

HEAD-TURNER

Jim and Jackie Bolger's Lush Lashes (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) will be the main focus of attention today as she heads to post for the G1 Juddmonte Oaks at Epsom. She is accustomed to causing a stir, having captured The Curragh's Goffs Fillies' Million on debut and following a fast-finishing sixth in Newmarket's G1 1000 Guineas May 4 with a five-length dismissal of Cape Amber (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) in the G3 Musidora S. at York 10 days later. She bids to become the second filly from Bolger's Coolcullen base to annex this prize after

Lush Lashes Getty Images

Jet Ski Lady scored by 10 lengths at 50-1 in 1991, and the first winner of the Musidora to go on to success since Reams of Verse in 1997. Bolger's only concern at present is that the ground will dry too much. "We won't know what the ground is like until we get there tomorrow, but everything has been going well," he told PA Sport yesterday. Oaks Coverage cont. p2-3

COMING TO CONQUER

Guessing the eventual line-up for tomorrow's G1 Vodafone Derby has been the main sport in the build-up to the 229th renewal of the Epsom Classic, but now that the 17 runners have been confirmed, the excitement can finally build. Thankfully, the Irish powerhouse combination of Moyglare Stud and Dermot Weld agreed to let Casual Conquest (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}) take his chance after some wavering, and the unbeaten homebred is one of few in the race with impeccable credentials. His debut came over seven furlongs of Leopardstown's circuit in September and, when he reappeared there in the May 11 G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial, he showed he had made giant strides with a six-length defeat of Washington Irving (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}). He bids to become the third winner of that vital Irish prep to follow up here since 2000. "There is only one Epsom Derby, and it's great to be taking part in it with such a live shot," jockey Pat Smullen said of the horse who will break from the 'lucky' 10 stall, which has been responsible for five winners since 1989. "The horse is in great form and, if he jumps and travels in the first couple of furlongs, we'll hopefully have no problems. You have to respect every horse, as it's a wide-open race and I'd be very foolish to write off anything." Epsom Derby Coverage cont. p4-6

PRADO GOES FOR A CASINO DRIVE

Edgar Prado was aboard his G1 Belmont S. contender Casino Drive (Mineshaft) for the first time yesterday. The pair went three furlongs over the muddy/sealed track in :42 2/5; a half in :55 3/4 and galloped out five furlongs in 1:08. After the move, connections proclaimed the colt ready for Saturday's 1 1/2-mile contest. "Because of how the track was today, we went slow," said Nobutaka Tada, spokesperson for owner Hidetoshi Yamamoto and trainer Kazuo Fujisawa. "But he is fit enough. He has been doing what we wanted and we only have to keep him happy now." Casino Drive's unusual preparation has attracted a fair share of attention. The Japanese-trained runner, along with two stablemates, walks for about an hour every morning before heading to the track for another hour of walking. The routine caused one trainer to comment, "At first, we thought they brought all of these horses over from Japan, but it turns out it was the same three going all around the place." Retired Hall of Fame jockey Jerry Bailey quipped, "The groom could leave the barn, go to a movie and get back before the horses." Cont. 6

Emerald Guile...

Alongside Lush Lashes, Lady O'Reilly's Chinese White (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}) and a clutch of Ballydoyle contenders, His Highness the Aga Khan's Katiyra (Ire) (Peintre Celebre) completes an Irish stranglehold on the Oaks this year. Smooth in success on debut at Leopardstown in August, the John Oxx-trained homebred met with a series of setbacks before her return in the G3 Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial back at that track May 11. In the event, her runner-up finish to Carribean Sunset (Ire) was made to look particularly creditable when that rival went on to finish third in last Sunday's G1 Irish 1000 Guineas. "Everything has gone well since her last run at Leopardstown and John could not be happier with her," the owner/breeder's Racing Manager Pat Downes told PA Sport. "She didn't break well that day, so she was never in the right position, but we were pleased to see her finish her race off so well. She is a very straightforward filly, and her dam won over a mile and six furlongs, so she should stay this trip. Her inexperience is the main worry, but she is certainly a very nice filly and we are looking forward to it."

Cape Steer...

Peter Chapple-Hyam, who tasted another famous success on the Downs with Authorized (Ire) in the main feature 12 months ago, saddles a leading chance from the home brigade in Cape Amber. Five Horses Ltd's homebred won on debut at Newmarket in August and despite her distance from Lush Lashes in the Musidora, she was ridden with patience that day on her belated return. "I'm really pleased with her," her trainer said. "She took a long time to come together--she had coughed and given a dirty scope, but is improving every day and I couldn't be happier. Lush Lashes will be very hard to beat, but I used that as a trial and she wasn't 100 percent. She will improve a lot, but whether it's enough to beat her, I don't know. She needs to get her toe in and the more rain the better--it is a good race, but I think we'll be in the first three."

Worth a Closer Look...

This Classic can throw up a surprise occasionally and despite nothing matching Jet Ski Lady's inflated odds, Shahtoush (Ire) was 12-1 in 1998 and Casual Look was 10-1 five years later. This renewal sees some lively outsiders in the mix, headed by Julian Richmond-Watson's Look Here (GB) (Hernando {Fr}), who put tomorrow's G1 Epsom Derby hopeful Doctor Fremantle (GB) firmly in his place when opening her account at first asking at Salisbury in October. She was doing her best work at the finish when 3/4-of-a-length second to Miracle Seeker (GB) (Rainbow Quest) in the May 10 Listed Lingfield Oaks Trial, and conditioner Ralph Beckett is hopeful she can outrun her odds. "Things did not fall right for her at Lingfield and I would be hopeful she could beat the winner on this softer ground," he told PA Sport. "It was good to soft when she won her maiden, and the form of that race obviously looks strong. I don't think there were any excuses for Doctor Fremantle. I have trained two of her relatives and they both wanted some cut in the ground. The other thing is she is guaranteed to stay the trip, which can't be said of a few of the Oaks runners. She is in great form and I'm very hopeful she will be in the shake-up." Another who could make an impact is Mike Caddy's Saphira's Fire (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}), who bids to follow the path trod by the great Ouija Board (GB) four years ago after winning the Listed Pretty Polly S. at Newmarket May 4.

Shadwell Seek Three-Peat...

Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's colors were carried to glory by Nashwan in 1989 and Erhaab five years later. This time, they will grace Tajaaweed (Dynaformer), one of a formidable trio from the Sir Michael Stoute stable successful four times in the blue riband. His one blip came when off the board in the G1 Racing Post Trophy at Doncaster in October, which is surprisingly also the case with fellow contenders Curtain Call (Fr) (Sadler's Wells), ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ River Proud (Proud Citizen), Frozen Fire (Ger) (Montjeu {Ire}) and King of Rome (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}). Like all those, Tajaaweed rebounded this term and showed a telling turn of acceleration from a poor position to win the G3 Dee S. at Chester May 9, a trial which Oath (Ire) and Kris Kin took en route to victory here in recent times. Jockey Richard Hills is hoping he can provide him with a belated first Derby win breaking from the five hole of Motivator (GB) fame three years ago. "He's a tall horse and there were some doubts as to how he would handle Chester, but he did it as well as any horse," Hills explained. "He travels well, which is a big plus at Epsom and, even if he's not handling the ups and downs and turns, if he's traveling that will give him every chance. He feels like he'll stay, as he relaxes and gives himself every opportunity to, and the thing I really like about him is he is really progressing quickly--he's really on an upward curve."

Call the Doctor...

Khalid Abdullah, who is looking for a third Derby success after Quest for Fame (GB) and Commander in Chief in 1990 and 1993, has supplemented the G3 Chester Vase scorer Doctor Fremantle (GB) (Sadler's Wells). He bids to become the first winner of that prep to double up here since the mighty Shergar (Ire) in 1981, but experience of Chester's circuit is never a negative entering this test. "He handled Chester very well and, while it does not necessarily follow that he will handle Epsom, it is a tight left-handed track and I think he should be able to handle the hustle and bustle of the Derby," the owner/breeder's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe commented. "We know he will stay--he is more than qualified on both sides of his pedigree--so we are going there very positive. Although he has raced mainly on good or good to firm, he is by Sadler's Wells and they tend to go well with cut in the ground, so he may even be better on that sort of going." Stoute's triumvirate is rounded out by ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Tartan Bearer (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}), a full brother to Golan (Ire) who failed to add to his G1 2000 Guineas success when only second behind Galileo (Ire) in 2001. The flashy chestnut stepped up off a Leicester maiden win Apr. 26 to beat Frozen Fire by a head in the G2 Dante S. May 15, and that chief trial has delivered no less than seven Derby winners since 1986. Tartan Bearer and Doctor Fremantle have drawn 13 and 14, respectively, the post positions of the 1988 and 1998 heroes Kahyasi (Ire) and High-Rise (Ire).

Ground Drying Fast...

There were no surprises yesterday, as the connections of Bronze Cannon (Lemon Drop Kid) opted to give the gig a miss with Royal Ascot's likely faster conditions in mind. Princess Haya of Jordan's New Approach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) will exit from stall three after being ponied to the start in customary fashion. Trainer Jim Bolger announced earlier this week that last year's champion juvenile and G1 English and Irish 2000 Guineas runner-up would not run if 'firm' was in the ground description, and that appeared a possibility yesterday as Clerk of the Course and Director of Racing Andrew Cooper brought up the issue of watering. "The ground is continuing to dry out, and I have changed the going description to good from good to soft," he explained. "It is lovely ground and we will see how it rides tomorrow. The forecast is for mainly dry weather between now and the Vodafone Derby on Saturday afternoon. Some light showers could fall overnight Friday into Saturday. The way the ground has dried this week, watering for Saturday may have to be considered. I am not anxious to water and would much prefer nature to do it for me--a couple of millimetres at any time would probably suffice."

THURSDAY'S BELMONT REPORT

Another rainy night on Long Island took its toll on the Belmont main oval Thursday, leaving a wet track behind for the second straight day.

West Point's Macho Again (Macho Uno) and Mr. and Mrs. William K. Warren's Denis of Cork (Harlan's Holiday), who arrived together from Louisville around 4 p.m. Wednesday, got their first taste of Big Sandy yesterday, which was listed as "muddy."

Macho Again enjoying his bath Thursday
Sherackatthetrack

The big gray, last seen finishing second behind Big Brown in the GI Preakness S., went out to the main track for some light exercise and returned to Barn 11 slightly after 7 a.m. for a quick bath. A group of approximately 20 gathered to get a closer look, including West Point's Executive Vice President of Midwest Operations Jeff Lifson. A very hands-on Dallas Stewart removed all four of Macho Again's wraps, then proceeded to hose off the Derby Trial S. hero. The Florida-bred was very playful at times, and Stewart had some fun with his charge, letting Macho Again chew on a towel as he attempted to dry him off.

Denis of Cork, stabled in stall 43 at the Phipps barn, began to get prepped for his day's work shortly after 8 a.m. Buzz Tenney, longtime assistant trainer to Shug McGaughey, caught up with trainer David Carroll and his son Declan as the elder Carroll strapped on his black flak jacket and riding boots. (Ed. note: Carroll was an exercise rider for McGaughey for six years and galloped 1989 GI Belmont S. Easy Goer as well as Seeking the Gold). Cont. p8

Meanwhile, as Carroll and Denis of Cork continued their preparation, a large group gathered in the paddock--which included Hall of Fame jockey Jerry Bailey--as the sun tried to sneak out at around 8:30 a.m. Casino Drive and GIII Hill Prince S. entrant Spark Candle (A.P. Indy) were the two stars of the show, walking at their usual fast pace, with the latter leading the way. Jockey Edgar Prado took over the reins from Casino Drive's regular morning pilot by the saddling area at 8:40 a.m. The quickly expanding group of now nearly 50 rushed toward the track tunnel as NYRA's John Lee warned the bunch that there is no running in the paddock. After seven additional minutes of walking beneath Prado, Casino Drive and his stablemate made their way to the track as the big crowd followed. Just as the Japanese duo exited, Denis of Cork entered the paddock seemingly unnoticed beneath Carroll, but clearly looking the part with his mane braided.

Casino Drive had the lead on his stablemate as the two galloped down the stretch, with the sound of their thundering hooves echoing through the grandstand over the messy track.

Denis of Cork spent around 10 minutes schooling in the paddock before heading out to the track. The blaze-faced colt made a left turn out of the tunnel on to the main oval and walked along the outer rail before turning in a strong gallop.

Big Brown (Boundary) took care of business very early yesterday, jogging around the main track at 5:30 a.m. Ian McKinlay is scheduled to apply an acrylic patch to his left front foot Friday afternoon. --S.S.

This is one of the strongest renewals in recent times, with the world's current third top-rated turf performer Getaway up against Ballydoyle's Soldier of Fortune and a strong back-up cast including Red Rocks and Youmzain. Getaway bids to extend Andre Fabre's fine record of six winners in this contest since Saint Estephe (Fr) opened his account in 1986. Since then, some of racing's most famous names in the Wings (GB), Swain (Ire) and Shirocco (Ger) have conquered for the master of Chantilly. Like the latter, Getaway carries the silks of Baron Georg von Ullmann and comes here off the back of a highly impressive success in the G2 Jockey Club S. at Newmarket May 4. Despite his penalty, he had a comfortable 3 3/4-length margin to spare over the top-class Sixties Icon (GB) in that contest, and has already improved off his fourth in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp in October. "Mr. Fabre is very pleased with him and his preparation has been good," the owner/breeder's Racing Manager Paul Harley told PA Sport. "He was very impressive at Newmarket. He's stronger this year; he appears to be getting better and the ground won't worry us. It's a competitive field and looks like a mini King George." Soldier of Fortune, who showed a relish for testing conditions when winning the G1 Irish Derby by nine lengths at The Curragh in July, demonstrated his versatility when returning in September to take Longchamp's G2 Prix Niel on fast ground. He was fifth in the Arc after being hampered late on and has sound claims of providing Aidan O'Brien with his third renewal after Yeats (Ire) and Scorpion (Ire) scored in 2005 and 2007. Red Rocks missed out in his tries at the top level last term, but was a respectable third in his attempt at winning back-to-back renewals of the G1 Breeders' Cup Turf at a rain-soaked Monmouth in October. Down the field in the G1 Hong Kong Vase at Sha Tin at the end of the year, he returned with a cozy score in a Lingfield conditions event May 10, and connections are hopeful he can return to the top. "He's drawn one and Aidan O'Brien looks to have a pacemaker in there," Paul Reddam's Racing Manager Jamie McCalmont told PA Sport. "It should be a good race with plenty of pace with that many runners, hopefully. Everything is positive about the horse right now." Youmzain warrants respect on his head second to Dylan Thomas (Ire) in the Arc, and was a close-up fifth in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic on his return at Nad Al Sheba Mar. 29.

Delosvientos, winner of half of his 10 starts, is two-for-two at this distance and is coming off a front-running 2 1/2-length victory over track and trip in the May 15 Fit to Fight S. Phipps homebred Sightseeing is looking for his first win since taking last year's GII Peter Pan H. Third in the GII Dwyer S. and GII Jim Dandy and fourth in the GI Travers S. last year, the dark bay colt was fifth in this race last year when it was run at nine furlongs in September. He is making his third start of the year off a third-place effort in the Apr. 30 GIII Westchester H. Veteran runner Evening Attire closed to be second in the Fit to Fight. The 10-year-old gray gelding has career earnings over $2.7 million, but has only one win in 18 starts over this track.

The Bart Cummings-trained Moatize, still a maiden, is following the footsteps of the conditioner's 2007 Qld Derby winner Empire's Choice (Aus); both were runner-up in the G3 Packer Plate at Randwick before finishing in the frame in the Rough Habit Plate. In that race, at Doomben on May 24, Moatize joined the fray at the 200-meters only to have Mission Critical deny him my a nose. Moatize has been runner-up in four of five career outings, and Cummings says the gelding is on track to graduate in style here. He is A$3.10 ante-post favourite to turn the tables on Mission Critical. That Mike Moroney-trained colt, rated a A$4.20 chance, will be suited by a likely dead surface following torrential rain in Queensland this week.

The marketing campaign for Casino Prince, who will stand his debut season at newly established Patinack Farm in the Hunter Valley, has begun in earnest, but the Anthony Cummings-trainee has one more target and has been kept fresh for this assignment. His last outing was when third to Racing to Win (Aus) in the G1 All-Aged S. at Randwick May 3. The winner of the G1 Chipping Norton S. on Mar. 22 at Randwick is A$4.50 favorite ahead of Vormista, who is expected to improve after finishing off the board in the Doomben 10,000 May 24. The Gold Coast-trained Omnitrader will retire after the Stradbroke; it will be the 10-year-old's 119th career start.

Q & A WITH THE BREEDERS' CUP BOARD CANDIDATES

Why do you want to serve on the Breeders' Cup Board?

BOB CROMARTIE

The Board is charged with the responsibility of governing the Breeders' Cup. Its Board members and directors each contribute different views with a collective theme of responsibility to our membership/ stakeholders. I see the potential for the Breeders' Cup to unify our sport on a grand level. Over the past three years, we have seen some very positive changes toward making Thoroughbred racing a more accessible sport for television viewers as well as the participants within the sport.

Internal changes have also created a more efficient and productive

Board. The smaller Board of Directors guided by the larger Board of Trustees has proved to be a more efficient in strategic management of the Breeders' Cup. Since individual directors and trustees lend a perspective drawn from personal experience, the revised structure allows for many viewpoints which represent the varied constituency that make the Breeders' Cup the great institution that it is, and the greater institution that it promises to become.

My history as an equine professional has given me an understanding of the effects that the Board's decisions have on a large segment of our breeding community. As a small farm owner and breeder, and as a hands-on manager of racing partnerships and stallion syndications, I am able to keep the pulse of a very important segment of the population of the Breeders' Cup supporters. In the management of stallions, I see the contributions made to the development of the Breeders' Cup by small breeders from regional markets. Recognizing that every single contribution is important to the success of the overall program, I have felt very honored to be a representative of a segment of our industry that contributes to the Breeders' Cup, and I take seriously the responsibilities entrusted to me. Over the last three years, the Breeders' Cup has made strides of progress. I want to be re-elected to another term on the Board so that I can continue to work at improving a sport that I am not only passionate about, but one that supports an industry which has been the basis of my professional career for over 35 years.

ALLAN G. LAVIN, JR.

I am 46 years old, a fourth generation horseman, from Goshen, Kentucky, and the General Manager of Longfield Farm and Lavin Bloodstock Services.

In my opinion, our landscape is far too similar to that of years gone by. We are still talking about too many of the same things, year after year, and the list is getting longer not shorter.

Imagine, if you will, that our industry is in a horse race at the classic American distance of 1 ¼ miles, and Tom Durkin bellows "they have gone three quarters in 1:19, oh my." As an industry, we don't act at all like Thoroughbreds. If we don't pick up the pace, our chart will read, in the distinctive verbiage of the Daily Racing Form Charts: "Racing, gave way" and then, "came up empty" while "no factor" and, "lacked the needed response." I can't give you all of the answers. I didn't lobby to be on the ballot. However, I am honored to be a nominee, and I will be happy to serve. If elected, I will help try to move things in the right direction and at a better pace than our current one, so that perhaps we may, "finish willingly to be up in time" or better yet, "draw clear under steady urging."

BILL OPPENHEIM

The Breeders' Cup was created 25 years ago because breeders recognized that prize money in American racing needed shoring up; owners were losing too much money. That situation hasn't markedly changed. It is masked in some states by on-track slot-machine money, but longer-term solutions to prize-money and field size issues must still be on the agenda.

Our industry is also faced with serious horse-welfare issues. It is imperative that these be addressed by all national bodies with any power to make changes. The Breeders' Cup needs to be supporting research into determining whether synthetic surfaces really do produce fewer racetrack fatalities than dirt; if the science proves they do, the Breeders' Cup Board should consider whether to mandate holding Breeders' Cup days only at tracks which race on these surfaces.

Moreover, the main two-day event itself faces increasing competition from Asia. Hong Kong runs a series of races in early December with equal if not better prize money, and allows international owners and trainers to compete in a 'drug-free' environment as far as raceday medication is concerned.

Increasingly our so-called "World Championships" look to the rest of the world like baseball's World Series--irrelevant to almost everybody outside North America. Banning raceday medication on the Breeders' Cup days would be a signal both to welfare activists and the international racing community that the industry is serious about trying to fix our problems.

I'm surprised and honored to be considered for this position, and can promise I would be an activist--and analytical--board member, representing industry workers and professionals, who need to have a greater voice at the industry's policy-making 'top tables.'

BARRY WEISBORD

It is a common source of frustration among racing industry members that all too frequently, the most nobly conceived, well-thought-out initiatives are waylaid by our sport's fractionalization. State regulations, disputes between tracks and horsemen, and the lack of a national organization with the authority to affect universal change for the sport are just some of the roadblocks we face. What a refreshing change, then, the Breeders' Cup represents. As a breeder and owner for over 30 years, I am incredibly proud that we breeders have funded the greatest weekend of racing in the world. Through the nature of our funding, we haven't given the event a longevity and created an organization that can be a great catalyst for positive change in the industry. More so than any other group in racing, breeders can act in lockstep to effectuate that change. I would like to serve on the Breeders' Cup board to apply my three decades of experience in industry marketing and innovation to help ensure that the $20-million investment the breeders pour into the program every year delivers the greatest possible payoff to them and to the industry as a whole.

 NORTH AMERICA

EL GATO MALO INJURED El Gato Malo (El Corredor) has suffered an undisclosed injury and will be out of action until the fall. Trainer Craig Dollase told

Horsephotos

Daily Racing Form the gelding was suffering from "wear and tear" and added, "We'll just give him some time. It's minor, what it is." El Gato Malo has won four of six starts, including a victory in the Gill San Rafael S. He was knocked off the Triple Crown trail by a fifth-place effort in the GI Santa Anita Derby, but rebounded with a half-length triumph in the May 10 Gill Lone Star Derby last time out.

FASY TO REPLACE GREEN ON NTRA BOARD

During its quarterly Board of Directors meeting at Belmont Park yesterday, the National Thoroughbred Racing Association announced that William Fasy will fill the Eastern Region Independent Board seat. The seat was previously occupied by Robert Green, whose term has expired. Fasy is chairman, president and chief executive officer of Delaware Park.

SUFFOLK FLOATS MASSCAP BONUS SCHEME

Suffolk Downs will increase the purse of this year's Massachusetts H. to $5 million if both Big Brown and Curlin remain unbeaten in 2008 and both go postward in the Sept. 20 event. The $5 million would include a $1-million participation bonus for each. The nine-furlong race, currently worth $500,000, is one of five races in the Breeders' Cup Challenge "Win and You're In" Classic Division. The additional purse money would be funded by Coastal Development, LLC, a company controlled by Richard T. Fields, the largest shareholder of Suffolk Downs in East Boston, Massachusetts.

Rewrite was second in a fall renewal of this race Sept. 29 and closed a successful year by taking the Oct. 20 Ticonderoga H. on this turf course and Aqueduct's Gaily Gaily S. against open company Nov. 18. In one appearance this season, the chestnut was a decent third in this track's Mount Vernon H. May 18. Allowed to lope along on the outside, Rewrite responded to a vigorous ride from Garrett Gomez and swept by all her rivals to her fifth career stakes success. The winner is out of a half-sister to GI Breeders' Cup Classic hero Volponi. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Third in the nine-furlong GIII Knickerbocker H. at Aqueduct Oct. 28, Operation Red Dawn faltered in the Nov. 10 Gil Red Smith H. over 11 panels, but returned to a more comfortable distance and missed by a nose in a one-mile allowance at Gulfstream Jan. 12. Given 3 1/2 months off following that effort, the veteran resurfaced to be runner-up in Aqueduct's GIII Fort Marcy H. Apr. 27 and was a warm item in this softer spot. Slightly worse than centerfield for the opening 3/4 of a mile, Operation Red Dawn came through on the inside and edged away late. Duveen (Horse Chestnut {SAf}) was fifth as the 7-5 chalk.

Solis Cousin Joins California Riding Colony:

Michael Martinez, a cousin of jockey Alex Solis, arrived in the U.S. from Panama Thursday and will begin riding in Southern California. The 21-year-old has won 40 races at Panama City's Hipodromo since December. "When he was 15, he told me he wanted to be a jockey," said Solis, who emigrated to the U.S. when he was 16. "I told him, 'No, go to school.' He followed my advice, but after that attended the Jockey School for two years. I told him to watch the races in California and watch the good riders in America. He's got very natural talent and is very good at switching whips. He's very advanced for the short time he's been riding. He was born in Panama City, but grew up in the country. My uncle is a farmer. Michael is very humble and learns quickly."

NYRA Announces Sponsorship Partnerships:

The New York Racing Association announced a trio of sponsorship partnerships yesterday. NYRA and UPS have entered into an agreement for the Belmont Park Spring Meeting, including the 2008 Belmont S. The deal is being made in association with ABC Regional Sports Sales. Every race for the remainder of the current Belmont meet will be stamped with the UPS logo and the starting gate and stretch drive will include UPS signage. In another deal made in association with ABC Regional Sports Sales, NYRA and glaceau vitaminwater have reached a partnership agreement which includes naming rights to the GI Acorn S. In yet another partnership, Woodford Reserve has become the official bourbon of the Belmont S. and of Belmont Park. With the partnership, Woodford Reserve becomes the presenting sponsor of Saturday's GI Woodford Reserve Manhattan H. The company has created 5,000 souvenir glasses that will be sold with a featured Belmont S. drink, "Big Brown Chases the Triple Crown." For every glass sold, Woodford Reserve, in association with IEAH, will donate $3 to Anna's House, a day care center on Belmont Park property.

PURSUIT OF LOVE EUTHANIZED

Pursuit of Love (GB) (Groom Dancer--Dance Quest {Fr}, by Green Dancer) has been euthanized after fracturing a fetlock at Throckmorton Court Stud, Racing Post reported yesterday. The sire of the 1998 G1 Yorkshire Oaks winner Catchascatchcan (GB)--who later produced Antonius Pius--the 19-year-old had stood at Peter Balding's Worcestershire base since 2005. Among his other progeny included the 1996 G1 Dewhurst S. runner-up Musical Pursuit (GB). Pursuit of Love is also the broodmare sire of dual Guineas winner Attraction (GB). Bred at Plantation Stud and owned by Lord Howard de Walden, he was third in the G1 2000 Guineas in 1992 before going on to take that year's G2 Prix Maurice de Gheest and G3 Park S. for the Henry Cecil stable. From 13 crops of 429 named foals, Pursuit of Love sired 14 stakes winners, and had career progeny earnings of $9,246,551.

This race sees a low-key return for last year's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe third Sagara, whom Godolphin subsequently purchased from the Niarchos Family. Still without a stakes success despite his high-profile placings in Longchamp's fall feature and G1 Grand Prix de Paris, he should be able to put that right here. "Sagara was third in the Arc last year, and this trip will suit him, but it will be his first start of the season and he will need the race," trainer Saeed bin Suroor said. Dragon Dancer, who has yet to recapture the form of his short-head second to Sir Percy (GB) in the 2006 G1 Epsom Derby, needs to improve off his unplaced effort in the G2 Jockey Club S. at Newmarket May 4.

ROYAL ACADEMY MARE TOPS MM NATIONAL

A lightly raced mare by Royal Academy topped the fourth session of the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale on the Gold Coast yesterday. Selling as Lot 1520, Cat Royale (Aus) was knocked down to Magic Millions, acting as agent for a Korean client, for A$38,000. Vinery Stud, agent, consigned Cat Royale, who sold in foal to Vinery's Success Express stallion Mossman (Aus). Cat Royale was produced by the Secretariat mare Sakiyah, who was stakes-placed in the U.S. and herself a daughter of Grade I winner Scoot (Mr. Prospector). Value-hunting buyers were out in numbers looking to buy bargain mares after the recently completed record-breaking select component to the National Broodmare Sale. In all, 155 lots changed hands yesterday for a session aggregate of A$637,100 and average price of A$4,110. The clearance rate was a healthy 82.5 percent. Magic Millions Managing Director David Chester said he was pleased with the amount of interest from international buyers this afternoon. "Our Korean buying bench was very active, and we're expecting the same for horses that suit their criteria tomorrow," Chester reported. "And the smart local buyers are here, as well as some well known interstate agents such as Michael Flannery and Darrell Ible and locally based John Foote. The value is outstanding and there will be plenty more to be had tomorrow." The finale of the broodmare portion of the National Sale gets underway at 11:00 a.m. The three-session yearling portion runs next Tuesday through Thursday. For more information, visit www.magicmillions.com.au.

AWBS SALE BOOSTED BY UNRESERVED RIS-

DON DISPERSAL This month's William Inglis Australian Weanling and Breeding Stock Sale will now feature a dispersal of more than 30 mares from Sue Suduk's Risdon broodmare band. The mares will be offered for unreserved sale on Sunday June 29, and will be lotted as a separate supplementary catalogue. "This is one of the best private bands of mares in Australia," consignor Philippa Duncan said. Highlights include Group 1 winner and Group 1 producer Shindig (Aus), who is in foal to leading first-season stallion Exceed and Excel (Aus), and her stakes-placed daughter Fiammarosa (Aus), in foal to Fusaichi Pegasus. The group also boasts a number of mares descending from the blue-hen Eight Carat (GB). These include the multiple group-winning sprinter Peruzzi (Aus), who is in foal to Fusaichi Pegasus, and her two daughters by Danehill, triple Group 1-placed Flora Danica (Aus) and Nivison S. winner Lucida (Aus). "The Eight Carat family is known the world over and ranks as arguably the greatest family in the Southern Hemisphere.

This represents a rare opportunity to tap into it," Duncan said. The AWBS sale now features a pair of dispersals, following the earlier announcement of Tyreel's reduction, which will be held immediately prior to the Risdon mares. The Australian Weanling and Breeding Stock Sale will be held at Newmarket in Sydney on June 26, 27 and 29.
