ELLIS PARK TO CLOSE

Track owner Ron Geary announced Thursday morning that he will close 86-year-old Ellis Park in Florence, Ky, one day before the 44-day summer meet was to begin. Geary has been dealing with a strike by the mutuel workers' union, and is locked in a dispute with horsemen over the division of revenue for advance deposit wagering. Unable to come to an agreement with the Kentucky Horsemen's Benevolent Association over the ADW revenue split, Geary went to court, suing the KHBPA, but the judge ruled against him Wednesday night, and the decision was made to close the track. "Ninety percent of our revenues come from off-track, internet and television broadcast wagering," Geary said in a statement. "The leadership of Kentucky HBPA has an ongoing dispute with these ADWs, and Ellis Park is caught in the crossfire." He added, "It is shocking to think that the KHBPA would choose to close down Ellis Park rather than take advantage of the additional revenue already negotiated with the ADWs for 2008. All the KHBPA is focused on is hurting the ADWs this year so they can negotiate a higher percentage next year. What they are doing is a scorched earth strategy with huge collateral damage to the Tri-State." The KHBA is petitioning the Kentucky Horse Racing Authority to intervene. In a release issued Thursday morning, the KHBA stated, "It is hard to understand the logic behind the decision [to close the track], after all, the lost ADW revenue amounts to approximately $5,000 a day in purses. If the daily purses at Ellis Park are estimated to be between $130,000 to $140,000 per day, why would Ron Geary decide to close down the racetrack based on a 3.8-percent loss in revenue? One can only wonder if the prolonged labor unrest that has polarized the community or the fact that only slightly more than 300 horses are currently stabled at Ellis Park may have influenced his decision much more than a small percentage loss of ADW revenue. It is a tragic situation that must be rectified."

MISTRIAL DECLARED IN TRIAL OF CURLIN OWNERS

Judge William Bertelsman of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Kentucky in Covington yesterday declared a mistrial in the case against two lawyers who own a minority share in Horse of the Year Curlin, according to published reports. The jury remained deadlocked after two days of deliberations on the single charge of criminal conspiracy against Shirley Cunningham Jr and William Gallion. Earlier in the week, the jury acquitted a third lawyer in the case, Melbourne Mills Jr. Deemed a flight risk, Gallion and Cunningham remain in jail without bail on the orders of Judge Bertelsman. The two own 20 percent of Curlin. A date for a second trial has yet to be set.

EUROPEAN LAUNCH FOR TRAKUS

Trakus, the innovative video system that displays the virtual position of the runners, in real time, alongside the telecast of a live race, will debut outside of North America for the first time at the 2008 August meeting at Deauville, France Galop announced yesterday. Already in place at Keeneland, Del Mar and Woodbine, Trakus will be up and running when the Deauville meet opens Aug. 2. The launch of Trakus at Deauville requires three months of installation, from mid-April to mid-July. "The French horse racing industry is always advancing," said Thierry Delegue, acting director general of France Galop. "For example, we are the sport that has made the greatest effort to combat doping and illegal medications. Over the course of the last 50 years, we have introduced video replays, and racing was the first sport to incorporate digital photography. We were at the forefront of innovation by adding artificial surfaces. Installation of the Trakus system is yet more proof of our desire to present new ideas. The entire public, the industry professionals and seasoned bettors, will benefit. For us, Trakus is a strategic tactic to develop a new audience." With as many as 20 runners, following the action can be even more difficult in Europe than in the U.S., but, by displaying icons bearing the numbers of each competitor, a spectator can easily identify his or her horse within the group. Cont. p2

The icons, or chicklets, move in coordination with the horses, and spectators can track the exact position of their horses in real time and at every angle, whether it is on the giant screen, the closed-circuit monitor at the track, on TV at home or via a personal digital assistant (PDA). Trakus also details a horse's speed at various points of call, the average speed and the distance traveled. Eric Brion, CEO of the French racing network Equidia, remarked, "Last year, we did a study on the impressions of our on-track tele-spectators. Many said that the body of the race was hard to watch. Even those who are seasoned bettors had difficulty following a particular horse in a group. Trakus brings us the solution that we are looking for. It is a huge technological leap for horse racing."

CHEVELEY TRIP HEAD FALMOUTH LIST David and Patricia Thompson could have as many as four runners in Wednesday's one-mile G1 UAE Hydra Properties Falmouth S. at Newmarket, which attracted a total of 14 at yesterday's five-day stage. Poised to carry the red, white and blue silks of Cheveley Park Stud in the £200,000 contest are G3 Dahlia S. winner and G2 Windsor Forest S. runner-up Heaven Sent (GB) (Pivotal {GB}); Infallible (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), the G1 Coronation S. runner-up; Spacious (GB) (Nayef), second to Natagora (Fr) in the G1 1000 Guineas; and pace-maker Hip (GB) (Pivotal {GB}). The stud's managing director Chris Richardson is keeping a close eye on the weather ahead of the fillies' feature of the July Festival. "You certainly want to have as many chances as possible in a race such as this, but I'm not quite sure at this stage which of our horses will actually run," he said. "If we were to get some rain, it would enhance the likelihood of Infallible lining up. If it were to stay largely dry and the ground remained on the fast side of good, it's more than likely Heaven Sent would take her chance. With Spacious, who didn't quite spark at Ascot, it will depend on how things are." Jim Bolger has entered Michael Ryan's dual Guineas heroine Finsceal Beo (Ire) (Mr. Greeley) and his and Ennistown Stud's 1000 Guineas third Saoirse Abu (Mr. Greeley). The former was reported to be none the worse for her latest disappointing effort when trailing in Saturday's G1 Pretty Polly S. at The Curragh. Described by the racecourse vet as having finished the race "clinically abnormal," her trainer told the Racing Post on Wednesday, "She's fine and not a semblance of a problem has showed up since." Also set to run are the multiple Group 1 winners Seachange (NZ) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and Darjina (Fr) (Zamindar), while Germany could be represented by Stall Litex's G2 German 1000 Guineas heroine Briseida (GB) (Pivotal {GB}).

LES ARCS READY FOR CUP Les Arcs (Arch) will run in next Friday's G1 Darley July Cup at Newmarket, owner Willie McKay announced yesterday. Not seen since trailing in last year's G2 Duke of York S., the eight-year-old will bid to repeat his success in the 2006 renewal of the £400,000 contest. "The Darley July Cup is still the plan for Les Arcs," McKay said. "He did a piece of work on Wednesday and it went well. York racecourse allowed us to give him a piece of work during races a few weeks ago and Doncaster racecourse have allowed us to give him a gallop as well. We were going to run him at Newcastle in the G3 Chipchase S., but we bypassed it because of the ground. We're running him at Haydock on Saturday [in a six-furlong conditions race] and then he'll run the following Friday in the Darley July Cup. Darren Williams will ride the horse on Saturday, because John Egan is in America at the moment, but he'll be back to ride him at Newmarket. Les Arcs is actually moving better now than he was after he won the Darley July Cup in 2006. A top young Irish vet, Peter Hynes, is employed at our Martin Grange Stables and he's been looking after things. We also bought a spa which he's been in twice a day and it has helped him."

PRESIOUS PASSION A FIRST FOR HARTMANN

A field of nine was entered yesterday for Saturday's running of the GI United Nation S. at Monmouth Park. The field includes Presious Passion (Royal Anthem), who will provide trainer Mary Hartmann with a career highlight. "This is my first horse ever in a Grade I race," Hartmann confirmed. "And it's really exciting." A five-year-old gelding, Presious Passion is already a three-time graded stakes winner, having captured last year's GII W L McKnight H. and GIII Cliff Hanger S., as well as this term's GIII Pan American H. He comes into the United Nations off a well-beaten runner-up effort over a sloppy track in the off-the-turf Battlefield S. June 15. "He needed to race," Hartmann said of the decision to race in the Battlefield. "If we wanted to make this race, he needed to run. I thought he did okay in the slop, especially since that was the first time he ever raced on an off track. And the best part is, he didn't hurt himself. He came out of the race great and he's trained well since." Presious Passion was loose on a clear lead in the 1 1/2-mile Pan American, but he doesn't have to employ those tactics in the United Nations, according to Hartmann.

"He really doesn't need to be in the front," the trainer said. "And I don't know how this race will set up. It will be up to the rider to judge the pace, and [Eddie] Castro knows the horse." The United Nations is part of Breeders' Cup Challenge Day at Monmouth Park and the winner earns an automatic berth in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf at Santa Anita Oct. 25. But that race isn't quite on Hartmann's radar yet. "I haven't looked that far down the road," she said. "I don't even know if he's nominated. I'm just thrilled that he's coming into this race in great shape."

1	Not for Money	Not for Love	Dutrow Jr	5-2
2	Lucky Island (Arg)	Lucky Roberto	McLaughlin	2-1
3	Starforaday	Five Star Day	Contessa	8-1

5	Tasteyville	With Approval	Kelly	3-1
6	Premium Wine	Prime Timber	Dutrow	5-1

Shadwell Stable's once-beaten Lucky Island will attempt to win his fourth straight. The four-year-old began his career with an easy win in Argentina, but ran into all sorts of trouble when seventh in his North American debut at Calder last December. In addition to traffic trouble, trainer Kieran McLaughlin thinks Lucky Island had another excuse that day. "Because we were looking to take him to Dubai, we raced without Lasix," McLaughlin said. "He bled a little bit that day. Since then, he has gone three-for-three with Lasix and he is a nice horse that seems to be getting better." After allowance victories at Gulfstream Feb. 15 and at Aqueduct Apr. 5, Lucky Island scored his biggest victory to date in the May 10 GIII Bold Ruler H. last time out. "It was a big step up going from a two other than into a race like that," McLaughlin admitted.

"It was a really big test. But he got an A-plus on it and passed with flying colors. He proved he belonged," McLaughlin added. Tasteyville, second behind Any Given Saturday in last year's GII Brooklyn H., flew to a front-running 9 1/4-length victory in the seven-furlong GIII Sport Page H. at Aqueduct last October. He returned to win a 1 1/16-mile optional claimer at Belmont May 31 in his only 2008 outing. Not for Money, three for five at this seven-furlong distance, is coming off a track-and-trip optional claimer win in a sparkling 1:20 3/5 May 23.

Trainer Rick Dutrow, Jr. has entered two in the First Flight, but admitted there is a possibility neither could go postward. "I might go to Florida [for the July 12 GI Princess Rooney at Calder] with Looky Yonder," Dutrow explained. "If we decided to run Ice Cool Kitty, she would be coming off the bench, so I don't know. We're way up in the air." Looky Yonder is coming off a win in the May 25 GII Vagrancy H., while Ice Cool Kitty has been off since defeating state-bred foes in the Montauk H. last November. Rite Moment culminated a three-race win streak at Aqueduct with a win in the Apr. 19 GII Bed o' Roses H. at this distance, but ran second when stretched out to a mile in the May 17 GII Shuvee H. Baroness Thatcher is short on wins, but always seems to be close in graded company. The filly, who has won just twice in 18 starts, was second in the GII Shirley Jones H. and missed by just a head in the May 3 GI Humana Distaff H. She was third in the Vagrancy.

Unbeaten in three starts over this lawn, Inca King captured last year's GIII Jefferson Cup and Commonwealth Turf S. He returned from a 2 1/2-month freshening to score a front-running 2 1/4-length victory in the May 31 Opening Verse H. last time out. Thorn Song, a winner of three of four Louisville turf outings, is coming off a course-and-trip optional claiming victory June 8. He was third in the Apr. 11 GI Makers Mark Mile before tiring to sixth in the nine-furlong Turf Classic.

+ GADDA DA VIDA (f, 2, Macho Uno--Petionville Pride {SP, $143,932}, by Petionville), sent off at 15-1, vied for the early lead, poked her head in front at the quarter pole and dug in stubbornly to fend off odds-on favorite Miss Bodine (Vindication) by a neck with Ride With the Herd (Candy Ride {Arg}) back in third. Floating Heart (Giant's Causeway) finished seventh after an awkward start. The winner was a $39,000 OBSOCT weanling, $90,000 OBSAUG yearling, and $95,000 FTFEB juvenile purchase. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $31,200.

+ TWO BRASH (c, 2, Awesome Again--Impolite {MSP, $174,860}, by Two Punch) was given a 9-1 chance in this first at bat. Away cleanly, the $300,000 FTSAUG yearling was squeezed shortly thereafter, losing some valuable ground in the process. Unfazed, the chestnut was blocked momentarily turning for home, but soon found room and swung out wide to take control in the stretch and had enough to score by a 1/2-lengths over Winthrop House (More Than Ready). Shrewd (Speightstown) rounded out the trifecta. Allrightserved (Awesome Again) never factored and came home sixth. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $31,200.

2--Main Executive, 121, g, 6, Bold Executive--Dream Smartly, by Smarten.

3--Connections, 119, g, 7, Unbridled--Time Buyer, by Danzig.

Margins: NK, 2HF, 7. Odds: 1.10, 2.30, 2.25.

Legal Move has only finished outside of the top three once in six starts in his 2008 campaign, which includes a triumph in the Jacques Cartier S. at Woodbine Apr. 26. The five-time stakes winner entered this test off a third in a turf allowance June 1. Sent off as the even-money favorite in the field of four, the bay stalked Main Executive into the stretch and gradually wore down the early pacesetter to improve his 2008 record to 6-3-1-1.

3rd-WOX, $61,195, Msw, 3yo/up, 1mT, 1:34, fm.
+ SINGING SAINT (c, 4, El Prado {Ire}--Relaxing Rhythm {GSW, $338,294}, by Easy Goer) lived up to the billing upon debut, sweeping to the lead after racing in the middle of the pack to prevail by 1 1/4 lengths. Making his first start going a route of ground, the 5-2 favorite had no problem tracking down runner-up A P Valor (A P Valentine). The free-running A P Valor turned into the stretch with a five-length lead, but Singing Saint surged to the front inside the eighth pole and drew clear. The winner is half to Marimba Rhythm (Golden Missile), GSP, $104,240; and Spring Waltz (Silver Charm), GSW, $317,117. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $35,204.

Saxford opened his account at Newcastle Apr. 5 before running sixth in a conditions event at Thirsk 13 days later. Runner-up under a stiff penalty back at Newcastle May 16, he returned to that Northeastern circuit to record a seven-length success last time June 26. Sent up to dispute the early lead with Saucy Brown, he had that rival's measure by the furlong pole and responded to driving to assert in the closing stages. Click for the Racing Post chart.

ATLANTIC SPORT (c, 3, Machiavellian--Shy Lady {Fr} {SW-Ger}, by Kaldoun {Fr}), off the track since finishing sixth in the G2 Champagne S. at Doncaster in September, was hammered into even-money favoritism and raced freely under restraint behind the early leaders. Quickening between rivals inside the final quarter, the $500,000 KEESEP yearling reeled in Al Muheer (Ire) (Diktat {GB}) with 100 yards remaining before holding that rival to score by a half-length. He is a half to Ya Hajar (GB) (Lycius), GSW-Fr; and Zafeen (Fr) (Zafonic), Hwt. 3yo Colt-Eng at 7-9.5f, G1SW-Eng, G1SP-Fr, $557,860. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, £15,304. ISABELLA GREY (GB) (f, 2, Choisir {Aus}--Karsiyaka {Ire}, by Kahyasi {Ire}), a debut fifth at this track June 21, chased the leaders in seventh until beyond halfway in this. Ridden along inside the final quarter mile, the 18-1 outsider kept on strongly under a drive to nab Caranbola (GB) (Lucky Story) by a head. The winner was a 12,000gns TATDEC foal and a 14,000gns TATOCT yearling. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £6,476. O-T G & Mrs M E Holdcroft; B-Goldford Stud & P E Clinton; T-Kevin Ryan.

HEATSEEKER

By Giant's Causeway out of a Grade I Producer

Heatseeker is Giant's Causeway's most accomplished main track runner in North America. His first 3 dams are each Grade I producers and there are 35 Stakes horses under his first three dams including Classic winner Al Bahathri and Champions Haafhd, Mutakarrim and Almaty. Truly a Pedigree with International appeal.

NATAF BUYS BIRBONE

While there was a heavy national hunt bias to yesterday's Arqana Summer Sale, bloodstock agent Paul Nataf was the buyer of the chief lot among the flat horses in training when securing the three-year-old Birbone (Fr) (Sendawar {Ire}). Consigned by his trainer Jean-Marie Beguigne as hip 214, the colt, a three-time winner and fourth in the June 6 Listed Prix Matchem at Maisons-Laffitte, fetched €125,000. Full results can be viewed online at www.arqana.com.

OVER TO FRANCE

Khalid Abdullah's Twice Over (GB) (Observatory) is set to step up in trip for the July 27 G2 Prix Eugene Adam at Maisons-Laffitte, connections announced yesterday. Having won the Apr. 17 G3 Craven S. and finished third in the June 17 G1 St James's Palace S. over a mile, the Henry Cecil-trained homebred will return to the 10-furlong distance over which he was third behind Tartan Bearer (Ire) and Frozen Fire (Ger) in York's Dante S. May 15. "He's a fairly decent horse and we are looking at the Prix Eugene Adam, as we think that probably 10 might be his best trip," the owner-breeder's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe explained. "He probably likes a bit of cut in the ground--at Ascot it was as fast as he'd want it, but he came out of it fine."

GEORDIELAND HAS ARC AIM

Mountgrange Stud's G1 Ascot Gold Cup runner-up Geordieland (Fr) (Johann Quatz {Fr}) has the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe as his long-term target, trainer Jamie Osborne announced yesterday. Following his second to Yeats (Ire) in that marathon June 19 contest, the seven-year-old will be tried over a shorter trip ahead of a possible tilt at Longchamp's Oct. 5 highlight. "We were second best at Ascot and there were no hard-luck stories," he said. "At some stage I would like to drop him back in trip, as maybe we've been running him over the wrong trip in trying to make him into a stayer. He would be able to travel on the bridle in behind any top-class mile-and-a-half horse, as he doesn't lack pace. He is in the Arc and [Mountgrange Stud's] Mr. Myers is keen to have a go, so the race has not been discounted. I would like to lower him in trip gently and the plan would be to go first for the G3 Geoffrey Freer S. [at Newbury Aug. 16]. He would need to win that well for us to consider the Arc."
