ATTFIELD TIES QUEEN'S PLATE RECORD

Another jump and he might have lost it, but Charles Fipke's homebred Not Bourbon (Not Impossible {Ire}) held off favored Ginger Brew (Milwaukee Brew) to take Sunday's Queen's Plate at Woodbine by a nose. The victory gave trainer Roger Attfield a record-tying eighth win in Canada's prestigious event. "It means a great deal," Attfield said. "I've been chasing the eighth one for a long time, and it's a dream come true, really." It was the third win in a row for the chestnut colt, who also took the May 3 Queenston S. and June 1 Plate Trial. Cont. p2

HARRY ALEO PASSES AWAY

Owner Harry Aleo, 88, who campaigned champion sprinter Lost in the Fog, died Saturday at his home in San Francisco after a long battle with cancer. Longtime companion Deannie Bartlett was at his side. Born and raised in San Francisco, Aleo was a talented third baseman and was signed to a minor league contract by the Brooklyn Dodgers, but an arm injury during spring training ended his baseball career. Drafted into the Army during World War II, Aleo was a veteran of the Battle of the Bulge. After his discharge from the military, the California native went into real estate, and also opened an insurance brokerage. Aleo was introduced to horse racing by a former son-in-law, and purchased his first horses in 1979. Greg Gilchrist was his trainer from the first. "Just talk about his loyalty," Gilchrist told Daily Racing Form. "He stayed with me through bad times and good. We had our differences, but we walked away and went back to work." Gilchrist added, "It's left a big hole in my stomach. He was a big brother to me, a father to me." In addition to Lost in the Fog, Aleo campaigned GSWs Smokey Stover and Victorina. His Wild Promises captured the June 8 Yerba Buena S. at Golden Gate. Aleo is survived by daughters Carol, Terri and Valerie, and three grandchildren. Services are pending.

Bourbon Gets His Shot...

On the board in four of six starts at two, with a victory in the six-furlong Bull Page S., Not Bourbon opened his sophomore season with a second in the Apr. 12 Achievement H. He stretched out to seven furlongs for the Queenston, then handled a mile and an eighth in the Plate Trial. The third choice yesterday, he settled in fourth early before joining the leaders from the outside with a quarter mile left to run. Not Bourbon drove to a clear lead at the eighth pole, but had to give it his all to hold off the determined filly Ginger Brew. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Impossible Dream...

The late Not Impossible (Ire) (Sadler's Wells--Ball Chairman, by Secretariat), the sire of Not Bourbon, was an unraced full brother to fellow Fipke homebred Perfect Soul (Ire), Canada's champion turf horse in 2003. Not Impossible had three crops. From 23 starters, he has 13 winners. Not Bourbon is his only stakes winner.

The veteran gelding opened 2008 with a third in the Apr. 26 Bob Umphrey Turf Championship Sprint H. at Calder, then came from just off the pace to take the May 17 Old Mutual Turf Sprint S. on the Preakness undercard. Off at even-money to improve on his runner-up effort in this race last year, Heros Reward went right to the front this time and cut out a half in :44.56. He turned back a challenge on the far turn, opened up daylight at midstretch and, despite getting leg-weary late, held off The Great Caruso at the wire. Mission Approved captured three of his first five tries on the turf, including gate-to-wire victories in the GIII Saranac S. at Saratoga and the Princeton S. at the Meadowlands last September. The bay tried the same tactics in the Sept. 30 GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic at Belmont Park, but weakened late to be fifth behind champion English Channel and was through for the year. The New York-bred made his 2008 in the restricted Kingston H. at Belmont May 11, pressing the pace before tiring to be seventh, but was ready to roll in his second outing of the season. Sent right to the lead, he cut out easy splits of :50.41 and 1:15.28 and had plenty in reserve when Rahy's Attorney came at him, holding that rival at bay for a handy score. "He really goes to the front, but he's got a tremendous amount of stamina," owner Dr. William Coyro Jr. said. "We were pretty confident once he got the lead that he was going to keep it." Previous winners of this important juvenile staging post include Rolly Polly (Ire), Le Vie dei Colori (GB), Golden Titus (Ire) and Magritte (Ity), all of whom went on to hold their own overseas. While Lui Rei may indeed turn out to be in their league, he was fortunate to win this renewal after Sweet Hearth (Touch Gold) ran through the rails inside the final furlong when battling it out with that rival. The bay colt, off the mark at first asking at Capannelle Apr. 27, was a short-neck second to Diglett in the Listed Premio Alberto Giubilo back there last time June 2, but turned that form around in this dramatic renewal. Taking a tow from Sweet Hearth throughout the early stages near the stands rail, he was sent in pursuit of that rival approaching the final quarter. The juvenile drew even when the filly darted left through the plastic railings towards the paddock exit soon after to unship Pierantonio Convertino, leaving Lui Rei in isolation from there to the line. HEATSEEKER SHARP IN GOLD CUP PREP Prepping for Saturday's GI Hollywood Gold Cup, Heatseeker (Ire) (Giant's Causeway) worked five furlongs in a bullet :57 4/5 at Hollywood Sunday. Jockey Rafael Bejarano was in the irons. "He caught some unexpected company and went a little faster than anticipated," said trainer Jerry Hollendorfer. "But he did it real nice and easy and galloped out real nice, a mile in 1:37." Hollendorfer added, "We hope we have him exactly where we want him. He's been coming up to the race in a nice way. He's very comfortable with himself." On the board in all five starts this year, the five-year-old captured the Mar. 1 GI Santa Anita H. and galloped to a 5 1/4-length score in the May 31 GI Californian S. last time out. Also likely for the 10-panel Gold Cup, Racketeer (Awesome Again) went six panels in a bullet 1:11 1/5 for trainer Barry Abrams. The bay, runner-up in an optional claimer at Belmont May 31, was reportedly purchased privately last week. "He galloped out seven furlongs in 1:23," said Abrams. "If he comes out of the work good, we'll be going." Lava Man (Slew City Slew) will not bid for an unprecedented fourth straight Gold Cup title. "He's going to wait until Del Mar," trainer Doug O'Neill said yesterday. "I wanted to make sure he's 110 percent. That last race knocked him out a little bit." The seven-year-old came out on the losing end of a three-way photo in the June 7 GI Charlie Whittingham Memorial H.

JULY TARGET FOR NATIVE John Mayne's G1 Golden Jubilee S. hero Kingsgate Native (Ire) (Mujadil) will tackle the G1 Darley July Cup in his next start. Following his victory over War Artist (Aus) in Saturday's six-furlong highlight, the sophomore is on course to meet the runner-up again in Newmarket's July 11 contest. "He's come out of the race very well, with no problems," trainer John Best told PA Sport. "[Jockey] Seb [Sanders] said there was more to come, and the horse saw the six furlongs out very well. He's bred to get the trip and we were pretty sure he would see it out, but you never know until they do it on the track. His next race will almost certainly be the July Cup, and then the G1 Coolmore Nunthorpe S. [at York Aug. 22], which he won last year."

TDN presents
STAR OF THE WEEK
 Brought to you by Fasig-Tipton

Marty Wolfson

Horsephotos

Accomplishment: Wolfson saddled three stakes winners on last Saturday's card at Calder, including Unbridled S. winner Golden Spikes (Seeking the Gold).

Birthdate: Aug. 3, 1951

Birthplace: Washington, D.C.

Family: Wife Karla.

Current Residence: Ft. Lauderdale, FL

Your dad, Louis Wolfson, campaigned Affirmed? What are your recollections? I saw Affirmed on farm as a two-year-old. I had a string of horses here (at Calder), so I actually wasn't able to see any of his Triple Crown races in person. But he was a very laid-back horse, and I think that's part of what made him a great horse--he was so calm and collected.

Were you rooting for Big Brown this year? No, I really wasn't, just because of Affirmed. But, of the horses in recent years who had a chance, I thought he had the best chance. Recently, the ones he didn't win the Triple Crown ran into really nice horses--Empire Maker, Touch Gold, Victory Gallop, and I just didn't see anyone this year like that.

You played a lot of sports when you were younger and still work out a lot. Do you think that helped you be a better horse trainer?

I think so, especially when I was young. I had a few wonderful coaches, and I applied a lot of what they taught me to training when I was 19, 20. Mostly in terms of discipline and being consistent.

Consistency's a big thing. Some guys come out six days a week; not me. I'm here seven days a week, four times a day. I love coming out.

Favorite meal? I stay away from red meat; it's mostly chicken and fish for me. I eat a lot of pasta, too, just because I do work out a lot.

Hobbies outside of racing? I love going to the movies, just to relax and get away.

Favorite athlete? It's getting to be Tiger Woods. I just love his attitude and how aggressive he gets when he's going head to head. He's got a lot of class. I wish someone could do for horse racing what he's done for golf. I mean, even my wife was watching Monday (the U.S. Open playoff).

Favorite music? It varies. But I love the Bee Gees, Simon and Garfunkel, things like that. No heavy metal. I need something that's relaxing and helps me think clearly.

CONGRATULATIONS!

FIDELIO (c, 3, Awesome Again--Betty B, by Devil's Bag)

won at first asking for trainer Brian Lynch at Woodbine last July before shifting to Bobby Frankel's barn for his U.S. debut. Second sprinting at the Spa Aug. 26, the dark bay was seventh when stretched out for the GI Lane's End Breeders' Futurity at Keeneland Oct. 6.

Favored in his latest start in the slop over this track and trip May 16, Fidelio was pounded down to 1-2 favoritism here. Content to stalk the early pace in second, the homebred gained command nearing the quarter pole and drew clear to win by 4 1/2 lengths over El Chile Dog (Puerto Madero {Chi}). A well-beaten fifth in the mud here June 5, the bay was given a 6-1 chance to return to the winner's circle. Settled off the pace after clipping heels in the early going, the Empire State-bred recovered well and close on the front rank after honest early splits. With the frontrunners in her sights turning for home, Blue Devil Bel overtook her foes a sixteenth out and showed good form to post a two-length victory over Critical Cathy (Gold Token). Back on the dirt as the 3-2 second choice, the dark bay saved ground while sitting just off the leaders early. Jockey Edgar Prado guided the colt to the outside in deep stretch, and he just got up to best Excess Capital (Distorted Humor) by a half-length. CHARLIE HAS DEAUVILLE AIM Susan Magnier's Myboycharlie (Ire) (Danetime {Ire}), withdrawn from the G1 Golden Jubilee S. Saturday at Royal Ascot, is being prepared for a tilt at the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest, connections revealed yesterday. Taken out of the Royal contest due to the prevalent fast ground, the Tommy Stack-trained sophomore may have a warm-up before the Aug. 10 Deauville sprint. "I walked the track at Ascot and felt that the ground was a bit quicker on the stands side, and we were drawn on the wide outside in stall 20 and could have been a bit isolated," the trainer's son and assistant Fozzy told PA Sport yesterday. "It's possible he could run in the G3 Sapphire S. at the Curragh next weekend, but that's over five furlongs, so it's not ideal. We want to get a run into him before his next main objective, the Maurice de Gheest at Deauville in August." The colt triumphed in the G1 Prix Morny at that venue last year.

Tranquil Tiger wired the Listed Aston Park S. May 17 and ran second in the Listed Grand Cup at York most recently May 31. Setting a fair early pace in this contest, he had his rivals in trouble a half-mile from home and, despite tiring in the final eighth, was kept up to his work as Dunaskin stayed on menacingly. "You roll downhill for a couple of furlongs here and he got a little run on me," explained winning rider Tom Queally. "Mr. Cecil said to make it a good test of stamina, and the horse almost overdid it. He was dosing in the last furlong or so and, when he heard the other horse coming, he picked up. He's going the right way. He probably kept a little bit for himself and maybe wants a little bit further, but the stiffness of the track helped."
