LANE'S END
DIXIE UNION
★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ BOLD UNION WON
HER DEBUT AT MONMOUTH BY 10 3/4 LENGTHS!

A HIGHER STATE

He was unbeaten going into the race and, after a thrilling renewal of the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club, Vision d'Etat (Fr) (Chichicastenango {Fr}) emerged from a tussle with Famous Name (GB) (Dansili {GB}) with his unbeaten record intact. Kept close to the early pace by jockey Ioritz Mendizabal, the 7-1 shot allowed the eventual third Natagora (Fr) (Divine Light {Jpn}) first run in the straight, but quickly had her measure before holding the wide thrust of the 40-1 outsider Famous

Triple Threats

TOMCITO OUT OF BELMONT

Tomcito (Street Cry {Ire}), third behind Big Brown in the GI Florida Derby, has been withdrawn from consideration for Saturday's GI Belmont S. According to trainer Dante Zanelli, the colt is suffering from a "reaction," but the conditioner did not disclose more information.

Tale of Ekati Works...

GI Wood Memorial S. winner Tale of Ekati (Tale of the Cat) worked six furlongs yesterday over Belmont's muddy main track in 1:11.99. The drill follows last Monday's slow six-furlong move in 1:18 1/5. "This was the move I was hoping for last week," trainer Barclay Tagg said yesterday. "Now, you can only hope that it wasn't too much for him. Everything seems to be going well now, and we're back on schedule." Tale of Ekati was fourth after a rough trip in the GI Kentucky Derby. "The Belmont is a tough race and Big Brown is a tough horse," Tagg added. "But if you've got a horse that is doing well, you have to take a chance. We're back on schedule and this horse loves Belmont Park. I hope he runs his race."

Vision d'Etat started out at the smaller tracks at two and his light was hidden despite successful outings at Les Sables-d'Olonne in September and Fontainebleau in November. Not even a smooth 1 1/2-length win under a five-pound penalty in a Saint-Cloud conditions event on his sophomore bow Mar. 8 could give a true indication of his ability. That was first glimpsed in his first real test in the Prix de Suresnes, where he put three lengths between himself and the highly regarded Magadan (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}), who was demoted from second that afternoon, and he entered this wide-open Classic with respectful support behind him. Showing early pace from his favorable low draw to stalk pacemaker Mayweather (GB) (Nayef), Vision d'Etat enjoyed a perfect trip sheltered in fourth, with Natagora to his outer. Taking a few strides to find top gear as the filly was sent to the front by Frankie Dettori with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, he was in full flight by the time Famous Name arrived in the centre of the track with a potential winning move under Pat Smullen. He edged between that duo to get to the front passing the furlong marker, and pulled out extra as the game runner-up lunged in determined fashion. "We had a fantastic run around the inside and he idled slightly when he hit the front," explained Ioritz Mendizabal, who was winning his first Classic. "I felt there was always something more there, and hopefully there is room for improvement." Eric Libaud, holding fire on future plans, added, "I always thought this horse had a lot of potential, but I had been careful not to give him hard races early on in his career and to give him plenty of time between them. He was a little bit tender in his mind and not fully mature, so I didn't want to damage him. He came here undefeated and remains so, so I can't ask for more. We'll take our time before deciding about his future." The trainer added, "We have had some highs and lows, and mainly lows since the days of Ange Gabriel (Fr) and Terre a Terre (Fr), but you have to take life as it comes and this is a marvelous day for the stable." Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

- Multiple Grade 2 Winner of $663,428
- Only U.S. Grade I son of SUNDAY SILENCE standing in North America.
- A stakes horse every year he raced.

Almost Famous...

Famous Name's trainer Dermot Weld was left ruing the runner-up's draw in 17, a full 13 boxes wide of the eventual winner's berth. "He has run a blinder, but I think the draw beat us," he said. "Pat [Smullen] has ridden a superb race and I'm very proud of the horse." Those sentiments were echoed by Pascal Bary, whose Natagora faded in the final furlong to finish a highly respectable third. "I'm very proud of her, if slightly disappointed not to win," he commented. "She has run her heart out and it was probably 100 or 150 yards too far for her. We'll take our time now and see what happens before deciding where she goes next." High Rock (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) was sent off the 4-1 crowd's choice to provide trainer Jean-Claude Rouget with a first Classic but it was not to be, as he failed to match the acceleration of the main protagonists after racing keenly early and stayed on for fourth.

Third behind Dylan Thomas (Ire) in the G1 Prix Ganay at Longchamp last April, Doctor Dino was sent on his travels and showed a remarkable consistency throughout a year-long worldwide campaign. Third again in the G1 Singapore Airlines International Cup at Kranji in May, the chestnut was at the bottom of the trifecta once more in the G1 Arlington Million in August. Finally gaining the top-level triumph his record deserved when winning a battle royal with Sunriver in Belmont's G1 Man o' War S. the following month, he shipped to Newmarket for the G1 Champion S. in October and found only Literato (Fr) and Eagle Mountain (GB) too strong there. He would have been forgiven a dip in form when tackling the G1 Hong Kong Vase in December, but rather than prove a bridge too far, Sha Tin was the scene of his finest hour when besting Quijano (Ger) by 1 1/2 lengths. Nad Al Sheba's Dubai World Cup meeting would not have been the same without him, and he delivered his now-customary commendable effort when third in the Mar. 29 G1 Dubai Sheema Classic before this finest success on home soil. Settled in mid-pack early by regular pilot Olivier Peslier, he traveled strongly into the straight and quickened to cut down Zambezi Sun with a furlong remaining en route to a snug score. "This horse has been most consistent at the highest level for over a year now, and he proved he's a real Group 1 horse again today," trainer Richard Gibson said. "All being well, he will run in the [June 29] G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud next." Zambezi Sun's conditioner Pascal Bary was pleased with the return to form of the runner-up, following his below-par sixth in the G1 Prix Ganay. "I was very disappointed with his last run, but he looked back on track today," Bary commented. "Maybe he needed this run as well, and he will go for the Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud."  O-Khalid Abullah; B-Juddmonte Farms; T-David Smaga; J-Stephane Pasquier; €74,100. Lifetime Record: 7 starts, 4 wins, 3 places, €174,540. *3/4 to Arabesque (GB) (Zafonic), SW-GB. Click for the eNicks report and 5-cross pedigree. Werk Nick Rating: A+.
- 2--Mousse au Chocolat, 123, f, 3, Hennessy--Muskoka Dawn, by Miswaki. ($75,000 wnlg '05 KEENOV; $100,000 yrl '06 KEESEP). O-Ecurie I M Fares; B-Paget Bloodstock; T-Jean-Claude Rouget; €28,600.
- 3--Albisola (Ire), 123, f, 3, Montjeu (Ire)--Mahalia (Ire), by Danehill. O-G A Oldham; B-Citadel Stud Establishment; T-Robert Collet; €13,650.
 Margins: 3, NO, SNK. Odds: 0.70, 3.10, 4.50.
 Also Ran: Lady Deauville (Fr), Nijoom Dubai (GB).
 Like Khalid Abdullah's Banks Hill (GB) in 2001, Modern Look rebounded from defeat in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches to gain compensation in decisive fashion here. The winner of the G3 Prix Miesque at Maisons-Laffitte in November and runner-up to the subsequent G1 1000 Guineas heroine Natagora (Fr) in the Listed Prix Imprudence back at that track on her sophomore bow Apr. 14, the bay entered the May 11 Longchamp Classic as the principal threat to Zarkava (Ire). She even led briefly before succumbing to that high-class foe and was hampered late on before finishing fourth, one place behind last Sunday's G1 Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Halfway to Heaven (Ire). Keeping it simple in this easier company, Stephane Pasquier sent the homebred to the front and she gradually pulled clear of her chief threat Albisola in the final furlong for an ultimately comfortable success. "The form of the Pouliches is very strong and she deserved to win this," trainer David Smaga commented. "We have two options now, to either go to Royal Ascot for the [June 20] G1 Coronation S. or wait longer for the G1 Prix Rothschild [Deauville Aug. 3]." Also Ran: Captain Gerrard (Ire), Benbaun (Ire), Only Answer (GB), Calbuco (Fr), Mariol (Fr), Reverence (GB), The Trader (Ire), Mood Music (GB), Desert Lord (GB).

Marchand d'Or defied a penalty and a drop in trip in a vintage renewal of this dash to book his ticket to Royal Ascot's G1 Golden Jubilee S. His best had previously come at six furlongs plus, and he was successful over Longchamp's seven in the G3 Prix de la Porte Maillot last June before a fourth in the G1 July Cup at Newmarket the next month. After successfully defending his title in the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest at Deauville in August, the grey was runner-up in the G1 Haydock Sprint Cup in September before a third in the G1 Prix de la Foret back at Longchamp the following month. Racing for the first time since recording a respectable sixth in the G1 Hong Kong Sprint at Sha Tin in December, he stalked the fast early fractions before swooping past the Spanish raider Equiano in the final 50 yards. "This was the perfect first step back before the [June 21] Golden Jubilee, and he has proved he can also win over five," trainer Freddy Head commented. "He is getting better with age and was very well ridden. This was a nice field and, although it may be better at Ascot, we'll stick to the plan and take our chance there." Madrid-based trainer Mauricio Delcher-Sanchez announced that the runner-up will travel to Royal Ascot for the June 17 G1 King's Stand S. River to Epsom?

Michael Spencer's River Proud (Proud Citizen) may tackle Saturday's G1 Epsom Derby in a surprise move by connections. Trainer Paul Cole yesterday revealed that the ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆, who was finishing with a flourish from rear when third in the May 11 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp, could be supplemented for the mile-and-a-half Classic tomorrow. "He has not been supplemented yet, but we have until midday tomorrow to decide," he told PA Sport. Epsom's Clerk of the Course Andrew Cooper yesterday described the going as good to soft, soft in places after a drying Saturday. "The forecast is not one to be too dogmatic about in terms of what will happen," he commented. "We will just wait, we don't need to do anything at the moment, we don't need to even think about watering and we will see how things develop by Tuesday."

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will indicate first-time starters.

After racing mainly in pattern company last season, King Jock wintered in Dubai. The highlight of his stay was a second place in a valuable one-mile handicap at Nad Al Sheba Feb. 8. He marked his return to Europe by trailing home last in the G2 Prix du Muguet at Saint-Cloud last time May 1. Taking a prominent early pitch here, the veteran was pulled back into midfield after the opening quarter. Making good progress along the rail three furlongs from home, he took the initiative at the eighth pole and ran on strongly to the wire for a career high. Having opened her account at this track in a seven-furlong maiden last September, Briseida gained a silver medal in the Listed Berberis-Rennen at Mulheim in October before running third in the G3 Preis der Winterkonigin at Baden-Baden later that month. Overlooked at long odds for this seasonal bow, she raced in midfield through the early strides and avoided the scrimmaging on the home turn which led to the fall of British challenger Tathkaar (GB) (Dr Fong). Asked for her effort down the middle of the track as Rosenreihe kicked for home along the fence, she delivered a strong run to tackle that stablemate 100 yards from the post, striding away to win with something in hand. Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Alain de Royer-Dupre has a wealth of star material among his team of fillies this term. Sub Rose's home spins against that group, as well as a promising debut win at Longchamp Apr. 27, earned her a tilt at this level. Always comfortable in the race, the bay tracked the early speed and had only Treat Gently to catch as the pair drew away passing the quarter pole. When the whip was drawn, she quickened to collar that rival at the eighth pole and surged clear as Christophe Soumillon resorted to hand riding and a pat down her neck. "She won very impressively first time out, and when I tested her at home with some very nice fillies, I found out she belongs with the best," de Royer-Dupre explained. "This was, therefore, no surprise to me, and she's got class. We will follow the program for three-year-old fillies and bring her back for the G2 Prix de Malleret [at Saint-Cloud June 29]." Deep Sky was favored to take the Japanese Derby off his victory in the NHK Mile Cup last month, and he did not disappoint. The chestnut settled well off the pace early, but angled outside at the head of the lane and exploded, getting to the front in the shadow of the wire to win going away. He flew through his final three furlongs in :34.20.

Aidan O'Brien, who won two of the last three renewals with the high-class Rumpelstiltskin (Ire) and You'resothrilling, relies on the maiden Empress of France this time. Only 11th in the course-and-distance maiden won by Cuis Ghaire on debut May 14, the half to Fasliyev is certain to improve off that effort. Cuis Ghaire had Silver Shoon and Empress of France's stable companion Heart Shaped back in second and third in that test, and that duo boosted the form when filling the first two places in the Listed Marble Hill S. MAGIC MILLIONS NATIONAL BROODMARE SALE STARTS TODAY The Magic Millions National Sale, which got off to a strong start with four weanling sessions last week, continues today on Australia's Gold Coast with the first of five sessions offering broodmares. The breeding stock section continues through Friday, with bidding beginning at 11 a.m. daily. Four-time Group 1 winner Divine Madonna (Aus) (Hurricane Sky {Aus}--My Madonna {Aus}, by Prego {Ire}) is an expected highlight of day one. The six-year-old captured the G1 Emirates S., G1 Myer Classic S., G1 Queen of the Turf S. and G1 Toorak H. and earned $2,013,390. A half to GSW Blessum (Aus) consigned by Widden Stud as lot 951, agent, she could break the A$1.6-million record for a mare sold in the Gold Coast ring. All is Vanity beat males in the Listed Prix Georges Trabaud in France last May, then came right back to post a career-best in the G2 Prix de Sandringham in June. She was well-beaten in the G1 Prix d'Astarte in July and concluded her season with a decent fourth in the G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange in September. Moved to Christophe Clement's barn for the 2008 season, All is Vanity took a one-mile Gulfstream allowance Mar. 14 and, in her latest, ran the very good Criminologist to a half-length in the GIII Beaugay H. at Aqueduct Apr. 26. A generous 4-1 with those credentials, All is Vanity rallied from third and was under an all-out drive to hold the late rally of Paris Winds by the narrowest of margins. Brookhaven's Money was a handy 6 3/4-length winner facing statebred $35,000 maiden claimers at Aqueduct Apr. 9. He was haltered away from owner Maggi Moss and trainer Steve Asmussen for $35,000 against open foes in the slop at Belmont May 16--a race he won by four lengths--and was stepped up to stakes level here. Sitting a few lengths off the pace, the chestnut muscled his way through a narrow opening in upper stretch and was going away late. A jockey's objection lodged by the rider of Fort Drum (Wiseman's Ferry), who faded to last after making contact with the winner, was disallowed.

EQUITABLE (c, 4, A.P. Indy--Equilibrate, by Gone West) posted back-to-back wins at Saratoga and Keeneland last summer and fall. Second to Inca King in the Commonwealth Turf S. at Churchill Nov. 11, he tired to third in his seasonal debut going 1 3/16 miles on the grass at Keeneland Apr. 25. Sent off the 4-5 chalk, the handsome liver chestnut rallied from a stalking perch under Kent Desormeaux and was always holding Blazing Dynamo (Dynaformer) safe, winning it by a half-length. Equitable is a half-brother to Equality (Mt. Livermore), GSW, $252,150; and Equal Opportunity (Rahy), SW, $102,530. Lifetime Record: SP, 7-3-2-1, $157,306. KAPER LAKE (g, 4, Meadowlake--Weekend Kaper {MSP, $250,070}, by Honor Grades) was beaten 6 1/2 lengths in a track-and-trip optional claimer May 1. Let go at 8-1 this time, the Matses homebred allowed a quartet of rivals to challenge for the lead, then came with a wide late run en route to the 1 1/4-length win. Cinda Hough Dies:

Cinda Hough, wife of trainer Stanley Hough, died Saturday night at Hospice By the Sea in Boca Raton, Florida. Hough, who had been battling cancer for several years, died hours after her son Sean's wedding. "She had a tough night the night before and she couldn't make the wedding," Stanley Hough said. "But she had a chance to see her family and friends and the nurses did a wonderful job. She died without any pain." Plans for a memorial service have not been finalized. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Hough's name to: Hospice By the Sea, 1531 W. Palmetto Park Road, Boca Raton, FL 33486.

Fifth in his stakes bow, the Jan. 26 Maxxam Gold Cup H. at Sam Houston, he rebounded to add another allowance tally at Fair Grounds Mar. 7 and was freshened a bit. She easily won a Santa Anita allowance Feb. 29, but could do no better than ninth, beaten 6 1/2 lengths, after drawing wide in the GII Madison S. at Keeneland Apr. 9. The prohibitive 2-5 choice made it look easy in this spot, battling through a half in :44 1/5 before scampering away to prevail by 6 3/4 lengths. a $75,000 KEESEP yearling, had been working lights out in the mornings and was no secret here as the heavy 3-5 pick. Not Bourbon has become one of Canada's better sprinting sophomores, and he proved Sunday that he could stretch his speed in a race that saw the highly touted Harlem Rocker (Macho Uno) lose his unbeaten record. Not Bourbon established a new course record at Woodbine last year when winning the six-furlong,

Oct. 13 Bull Page S. in 1:08 4/5. After closing out 2007 with a fourth in the Frost King S. in November, he returned to be a game second in the six-furlong Achievement H. Apr. 12. He got back to winning ways last out, taking the seven-furlong Queenston S. by five lengths in a swift 1:21 4/5, and was the second choice here venturing beyond that distance for the first time. Not Bourbon tracked just off the leaders as Harlem Rocker, at 1-5 odds, caboosed the seven-horse field. Not Bourbon forged to the lead after six furlongs in a slow 1:12 4/5 and dug in late to best Solitaire by a neck. Harlem Rocker made a menacing three-wide move on the far turn, but began to falter at the quarter pole and came home a disappointing fourth, beaten about six lengths. Next stop for the winner is the June 22 Queen's Plate, where he'll attempt to give his trainer, Roger Attfeld, a record-tying eighth victory in Canada's premier race for three-year-olds. "Hopefully, he can get that other eighth of a mile," said Attfeld. "He's a dead fit horse. And he acted very well today in the paddock and in the warm-up. Hopefully we can go on to the next step and get my eighth Queen's Plate [which would tie him with Harry Giddings Jr.], because I'm dying to get it." Big Booster, third in last year's GI Hollywood Gold Cup, was coming off a 2 1/2-length win in the Apr. 20 GII San Juan Capistrano H. over the Santa Anita lawn. Last of four for a mile through pedestrian splits, the veteran gelding came running late, taking over in the final furlong and drawing off to the wire to win in track-record time over the synthetic surface. "My horse loves to come from behind," confirmed winning jockey Rafael Bejarano. "There were only three other horses in the race and I knew we were going real, real slow. But I didn't have to worry because my horse has a real big kick. At the half-mile pole, when I let him go, he was just galloping and making up ground on his own." Trainer Mike Mitchell added, "You can't go by pace, you just have to let him run his race. I don't care how slow they're going, this is the way he wants to run so you just wait and wait and wait." GREEN LIGHT FOR GETAWAY Baron Georg von Ullmann's Getaway (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) will contest Friday's G1 Juddmonte Coronation Cup at Epsom, trainer Andre Fabre confirmed yesterday. The impressive G2 Jockey Club S. winner will bid to provide France's champion trainer with a seventh edition of the race. "The horse is very well and the plan is to run him on Friday," Fabre told PA Sport. "There are more runners than normal and the race does look very good. We wanted to go to Epsom, as he avoids carrying a penalty. He is still improving and isn't a Group 1 winner yet. Depending on what happens in the race, he will then head to the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. [at Ascot July 26], but I am taking it one race at a time." Others featuring in the mile-and-a-half contest at the five-day stage are Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's G1 Irish Derby hero Soldier of Fortune (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Jaber Abdullah's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe runner-up Youmzain (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}) and Paul Reddam's 2006 GI Breeders' Cup Turf hero Red Rocks (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).
