feb. 9 and followed with a career high, getting the job done in the GI Santa Anita H. Mar. 1. Shipped to Arkansas for the GII Oaklawn H. Apr. 5, he came up a head short when second to Tiago, but had no problem turning the tables on that foe here. Breaking from the one hole, Heatseeker fought it out with Surf Cat from the git-go, rattling off fractions of :24.72, :48.15 and 1:11.68. Given his cue on the turn for home, Heatseeker exploded down the lane and left little doubt about the outcome, lowering his own track record. "I wanted to come from behind, but nobody wanted to go to the lead," jockey Rafael Bejarano said. "My horse broke really sharp and he got comfortable real fast. We were going really slow early and he was able to take advantage of the slow pace. I thought I had Surf Cat measured because I had a lot of gas left when we got to the turn. He was really running. It was like he re-broke at the eighth pole."

Oct. 19 in what would be her season finale. The Harlequin Ranch colorbearer resumed her career with a half-length tally over the Woodbine Polytrack May 9 and was deemed a 9-1 chance this time. Breaking alertly from the four hole, Callwood Dancer went up to set the pace and was narrowly in front through splits of :48.62 and 1:11.90. Zenyatta obtained ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ status following a breathtaking Hollywood maiden win on Thanksgiving and continues to amaze. She stretched to two turns without a blink, adding an allowance at the Inglewood, California racetrack Dec. 15. Making her stakes bow in the Jan. 13 GII El Encino S. at Santa Anita, the Moss colorbearer rallied to a 1 3/4-length tally. Freshened following that victory, Zenyatta proved she can handle the dirt as well, posting her most impressive win in the GI Apple Blossom H. Apr. 5. The dark bay made it look like another walk in the park at Hollywood in yesterday's Milady. "She's special," trainer John Shirreffs said. "She was lucky because she got really squeezed coming out of the gate and Mike [Smith] was saying he just closed his eyes and hoped she didn't clip heels. She picked up her feet and got over it alright. She's breaking better and is a little lighter on her feet." Shirreffs said Zenyatta will target the GI Vanity H. at Hollywood July 5.

Raw Silk really stepped up once switched to turf in her third career start, leading from gate-to-wire at Aqueduct Nov. 9, but was DQ'd for interference and placed second. Freshened following that effort, the Darley colorbearer resurfaced with a dominating 5 1/4-length decision at the Big A Apr. 16, then tired to finish third in Belmont's Gaviola S. last time May 8. Taking up her customary spot on the lead here, she was rated to perfection by Alan Garcia through fractions of :24.69 and :49.13 and ran away and hid from 'em in the stretch. "The first part, she galloped around and was so relaxed," Garcia said. "When we turned for home, I had a lot of horse left. She kept on running. She was very, very nice."

efforts, most recently finishing a neck behind Carnack's Choice (Carson City) in an optional claimer at Keeneland Apr. 9. Bet down to even-money in similar company at Churchill May 11, he cruised home a five-length winner, and was the second choice to handle the step up to the graded Noonmark ate into that advantage in the final furlong, but lacked the determination to prevail. Acoma rallied from far back to finish third behind impressive subsequent Cinemine S. winner Storm Mesa in a Fair Grounds maiden special weight at first asking Mar. 13. She stayed closer to the pace in her second attempt, and rallied to post a sharp two-length tally at Keeneland Apr. 18. Acoma made it two straight over a sloppy Churchill oval in an allowance May 11 and was making her stakes debut here. Settled in fifth as Secret Gypsy carved out fractions of :23.31 and :46.22, Acoma began to make her move on the turn for home. Keep the Peace overtook Secret Gypsy in the stretch, but couldn't withstand the late charge of Acoma. "This is a big step," trainer David Carroll said. "She's a graded-stakes winner now, and for a filly with her pedigree that's a first step. But this was a good step for her. I won't say today was a surprise, but we went into the race hoping she'd run well. If you hit the board, it would be great, and the fact that she won it was just icing on the cake. But for me, personally, watching her from the day we got her until now, she's taught me an awful lot. Winning for Helen [Alexander] is always special." Sudan, third in the 2006 G1 Grand Prix de Paris, closed out his overseas campaign with a narrow victory in the G1 Gran Premio di Milano last June. Given plenty of time following that tally, he resurfaced in the United States with an eighth-place finish in the GII San Luis Obispo H. at Santa Anita Feb. 23, then following another break, placed third in the GII Jim Murray Memorial H. at Hollywood May 10. Favored to get back on track here, he was gunned to the lead by David Flores, set an uncontested pace and coasted home to an easy victory. "I just wanted to let him get comfortable," said Flores. "He was on the bit and I didn't want to choke him down. There was no one to go with him and he was cruising. The last half-mile I decided to just let him go on. I didn't want any surprises. I didn't even look back, I just rode my race. Bobby Frankel is a great trainer and he had this horse ready to roll. I was just a passenger."

Second over seven furlongs in the G3 Gladness S. on his four-year-old bow in deep ground at The Curragh Apr. 13, Major Cadeaux took the G2 Sandown Mile last time Apr. 26, but the suspicion remained that he is at his best over shorter. Well-supported here, the chestnut was settled towards the rear off the honest early fractions before taking closer order at the quarter pole. Unbeknownst to the roaring crowds, Ryan Moore's saddle had started to slip, but the rider managed to stay balanced. He galvanised Major Cadeaux through a narrow opening to lead passing the furlong marker and onto a hard-earned win. Connections are eyeing a possible tilt at the G1 Golden Jubilee S. back over six furlongs at Royal Ascot June 21, with the July 30 G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood a longer-range target. Successful in this contest last year, Garnica also won last August's G3 Prix de Meautry for owner Edmund Gann, but found new connections at Arqana's Oct. 6 Arc Sale on the same day he ran eighth in the G1 Prix de la Foret over this course and distance. Off the radar in his first run for new trainer David Nicholls when 16th in the May 14 G2 Duke of York S., he appreciated this return to familiar surroundings to claim a fourth victory at this level. Garnica broke swiftly to race in a clear second until asked to make his bid with 500 meters remaining. Taking over soon after, the grey poached a decisive advantage at the eighth pole and was ridden out to hold the late thrusts of Belliflore and Tiza. "He won this last year and I can understand why, as he is really at home over this course and distance; he quickened well when I asked him to do so," said winning rider Stephane Pasquier.

'Fire' Added to Oaks Field...

Mike Caddy's unbeaten Saphira's Fire (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) was supplemented to Friday's £350,000 G1 Juddmonte Oaks, which yesterday attracted a list of 18 fillies at the five-day stage. Successful in Newmarket's Listed Pretty Polly S. on her latest start May 4, the William Muir-trained filly worked at the track's 'Breakfast with the Stars' Thursday morning. She was added at a cost of £20,000 for the Epsom Classic. Jackie Bolger's G3 Musidora S. winner Lush Lashes (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), Lady O'Reilly's unbeaten Chinese White (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}) and His Highness the Aga Khan's Katiyra (Ire) (Peintre Celebre) will bring a formidable Irish presence to the contest. That will be bolstered by a potential seven-strong team from Ballydoyle, including Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's G3 Blue Wind S. scorer Adored (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Peter Chapple-Hyam is set to run Five Horses Ltd's Musidora runner-up Cape Amber (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}), who got her trainer's approval in a workout Friday morning. "I was very pleased with her work," Chapple-Hyam said. "It's the best she has ever gone at home, and Jamie [Spencer] was happy with her, too. He feels she has improved since the Musidora, but then she would need to have to be competitive in the Oaks. It's all systems go for next Friday." Roger Charlton will be represented by the Seasons Holidays-owned Listed Swettenham Stud Fillies' Trial S. heroine Clowance (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}), and John Gosden by Stonerside Stable's Listed Height of Fashion S. winner Michita (Dynaformer).

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will first-time starters.

GRAND PRIX DE CHANTILLY-G2, €130,000, 4yo/up, 1 1/2mT

SC	PP	HORSE	SIRE	TRAINER	WT
1	5	Zambezi Sun (GB)	Dansili (GB)	Bary	130
2	4	Doctor Dino (Fr)	Muhtathir (GB)	Gibson	130
3	3	First Stream (Ger)	Lomitas (GB)	Hofer	123
4	8	Not Just Swing (Ire)	King's Best	Fabre	123
5	2	Galactic Star (GB)	Galileo (Ire)	Stoute	123
6	6	Bucintoro (Ire)	Galileo (Ire)	Hammond	123
7	1	Noble Prince (Ger)	Montjeu (Ire)	Fabre	123
8	7	Varevees (GB)	Kahyasi (Ire)	Gibson	120

Zambezi Sun bids to redeem a tarnished reputation following a disappointing effort when last of six in Longchamp's G1 Prix Ganay Apr. 27. That was his second below-par run after a tame eighth in that track's feature G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in October, although he did have excuses there after suffering an interrupted preparation and being hampered by the eventual winner Dylan Thomas (Ire). Khalid Abdullah's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe is hoping he can get back to the sort of form that saw him take the G1 Grand Prix de Paris in July. "He was working very well up to the Ganay, but ran very flat and there was no explanation," Grimthorpe commented. "He has come on again and Pascal [Bary] has been pleased with him, so he ought to have a great chance." Another heavy-weight set to carry a penalty is Doctor Dino, who flew the tricolore overseas last term when winning the G1 Man o'War S. in September and G1 Hong Kong Vase in December. Third in the Mar. 29 G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Nad Al Sheba, he has been supplemented for this competitive renewal. cont.

Galactic Star was third behind Getaway (Ger) and Sixties Icon (GB) in the May 4 G2 Jockey Club S. on his latest start at Newmarket and is a typical late Sir Michael Stoute improver. "Galactic Star appears to have improved since his run at Newmarket and his subsequent work has been consistently solid," owner Saeed Suhail's Racing Manager Bruce Raymond said. "I am sure he is capable of running a big race."

Sunday, Chantilly, France, post time: 3:40 p.m.

PRIX DE SANDRINGHAM-G2, €130,000, 3yo, f, 1mT

SC	PP	HORSE	SIRE	TRAINER
1	2	Nijoom Dubai (GB)	Noverre	Channon
2	5	Modern Look (GB)	Zamindar	Smaga
3	3	Mousse au Chocolat	Hennessy	Rouget
4	4	Albisola (Ire)	Montjeu (Ire)	Collet
5	1	Lady Deauville (Fr)	Fasliyev	Blockley

All carry 123 pounds.

Modern Look returns following a fine fourth behind Zarkava (Ire) in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches at Longchamp May 11. She had Lady Deauville behind when winning the G3 Prix Miesque at Maisons-Laffitte in November and had only the subsequent G1 1000 Guineas heroine Natagora (Fr) in front in the Listed Prix Imprudence at that venue Apr. 14. Nijoom Dubai was behind her when eighth in the Longchamp Classic, but may have had excuses. "She came back from France with a small problem, but that resolved itself quickly and she is ready to go," owner Jaber Abdullah's Racing Manager Bruce Raymond commented. "It is a small field and we are hopeful of a good show." Albisola is an intriguing contender dropping back in trip off a win in the Apr. 6 Listed Prix Finlande and a fifth in the May 18 G1 Prix Saint-Alary at Longchamp.

Last year's G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest winner Marchand d'Or returns under a penalty for his first European start since finishing third in the G1 Prix de la Foret at Longchamp in October. Sixth in the G1 Hong Kong Sprint in December, he holds the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye hero Benbaun on that form. cont. p11

Connections of the latter are hoping that he can rebound from a last-place finish in the Sha Tin contest. "He's giving away weight, but he's in such good form I'm not too bothered," trainer Mark Wallace told PA Sport. "It's a Group 2 in name only really, but I'm not bothered about it being such a strong race. I just hope the ground dries out a bit for him, but I think it will." Captain Gerrard, who beat Sakhee's Secret (GB) in Newmarket's G3 Palace House S. on his three-year-old return May 4, arrives here at the top of his game. "He's traveled well and eaten up, so we're over the moon with him," conditioner Bryan Smart said. "He's in flying form and it was like the wall of death pulling him up at the end of his pipe-opener." Sir Gerry boosts a strong overseas challenge. Last year's G2 Gimcrack S. winner proved he retains his ability when winning Ascot's Listed Pavilion S. on his latest outing Apr. 30.

13	8	Themelie Island (Ire)	Montjeu (Ire)	A Trybuhl

All carry 128 pounds.

With the likely favorite Peace Royale (Ger) ruled out due to a setback, this has a more open feel. Love Academy, a half-length second to that rival in the May 12 G3 Schwarzgold-Rennen at Cologne, may be able to profit from that rivals's absence. Clive Brittain puts forward Love of Dubai and Tathkaar.

The former appears the pick and went two places better than Britain's Crimplene when successful in the G3 Premio Regina Elena (Italian 1000 Guineas) at the Capannelle May 18. "Love of Dubai came back in good shape from Italy and there is every reason to believe that she can give a repeat performance in Germany," Mohammed Al Shafar's Racing Manager Bruce Raymond said. "I believe Love Academy is quite useful, but Love of Dubai is also pretty good. The ground is fast at present and that's ideal for her." The unbeaten Global Rose, impressive on her latest start here May 11, warrants respect from the Karen Haustein stable.

Golden Titus, reverting to a mile, bids to regain the winning thread following a second in the G3 Premio Ambrosiano here Apr. 26 and fourth in the May 18 G1 Premio Presidente della Repubblica at the Capannelle. He tackles the French challenger Gris de Gris, who has won three of his four starts this season beginning with the Listed Grand Prix de la Riviera Cote d'Azur at Cagnes-sur-Mer Feb. 10. Following up in the Mar. 8 Listed Prix Altipan, he was second in the Mar. 30 G3 Prix Edmond Blanc before besting the subsequent G1 Prix d'Ispahan fourth Turfrose (Ger) in the May 1 G2 Prix du Muguet at Saint-Cloud.

As odds-on favourite Heavenly Glow began to wilt in the run to the line, Riva San surged over the final 200 meters and fended off Rathsallagh on her inside to snare this contest by a long head. Riva San won the Listed Lindsay Park Guineas in Adelaide last September and had been in the frame several times since, but was sent off an unwanted 25-1 after a last-start ninth in the G3 Doomben Roses May 17. Trainer Peter Moody was not suprised by the reversal of form. "I really expected her to run well on the big track," Moody said. "She raced against the best fillies last spring with distinction, and hadn't had much go right for her in the lead up to this race." The winner was one of 18 foals from the only crop of the Arrowfield-bred Any Given Sunday (Aus), an unraced son of Sunday Silence, who died in Victoria after one season.

STAR OF THE WEEK
 Brought to you by Fasig-Tipton

Martin O'Dowd

Accomplishment: Catesby Clay's

Runnymede Farm, of which O'Dowd is vice president and general manager, bred Monday's GI Met Mile hero Divine Park. Runnymede has also bred the likes of Japanese champion Agnes Digital, Grade I winner Marylebone and last year's GI Breeders' Cup Classic third Awesome Gem.

Birthdate: October 4, 1951

Birthplace: Drougheda, County Louth, Ireland

Family: Wife, Sherry; sons Patrick and Daniel; daughter, Clare.

Current residence: Runnymede Farm, Paris, Kentucky

How did you get into horse racing? I was born with a love and passion for horses. Thus, there were no other options.

How many mares does Runnymede have? We usually keep around 30 mares but that can change if we encounter individuals that meet our criteria. We put great emphasis on broodmare sires and the conformation of the mares we acquire.

Do you still have Divine Park's dam, High in the Park? We sold her in 2007 (for $3,500 at KEEJAN). At the time, we had four mares by her sire, Ascot Knight, and we always want to replenish our band with a diversity of bloodlines. In that same year, we bought mares by Carson City and other up-and-coming broodmare sires.

What is the mare like physically and in personality? She is about 15.3 hands, very correct and has a lovely shoulder and hip-she is most attractive. She is a very sweet mare, an excellent mother to her foals and a joy to be around.

How did you decide on Chester House? High in the Park has two crosses of Northern Dancer and we wanted to introduce Mr. Prospector. Chester House (by Mr. P.), who raced from two through five, was sound and was a multiple Grade 1 winner of almost $2 million. He also had the physical attributes that were just right for her.

Personality wise, who's been your favorite horse to be around and why? I have to say Chancey Squaw, the dam of Japanese champion and international Group 1 winner Agnes Digital and other group stakes performers. Like other great producers I've encountered, she is a very independent lady who demands respect and insists on things being done her way. But she has her tender moments, too.

When planning matings, what are some of the factors you consider? Genetic and conformational compatibility are the main emphases--equal amounts of both--with the hope that the blend also has commercial appeal.

How much do you focus on matching the physical traits of mares and stallions? We consider physical compatibility to be of the utmost importance. We never breed to a sire that I have not inspected and feel confident that his physical make-up will complement our mare.

If you are having friends over for dinner, what's on the menu?

Lamb with roasted potatoes, but I must add that I am a sushi addict.

What is your favorite vacation spot? Japan-I love the people and their culture.

What is your favorite sports team-favorite athlete? I'm a big fan of the University of Kentucky basketball team. And I think Tiger Woods is incredible.

What is your favorite music? Abba's greatest hits and Handel's greatest hits. Don't laugh.

What is the last good book you read? The Frontiersman by Allan W. Eckert, a historically accurate novel about early settlers in Kentucky and the surrounding region.

If you could have dinner with one historical figure, who would it be? Thomas Jefferson. To me, he is one of the most fascinating men who ever lived.

Funniest movie? City Slickers.

MONTEREY JAZZ SIDELINED Multiple graded stakes winner Monterey Jazz (Thunderello) has suffered a coffin bone injury and will be benched for four to six months, according to Daily Racing Form. A towering winner of the GIII Texas Mile Apr. 26--earning a 118 Beyer Speed Figure--the dark bay was slated to contest the GI Metropolitan H., but was injured during a May 21 breeze at Hollywood Park. "It definitely happened in the workout," trainer Craig Dollase told DRF. "My rider said he could feel something the way he pulled up. He jumped off and we walked him back to the barn." Sent to Alamo Pintado Equine Clinic in Los Olivos, California, the four-year-old was diagnosed with the coffin bone problem, but it will not require surgery. "It's an odd injury that you don't see very often," Dollase added. "He'll be fitted with a special shoe. We'll do therapy to promote healing, maybe it will come along quicker." In addition to the Texas Mile, Monterey Jazz captured the GIII Sir Beaufort S. on grass Dec. 26 and the GII Strub S. on Cushion Track Feb. 2. He faltered to 12th as the favorite in the GI Santa Anita H. Mar. 1.

CLEVER BERTIE DEAD The Klein family's Clever Bertie (Timeless Native--Clever But Costly, by Clever Trick), the dam of MGSWs Hurricane Bertie (Storm Boot) and Allamerican Bertie (Quiet American), was euthanized at Clarkland Farm in Kentucky at the age of 17 after giving birth to an A.P. Indy foal Friday, according to Daily Racing Form. The foal also had to be euthanized. "She was our blue hen," Richard Klein told DRF. "She was the foundation mare for all the good horses we've had through the years. She was the one that got us started." Her first foal--Hurricane Bertie--won three graded stakes, placed third in the GI Ballerina H. and bankrolled $940,040. Allamerican Bertie annexed four graded stakes and also reported home second in the GI Alabama S. She recorded $799,235 in earnings. The unraced Clever Bertie was purchased by Klein for $14,000 as a yearling at the 1992 Keeneland September sale.

Inca King won each of his prior two outings over this course, the GII Jefferson Cup S. last June and the Commonwealth Turf S. Nov. 11. The bay closed out 2007 with a score in the Woodchopper H. at Fair Grounds on Christmas Eve, but faltered in his first two outings this season. Eighth in the GIII Fair Grounds H. Feb. 9, he lost the lead late when fifth in the LaCombe Memorial H. at Fair Grounds Mar. 15. The tepid 7-2 favorite went straight to the front, rolled through fractions of :48.59 and 1:12.70 and kicked clear in front of the stands.

VISIBLE TRUTH (c, 4, Silver Deputy--Blind Trust {MSP, $198,157}, by Bold Ruckus) a $155,000 FTSAUG yearling who blossomed into a $420,000 KEEAPR two-year-old, finished seventh in his lone start for Bob Baffert at Hollywood in December 2006. The bay didn't face the starter again until Feb. 29, when he scored by 4 3/4 lengths in a Fair Grounds maiden. Third in a sprint on the New Orleans turf Mar. 23, he finished a close fourth over this track and trip Apr. 27 and was bet down to 3-5 here. The Zayat colorbearer attempted to drift out while setting the pace, but straightened himself out, shrugged off several challenges and drove clear by 2 3/4 lengths. Cya Later Bert (Grand Slam) completed the exacta. Lifetime Record: 5-2-0-1, $57,796.

He fared little better in his latest, a last-place finish on the opening day program at Keeneland Apr. 4. A 2-1 chance in this event, the homebred bid into the stretch, took command at the furlong grounds and went on to 1 1/4-length victory. Lifetime Record: 4-2-0-0, $45,066. O/B-WinStar Farm LLC (KY). Saki to Me won the first three starts of her career at Delaware Park, capped by a 1 3/4-length success over Dagger in the Oct. 27 Blue Hen S. Her three-year old campaign had been decidedly less productive, with a fourth-place effort in the Mar. 8 Wide Country S. over a sloppy Laurel main track and a fifth in the Apr. 12 Lizzy Cool S. at Aqueduct. Sent off at boxcar odds despite a return to two turns, the dark bay was well-placed while not far from the front, angled four wide on far turn, struck the lead in the stretch and held sway late. Catmosphere (Storm Cat) and Namaste's Wish (Pulpit) were scratched when the race was removed from the turf following early-afternoon rains.

Fractured Wrist for Jockey Kyle Branch:

Jockey Kyle Branch suffered a fractured left wrist when he was tossed from his mount in the paddock prior to the first race at Monmouth Saturday. The 34-year-old was taken to Monmouth Medical Center in Long Branch, New Jersey, following the incident. "He has a fractured left wrist and soft tissue swelling," Dr. Angelo Chinnici, Medical Director at Monmouth Park, said. "He'll be examined further at the hospital and I should know more about the extent of the injury shortly."

TINGLING (Storm Cat) is the latest produce of the brilliant Bosra Sham. The sister of Hector Protector carried all before her during the 1996 season when winning the G1 1000 Guineas and G1 Dubai Champion S. Michael Tabor and Susan Magnier's filly is introduced by David Wachman, and meets another Coolmore newcomer in the Aidan O'Brien-trained Woodlark (Ire) (Daneshill Dancer (Ire)), a half-brother to the dual G1 Ascot Gold Cup scorer Royal Rebel (GB).

A BRILLIANT 6-TIME GR.1 WINNER

Last year's G2 Richmond S. runner-up Fat Boy suffered a nose defeat at the hands of Stimulation (Ire) on his three-year-old bow in the Listed European Free H. at Newmarket Apr. 16. The chestnut put Tajdeef in his place last time, winning the Listed Carnarvon S. at Newbury May 16. Repeating the dose here, the imposing sophomore set out to make it a test from the front and, despite a challenge from the Shadwell homebred, would not be passed in the final 100 yards. "He is a tough and consistent horse who is pretty good, too," trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam commented. "We'll have a think about where he goes next, but he does enjoy this summer ground."

Trained in Ireland by Andrew Oliver last season, Perfect Polly demonstrated her ability with a runner-up effort in the G3 Round Tower S. at The Curragh in September and a fourth in the G1 Cheveley Park S. at Newmarket the following month. She made her debut for Jeremy Nosedá at Hamilton May 9 when wiring a conditions event. The bay raced in mid-division this time after suffering some buffeting early. Nudged to the front inside the final quarter, she ran on well under driving as Aine stayed on from the pack. "The filly did it well, and it's possible that we could consider the G3 Jersey S. [at Royal Ascot June 18], but there could be something a little bit more appropriate. She would be better suited by good ground, rather than on the faster side as it was today."

Samuel has been highly tried during his short career, and concluded his sophomore campaign by beating one home in the G1 St Leger S. at Doncaster in September. Recording a personal best on his seasonal bow when finishing third in the G2 Yorkshire Cup over course and distance May 16, the chestnut continued to move forward here by annexing this strong renewal in a fast time. The homebred raced in midfield early, cruised up to the heels of the leaders at the three-furlong marker and was shaken up soon after. Staying on well as Tranquil Tiger looked to have made a winning move, Samuel picked up under a drive to head that rival 50 yards from the line and break his maiden. Connections are likely to bypass the upcoming June 19 G1 Ascot Gold Cup and instead target the July 31 G2 Goodwood Cup.

Breaking through in his first go at Chantilly last July, Americain ran second in the Listed Criterium du FEE at Deauville the following month. He was on the shelf following that effort until returning with a sixth in the Apr. 24 Listed Prix de Suresnes at Chantilly last time. Steering clear of late trouble here, he was awarded a first stakes prize in the stewards' room after first-past-the-post Weald was found guilty of hampering Watar. Settled last of the five runners, Americain came under pressure rounding the home turn and kept on well in the closing stages, without threatening the errant run of Weald, to pip the unlucky Watar for second on the line. Winning trainer Andre Fabre was unavailable for comment, but Pascal Bary, trainer of the demoted Weald, conceded, "The ruling of the stewards was correct, but at least he proved he can compete at this level. He's a nice horse, but is still a big baby with much to learn. I will bring him back for the June 19 G3 Prix du Lys over this course and distance."
