THREE CHIMNEYS
The Idea is Excellence.

Good Luck to Exchange Rate's 2YO JULIET'S SPIRIT in the My Dear S.

STOKING THE FIRE

In a dramatic finish to the G1 Dubai Duty Free Irish Derby, it was Frozen Fire (Ger) (Montjeu {Ire}) who emerged victorious to provide Aidan O'Brien and Seamus Heffernan with consecutive renewals of The Curragh Classic. As with Soldier of Fortune (Ire) 12 months ago, it was the stable jockey's rejected mount who bounced back from an unplaced effort in the G1 Epsom Derby to cause a 16-1 upset. Johnny Murtagh had looked to have the contest won on Alessandro Volta (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}), but that rival swerved across Tartan Bearer (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}) with a furlong remaining, and it was left to Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and Susan Magnier's second string to attack widest of all. Frozen Fire swept to a two-length success from the closing Casual Conquest (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}). "I think Alessandro Volta got stage fright when he turned into the straight, and he wouldn't have seen a crowd like that in front of him before," said trainer Aidan O'Brien, adding, "Frozen Fire was second in the [G2] Dante S., but got trapped back in the Derby, and [jockey] Mick Kinane said afterwards he was very happy with him and that he was a very good horse." Cont. p2

INGLIS BROODMARE SETS SO HEM RECORD

The eight-year-old mare Milanova (Aus) (Danehill--L'On Vite, by Secretariat) was expected to be the highlight at Sunday's session of the Inglis Australian Breeding Stock Sale in Newmarket, and she didn't disappoint. The subject of heavy competition from several breeding operations, the bay was finally hammered down to Coolmore Australia for a Southern Hemisphere record A$5 million. She eclipsed the previous mark of A$3.4 million, set by the broodmare prospect Virage de Fortune (Aus) (Anabaa)

Milanova & Encosta de Lago Filly

at last year's Inglis Australian Easter Broodmare Sale. In foal to Encosta de Lago (Aus), Milanova was part of the 12-horse Tyreel Thoroughbred Stud reduction. A Group 3 winner and runner-up in the G1 Australasian Oaks, she is a full sister to champion Holy Roman Emperor (Ire); her second dam is Fanfreluche (Northern Dancer). "Genuine good horses like her that come on the market always attract genuine money," Coolmore Australia's General Manager Michael Kirwan said. "She's got a world-class pedigree, and Coolmore has enjoyed a lot of success with the family, with not only Holy Roman Emperor, but Encosta De Lago, who will be champion sire this year." Cont. p8-9

Stepping up from a debut win at Gowran Park last August, Frozen Fire was pitched straight into the Oct. 27 G1 Racing Post Trophy at Doncaster and finished a well-beaten eighth behind Ibn Khaldun. He matured over the winter, returning to run a promising second to Tartan Bearer in the May 15 G2 Dante S. at York, but failed to handle the rollercoaster undulations when 11th in the G1 Epsom Derby last time June 7. Settled in rear for most of this second domestic outing, he came under pressure soon after turning for home. Galvanized by Seamus Heffernan's urgings, he was steered to the outside, away from the trouble which was unfolding in the center of the track, and swooped wide and late to claim glory. "This is down to a lot of people and it's been a privilege to have been involved in it," admitted Aidan O'Brien. "Seamus has worked very hard and is a great judge of a horse. Nobody deserves it more than him and I couldn't be happier. All we wanted was a strong, even gallop, and this is great for everyone involved, as there are so many people in the team who make this happen. The Curragh is probably the greatest track in the world, as it is very fair and really tests a horse over a mile and a half. It's a very special race."

New Approach Forced to Scratch...

Princess Haya of Jordan's New Approach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) was not 100 percent yesterday and was taken out of the Irish Derby. "He's still not sound and the problem may not be in his foot," trainer Jim Bolger said, adding that the G1 Epsom Derby hero was off in his near hind leg. "We're going to take scans [Monday], but he wasn't sound enough to go racing, so he won't be confirmed for the G1 Eclipse S. [at Sandown July 5]."

Not Curtains for Call...

Newmarket-based trainer Luca Cumani was philosophical in defeat after Curtain Call (Fr) (Sadler's Wells) suffered interference, which compromised his Derby aspirations for a second time. "He was in full flow and lost momentum when he was hampered by Alessandro Volta," Cumani reflected. "It was difficult to recover after that, but I don't think he would have won even without the interference and I'm happy with the way he has run. He showed he belongs to this class, his race in the English Derby was all wrong, and he was much more competitive than he was at Epsom." With regard to future targets, Cumani continued, "We have no immediate plans. If he recovers well and quickly, he could go to France for the G1 Grand Prix de Paris [at Longchamp July 14], but we'll see."

We Did Start the Fire...

Frozen Fire was foaled and raised at Michael Andree's Gestut Romerhof near Cologne. The best horse raced by his breeders, Jurgen and Wolfgang Hoyer, was the globetrotting World Series and G1 Singapore International Cup winner Epalo (Ger). They bought Frozen Fire's dam Flamingo Sea, winner of a maiden at Leipzig, in foal to Acatenango (Ger) which seemed a good idea as she is a Woodman half-sister to the German Oaks heroine Flamingo Road, who was also by Acatenango. The resulting foal was the average handicapper Feuersturm (Ger). Frozen Fire was sold as a yearling at Goffs February Sale in 2006 where, as the only Montjeu in the sale, he realised €250,000. Flamingo Sea herself has been through the ring twice since the birth of her best offspring, both times at Tattersalls' December Sale. She was knocked down to Scuderia Blueberry for 36,000gns in 2005 and was purchased by Horse France for 135,000gns one year later. Frozen Fire's 2006 half-sister (by Tiger Hill {Ire}) sold to Francesca Turri for €42,000 at last September's Select Yearling Sale at Milan.

Youmzain has played second fiddle on most of the major occasions he has been involved in, but it was his day in the Parisian sun yesterday. Sent off at 57-10 on the back of a fast-finishing runner-up effort behind Soldier of Fortune in Epsom's June 6 G1 Coronation Cup, Jaber Abdullah's five-year-old readily reversed those placings after gaining first run. He had captured a top-level prize in Cologne's G1 Preis von Europa in 2006, but missed out on all tries in this league the following term. On the board in the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup at The Curragh and in Ascot's G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. in July, Youmzain was beaten a head when runner-up to arch-rival Dylan Thomas (Ire) in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in October. He was fifth on his seasonal bow in the Mar. 29 G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Nad Al Sheba, and his johnny-come-lately style saw him run out of real estate in the Coronation Cup. A change of tactics were employed here.

Settled closer to the front alongside Soldier of Fortune off the generous fractions carved out by the rabbits, he was full of run when launched between rivals at the top of the stretch. Quickening past the Ballydoyle challenger passing the quarter pole, the bay was always in control despite the game efforts of the runner-up as they pulled clear of the remainder. Trainer Mick Channon remarked, "He worked brilliantly last week; I really thought he had a great chance today and, indeed, he won very well." Looking ahead, he added, "It has always been the plan to go for the G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. [July 26], so we will stick with that. The long-term goal is the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, and we hope to be back for that." Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Eishin Deputy made all the running and just barely held off favored Meisho Samson. The veteran runner, looking for his fourth group win, broke smoothly from stall nine to set a pressured pace as Meisho Samson settled in midpack. Turning into the home straight Eishin Deputy turned back one challenge before repelling the powerful late kick of the runner-up.

She lined up for this coming back from a second in the June 1 G3 Prix de Royaumont at Chantilly, completing a banner weekend for Juddmonte distaffers by prevailing in a tight call. Positioned in second for most of the trip, the bay homebred was pushed to the fore with 500 meters to go and required maximum assistance from the saddle in the closing stages to cling on as Leo's Starlet and Dar Re Mi ran out of runway. "She was brave to fight the way she did all the way to the line and is an improving sort who has yet to run a bad race," said Juddmonte Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe. "She might return in the [Aug. 24] G3 Prix de la Nonette at Deauville--where she will escape a penalty--in preparation for the G1 Prix Vermeille [at Longchamp Sept. 14]." Aidan O'Brien had won this race nine times since King of Kings (Ire) opened the scoring in 1997, and Mastercraftsman battled past Alhaban to make it 10 for Ballydoyle here. Having already beaten Intense Focus on debut over this track and trip May 5, the chestnut was on the shelf while that rival went on to finish runner-up in Royal Ascot's G2 Coventry S. Settled in rear by Johnny Murtagh as Declan McDonogh forced the pace against the stands rail on Alhaban, he was angled wide for his challenge and needed driving to join the long-time leader and Intense Focus approaching the furlong marker. Getting to the front with 150 yards remaining, Mastercraftsman answered every call to prevail as Alhaban dug in gamely. "He's a lovely big, long-striding horse who learned a lot from his first run and would have learned more today," his trainer said. "He looks like a horse who will get a lot more than six [furlongs] and will appreciate the step up to seven for his next run. All the big races are open to him and, hopefully, he'll progress." He came with an unrelenting surge to claim a fourth pattern-race win. Positioned in fourth going by the judge first time, the bay was shuffled back to seventh at the end of the backstraight. He made ominous headway off the home turn to go third at the 200-meters pole and ran on strongly thereafter to inhale It's Gino in the dying strides. Claiming an ultimately cozy success, Egerton prevented his old foe from registering an eighth straight win. PRAIRIE MEADOWS CORNHUSKER H.-GII result cont.

It was the longest two shots on the board who came home one-two in Saturday night's Cornhusker H., which had drawn a competitive field that included Grade II winners Zanjero (Cherokee Run) and Delightful Kiss (Kissin Kris). Eventual winner Wayzata Bay stumbled at the break, but recovered to sit in third off sensible early fractions. Moving three wide on the far turn, he collared the pacesetter and edged away under jockey Israel Ocampo. It was easily the biggest career win for Wayzata Bay, who ran fifth in last year's edition. The locally based six-year-old had finished runner-up in his last two starts, the Bosselman/Gus Fonner S. at Fonner Park Apr. 26 and the Jim Rasmussen Memorial S. here May 31. The 6-5 favorite Zanjero failed to make an impact, racing in mid-pack before closing a bit to be fourth. Fairbanks (Giant's Causeway), who would have been one of the favorites, scratched. Black Mamba had been knocking on the door of graded stakes success since relocating to the U.S. last year, finishing second or third in seven straight stakes, before breaking through with this late-running victory to complete a big weekend for trainer John Sadler. The bay mare came up a neck short when runner-up in the Feb. 18 GII Buena Vista H. and was third in the Mar. 30 American Beauty H. before missing by just a nose in the Apr. 19 GII Santa Barbara H. last time out. Allowed to settle off the pace here, Black Mamba steadily moved into contention before powering to the lead and drawing off the wire. "When I needed her, she was there for me," said winning jockey Garrett Gomez. "She kicked in and you know she really stays on well. She's got good acceleration for a little ways and then she just kind of levels off and stays. She's just solid." Sadler, winning his fourth stakes of the weekend added, "She relaxes very well and I think she's probably going to be better even further. I'm going to try and run her maybe in the [GI] Beverly D." Tax Free finally garnered a first group win in the G3 Palace House S. at Newmarket last May and doubled up in Longchamp's G3 Prix du Petit Couvert in September. Coming here off a successful titel defense in the Listed Naas Sprint S. June 2, the bay tracked the strong early fractions carved out by Desert Lord. As Benbaun slipped by that rival, Adrian Nicholls was reaching top gear on Tax Free, and he rolled to the front with 100 yards remaining before asserting in the final drive to the line. "He's a tough horse and you have to take your jacket off to beat him," trainer Dandy Nicholls commented. Last year's G1 Prix Morny winner Myboycharlie (Ire) (Danetime {Ire}) had the perfect trail into the race but failed to pick up and never threatened at the business end. The bay filly tarried near the back of the pack before circling the field five wide into the stretch and reeled in Authenticat to win going away. "I was very happy with the way this filly was going into the race," said winning rider Jim McAleney. "[Trainer] Kevin [Attard] had her so happy and in such good order. A happy horse is dangerous. I said to him this morning, 'I wouldn't trade horses with anyone.'" Attard added, "We were looking forward to stretching her out. She had trained well as a juvenile. At that time, we thought she would go long. Today, everything came to fruition." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Tyreel Stud, owned by the late Jim Fleming, realized A$10,160,000 for the 12 mares sold, an average of A$846,666. "It's pretty incredible," Jim's son, Paul Fleming, said of the Milanova sale. "But, in fairness, she was always going to top the sale--everyone was looking at her and, with that kind of pedigree and with those international bloodlines, she is a very valuable commodity." He added, "This was a great way to honour Dad." Milanova was one of five broodmares reaching seven figures Sunday. Valourina (Aus) (Snippets {Aus}), also from the Tyreel consignment, was knocked down to Neil Bowden Global Bloodstock for A$1.6 million. The 14-year-old stakes-winning mare is the dam of GSW and MG1SP Timbourina (Aus) (Timber Country) and MGSW and MG1SP Media (Aus) (Gilded Time). She sold in foal to Redoute's Choice (Aus).

More Million-Dollar Mares...

There were three mares out of Sue Suduk's Risdon dispersal that brought more than A$1 million. Philippa Duncan Bloodstock Pty Ltd was agent for the consignment. Topping the offering was eight-year-old Lucida (Aus) (Danehill), who brought A$2 million from New South Wales-based Freyer Bloodstock. The stakes-winning mare, dam of yearling and weanling colts by Elusive Quality, is not in foal this year. "It's nice to see clients get good results, and the good mares sold really well," Philippa Duncan said. She added, "We're delighted that Lucida is staying in Australia. She is a lovely mare from a great family and a really nice type." Lucida is out of a full sister to G1 Australian Derby hero Don Eduardo (Aus), from the family of champion Octagonal (NZ). Risdon's Group 1 winner Shindig (Aus) (Straight Strike), dam of G1SW Shinzig (Aus) (Danehill) and SW Strada (Aus) (Danehill), realized a final bid of A$1.6 million. Purchased by William Inglis, as agent, the 15-year-old mare is in foal to Exceed and Excel (Aus). Inglis also signed the ticket for Lucida's dam, MGSW Peruzzi (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}), who brought A$1.25 million. Out of a half to Zabeel, the 15-year-old produced G1 Australasian Oaks and G1 VRC Oaks runner-up Flora Danica (Aus) (Danehill). She is in foal to Fusaichi Pegasus.

Inglis Thrilled By Record Sale...

William Inglis Managing Director Mark Webster was more than pleased with the record-setting results at yesterday's session. "We're very grateful to have been entrusted with the sale of a mare of Milanova's quality," Webster said. "The quality drafts of weanlings and mares supplied by vendors such as Coolmore, Tyreel and Risdon have been a great endorsement for this new sale, which has been well received by both vendors and buyers." He continued, "It's pleasing to see that, in addition to the three-day Easter Broodmare sale, we can now offer clients a three-day alternative later in the season to trade breeding stock before the end of the financial year. There was strong competition for weanlings and, in addition to the record price achieved by Milanova, another four mares sold for more than A$1 million, which speaks volumes for the quality of this sale."

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ after winning her career debut at Monmouth by 10 3/4 lengths June 1, and successfully took the show on the road Sunday with a facile victory here at Belmont. Within striking distance while racing wide under Stewart Elliot, the $75,000 KEESEP yearling acquisition powered to the front in upper stretch and left the field fighting for minor placings, sailing home clear by eight lengths. "She trained great," said winning trainer Kelly Breen. "It looked like she did everything professionally; you couldn't ask for a better day. There are three stakes races up at Saratoga. I don't know if we're going to make it opening day, or wait until later. The horse will tell us how she's doing." Breen has been red-hot in 2008, winning at an impressive 34-percent clip. Adding Elliot afterwards, "I worked her before she ran. In the race at Monmouth, she made the lead and was pricking her ears like she was waiting for company. Today, we found out she could run." ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Mr Mistoffelees took all the play, but it was the New York-bred Dagnabit who came away with the glory in this event. The Rick Dutrow Jr.-trained juvenile, who went postward at 4-1 odds off a debut win facing Empire-breds June 15, was able to relax in third as Houseful (Housebuster) prompted pacesetter Regardlessoutcome. Put to a drive in mid-stretch, Dagnabit cut into Regardlessoutcome's lead with every stride and, with one final surge, was up in time. Mr Mistoffelees, the prohibitive 1-5 pick, broke a step slowly from post one and never looked completely comfortable, trailing home last of five. With the $1.5-million juvenile off the board, bridgejumpers took a bit of a hit on the race, with show prices paying $7.80, 12.40 and $12.40, respectively. The winning connections said they weren't surprised with Dagnabit's efforts. "He ran well the first time out, and he's been training really well up to this point," said Michelle Nevin, Dutrow's assistant. "I don't know what's next for him." Mr Mistoffelees, who went wire-to-wire at Keeneland in April in his only other start, lost the race at the break, said trainer Todd Pletcher. "He stumbled badly at the start," Pletcher remarked. "It took him out of his element. Speed is his weapon, and he lost that in the first jump." Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

DULCET TONE (f, 3, Empire Maker--Euphonize, by Seattle Slew) earned an 82 Beyer when she was a good third at 3-2 odds in her debut sprinting at Monmouth Park June 19. Wheeled back on 10 days' rest here, the Juddmonte Farms homebred was away alertly under John Velazquez and cruised uncontested through :22 1/5 and :45 3/5 splits. The crowd's 4-5 opened up a commanding lead in upper stretch and was kept to task late to post the 6 1/4-length romp. Mosaic (Storm Cat--Tweedside) chased gamely and was clearly second best in a strung-out field. Dulcet Tone's success at six furlongs belies a distance-laden pedigree that also boasts plenty of class. Her unraced dam is Euphonize (Seattle Slew), a daughter of the stakes winner Euphonic (The Minstrel), who is a half-sister to the great sire Danehill; her fourth dam is Spring Adieu, a half-sister to Northern Dancer. Firster Star Venue (Vindication), a 3-1 chance, showed early speed before fading to be last of seven. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $35,640. Devil House won the Happy Princess S. at Aqueduct in January, but was fourth in each of her next four, including the 5 1/2-furlong Candy Eclair S. on the turf at Monmouth June 7. Twice the price of the next-longest shot on the board yesterday, Devil House jumped out and set uncontested but honest :22 4/5, :46 2/5 and 1:10 4/5 splits and kept on motoring to win more like an odds-on pick. Grade I stakes winner Christmas Kid (Lemon Drop Kid), looking to rebound off a lackluster effort in New York, loomed a threat, but faded in the lane and finished fourth.

IRON BUTTERFLY (f, 4, Forestry--Deputy Sue {MSW, $231,226}, by Silver Deputy) was third in her latest going a sixteenth farther June 8. Partnered with Julien Leparoux, who was back at Churchill after riding at Prairie Meadows the night before, the dark bay was never far back while saving ground. She angled out in upper stretch and, after hitting the front at the furlong grounds, edged clear to win by two lengths. Pathologist (Gone West) rallied from last to get the place spot. Tests on Tap for Heatseeker:

Heatseeker (Ire) (Giant's Causeway), scratched from Saturday's GI Hollywood Gold Cup, will undergo a nuclear scan by veterinarian Sam Bradley, according to owner William de Burgh. The five-year-old morning-line favorite for the Gold Cup was scratched Friday when trainer Jerry Hollendorfer detected some heat and filling in his left ankle.

Night Racing at Hollywood Thursday:

Due to the holiday weekend, Hollywood Park will conduct night racing Thursday this week, instead of its traditional Friday night card. First post time on Thursday will be 7:05 p.m. Friday's Independence Day program will begin at 1:20 p.m. Post time Saturday--GI American Oaks and GI CashCall Mile Day--will be noon.

Leonides, who missed by just a nose in last year's GIII Hollywood Juvenile Championship, was coming off runner-up efforts in the Mar. 29 San Miguel S. and in his first stretch-out in the May 10 GIII Lone Star Derby. Always within striking distance, the bay colt was sandwiched between tiring pacesetter Sea of Pleasure on the rail and White Spar on the outside, but forged between those two foes to earn the win. The stewards looked into the stretch run, but did not change the order of finish. "I told the stewards that I just thought a narrow gap presented itself and I got my horse's head in there," winning rider Richard Migliore said of the inquiry. "Aaron [Gryder aboard White Spar] was doing a good job trying to keep the hole closed. I thought it was good, hard race riding on both our parts. I thought Aaron rode a great race and I thought I rode a great race, but I think the best horse won. Once he got his head in front, he was never going to relinquish the lead." RAVEN'S HAS JULY OPTION

Trainer John Gosden is looking at the possibility of running Stonerside Stable's Raven's Pass (Elusive Quality) in the G1 Darley July Cup. While Chantilly's G1 Prix Jean Prat is the most likely target for the G1 St James's Palace S. runner-up, Newmarket's six-furlong feature two days earlier is also under serious consideration. "He has come out of the Ascot race fantastically well," the conditioner said. "I breezed him on Saturday morning and he was very relaxed over seven furlongs. He's in the Prix Jean Prat over a mile and, if the ground is on the top, that would be a likely target, but he's also in the July Cup and we will be discussing that with the owners as well."
