DA' TARA UPSETS, BIG BROWN EASED

They showed up en masse at Belmont Park Saturday afternoon to see what was supposed to be a "foregone conclusion," to witness history 30 years in the making. The end result was something vastly different. IEAH Stable and Paul Pompa Jr.'s Big Brown (Boundary) was eased out of the race at the quarter pole and the unheralded Da' Tara (Tiznow) pulled a stunning upset at odds of 38-1. Cont. p2

THE FIRM APPROACH

After all the press attention of the past few weeks, New Approach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) put a firm full stop to the fuss yesterday with a half-length defeat of Tartan Bearer (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}) in a rousing finale to the G1 Epsom Derby. While the handsome chestnut's participation rested on a well-documented error at an earlier forfeit stage, his presence added serious weight to the 229th renewal and he ultimately rewarded backers at a healthy 5-1. "It is very special," admitted winning trainer Jim Bolger. "I thought before that to win this race would be up there with the best successes of my career, but I'd very willingly say now it is the best." Epsom Derby cont. p4

ZARKAVA A WARM ITEM IN FRENCH OAKS

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Zarkava steps out with her unbeaten record in jeopardy, but His Highness the Aga Khan's stellar performer holds all the aces on the evidence so far and looks to complete the G1 French 1000 Guineas/Oaks double this afternoon at Chantilly. "The form of her Guineas win is working out, with Modern Look winning last weekend, and the only question is going to be the distance," the owner/breeder's Racing Manager Georges Rimaud told PA Sport. "She has never been over 10 furlongs before, but we feel it should not be a big issue, although there are other good fillies in there." French Oaks cont. p13

It's about time!

Offlee Wild clocked a faster Suburban (2:00.40) than Invasor (2:01.23), Mineshaft (2:01.57), Skip Away (2:02.39), Kelso (2:01.80), and Buckpasser (2:02.20).

Da' Tara Da One...

Da' Tara and stable companion Anak Nakal (Victory Gallop) were part of an entry sent off at odds of 17-1 in a seven-furlong Belmont maiden Sept. 28 and both juveniles gave very good accounts of themselves, with Anak Nakal overcoming a bit of trouble to defeat Da' Tara by a length. While the Four Roses runner has seen nothing but graded-stakes company since, the Robert LaPenta colorbearer had been a little slower to come around. Fourth in a two-turn maiden at Calder Dec. 8, the dark bay colt displayed much sharper early speed and took a nine-furlong event in the Gulfstream slop Jan. 5. Third in a one-mile allowance Feb. 22, Da' Tara had his first run-in with Big Brown in the GI Florida Derby Mar. 29, and the results were largely forgettable, as he finished some 23 1/2 lengths adrift of the subsequent dual Classic winner. Instead of dropping back to allowance company, trainer Nick Zito pressed on with the colt and sent him to Churchill Downs for the Apr. 26 Derby Trial S. and he turned in an improved effort in the 7 1/2-furlong affair, checking in five lengths behind Macho Again (Macho Uno) in fifth. Stretched back out to two turns for his latest, he continued his progressive form, disputing the pace before yielding grudgingly to finish runner-up in the Barbaro S. on the Preakness undercard May 17. That same race--then the Sir Barton S.--was used by Sarava as a springboard to his 70-1 upset of War Emblem in the 2002 Belmont. Could lightning strike twice? Cont. p3

Casino Drive Never Gets His Chance..

Hidetoshi Yamamoto's Casino Drive (Mineshaft), looking to become the third consecutive Belmont winner to be produced by Better Than Honour (Deputy Minister), missed out on the opportunity when he was scratched early Saturday due to a foot injury first discovered on Friday.

Casino Drive S K Andrew

“[Saturday] morning, he was feeling well, so we took him to the track for a canter,” said Nobutaka Tada, spokesperson for the owner and trainer Kazuo Fujisawa. “He came back well to the stable, but later he started favoring his left-hind again. It’s not serious, just a small stone bruise, and he will be fine.” Indeed, television footage from back at the barn showed the chestnut colt clearly favoring and bearing no weight on his left hind. Added Tada, “We have had so many people cheering for us, helping us, supporting us for coming here to run in the Belmont. It is unfortunate that those people will not be able to see him run. It is a real pity.” Tada told Daily Racing Form that a return to the U.S. for the GII Peter Pan S. hero was “likely,” mentioning the GI Breeders' Cup Classic as a logical target. Quarantine issues would preclude a start in the GI Travers S. in late August, Tada told DRF.

The Anatomy of an Upset...

As the field of nine departed the starting gate, Da' Tara was sent for the early lead, a strategy telegraphed earlier in the week by trainer Nick Zito, who derailed the Triple Crown dreams of Smarty Jones in 2004 with Birdstone. Meanwhile, Big Brown, drawn inside, broke outward a touch and jockey Kent Desormeaux tried to ease his mount to the outside, but was stymied and hemmed in at that point by GI Wood Memorial winner Tale of Ekati (Tale of the Cat). Now rank and difficult to control, Big Brown was steadied off Da' Tara's heels, but was ultimately able to secure a three-path run around the clubhouse turn, despite bumping with Anak Nakal. Da' Tara led the field through a half-mile in a solid :48.30, and Desormeaux had the Derby and Preakness winner in what appeared to be excellent striking position from third. The field reached the end of the backstretch after a mile in 1:37.96, with the upset-minded longest shot on the board still comfortably in front, but it was clear that Big Brown was in deep water. Ridden along entering the far turn, Desormeaux got little response from the 3-10 chalk, and the colt began to plummet through the field. Denis of Cork (Harlan's Holiday), the GI Kentucky Derby third-place finisher and 7-1 second wagering choice, emerged from the pack as the lone possible challenger, but Da' Tara had the race sewn up by then and strode home clearly the best. "That's the game," Zito summed up. "You keep trying. I have a tremendous staff and tremendous people that help me all day. I can't do it myself. That's the way the business is. I've been on the losing end. The champ, Big Brown, didn't run his race today. He wasn't himself. Da'Tara was himself." LaPenta Wins the War...

Nothing ever goes as planned--it's a helluva notion. Were things they way they were supposed to be, Robert LaPenta's reigning two-year-old champ War Pass might have been the one carrying his maroon and gold colors yesterday. But an injury sustained in the Wood Memorial S. snuffed out his Triple Crown participation, and it was left to Da' Tara to fly the flag in the Belmont. "We wish we were here with War Pass today, but Da'Tara said he would do it for him and he did it very well," a beaming LaPenta offered. "Nick called a week ago and said, 'Are we crazy?' And we said, 'Look, we're always crazy,' and we did it. Nick just did a phenomenal job here, really great job."

A perspiration-soaked trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. made a beeline for the barn immediately following the race, but issued a statement through the NYRA press office. "Since I don't see anything, I am going to scope him," he said. "I don't know what else to do to see if anything else is wrong. The horse kind of looks like he is fine to me. So, the only thing I know to do is to wait and see how things go. I watched him cool out, and he doesn't seem to be off in any kind of way. I don't see a problem, and I am looking for one. Right now, I don't see him being off; he may be off tomorrow. I am resorting to scoping him, and he didn't even cough. If there was something obviously wrong, I wouldn't bother scoping him. Right now, I can say, it looks like he'll live a good life if he never races again. He didn't get the Triple Crown, but we got the Derby and the Preakness and that was great. If we're sure he is 100 percent getting back into training, we'll go forward with him. If not, I'm sure we'll just do the next thing, which is to retire him." Added Kent Desormeaux, "I think I'm numb, really. A little lost. Just feeling no emotion whatsoever--blank. But whatever it was, the end result is, I can't fathom what kind of freaks those 11 Triple Crown winners were. It's unfathomable to me. I mean, because I won the Derby with some pressure. I won the Preakness in an armchair ride. And for whatever reason, he wasn't resilient enough today."

Hyperbole has surrounded New Approach since he set off on the same path as Teofilo (Ire) and intensified after his dismissal of Curtain Call (Sadler's Wells) and Henrythenavigator in the G2 Futurity S. at the Curragh in August. Likened to Secretariat by his trainer at that time, he earned championship honors with victories in the G1 National S. back at that Kildare venue the following month and Newmarket's G1 Dewhurst S. in October. Bolger originally announced that the chestnut would skip this contest.

However, after the colt sustained two losses to Henrythenavigator--by a nose in the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket and 1 3/4 lengths in the May 24 Curragh equivalent--the Coolcullen conditioner determined that New Approach had bounced out well and would appreciate this distance. He was ponied to the start, only to pull hard throughout the first furlongs when the race was underway. Anchored in rear with only a quartet including the eventual runner-up behind as the climb to the top of the hill began, the Goffs graduate was traveling strongly when the field reached the bottom. Buried in the pack as Moore delivered his rally wide in early straight, he was angled to the rail and inhaled that rival approaching the eighth pole as the duo drew away from Casual Conquest. "He's got a serious engine and has been crying out for this trip," his rider commented. "He just took a bit of a tug early and I ended up getting back further than I would have liked and then ran downhill onto the heels of horses. He was hanging in on the camber and there was plenty of room on the inside, so I let him keep his momentum and roll down onto the fence. He's very classy and pacey, but gets that mile and a half well--there has been so much hype with this horse and it's just great to get the job done." Bolger was quick to pay tribute to the ride. "Kevin really starred there and that was the best ride I've ever seen around Epsom," he added. "He kept his cool and didn't panic, as he had a huge job trying to manage and steer him so this is one we owe to him." Bolger continued, "He's very different to any horse I've had before, but we're very fortunate that he's a hardy horse with a good constitution who takes his racing well." Bolger has always had the June 29 G1 Irish Derby in mind and that Curragh Classic is where New Approach will head next, but after that there are no firm plans. "I will have to talk to Sheikh Mohammed and John Ferguson about it, but he could possibly go to York [for the Aug. 19 G1 Juddmonte International] or run in the G1 Irish Champion S. [at Leopardstown Sept. 6] and I'll have to look at the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. [at Ascot July 26] as well, before finishing the season in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe [at Longchamp Oct. 5]. After that, he will be handed over to Godolphin."

It may seem like it's taken forever, but Dancing Forever is enjoying his best season this year at five. The Phipps homebred cleared his first-level allowance condition last May at Churchill and, six starts later, broke through in winning the Our Dear Peg S. in his black-type bow Dec. 26 at Calder. Second by a neck to the redoubtable Einstein in the GI Gulfstream Park BC Turf H. Feb. 23, the chestnut surged up the inside at Keeneland to claim the GII Elkhorn S. Apr. 25. Breaking from post 10 here, Dancing Forever was angled over to save ground while conserving his energy in 10th as Shake the Bank (Sandpit {Brz}) did his job for stablemate Better Talk Now (Talkin Man) up front. The five-year-old advanced along the inside before angling out turning for home. He moved back to the fence and came flying to edge favored Out of Control by a flared nostril. "He's one of those horses that just came around," explained winning trainer Shug McGaughey. "He's a great big horse. Everything is getting better for him--I thought he would have a big chance. When he ran second to Einstein at Gulfstream at equal weights at 37-1, that showed me something." The Hall of Famer added, "He'll either go in the [GI] Man o'War [July 12 at Belmont] or the [GI] Sword Dancer [Aug. 16 at Saratoga]." Dancing Forever is the first foal from Dancinginmydreams, who broke down when making a winning move in the 2000 GI Frizette S.

Ventura began her career in Europe under the tutelage of trainer Amanda Perrett, winning three times from eight trips to the post, including the Listed Hyde S. over the Kempton Polytrack Nov. 28. Repatriated for her four-year-old season, Khalid Abdullah's homebred could hardly have been more impressive in her U.S. bow, taking a Mar. 6 allowance on the Santa Anita downhill turf course by two handy lengths. Returned to a synthetic track for her next start, the dark bay stormed from the back of the pack to take the seven-furlong GII Vinery Madison S. at Keeneland Apr. 9, but reportedly struggled with a "good" Churchill turf when third to Bayou's Lassie (Outflanker) in the GIII Distaff Turf Mile S. May 3. Rank in the early going, Ventura sat in third as her Churchill conqueror set a good pace. Following the leader into the stretch, she was switched down towards the rail, took command at the eighth pole and held off a late bid from favored Lady of Venice. "I thought the one-turn mile would help her," offered trainer Bobby Frankel, who sent out Juddmonte's Intercontinental (GB) to win this in 2004. "I think the way the course was soft the last time, they stayed in the same spot all the way around. Next? Maybe the [GII] Cash Call [Mile, Hollywood Park, July 5]."

Artiste Royal made just three starts last year, but one of those outings produced a victory in the GI Clement L. Hirsch S. going 10 panels at Oak Tree Oct. 6. The bay then trekked to the Far East for the Nov. 25 G1 Japan Cup, where he finished a troubled eighth. Rested after the long journey, he made his return in the Mar. 1 GI F.E. Kilroe Mile H. at Santa Anita, running a solid second. The Irish-bred followed up with a fourth in Apr. 5 GII Arcadia H. and a third in the May 3 GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic at Churchill. He was stretching out to a mile and a quarter off that nine-furlong test. Rated off the pace as Lava Man opened up a lead that grew to seven lengths after six furlongs in 1:11.75, Artiste Royal saved ground while edging closer around the turn. He angled outside when they straightened for home, drove to the front inside the final furlong and fought on gamely between horses to come out on top in a blanket finish. "My horse was just grinding and moving forward and it didn't look like anyone was coming flying," jockey David Flores said. "That made it just perfect for us. He's one of those horses who's been unlucky, but eventually it pays off." Click for the brisnet.com chart, the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. A green fifth on debut in a six-furlong Aqueduct maiden Oct. 28, the day after Indian Blessing's championship-clinching victory in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, Zaftig was rested and put it all together in her return to action at Gulfstream Feb. 23, drawing off to win by 8 3/4 lengths and earning "TDN Rising Star" status. She was at her enigmatic best in her next appearance, finishing fourth of five as the favorite in the Apr. 12 GII Comely S. at the Big A, but atoned for that effort with a rousing 5 1/4-length victory in this track's GIII Nassau County Breeders' Cup S. May 3. Shedding the blinkers and racing for the first time since suffering her first career loss at the hands of Proud Spell in the GII Fair Grounds Oaks Mar. 8, Indian Blessing easily made the front and was coasting along through an opening quarter in :22.85 and a half in a comfortable :45.34, though Zaftig was a gray shadow throughout. The Baffert runner still held the call when they raced into the stretch, but Zaftig ranged up at the 3/16ths pole, went by soon after and was ridden out to an impressive victory. "Every time the filly tried to sprint away from her, we were right on her again," commented trainer Jimmy Jerkens. "She set fractions, but we weren't far behind. I thought it might be telling on us, too. I think she can go farther. There are a lot of great races for three-year-old fillies out there." Making his first appearance since defeating an international field in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen S. at Nad al Sheba Mar. 29, IEAH Stables' Benny the Bull looked to have too much to do entering the final furlong, but dug in under a vigorous ride from jockey Edgar Prado and was up in the final jump to best a hard-luck Man of Danger. Acquired by Mike Iavarone's team following a win in the Iowa Sprint H. just under a year ago, the dark bay was fourth in the GII A.G. Vanderbilt H. July 28 before finishing runner-up to Midnight Lute in the GI Forego S. at Saratoga Sept. 1. Fourth to the subsequent champion in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint Oct. 27, the Florida-bred closed the year with a win of his own at the top level, taking the DeFrancis Dash Nov. 24. He was victorious in the Jan. 26 Sunshine Millions Sprint ahead of his Middle Eastern engagement and was the heavy chalk on his return. Settled in centerfield as Man of Danger cut out the early fractions, Benny the Bull was switched wide for his challenge, but still had four lengths to find at the furlong marker. But, displaying championship grit and determination, he stuck on gamely and was able to get up for his fourth straight win. "I was more concerned with him at the eighth pole, that he wouldn't win," said winning trainer Richard Dutrow Jr. "We let him run his own race, and he got up there just in time."

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ J Be K set a track record at Saratoga in his lone start at two, winning that Aug. 29 test by 7 1/2 lengths. He opened 2008 with an easy score in a Fair Grounds allowance Feb. 15, but hit the brakes when trying a route in the Mar. 8 GII Louisiana Derby and finished eighth. The dark bay rebounded to take the Apr. 5 GIII Bay Shore S. at seven furlongs, but found the mile of the GIII Withers S. just a bit too far and ended up second behind Harlem Rocker. Back to sprinting as the crowd's choice, J Be K had company through the opening half in :44.89, but strode away from the field down the lane for a handy success. "He is a phenomenal sprinter and showed it here," owner Ahmed Zayat said. "If he continues to stay healthy, he'll be back in Saratoga for the [GI] King's Bishop [Aug. 23]."

A maiden winner in five starts in the Midwest last season for Jim Brookfield, Misty Ocean didn't make much noise in her first two starts for this outfit, finishing sixth and third in allowance races at Bay Meadows Mar. 23 and Apr. 13, respectively. She has since woken up with a switch to the turf, taking a May 2 optional tagger by 3 1/2 lengths in San Mateo followed by a 5 1/2-length score in this track's Golden Poppy S. May 18. Misty Ocean pulled Joel Rosario to the front and set a reasonable pace, but was headed and passed in the stretch by Sweeter Still. But, under left-handed urging from her young rider, the bay dug in and was home first for her third consecutive victory.

True Metropolitan has been a model of consistency over the last two seasons, and boasts a pair of Sovereign Awards as Canada's champion older horse to prove it. First or second in 10 of 12 starts in 2006, the dark bay gelding captured seven of his 10 attempts last year, capping the campaign with a half-length tally in the Nov. 17 GIII Autumn S. at Woodbine. The Florida-bred opened 2008 in the George Royal S. at Hastings, setting a new track record of 1:09 4/5 for six furlongs. He carried his championship form to Woodbine and made it two-for-two this term. True Metropolitan broke on top and was never headed, holding slight choice Sterwins at bay in the final yards. "The horse showed some true grit," said winning jockey Jim McAleney. "We had some moderate splits all the way around and that gave us the advantage. He was really eager and keen today. My hat's off to him." Added trainer Terry Jordan, "He seems better this year than last year. He's a very versatile horse. He'll run on any surface, goes to the front or comes from behind." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs.

East Coast invader Rebellion posted his second graded win on sythetic tracks with this off-the-pace score. Runner-up in the GIII Phoenix S. at Keeneland last Oct. 6, the bay was eighth in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile before earning a break. In his lone trip to the post this term, the bay rallied from eighth to take down the GII Commonwealth S. in Lexington Apr. 12. The slight second choice to Tropical Storm, Rebellion broke a bit slowly and loped along towards the back of the field. Three deep on the turn and one path wider into the stretch, he came with a barnstorming run down the center of Cushion Track and won going away.

Lady Gloria progressed out of handicap company in the fall to finish runner-up in Ascot's Listed Rosemary S. in September. After another second in a Leicester conditions race in October, she captured the Listed Prix Solitude at Fontainebleau the following month. Runner-up to Enforce in the Listed Conqueror S. at Goodwood on her seasonal return May 3, the homebred had been the bridesmaid again last Saturday when having no answer to the highly progressive Bankable (Ire) in the Listed On the House S. back at Goodwood. The bay demonstrated all her toughness on this quick reappearance, as she led at every step and refused to buckle under pressure in the closing stages as Cicerole and old rival Enforce challenged out wide. "Last time I got left at the start, so today the aim was to bowl along and get her stretching in the straight," jockey Tom Queally commented. "She was very game and handed me a lovely ride, really pointing her toe in the final furlong and pulling out all the stops. She has guts, but a bit of class, too and there were no prisoners taken today. She still hasn't had her ground either, as she loves ease."

Overlooked in pre-race discussions, 30-1 chance Mr Baritone continued the Group 1 rampage of trainer Mike Moroney by scoring a hard-fought victory in this contest, the Brisbane carnival's signature race. Six-year-old Mr Baritone settled in fifth behind veteran Omnitrader and, when the leaders began to tire, the gelding wound up to deny better credentialed rivals in hot pursuit. "It's been a great season," said Moroney, celebrating his 42nd Group 1 win and his fifth this season. Mr Baritone came into this contest off a third to Litter (Aus) in the Listed Sir Edwards Williams S. at this venue May 31.

Russian Sage, who changed ownership before this prize and now races for the combination of Larry Nestadt, Gary Barber and Team Valor, demonstrated his toughness again here to provide an instant payback. Kept at Kenilworth in his formative period, he was successful in the Dec. 8 G2 Selangor Cup before running second in the Jan. 5 G1 Cape Guineas. Back to winning ways next time in the G1 Cape Derby on J&B Met day three weeks later, the bay was runner-up to the subsequent G2 Drill Hall S. winner Imbongi (SAf) after a break in the G2 KZN Guineas at this track last time Apr. 26. He settled in fourth on the rail early for Richard Fourie, followed the move of Galant Gagnant approaching the final furlong and reeled in that rival close home to book his ticket to the G1 Vodacom Durban July in a month's time.

Wendywood belied her inexperience here on just her second start for the Sean Tarry stable, justifying the trainer's bold move. Sent off favorite for her debut in a mile maiden here May 23, she got the job done in unspectacular fashion, but it was significant that connections took the plunge straight into the top level. The bay settled in mid-division early by Marthinus Mienie and unleashed a sharp run down the inner to inhale Happy Spirit in the final strides.

“SPECIAL” ZARKAVA SHOULD STAY TRIP

Brilliant at Longchamp in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac on Arc day, G3 Prix de la Grotte on her return Apr. 13 and May 11 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches, Zarkava must confirm her superiority over this new trip and track. If successful in registering this Classic double, she will emulate starlets Allez France, Madelia (Fr), East of the Moon and Divine Proportions, while providing her owner/trainer combination with a fifth renewal since 1993. "There is plenty of stamina on her dam's side so she should be okay, but you never know until you try for the first time," Georges Rimaud continued. "Without it being a worry, there is always a question mark until you know for sure. I couldn't say if she is the best filly the Aga Khan has had, but she is certainly one of a very special bunch. We have been lucky enough to have Darjina and Mandesha recently, some very good fillies, but this one is special. The trainer says this is one of his best and he should know, because he has had plenty of good ones."

Alain de Royer-Dupre also has the May 18 G1 Prix Saint-Alary heroine Belle et Celebre, who bids to become the fifth since 1982 to follow up here having won that Longchamp prize; and Leo's Starlet. The latter needs to step up off her win in the May 1 G3 Prix Cleopatre to trouble her stable companion; no filly has won that Saint-Cloud prep before going on to glory here since Pawneese (Ire) in 1976.

Belle et Celebre le-cheval-bleu.com

Goldikova, who surrendered by two lengths in the Pouliches, bids to reverse that form and supply the Wertheimer brothers with a second renewal following the exploits of Egyptband in 2000. She had the subsequent G1 Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Halfway to Heaven (Ire) and G2 Prix de Sandringham winner Modern Look (GB) back in third and fourth, respectively, and is a top-class runner in her own right.

☆ CLASSIC CORNER ☆

Onto the Rematch...

It's been said that all championship contests deserve a rematch, and that looks on as Ballymacoll Stud look to the Irish Derby with the homebred Tartan Bearer (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}). "Ryan Moore said the pace could have been slightly better, but it was a good performance and we're happy," Ballymacoll's Manager Peter Reynolds said. "The winner is a very good horse, but hopefully we'll go to the Curragh now for the Irish Derby." That Classic may also be on the cards for the 7-2 favorite Casual Conquest (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}), who held every chance at the quarter pole before succumbing to the dominant first pair. "The horse has done me proud," trainer Dermot Weld said, "He was obviously inexperienced, but for the third ever run of his career, he has come to fruition. I think it was a very good Derby, and I don't want to take anything away from the winner, who is an exceptional horse who has already been second in two 2000 Guineas, and I am very pleased for his connections. The next stage is probably for a rematch in the Irish Derby."

JIMMY CROLL PASSES AWAY Warren A. "Jimmy" Croll, who conditioned the likes of Mr. Prospector, multiple champion Housebuster, GI Belmont S. winner

Jimmy Croll and Holy Bull
Equi-Photo

Bet Twice and Horse of the Year Holy Bull during a Hall of Fame career, passed away Friday night at New Jersey's Monmouth Medical Center. He was 88 years old. Born Mar. 9, 1920 in Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania, Croll attended college at the University of Pennsylvania for two years before leaving school to work at the racetrack. He relocated to the Garden State in 1946 and never missed a summer at the Jersey Shore. Croll's first prominent horse came via the claiming box when he haltered a horse called Parka for $10,000, who went on to become the nation's champion grass horse in 1965. Mr. Prospector, a $200,000 yearling purchase, went on to win half of his 14 career starts and set track records at Gulfstream Park and Garden State Park, while Bet Twice gave Croll one of his three victories in his home track's centerpiece race, the GI Haskell H. In 1994, the same year Holy Bull was named Horse of the Year, Croll had his most important honor bestowed upon him when he was inducted into the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame. In 2002, Croll handed off the day-to-day operations of his stable to his son, William E. Croll, but remained active as an owner and was often spotted at Monmouth Park. He is survived by his wife Roberta "Bobbi," his son and a daughter, Nancy. Funeral arrangements are pending.

JIM MCKAY DIES Legendary sportscaster Jim McKay, the face of ABC Sports and its coverage of the Triple Crown for decades, passed away Saturday at the age of 86. Best known for hosting the successful ABC program "Wide World of Sports," McKay also anchored the coverage of 12 Olympic Games, most famously the 1972 Munich games, which were marred by a terrorist attack on Israeli athletes in the Olympic Village. McKay grimly reported that a raid to rescue 11 prisoners resulted in the deaths of the athletes. "They're all gone," he said. Synonymous with racing's Triple Crown for many years, McKay was a longtime friend of Thoroughbred racing, a member of the Maryland Jockey Club, and is credited with founding the Maryland Millions racing series in the state to which he moved at the age of 15 in 1936. A stakes race is named in his honor at Pimlico. After graduating from Loyola (Md) College, he entered the U.S. Navy as an officer during World War II. McKay, recognized for his journalistic excellence with the George Polk Memorial Award and two Emmy Awards--including one for his Olympics coverage--is survived by his wife, Margaret, his daughter Mary and his son Sean, current president of CBS News and Sports. The crowd at yesterday's baseball game between the New York Yankees and Kansas City Royals paused to recognize and applaud the career of McKay.

Rosinka reeled off four consecutive victories last year, taking this race and the R G Dick BC H. at Delaware and the Gill Glens Falls H. at Saratoga. Off at 17-1 in the GI Flower Bowl Invitational S. at Belmont, she outran her odds, cutting out the early pace and hanging on gamely to finish just 3/4 of a length adrift of subsequent Eclipse winner Lahudood (GB), with champion Wait a While another half-length back in third. She had not been out since, but had been working steadily at Fair Hill for trainer Graham Motion. The bay mare was allowed an easy lead over the firm course, cutting out fractions of :51.29 and 1:15.02, but she was all out to hold off Royalties to the wire.

MODIFICATION (f, 3, Vindication--Swift Alliance {SW}, by Afleet) finished third in his second appearance, a 5 1/2-furlong special weight test on the Santa Anita all-weather Apr. 20, but faded to fifth after adding blinkers at Hollywood May 10. The 2-1 second choice was racing without the hood this time. Rated just off the leaders, he was put to a drive when they straightened for home and impressed the crowd, pulling away to win by 6 1/2 lengths. An $85,000 KEESEP yearling and $360,000 BESMAR juvenile, Modification is a 1/2 to Classic Alliance (Sky Classic), SW, $172,428; Sky Alliance (Sky Classic), GSW, $325,733; and Prime Ruler (Orientate), SW, $129,107. Stephen Foster Taking Shape:

Stonestreet Stable and Midnight Cry Stable's Curlin (Smart Strike), assigned the top weight of 128 pounds, is a likely starter in next Saturday's GI Stephen Foster H. at Churchill. Sharing the second topweight of 120 pounds is the duo of Millennium Farms' Student Council (Kingmambo) and the Allen Paulson Living Trust's A.P. Arrow (A.P. Indy), but both of those horses are expected for the GI Suburban H. at Belmont June 28. Possible to tackle the reigning Horse of the Year beneath the Twin Spires are Einstein (Brz) (Spend a Buck, 118), Grasshopper (Dixie Union, 117) and Brass Hat (Prized, 116). Einstein, winner of the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic May 3, is scheduled to work today following the renovation break.

A Vacation for Bob Black Jack:

Bob Black Jack (Stormy Jack), beaten 32 lengths when 16th in the May 3 GI Kentucky Derby, will be getting a three-month vacation, Daily Racing Form reports. The dark bay, who set a world record of 1:06.53 for six furlongs in the Sunshine Millions Dash in January, was also third in the GII San Felipe S. and second, beaten just a half-length, in the GI Santa Anita Derby. He had his first breeze since the Derby last Sunday, going a half in :49 4/5, but trainer James Kasparoff was unhappy with the way the colt came out of the work. "I didn't like the way he came back," Kasparoff told DRF. "He'd lost some weight with the Kentucky deal. I thought the time off would be the way to go." Bob Black Jack went to the farm last week. "It's preventative maintenance," the conditioner continued. "There is no injury. I felt like it was time for [a vacation]. We'll try to focus on bringing him back for the Malibu." Connections will target that seven-furlong Grade I test at Santa Anita Dec. 26. The Cal-bred has won three of his eight starts, earning $442,925.

Passified captured the Flawlessly S. on the Hollywood turf and the GII San Clemente S. on the grass at Del Mar last July, but was off the board in her next two starts. She went to the shelf after finishing eighth in the Oct. 14 H. C. Ramser Sr H. at Oak Tree. Resurfacing in an optional claimer going a mile and a sixteenth on the Hollywood green May 4, the chestnut filly set a moderate pace, but was collared in the final yards and finished second. Passified was let go at 12-1 despite that solid effort, and made 'em pay. He rounded out the exacta again an optional test at Santa Anita Feb. 22, but stopped badly in the Mar. 16 WinStar Derby at Sunland Park and finished ninth. The $190,000 BESMAY two-year-old was on the pace early in a NW1X allowance test at Hollywood Apr. 30, tiring to be sixth, and was dropping back to a sprint after three straight route tries. Off at 5-2, he went right to the front and led every step. Even-money chalk Usurp (Deputy Commander) was second throughout, but jockey Rafael Bejarano dropped his whip and the favorite had to settle for the place, 1 1/2 lengths behind Winsome Charm. With experience down Brighton's "ski slope" undulations, Smokey Storm had a headstart on his rivals here. He put that to maximum effect when capturing another stakes prize to augment the solid start made by his young sire. After a maiden win at that seaside venue Apr. 27, he was runner-up attempting to give the subsequent Listed National S. scorer Icesolator (Ire)--and fellow scion of One Cool Cat--three pounds in a conditions event at Goodwood last time May 8. Keeping to the inside stalking the fast early fractions, the bay struck the front at the furlong marker before asserting in the run to the line. "He's improved and matured from every race," said winning trainer William Jarvis. "I didn't deliberately run him at Brighton to see how he would handle the downhill, but it must have helped." Jarvis added, "I'd like to avoid Royal Ascot with him, as I don't see him as a Coventry horse, but we've got lots of options." Click for the Racing Post chart.

CONDUIT (IRE) (c, 3, Dalakhani {Ire}--Well Head {Ire}, by Sadler's Wells), who attracted heavy support into 11-8 favoritism on the basis of a promising third in a Sandown handicap on his sophomore bow Apr. 25, was anchored in rear early before being asked to make up the sizeable deficit at the top of the straight. Changing gear to cut down his rivals with an impressive flourish in the centre of the track, the chestnut homebred hit the front with 150 yards remaining and was pushed out thereafter for a convincing six-length success from Ramona Chase (GB) (High Chaparral {Ire}). "They had gone a nice pace and my fellow stays very well," said jockey Ryan Moore, who gave a perfectly judged ride. "He did it very well and although he's just a handicapper now, hopefully he'll progress." The winner is a 3/4-brother to Hard Top (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}), GSW-GB, $340,537. Lifetime Record: 5-2-0-2, £36,502. O/B-Ballymacoll Stud; T-Sir Michael Stoute.

SPIN CYCLE (IRE) (c, 2, Exceed and Excel {Aus}--Spinamix {GB}, by Spinning World), a 3/4-brother to Codeword (Ire) (Dansili {GB}), GSP-US, $113,625, got off the mark last time at Hamilton May 16 and started as the 11-10 crowd's choice. The bay colt stalked the early fractions set by Harwalla (Ire) (Desert Style {Ire}). Tackling that rival inside the final furlong, he got on top with 100 yards remaining before holding on for a neck success. The winner was a 50,000gns TATDEC weanling and 84,000gns DONAUG yearling. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, £16,347. O-H E Sheikh Rashid bin Mohammed; B-Lisa Kelly; T-Bryan Smart.

HOLBECK GHYLL (IRE) (g, 6, Titus Livius {Fr}--Crimada {Ire}, by Mukaddamah), successful on Kempton's Polytrack Mar. 28 and Apr. 17 before finishing runner-up at Newbury May 17, broke well and raced prominently throughout the frantic early stages of this "Dash" H. Getting to the front with 100 yards remaining, the 13,000gns DONSEP yearling dug in to prevail by a half-length from Merlin's Dancer (GB) (Magic Ring {Ire}) at odds of 15-2. Lifetime Record: 33-7-3-4, £82,816. O-Halsall Nicholson Partnership; B-David Brickley; T-Andrew Balding.

GOLDEN ROSIE (IRE) (f, 2, Exceed and Excel {Aus}--Kelsey Rose {GB} {MSP-GB}, by Most Welcome {GB}), a debut fifth at Leicester May 27, raced in a prominent third after a smart break. Taking outright control with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, the 10-3 joint-favorite was ridden out in the closing stages to best Gal Aloud (War Chant) by 3/4 of a length. The winner, a 55,000gns TATOCT yearling, is the fourth for her freshman sire (by Danehill). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £4,533. O-John C Grant; B-Yeomanstown Stud; T-Barry Hills.

Lingfield, 7.10, Mdn, £5,100, 2yo, f, 6fT, 1:12.15, gd/fm.

+ FOXTROT ALPHA (IRE) (f, 2, Desert Prince {Ire}--Imelda, by Manila), sent off at 33-1, showed good early foot to race prominently before joining the front line approaching the final furlong. Pressed by Sterling Sound (Street Cry {Ire}) soon after, the €37,000 GOFMIL yearling dug deep to prevail by a neck. Foxtrot Alpha is a half-sister to Rapadash (Ire) (Boundary), GSP-US. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £3,303. O-Foxtrot Racing Partnership; B-Irish National Stud; T-Peter Winkworth.

Newcastle, 7.50, Mdn, £5,000, 3yo/up, 10f 32ydsT, 2:14.25, gd/sf.

MOONQUAKE (c, 3, Mr. Greeley--Beaming Meteor, by Pleasant Colony), runner-up at Chester last time May 7, started at 2-5. The dark bay settled traveling easily in behind the leaders throughout the early stages. Making smooth progress to lead at the quarter pole, the $20,000 FTKOCT yearling and 58,000gns TATGNS breeze-up graduate was pushed out under hand riding to beat Dream Esteem (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}) by 2 1/4 lengths. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, £5,357. O-H R H Princess Haya of Jordan; B-Stonestreet Mares LLC; T-John Gosden.

RED DUNE (IRE) (f, 3, Red Ransom--Desert Beauty {Ire} {SP-GB}, by Green Desert), a €1.05-million GOFORB yearling, was second last out at Windsor May 19, went postward as the 11-10 chalk. The half-sister to Hyblon (Ire) (Machiavellian), SW-Jpn, $981,870, led from the outset here. Maintaining control throughout, kicked clear approaching the final furlong and was pushed out late to easily hold Lee Miller (Ire) (Daneshill Dancer {Ire}) by 1 1/2 lengths. The reason for the big price tag? Red Dune's second dam is G1SW Hellenic (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}), whose other offspring include champion Islington (Ire), German highweight Greek Dance (Ire) and GSW New Morning (Ire)--all by Sadler's Wells--as well as G1SW Mountain High (Ire) (Daneshill).
