Sent off at 2-5 for this sun-baked Classic, the homebred glided by Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa) passing the quarter pole and was soon clear of the chasing Gagnoa (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), with Christophe Soumillon indulging in a spot of showboating near the line.

"There are no words to describe how good she is," trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre commented after greeting his sixth winner of this prestigious prize. "In my mind, she is in the same class as Dalakhani (Ire)." Cont. p3

ALL APPEARS WELL WITH BIG BROWN

A day after his Triple Crown hopes were dashed in the GI Belmont S., IEAH Stables and Paul Pompa, Jr.'s Big Brown (Boundary) appeared to be in good shape, connections reported. "We went over him good after the race, and again this morning, and there's nothing physically that's shown up," IEAH's Michael Iavarone, speaking by cell phone from his daughter's soccer game on Long Island, said Sunday morning. "I'm as confused as anybody. Unless something shows up, we're going to look to maintain his regular training schedule, which will be to breeze in a couple of weeks, and point him for the [GI] Travers S. [at Saratoga Aug. 23]." Big Brown, who suffered his first career defeat in the Belmont, walked the shedrow Sunday morning with Michelle Nevin, assistant trainer to Rick Dutrow, Jr. and the colt's regular exercise rider. Cont. p2

Fine-Tooth-Comb Treatment Turns Up Nada...

lavarone said Big Brown was scrutinized head to hoof after the Belmont, but that nothing appeared out of the ordinary. "He's clean, he's sound--he's just angry," lavarone said. "He scoped clean. His feet are ice cold; quarter crack not an issue. He had a very loose hind left shoe, but that's not an issue. We'll just chalk it up to a question mark at this point." lavarone offered that the track might have been too deep and dry for Big Brown. "I'm understanding they had an issue without water and they weren't able to water the track and it got deep--I don't know," he said. "We're perplexed--nobody can figure this one out. The horse did not displace [his palate], he scoped fine, there's no mucous, everything is ice cold. The horse that won, [Big Brown] had beaten him by 23 lengths in the [GI] Florida Derby and so, I don't know. We just have to watch him carefully and make sure we didn't miss anything." Big Brown is scheduled to join Rick Dutrow's barn at Aqueduct within a couple of days. "We want to keep him at Belmont for a day and make sure we didn't miss anything," said lavarone, a photograph of whom hugging the horse appeared in many newspapers Sunday morning. "I love this horse," he said. "I've grown tremendously attached to this horse emotionally. I wanted him to know he could run dead last or first and we would still love him."

Da' Tara in Fine Fettle...

Hall of Fame trainer Nick Zito reported on Sunday morning that Da' Tara (Tiznow), upset winner of the GI Belmont S., came out of the race in great shape and could face a rematch with Big Brown in the Aug. 23 GI Travers S. at Saratoga. "Da' Tara, obviously the main goal is the Travers," said Zito. "I learned one thing--[he] likes to be close to the pace. He broke his maiden going wire-to-wire. So, probably the [GI] Jim Dandy S. [at Saratoga July 27] and the Travers." Zito said that Anak Nakal (Victory Gallop), who dead-heated for third in the Belmont with Ready's Echo (More Than Ready), also returned in good shape. "We'll see what the boys want to do with Anak Nakal, but the Travers could be for him, too," Zito said. "Hopefully, knock wood, he'll be a good four-year-old." In winning his second Belmont and his fifth Triple Crown event overall, Zito opined that capturing all three legs of the series is one of the toughest accomplishments in sports. "Look at the horses who didn't make it, besides the recent ones," he said. "Northern Dancer. Majestic Prince. Everything has to go right for the Derby. Everything has to go right for the Preakness. And everything has to go right for the Belmont. But you'll see another Triple Crown winner. We were spoiled in the '70s, with Affirmed and Seattle Slew and Secretariat. No offense to the great trainers and owners of yesterday, but racing has gotten a lot more competitive. There aren't the old outfits anymore like the Vanderbilts. We still have the Phippses, thank God, but now it's a very competitive business." Zito smiled as he recounted his feelings watching the Belmont unfold. "I was jumping up and down," said Zito. "Big Brown wasn't Big Brown, and he wasn't making his move. I said, well, if he's not making his move and we're coasting pretty good, I'm starting to get real excited."

'Denis' Tired But Fine...

GI Belmont S. runner-up Denis of Cork (Harlan's Holiday) was tired but otherwise in good order Sunday morning. "It was extremely hot yesterday, but he's doing well," trainer David Carroll said. "I was very pleased by his effort, but without someone else joining the early pace, it was just too much for us to close on the winner." Carroll said that Denis of Cork, too, might target the Aug. 23 GI Travers S. "He belongs in the major races, and there's a big win in him that will come out," said Carroll. Denis of Cork is scheduled to fly back to Kentucky early this morning.

Tale of Ekati Exits Belmont With Gash...

Charles Fipke's Tale of Ekati (Tale of the Cat) came out of his sixth-place effort in the Belmont with a gash on the outer bulb of his right-hind heel, according to trainer Barclay Tagg. Tale of Ekati shadowed Da'Tara for about a mile before fading. "He was fine until he got stepped on," Tagg said. "I don't know how bad it is. I know he is walking sore on it. Anytime a 1,000-pound horse steps on your heel at 40-miles-an-hour, it's not pretty. I don't know how long the gash will take to heal. Each gash and each horse is different. It should heal in about a month, but you never know."

Casino Drive to Fly Home Tuesday...

Hidetoshi Yamamoto's GII Peter Pan S. hero Casino Drive (Mineshaft), an 11th-hour defection from the Belmont because of a stone bruise on his left-hind hoof, was doing well Sunday morning and is scheduled to begin his long trip back to Japan early Tuesday. He will be joined by stablemates Spark Candle (A.P. Indy) and Champagne Squall (Ire) (Daylami {Ire}). "We are watching Casino Drive carefully still, but there is no sign of fever or soreness," said stable spokesman Nobutaka Tada. "We are disappointed he did not get to run, but we are very grateful to everyone here who supported us. We wish we could stay here, but if we did, we would have a three-month quarantine in Japan."

While Zarkava has no peers when it comes to finishing panache, she has her own idiosyncracies in the early part of her races and requires gentle nudging by Soumillon to find her rhythm.

Zarkava scoopdyga.com

That was evident in the Pouliches at Longchamp May 11 and again here, where she idled throughout the early stages in rear before switching on after her rabbit Sanjida (Ire) (Polish Precedent) took up the running. By the time she swung around the chateau, she was traveling with ease and the result was already in no doubt as Prima Luce (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) led the field in early stretch. Arriving with a thundering run in the centre of the track with Gagnoa in her slipstream, she overhauled Goldikova with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining before establishing clear daylight under minimum pressure. On ground officially described as good to soft, Zarkava posted a spectacular time, suggesting the drying weather had produced a quicker surface than that. This was also her first step outside of Longchamp, where she had dominated the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac on Arc day and Apr. 13 G3 Prix de la Grotte, as well as the Pouliches. Trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre has a return to the Bois de Boulogne for a certain 1 1/2-mile contest in mind now. "I didn't expect to see her so far back early on, but there was a good pace and we could see from the earlier races that the track was riding well and horses were coming from behind," he added. "She produced tremendous acceleration and won as the class horse she is. I can now definitely think of the [Oct. 5] G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe for her and she will get a break before having one run beforehand." Andre Fabre was delighted with the effort of Gagnoa, who split the French 1000 Guineas one-two. "She has run a great race and probably will be even better over 1 1/2 miles," he said. Lethal Heat won her first two career starts on the grass at Santa Anita in March, then handled the switch to the main track to win the GIII Santa Paula S. Mar. 30. Third in the Railbird in her first try on Hollywood's Cushion Track, Lethal Heat was content to track in second as Gambler's Justice (Lit de Justice) and Tasha's Miracle ensured honest fractions up front. Lethal Heat joined the leaders while racing three wide into the far turn, took a narrow advantage in upper stretch, and out-fought Tasha's Miracle to the line. Longshot Smooth Performer came with a stout rally and just nabbed place honors in the three-horse photo.

horse. This one is Breeders' Cup eligible--she's the only one we nominated. I don't know where she will be next. I was planning on running her in the American Oaks, but I think Bel Air Sizzle might have that spot taken. I don't need to run two. Vodka, Japan's champion two-year-old filly of 2006, finished a decent fourth in the G1 Dubai Duty Free Mar. 29 before placing second in the Victoria Mile at Tokyo last time May 18. With Yasunari Iwata in the irons here, Vodka stayed close to the early leaders in fifth, rallied to take over 300 meters out and drew off to win impressively. "Today, sitting on her back, I felt the shiver through my spine feeling the strength within this extraordinary filly, and any doubts that I had about winning today was put to an end as the confidence in her grew the moment we stepped onto the track for the post parade," Iwata said. "I knew she was quick out of the gate, so we rushed to secure a good position in the inside which worked out well. From there, I think we got along really well throughout the journey and once at the homestretch, she responded like a Derby winner and went like a bullet. The speed that drew her away from the last 200 meters never faltered and I knew at that moment that nobody was going to catch us."

Arcadia's Angle scored at Compiègne in October and Saint-Cloud the following month before finishing runner-up to Gris Tendre (Fr) (Slickly {Fr}) in the latter track's Listed Prix Omnium II on his sophomore bow Mar. 24. Beaten just over two lengths when fourth in the G3 Prix de Fontainebleau at Longchamp Apr. 13, the bay returned to the winner's spot after the May 17 Listed Prix de Pontarme at Maisons-Laffitte. Taken over to the rail to lead from his wide draw early, he kicked at the top of the stretch and, after keeping Yorktown at bay, had done enough to ensure victory from the late-closing Senlis. "He has not stopped improving since the start of the season and got a brilliant ride from Christophe [Patrice-Lemaire] today," conditioner Pascal Bary commented. "He's a tough horse and never gives up and, after winning his listed and Group 3, has to go up in class, so we'll take our time to decide and it maybe the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois [at Deauville Aug. 17]." Click for the Racing Post chart.

Spirito del Vento came to the fore when taking this race 12 months ago before finishing third in the G3 Prix Quincey at Deauville in August and annexing the G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein at Longchamp in October. Shipped to Sha Tin for the G1 Hong Kong Mile, he was far from disgraced in sixth there before returning to fill third spot in both the Mar. 30 G3 Prix Edmond Blanc and May 1 G2 Prix du Muguet at Saint-Cloud. Reserved in rear early, the bay swooped wide to lead passing the furlong marker and, despite drifting across the runner-up, was allowed to keep the race by the stewards. Trainer Jean-Marie Beguigne has a trip to Royal Ascot on the agenda now. "He took some time to recover from his trip to Hong Kong, but I don't think that was the only reason for his two moderate efforts this year as he didn't handle the right-handed track at Saint-Cloud," he explained. "He won as brilliantly as last year and, as there is only one Group-1 race geldings can run in, he has to go to Royal Ascot for the [June 17] Queen Anne. It is not me to bring horses back nine days after a run, but he seemed very fresh afterwards and we have nothing to lose." Click for the Racing Post chart.

In search of her third straight victory, Frank Stronach's homebred Ginger Brew unleashed a rousing turn of foot in the final eighth of a mile to capture the first leg of Canada's Triple Tiara. Never worse than second in five starts coming into the Oaks, Ginger Brew beat Gulfstream NW1X foes on the grass Mar. 15 before a popular victory in the grassy Calder Oaks Apr. 26. Returning to Woodbine, where she won her maiden at first asking sprinting on the main track last October, Ginger Brew was settled near the back of the pack under jockey Javier Castellano. She began to make up ground on the turn, came through an opening in upper stretch while making contact with a rival, then bounded clear to win it easily. There was a claim of foul by Emile Ramsammy, rider of runner-up Victory Romance, but after a brief look the stewards disallowed the claim, giving Stronach his second Oaks win after taking the 1999 edition with Touch Dial. "If you own the stallion, the mare and you breed the filly, and you win the Oaks, that's very nice," said Stronach. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

FOSTER IN QUESTION FOR CURLIN AFTER WEIGHT ASSIGNMENT Reigning Horse of the Year and Mar. 29 G1 Dubai World Cup hero Curlin (Smart Strike) has been assigned 128 pounds for his intended

return to the races--Saturday's GI Stephen Foster H. at Churchill Downs--but trainer Steve Asmussen said the stiff impost might preclude the four-year-old's participation. "It might eliminate us from running," Asmussen told Daily Racing Form. He added of Churchill Downs, "They may have outsmarted themselves again." Last week, Churchill boosted the purse of the Foster to $1 million, stipulating that a Grade I winner

--not necessarily Curlin--had to participate. Foster nominees Einstein (Brz) (Spend a Buck) and Brass Hat (Prized) are Grade I winners, as is Student Council (Kingmambo), who just happens to be trained by Asmussen. "We're going to tell everyone we're running, but if Student Council shows up in the race, it would not be a surprise," Asmussen said. Churchill Downs notes said Curlin's weight assignment is believed to be the highest in a Grade I event since Skip Away toted 128 pounds while winning the GI Pimlico Special H. in May of 1998. A few months later, Skip Away won Monmouth's Iselin H.--a Grade II event--by a nose over Stormin Fever while carrying 131 pounds. If he does run, Curlin will be conceding from between 10 and 15 pounds to his rivals. Considered as definite for the Stephen Foster are: Grasshopper (Dixie Union) (117), Brass Hat (116), Barcola (Old Trieste) (113), and High Blues (High Yield) (113), with possible contenders including: Einstein (118), Delightful Kiss (Kissin Kris) (114), Jonesboro (Sefapiano) (114), Red Rock Creek (Numerous) (113) and Sam P. (Cat Thief) (113). Curlin is slated to work this morning at Churchill.

THREE-TIME CHAMP LAVA MAN READIES FOR GOLD CUP IV

The seven-year-old gelding Lava Man (Slew City Slew) came out his game third-place try in Saturday's GI Charles Whittingham Memorial H. in good order and now has a showdown with history when he goes for his unprecedented fourth straight GI Hollywood Gold Cup June 28. "The 'big horse' came back in great shape," trainer Doug O'Neill said Sunday. Refuting claims that he was over the hill, Lava Man was back just a neck and a nose in the Whittingham, which was won by Artiste Royal (Ire). "This is his World Series, Super Bowl and NBA finals," said O'Neill of the Gold Cup. "He put in a real valiant effort [Saturday]. He came back a little tired, but not bad. He ate up well and walked the shedrow [Sunday] morning." Lava Man won the Gold Cup by a nose last year, equaling the feat of three-time winner Native Diver, who won from 1965-67. Standing in Lava Man's way is the red-hot GI Californian S. winner Heatseeker (Ire) (Giant's Causeway), as well as dual Grade I winner Tiago (Pleasant Tap), Surf Cat (Sir Cat), On the Acorn (GB) (Inchinor {GB}), Perfect Drift (Dynaformer), Grade I winner Student Council (Kingmambo) and McCann's Mojave (Memo {Chi}).

Epsom Herald Derby's Status...

Officials at Epsom racecourse have expressed themselves delighted with the latest Derby Festival highlighted by the win of New Approach (Ire) in Saturday's main event. After revealing that the paying crowd amounted to over 38,000 and the total crowd was near 100,000, Managing Director Nick Blofeld said, "As winning owner Princess Haya said today, the Derby is the greatest sporting event in the world. Today we witnessed a contest with tremendous strength in depth and it was immensely satisfying to see all the leading contenders involved in the finish. The prestige of the Vodafone Derby has been very much confirmed." Clerk of the Course and Director of Racing Andrew Cooper added, "From a racing perspective, the two days have gone well. We've had no major injuries, and the track has ridden extremely well and has been well received by all connections. We've had beautiful naturally produced ground, which you just can't beat. To have the champion two-year-old, who was then placed second in two Guineas, come and win from what looked extremely strong horses, it just looks a very good race from a quality perspective." Epsom's renovation program means that racing will not return until April 2009.

Bolger Reflects on New Approach's Derby Win...

Jim Bolger was yesterday basking in post-Derby glory and confirmed Princess Haya of Jordan's New Approach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) on course for the June 29 Irish equivalent. While adding the proviso that the half-length Epsom victor would not run on similar ground to that he encountered in the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas, the Coolcullen-based conditioner is setting his targets on the Dubai Duty Free-sponsored Curragh Classic. "The immediate target is the Irish Derby and we'll sit down and talk about plans after that," he commented. "He wouldn't run on firm ground." Bolger paid further tribute to jockey Kevin Manning's winning ride, adding, "It was the best Derby-winning ride I've seen--it was brilliant. I don't think anybody could have just stepped into the plate and won on him, as he takes a bit of knowing. He'd been dropped-in in the Dewhurst which worked, except for him taking a little time to wake up and Kevin was fairly confident that he could do it that way. Obviously he had a Plan B as well, but he didn't have to use it."

Trainer Peter Snowden said, "He is bred to get over a bit of ground; he looks more like Falbrav than he does the mother. He is relaxed, has a great attitude and it will take him a long way. He is doing all these young horse green things, but he is taking it all in."

The chestnut, stretching out for the first time, rated in second behind runaway leader Catch Air and reeled in that pacesetter down the stretch to take the lead late for his first stakes score. "Off his pedigree, we figured a mile and an eighth shouldn't be problem," said assistant conditioner Hilary Pridham. "He's bred for it and he's got a big, long stride. He's a big, solid horse. She returned this term to take a Jan. 18 optional claimer down the hill at Santa Anita before a narrow win over Ariege on that same course in the Feb. 2 GIII La Habra S. Third behind that rival over Keeneland's Polytrack in the Apr. 10 GII Stonerside Beaumont S., the filly was favored in her return to the lawn here. Always within striking distance, Passion rallied three wide into the stretch and exploded down the lane for an easy win. "She broke a little slow," explained winning jockey Javier Castellano. "I didn't want to rush her. I know in her better races she was on the lead. Today, I'm glad I settled behind the two horses. She responded very well. She exploded." Ginny Di Pasquale, assistant to trainer Todd Pletcher, added, "It just looked like this was a good spot for her. Todd thought he'd take a shot. She looked like she was best on paper.
