SEALY HILL (Point Given) Runs in $300,000 Vanity H. (G1) Today

VANITY FAIR

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}) towers over her rivals--both literally and figuratively--in today's GI Vanity H. at Hollywood. Perfect in five career starts, the long-striding filly comes into this contest off another hand-ridden tally in the GI Milady H. May 31. "What's amazing is she can be six or seven lengths behind and, within a stride or two, she'll be right up there with the leaders, loping along," rider Mike Smith told Daily Racing Form. The 124-pound highweight will face six rivals in the $300,000 affair. Cont. p5

INDIAN BLESSING CUTS BACK FOR PRIORESS

Champion Indian Blessing (Indian Charlie), tabbed as a ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ following her impressive debut at Saratoga last summer, faces six rivals in today's six-furlong GI Prioress S. at Belmont Park. The GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies S. heroine won her first two starts this term, including the GIII Silverbulletday S. Feb. 9. The dark bay suffered her first career defeat when second to Proud Spell in the GII Fair Grounds Oaks Mar. 8, then repeated that performance when runner-up behind Zaftig in a quickly run edition of the the GI Acorn S. last time June 7. Indian Blessing will be ridden for the first time by John Velazquez in the Prioress. "She got beat by a real nice filly [Zaftig] in the Acorn," trainer Bob Baffert said. "We've got a neat jockey, and it's a shorter distance, she's been training great, and we are very excited about the race. We're just glad we have her. She's nice, she's sweet, she's a beautiful filly, she's so consistent. We really enjoy her." Indian Blessing will have her hands full with ★ "TDN Rising Stars" ★ Indian Way (Indian Charlie) and Secret Gypsy (Sea of Secrets). Cont. p3

EVENLY-MATCHED 'CLAN' FOR THE OAKS

Pure Clan (Pure Prize), perfect in three attempts on the grass, headlines today's GI American Oaks Invitational at Hollywood Park. Unbeaten in her first four starts, she had the misfortune of running into the ill-fated Eight Belles twice at Oaklawn, in the GIII Honeybee S. Mar. 16 and GII Fantasy S. Apr. 6, and finished second and third, respectively. The chestnut ran a better-than-it-looked third in the GI Kentucky Oaks May 2 before returning to the grass with a 2 3/4-length tally in the GIII Regret S. at Churchill Downs. Pure Clan will mark the first Californian starter for veteran trainer Bob Holthus. "She's been very consistent and can go either way," Holthus said of his charge's ability to handle turf and dirt. "I don't think she has run on a turf course this firm before. She comes from off the pace, so I hope some others try to go for the lead. I expect to see her five or six lengths off the lead. We were fortunate with the draw to get the rail. We have the shortest trip home. Ideally, I would like to see her save some ground and get out when she wants to run." Cont. p2

AMERICAN GIRLS This contest marks the second trip to these shores for the Kentucky-bred, British-campaigned Annie Skates (Mr. Greeley), and has been her main goal this season. "I met [Racing Secretary] Martin

Sarah K Andrew

Panza at the yard in England this winter, I spoke to the owner, we decided to target this race, and here we are," said trainer Jane Chapple-Hyam. The chestnut came up 3/4-of-a-length short over yielding ground in the Epitome S. at Monmouth Oct. 26. Eighth in her seasonal opener, the seven-furlong G3 Fred Darling S., she comes here off a pair of 10-panel efforts, finishing second to Michita in the Listed Height of Fashion S. May 21 at Goodwood and third last out in Newbury's Listed Ballymacoll Stud S. June 12. She'll have her desired firm footing this time. "I missed the [G1] Coronation S. at Royal Ascot to run in this race," Chapple-Hyam added. "She got a perfect trip [at Newbury], but the ground was too soft for her. She needed to get a run under her belt. I was not deterred because she is definitely better on firm turf, and I knew I would get firm turf here." Also shipping over is Carribbean Sunset (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), put up to third in a tight finish in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas May 25 before filling the same spot in the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot June 20; and Satan's Circus (Gone West), who took the Listed Prix Caravelle Apr. 25 prior to a fifth behind Zarkava (Ire) in the G1 Prix de Diane June 8.

Secret Gypsy rolled by 6 1/4 lengths in her Saratoga bow last August, then went into hiding. The chestnut returned in a tough spot, fading to finish fifth after pressing a fast pace in the GIII La Troienne S. May 3, then completed the trifecta in the eight-furlong GIII Dogwood S. last out May 31. Tale of the West puts her perfect record on the line. The Gulf Coast colorbearer romped by 7 1/4 lengths at first asking at Keeneland Apr. 20 and looked sharp adding a first-level allowance over track and trip last out May 29.

The brisnet.com 'Race of the Day' is the GI UNITED NATIONS S. at Monmouth.

THREE CHIMNEYS
Winners' Circle Report

For the week ending July 3, 2008

Exchange Rate

Talk About Runners You Can Bank On!
Exchange Rate is currently North America's Leading Sire of 2-Year-Olds by earnings, stakes horses, and stakes winners (tied) and the ONLY sire to have TWO undefeated 2YO SWs in 2008!

JULIET'S SPIRIT (06 f. o/o Juliet's Way, by Farma Way), winner of the $150,000 My Dear S. at Woodbine on June 30, is Exchange Rate's second 2YO stakes winner in 2008. Her easy 2-1/2 length victory brings her earnings to $124,362 in only two lifetime starts. Owner/Breeder: Padua Stables. Chart Video

XCHANGER (04 g. o/o Saragoza, by Crafty Prospector), who is a MGSW, was second best by a nose in the Donald LeVine Memorial H. on June 28 at Philadelphia Park. The effort brings his earnings to $774,990. Owner: Circle Z Stable and Joseph Masone & Mark Shuman Breeder: Oscar Martinez. Chart Video

Point Given

Super Dirt Effort for America's #2 Active Synthetic Sire GO BETWEEN (03 h. o/o Mediation (IRE), by Caerleon) turned in another respectable Grade 1 effort, placing second in the Hollywood Gold Cup [G1] on June 28 at Hollywood Park. The winner of $2,183,880, he clearly bested the rest of the field and brought his record to 25-7-7-6. Owner/Breeder: Peter Vegso. Chart Video

Sky Mesa

Want Graded Stakes Performers? Look to the Sky.
Sky Mesa's first graded stakes winner is the ultra-impressive STORM MESA (05 f. o/o Narjis Flower, by Pleasant Colony), winner of the $200,000 Iowa Oaks [G3] at Prairie Meadows on June 27. The filly, who scored a HUGE 13-1/2 length victory in the Cinemine S. last time out, came back strong to easily notch her first graded stakes win by a length. She has now earned $239,510. Owner: Richard L. Davis. Breeder: M & N Mazzoni. Chart Video

READY TO STRIKE

With two good races under his belt since returning from the bench, Jayeff B Stables' Strike a Deal (Smart Strike) looks poised for a big run in today's GI United Nations S. at Monmouth. The bay lost a pair of tough photos last term in the GIII Colonial Turf Cup June 16 and the GII Virginia Derby July 21 before finishing third in the GIII Kent Breeders' Cup S. at Delaware Sept. 1. He was freshened following a sixth-place finish in the GII Kelso H. Sept. 29. A good second over a yielding Belmont turf course in the Volponi S. May 11, Strike a Deal most recently completed the superfecta in the GI Manhattan H. June 7. Trainer Bobby Frankel has a pair entered in Champs Elysees (GB) (Danehill) and Sudan (Ire) (Peintre Celebre), but will only send one as Ramon Dominguez is named to ride both. The former, who kicked off the year with a tally in Santa Anita's San Marcos S. Jan. 19, looks to rebound following a sixth-place finish as the 4-5 chalk in the GI Charles Whittingham Memorial H. June 7. Sudan, a Group 1 winner in Italy, was last seen annexing the GIII Golden Gate Fields Turf S. May 31.

Tough Tiz's Sis, winner of the GI Lady's Secret BC S.

at three last season, ran Zenyatta to her narrowest winning margin when second by 1 3/4 lengths behind the favorite in the GI El Encino S. Jan. 13. Second in the GI Santa Maria H. Feb. 9, the bay got a confidence booster when she shipped victoriously to Sunland Park for the Harry Hensen H. Mar. 16, and most recently added a hard-fought tally in the GI Hawthorne H. over this surface May 4. While trainer Bob Baffert told Daily Racing Form, "I think we're all running for second money," he added, "Zenyatta, if she brings her 'A' game, she's tough to beat. If she doesn't bring her 'A' game, you have to be ready. On paper, we can't beat her, but funny things happen in racing. We're in a position to win, but we have to be lucky." Canadian Horse of the Year Sealy Hill shone on Woodbine's Polytrack before rounding out 2007 with a pair of tough beats on turf. Tenth in the GI Jenny Wiley S. on the Keeneland lawn Apr. 12, the Melnyk homebred finished a solid third in the GI Nassau S. on the grass at Woodbine last out May 31. She ships in to test this all-weather footing.

7	Medzendekron	Unusual Heat	Abrams	8-1

A neck is the only thing standing between Street Boss and a five-race winning streak. Since that narrow defeat in a $100,000 optional claimer Feb. 13, the chestnut rattled off two allowance tallies Mar. 6 and Apr. 14 before stepping up in class. He overcame trouble at the start before rallying to take the GI Los Angeles H. May 10, and should have a hot pace here to suit his closing style. "He's ready," trainer Bruce Headley told Daily Racing Form. "He's been working very easy." Elite Squadron ran his rivals off their feet in winning the GI Churchill Downs H. by 4 1/2 lengths on Derby Day, but bounced to be third in the GI Aristides H. May 31 under the Twin Spires. The chestnut had previously been second by a head in the GI Commonwealth S. at Keeneland. "We decided on this race because of the [synthetic surface] and the distance," said trainer Jimmy Baker. "He ran well on the Polytrack at Keeneland, and we're trying to keep him at seven furlongs if possible." Baker continued, "We're trying to promote him for a stallion, and a Grade I win would be great."

Khalid Abdullah's silks were carried to success in the G1 Coral-Eclipse S. by Dancing Brave in 1986, and Phoenix Tower bids to provide a belated follow-up for Juddmonte in today's renewal. Still lightly raced, the four-year-old has been battle-hardened lately when winning the G3 Earl of Sefton S. at Newmarket Apr. 17 and finishing runner-up in both the G1 Lockinge S. at Newbury May 17 and G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot June 18. On the latter occasion, he was up against the new and vastly improved Duke of Marmalade (Ire), and would be unlucky to find another of that caliber lurking at Sandown. "He came out of Ascot very well, is bouncing and Henry [Cecil] seems very pleased with him, so this looks a really interesting opportunity," Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe commented.

Grimthorpe added, "It's still very difficult to win a Group 1 race and any of these horses look like they have a nice chance." While this edition lacks a stand-out, the main proponents are at least in the right hands as seven of the nine hail from the stables of Cecil, Stoute, O'Brien and Godolphin. Between them, they have accounted for 15 renewals, with the latter three stables responsible for 12 of the last 15 winners. Stoute's Freemason Lodge rely on two "nearly" horses still searching for a Group 1 win to add to their tallies. Maraahel has seven group successes to his name, but is also that number in years now and has to improve on his latest, a non-threatening third behind Macarthur (GB) and Multidimensional in the June 21 G2 Hardwicke S. at Royal Ascot. Rob Roy adds a second string to Stoute's attack has a realistic chance if he manages to recapture the form of his G1 Champion S. second in 2006, his last try over this trip. Godolphin tallied with Halling in 1995 and 1996, Daylami (Ire) two years later and Refuse to Bend (Ire) in 2004, and could saddle both Campanologist and Literato (Fr). Frankie Dettori has chosen the former, who captured the G2 King Edward VII S. over 12 furlongs at Royal Ascot June 20. Last year's G1 Champion S. hero Literato needs ease in the ground in order to line up, and also requires an improvement on his sixth-place effort in the G1 Prix d'Isphahan at Longchamp May 18.

So proudly we hail...

Jim Bolger saddled Park Express (Ire), now the dam of New Approach (Ire), to win this in 1986. He sends across Ezima, who comes off the back of a win in Leopardstown's Listed Saval Beg S. May 28. Like ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Folk Opera, she is burdened with a penalty, and that Godolphin runner will be attempting to build on her career-best success in the May 24 Listed Pinnacle S. at Haydock. "Folk Opera has been working well and I am happy with her," trainer Saeed bin Suroor commented. "She always tries her hardest and deserves to take her chance in a group contest." Last year's fairytale story Turbo Linn bids for back-to-back renewals, having won this in clear-cut fashion when it was staged at Newmarket. She should find this easier than Epsom's G1 Coronation Cup, in which she was seventh on her latest outing June 6. "We were very pleased with her at Epsom," conditioner Alan Swinbank told PA Sport. "Soldier of Fortune and Youmzain must be two of the best older horses in training, and she wasn't that far behind. We just hope that she is as good as she was last year. She has been working well, and she would have every chance." Last year's G2 Prix de Royallieu winner Anna Pavlova is still paying for those exploits and is heavily penalised in these events. She was a one place behind Turbo Linn at Epsom before finishing third in the G1 Pretty Polly S. over an inadequate 10 furlongs at The Curragh on Saturday.

Diamond Diva, three-times placed in listed events last season in Britain, sold for 230,000gns at Tattersalls December and has looked worth every penny. After taking her first two U.S. starts--including the GIII Wilshire H. over course and distance Apr. 23--the dark bay set a hot pace before finishing runner-up by 2 1/4 lengths to MGISW Precious Kitten in the GI Gamely S. May 26; the final time for the nine furlongs that day was 1:45 1/5. She is one of two Jim Cassidy trainees in the field, along with Passified. "I'm not sure if Diamond Diva is better at a mile or a mile and an eighth," said Cassidy. "It all depends how the race sets up. The key with her is getting her to relax." He added, "I think Passified will be ahead of Diamond Diva in the early going." Lady of Venice was an impressive winner of this contest a year ago, but hasn't visited the winner's circle in five starts since, albeit having excuses. Ten wide before finishing third by a neck in the GII Jenny Wiley S. Apr. 12 at Keeneland, the chestnut was forced to steady before running 3/4 of a length behind Ventura in her latest, the GI Just a Game S. June 7 at Belmont. "She ran great last time," trainer Kieran McLaughlin told DRF. "The other filly just got the jump on us. She's trained very well since that race." Alan Garcia will be in the irons for the first time.

Also Ran: Windy, Akronism, Baroness Thatcher, Ice Cool Kitty. Scratched: Looky Yonder.

Any Limit reeled off two straight graded stakes tallies at Gulfstream Park in 2007--the GIII First Lady H. and the GIII Hurricane Bertie H.--but had failed to get her picture taken in five subsequent starts. Third in last term's GII Vagrancy H. over this strip, she kicked off her five-year-old campaign with a third-place finish in the grassy Upper Noosh S. May 17. She was last seen finishing a well-beaten fourth in the Vagrancy May 25. With Cornelio Velasquez in the irons, the Joseph Shields homebred led the way through fractions of :22.58 and :45.40 and dug in gamely to post the narrow win. "Today, she was nice and relaxed," Velasquez said. "Turning for home, I still had a lot of horse. Three quarters is a little short for her, and last time, the filly that outran her went too fast. The change in track condition was not a concern. But she was in great condition and ready to run."

Lucky Island won his debut at San Isidro by nine lengths last June, then finished a well-beaten seventh in an optional claimer at Calder in December. Freshened following that effort, the dark bay has been unbeatable since, reeling off a Gulfstream allowance Feb. 15, a $50,000 optional tagger at Aqueduct Apr. 5 and the GIII Bold Ruler H. last time May 10. Sent right to the front from the one hole, he led by a length over favored Tasteyville through splits of :22.84 and :45.37 and splashed away to post a decisive victory. "You know, he broke so sharp, that was the key," trainer Kiaran McLaughlin said. "We thought we might be cleared, but Alan [Garcia] did a great job of getting him away from there. He always had a lot of horse. He's a very, very nice horse. We are so happy with him. Next, we are looking at the [GI] Forego [at Saratoga Aug. 30]."

J Be K, tabbed as a ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ following a sharp 7 1/2-length maiden victory at Saratoga last summer, posted his first graded stakes victory in the GIII Bay Shore S. at the Big A Apr. 5. He reported home second-best in the GIII Withers S. Apr. 26, then posted a dominating tally in the GII Woody Stephens S. June 7. Hustled to the front by Garrett Gomez, he fought his way clear through fast fractions of :21.46 and :44.24 and coasted under the line a convincing winner. "Going into the race, I knew I was on the best horse," Gomez said. "I really wanted to keep him in the clear and out of trouble. He's a great horse with a great mind, and is maturing at a good rate. He's like a teenager just getting out of high school and adjusting to everything the right way." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Also Ran: Faith's Magic, Portuga (Brz).

Scratched: A. P. Xcellent, Inca King.

Hero of the GIII River City H. over this course last November, Thorn Song set the pace before settling for third to Kip Deville and Einstein in the GI Maker's Mark Mile at Keeneland Apr. 11. He tired to sixth in Einstein's GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic May 3 on this sod, but regained his confidence with a local optional claiming score going a mile June 8.

The grey assumed his customary spot on the front end and came off the hedge a bit turning for home. Odds-on Einstein would not go through the gap, and Thorn Song straightened himself out in the lane en route to his second graded win.

The durable Silverfoot, winner of the GIII Louisville H. in 2004, 2005 and 2006, missed his entire seven-year-old campaign, but resurfaced over the past winter at the Fair Grounds, where he was seventh in the GIII Col. E.R. Bradley H. Jan. 12 and in the GIII Fair Grounds H. Feb. 9. Fourth in an Apr. 5 allowance at Keeneland, the grey was fifth in that track's GIII Elkhorn S. Apr. 25 prior to filling the same spot in search of a fourth win in the Louisville May 24. Favored in the June 7 Rossi Gold S.--named in honor of three-time Stars and Stripes winner (1981-1983)--he fell well behind a dawdling pace, but a strong finish landed him in fourth behind Major Rhythm (Major Impact). Cabooing the field as Rossi Gold runner-up Rumor Has It (Awesome Again) led by as many as 12 lengths here, Silverfoot launched an ominous inside bid approaching the far turn. He angled out into the stretch and finished full of run to win convincingly. Lattice (Arch), favored at 3-2, never menaced and finished a distant last.

Unsuccessful in a two-race juvenile campaign in France last term, Lady Marian came back to run second in a maiden at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 28 before finishing fifth in a similar event at Longchamp in her penultimate start May 15. The bay dropped another spot in a valuable handicap back at Maisons-Laffitte last time June 12, but lit up the board in the rain here to record a career high in this stakes bow. Settled in rear until making a move into contention at halfway, she made continued progress off the home turn to lead at the quarter-mile marker and emerged from the gloom under late urging to secure a decisive win.

SECRET OUT OF JULY Bridget Swire's Sakhee's Secret (GB) (Sakhee) will not attempt back-to-back successes in next Friday's G1 Darley July Cup, trainer Hughie Morrison revealed yesterday. Disappointing when trailing in the June 21 G1 Golden Jubilee S. at Royal Ascot, the four-year-old has not sparkled in his preparation for Newmarket's contest. "While the horse is clinically okay, he is clearly not feeling well in himself," Morrison told PA Sport. "I think the July Cup is going to come too soon after Ascot. When you are tackling one of the biggest sprints of the season, everything needs to be spot-on."

WAIT A WHILE TO RETURN IN DIANA Arindel Farm's Wait a While (Maria's Mon), champion three-year filly of 2006, will make her next start in the July 26

GI Diana H. at Saratoga. Winner of the GI American Oaks and GI Yellow Ribbon S. in 2006, the grey won her sole start this term, the GII San Gorgonio H. at Santa Anita Jan. 14. Sidelined after developing a callous on her left front tibia, the five-year-old was sent to trainer Todd Pletcher's Churchill Downs string earlier this spring. "We are going to be shipping horses back and forth [to Saratoga]," said assistant Mike McCarthy. "I imagine we would ship her up right before she runs." The filly reappeared on the work tab for the first time since the injury on June 15, when she breezed three furlongs in :37.20 on the main track. She has worked twice since, most recently a four-furlong move in :49.80 June 29. Concerning her next work, McCarthy added, "She will work [at Churchill] and then ship [to New York]."

DOREMIFASOLLATIDO (f, 2, Bernstein--Consider It Done, by Green Dancer) was so impressive in her second start, Belmont track announcer Tom Durkin was inspired to sing about it. The dark bay filly had the lead in deep stretch in her June 12 debut, but got caught in the final strides and ran second by a neck. The 8-5 chalk to graduate yesterday, she put a head in front after three furlongs and galloped away while serenaded by Durkin to break her maiden by six lengths. A $110,000 KEESEP yearling, the winner is a 1/2 to Fortunate Damsel (Runaway Groom), GSW, $218,815. Cash's Girl scored in the 8 1/2-furlong Wayward Lass S. at Tampa Mar. 1 after returning to the barn of Tim Ritchey following a pair of starts with Kiaran McLaughlin. Sixth when trying the turf in the Turf Distaff against Florida-breds Apr. 5, the dark bay was back in the winner's circle after the six-furlong Dashing Beauty S. over this track May 3. Fifth in her latest in the GII Allaire DuPont Distaff at Pimlico May 17, Cash's Girl was given mild backing in this return to the sprinting ranks. The filly broke well and settled off a crisp opening quarter in :22.53, closed on early leader Your Flame in Me turning for home and wore down her rival to post a narrow victory.

Reorganization for Kentucky Horse Racing Organization:

Under an executive order signed by Democratic Gov. Steve Beshear (D) July 3, the Kentucky Horse Racing Authority has been renamed the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission. Gov. Beshear also named six new appointees to the commission, which is now comprised of: Chairman Robert Beck and Vice Chairman Tracy Farmer, and members Edward Bonnie, Francis Conway, Thomas Gaines, Wade Houston, Frank Jones Jr, Betsy Stone Lavin, Alan Leavitt, Tom Ludt, Dr. Foster Northrop, Michael Pitino, Burr James Travis II, John Ward Jr and Jerry Yon. Beck served as chairman for the KHRA. Farmer, one of Beshear's appointees, is a major fundraiser for the Democratic Party. He replaces Connie Whitfield-Harriman, the wife of Rep. Ed Whitfield (R-Kentucky). Kerry Cauthen, Dell Hancock, Doug Hendrickson, Franklin Kling Jr and Richard Knock were the other five members of the commission who were not named to return.

Bluegrass International Cup Set for July 11:

The second annual Polo in the Park Bluegrass International Cup will be held Friday, July 11, at the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington. The event benefits the Bluegrass Conservancy, a nonprofit regional land trust committed to the preservation and conservation of Bluegrass farmland, and the Fayette Alliance. It features a 20-goal polo match between South Africa and the United States at the Kentucky Horse Park's Man O' War field. Gates open at 5 p.m. There will also be an Argentine BBQ, a performance by a local Bluegrass band and a silent and live auction. Tickets are $100 per person or $1,000 per table. For more information, or to buy tickets, contact info@bluegrassconservancy.org or call (859) 255-4552.

Dubious Miss picked up his third straight victory with this decisive score. The dubiously named gelding was sidelined for nearly 10 months after an off-the-board effort in the Rushaway S. at Turfway last March, returning to be fifth in an optional claimer at Fair Grounds in January. Third when stretched out to a mile in New Orleans Feb. 11, he started his winning streak in a Keeneland allowance Apr. 20. The homebred was coming off a one-length tally over this track and trip June 1. Up to press the pace through moderate splits, Dubious Miss took over at the eighth pole and drew clear.

Whirlie Bertie failed to fire and had to settle for eighth in her bow going seven furlongs at Gulfstream Mar. 12. Relishing the wet going and the added yardage in her next start, she came home an easy winner at Churchill Downs May 2 before adding a nine-furlong test here May 21. Content to track the early pace in third through early splits of :23.01 and :46.23, the $185,000 FTSAUG yearling challenged on the turn, forged to the front for the drive and drew clear to score by 1 3/4 lengths over A Diehl (Aldebaran). Thirty minutes after her grandson Zacinto stamped himself one to watch with a scintillating maiden score (see below), Reams of Verse was represented by her first stakes winner in the form of Many Volumes. Bagging a third straight second in the Listed Wolferton H. at Royal Ascot last time June 20, Many Volumes made the most of this depleted renewal to claim a belated first stakes success. Positioned in third from the outset, he made continued headway in the straight to lead approaching the final eighth and was driven clear in the closing stages to win decisively. "He has been solid, honest and consistent this year," Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe told PA Sport. "He was giving away heaps of weight when second at Ascot in the Wolferton, and has also finished second to a Breeders' Cup winner [Red Rocks [at Lingfield May 10]. He is a genuine, solid horse, but handicaps might be finished for him now." Reams of Verse, the dam of an unraced two-year-old of this year named Eagle Poise (Empire Maker), was barren to Storm Cat in 2007 and has a weanling colt by the 2003 Belmont S. winner.

Improving on a first-up fifth at Ascot Apr. 30, Light the Fire improved in a May 20 Leicester maiden, but was unable to figure at the business end of the Listed Windsor Castle S. at Royal Ascot June 17, finishing 10th. Racing in a handy fourth after the initial strides here, he sliced through rivals to lead with 1 1/2 furlongs to go and was ridden out thereafter to comfortably assert superiority for a personal best. "He is a nice little horse and [trainer] Brian [Meehan] thought he would win," jockey Jimmy Fortune told PA Sport. "I am not sure how good the race was, but he was idling a bit in the last furlong." Click for the Racing Post chart.

MASTER NOVERRE (IRE) (g, 2, Noverre--Boston Ivy, by Mark of Esteem {Ire}) belied his debut odds of 40-1, racing down the center of the track at Doncaster May 17 before going on to a 1 1/4-length victory. Gelded since that effort, he was sent off the 11-8 favorite in this second go. Traveling well into the final furlong, the €20,000 GOFNOV weanling and 16,000gns TATOCT veered to his left, severely impeding Favourite Girl (Ire) (Refuse to Bend {Ire}, third), while La Brigitte (GB) (Tobougg {Ire}, fifth) was also hampered. Briefly headed late, Master Noverre fought back doggedly to get back on top close home and had a short head to spare over Fitz Flyer (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}). Following a stewards' inquiry, the result was allowed to stand. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, £7,933. O-Percy/Green Racing 1; B-Barbara Prendergast; T-Richard Fahey.

2nd Dam: Reams of Verse, by Nureyev

3rd Dam: Modena, by Roberto

Zacinto, the first foal from his group-placed dam, had been the subject of favorable home reports in recent weeks and justified the hype--and the weight of punters' hopes--by exploding onto the scene in this race-course bow. Settled three lengths off the pace after the initial strides, Juddmonte's homebred inched into contention soon after turning for home. The bay eased to the front inside the final quarter mile and powered clear in the closing stages to dismiss Seminole (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) by a highly impressive eight lengths as the 5-6 favorite. He is quoted as short as 10-1 for next year's 2000 Guineas. "He did it nicely, really, and it was very pleasing," commented Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe. "His homework has suggested he's quite useful; he did it pretty professionally, and once [jockey] Ryan [Moore] got him in the clear, he quickened quite well. He's a Dansili homebred; his granddam is Reams of Verse, so it's a super pedigree and he really is promising. I'll obviously have to talk to Sir Michael and the Prince about future plans, but I think he would have to step up a bit now. There are some nice seven-furlong two-year-old races to come." Reams of Verse, winner of the G1 Fillies' Mile and English highweight in 1996, returned the following season to add the G1 Oaks at Epsom.
