GOOD REWARD
Good Looking Sire; Good Looking Foals

HEATSEEKER RETIRED

Grade I winner Heatseeker (Ire) (Giant's Causeway--Rusty Back, by Defensive Play) has been retired from racing after suffering an injury to his suspensory ligament. The five-year-old vaulted to the top of the West Coast handicap division this year with wins in the GI Santa Anita H. and GI Californian S., but was forced to miss Saturday's GI Hollywood Gold Cup when trainer Jerry Hollendorfer detected heat and swelling in his left front ankle. Subsequent tests revealed a soft tissue injury to the medial branch of the suspensory ligament. "We are extremely disappointed as we had our sights set on the $5-million GI Breeders' Cup Classic, where we figured to be one of the favorites based on Heatseeker's dominance of his division this year," said owner William de Burgh. "I am very grateful to Jerry and his stable team. We all had a lot of fun with Heatseeker, and I know it is a huge disappointment to them as well. Horses like him do not come around very often." Heatseeker began his career in Ireland, running third in the G1 National S. in 2005. Relocated to the U.S., he made only one start in 2006, but set a track record of 1:47 1/5 for nine furlongs at Hollywood Park when taking the GIII Native Diver H. in 2007. Heatseeker began 2008 with a third in the GII San Pasqual H. and a runner-up effort in the GII San Antonio H. before setting the 10-furlong track-record mark of 2:00.2 in the Big 'Cap. He narrowly lost the GII Oaklawn H. in a thrilling duel with Tiago, but rebounded with a 5 1/4-length victory in the May 31 Californian, lowering his own Hollywood track record to 1:47 flat. "Heatseeker had just come into his own," said Hollendorfer. "He is by far the best horse that I have trained. Rarely will you see a horse with the brilliance to [equal] a track record [at Santa Anita last October] for seven furlongs in 1:20 and change, and then be equally as brilliant being able to set a track record at a mile and a quarter." On the board in 14 of 17 starts, Heatseeker retires with seven wins and earnings of $1,181,172. Stud plans have not yet been made.

The action-packed weekend saw noteworthy achievements on several fronts. For example, the Suburban H. success of Frost Giant made him no less than the eighth son or daughter of Giant's Causeway to win a graded stake at the age of five, and the third to become a Grade I winner at that age. The Hollywood Gold Cup provided Mizzen Mast with his first Grade I winner, with his first-crop son Mast Track, and it was also a great weekend for Juddmonte's Kerali family. Kerali produced seven daughters, and Treat Gently's Group 2 success in the Prix de Malleret means that the first six have now all produced at least one stakes winner, with five hitting the target at group level.

Promising Lead's victory in the previous day's Pretty Polly S. means that three of Kerali's daughters have now produced Group 1 winners (and a fourth had a disqualified Group 1 winner).

Another broodmare making her mark is Sadler's Wells's daughter Sadima, who was represented by her second Group 1 winner of the year when Creachadoir's half-brother Youmzain gained a well-deserved victory in the Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud. Another Sadler's Wells mare, the unraced Note Musicale, was also represented by her second Grade I winner (but not this year) when Music Note took the Mother Goose S.

But it wasn't only Sadler's Wells's daughters which hit the jackpot, as his 12-year-old son Montjeu added another Derby winner to his impressive collection. Montjeu--himself a winner of the Derbys in France and Ireland--has only four crops aged three or above, yet they have produced two winners of the Epsom Derby (Motivator and Authorized) and two winners of the Irish Derby (Hurricane Run and Sunday's decisive winner Frozen Fire). Another son, Scorpion, was a close second to Hurricane Run in the 2005 Irish Derby before winning the St Leger, and Montjeu's son Alessandro Volta was demoted from third behind Frozen Fire after causing havoc in the stretch. Montjeu's New Zealand crops have also added to his reputation as a Derby sire, with Nom du Jeu taking this year's AJC Australian Derby.

Montjeu's considerable impact on the Derby and Irish Derby is made all the more meritorious by the fact that none of his first four crops was sired at a particularly high fee. His three representatives in this year's Irish Derby--Frozen Fire, Alessandro Volta and the Epsom Derby fifth Washington Irving--are the result of €30,000 seasons. This crop also contains the recent French Group 3 winner Montmartre, the Oaks fourth Clowance and several other group performers.

Frozen Fire Getty Images

Montjeu's current crop of two-year-olds was sired at €45,000, before his early achievements raised the bar to €125,000 from 2006 onwards.

Like many a good stallion, Montjeu tends to inject a bit of temperament along with plenty of ability. He too had his quirks, the suspicion being that he inherited them from his broodmare sire Top Ville, another winner of the French Derby. Perhaps temperament is one of the explanations for the lopsided nature of Montjeu's record as a sire of colts, as opposed to fillies. As many as 13 of his 15 Northern Hemisphere group winners are colts, the notable exceptions to this rule being Montare, who beat the colts in the G1 Prix Royal-Oak, and Mont Etoile, winner of the G2 Ribblesdale S. But, as I mentioned in my tribute to Sadler's Wells when he was pensioned, the group winners from Sadler's Wells's first four crops also divided very unevenly between the sexes, with the colts leading the fillies by 20 to two.

However, one of those fillies was Salsabil, winner of the 1000 Guineas, Oaks and Irish Derby, and Sadler's Wells went on sire a total of five Oaks winners, plus three winners of the Irish 1000 Guineas and two of the Irish Oaks. The moral of this tale could be that buyers ignore daughters of Montjeu at their peril when the youngsters from the stallion's high-priced crops start to reach the yearling sales later this year.

Frozen Fire was sold at Goffs as a yearling, but not at the Million Sale. He changed hands for €250,000 at the February Mixed Sale when a few days short of his actual first birthday. I have vague memories of having watched his second dam, Fabula Dancer, sell for $575,000 to German breeder Helmut von Finck at Keeneland's July Selected Yearling Sale. Von Finck was looking for potential broodmares, and this daughter of Northern Dancer met the requirements, as her fourth dam was Rare Perfume. Rare Perfume, a daughter of Eight Thirty, already had such standouts as Jaipur, What A Treat, Be My Guest and Golden Fleece among her descendants.

Although Fabula Dancer didn't win anything special, she produced a string of black-type performers. They were headed by Flamingo Paradise, a Rainbow Quest colt who won the G3 Oleander-Preis over two miles, and Flamingo Road, an Acatenango filly who won the German Oaks before finishing third in the German Derby. Flamingo Road was considered good enough to contest the 1999 Arc. Frozen Fire's dam Flamingo Sea was only a minor winner over a mile in Germany, but the significant thing about her is that she is by Mr. Prospector's son Woodman (she is also inbred 3x4 to Raise A Native and 4x4x5 to Native Dancer).

Sadler's Wells sired four Group 1 winners from granddaughters of Mr. Prospector, including the Derby- and Irish Derby-winning Galileo and the 2000 Guineas winner Refuse To Bend. He also sired the 2000 Guineas winner Entrepreneur from a mare by Exclusive Native, the sire of Frozen Fire's third dam, Fair Rosalind.

Granddaughters of Mr. Prospector are also playing a significant part in Montjeu's success story. Motivator and his very progressive brother Macarthur are out of a Gone West mare, while the high-class Papal Bull is out of a granddaughter of Gone West (by Zafonic).

Alessandro Volta is out of a Machiavellian mare, and there are also talented performers out of daughters of Forty Niner, Lion Cavern, Miswaki and Distant View. Mares by Woodman's sons Hansel and Mujtahid have also got into the act by producing a handful of very useful performers. Frozen Fire isn't the first Group 1 winner sired by a son of Sadler's Wells from a daughter of Woodman, as In the Wings sired the dual mile-and-a-half Group 1 winner Mamool from another.

Quite a few of Montjeu's good winners have two lines of Northern Dancer in their pedigree, and Frozen Fire is inbred 3x3, while Authorized is inbred 3x4.

It is going to be fascinating to see whether Frozen Fire can maintain his superiority over his Irish Derby rivals in a trouble-free contest.

CONQUEST HAS ARC AIM Moyglare Stud's Casual Conquest (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}), runner-up to Frozen Fire (Ger) in Sunday's G1 Irish Derby at The Curragh, has the Oct. 5 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe as his major three-year-old target, trainer Dermot Weld announced yesterday. The homebred will avoid taking on his elders in Ascot's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. "Casual Conquest has come out of Sunday's race very well," his conditioner told the Racing Post. "The Arc is the plan, and he will have a prep race before Longchamp. He has run twice and won twice at Leopardstown, and it is quite possible he will go back there for the [Sept. 6] G1 Irish Champion S. before going for the Arc. He will not run in the King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S."

OFF THE HOOK...
 THE PINHOOKER'S VIEW OF THE 2008 SEASON

It was a mixed bag at this year's two-year-old sales, from impressive gains at OBSMAR (median up 21.9 percent, average up 36.6 percent) to significant declines at BESMAR (median off 25.4 percent, average down 18.9 percent). Results at OBSFEB, FTFEB and KEEAPR showed only minor fluctuations. The RNA rates varied from 28.2 percent at OBSFEB (compared to 29.9 percent in 2007) to 44.4 percent at BESMAR (up from 41.3 percent last year). KEEAPR improved sharply when it came to buybacks, with RNAs at 38.4 percent this year (down from 47.1 percent in 2007).

We asked some of the leading pinhookers in the Thoroughbred business how 2008 treated them, and what, if any, changes they plan to make going forward. The results of our survey will be published this week.

Today, we feature Pete Bradley of Bradley Thoroughbred Brokerage, Mike and Britt Mulligan of Leprechaun Racing and Becky Thomas of Sequel Bloodstock.

What was your biggest pinhooking success this year?

PB: Probably the biggest success of this year was that we had 18 horses to sell and we sold all of them. A couple ended up being sold privately, but they were all done deals as of June 15.

What two-year-old was the biggest disappointment? Why do you think he failed to meet expectations?

PB: A colt by Lion Heart out of Clamorosa ($150K FTKJUL yearling from Dapple Bloodstock, agent; $65K FTMMAY two-year-old, consigned by Nick De Meric and purchased by Joe Orseno for DJ Stable). This was disappointing because this colt really looked like a race horse. He worked in :10.2 and galloped out well. He is by a hot sire, but we still could not make a profit.

A colt by Cozzene out of European Rose ($90K KEESEP yearling from Winter Quarter farm, Agent I; sold privately). This horse suffered an odd injury and was unable to make the sale. We ended up selling him privately. He's the kind of horse that really could have been special if we had been able to present him in a public auction forum. It was disappointing that we didn't have that opportunity.

How would you rate your overall success this year?

PB: It was fair. We made a profit, but it was also disappointing at times. We had some horses that we thought would sell well, but between minor setbacks and timing, it just didn't happen. I think we held our own with the current market trends, and we will be back next year!

Will your results from this year affect the way you approach the yearling sales this year? Will you change the number or the type of yearlings you are buying to adjust to the market?

PB: Yes and no. We will continue to buy in the mid-market ($50,000-100,000) range. We have always bought some expensive horses ($200,000-300,000), but will be harder pressed to continue to buy those now. There is too much downside if you invest that much money in them and they do not perform.

Mike Mulligan: None of these really stood out as a surprise. They were all nice and, once we saw which potential buyers were looking, we were not shocked.

Mike & Britt Mulligan

What two-year-old was the biggest disappointment?

MM: This was a good year and there were no real big disappointments.

All horses in the TDN are bred in North America, unless otherwise indicated

How would you rate your overall success this year?

MM: This year was very successful, and we are happy overall. We adjusted our buying to the market a couple years ago and it has paid off. In the past, we tried to find a value horse that ended up just selling as a middle-of-the-road two-year-old. The changes that we made included a concentrated effort to try to buy the superior physical horse and only the superior physical horse. We have been able to sell those horses well.

Will your results from this year affect the way you approach the yearling sales this year?

MM: As was mentioned before, we adjusted to the market a few years ago and have had success. We will simply push on again this year with the same game plan.

What was your biggest pinhooking success this year?

BT: Our program was in a transition year, resulting in the huge majority of the two-year-olds sold being homebreds that were products of our New York operation, now owned by myself and partner Dennis Narlinger. There were definite advantages, as the cost basis for these horses were much lower and so our "successes" were easier to come by. However, this year was anticlimactic as I did not buy but a couple of yearlings for resale. Becky Thomas cont. p8

What was your biggest disappointment this year?

BT: As I did not purchase a quantity of yearlings, my disappointments mainly stemmed from less than desirable radiographic reports which negatively impacted the sales potential. I have been very encouraged, as I have seen a greater desire for buyers to purchase the horse versus the X-ray. Veterinarians and owners alike are showing an increased willingness to evaluate the clinical issues relating to how the horse is training, as opposed to solely using the radiographs for determination of purchase.

How would you rate your overall success this year?

BT: Our net profitability was average, as we did not have the “big” horse.

Will your results from this year affect the way you approach the yearling sales this year? Will you change the number or the type of yearlings you are buying to adjust to the market?

BT: We are looking to the yearling sales to supplement our homebred program. I have already purchased a number of weanlings and short yearlings which will be carded for the two-year-old sales, and intend to add quite a few more.

ALL CLEAR FOR LEVINE HORSES The blood samples from the 41 horses trained by Bruce Levine at Monmouth Park, drawn on the order of the New Jersey Racing Commission last week, have all tested negative, it was announced yesterday. Levine, 53, is the leading conditioner at Monmouth with 29 wins from 59 starts, an eyecatching 49-percent strike rate. He is 16 victories ahead of second-leading trainer Eddie Broome. “I feel relieved,” Levine said yesterday. “In my mind and in my heart, I knew I hadn’t done anything wrong, but you just never know. It makes you nervous, worrying that somebody got to your horses. It was an uncomfortable position to be in, and waiting for the test results to come back felt like 100 years. But I’m glad they tested the whole barn, so they could compare the blood on all 41 horses, and now they know that all 41 tested negative.” Levine, who led the standings at the Meadowlands last fall and was second-leading trainer at the Aqueduct spring meet, has been in the top five at New York Racing Association tracks in three of the last four years. While the scrutiny that his success at Monmouth was not welcome, Levine could understand the NJRC’s position. “It’s good for racing that they are monitoring the situation,” he said. “I’ve been winning a lot, and it’s good for people to know that they are paying attention.” The New York native captured the Lighthouse S. at Monmouth yesterday with 14-1 Devil House, and he hopes his hot streak at the track continues. “I hope we don’t slow down, but we probably will--we’ve eaten through a lot of conditions,” Levine said. “But we have a lot of horses we haven’t fired with yet. Our hand is pretty good right now.”

NELSON TOPS ECLIPSE DOZEN

BULL PREPARES FOR KING GEORGE TILT

Papal Bull (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) is being aimed at the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S., connections have announced. Owned by a syndicate headed by Gary Patchett and Coolagown Stud's David Stack, the five-year-old is likely to first bid for back-to-back successes in next Thursday's G2 Princess of Wales's S. at Newmarket before Ascot's July 26 showpiece. "He's entered in the Princess of Wales's S. and the King George," Patchett said. "The latter is the priority, because we want to win a Group 1, and Sir Michael [Stoute] will make the call as to whether he runs in both. He may use the Newmarket race as a stepping stone to Ascot." Patchett also revealed the longer-term plan with Papal Bull, who enters stud at the end of the year. "The plan was to retire him at the end of last year and the only reason we kept him in training was to win a Group 1," he added. "The trainer convinced us before Christmas that he was as sure as he could be that he could get the right race under his belt that would make him an even better stallion prospect. He holds an Arc entry and is also engaged in a Group 1 in Cologne. He may even go back to Japan again for the Japan Cup, in which he was seventh last year."

GERMAN REVIEW by Christa Riebel

It was a major weekend for German breeding as Frozen Fire (Ger) (Montjeu {Ire}) captured the G1 Irish Derby, emulating the 2005 hero Hurricane Run (Ire), also by Montjeu and bred by a German operation. While Gestut Ammerland was responsible for the latter, Frozen Fire was bred by Jurgen and Wolfgang Hoyer and was raised at Michael Andree's Gestut Romerhof. Frozen Fire is a descendant of Fabula Dancer, who along with her paternal half-sister Diana Dance were the first Northern Dancer mares to be imported in 1987. Baron Helmut von Finck and his agent Roger Alles had bought the pair at the Keeneland July Sale. While the graded stakes-winning and Classic-placed Diana Dance had only two foals, Fabula Dancer produced five stakes performers highlighted by the G2 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) heroine and multiple Group 1-placed Flamingo Road (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}).

Hamburg's summer meeting, which centres around this Sunday's G1 Deutsches Derby, began on Saturday with the success of Sehrezad (Ire) (Titus Livius {Fr}) in the G3 Hamburger Meile, demonstrating that the current crop of three-year-olds could be above average (see Sunday's TDN). Sunday's highlight was the G2 Idee Hansa-Preis, which saw the gallant seven-year-old Egerton (Ger) (Groom Dancer) repeat his victory of two years ago (see Monday's TDN). Now a triple group winner and multiple Group 1 placed, connections will try to find the veteran a place at stud.

Also on Sunday was the Listed Rudolf August Oetker-Memorial, the first stakes event for juveniles in this country. The filly Beltana (Ger) (Areion {Ger}) followed up her maiden success at Hannover to remain unbeaten (see Monday's TDN). She marks the second winner from two juvenile runners for her sire this season and this sprinting son of Big Shuffle is reported to have a solid crop of two-year-olds.

AUSTRALASIA

GRAND REVE RETIRED TO ILALA STUD Stakes winner Grand Reve (Aus) (Canny Lad {Aus}--Recce {NZ}, by Spectacular Love) has been retired and will stand his initial season at stud at Ilala Stud. The four-year-old will stand at a fee of A$6,600, with "negotiable payment terms to suit all breeders," according to an Ilala Stud release. As with all Ilala stallions, 10 percent of the stud's stallion income will be donated to SIDS research, and related charities. Under the tutelage of trainer Brian Guy, Grand Reve won the Listed Chief De Beers Quality S. in Brisbane as a three-year-old. He also finished second to Gold Edition (Aus) in the G3 BTC Classic. In 14 career starts, Grand Reve won six times and added four seconds while earning A$302,200.
