THREE CHIMNEYS
The Idea is Excellence.

Best of Luck to Dynaformer's MICHITA in the Ribblesdale S. (G2) at Royal Ascot

'MARMALADE' TOASTS THEM!

Duke of Marmalade (Ire) (Danehill) attracted heavy support into even-money favoritism for yesterday's G1 Prince of Wales's S. and the cash flow was fully justified as Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's bay crushed the opposition to provide Ballydoyle with its third Group 1 success of the Royal meeting. Adding to wins in Longchamp's G1 Prix Ganay and the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup at The Curragh, the four-year-old turned on the power passing the quarter pole and soon had his rivals toiling en route to a four-length defeat of Phoenix Tower (Chester House). Jockey Johnny Murtagh was glowing in his praise afterwards. "He is up there with the best I've ridden," Murtagh said. "Aidan [O'Brien] has been getting him ready for this all year and today was the big target. I ride him a lot in his work and he's been showing speed and has really come good." Cont. p2

THE GOLD STANDARD

With three Group 1 races already in the bag for Ballydoyle this week, hopes will be high that Yeats (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) can make it a Royal meeting to remember in today's G1 Gold Cup. This contest has been the jewel in the crown since its inception in 1807 and, throughout its long history, only Sagaro (GB) has recorded three successes to eclipse multiple dual winners. Susan Magnier and Diane Nagle's seven-year-old, who was imperious in 2006 under Kieren Fallon and professional for Mick Kinane 12 months ago, is agonizingly close to equalling that milestone set in 1977. He warmed up with a win in the Listed Vintage Crop S. at Navan Apr. 27 and has been deliberately kept fresh for his historic bid. "He had a perfect start to the season and all has been well since then," O'Brien told Racing Post. "He has often had a run between his first run and Ascot, but we decided to come straight here this time. We will see tomorrow if that was the right decision, but he is in good form, and is older and wiser than last year." Jockey Johnny Murtagh had an additional message for his opponents. "I've sat on him at home and he's flying," he added. Gold Cup cont. p6

DIXIE DREAMER IS BUILT MUTAKDDIM FAST & MUTAKDDIM TOUGH

Multiple Stakes winner DIXIE DREAMER was precocious enough to win the Bassinet S. at 2 and fast enough and sound enough to win the U Can Do It H. at Calder on June 14, halfway through her 5YO season. She is the kind of tough and durable runner for which Mutakddim is well known.

Although it was only whispered in corners at the time and not backed up by connections, Duke of Marmalade was touted as Ballydoyle's best juvenile when he arrived at Glorious Goodwood for the G2 Vintage S. in August 2006. Injured after his second to Strategic Prince (GB) there, his long road back to full effectiveness was only beginning when fourth in both the G1 English and Irish 2000 Guineas last May. Runner-up in this meeting's G1 St James's Palace S. and fourth in York's G1 International S. in August, it took stable companion Dylan Thomas (Ire) to stop him in Leopardstown's G1 Irish Champion S. before he finished off with a third in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot the following month.

The bay posted a workmanlike first stakes score in the Apr. 27 Prix Ganay before turning back Finsceal Beo (Ire) in the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup at The Curragh May 25, and he took another leap forward with a career-best this time. Settled in a pocket against the rail tracking the strong pace set by his stable companion Red Rock Canyon (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), he was angled wide for his run at the top of the stretch where Pressing (Soviet Star) was traveling with ominous ease. Sweeping by that rival with an irresistible surge before the eighth pole, the result was settled in a matter of strides as Phoenix Tower and Pipedriver stayed on in his slipstream.

Horsephotos

"He's getting better and better," Aidan O'Brien said after greeting his first Prince of Wales's hero. "He had pins in his leg due to a bad fracture after Goodwood as a two-year-old, and we were never really able to train him last year because he was semi-lame all the time. He was probably carrying more weight than he should have been, and wasn't able to use himself the way he is this year.

Horsephotos

He's gone very athletic and is showing more pace, but looking at him today you'd say he wouldn't have a problem going further than a mile and a quarter as well, so he has a lot of options open to him. He's traveling and quickening better this year."

Duke of Marmalade's dam Love Me True, hailing from the Weekend Surprise family of A.P. Indy, et al, was acquired for $1.35 million at the 1999 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale. Racing in the colors of Susan Magnier, her career highlight for O'Brien was a third to stable-mate Perigee Moon in the 2000 G3 Killavullan S. PER-FECTION

France was on the scoresheet for the Royal meeting yesterday after Scuderia Zaro's Sabana Perdida (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) wore down favored Heaven Sent (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) to take the G2 Windsor Forest S. Following a near-miss with Darjina (Fr) in Tuesday's G1 Queen Anne S., trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre celebrated when his five-year-old charge claimed a 3/4-length success as the 4-1 second choice. "She's a very serious filly," de Royer-Dupre. "At the beginning of last year, she would always pull, but she is very calm now and able to wait before producing big acceleration."

Campaigned in Italy by Roberto Feligioni at two and three, Sabana Perdida placed third in the G2 Premio Regina Elena (Italian 1000 Guineas) at the Capannelle and fourth in the San Siro's G1 Oaks d'Italia in 2006. Transferred to de Royer-Dupre soon after, she took time to find her feet for her new base, and only truly broke through with a third behind Nannina (GB) and Satwa Queen (Fr) in this race 12 months ago. She showed she had turned a corner when taking Longchamp's G3 Prix du Pin in September, and returned with a smooth success in the May 10 G3 Chartwell Fillies' S. at Lingfield to warm up for a repeat bid here.

Breaking well and racing close to the early pace in the center of the track, she was swamped by Heaven Sent's acceleration inside the final quarter, but responded to the whip to reel in that drifting foe in the final strides.

Horsephotos

"She was very generous, as Heaven Sent was a length in front and I knew that a mile is as far as she wants to go," jockey Christophe-Patrice Lemaire commented. Connections of the winner are looking at the G1 Prix Rothschild at Deauville Aug. 3, while the runner-up's team were not too downcast.

"She's run a fantastic race," Cheveley Park Stud's Managing Director Chris Richardson told PA Sport. "To be fair, the winner loves this ground and we could have possibly done with a drop of rain. She'll be entered in the G1 Falmouth S. [at Newmarket July 9] now and, if she comes out of this race well, we will give that thought and consideration." Dr. Vincent O'Brien's Grecian Dancer, who stayed on strongly late to finish third, will now be retired as she is in foal to Galileo (Ire). Previously, the five-year-old captured the G3 Ridgewood Pearl S. May 24 at The Curragh.

LUSH LASH

John Hanly's Langs Lash (Ire) (Noverre) struck at the inflated odds of 25-1 to cause an upset in yesterday's G2 Queen Mary S. Runner-up in York's Listed Marygate S. last time May 16, the bay was always in the front line and battled in determined fashion under Alan Munro to see off the challenge of Shyrl (GB) (Acclamation {GB}) and score by a neck. "I thought she was my best chance of the week and that she would place, but she really finds," her rider said. "She's tough with a good mental attitude and it's like riding a colt--she's up for a fight."

Langs Lash won by four lengths on her debut at Folkestone May 1 before finding only Bahamian Babe (Bahamian Bounty {GB}) too strong at York. Breaking fast here, she was in front of her group which contained the smooth-traveling Shyrl, but was only level with Connie Mac, who was racing alone against the stands rail. Marginally in front approaching the final quarter, she was headed by Lucky Leigh (Piccolo {GB}) soon after, but rallied gamely to regain the advantage in the final strides as Shyrl made late progress.

"She showed so much speed that before I knew it I was at the two pole," Munro continued. "I asked her to quicken there, and she pulled out when it got down to a fight."

Trainer Mick Quinlan added, "It's great to win here and this was always the plan before she had run. She had no race at Folkestone and was drawn on the wrong side at York, where she got shell-shocked at halfway when asked to race before getting her head down. The Guineas mile would be stretching her stamina, but I always thought after this that we might look at the G2 Lowther S. [at York Aug. 21]."

Aqlaam sustained a serious knee injury when third in a strong maiden on debut at this track in July and, after being nursed back to the track, showed a smart turn of acceleration to win on his return at Newbury last time May 17. The cat was let out of the bag as he was the subject of strong support all morning, and it was clear that connections were expecting big things amongst a smart line-up, despite his inexperience. Traveling strongly in behind the early leaders under Richard Hills, the bay moved up to take command as the pace folded up front before the quarter pole, and was instantly tackled by Il

Warrd there. Holding that rival despite veering left across the track away from the whip, he was firmly on top in the closing stages. "I was very confident when he won at Newbury, and all he's done is please us and improve in the last six weeks," said Hills. "His last two bits of work were exceptional; this is a horse with a big future. He got me to the front quickly and Ascot is a big place, so he had a look around, but he's only had three runs and is still learning about the game." Trainer William Haggas added, "We've always liked him, but he broke his knee here last year and has been steadily prepared. He's come on a lot from his maiden; we'll see if we can go up from here." Saeed bin Suroor said of the runner-up, "Il Warrd ran very well--we are happy with how he did in the race. He was too keen in his last race, and this shorter trip of seven furlongs suited him better." Click for the Racing Post chart.

Did You Know?...

YEATS is one of 3 two-time winners of the Gold Cup in the last decade. The others are ROYAL REBEL (2001-02) and KAYF TARA (1998 & 2000).

This is one of the rare prizes to have eluded Khalid Abdullah, but Reefscape (GB) went closest two years ago when four lengths runner-up to the Ballydoyle giant Yeats. Reefscape's half-brother Coastal Path has much to recommend him here, having remained unbeaten at three and four through a quartet of pattern tests. He has looked stronger this term, and his commanding performances in Longchamp's Apr. 27 G3 Prix de Barbeville and May 18 G2 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier mark him as a serious threat to the favorite. "Andre [Fabre] has always had a high opinion of him, and being unbeaten in six is a tribute to his talent and to Andre's," the owner/breeder's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe said. "With two miles and four furlongs, we are going into unknown territory, but he has won most of his races comfortably, and we hope he has the class and stamina to last out. He has been in very good form, but this is really competitive--the blue riband of the meeting." Runner-up by 1 1/2 lengths last year, Mountgrange Stud's Geordieland is back for another crack at the title. Always a smooth traveller who does not always find as much as expected, the enigmatic grey has been called some names, but quashed some doubts with a deserved big-race triumph in the G2 Yorkshire Cup at York last time May 16. While he has had three unsuccessful tries against Yeats, trainer Jamie Osborne believes the turnaround could be imminent. "I think we know where we are with Yeats, who I think struggled a little bit on his first run, whereas Geordieland has come back better this year," Osborne offered. "We only have 1 1/2 lengths to find with him, and the way he is working and the evidence at York gives a strong argument that we are capable of bridging the gap. There is, however, the chance that Coastal Path is a very good horse and better than all of us." Godolphin, past masters at training Gold Cup winners, have a classy duo in Regal Flush and Sagara hoping to emulate Classic Cliche (Ire), dual hero Kayf Tara (GB) and Papineau (GB). Sagara was third in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp in October, but was dismal on his debut in the royal blue, finishing last in the Listed Tapster S. at Goodwood June 6, while Regal Flush needs to progress off his third in York's Listed Grand Cup 19 days ago.

Inaugurated in 1919 in honor of Thomas Lister, the fourth Baron Ribblesdale, this race is often used by those seeking consolation for the vanquished in the G1 Epsom Oaks. In the last 10 years, three winners of this contest--Punctilious (GB), Miletrian (Ire) and Bahr (GB)--were rebounding from that Classic. This time, the June 6 form is brought to the table by the sixth- and seventh-place finishers Cape Amber and Michita. Cape Amber was runner-up in the May 14 G3 Musidora S. at York prior to the Oaks, and trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam is hoping she will find this task easier. "I think she will run [today], as there is rain forecast," he said. "She performed well enough at Epsom for a relatively inexperienced filly. She came out of the Oaks fine, and we feels that she is worth another try over a mile and a half." Michita, who was going into the Oaks off an impressive win in the Listed Height of Fashion S. at Goodwood May 21, carries the hopes of the McNairs' Stonerside Stable. Their representative John Adger told PA Sport, "She is a big, leggy filly with quite a bit of ability. However, coming down the hill around Tattenham Corner she didn't handle the track, but made a nice run through the stretch and finished well." Trainer John Gosden is also represented by the "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Dar Re Mi. She missed Epsom after suffering minor cuts in the roughly run Musidora. Geoff Wragg, no stranger to success at this meeting, saddles an intriguing candidate in Arthur's Girl. She took a 10-furlong maiden at Salisbury last time May 15, and owner/breeder Anthony Oppenheimer's advisor Hugo Lascelles told PA Sport, "I wouldn't think the step up in trip would be a problem looking at the pedigree, but it's obviously a tough task for her to go for this after winning a maiden."

Originally known as the New S. and renamed for the 16th Duke of Norfolk in 1973, this speed test has been won by the likes of Magic Ring (Ire), Turtle Island (Ire), Mind Games (GB), Johannesburg and Dutch Art (GB). John Best saddles Listed Windsor Castle S. winner Flashmans Papers alongside the maiden Elegant Cad, and the former needs to prove that his impressive 100-1 success in Tuesday's race was no fluke. "He seems fine and although we'll wait to see how he is in the morning, he'll probably run in the Norfolk," Best told PA Sport. "I told a few people beforehand that he was certainly too big a price in the Windsor Castle and we were expecting him to run very well. I thought my other runner Mullionmleanhour might be the likelier one, but the draw bias worked against him and he was five lengths down on the stands-side horses at halfway. But I never thought Flashmans Papers was a no-hoper, and we had deliberately given him a break after his last race to make sure he strengthened up a little bit. He was showing us loads of pace in his first two races, but wasn't quite getting home. The break and fast ground helped him. He doesn't have the best of draws in the Norfolk, but there aren't so many runners in that so it shouldn't matter too much." Baycat, who collected the same Newbury maiden on debut as last year's winner Winker Watson (GB) on debut Apr. 18, went on to defy a subsequent penalty over this track and trip 12 days later. He faces a host of highly promising sorts headed by South Central, who looked flashy when taking his first start by 13 lengths at Carlisle June 2 and represents the Howard Johnson stable successful with Masta Plasta (Ire) three years ago.

SOLITAIRE ARRIVES FOR QUEEN'S PLATE

Solitaire (Victory Gallop) arrived at Woodbine from Saratoga yesterday ahead of his engagement in Sunday's Queen's Plate S. The gelding is still looking for his first win, but will likely be one of the favorites for Sunday's Classic off a strong runner-up effort in the

Solitaire M Burns

June 1 Plate Trial S. Trained by Jim Bond for owner William Clifton Jr, Solitaire debuted with a third-place effort over the Gulfstream lawn Apr. 14. "The plan was to run him on the grass," Bond said of the chestnut's career opener. "I worked him on both surfaces, but I liked the way he moved on the grass. He was a little bit light in the rear end and I needed to strengthen it. So I thought this was the best way to get him started." Making just his second start and switching to Polytrack, Solitaire closed stoutly to just miss catching

Not Bourbon by a neck in the Trial. "I thought he ran a great race [in the Trial]," Bond added. "The greenness might have got him beat. He was getting to the other horse. Another jump or two and he might have got it. He came out of the race good." Solitaire would become the first maiden to win the Queen's Plate since Scatter the Gold in 2000. "The good ones make us all look good," admitted Bond. "He's got a lot of raw talent, but we had to be a little delicate with him in the beginning. Hopefully, he's going to reward us for it." Solitaire, a $250,000 KEESEP yearling, worked five furlongs over the Oklahoma training track at Saratoga June 14 in 1:02.2. Clifton, part-owner of the investment firm The Clifton Group, has campaigned graded stakes winners Behrens and Will's Way.

Don Cherry, co-host of Hockey Night in Canada's Coach's Corner, is the honorary drawmaster for today's Queen's Plate post position draw. The weather forecast for Toronto on Plate Day calls for sunny skies with a high of 25 degrees Celsius (77F).

ZAFTIG TO MISS MOTHER GOOSE Susan Moore and M & M Thoroughbred Partners' Zaftig (Gone West), who notched her first Grade I with a victory over Indian Blessing in the Acorn S. June 7, will miss an intended start in the GI Mother Goose S. June 28 due to a foot bruise, Daily Racing Form reports. Zaftig was set to clash with divisional leader Proud Spell (Proud Citizen) in the Mother Goose. The GI Kentucky Oaks heroine worked five furlongs in 1:01 flat yesterday at Fair Hill Training Center. Trained by Jimmy Jerkens, Zaftig has won three of five lifetime, including the GIII Nassau County BC S. at Belmont May 3. Zaftig earned a 113 Beyer for her Acorn win, the best number awarded to a sophomore of either sex this year. Jerkens told DRF the foot bruise occurred shortly after the Acorn and the big grey filly, after walking the shed row for several days, is nearing a return to training.

TOC BOARD ENDORSES THG MODEL The Board of Directors for the Thoroughbred Owners of California expressed their confidence in the Thoroughbred Horsemen's Group, voting unanimously to endorse THG's negotiating model and to authorize the horsemen's group to represent TOC in upcoming simulcast negotiations, including those involving advanced deposit wagering. In a TOC press release, the organization's Vice President Mace Siegel said, "Owners, and all other horsemen for that matter, have been at a disadvantage for years in terms of the negotiation of simulcast and ADW contracts. We have been intentionally excluded from the process by the vast majority of racetracks and ADW providers, and it shows. Simulcast revenue allocations are still founded on an outdated financial model, which disproportionately benefits those who do not contribute as much to the industry as do horsemen." TOC Chair Marsha Naify added, "Let's face it, racing is an interstate business, and becomes more so every day. To succeed and prosper, the industry must accept that reality, and manage the business as such. THG is the ideal vehicle to efficiently negotiate and manage the horsemen's side of the simulcast business, and could certainly do so for track partners were they inclined to objectively and honestly look at what it is THG proposes and stands for." Since last October, TOC and the California Horse Racing Board permitted all licensed ADW providers and tracks access to California Thoroughbred race signals, an experiment that ends at the beginning of the Del Mar meeting July 16. "The experiment was widely seen as a positive development for players, the ADW companies, and for the industry in general," said TOC President Drew J. Couto, who is also vice president of THG. "As a result, TOC has indicated to track partners its support for continuation of the experiment through the 2008 Oak Tree meet, which would allow us to properly evaluate the experiment's impact on all California Thoroughbred meets, through one full year. In the absence of an agreement to extend the experiment, the TOC Board has authorized THG to immediately begin negotiating alternative arrangements with ADW companies, beginning with the Del Mar meet." THG currently represents 18 horsemen's groups in 16 jurisdictions, including the Kentucky and Florida Horsemen Benevolent Protections Associations.

PEACE RULES FILLYS TOPS OBS JUNE FINALE

A filly by first-crop sire Peace Rules realized top price of $250,000 at Wednesday's finale of the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's June Sale of two-year-olds in training in Ocala, Florida. Purchased by Arch Bloodstock, acting as agent for Avalon Farm, the bay was offered by Shadybrook Farm, Inc. (Michael Yeats). Hip 455, out of the All Gone mare Long Gone Lady, covered three-eighths of a mile in :33 2/5, the co-fastest time at the distance during Sunday's breeze show. The New York-bred, who is from the family of GSW's Erica's Dream and Twosies Answer, is a half sister to stakes placed Britten's Beauty (Doneraile Court). At the conclusion of the two-day sale, 352 juveniles sold for a total of $7,720,700, compared with 308 youngsters grossing $6,794,900 at last year's June Sale. The average price was $21,934, while the median price was $13,000. Thirty two horses sold for $50,000 or more compared with 33 in 2007. Fourteen sold for $100,000 or more compared with nine last year. Stats p3

BC ADDS FOUR “WIN AND YOU’RE IN” RACES

Breeders’ Cup officials announced four additional races to the 2008 “Win and You’re In” program, bringing this year’s total to 57. In 2007, 24 races gave their winners automatic berths in the championships. Three of the new races are for the inaugural $500,000 BC Marathon, which will be conducted at 1 1/2 miles for three-year-olds and up, while the $1-million BC Dirt Mile now has a qualifying race in the Tiznow S. at Louisiana Downs Sept. 20. The Breeders’ Cup will be held this year at Santa Anita Oct. 24-25. The Gill Turfway Park Fall Championship, previously run at a mile, will now be contested at 12 furlongs in order to serve as a prep for the Marathon. www.breederscup.com

KETTLEONEUP RETIRED; IN FOAL TO

BERNARDINI Multiple graded stakes winner Kettleoneup (Victory Gallop--Bugs Rabbit, by Storm Cat), retired from racing after sustaining an injury in the May 2 GII Louisville H., is now in foal to Bernardini. “She chipped an ankle in the Louisville H. and she was retired,” confirmed trainer Mike Tomlinson. The five-year-old mare captured last year’s GII Falls City H. and GIII Sixty Sails H. On the board in 15 of 21 starts, Kettleoneup won seven races for owner Tom Crouch and earned $659,297.

NYC OTB BILL INCLUDES TAKEOUT INCREASE

The legislation that gives New York State control of the NYC Off-Track Betting Corporation includes a short-term 1-percent increase in the takeout on races run at New York Racing Association tracks, and could also bump up the takeout by 1 percent when a bettor in New York wagers on an out-of-state simulcast, the Daily Racing Form reports. The revenue generated by the increase is expected to help stabilize the New York racing industry. Under the terms of the bill, it will expire in two years. The 1-percent takeout raise on NYRA races will go into effect after the Saratoga meet. To offset the effects of that increase for its Rewards Program customers, NYRA will offer higher rebates. “Our plan is to at least make those customers whole, and we may even try to make it a little better for them,” NYRA CEO Charlie Hayward told DRF. The increase in the out-of-state takeout for New York bettors may be harder to implement, as that rate is set by contract, and it would require new contracts with the various out-of-state tracks to change it. In addition, the company taking the bet does not traditionally keep all of the revenue from an increase, but instead shares it with the track hosting the races on which the bets are being placed. That would decrease the financial benefit that the provision was hoped to provide to both NYRA and NYC OTB.

SUBCOMMITTEE HEARING SET FOR TODAY

Reacting to the Eight Belles tragedy, and what they, in a press release, termed, "growing concerns about the health and well-being of Thoroughbred racehorses and the integrity of the sport," the Congressional Subcommittee on Commerce, Trade, and Consumer Protection will hold a hearing today entitled, "Breeding, Drugs, and Breakdowns: The State of Thoroughbred Horseracing and the Welfare of the Thoroughbred Racehorse." To gather information regarding breeding and medication practices in advance of the hearing, the Subcommittee sent questionnaires to the Association of Racing Commissioners International, Churchill Downs Inc., The Jockey Club, Magna Entertainment Corp and the New York Racing Association. The questionnaires and responses were posted on the Subcommittee's website Wednesday. Questionnaires can be viewed by clicking here, or at <http://energycommerce.house.gov>. The responses are available by clicking here. The witness list for the hearing includes TJC President Alan Marzelli, Stone Farm President Arthur Hancock, Stonestreet Farm owner Jess Jackson, NTRA CEO Alex Waldrop, and trainers Jack Van Berg and Rick Dutrow Jr. A link to the audio, to be broadcast on the web, will be available by clicking here beginning at 10 a.m. Thursday.

Saratoga Meet Gets Off to Jumping Start:

The 2008 racing season at Saratoga will begin with the newly created Saratoga Jump Start, a program to benefit the National Steeplechase Foundation and the Wesley Foundation. Scheduled for July 20, the 22nd annual open house features an expanded five-race card worth $100,000. Four jump races will showcase Thoroughbreds prepping for the seven steeplechase races scheduled throughout the regular Saratoga meeting. There will be a cocktail party July 19 at the National Museum of Racing and a Sunday luncheon in the Clubhouse Terrace dining room for Jump Start participants. There are three levels of participation--$5,000 for a package for eight people, $2,000 for four, $1,000 for two--and 75 percent of the contribution is tax-deductible. "We have created an event within an event," said Lou Raffetto, the NSA's chief executive officer. "The idea is to boost the racing program, showcase steeplechasing, generate some additional local interest and--of course--raise money for two great charities. Long-term, we could adapt this model to other racetracks around the country. We are excited about this." General admission to Saratoga is free on Open House Day and there will be vendor tents, music, handicapping seminars and other events scheduled throughout the day. For more information on the Saratoga Jump Start, contact Mary Guessford at (410) 392-0700 or visit www.nationalsteeplechase.com.

Acoma Big Apple Bound:

Acoma (Empire Maker), who captured the Gill Dogwood S. May 31 last out, will likely make her next start in New York. The Helen Alexander and Helen Groves colorbearer breezed a half in :48 Monday at Churchill. "It will be either the [GI] Mother Goose [June 28] or the [GI] Coaching Club American Oaks [July 19] and then on to the [GI] Alabama [Aug. 16]," said trainer David Carroll. "She would not run in both." The Mother Goose is at nine panels, while both the CCA Oaks and the Alabama are contested at 10 furlongs. "I would think the longer the better for her," Carroll added. The half-sister to GISW Arch won a pair of 8 1/2-furlong races before taking the one-mile Dogwood.

Racecard Rhapsody Sold to Overseas Interests:

Racecard Rhapsody (Tale of the Cat--Reflect the Music, by A.P. Indy) was purchased privately and was scratched out of yesterday's seventh race at Churchill Downs, an 8 1/2-furlong allowance in which he was the even-money favorite on the morning line. Trainer Ken McPeck did not disclose the colt's new owners, but told reporters he "looks to be going to Dubai." Third in the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. last fall, the bay has finished fourth in each of his three outings this season: the GII Lane's End S. Mar. 22, GII Coolmore Lexington S. Apr. 19 and GI Preakness S. May 17. Previously campaigned by former Turfway Park owner Jerry Carroll, Stan Kaplan, Ronald Plattner and Mark Guilfoyle, Racecar Rhapsody's record stands at 7-1-1-1 with a bankroll of $208,391. "This was a good deal for Jerry and his partners," McPeck added. "We hate not to run him, but all this came together after he had been entered in this race."

Break for Brass Hat:

Brass Hat (Prized) exited his fifth-place finish to Curlin in last Saturday's GI Stephen Foster H. in good shape, but will be given some time to regroup. "I am going to give him at least three weeks off, maybe six," said trainer Buff Bradley. "I haven't decided where to run next, but I'd like to go back to the Massachusetts Handicap [Sept. 20], and I'd like to find a race for him before the Mass Cap." Now seven, the veteran gelding captured the Suffolk Downs contest last year. Bradley added, "I am not down on him. His two turf races [before the Foster] were pretty good. I think he has still got it. Maybe he is not as good as he was at five, but I think he is still capable of competing at that level."

Keeneland to Offer High-Definition Simulcasts:

Beginning this fall, Keeneland will offer high-definition of live races and of limited simulcasts, which will debut opening day of the fall meeting Oct. 3. HD broadcasts of Keeneland's live meet will be available via its on-track television monitors, infield LED tote board, and some HD-compatible telecasts, including ESPN. "Sports fans are demanding more HD programming--it's a dynamic format and that is perfect for Thoroughbred racing," said G.D. Hieronymus, Keeneland's director of broadcast services. "Nothing rivals the excitement of being at the track, but watching horse racing in HD comes close." Keeneland is currently putting the finishing touches on the second of a three phases project, aimed at installing infrastructures necessary to support HD technology. The process began in 2006.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a + will indicate first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races.

 A creditable third in a competitive 10-furlong handicap at Lingfield on his penultimate start May 2, Mr Aviator was unsuited by the unique undulations when finishing a remote 10th in a similar event at Epsom last time June 6. Prominent early while racing in the second rank of the stands-side group here, he was asked for his effort three furlongs out. Embroiled in a three-way tussle at the quarter pole, he eventually asserted 50 yards from the line to score in gutsy fashion. "We were going to run him in the mile-and-a-quarter [Wolferton] handicap tomorrow, but the way he came down the hill at Epsom [Richard] Hughes said he'd be better on a straight course," revealed trainer Richard Hannon. "I nearly took him out this morning because of the ground, but the way he's run today he's a Listed horse so we'll head that way over a mile or 10 furlongs." Reflecting on the trip, jockey Richard Hughes added, "I thought the good ones were on the other side, so I thought I'd make all on the rail and die with my boots on. I couldn't keep going [the fast pace] after a furlong and let four or five past me. I got a good lead from Docofthebay and he stuck his head out well in the final furlong although he was tired. I thought the winning post would never come. He's genuine, but when he's done his work he thinks that's enough. He's a very good all-weather horse because it's a nice level surface without humps and bumps, and he just struggles with his back a bit. He's an ideal 10-furlong horse."

INGLIS TO OFFER SPECIAL SUPPLEMENTAL

ENTRY A lifetime breeding right to the successful dual-hemisphere stallion More Than Ready (Southern Halo--Woodman's Girl, by Woodman) will be offered at the tail end of the inaugural Inglis Australian Weanling and Breeding Stock Sale Sunday, June 29. Offered on behalf of U.S. champion trainer Todd Pletcher, who conditioned More Than Ready during his racing career, the lifetime breeding right enables the winning bidder to send a mare to the stallion during both the Northern and Southern Hemisphere breeding seasons. Catalogued as lot 659, it will be offered between the dispersals of Tyreel Stud and Risdon Stud. "This is a fantastic addition to the Australian Weanling and Breeding Stock sale and we are delighted that Todd has elected to sell the breeding right with us," William Inglis Managing Director Mark Webster said. "Given that the stallion is oversubscribed and there are no nominations available in this country, as well as the fact he continues to do well in the Northern Hemisphere, there should be considerable interest from a number of breeders around the world. Anyone that is interested in the breeding right should contact Byron Rogers in our office prior to the sale to understand the terms and conditions of the sale of this right." More Than Ready is standing for a current fee of A$110,000 at Vinery Australia and was offered at $60,000 at Vinery's Kentucky nursery.
