SHE WORKS HARD FOR THE MONEY

It didn't look as easy as some of her previous races, but in the end, Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}) got the job done as the 1-5 chalk in yesterday's GI Vanity H. at Hollywood Park, defeating Tough Tiz's Sis (Tiznow) by a half-length. Winning rider Mike Smith said there was plenty left in the tank. "She wasn't tested at all--I was tested," he offered. "She was basically galloping through the lane...I think I've let her do things too easily."

PRIORESS GIVES HER BLESSING

Champion Indian Blessing (Indian Charlie) recovered from her first two career defeats to post an authoritative score in Belmont's GI Prioress S. yesterday. "This was good because I was mad about losing the Vanity," said winning trainer Bob Baffert. "Man, we should have won that race, but we were stopped. I could have had two Grade I wins today." Cont. p5

PURE CLASS IN AMERICAN OAKS

All she needed was a narrow opening. Pure Clan (Pure Prize) knifed through a gap in midstretch to land the $750,000 GI American Oaks at Hollywood as runner-up Satan's Circus (Gone West) finished best of all the European invaders. "I felt pretty confident when I saw her head coming up through there," said winning trainer Bob Holthus. Cont. p5

DIVA DIVES ON THE CASHCALL LINE

Ventura (Chester House) looked to have the $750,000 GII CashCall Mile sewn up at Hollywood, but a resurgent Diamond Diva (GB) (Dansili {GB}) came back to take the photo by the slimmest of margins. "It was a very close call," said winning rider David Flores. "I was just hoping I'd see my number up." Cont. p6

ALL IS VANITY Tabbed as a ☆ "TDN Rising Star" after her victorious debut on Thanksgiving at Hollywood, Zenyatta added an allowance score in December before defeating Tough Tiz's Sis in the GII El Encino S. Jan. 13. She took her show on the road to Oaklawn for the GI Apple Blossom H. Apr. 5 and handily defeated no less a rival than champion Ginger Punch. She returned home for a facile tally in the GII Milady H. May 31 over this surface, and was odds-on for the second straight time.

While the Moss colorbearer assumed her usual early-race position by loping along at the back of the pack, the Cal-bred Silver Z (Cee's Tizzy) immediately opened up a lengthy advantage on her rivals through splits of :23.59 and :46.16. Zenyatta got underway a bit earlier than customary, and the towering four-year-old cut into the pacesetter's margin, getting onto even terms turning for home. She struck the front and drifted in a bit, but held sway to prevail for her second career Grade I success. Tough Tiz's Sis, in tight quarters in midstretch, made the favorite work for it as Silver Swallow came late to round out the triple.

"A horse can't have it easy all the time; somebody will challenge them, so it's important they get challenged somewhere early on before the big races like the Breeders' Cup or something," said winning trainer John Shirreffs. "I could see she was going to dig in--it looked like Mike had it measured pretty well." It remains to be seen whether Zenyatta puts her winning streak on the line over Del Mar's controversial Polytrack. "It depends upon Del Mar and what they've done with their track," Shirreffs said. "That's where she's going--she's shipping to Del Mar." Zenyatta became the third Vanity heroine for Shirreffs, who also saddled Manistique in 1999 and Hollywood Story in 2006.

It was a valiant effort by the runner-up.

"We got beat by a really good filly," said trainer Bob Baffert. "She got a little racing luck there that might have cost her a little bit--you never know. But she was in tight, and Mike Smith did a good job of taking any chance away of us beating her when he sort of closed the hole. I think that was probably the difference. She ran a great race. We would have liked to have won--we're disappointed, but not disgusted."

GIII Bashford Manor S. Screen Your Friend (Friends Lake) prevails over Lyin' Heart (Lion Heart).

HITTING THE HEIGHTS

Johnny Murtagh played it late on Mount Nelson (GB) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), but the 7-2 second favorite answered every call in a thrilling finale to yesterday's G1 Coral-Eclipse at Sandown. Catching the 5-2 pick Phoenix Tower (Chester House) on the line for a short-head success, he became the 12th winner at this level for his stable in 2008. Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's four-year-old looked unlucky not to be involved in the placings in the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot June 17, but there were no hard-luck stories here as the G1 Criterium International winner enjoyed his own spell in the sun during another golden summer for Ballydoyle. "We've got some marvellous horses and he's just another one," Murtagh commented, adding, "He idled a little in front, so there is more to come from him."

Mount Nelson earned ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ status with a six-length maiden win at The Curragh in late October 2006, and made an instant impact with success a week later in Saint-Cloud's G1 Criterium International. The bay occupied front rank in the markets for the Classics, but sustained an injury last year that kept him out of action until the G1 Champion S. at Newmarket in October. That particular test proved too much for his comeback; after trailing there, he was rested over the winter and reintroduced at an easier level in the May 5 G3 Mooresbridge S. at The Curragh. Sixth on that occasion, he suffered a troubled trip when third in the G3 Prix du Chemin de Fer du Nord at Chantilly June 8 and met traffic again nine days later when a close-up fifth at Ascot. Settled wide in sixth off the fast early tempo set by the keen-running Multidimensional (Danehill), the bay tracked Phoenix Tower and was asked to close at the top of the stretch as that rival made his move. Ted Durcan and Phoenix Tower got to the front before the furlong marker, but Murtagh and Mount Nelson were immediately on the scene and managed to grind their way past in the final yards of the famed uphill climb to the line. For Aidan O'Brien, this victory for Mount Nelson was no surprise. "When Seamus [Heffernan] won on him in France at two he said he was a very good colt, but he stood on his shoe in the spring of his three-year-old year and pulled off half of his foot," O'Brien explained. "He was very lucky to make it back and, first time out in the Champion S., he was just too fresh and green. We always thought a lot of him and his last two runs were lovely, with him coming forward really well. I think we have him on the right road now and we'll be able to make a plan now after discussions."

Longshot Presious Passion gave local trainer Mary Hartmann the biggest win of her career with this front-running victory. "I'm shaking," Hartmann said. "This is the best feeling in the world. I'll talk with [owners Pat and Frank Generazio] to see what path we'll take to get to the Breeders' Cup [at Santa Anita Oct. 25], but that's the plan for sure." The chestnut had pulled off even bigger upsets, including a 67-1 shocker in the Dec. 15 GII W. L. McKnight H. at Calder. Out of the frame in two of his next three appearances, he was let go at 20-1 in Gulfstream's Apr. 5 GIII Pan American H. and, after leading by as many as 12 lengths early, held on for a 1 1/2-length tally. The Florida-bred had been out once since, running a distant second in the June 15 Battlefield S. at Monmouth going nine furlongs, but relished the added distance here. Jockey Eddie Castro hustled Presious Passion out of the gate and the two were a length in front as they sailed through opening fractions of :49.16, 1:14.31 and 1:38.76 over the rain-softened course. Strike a Deal cut into his advantage in the final furlong, but Presious Passion has just enough left. Champs Elysees (GB) (Danehill), the even-money chalk, never factored, running sixth. Street Boss cleared his allowance conditions with an Apr. 14 victory at Santa Anita before stepping up in class. He handled that assignment in good style, rallying to take the GIII Los Angeles H. May 10 going six panels over this surface, and was ready to climb the ladder once again. Well back in the early stages here, the odds-on chalk put in a very wide run and drew closer after a :44.97 opening half. He looked to be ready to pull away at the head of the lane, but was reluctant to change leads despite the best efforts of David Flores. While pacesetter Elite Squadron battled on gamely on the rail, the crowd's choice dug in to secure his first Grade I victory. "Del Mar is next, the [GI] Bing Crosby [July 27]," said winning trainer Bruce Headley. "After Del Mar, maybe the [GI] Ancient Title [at Oak Tree]. ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Indian Blessing showed that a sloppy track couldn't throw her off her game when she capped her perfect 2007 campaign with a front-running score in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Oct. 27 at Monmouth. While the dark bay began her sophomore season with victories in the Jan. 13 GII Santa Ynez S. and Feb. 9 GIII Silverbulletday S., she couldn't hold off Proud Spell in the GII Fair Grounds Oaks Mar. 8 and wound up second. The homebred filled the same spot to Zaftig with blinkers off in the GI Acorn S. on a sweltering Belmont S. day, and the decision was made to shorten her up. Secret Gypsy (Sea of Secrets) jumped out quickly and was joined by By the Light through fractions of :22.20 and :44.74. Indian Blessing, ridden by John Velazquez for the first time, sat just off the leaders, but began to gear up on the turn. She made the lead in front of the stands and asserted her superiority in the final furlong. "Johnny just sat her back there and let her run her race," trainer Bob Baffert said. "So, now we know she can rate, and that is a dimension you always want to see. Now, we'll bring her to Saratoga for the [GI] Test [Aug. 2]."

Pure Clan remained perfect in four turf outings with this resolute score. Switched to dirt last season after a pair of grass victories, the chestnut captured the GII Golden Rod S. and GIII Pocahontas S., which caught the interest of IEAH Stables over the winter. However, she opened 2008 with three straight main-track losses, concluding that series with a third over a sloppy track in the GI Kentucky Oaks May 2. She rebounded with a popular score in the GIII Regret S. on the lawn at Churchill June 14, and her connections opted to shoot for this jackpot. Drawn on the rail, Pure Clan saved ground as Raw Silk (Malibu Moon) showed the way, and turned for home full of run. It took a while for a seam to open up, but the Kentucky-based filly was ready when it did. She split Missit (Orpen) and Raw Silk to strike the front, then fended off a challenge from Satan's Circus to earn her first Grade I trophy. "We really feel she's a better filly on the turf than she is on the dirt, but she runs either way," said Holthus. "We plan on coming back to Del Mar for the [GI] Oaks [Aug. 16]. Click for the brisnet.com chart, the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Diamond Diva closed out her European campaign for conditioner J W Hills with four straight runner-up efforts, including the Listed Flying Fillies S. at Pontefract Aug. 19, the Listed Henry Gee Fillies' S. at Chester Sept. 15 and the Listed October S. at Ascot Sept. 29. Acquired by Three Chimneys for 230,000gns at Tattersalls December, she made her U.S. debut a winning one, notching the American Beauty H. at Santa Anita Mar. 30. She made it two straight wins in the GIII Wilshire H. at Hollywood Apr. 23 and was last seen completing the exacta in the GI Gamely Breeders' Cup S. May 26. With David Flores in the irons here, she stayed within striking distance in fourth through fractions of :24.25 and :47.60. Given her cue on the turn for home, Diamond Diva rallied three wide, and led briefly in midstretch before being taken over by Ventura. Diamond Diva continued to fight away on the inside and gamely re-rallied to win the photo. "It was a very close call," Flores said. "I was just hoping coming back I'd see my number up. That other filly [Ventura] went by her in the stretch and my filly looked at her and said, 'no way.' She came back real gamely. I was able to get a good position and control her the first half and we just went from there." [Click for the brisnet.com chart, the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. TDN presents

STAR OF THE WEEK
Brought to you by Fasig-Tipton

John Sadler

Accomplishment: John Sadler sent out three stakes winners at Hollywood last Saturday--Whatsthescript (Ire) in the GII American H., Dearest Trickski in the GII A Gleam H. and Emmy Darling in the Landaluce S.--and came back Sunday to take the GII Beverly Hills H. with Black Mamba (NZ).

Birthdate: July 30, 1956

Birthplace: Long Beach, Calif.

Current Residence: Pasadena, Calif.

Family: Single

Biggest accomplishment as a trainer: I've had a very consistent career. I've won a lot of big years, but we've been very consistent here in Southern California.

Of all of the horses you have been around, who has been your favorite and why: I have a lot of favorites, but the "why" is usually the same. The favorites are the ones who ran at a high level for a long period of time. Like Olympic Prospect and Hasty Kris.

How has racing changed since you first got involved? It's highly regulated. We have a very aggressive California Horse Racing Board. They're starting to regulate everything out here from reins to shoes to racetracks.

If you could change one thing in our sport, what would it be? A central governing body.

You've had some huge upsets: Musique Tojours at 70-1 in the 2005 Sunshine Millions Classic, Taste of Paradise (34-1) in the 2003 San Diego H., Ceeband (45-1) in the 2001 Triple Bend H. Any of those that you're particularly proud of? One that was particularly gratifying was with Our New Recruit winning the Golden Shaheen in Dubai. It's a $2 million race and you go halfway around the world.

Most underrated stallion? It's a no-brainer. Harlan's Holiday. I've had a nice filly last year, Tasha's Miracle. I have another nice Harlan's Holiday filly coming up this year.

If you could name a stake for anybody, why would it be and why? Dr. Jack Robbins. He never seeks the public eye, but has been great for racing in California. He's a director for Oak Tree and former president of the AAEP.

What is your favorite vacation spot? I don't get to go on vacations. (Laughs). But I'd like to go to Europe. I'd like to see Spain and Portugal.

Favorite food or meal? The correct answer is fish, but I probably prefer pasta. When you get to be 50, you're supposed to be eating healthy.

Favorite film? Boots Malone. William Holden is a jocks' agent. It's a classic.

Drink of choice? Margarita.

What would you do if you weren't in horse racing? I'd like to think I'd be doing something where I'd be helping other people.

CONGRATULATIONS!
from Fasig-Tipton's own

Screen Your Friend debuted with a fourth to subsequent graded winner Run Away and Hide in an Apr. 18 Keeneland maiden, then improved to be second to Segal May 7 over this strip. The third time proved the charm as the chestnut graduated under the Twin Spires June 4, and his experience served him well with this rail draw. Dismissed at 18-1, the William Carl homebred went for it early, setting a pressured pace of :21.64 and :45.30 before shaking loose in the lane. Lyin' Heart broke sluggishly, but put in a solid late run to make it an exacta for freshman sires. It was career win 4,500 for rider Calvin Borel. "This colt, he's all right," said Borel. "He's starting to mature, and he'll be a very nice horse. I do know one thing: he'll sprint. He's quick, very quick." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Azul Leon came from off the pace to prevail by a head in his May 8 opener going 4 1/2 furlongs over this strip, and mirrored that effort here to maintain his perfect record. Making Dreams went up to set contested splits of :22.42 and :46.52, while Azul Leon bobbed at the start and was allowed to settle at the back of the pack by Rafael Bejarano. The crowd's choice circled the field impressively on the turn, entered the stretch five wide and finished up smartly to hand his freshman sire (by Tale of the Cat) his first graded winner. "He's kind of like a Stevie Wonderboyish kind of horse--very professional," said winning trainer Doug O'Neill. "A lot of credit goes to the LaCombes and Gayle Woods down in Florida, who broke him and got him prepared. Basically he came off the van and we ran him very shortly after." O'Neill is eyeing Del Mar for his charge's next start.

Notional was a top prospect for the 2007 Kentucky Derby after wins in the GII San Rafael S. and GIII Risen Star S. and a runner-up finish in the GI Florida Derby, but missed the Triple Crown after fracturing his left front ankle during a gallop that April. The bay underwent surgery and missed the rest of his three-year-old campaign. A rallying third in the Feb. 17 Daytona H. on the turf at Santa Anita in his long-awaited return, he trailed the field in the G1 Dubai Duty Free S. in March, and was also last in the Apr. 27 Tiznow S. on the Hollywood Cushion and the May 26 GI Shoemaker Mile on the grass in Inglewood. Back on conventional dirt for the first time since the Florida Derby after being transferred from Doug O'Neill to Mark Hennig, Notional was let go at 7-1, but belied his odds with a decisive score. Jockey Joe Bravo settled the Cal-bred in fifth through an opening half in :46.06. The two joined 9-10 Gottcha Gold on the lead after six panels in 1:10.09 and outfinished the crowd's choice to win going away.

Third in the G1 Pretty Polly S. at The Curragh last Saturday, Anna Pavlova's participation was dependent on rain arriving here, and weather duly cooperated. With the going description amended to the required soft, the bay was popular with the crowd, who backed her into joint favoritism. Content to bide her time in rear initially, she picked her way through the field to take the lead at the eighth pole, and minimal encouragement was required in the closing stages as she strode to a commanding success. "We nearly pulled her out this afternoon because of the ground, but thank goodness we kept her in," admitted Galaxy Racing's Tony Hart. "The long-term aim, we hope, will be the G1 Yorkshire Oaks [at York Aug. 21]."

Ancien Regime looked to have a bright future when winning on debut at Yarmouth last August, but took until his fifth start to make a splash when winning a heritage handicap over six furlongs of Newmarket's Rowley Mile May 24. Sent off the favorite for York's Betfair Sprint H. last time June 14, the bay was only third on that occasion, and was facing the older brigade for the first time here. Positioned close to the frantic early fractions by Frankie Dettori, he seized the lead passing the eighth pole and had done enough as Prime Defender and last year's winner Hoh Mike staged their rallies out wide on the uphill climb to the line. The winner's connections are considering a tilt at the G1 Nunthorpe S. at York Aug. 22.

An institution in Austria, Hungary and Slovakia, Overdose gave German audiences a taster of his prowess when slamming the opposition in the May 18 Listed Lanson-Cup at Baden-Baden. He resumed with another victory in Bratislava, garnering a huge pot in the Cena Ministerstva Podohospodarstva last time June 1, and overcame a series of setbacks to register a first pattern-race score here. Breaking swiftly to claim immediate control, he came under pressure as the pack closed off the home turn, but found the necessary gears when asked to win in hand. "We didn't really know whether we could run him today, as he knocked himself just last week," revealed Sandor Ribarszki. "Eventually we made the decision to come and he won, but he was not happy this morning and he also lost a shoe during the race." Regarding future plans for the Hungarian sensation, the trainer continued, "We originally planned to run him in the [Aug. 10 G3] Silberne Peitsche at Cologne, then the [Aug. 31 G2] Goldene Peitsche at Baden-Baden with the ultimate target of the [Oct. 5 G1] Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp, but I think we might now give him a break until Baden-Baden."

An epic finish to this highlight saw Pocket Power and Dancer's Daughter prove inseparable. Many had believed that the former, who had yet to win outside of Kenilworth despite being proclaimed as his country's top performer, would find winning under his impost beyond his talents. Dancer's Daughter had Pocket Power back in fourth when in receipt of six pounds in the June 14 G1 Gold Challenge, and renewed rivalry on five-pound better terms here. The winner of the last two renewals of the G1 J & B Met, Pocket Power was bidding to become only the third highweight to triumph in this test in the last 40 years. He was settled in mid-division against the fence by Bernard Fayd'Herbe early, while the grey Dancer's Daughter was anchored in rear by Kevin Shea. Both arrived to challenge inside the final furlong and, after passing the eighth pole in front, were locked together in a desperate tussle to the line.

Breaking well from his wide draw, the chestnut soon led and, after being briefly headed by Warm White Night in the closing stages, dug in to regain the advantage near the line.

Consensual capped a memorable day for the trainer-jockey combination of Mike Bass and Bernard Fayd'Herbe, responsible for the G1 Durban July dead-heater Pocket Power (SAf). Having won the Apr. 27 G3 Kenilworth Fillies' Nursery, she followed up in a Juvenile Plate at this venue May 23 before finishing third in the G2 Debutante over this track and trip last time June 7. Tracking the early pace from her unfavorable draw, the bay swooped on the inner as Zirconium threatened out wide in the final furlong and proved the stronger in a battle to the line.

As Consensual (SAf) had in the previous race, Outcome made the best of a bad post position to regain the winning thread here. Runner-up in the G3 Kings Cup over course and distance Mar. 29, the bay returned to this venue to finish down the field in both the May 9 G2 Drill Hall S. and G2 Astrapak 1900 a fortnight later. Settled in rear throughout the early stages, she arrived with a late flourish to swamp Gilded Minaret in the final 100 yards and assert for a decisive success.

Foreign raiders are not customary in this Classic and were not even allowed before 1993, but Anton Chekhov (Ire) managed a third placing for Ballydoyle 12 months ago, and this year's overseas challenge is as strong as it has ever been. King of Rome was Johnny Murtagh's choice of Aidan O'Brien's Derby runners, ahead of Frozen Fire (Ger) and Alessandro Volta (GB), and the subsequent exploits of that duo prove that being an also-ran in Epsom's June 7 Classic may not be a fair indication of ability. Third in the interim over 10 furlongs in Royal Ascot's Listed Hampton Court S. June 19, King of Rome will relish this step back up in trip. Andrew Balding relies on Top Lock, who was third behind Campanologist and Conduit (Ire) in the Royal meeting's G2 King Edward VII S. June 20. Balding told the Racing Post, "Top Lock has been aimed at this race all along. He has improved with every performance and I think he will come on again for his Ascot run. As long as the ground stays good or faster, I think he will run a big race. He is drawn 14, towards the outside, which is not ideal, but should not be a major disadvantage." While the June 5 Chantilly scorer Soum represents France and the Andre Fabre stable, he forms a three-pronged assault by his German owner/breeder Gestut Schlenderhan. Heading the trio is the June 8 G3 Bavarian Classic winner Walzertraum, who hails from the Jens Hirschberger barn successful 12 months ago with Adlerflug (Ger). Liang Kay holds the strongest domestic form. Having beaten Precious Boy (Ger) in the Apr. 20 G3 Dr. Busch-Memorial, he was third behind that rival in Cologne's G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen May 12 before taking the G2 Oppenheim-Union-Rennen at that track last time June 15. Since 2002, Next Desert (Ire) and Dai Jin (GB) took that contest en route to success here.

Pimlico, missing by a head in the Apr. 19 Federico Tesio S. to Icabad Crane, who went on to finish third in the GI Preakness S. May 17. "I kept him at Aqueduct for the winter because I wanted to take advantage of his speed on the inner track," explained trainer Jimmy Jerkens. "In April, I was looking at an allowance race for him there, but then someone I know who is a big numbers freak said I should enter him in the Tesio down at Pimlico. He convinced me that Mint Lane's numbers proved he belonged with those type of horses." The bay returned home to finish second at 18-1 to Casino Drive in the GII Peter Pan S. May 10 at Belmont, and earned big speed figures for his front-running, 5 3/4-length tally in the Postponed S. over track and trip June 13. "The Dwyer is coming up at the right time for him," Jerkens added. "He seems to thrive on this schedule of running every three weeks or so. He's fit and he's happy and hopefully, he'll run his race." Fidelio split War Pass and Pyro when runner-up in a Saratoga allowance last August, but was sidelined following a seventh in the GI Lane's End Breeders' Futurity Oct. 6. The Stronach homebred has come back to post a pair of optional-claiming scores going seven panels at Belmont, including a 4 1/2-length score June 22.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

CURLIN LIKELY FOR MAN O'WAR If ownership licensing issues are resolved early this week, Horse of the Year Curlin (Smart Strike) may make his grass debut in Saturday's GI Man o' War S. at Belmont Park, according to Daily Racing Form. Trainer Steve Asmussen told the publication that he prefers the Man o' War over the GIII Arlington H., which will also be contested the same day. "I think the fact it's a Grade I gives it the advantage,"

Asmussen told DRF. "It's all licensing right now." Shirley Cunningham Jr. and William Gallion, who's Midnight Cry Stable currently own 20 percent of the G1 Dubai World Cup and GI Breeders' Cup Classic hero, are scheduled to have their assets transferred by a Kentucky civil-court judge in the near future. The strapping chestnut is expected to have his second grass workout at Churchill on Monday. If all goes according to plan, Curlin would join his stablemates on a flight to New York Thursday.

ZAFTIG OUT FOR THE SUMMER Zaftig (Gone West), who upended champion Indian Blessing with an impressive score in the GI Acorn S. June 7, will be out of action this summer after a stress fracture in her left front foot was discovered, Daily Racing Form reports. The grey filly was forced to miss last weekend's GI Mother Goose S. with a foot bruise, but further examination revealed something more serious. No surgery will be performed, and there's a chance Zaftig could be back in time for the GI Gazelle S. Sept. 13. "She will be 100 percent," co-owner John Moore told the publication. "If it was anybody other than her you could proceed, but you don't do that with a very valuable filly. We'll give her four weeks, six weeks, whatever it takes. We've always been extremely conservative with our horses, so we'll err on the side of giving them more care." Zaftig earned a 113 Beyer Speed Figure in the Acorn, the highest by any three-year-old to date in 2008. The daughter of GISW Zoftig (Cozzene) is trained by Jimmy Jerkens.

THOROUGHBRED DAILY NEWS

AROUND

 NORTH AMERICA

ELLIS PARK TO OPEN JULY 11 The Kentucky Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association and Ellis Park owner Ron Geary reached an agreement Saturday morning that will allow the 86-year-old track to open July 11. "This is a win/win for the horsemen and Ellis Park," said Geary in a statement. "You can't image my relief to have the track opening." The two parties had been working since Thursday night to come to terms on the division of revenue from advance deposit wagering. Geary met the demands of the horsemen, and will contribute six percent or one-third of the take-out, whichever is greater, of the ADW handle to purses. "There was a lot of gnashing of teeth and tough negotiations and finally I think we resolved the fact that horsemen are firm in their stand regarding ADWs," said KHBPA Executive Director Marty Maline. "As has often been quoted, the model is broken and it needs to be fixed. We need a more equitable share of the revenue from ADWS. Some of our directors came down and explained to the local horsemen why this was so important and, at the end of the day, [Ellis Park] agreed to our demands. It's a good day for horsemen, who often struggle to make ends meet. I think we have a model for the industry." The Ellis Park signal will be offered to all ADW companies. It is possible that the five racing days lost due to the dispute will be made up during the meet. "The long term viability of Ellis Park hinged upon our ability to be carried on all the ADW signals--including TVG and HRTV--Ellis Park had already negotiated," Geary stated. "We will make this an awesome live meet for Ellis Park, with great purses available to the horsemen. It's those purses that will attract and keep the horsemen here this summer." The track owner added, "Hopefully, a solution can be reached nationally by Jan. 1, 2009, that will dictate future splits of ADW revenue that all parties can live with."

FLORIDA HORSEMEN AGREE TO PURSE CONTRACT

The Florida Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association announced yesterday that they have forged an agreement with Churchill Downs Inc. regarding the division of revenue from slot machines, and should have a signed purse contract for Calder Race Course in the next couple of days. The contract will allow CDI to offer the Calder signal to simulcasting outlets. It also opens the door for tracks around the country to send their signals to Calder, said Marty Maline, executive director of the KHBPA. "This opens up the whole state of Florida," Maline said. "We wouldn't approve sending the Ellis Park signal to a track without a purse contract, but we will most assuredly send the signal out to the state of Florida now." The KHBPA reached a deal with Ellis Park yesterday that will allow the meet to go forward. Unlike the KHBPA, however, the Florida horsemen have not struck a deal regarding advance deposit wagering, so the Calder signal will not yet be available to ADW companies.

Transferred to Billy Badgett, she delivered versus $30,000 optional claiming state-breds in her seasonal bow May 8, then was third in the Beautiful Pleasure S. June 1. Chestoria was last seen placing a good second in the Gill Eatontown S. at Monmouth June 14. Settled in fourth through easy early fractions of :26.19 and :51.27, the dark bay challenged for the lead on the turn for home and fought her way clear in the stretch. GLAMOROUS GAL (f, 2, Soto--Hitaway, by Quiet American) stayed straight this time, which was enough to propel her to a hard-fought victory in her second start.

As a weanling, the bay sold for $55,000 at KEENOV. Nearly a year later, the bidding stopped at $30,000 at KESEEP. Making her debut at Colonial June 20, she finished third after drifting in during the stretch run and was disqualified and placed seventh. The 7-1 chance raced with So Vain (Mr. Greeley) from the start this time, prevailing by a head at the wire. Glamorous Gal is the fourth winner for her freshman sire (by Dehere), and is a half to Invincibility (Belong To Me), MSW-Tri. ### Nownownow Going for Swaps:

Fab Oak Stable's Nownownow (Whywhywhy) is now bedded down with trainer Jason Orman in California, according to Daily Racing Form, and will make his next start in the GII Swaps S. July 12 at Hollywood. The three-year-old's main goal this summer is expected to be the GII Del Mar Derby Aug. 31. The bay, originally trained by Patrick Biancone, landed the inaugural Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf at Monmouth Oct. 26 for Francois Parisel, then was sent to David Wachman in Ireland to point for the one-mile Classics. He missed his engagement in the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket, and finished last of five to Henrythenavigator in the Irish equivalent at The Curragh May 24. Having repatriated three weeks ago, Nownownow posted a bullet :58.20 for a five-furlong breeze June 29 at Santa Anita. "He had a really nice work," Orman told DRF. "He worked a little fast." Other colts pointing to the Swaps are Colonel John (Tiznow) and Behindatthebar (Forest Wildcat).

Go Between Possible for Pacific Classic:

MGSW Go Between (Point Given), runner-up in both the GI Santa Anita H. and GI Hollywood Gold Cup, could make another trip west for the GI Pacific Classic, according to Daily Racing Form. The chestnut returned to Churchill following his second to Mast Track in the June 28 Gold Cup. Trainer Bill Mott will make the decision after watching how Del Mar's Polytrack performs when the track opens next week. "If it's as slow as it was last year, I wouldn't come," Mott told DRF. "He wants a fast surface."

The betting market is usually a reliable guide in this peculiar event for untapped talent, and so it proved for the latest renewal as British raider Abbeyside--the only colt in the field--justified favoritism to best the distaffers for an immediate stakes success. Chasing the leaders in a share of third through the initial strides, he came under pressure soon after halfway, moved into second at the distance and kept on well for whipless encouragement thereafter to overhaul Pure Joy nearing the line for a cozy debut win.

In the money in both juvenile starts last semester, Celebrissime broke through in a Saint-Cloud conditions event on sophomore bow Mar. 30 before dead-heating for sixth in the G2 Prix Hocquart at Longchamp May 5. The chestnut homebred lined up for this off a second in the June 6 Listed Prix Matchem at Maisons-Laffitte, and claimed a first black-type badge with a near pillar-to-post success. Assuming the lead after 100 meters had elapsed and enjoying a clear advantage at halfway, he was roused into action off the home turn and ran on strongly in the closing stages to comfortably hold the late threat of Violon Sacre.

NATIVE HEADS JULY FIELD

John Mayne's Kingsgate Native (Ire) (Mujadil) will face a total of 20 opponents in Friday's G1 Darley July Cup at Newmarket. Trainer John Best revealed that the G1 Golden Jubilee S. winner would be partnered by Seb Sanders in the £400,000 six-furlong contest. "Kingsgate Native has come out of Ascot fine--no problems at all," he commented. "I've been absolutely happy with him the whole way through. The plan is still to go to the Darley July Cup. I've not had a day off with him and he seems absolutely 100 percent. I'm 99 percent sure it will be Seb on top." Cont. p9

Potential rivals include the Golden Jubilee second and third War Artist (Aus) (Orpen) and Sir Gerry (Carson City), while last year's fourth Marchand d'Or (Fr) (Marchand de Sable) will represent the French stable of Freddie Head. Aidan O'Brien has a team of five still involved, headed by the Golden Jubilee fifth US Ranger (Danzig) and the sophomore Jupiter Pluvius (Johannesburg). The scratches yesterday included Stonerside Stable's Raven's Pass (Elusive Quality) and The Searchers' Fleeting Spirit (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}).

Rosaleen was fourth on her three-year-old debut in the Apr. 16 G3 Nell Gwyn S. at Newmarket before returning to the winner's spot after an Ascot conditions race a fortnight later. Off the board in both the Listed Height of Fashion S. at Goodwood May 21 and Listed Sandringham H. at Royal Ascot June 18, the bay rebounded with a career best in this competitive heat. Racing close to the early pace dictated by Illusion, she conquered that rival passing the eighth pole, and the post came in time as the penalised Visit drove into her advantage with every stride late on.

Distinction, or "Big D" as his loving connections call him, has emerged as one of the Flat's endearing veterans, but he proved he is not just a figure of sentiment with a sixth stakes success here. Third in the Apr. 30 G3 Sagaro S. at Ascot on his nine-year-old bow, the strapping bay had run Honolulu (Ire) to 1 1/2 lengths when runner-up in the Royal meeting's closing Queen Alexandra S. on his last start. Settled in mid-division early off the true pace set by Tungsten Strike, he swooped wide of Samuel as that foe took over passing the quarter pole and soon gained the edge. Despite veering right and making contact with the runner-up in the run to the line, he was allowed to keep the race by the stewards. "He's such a favorite in the yard and everybody loves him," trainer Sir Michael Stoute said. "We're not going to waste his time, and he'll tell us when the time is up. He had a bad injury in 2006 and he's much better this year than last--he's such a competitor and has such a love of the game. He'll probably go and have a crack at the [July 31] G2 Goodwood Cup."

Winless since taking the G3 Supreme S. at Goodwood last September, Lovelace encouraged connections with a commendable eighth in the June 20 Buckingham Palace H. at Royal Ascot last time. Racing keenly towards the tail through the opening exchanges of this return, the bay was asked to take closer order at the three-furlong pole. Finding the gaps to hit the front 100 yards from the line, he was driven out to take this valuable prize.
