CURLIN SHOOTS FOR ELUSIVE DOUBLE

Stonestreet Stable and Midnight Cry Stable's reigning Horse of the Year Curlin (Smart Strike) drew the inside post for Saturday's G1 Stephen Foster H., his first appearance since winning the G1 Dubai World Cup

Curlin
Horsephotos

Mar. 29. Going back-to-back in the two events has proved a difficult task over the years. Only Street Cry (Ire) in 2002 was able to successfully complete the double, while Silver Charm (1997) and Captain Steve (2001) were second as the odds-on favorites following their wins in the desert. In 1999, Victory Gallop managed a third-place finish in the World Cup, but bounced back in track record-setting fashion in the Foster. TDN Feature Presentation cont. p2

CREACHADOIR OUT OF QUEEN ANNE, TO MISS REST OF SEASON Godolphin's Creachadoir (Ire) (King's Best) was a shock absentee from the list of contenders going forward for Tuesday's G1 Queen Anne S., with the operation announcing that the four-year-old has sustained a fracture to his off-fore.

Creachadoir (inside) just misses in the G1 Hong Kong Mile HKJC.com

Racing Manager Simon Crisford said of the G1 Lockinge S. winner, "He sustained a fracture on Wednesday morning when he was working. Unfortunately, he'll be out for the rest of the season and we haven't made the decision whether or not to keep him in training. It's a real blow, as he'd worked fantastically well. He came back and he was sound and it wasn't until he cooled down that we found he was lame. An investigation revealed the fracture. It's so disappointing as he'd shown himself recently to be top-class and he was due to be our flagship horse for the Royal meeting." Second in last year's G1 Irish and French 2000 Guineas, Creachadoir was coming off a win in the May 17 G1 Juddmonte Lockinge S. Cont. p2

GRADE 1 STEPHEN FOSTER H.

Hurry Up and Weight...

Trainer Steve Asmussen has been outspoken about Curlin's 128-pound weight assignment, and should he prevail, as expected, he'd become the highest-weighted horse to take the Foster. Hopeful Word (1986) and Honor Medal (1988) each carried 123 pounds into the winner's circle. "My issue with the weight is: June, 128. If he carries 128 now, where are you going to end up if you have success?" Asmussen said in Thursday's Daily Racing Form. In fact, Curlin carried 132 pounds in landing his seasonal debut in a Feb. 27 handicap over 10 furlongs at Nad al Sheba before returning to weight-for-age conditions in the Dubai World Cup, a race off which he picks up all of 32 ounces. In 1996, Cigar was victorious twice when saddled with 130 pounds, while Skip Away was weighted at 131 pounds when he won the 1998 Gil Philip H. Iselin H. Curlin must spot Saturday's field anywhere from 10 to 15 pounds, but his most-accomplished rival has established his reputation on the turf. That is to take nothing away from Einstein (Brz) (Spend a Buck), who is owned by the same group which holds the minority interest in Curlin. A licensing issue in New York prevented the six-year-old from taking part in last weekend's G1 Manhattan H. on the Belmont S. undercard, a race for which he likely would have been favored. A multiple Grade I winner on the grass, Einstein has been something other than an abject failure on the main track. After dropping his U.S. debut on the dirt, he took his next two main-track starts by a combined 12 3/4 lengths, but was a well-beaten sixth in this year's G1 Donn H. at Gulfstream. He is in receipt of 10 pounds from Curlin. Should the winner come from somewhere else, it would be an upset not unlike those seen in this race in recent memory. While Perfect Drift handled Mineshaft in 2003, a bit of a surprise in its own right, Colonial Colony and Seek Gold lit up the tote at odds of 62-1 and 91-1, respectively.

Queen Anne Showdown Nears...

As expected, His Highness the Aga Khan's Sageburg (Ire) (Johannesburg) was supplemented to the Queen Anne by trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre, making a list of 13 for the one-mile contest. The G1 Prix d'Ispahan winner features alongside stable companion Darjina (Fr) (Zamindar), who is set to renew rivalry with Michael Ryan's Finsceal Beo (Ire) (Mr. Greeley) after the pair were first and second, respectively, in last year's G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches. Further international flavor is added by Luigi Ciampi's G3 Prix du Chemin de Fer du Nord victor Spirito del Vento (Fr) (Indian Lodge {Ire}), from the Jean-Marie Beguigne stable, and a quartet from Ballydoyle headed by Frank Tagg and Coolmore Stud's Haradasun (Aus) (Fusaichi Pegasus). Tagg said of the G1 Lockinge S. sixth, "This is our first runner at Royal Ascot, although Elvstroem (Aus), Haradasun's half-brother, was third in the Prince of Wales's S. when the meeting was held at York in 2005. The Coolmore representatives in Australia have told me that he is going really, really well and that Aidan is very happy with him, particularly since the Lockinge. We are looking forward to next week and expecting him to run a nice race." The home defence is spearheaded by Cheveley Park Stud's Lockinge fourth Cesare (GB) (Machiavellian) and Rupert Piersch and Peter Walichnowski's Linngari (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}).

Ready for Take Off...

Royal Ascot's King's Stand S., now a Group 1, would not be the same without trainer Joe Janiak and Takeover Target (Aus) (Celtic Swing {GB}), and the veterans will be back attempting a second win in the five-furlong contest in three years. Janiak told PA Sport yesterday, "I am very happy with him, his work has been good and the track rider reckons he's bigger and better than last year--I hope he's right." Last year's third Magnus (Aus) (Flying Spur {Aus}) is also on course for a return and his conditioner Peter Moody is hoping the six-year-old can finally gain his own share of Royal glory. "We only have one bite of the cherry, as he goes into quarantine straight after the King's Stand for stud duties," he told PA Sport. "Last year I think I had him undercooked for the first race and maybe overdone for the second. When he arrived here, he was four to five kilos heavier, but he galloped strongly yesterday and will do a bit more fast work on Friday or Saturday morning to put him just right."

A Colourful Raider from South Africa...

Chris van Niekirk's National Colour (SAf) (National Assembly) will add further weight to the overseas challenge as he provides South African trainer Sean Tarry with his first runner in Britain, while Spain will be represented by Felix Sanz Blanco's G2 Prix du Gros-Chene runner-up

National Colour drcnewswire.com

Equiano (Fr) (Acclamation {GB}) from the Mauricio Delcher-Sanchez stable. Of the British-trained hopefuls among the 17 entries, the Searchers' syndicate's three-year-old filly Fleeting Spirit (Ire)

(Invincible Spirit {Ire}) will line up for Jeremy Nosedo following her record-breaking G2 Temple S. success. John Mayne's G1 Nunthorpe S. winner Kingsgate Native (Ire) (Mujadil) will be making his seasonal debut. Trainer John Best reports the sophomore to have followed an intended plan. "There has been nothing for him, so we decided we would wait and go straight into Group 1s without a penalty," he said yesterday. "He seems to have improved, but he was an extremely mature two-year-old and that would be my biggest concern."

Art Works...

Matthew Green and David Elsworth's Stubbs Art (Ire) (Hawk Wing) yesterday pleased connections in his exercise ahead of Tuesday's G1 St James's Palace S., for which 17 remained at the five-day stage. Third behind the likely hot favorite Henrythenavigator (Kingmambo) in both the G1 English and G1 Irish 2000 Guineas, the colt was taken to Newmarket's July course for his workout. Trainer Elsworth told PA Sport, "It was just a friendly bit of work, but everything went well and we're happy." Susan Magnier's dual Guineas hero was one of six from Ballydoyle, including the Irish Guineas fourth Jupiter Pluvius (Johannesburg), while Carlos Laffon-Parias is hoping to ship in the Wertheimer Brothers' G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains hero Falco (Pivotal {GB}). Trainer Henry Cecil is likely to run Khalid Abdullah's G3 Craven S. winner Twice Over (GB) (Observatory). Others of note include Stonerside Stable's Craven runner-up and 2000 Guineas fourth Raven's Pass (Elusive Quality) and last year's G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere winner Rio de la Plata (Rahy), one of a trio from Godolphin.

A pacesetter second at 60-1 behind Pyro in the GII Louisiana Derby back in March, the B. Wayne Hughes runner comes into this off fifth-place efforts in the GII Arkansas Derby Apr. 12 and in the May 10 GIII Lone Star Derby. "The questions for him are we are not sure how far he wants to run and what kind of horses he's been running against," commented trainer Al Stall Jr. "He is doing fine and he has always trained well [at Churchill]." Of the Derby competitors, Recapturetheglory fared best, finishing fifth. He is scheduled to arrive today from his Arlington Park base.

He was scratched from last week's Listed Glencairn S. due to unsuitable going at this track, but rebounded from that setback to claim a career high in decisive fashion. Summit Surge was settled fourth after the opening exchanges, but was shuffled back one place rounding the home turn. Making wide headway under pressure inside the final quarter mile, he swooped late to secure the landmark win. "All credit goes to the owner and [jockey] Keagan Latham as they decided we should run even though my call was to pull the horse out," revealed trainer Ger Lyons. "He'll go for the [June 29] Listed Celebration S. [at The Curragh] on Irish Derby weekend if the ground is right, but he owes us nothing."

BLOOMBERG TALKS TOUGH AS DEADLINE LOOMS; PATERSON WEIGHS IN

With Sunday's deadline approaching, New York City Mayor Michael Bloomberg said Tuesday that he expects to go forward and close the city's 60 Off Track Betting facilities, in the process laying off some 1,500 workers. "I don't want to be a pessimist, but at the moment, our plan is Sunday will be the last day OTB is open in New York City," Bloomberg said. "New York City is not going to lay off one cop, one firefighter or one teacher so that we can support a bookie operation. Period. End of story." The main sticking point between the state and city remains the revenue-sharing plan currently in place that heavily favors the state. Last year, for instance, OTB handled about $1 billion in wagers and grossed about $255 million in revenue, $151 million of which went to paying operational costs, according to Newsday. That left OTB with profits of $104 million. However, because of the revenue-sharing agreement, OTB was mandated to pay the state $117 million, which created a $13-million shortfall. Last week, a proposal by the city to allocate a larger share of revenue from betting parlors and account wagering to NYCOTB was shunned by both NYRA officials and state horsemen, who said the mayor's plan would result in a $7- to $12-million cut in revenue for the tracks. Yesterday, New York Governor David Paterson said he was considering all options, including the state taking over the OTBs from the city. "Because of the urgency of the situation, there is no option that I won't explore at this point," Paterson told the Newark Examiner. "That's how difficult it is." The governor added, "I don't know if we can beat the deadline. Obviously, because a number of people would lose jobs and it would really be a problem, it's a priority for us right now."

DUTROW, DESORMEAUX MEET For the first time since Big Brown (Boundary)'s failed effort to win the Triple Crown, trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. and much-maligned jockey Kent Desormeaux had a face-to-face meeting Wednesday morning at the trainer's Aqueduct barn. According to a report on ESPN.com, the two met at about 8 a.m. Dutrow told ESPN's Jeannine Edwards that he and the rider were "back on target" and "I just feel better because he came by to talk [about the Belmont ride]." Desormeaux did not return a message left for him earlier in the day. Dutrow was typically outspoken in the aftermath of Big Brown's loss over the weekend, and, absent any apparent physical issues with the colt following the race, turned his rhetoric and his criticism towards Desormeaux. "I don't see the horse with a problem, so I have to direct my attention toward the ride. That's all I can come up with," he said in published reports. "As long as the horse stays the way that I see him right now, then things are just going to keep building up for me to know that it was the ride that did him in." But apparently, all hard feelings are gone and Dutrow will apparently endorse the idea of Desormeaux retaining the mount going forward. The report on ESPN.com indicates that Dutrow will resume his use of Winstrol on Big Brown this coming Sunday, the first time he will be administered the legal steroid since Apr. 15.

HOUSE HEARING SET FOR JUNE 19 The U.S. House of Representatives' Subcommittee on Commerce, Trade, and Consumer Protection will convene a hearing next Thursday, June 19, entitled, "Breeding, Drugs, and Breakdowns: The State of Thoroughbred Horseracing and the Welfare of the Thoroughbred Racehorse," in Washington, D.C. Subcommittee chairman Representative Bobby Rush (D-IL) and the ranking member Representative Ed Whitfield (R-KY) recently announced plans for the hearing following the death of Eight Belles in the GI Kentucky Derby May 3. "The whole purpose of the hearing is to look at the lack of transparency, the lack of uniform rules, and the lack of ability to enforce anything on a national level," Whitfield told Daily Racing Form. The hearing is expected to include two panels of racing officials, the first of which includes Richard Shapiro, the chairman of the California Horse Racing Board; Arthur Hancock, the owner of Stone Farm outside Lexington, Ky.; owner Jess Jackson; ESPN analyst Randy Moss; Alan Marzelli, president of the Jockey Club; and trainers Jack Van Berg and Rick Dutrow. A second panel is to include Alex Waldrop, the chief executive officer of the National Thoroughbred Racing Association, as well as several equine veterinarians.

Sidelined after finishing fifth over the local sod in the Wild Applause S. Sept. 19, Drama Lady came back to post a two-length score in a main-track allowance at Gulfstream Apr. 17. She followed that with a fourth in the Skipat S. at Pimlico on the Preakness undercard, but was the second choice in this four-horse affair. The dark bay tracked 1-5 Winning Point from the start and drew even after a half in :49.20. The two fillies bumped, but Drama Lady proved resolute and forged ahead in the final sixteenth. A half to Round Pond, the 2007 FTKNOV topper at $5.75 million, the winner's dam is a half to multiple Grade/Group 1 winners Black Minnaloushe (Storm Cat), Pennekamp (Bering {GB}) and Nasr el Arab (Al Nasr {Fr}). Six-Figure Payout in Record Pick Six:

A carryover in excess of $1.1 million attracted an additional $3.2 million in wagers Wednesday, creating a non-Breeders' Cup New York record Pick Six pool of $4,404,280. When the dust cleared, 29 patrons each cashed tickets of $103,754, though none was sold on track at Belmont Park. The sequence kicked off in fairly formful fashion when My Dinah ($6.90) won race four, and was followed by the Rick Dutrow Jr.-trained Youbethecan ($21). Willsboro Point ($47.80) registered the day's biggest upset, but Myakka ($5.30) struck the first blow for the chalk in race seven. Pennington ($9.20) got through on the inside to win the penultimate race on the program and Ten Forty ($3.70) closed out the card. A total of 2,360 consolation tickets with five correct selections returned $255.50 apiece. At the 2005 Breeders' Cup, hosted by Belmont Park, the pool for the Ultra Pick6 reached $4,856,700. While there were no correct tickets that afternoon, 40 tickets with five winners returned $90,325.

NTRA REPORT FROM CAPITOL HILL

WITNESS LIST BEING FORMED FOR CONGRESSIONAL HEARING ON EQUINE SAFETY

Following a February Congressional hearing on steroids in sports and Eight Belles' catastrophic injury in May, Congress has taken up the cause of examining the Thoroughbred industry's practices as they relate to the breeding and safety of its equine athletes.

A Congressional hearing on equine health and safety issues is anticipated later this month. A witness list is being finalized and is expected to feature prominent trainers, breeders, owners, regulators, veterinarians, media and industry organizations.

The United States House Subcommittee on Commerce, Trade and Consumer Protection (CTCP) initiated the process by requesting information earlier this month from the industry on injury reporting systems and the industry's support of a national database of racetrack injuries. The subcommittee also is exploring the issues of medication, breeding practices and the need for a national/Federal racing body with regulatory powers.

Please visit www.SupportHorseRacing.org for news on the hearing date, witness list and telecast information.

McCarron to Pony Academy Grad at River Downs:

Hall of Fame rider Chris McCarron is returning to the saddle next Tuesday. Sort of. McCarron is scheduled to pony Jessica Oldham Stitc to post in the young rider's debut as a professional at River Downs in Ohio. Jessica, who has competed in and won amateur races, is the first graduate of the North American Racing Academy, the Lexington, Kentucky-based school that McCarron founded in 2006. Jessica has the pedigree to be a rider--her father is John Oldham, who rode at River Downs and is best known as the jockey of 1980 Blue Glass S. winner Rockhill Native. Her mother is Stone-wall Farm's Suzie Picou Oldham, a former jockey, equine photographer and bloodstock expert, whose father was Clarence Picou, an accomplished rider in Louisiana and Kentucky. During his visit to River Downs, McCarron, a two-time Eclipse Award winner, will make himself available to the public to "meet, greet and sign autographs or whatever memorabilia the fans may have," stated McCarron. "I just want to get the word out there about the Racing Academy and our mission while giving support to our first graduate." For more information about the academy, visit <http://nara.kctcs.edu/>.

Horse Park to Host Equine Adoption Fair:

On Saturday, June 28, the Kentucky Horse Park will host the first annual John Henry Memorial Equine Adoption Fair, named for the park's Hall of Famer who passed away last fall. The fair aims to find homes for unwanted horses by bringing together a number of equine adoption organizations to showcase their rescued, adoptable horses. It will also raise funds through a live and silent auction for the Kentucky Horse Council's Save Our Horses (SOHO) fund. The event will take place during the MidSouth Pony Club Mega Rally at the park, and in partnership with the Kentucky Horse Council (KHC). Ginny Grulke, executive director of the KHC said, "The Kentucky Horse Park's Equine Adoption Fair is just one example of the creative solutions we must all come up with to find new, safe homes for neglected horses. The Kentucky Horse Council is dedicated to assisting the unwanted horse, and we are proud to work with the Kentucky Horse Park in protecting Kentucky's signature animal, to which we owe so much." The public is invited, free of charge. Action gets underway at 6 p.m. For general information on the fair, call 859-233-4303; for horse information contact Tracy Walker at 859-259-4262 or twalker@kyhorsepark.com. KING GEORGE ATTRACTS FIFTY

Ascot's officials were pleased with the 50-strong entry for the July 26 G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. Aidan O'Brien supplies no less than 21 of the total, including Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith's G1 Coronation Cup winner Soldier of Fortune (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and four-time Group 1-winning filly Peeping Fawn (Danehill). While the sophomore challenge has been thin on the ground in recent years, this year's edition could see Princess Haya of Jordan's New Approach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) line up against Ballymacoll Stud's Tartan Bearer (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}) and Moyglare Stud's Casual Conquest (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}), the one-two-three in Saturday's G1 Epsom Derby. Also in the £850,000 showpiece are Youmzain (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}) and Get-away (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}), while Peter Rau intends to ship in Stall Avena's G1 Premio Presidente della Repubblica winner Saddex (GB) (Sadler's Wells). "He will run in the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud over a mile and a half on June 29 and, hopefully, if he comes out of that race in good form, he will go straight to Ascot from there," Rau said. "I think the mile-and-a-half distance will suit him well, since he won a Group 1 and two Group 2 races over that distance last season. He likes good or good-to-soft ground so, providing the going is not too fast, I hope that he can take his chance at Ascot." Further afield, Japan will have a representative in the form of Yoshida Kazumi's Roc de Cambes (NZ) (Red Ransom). Trainer Noriyuki Hori has reported the four-year-old on target for the contest following his third on his seasonal bow in the G1 Meguro Kinen H. at Tokyo June 1. "I started to think about the King George as the race for Roc de Cambes in December after the Arima Kinen," Hori revealed. "I spoke to Michael Kinane, who rode him on that occasion, and he said this horse has the class to compete at the top level in Europe, and that the King George would be the most suitable race for him."

As Roc de Cambes is a New Zealand-bred, he can enjoy a four-pound Southern Hemisphere allowance in the King George, which I think is a good advantage for him, and there is no suitable race for him in Japan over the summer. He is going to run in the G1 Takarazuka Kinen over 11 furlongs at Hanshin on June 29 and, provided he runs well there, the plan is for him to then travel to Newmarket." For Nick Smith, Ascot's head of public relations, the international presence in an already strong entry is a positive sign. "This year's King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. looks set to be a truly international race, with some of the top horses that Europe and the world has to offer racing against the best of Britain and Ireland," Smith said. "We are particularly pleased that the Japanese are set to have another runner in the race and I am certain that Roc de Cambes will continue the exceptionally high standard set by Heart's Cry in 2006."

TATTERSALLS JULY CATALOGUE ON-LINE

The 2008 Tattersalls July catalogue is now available on-line at www.tattersalls.com. Printed catalogues for the auction, which will take place from July 8 through 11, will be available starting Monday. A total of 915 broodmares, horses in training and yearlings are included in the catalogue. "With nearly 1000 lots catalogued, there will be no shortage of choice and value for money for buyers at the July Sale and the diversity will appeal to purchasers looking for top-class breeding stock or horses and fillies in training, either to go hurdling or to continue on the flat," commented Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony. "Recent American Grade II winner Rebellion (GB), a 30,000gns July purchase, and 100,000gns 2007 purchase Monzante, beaten a neck [in the G1 Charles Whittingham Memorial] at the weekend, are both fine advertisements for the sale and we are looking forward to welcoming buyers from throughout the world and to another successful sale."

ENCOSTA DE LAGO FILLY TOPS NATIONAL YEARLING SALE

Les Tinkler saw off challenges from Coolmore Stud and Dean Watt to secure the top-priced lot at yesterday's final select session of the Magic Millions National Yearling Sale on the Gold Coast. Tinkler, the father of Patinack Farm owner Nathan Tinkler, signed the ticket at A$335,000 for a daughter of Encosta de Lago (Aus) out of Top of the Market (Aus) (Danzero {Aus}) for his Serene Lodge. The yearling is closely related to multiple Group 1 winner Mnemosyne (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}). She was consigned by Southern Cross Breeders, the association of Thoroughbred nurseries Ashleigh, Byerley and Riversdale. "She was our pick of the sale," Tinkler said. "She's a lovely filly, really correct and has a great pedigree. And after her days on the track, she'll go well with [Nathan Tinkler's MGSW] Casino Prince (Aus)." Serene Lodge signed for 15 yearlings for a total of A$1,137,500 during the two-day auction. "We've purchased a great bunch of yearlings here over the past couple of days and she's the pick of them," Tinkler added. Over two days of bidding, Magic Millions sold 257 yearlings for an aggregate of A$7,779,000 and an average of A$20,268. "We've had a strong buying bench from around Australia and overseas here over a number of days and they've been busy buying horses to suit their budgets," said Magic Millions Managing Director David Chester. "Vendors with quality offerings have been justly rewarded with strong competition on their lots. The middle market, which has been the case with every sale in Australasia this year, has been tough throughout the sale. I'm sure those who've been buying in that area would be thrilled with their purchases and this sale in particular will be looked back on as one of the best value held in recent years." The marathon National Sale concludes today with an open yearling session beginning at 11 a.m. (QLD).
