BC ANNOUNCES ELECTION RESULTS

Officials at Breeders' Cup Limited have announced the election of 12 individuals to its Board of Members and Trustees. The election results were confirmed by TrueBallot, Inc. on July 1, and are expected to be ratified by the current Breeders' Cup Board of Members and Trustees at its July 11 meeting. Consisting of 48 individuals, the Breeders' Cup Board is elected by Breeders' Cup foal and stallion nominators through a proportional share holder voting system. It meets at least once a year for an election for the 13-member Breeders' Cup Board of Directors, which is charged with overseeing the activities of the corporation. The Board of Members and Trustees will vote for six new members to the Breeders' Cup Board of Directors July 11. The 12 elected members will each serve a three-year term, beginning July 11. They are:

Helen Alexander
Doug Cauthen
William S. Farish, Jr.
Terrence P. Finley
Lucy Young Hamilton
Maria Niarchos-Gouaze
Charles Nuckols III
Bill Oppenheim
Don M. Robinson

Incumbents re-elected were Alexander, Farish, Finley, Hamilton, Niarchos-Gouaze, Nuckols and Taylor. Incumbents not re-elected include Robert N. Clay, Robert Cromartie, Leverett S. Miller and Joseph V. Shields Jr.

BIG BROWN RETURNS TO WORKTAB

GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness S. hero Big Brown (Boundary) returned to the worktab yesterday for the first time since being eased out of the GI Belmont S. June 7, going five-eighths of a mile in a pedestrian 1:06.71 over a fast main track at Aqueduct Wednesday morning. According to Daily Racing Form, Big Brown loped along through his opening two furlongs in :27.47, three-eighths in :41.02 and the half in :53.68. He was out six furlongs in 1:21.50, according to DRF clockers. "I told [exercise rider] Michelle [Nevin] I don't want to him to go too fast, I'd rather him go slower than faster," trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. told the publication. "The horse looks like he's fine. I can't tell you that we've got any problems. He's good right now; he's cooling out good, drinking his water, looks like he's happy, so we're good." Undefeated and untested in his first five starts, Big Brown endured a rough opening quarter mile in the Belmont S., then had nothing left for the stretch drive and was eased down the lane. He is expected to resume his season in the GI Haskell Invitational S. at Monmouth Park Aug. 3 before a possible start in the GI Travers S. Aug. 23. He could close his career in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Santa Anita Oct. 25.

Big Brown
Sarah K Andrew

Consistency was the watchword with Cheyenne Star in 2007 after the homebred had made her mark when winning the G3 Ridgewood Pearl S. at The Curragh in May. Runner-up in the Listed Glencairn S. over a mile here the following month, she reappeared after a break to win the Listed Garnet S. at Naas in October and Listed Cooley Fillies' S. on Dundalk's Polytrack in November. Unplaced on her seasonal return in the May 5 G3 Athasi S. at The Curragh, she rebounded with a third in the latest renewal of the Ridgewood Pearl back at that track May 24. Settled behind the early pace here, the bay was unleashed wide at the top of the stretch and grabbed the lead at the furlong marker before holding Age of Chivalry in the closing stages. "[Jockey] Pat [Smullen] was suspended and couldn't ride Cheyenne Star, but Seamie [Heffernan] gave her a lovely ride," commented winning trainer Frances Crowley, also the wife of Pat Smullen, told Irish-Racing.com. "Pat rides Cheyenne Star in her work and, after her last piece of work, he told me she'd win this. She is a lovely mare to train and may go to Goodwood now before having a tilt at the Group 1 Matron S. [at Leopardstown Sept. 6]."

Stepping up from a maiden win at Bremen last August, Peace Royale ran second in the G3 Maurice Lacroix-Trophy at Baden-Baden at the end of that month before bagging a sales-related event at Dusseldorf in September. She ran sixth in the Oct. 7 G1 Prix Marcel Boussac in her season closer at Longchamp next time and came back to bag the May 12 G3 Schwarzgold-Rennen at Cologne in her latest outing. Breaking swiftly to occupy second along the rail here, she went by Irish raider Impetuous (GB) (Inchinor {GB}) with 350 meters remaining and came under a power drive in the closing stages to just withstand the late thrust of Flashing Colour. "She lost a shoe and strained her shoulder last time out," revealed trainer Andreas Wohler. "We are very happy with her and will now try her in the G1 Preis der Diana [at Dusseldorf Aug. 3], as we are quite sure she will stay the [11-furlong] trip." Click for the Racing Post chart.

Estrela do Oriente solidified his status as Rio de Janeiro's top-rated turf juvenile with this come-from-behind victory. Conditioned by Cosme Morgado Neto at Estrela Dalva's Training Center, Estrela do Oriente added his second consecutive group stakes victory after previously annexing the May 25 G2 Grande Premio Conde de Herzberg at La Gavea. Estrela do Oriente represents the first Group 1 winner for multiple GI/G1SW Redattore, whose first crop is racing successfully in Brazil this year. Redattore stands the Northern Hemisphere season at Harris Farm in California.

Raw Silk tuned up for Saturday's race yesterday morning at Hollywood Park, breezing five-eighths of a mile in :59.40 over the Cushion Track. "She did it nice and easy," said Fidel Amezcua, groom for trainer Tom Albertrani. The bay earned her ticket to this invitational event by wiring a strong field in the GII Sands Point S. at Belmont Park May 31. "She's gone to the front in all her races; she likes it that way," said Amezcua of the filly, who is expected to set the pace in a field of 12.

LANE'S END

DIXIE UNION
TWO 2YO FILLY STAKES WINNERS OVER THE WEEKEND:
GARDEN DISTRICT WON G3 DEBUTANTE S.
BOLD UNION WON $100,000 ASTORIA S.

MIDSIZE FIELD TAKING SHAPE

As many as eight older turf horses are expected to pass the entry box today for Saturday's 1 3/8-mile GI United Nations S., one of just two Grade I events at the Jersey Shore. With English Channel, winner of the last two runnings of the $750,000 test, now retired to stud, this year's renewal shapes a wide-open affair. Trainer Bobby Frankel is a two-time winner of the U.N., having won in 1991 with Exbourne (at Atlantic City Racecourse) and in 2001 with Senure, who was awarded the victory via the stewards. The California-based conditioner has three horses nominated to the race, and is expected to start either Juddmonte Farms' Champs Elysees (GB) (Danehill), Stud TNT's Out of Control (Brz) (Royal Academy) or Gary A. Tanaka's Sudan (Ire) (Peintre Celebre). In 1999, the U.N. was shifted permanently to Monmouth Park and was won by the Bill Mott-trained Yagli. The Hall of Famer, who took the 2000 running as well with Down the Aisle, is likely to be represented this weekend by Pin Oak Stable's Equitable (A.P. Indy) or Peter Vegso's veteran Silver Tree (Hennessy). Bushwood Stable's Better Talk Now was victorious in the 2005 U.N., and, while the nine-year-old is penciled in for next weekend's GI Man O'War S. at Belmont Park, his stablemate Independent George (Cozzene) is considered a likely starter at Monmouth Park. A pair of locally based horses are also expected to take part in Saturday's race, Presious Passion (Royal Anthem) and Strike a Deal (Smart Strike).

SOVEREIGN SERIES LAUNCHED The "Sovereign Series," a new Racing UK-driven initiative involving 10 of the summer's major Flat prizes, was unveiled yesterday. Set to begin 2010, it will boast a prize of £2 million to be split between the three horses that accumulated the most points in the competition, which spans from the G1 2000 Guineas to the G1 Champion S. In an effort to promote racing on a wider scale, the organisers will link the contests and increase the purse of each to reach a total of £10 million, including the bonus fund. Ultimately, the winner on points will be proclaimed Britain's Champion Flat Racehorse. Revenue for the Series will be gained via television contracts, which would require that all races are staged on Saturday and could mean a move for Royal Ascot's G1 Prince of Wales's S., Glorious Goodwood's G1 Sussex S. and York's G1 Juddmonte International S. Racing UK's Chief Operations Officer Andrew Brown announced the enterprise in London yesterday. "The Sovereign Series is a competition to crown the British champion Flat horse," Brown said. "Racing needs to reach to a broader audience. The Sovereign Series is an easy-to-understand concept to take racing into the mainstream and to optimise the value and exposure of racing on television."

CECIL HOPING FOR DUAL ECLIPSE RAID

Trainer Henry Cecil is set to run Khalid Abdullah's Phoenix Tower (Chester House) and the Niarchos family's Multidimensional (Ire) (Danehill) in Saturday's G1 Coral-Eclipse S. at Sandown. While jockey Ted Durcan has committed to the former, who was runner-up in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot June 19, Tom Queally will partner the G2 Hardwicke S. runner-up. "Both Phoenix Tower and Multidimensional seem in very good form," Cecil commented. "Hopefully, both will run really well on Saturday. You always have respect for your opposition, but we are not going there without a chance. I wouldn't want it too soft for Phoenix Tower and wouldn't want it too quick for Multidimensional." Queally, who will be returning after a fall at Lingfield on Tuesday, told PA Sport, "I've ridden in a good few Group 1 races, I've never won one, and Multidimensional looks to have a decent chance. We have been very happy with his work and I sat on him the other day. I won on Phoenix Tower at Newmarket earlier in the season and, as long as we get a bit of luck, the stable has two good chances."

HOOK, LINE, SINKER...
THE PINHOOKER'S VIEW OF THE 2008 SEASON

It was a mixed bag at this year's two-year-old sales, from impressive gains at OBSMAR (median up 21.9 percent, average up 36.6 percent) to significant declines at BESMAR (median off 25.4 percent, average down 18.9 percent). Results at OBSFEB, FTFFEB and KEEAPR showed only minor fluctuations. The RNA rates ranged from 28.2 percent at OBSFEB (compared to 29.9 percent in 2007) to 44.4 percent at BESMAR (up from 41.3 percent last year). KEEAPR improved sharply when it came to buybacks, with RNAs at 38.4 percent this year (down from 47.1 percent in 2007).

We asked some of the leading pinhookers in the Thoroughbred business how 2008 treated them, and what, if any, changes they plan to make going forward. The results of our survey will be published this week.

Today, we feature Vision Racing LLC, a partnership formed by Brandon and Diannah Perry and John and Jill Stephens; Off The Hook LLC, headed by Carlos Morales and Joe Applebaum; and bloodstock agent Mike Ryan. Niall Brennan handles the Mike Ryan consignments.

Of your three biggest pinhooking successes this year, which was the biggest surprise?

John Stephens: None were surprises. We fully expected to do well with each of these horses. Each of these horses had performed well in preparation for the sales arena, and then did what we anticipated at their respective sales. In addition to performance, each of these horses had a little something in their pedigrees that we knew could be attractive to prospective buyers.

John & Jill Stephens

What two-year-old was the biggest disappointment? Why do you think he failed to meet expectations?

JS: The Indian Charlie out of Predictress (purchased for $75K as a FTKJUL yearling; bought back for $250K at BESMAR). This colt worked fantastic at the Barretts sale, and looked good in his performance. He seemed to be very well received by the buyers, but did not generate the bidding we had hoped for. There was some discrepancy with the various interpretations of his vet reports. None of the issues at hand was relevant to his racing potential, but definitely seemed to effect the bidding. Big issues were made of small things. We were pleased to purchase him for our own racing group,

Brandon & Diannah Perry

Will your results from this year affect the way you approach the yearling sales this year? Will you change the number or the type of yearlings you are buying to adjust to the market?

JS: Yes, in a positive way. We followed specific guidelines last year, and set pretty strict spending limits on each horse. This approach has worked for us for the last two years, generating good returns for investors and allowing us to continue our efforts.

In general, we look for horses that look athletic, and have something in the family that suggests an opportunity for success in racing for the individual horse. That won't change. In terms of numbers, we don't like to have horses competing against each other for the same buyers at their respective sales--for that to hold true, we can only consign so many at each sale. Our numbers, 16-22, will probably remain about the same.

	$82K KEESEP yrl - consigned by Gainesway, agent $250K OBSMAR 2yo - purchased by Alex & Joann Lieblong

Of your three biggest pinhooking successes this year, which was the biggest surprise?

Joe Applebaum: Of the group, the surprise was the Holy Bull. He really responded to the new surface at OBS and it allowed him to flourish. We've been following him on Watch Mail and it seems he has held that form with a series of strong workouts. I'm eager to see his debut.

Carlos Morales & Joe Applebaum

What two-year-old was the biggest disappointment? Why do you think he failed to meet expectations?

JA: A colt by Tiger Ridge out of Dual Monarchy (purchased for $30K as an OBSAUG yearling; sold for $30K at OBSMAR to Rafael Celis). He breezed in :10 1/5 at OBS in March. He was good-looking and vetted well. We were only able to sell him for $30,000. I think the buyer got a great deal. I am happy for him, but seriously can't believe that :10 1/5 isn't good enough anymore.

How would rate your overall success this year?

JA: We had a pretty solid year in the sales ring. We got hit with a bit of an injury bug late in the season that held us back from having a spectacular year, but if every year was like this, we wouldn't complain.

Will your results from this year affect the way you approach the yearling sales this year? Will you change the number or the type of yearlings you are buying to adjust to the market?

JA: We are constantly fine-tuning our strategy, but the basics will remain the same. Like everyone else, we look for well-conformed, athletic horses that fall into our price range. We probably obsess a bit on the vetting, but in the long run we feel that gives us a measure of security. Most importantly, we work hard to target the sales where our horses can be standouts.

Precocious Two-Year-Old

Heatseeker was a precocious 2YO who broke his maiden in July of his 2YO season and would go on to place in the Group I National Stakes to Champion George Washington (GI) in only his third start at two.

	$120K KEESEP yrl - consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency $380K BESMAR 2yo - purchased by Omar Trevino Bloodstock

Which of your three biggest pinhooking successes this year was the biggest surprise?

MR: The Pleasantly Perfect filly was a surprise only because she missed about two months of training at the beginning of the breaking season due to an ankle chip. She came back great and managed to catch up with the rest.

Mike Ryan

What two-year-old was the biggest disappointment?

MR: The biggest disappointments were a couple of nice fillies that did not make it to the sale. One was a Mr. Greeley filly that ended up needing a chip removed from her ankle and the other was a Proud Citizen filly that developed bucked shins. These were two quality fillies that we had high expectations for that we did not get to present.

How would you rate your overall success this year?

MR: This year was very good overall; the numbers were down, but that was intentional. There are too few horses finding new homes. With scratches and RNAs, only 50 percent of horses, at best, are actually changing ownership. Given those statistics, we are happy. There is saturation of the product that we have to compete with and there are so many hurdles to jump through. For example, the horse has to breeze well, have a fast time, a fast gallop-out, an excellent video, pristine X-rays and be sound at the barn. With six to eight months of training, they are going to have some wear and tear. People do not want to see pathology on X-rays. Performance and perfection is a difficult combination to achieve and it becomes expensive. The advent of synthetic surfaces at the two-year-old sales has been huge and helped quite a bit.

Will your results from this year affect the way you approach the yearling sales this year? Will you change the number or the type of yearlings you are buying to adjust to the market?

MR: We will probably operate at the same level as last year. We are cautious on the amount that we spend per horse, and everything will stay the same as far as numbers go. I enjoy the challenge of buying yearlings to go to the two-year-old sales and I believe that anybody serious about racing at a high and competitive level needs to consider the two-year-old sales as a source of runners. They are proven--look at Big Brown and Denis of Cork in this year's Derby.

DEADLOCKED JURY IN CURLIN OWNERS'

TRIAL A federal jury in Covington, Kentucky, reported Wednesday morning that it had reached a deadlock in their deliberations on fraud charges against two lawyers who are the minority owners in Horse of the Year Curlin. Judge William Bertelsman of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Kentucky ordered the jury to continue their discussions after hearing arguments from both sides. Attorneys for the defendants William Gallion and Shirley Cunningham, who have been jailed since late last year on charges of conspiracy, asked Judge Bertelsman to issue the order to the jury as opposed to declaring a mistrial. Gallion, Cunningham and a third lawyer, Melbourne Mills Jr., have been charged with defrauding clients in a 2002 settlement of a suit against the makers of the diet drug fen-phen. The proceedings are likely to have a result on the immediate future of Curlin. He is currently being pointed to his turf debut in the GI Man O'War S. in New York or the GIII Arlington H. the same afternoon, but licensing issues could preclude a start in either jurisdiction. However, a ruling issued by Kentucky state judge Roger Crittenden has transferred management of the minority interest to a court-appointed receiver, the Blood-Horse reports, apparently clearing the way for Curlin to race in any jurisdiction. "They [Cunningham and Gallion] basically have no say in any of the horses at this point," attorney Richard Getty, who represents the Stonestreet Stables operation of Jess Jackson and his wife, Barbara Banke, told the publication. "I think this is a very positive development in terms of the ability to race Curlin in any jurisdiction. We hope it is viewed as such by such racing authorities."

JONES'S DELAWARE BARN GETS INCREASED

SECURITY Security at the Delaware Park barn of trainer Larry Jones will be increased after a racehorse from his stable and a stable pony were found loose in the area surrounding the barn earlier this week. Track security officials as well as the Thoroughbred Protective Bureau are involved in the investigation, which is focusing on a recently terminated employee from the Jones stable. The conditioner told Daily Racing Form that the loose Thoroughbred was found Sunday evening, about a half-hour after the employee was fired. Pal, the stable pony, was found wandering the following night. While the racehorse was not hurt, the stable pony was found to have a blistered mouth and tongue. Jones told DRF that he believed whoever let Pal out of the barn was also responsible for delivering some sort of blistering agent. In June, a Jones horse at Delaware Park tested positive for clenbuterol, while in 2007, another Jones trainee was found to have been sponged.

Tsali's final start of 2007 was a sixth-place finish in the Gill Northern Dancer S. at Churchill last June. After finishing a close third in his Jan. 14 comeback at Gulfstream, the chestnut picked up a narrow success at the same track two weeks later, only to be sidelined once again. He settled in second after lunging at the start, asserted himself in front of the stands and bested Southern Missile to take his career record to .500.

She closed out her sophomore campaign with a runner-up effort at The Meadowlands Sept. 20. Bumped at the start of her May 23 return over this course, she had the lead at the stretch call before tiring to be fifth. NTRA REPORT FROM CAPITOL HILL

NTRA TO ADDRESS NEW TAX ISSUE

As part of its ongoing effort to address tax matters that impact that the pari-mutuel industry, the NTRA will introduce legislation this year to eliminate or substantially increase the threshold for Federal tax withholding on pari-mutuel winnings from the current $5,000 level. This "withholding conformity" legislation would put pari-mutuel wagering on par with other forms of gaming where there is no withholding.

Eliminating the automatic withholding - a flat 25 percent of winnings over $5,000 - will reduce paperwork at racetracks and increase daily pari-mutuel "churn" as each wagering dollar is re-bet multiple times. Ultimately, the bill would benefit not only horseplayers but racetracks, horsemen and owners through increased handle and purses.

The NTRA legislative team has secured a Republican cosponsor for the bill and hopes to secure bi-partisan support in the few weeks that remain before the start of the summer recess on August 2.

Please visit www.HorseplayersCoalition.com for updates on this and other issues affecting racetracks and their customers.

SCHOLARSHIP (f, 3, Deputy Commander--Oxford Scholar {SW, $102,029}, by Seeking the Gold) dueled for the lead in her debut before fading in the final eighth to finish fifth going 5 1/2 furlongs June 9 at Delaware Park. Sporting a solid :47 2/5 workout June 24, the best of 19 moves that morning at Delaware, the bay filly had no stamina issues in her second start despite traveling an additional 5/16 of a mile. Scholarship set fractions of :24 3/5 and :46 3/5 on a clear lead before drawing off to win by 6 1/2 lengths under jockey James Lopez's hand ride. Reynaldowhewizard posted several eye-catching morning moves at Keeneland and went postward as the 3-1 second choice. Away alertly under Julien Leparoux, the bay raced in fourth just behind the leaders through splits of :22.70 and :45.43. He joined his rivals four abreast in midstretch before kicking into gear, and drew off impressively to graduate by 4 3/4 lengths. Indeedingly (Street Cry {Ire}), a hard-luck second last out June 4, won the battle to complete the exacta this time by a half-length over More Than Global (More Than Ready). Reynaldowhewizard marks the third winner from the first crop of his sire (by Gone West), who reigned as the nation's champion sprinter of 2004. He was bred in the name of Gibraltar Group, which is a foal share arrangement between SJB Stable, the owners of Holiday Runner, and Dean De Renzo and Randy Hartley. "We put up the stud fee, so actually we own half of the babies, but not the mare," De Renzo explained earlier this year. Hartley/De Renzo bought out their partners for $400,000 when this colt was offered as a yearling at KEESEP, and put him back on the block this year at Fasig-Tipton. He breezed a furlong in :10 (video) and sold for $775,000 to Omar Trevino, who signed the ticket for Sheikh Rashid bin Mohammed Al Maktoum's Zabeel Racing. He was the second-highest priced-juvenile for Speightstown in 2008. Holiday Runner's first foal, a Street Cry (Ire) named Seventh Street, sold for $1 million at Calder in 2007. A very good juvenile herself in 2002, the bay mare produced a Ghostzapper filly in 2007, but came up barren when bred back to Unbridled's Song. Borel Back in the Saddle:

Jockey Calvin Borel returned to the saddle yesterday afternoon at Churchill Downs after taking off his mounts Sunday due to some soreness in a knee. "He worked five horses Sunday morning, but his knee swelled and he had it drained," Borel's agent Jerry Hissam said. "He gave it a couple days' rest." The 2007 Kentucky Derby-winning jockey is approaching a milestone. Entering yesterday's action, he is sitting on 4492 career victories. Borel is currently fifth in the local jockeys standings with 43 wins prior to Wednesday's card.

Monday Work to Determine Acoma's Next Start:

Trainer David Carroll has GIII Dogwood S. winner Acoma (Empire Maker) on track for a Monday breeze at Churchill Downs which will have an impact on where she makes her next start. Owned by Helen Alexander and Helen Groves, the daughter of Aurora breezed five furlongs in 1:01.20 this past Monday morning. "She worked very well," Carroll commented. "She is going to either the [GII] Delaware Oaks [July 12] or the [GI] Coaching Club American Oaks [Belmont Park, July 19] and her work next Monday will likely determine which one." Third to the talented Storm Mesa on debut at the Fair Grounds Mar. 13, Acoma won her maiden at Keeneland Apr. 18 and cleared her first allowance condition at Churchill May 11 before making it three straight with her 7-1 upset in the Dogwood May 31.

Elser Named Interim Sales Director at Darby Dan:

Kip Elser, who operates the Kirkwood Stables consignment, has been appointed to the position of interim sales director at Darby Dan Farm. "Kip is a well known, highly respected and experienced horseman who has purchased, prepped and consigned thousands of horses throughout his distinguished career," commented Darby Dan owner John Phillips. "We are thrilled to be formally associated with Kip." Elser's role n with Darby Dan is in addition to Kirkwood Stable's ongoing yearling-breaking and two-year-old pinhooking and sales ventures. Added Elser, "I have worked with Darby Dan in various capacities for nearly two decades. This is a comfortable fit for me and a great opportunity to be closely involved with one of the legacy farms of the Bluegrass. Darby Dan has a great team in place and I look forward to being a part of it." The farm also announced the promotion of Nate Heiple from assistant farm and broodmare manager to farm manager.

LOOK TOPS LEGER LIST Julian Richmond-Watson's G1 Epsom Oaks heroine Look Here (GB) (Hernando {Fr}) yesterday featured among the 46 remaining in the Sept. 13 G1 Ladbrokes St Leger. Trainer Ralph Beckett yesterday confirmed that his charge is on target to attempt to become the first filly to win the £500,000 Doncaster Classic since User Friendly (GB) in 1992. "Look Here is very well," he said. "She's doing her own thing quietly at the moment and we're aiming for the G1 Yorkshire Oaks [at York Aug. 21], and we'll see how it pans out after that. The York race comes first, obviously, and three and a bit weeks later, if she's all right, she'll run. If the ground comes up quick at York, we'll probably wait. I'd like to send her to Doncaster if we could, but it's ground dependent, really, and we've got to do what's best for her. We set out an autumn campaign after Epsom and we look like sticking to it. The timing of the Oaks seems to indicate that we should be taking on the colts." Sir Michael Stoute is still looking for his first renewal of the extended mile-and-three-quarter contest, but has an enviable team this time. Among the seven remaining are the Ballymacoll Stud homebred trio of G1 Epsom Derby runner-up and G1 Irish Derby third Tartan Bearer (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}), G3 Queen's Vase hero Patkai (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) and G2 King Edward VII S. runner-up Conduit (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}). "The G2 Great Voltigeur S. [at York Aug. 19] is traditionally a good trial for the St Leger and both Patkai and Conduit have been entered for that race as well, so we'll probably make a decision about them after it," commented the stud's manager Peter Reynolds. "Tartan Bearer has arrived home, but I haven't spoken to his trainer about how he is. I would imagine that it will take him a while to get over the race--his brother Golan was a bit the same, in that he needed plenty of time between races. It will probably be a while before you see Tartan Bearer out." Godolphin has one nominee in King Edward VII winner Campanologist (Kingmambo), while Aidan O'Brien has a total of 18 remaining, including Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and Susan Magnier's Irish Derby first and fourth Frozen Fire (Ger) (Montjeu {Ire}) and Alessandro Volta (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}).

HEFFERNAN PAYS TRIBUTE TO FIRE Jockey Seamus Heffernan believes Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and Susan Magnier's G1 Irish Derby winner Frozen Fire (Ger) (Montjeu {Ire}) could take high rank among the best Ballydoyle middle-distance horses of recent times. Despite his odds of 16-1 and the dramatic nature of the finish due to the errant run of his stable companion Alessandro Volta (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}), his rider believes the colt, who had previously flopped in the G1 Epsom Derby, stamped his authority in the mile-and-a-half Classic. "I really like him and you have to disregard his Epsom run," Heffernan commented yesterday. "I was impressed with him on Sunday--he won well and on merit. He won his two-year-old maiden over seven furlongs, so has plenty of speed and could be as good as any of the good middle-distance horses we have had here."

CONNECTIONS KEEP FAITH IN GETAWAY Baron Georg von Ullmann's Getaway (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) remains on course for the Oct. 5 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe following two off-the-board runs, connections announced yesterday. Having been briefly on top of the World Rankings after his emphatic success in Newmarket's G2 Jockey Club S. May 4, the Andre Fabre-trained five-year-old was only fifth in both Epsom's G1 Coronation Cup June 6 and Sunday's G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud. "Sunday was a bit of a disaster and while it is not necessarily an excuse, he did lose a front shoe on his near fore," explained the owner-breeder's Racing Manager Paul Harley. "There was a good covering of grass, but the ground was firm and he probably does lack a bit of speed against the top mile-and-a-half horses in Europe at the moment. I feel that he's a different horse with ease in the ground and Mr Fabre is a genius at getting horses right for the Arc, so if there is a chance of being there to win it, he is the man. I think maybe we all got carried away after he won at Newmarket, but his Arc form from last year was solid against those horses he has been competing against at Epsom and at the weekend, so we've not totally lost faith. Our plan now is to get him to the Arc, and although one of the Arc trials is a possibility, we may send him there fresh. I haven't talked about it in great detail to Mr. Fabre, but he is considering sending him back over one mile and seven furlongs for the race he won at Deauville last year, the [Aug. 24] G2 Prix Kergorlay, just to get his confidence back. The King George is definitely out."

LADY COTTINGHAM (GB) (f, 2, Dr Fong--Mystify {GB} {MSP-Eng}, by Batshoof {Ire}), fourth on debut over this track and trip June 18, raced close to the moderate early pace set by Misty Glade (GB) (Compton Place {GB}). Wearing down that rival with 150 yards remaining, the 45,000gns DONAUG yearling asserted to justify 11-4 joint-favoritism by 1 1/4 lengths. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £4,174.

SHYRL (GB) (f, 2, Acclamation {GB}--Finicia, by Miswaki) went postward as the 1-4 lock coming back from a runner-up finish in the G2 Queen Mary S. at Royal Ascot June 18. Out sharply to take immediate control of this lesser task, she came under pressure when threatened by Minotaurious (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}), but found plenty under urging to easily best that rival by 3 1/2 lengths. The winner was a 12,000gns TATDEC foal, a 19,000gns TATOCT yearling and a 70,000gns TATAPR juvenile. Lifetime Record: 3-1-2-0, £21,641.

WATERGATE (IRE) (c, 2, Verglas {Ire}--Moy Water {Ire}, by Tirol {Ire}), fourth at Doncaster June 6, broke best and towed the field along from flagfall. Urged clear approaching the final furlong, the €60,000 GOFMIL yearling coasted to the line in the latter stages to score by seven lengths from Tropical Blue (GB) (Fath) as the crowd's 4-5 choice. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, £4,184. O-Charles C Walker - Osborne House III; B-Irish National Stud; T-Sir Mark Prescott.

GALLAGHER (GB) (c, 2, Bahamian Bounty {GB}--Roo {GB} {SP-Eng}, by Rudimentary), only sixth when favorite behind the smart Orizaba (Ire) on his first outing at Newbury May 16, was hammered into 10-11 favoritism and took up a prominent pitch early. Taking over passing the quarter pole, the 65,000gns TATDEC weanling and 115,000gns TATOCT yearling drew away to beat My Sweet Georgia (Ire) (Royal Applause {GB}) by 4 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £3,562. O-Brimacombe, McNally, Rickman & Sangster; B-Ptarmigan Bloodstock Limited; T-Brian Meehan.

ARMURE (GB) (f, 3, Dalakhani {Ire}--Bombazine {Ire} {SP-Eng}, by Generous {Ire}), third when last seen at Haydock in September, raced in a stalking fifth throughout the early stages. Making her move wide in the straight, the 4-1 shot quickened to lead with a quarter mile remaining and proved gutsy in holding Amhooj (GB) (Green Desert) by a half-length after a protracted duel. The winner is a half sistert to Affirmative Action (Ire) (Rainbow Quest, SW-Fr, $155,272) and Gravitass (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}, MSW-Fr, $289,497). Lifetime Record: 4-1-0-1, £3,311.

Ryehill Dreamer lost out to Vilasol over six furlongs on debut at this venue Apr. 20 before going one better over a panel further at Gowran Park May 4. Locking horns with his old rival again here, the bay proved stronger in the final 100 yards after both launched their challenges off a steady early pace set by the disappointing favorite Sawtooth Mountain (Johannesburg). Connections of Ryehill Dreamer are looking at the G3 Tyros S. at this venue July 24 and G2 Futurity S. at The Curragh Aug. 23, with the Oct. 24 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf a longer-range target.
