THREE CHIMNEYS
The Idea is Excellence.

Point Given's SILVER JAG to Run in Today's $1,000,000 Queen's Plate

SETTING SAIL

Team Valor's Sailor's Cap (Distant View) catapulted to the lead in the stretch after making a strong four-wide move on the turn for home to annex yesterday's GIII Colonial Turf Cup S. by 6 3/4 lengths over Nistle's Crunch (Van Nistelrooy) in a driving rain storm. The bay was settled in fifth for most of the way beneath GI Belmont S.-winning jockey Alan Garcia as Kentucky Bear (Mr. Greeley) set an uncontested pace. Garcia asked his charge to quicken on the turn for home and Sailor's Cap delivered, running away to post a dominating victory. "He settled in nicely down the backside and once he made that move it was like, 'Oh, my God!' he just circled those horses," trainer Jimmy Toner told Daily Racing Form. "He loves that kind of ground, and he's just an improving horse." Sailor's Cap, a maiden winner over the Aqueduct turf last November, finished eighth behind Adriano (A.P. Indy) in a Gulfstream allowance Jan. 11. Freshened following that effort, he resurfaced to add a Keeneland allowance by three lengths Apr. 6 and entered the Colonial Turf Cup following a good second to Tizdejavu in the GIII American Turf S. at Churchill May 2.

GOING NATIVE

After a juvenile campaign highlighted by success in the G1 Nunthorpe S., Kingsgate Native (Ire) (Mujadil) proved he was no one-hit wonder when springing a 33-1 shock under Seb Sanders in yesterday's G1 Golden Jubilee S. John Mayne's imposing colt, who will stand at Cheveley Park Stud at the end of his career, failed to make any impact in Tuesday's G1 King's Stand S., but showed marked improvement here to overhaul War Artist (Aus) (Orpen) and score by 1 1/4 lengths. "I thought 33-1 was a crazy price for a Nunthorpe winner beforehand," trainer John Best commented. "He ran with the choke out earlier in the week and had only had one canter since, so he's done well to come back so quickly." Cont. p2

SALUTE THE GENERAL

Capping a golden week at the Royal meeting for Ballydoyle, Macarthur (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) got up in the dying strides to deny Multidimensional (Ire) (Danehill) by a neck in yesterday's G2 Hardwicke S. Having produced a career-best when third to Soldier of Fortune (Ire) in Epsom's G1 Coronation Cup 15 days ago, Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's four-year-old had to knuckle down to pass Multidimensional and justify 11-8 favoritism, but proved equal to the task under a red-hot Johnny Murtagh. "This is what we strive for and it means everything--when we achieve this sort of standard, everybody's very happy," Tabor said. Cont. p3

Margins: 1 1/4, 3/4, 2 1/4. Odds: 33-1, 8-1, 20-1. Kingsgate Native is all about sheer class and professionalism, which is exemplified in his race record alone. Tearing up all the rule books last year, his enterprising connections came straight to this meeting for a baptism of fire in the Listed Windsor Castle S., and he went within a head of justifying their boldness when second. He filled the same spot when a neck behind the subsequent G1 Cheveley Park S. runner-up Fleeting Spirit (Ire) in the G3 Molecomb S. at Goodwood the following month, and he chose the elaborate stage of York's Nunthorpe to break his maiden in August. As an already physically mature juvenile, he was receiving 24 pounds from the runner-up Desert Lord (GB) due to the weight-for-age scale applied in that contest, and an air of scepticism surrounded the true merit of that performance. He silenced some of the doubts with another second--in receipt of 17 pounds from Benbaun (Ire)--in the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp in October, but even his trainer had expressed concern that as a three-year-old without that advantage, he might struggle. After only beating three home in Tuesday's feature sprint, he had questions to answer, but did so in decisive fashion here on his first try at six furlongs. Keen early tracking the 4-1 favorite Takeover Target (Aus) (Celtic Swing {GB}) and War Artist on the stands side, the bay launched his challenge approaching the final furlong. As the latter edged past the tiring Australian raider, it was Kingsgate Native who proved strongest, and he ground his way to the front in the final 150 yards. "He was a bit keen early, so it took me a while to get him in a rhythm and settle him, but once he was he carried me very easily to the two," the winning jockey said.

War Artist's Australian connections were not downcast afterwards. "He has run very well, and Kerrin [McEvoy] gave him a great ride and tracked the right horse in Takeover Target," trainer James Eustace commented. "He followed him through and it nearly paid off. But full credit to John Best for winning with a three-year-old. We will go to the G1 July Cup [at Newmarket July 11] next, and then give serious thought to the Global Sprint Challenge." Gerry Galligan's Sir Gerry (Carson City), who made up late ground to finish third, is also set to contest the Darley-sponsored July Cup alongside Takeover Target, who Joe Janiak reported may have been jarred up by the fast surface when running in the King's Stand on the opening day. Hughie Morrison also pointed to ground conditions for the flop of Sakhee's Secret (GB) (Sakhee), who trailed in last. "He was never going on the ground," Morrison explained. "He was beaten too easily, and the only time he had run a bad race before was here on loose ground last year." As a full brother to the brilliant 2005 G1 Epsom Derby hero Motivator (GB), Macarthur had a lot to recommend him before he set foot on a racecourse. When he finally emerged at Navan at the end of the following October, he was straight into the winning groove. The bay was well-supported for the Derby the next spring, and took the classic Ballydoyle route of Leopardstown's G3 Ballysax S. and G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial, but failed to break through when third in both contests.

Missing Epsom due to a minor setback, he returned to finish third again in York's G2 Great Voltigeur S. in August before finishing sixth, beaten just over two lengths, despite a troubled trip in Doncaster's G1 St Leger the following month. He was allowed an easy time on desperate ground on his four-year-old bow when down the field in The Curragh's Apr. 13 Listed Alleged S., but stepped up on a faster surface to win the G3 Ormonde S. by four lengths at Chester May 9. Macarthur almost gave Soldier of Fortune the slip at Epsom last time and only surrendered to that rival and Youmzain (Ire) in the final furlong, confirming his progressive profile. Restrained in fourth early off this generous tempo, he was angled out for his rally before the final turn as Ted Durcan sent Multidimensional into the clear. Gathering in that rival with every stride, he was pushed to the limit as the eventual runner-up maintained a relentless gallop, but proved marginally the stronger in the final drive. "I thought he did very well to quicken up, and Johnny was very good on him," Aidan O'Brien commented. "He was very well after Epsom, but his last two runs have been close enough, so we might give him a little rest now."

HAT'S OFF!

At the end of a vintage week, a Royal winner was required to put the icing on the cake and so it proved as the Queen's homebred colt Free Agent (GB) (Dr Fong) registered a 2 1/4-length success in the Listed Chesham S. Highly impressive when winning on debut at Leicester June 2, the bay struggled for early pace, but finished off strong to defeat the other 7-2 joint-favorite Seaway (GB) (Dr Fong) and rouse the crowds. "The Queen loves her breeding and, as he passed the post, she just said, 'I've done it!'," said her Racing Manager John Warren.

Few of the Queen's runners score on debut, so when Free Agent got off the mark at the first attempt with a fluent five-length success at Leicester, the excitement was mounting ahead of this vital staging post. Failing to follow the script early on, the bay languished in rear and appeared tapped for speed, and was struggling by halfway.

However, he picked up when Richard Hughes got urgent soon after, and found the gaps through to lead passing the eighth pole before drawing away for his owner/breeder's 20th success at the meeting. "This is big," his rider said. "To ride one a winner here for the Queen is special. Me and Richard [Hannon] were worried about the ground, but cantering to post I knew we would be okay as he floated down. I jumped okay, but got squeezed out after a furlong and a half, and then was behind. In the last furlong, I needed him to stick his head out, and although he was getting tired, he did so." He is the first Royal winner at this meeting since Blueprint (Ire) in the 1999 Duke of Edinburgh S. "This was the objective, but Richard did remind the Queen that he is in the Derby, so we'll see how he gets on and take it one step at a time," Warren added.

Royal Meeting Ends on a High...

Officials at Ascot celebrated a record crowd for the final day of the five-day meeting. With a figure of 70,675 in attendance yesterday, the meeting total stood at 287,876, which represented an increase on last year's 275,090. "To break the 70,000 mark for today's crowd is tremendous news, and it is remarkable how popular the final day of Royal Ascot has become," the track's Chief Executive Charles Barnett said. "Needless to say, this is a record final-day crowd, which is remarkable as the fifth day only came into play in 2002." At the close of play, there were no surprises in the leading trainer and jockey titles, and Aidan O'Brien paid tribute to Johnny Murtagh following their six successes throughout the week highlighted by four Group Ones, including a third Gold Cup triumph for Yeats (Ire). Murtagh added, "As you can see from my reaction this week, I am really enjoying my job, and I'm working with brilliant people. I thought it might be a good week coming here, but you never believe it unless it happens and the winners just kept rolling in."

Mauralakana, runner-up in the 2006 GI QE II Cup at Keeneland, closed out her tenure for Patrick Biancone with a sixth-place finish behind the ill-fated Nashoba's Key in the GI Yellow Ribbon S. Sept. 29. Sold for $900,000 at KEENOV, she has been almost unbeatable since moving to the Christophe Clement barn this term, starting the year off with a tally in Gulfstream's GIII Very One H. Mar. 8. The bay was second-best in the GIII Orchid H. Mar. 30, then reeled off two straight in Calder's Mairzy Doates H. Apr. 26 and Belmont's GII Sheepshead Bay H. May 24. Kept within striking distance here, Mauralakana was guided to the three path on the turn for home and grinded her way to a narrow victory. "The ground is a little more glib than last time," jockey Kent Desormeaux said. "She kicked just as hard; unfortunately, so did they. It turned into a fight, a battle, and she kept going. She's something else, man. She lets the rider know when she's ready to go. It's not a ridiculous pull, but she's on the bridle. She's well trained." Clement added, "We got a little spoiled because last time she won by three lengths. Today, she won the race in a matter of strides. Kent knows her well, and rides her with a lot of confidence. The others finished well." Click for the brisnet.com chart, the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Lady Digby hit the board in all five of her previous starts this term, including a well-beaten second behind champion Dreaming of Anna in the GIII Hillsborough S. on GIII Tampa Bay Derby day. She followed with a narrow victory in Laurel's Dahlia S. Apr. 12, and was most recently second in the GIII Gallorette H. at Pimlico May 17. Settled in third as Eclisse enjoyed a five-length lead through a half mile in :48.84, she was asked to quicken three deep on the turn for home by Jeremy Rose. As the rain continued to soak the Colonial turf course, the Earle Mack colorbearer gained command in mid-stretch and drew away impressively.

Tiz West, second to Behindatthebar in a seven-furlong Cushion Track maiden Feb. 2, missed by a half-length when third in his first route attempt over that surface Mar. 1 at Santa Anita. He graduated in front-running fashion when switched to the grass Mar. 24 and promptly added the La Puente S. Apr. 12. After jumping shadows in the GIII Will Rogers S. May 17 over this course, the bay finished fourth by two lengths, and was consequently equipped with a shadow roll this time. The homebred raced in third early as Will Rogers winner Polonius (Broken Vow) led, then made an eye-catching move while three wide on the far turn. Ez Dreamer came up on his outside and looked to be going the better of the two, but Tiz West dug in gamely on the rail and put his nose down at the right time. A claim of foul by the runner-up for interference on the backstretch was disallowed. Diamond A acquired his dam--a full sister to Horse of the Year Tiznow, et al--for $625,000 at KEENOV in 2002.

PLATE TRIAL TOP THREE RETURN

The first three finishers in the June 1 Plate Trial S.-- Not Bourbon, Solitaire and Sebastian's Song--meet again in today's Queen's Plate at Woodbine. Not Bourbon was making his first attempt around two turns in the nine-furlong Plate Trial, which he annexed by a neck over the maiden Solitaire. Sebastian's Song, a winner of his first two starts, bounced back well from a sixth-place finish to complete the trifecta at 20-1 last time.

Woodbine leading rider Jim McAleney picks up the mount on Jungle Brew for Eibar Coa, who suffered a rib injury at Belmont Park Friday. The Stronach homebred has finished a rallying second in both of his career starts. "I'm extremely grateful to [trainer] Brian [Lynch] and Team Stronach for this opportunity," said McAleney. "Brian has done a wonderful job with this horse, and I believe we have as good a chance as anyone to win the race." Ginger Brew, the lone filly in the field, has finished no worse than second in six trips to post. She enters riding a three-race winning streak, including the grassy Calder Oaks Apr. 26 and the Woodbine Oaks June 8.

GOLDSVILLE (c, 3, Successful Appeal--House d'Or, by Housebuster), a half-brother to Chez Audra (Northern Afleet), MSP, $261,490, finished fourth to Bordeaux Bandit going a mile at Gulfstream Jan. 12 before finishing third in a similar event Feb. 8. The Florida-bred broke through in his third try over track and trip Mar. 8 before heading back to the Big Apple. Fourth over a sloppy track in a 6 1/2-furlong Belmont allowance May 16, he went postward as the 7-2 second choice to 1-2 Mucho Macho (Macho Uno) in this affair. The bay came away alertly and was shadowed by the favorite through splits of :22.73 and :45.59. He put that rival away in front of the stands and went on to hand him a 4 1/2-length defeat. Goldsville was a $140,000 FTKNOV weanling and a $175,000 FTKJUL yearling. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Lifetime Record: 7-2-0-2, $80,950.

BIG AL (c, 3, Repent--Alphabulous {GSW, $262,939}, by Alphabatim) failed to score last season, but capped off his juvenile campaign when third by a head in a state-bred stakes on the calder turf Nov. 10. Sidelined for five months after that effort, the dark bay colt finished fifth in his comeback attempt on the Big A lawn Apr. 17. He was the 5-2 chalk in an off-the-turf affair at Belmont June 4, but raced evenly over the sloppy strip to be fourth. Off at 4-1 this time, Big Al closed from third to take over inside the eighth pole and out-gunned 20-1 Cherokee Speed (Cherokee Run) for a half-length tally. The winner was a $42,000 OBSOCT weanling and sold twice as a two-year-old--for $23,000 at OBSFEB and for $25,000 at FTMMAY. Lifetime Record: SP, 8-1-1-2, $68,890.

2nd-BEL, $52,000, Msw, 3yo/up, 6f, 1:09 3/5, ft. SAMMARCO (g, 4, Johannesburg--Lady Ballado, by Saint Ballado) returned after nearly 15 months on the shelf to finished second at Belmont Park May 17 and was hammered down to 4-5 to score in his second start back. Jockey Channing Hill sent the dark bay gelding right to the lead. Pressured by Golden Weekend (Golden Missile) through a half in :45.28, he pulled clear of that rival down the lane, beating him home by 2 3/4 lengths. The winner was a $160,000 KEENOV weanling and a $240,000 KEESEP yearling. Lifetime Record: 4-1-2-0, $49,580. O-Barry K Schwartz. B-Win More Farm (KY). T-Michael E Hushion.

Bustin Stones Back in Action; Vanderbilt Next:

Unbeaten Bustin Stones (City Zip), last seen posting a game victory in the GI Carter H. Apr. 5, returned to the worktab Friday with a four-furlong move in :50 over the Belmont training track. He will now target the GII Vanderbilt H. at Saratoga July 26, according to Daily Racing Form. The New York-bred posted two workouts after the Carter Apr. 21 and Apr. 26, then was placed on the shelf. "He got sick and then was over it in a week, then he just wasn't doing any good," trainer Bruce Levine told DRF. "He stopped eating--I don't know why --went into a funk that lasted 10 days. He went about three weeks without doing much."

Bridgmohan Day-to-Day After First-Race Spill:

Jockey Shaun Bridgmohan sustained minor injuries in a spill in yesterday's first race at Churchill Downs. Nearing the sixteenth pole, the 3-5 favorite Vinstar (Vindication--Fashion Star, by Chief's Crown) took a bad step. Bridgmohan tried to pull the colt up, but the pair fell, and the reinsman appeared to be kicked by another horse while attempting to roll under the rail. The Jamaica native was taken to first aid with pain in his left leg and right arm, then was taken to Norton Audubon Hospital in Louisville for precautionary x-rays. "He's a little banged up, but the good news is nothing broken," said agent Doc Danner. "I just came from the hospital and he was getting dressed and ready to leave. He has some cuts and scrapes and we'll just take it day to day and, hopefully, he will be back to riding soon." A half-brother to GISW Eddington, Vinstar suffered sesamoid fractures in both forelegs and a dislocated right front fetlock and was euthanized, according to Dr. Lafe Nichols, the state veterinarian for the Kentucky Horse Racing Authority. The $700,000 KEESEP yearling was campaigned by Stonestreet Stables. Central Report cont. p4

Tizdejavu Arlington Bound:

Tizdejavu (Tiznow) will take his perfect two-for-two turf record to Arlington next for the GII American Derby July 12. After taking the GIII Crown Royal American

Reed Palmer

Turf S. in his grass bow May 2, the bay colt wired his foes by four lengths in the GII Jefferson Cup S. June 14. Both races were at Churchill. "It is a shame there are no other races here, because he really loves this course," admitted trainer Greg Fox. The veterinarian-turned-conditioner added, "He came out of the race in great shape. We are looking at a race in Chicago...that will give us four weeks between races. I only like to look one race ahead, but if he handles the course well up there, we'd look at the [GI] Secretariat [Aug. 9 at Arlington]. That is our main goal for the summer."

Itsallboutthechase ended 2007 with a nose victory in an optional claimer at Turfway Dec. 15, but finished off the board in his 2008 opener, the Dust Commander S. Feb. 16. Third when moved to the turf for an optional test at Churchill Apr. 26, he was adding blinkers after a seventh-place showing June 8. The longest shot in this seven-horse field, he rated in fifth through a half in :45.59 and edged closer around the far turn. The bay went after the lead as they raced past the quarter pole and held favored Cowtown Cat at bay to the wire. The runner-up was looking for his first victory since taking the GII Illinois Derby 14 months ago.

An eight-length winner of the Gill Selene S. last May, Bear Now defeated her elders in this contest a year ago before finishing fourth in the Gill Delaware Oaks in July. She bounced back with a victory in Woodbine's Duchess S. the following month and upended odds-on Octave in the Gill Fitz Dixon Cotillion H. Sept. 22 at Philly Park. Her sophomore season ended with an eighth in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff Oct. 27 at Monmouth. A narrow second in her 2008 opener, the Gill Whimsical S. Apr. 20 at Woodbine, the dark bay lost the lead late when third in the Gill Allaire duPont Distaff S. May 17 at Pimlico, but the third time proved to be the charm here. The Bear Stable colorbearer assumed her customary spot on the front end, opened a three-length advantage approaching the eighth pole and held sway late over the rallying Serenading. Reversing the trend of low-drawn winners at this meeting, Big Timer defied the widest stall of 28 to capture this prestigious prize. Formerly trained by Ian Semple, the flashy chestnut burst onto the scene at two with a clear-cut win in York's G3 Acomb S. before trailing home 10th in Belmont's GI Champagne S. Off the board in all three starts last year, he found his form again during this year's Dubai Spring Carnival and was runner-up to Mutamarres (GB) in the Feb. 28 Listed Al Quoz Sprint. Second to the smart Utmost Respect (GB) in a conditions event at Thirsk on his European return and first start for his new trainer Linda Perratt Apr. 19, he was unplaced in the May 14 G2 Duke of York S. before finishing a half-length second to Major Cadeaux (GB) in the G3 John of Gaunt S. at Haydock last time May 31. Tracking the strong fractions against the far rail in third early, he traveled easily under Tom Eaves before grabbing the lead at the furlong pole. Chased by King's Apostle from there, he had enough in reserve to hold on from that rival and eventual second-place finisher Beaver Patrol, who had shaken loose from the stands-side group. "He was a good two-year-old and a lot of people wrote him off," Eaves commented. "Like a lot of horses, he lost his way a bit, but the owner and yard have been very patient with him and he was good today. I was happy enough with the draw, but my great worry was the pace, as his best form had been over seven, and it all worked out well." For his owner Gordon McDowall, the result represented the climax of a journey of highs and lows with his talented runner. "We took him to Belmont because he was a Street Cry and the pedigree was right, but the ground there was bottomless so it was a wasted journey," he explained. "He had problems behind the saddle at three, but we stuck by him, as we knew he was a good horse."

All the talk and money was for Mad Rush, but it was Sugar Ray who delivered the knock-out blow to foil the gamble in this competitive contest. A typical late developer for the Sir Michael Stoute stable, the bay broke his maiden at third asking at Windsor in early August before finishing second in a Sandown handicap later that month. Off the track until October, he was third at Leicester and, after more time on the shelf, took a handicap at Bath Apr. 22. The colt stayed on at one pace when third in a heritage event during York's Ebor meeting last time May 16, but Ryan Moore was keen to make use of his mount this time and soon had the early advantage. Pressed strongly by Mad Rush in the final quarter, he dug in gamely to hold his own against the rail and record the career-best finish.

Following a rousing closer, it was Honolulu who got the better of Distinction in their own class war to wrap up a vintage five days for the stable. Honolulu shaped into a high-class stayer at three when runner-up in York's Ebor H. in August and third in Doncaster's G1 St Leger and the G3 Cumberland Lodge S. at this venue in September. Eighth in the GI Canadian International the following month, he returned with a creditable fourth in the May 16 G2 Yorkshire Cup at York, and may have been shuffled into this quirk of the Royal Ascot program only due to Ballydoyle's incredible strength in depth among their stayers. Held up in rear by a confident Johnny Murtagh, the bay traveled into contention with ominous ease and hooked up with the former G1 Gold Cup runner-up Distinction at the quarter pole. Battling in determined fashion as the veteran slugged it out, he was firmly on top at the line after delivering a final decisive surge.

NEW TRACK RATING SYSTEM BEGINS MONDAY

New Zealand Thoroughbred Racing (NZTR) has developed a new 11-scale system of grading track conditions. Use of the new system will begin June 23 and will continue through the end of September; its use thereafter will depend on support within the industry.

NEW ZEALAND THOROUGHBRED RACING Track Rating

Rating	Comment	Penetrometer
Fast1	A dry hard track	0.5 - 1.9
Good2	A firm track	2.0 - 2.2
Good3	Ideal track with some give	2.3 - 2.5
Dead4	Track with give better side of Genuine Dead	2.6 - 2.8
Dead5	Genuine Dead	2.9 - 3.2
Dead6	Significant amount of give, worse side of Genuine Dead	3.3 - 3.5
Slow7	A mildly rain affected track, better side of Genuine Slow	3.6 - 3.8
Slow8	Genuine Slow	3.9 - 4.2
Slow9	Rain affected, worse side of Genuine Slow	4.3 - 4.5
Heavy10	Genuine Heavy	4.6 - 5.5
