MINT LANE WIRES DWYER

Sent off at the crowd's heavy 3-5 choice, Pinebloom Stable's Mint Lane (Maria's Mon) put forth a workman-like effort to secure his first graded event in Sunday's GII Dwyer S. at Belmont Park. The Jimmy Jerkens trainee, who was 5 3/4 lengths adrift of Casino Drive in the May 10 GII Peter Pan S. over the Belmont strip, entered the Dwyer off a strong win in the Postponed S. June 13. Breaking from post three under Eibar Coa, Mint Lane was soon in front and set sensible fractions as Ready's Image (More Than Ready) pressed from the outside. Mint Lane shrugged off that tiring foe nearing the quarter pole and, though softened up a bit, none of his rivals was able to mount a serious threat down the lane and he won comfortably. The big longshot Tizbig (Tiznow), trained by Jerkens's Hall of Fame father Allen Jerkens, earned the place spot. Cont. p2

THE 'GENUINE' ARTICLE IN LOCUST GROVE

The four-year-old filly Genuine Devotion (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) found the wire in time to notch her fourth straight victory in Sunday's GIII Locust Grove S. on the sod at Churchill Downs. Owned by James Barry, she ended 2007 with a tally in the Xtra Heat H. sprinting on Belmont's lawn in October, then returned to win the Upper Noosh S. over that course May 17. On the engine in the Locust Grove, Genuine Devotion opened a clear lead in the stretch and dug in as Brownie Points (Forest Wildcat) came flying. "She is a real nice filly and he's a great owner," said winning trainer Kieran McLauglin. Cont. p3

DERBY GLORY FOR KAMSIN

Stall Blankenese's Kamsin (Ger) (Samum {Ger}) led most of the way in the driving rain to capture yesterday's G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg. In leading home his stable companion Ostland (Ger) (Lando {Ger}) by three lengths, the 13-2 shot emulated his sire, who was successful in the millennium year, and provided trainer Peter Schiergen with a third renewal. It was the second Derby win in three years for his sire, and for owner and breeder Gestut Karlshof, also responsible for Schiaparelli (Ger). Cont. p2

Minty Fresh...

Mint Lane has quietly emerged as a rock-solid performer in the three-year-old division this year, now having won four of seven in 2008, with a pair of runner-up efforts to his credit. He romped in an Aqueduct maiden in January, again in an allowance race in late March, then ran Icabad Crane to a head when second in the Apr. 19 Federico Tesio S. at Pimlico. He was no threat to Casino Drive in the Peter Pan, but rebounded with a facile victory in the Postponed. Though he didn't face any of the divisional leaders in the Dwyer, Mint Lane could see them soon enough, according to trainer Jimmy Jerkens. "We will definitely consider the [GI] Travers S. [Aug. 23]. He galloped out real good, so maybe he can go a mile and a quarter. By today's standards, he is running a little more often than the average horse. He's stayed fit since his last race, held his flesh well, so we ran him. We'll take him to Saratoga. The [July 27, GII] Jim Dandy S. comes up a little quick. You don't want to over-race him and take all the fun out of it for him." On his father Allen running second with 33-1 Tizbig, Jerkens added, "You can never count him out." Jockey Eibar Coa said he thought his mount did well to withstand the early pressure. "The way he won last time, I didn't think they were going to let him do the same thing," said Coa. "So, they were going to go after him. He's been just good enough to hold that speed and keep going." Kamsin, who opened his account at Krefeld Mar. 16 before taking the G3 Albert Von Metzler-Rennen at Frankfurt May 4, was only fourth in the G3 Bavarian Classic at Munich last time June 8. Relishing the return to rain-softened conditions here, the bay benefitted from the same type of enterprising ride exercised by Andrasch Starke on two of his previous five Derby winners Samum and Schiaparelli. In a positive frame of mind from the outset, he accepted a lead from Ostland before moving his mount into the lead turning out of the home straight for the first time. Dictating the fractions from there, Kamsin kicked decisively on the final turn and never looked likely to relinquish his advantage as he ploughed a lone path in the centre of the track. Schiergen was delighted with his one-two afterwards and said, "That was an excellent race for us. We did not really want to go to the lead, but the pace was so slow they almost moved at a trot. The jockeys really made the most of it; I have to compliment them on their riding. I can only say that Kamsin's running at Munich had to be wrong and the colt was not himself that day. The rain today also helped and once again, the jockeys did a masterful job." Starke added, "I kept a low profile on Kamsin, as I did not want to be the favourite in the race. I knew he had to improve on his Munich run and he did--he always felt good and full of run." Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Genuine Devotion finished sixth in her debut on the grass, in a Saratoga NW1X last August, but has been unbeatable on the green stuff since. She cleared that level at Belmont Sept. 15, then added the Xtra Heat S. and, in her seasonal bow, the Upper Noosh S. Stretching beyond six panels for the first time in this--and making her first start away from New York--Genuine Devotion set pressured fractions of :23 4/5 and :47 2/5 as Bayou's Lassie kept her honest. Genuine Devotion put away that determined foe in upper stretch, opened a clear lead, then held off Brownie Points. "This is my first race ever at Churchill Downs," said winning rider Alan Garcia, who added, "My filly was very comfortable today and I had a lot of horse. At the quarter pole, I asked her and she was running. She began to pick it up and I looked back, and nobody was coming. She got the job done." Genuine Devotion's owner, James Barry, also campaigns GI Met Mile hero Divine Park. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Goldikova was successful in both juvenile starts at Chantilly last year and warmed up for this campaign with a second to Azabara (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) in an Apr. 3 one-mile conditions event at Longchamp. Gaining immediate revenge on that rival, she found only Zarkava (Ire) too good in the May 11 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches back at that Paris venue, but had stamina limitations exposed when chasing home that wonder filly in another Classic, the G1 Prix de Diane, on her return to Chantilly last time June 8, where she still managed a creditable third. Settled second in the wake of her rabbit Pas Seule (Fr) (Iron Mask) through the early fractions of this, she quickened clear passing the two pole and was not for catching thereafter to secure a personal best win. "The trip was too far for her in the Diane and, with her performance here, I'm now certain one mile is her best distance," said winning trainer Freddy Head. "We'll keep her going and will bring her back in what was the Prix d'Astarte, now renamed the G1 Prix Rothschild, at Deauville Aug. 3." Yves de Nicolay also indicated that race might be on the agenda for runner-up Top Toss. Click for the Racing Post chart.

Following up a first win at Lingfield Mar. 31, Percolator doubled up in a Longchamp conditions May 5 before tearing open the June 14 Listed Prix La Fleche in a new track record back over the Bois de Boulogne strip last time. She made a third English Channel crossing for this pattern-race bow and justified the collective Gallic faith to bag a career high in this speed test. Out sharply to lead as per usual, she maintained control throughout and coasted to the wire in hand inside the final furlong to win unchallenged. "She's very tough, extremely fast and easy to train," said winning trainer Paul Cole. "I can't believe she was led out unsold for 2,000gns at Tattersalls' October Sale last year, but her breeder kept her and it's just another one of those nice stories in racing. I'd be tempted to come back here for the [July 27] G2 Prix Robert Papin, but she's already done a lot of travelling so we'll see. I might also consider the [Aug. 22 G1] Nunthorpe S. at York as she'd carry just 110 pounds in that and, with a filly so fast, I'm quite tempted." Click for the Racing Post chart.

CURLIN SCHEDULED TO WORK TODAY Reigning Horse of the Year Curlin is slated to work today at Churchill Downs in preparation for his turf debut this Saturday at either Belmont Park or Arlington Park. The Steve Asmussen-trained colt is scheduled to work over Churchill's main track at approximately 6:15 a.m. (EDT). Asmussen plans for Curlin to make his turf bow in either the GI Man O' War S. at Belmont or GIII Arlington Park H. Connections are reportedly leaning toward the former, so long as licensing issues in New York can be resolved.

May 25. "She ran well enough in that race off the lay-off, and it gets her to this race," said Violette. "She's pretty much on schedule this year, except for one little blip, when she wrenched an ankle and missed a race at Aqueduct that she could have run in before the Vagrancy. Now, if all goes well in the Princess Rooney, then it will be on to the Ballerina at Saratoga. The objective will be to get her back for another try in the Breeders' Cup [Filly & Mare Sprint at Santa Anita], but we'll want to try her on a synthetic track before then somewhere. She didn't handle the slop at Monmouth." Eibar Coa has ridden Dream Rush in her last four starts and gets the mount Saturday.

Krz Exec reeled off three straight wins after stretching out past a mile last fall, taking a Oct. 17 maiden, Nov. 7 South Ocean S. and Dec. 5 Ontario Lassie S. Cutting back and trying the turf for her first start of the year, was always within striking distance behind dueling leaders and closed determinedly down the lane to just get up for her fourth straight. "When she was right on the bridle, I knew she was going to put me right into a good spot so the speed wouldn't get away," explained winning rider Jerry Baird. "Her heart took over from there. She likes to get her head in front at the wire." As for what is next for Krz Exec, trainer Mike DePaulo said, "There's an Ontario-sired stakes in a few weeks. We'll probably take a look at that. There's a two-turn race for Ontario-sired fillies in August. We'll take care of her the best we can and find the right spot."

ROBERT K. KERLAN MEMORIAL H.

John Sadler hopes to turn Get Funky into a contender for this year's inaugural Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint at Santa Anita. The trainer's convictions that Get Funky is quick enough to factor in that race were bolstered in this, which found the winner of the 2006 nine-furlong GII Del Mar Derby motoring to a determined win. Fourth in last year's GII Oak Tree Mile, Get Funky shortened up to take the 6 1/2-furlong GIII Morvich H. in late October in his seasonal finale. He returned to routing when fourth off the bench in the 8 1/2-furlong GIII Inglewood H. here May 3, and was once again cutting back in distance. Settled in mid-division under Jose Valdivia, Jr., Get Funky split rivals in upper stretch and reeled in Jungle Prince in the dying strides. "It's a thrill to win it because of the way the race is named," Sadler said afterwards. "Dr. Kerlan was beloved and he was at the races here all the time, so it's a fun race to win. The horse has been good on the turf course and runs a good race every time. He's had some things he's had to put up with, but he has a lot of heart. We'll run one race at Del Mar, we're not sure, then down the hill at Oak Tree." Remarkably, Sadler was taking his fifth stakes win in eight days in Southern California. An even seventh at 20-1 odds in his debut sprinting six panels at Hollywood May 26, Hiatus was a 6-1 shot stretching to two turns. Settled in mid-pack under Valdivia, Hiatus kicked into gear in the stretch and ran down pacesetter Scibelli (Orientate) to win by a length. Valdivia was joined by his family for a short celebration in the winner's circle. "I've got what, about 9,000 and change to catch Laffit [Pincay]?" Valdivia quipped after the race. "It's a milestone. I'm very proud to have done it at a major race track. Since I started riding, I've had the pleasure and honor to share the starting gate with some great riders. To do it in Southern California and, not only that, to end up doing it for Ron Ellis and the Siegels means a lot. They've stuck with me ever since I had the bug here in Southern California. They've been by my side all along. It just means the world to me. I have my family here, my little girl's feeling good...I couldn't be happier." Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $30,400. Lexington Winner Behindatthebar to Ship for Swaps:
Behindatthebar (Forest Wildcat), winner of the GII Lexington S. at Keeneland in his last start Apr. 19, will be shipped west for Saturday's GII Swaps S. at Hollywood Park, trainer Todd Pletcher said Sunday. "He worked well this morning: five-eighths in a minute and two-fifths," said Pletcher of the colt's drill at Belmont Park. "We will put him on a plane Tuesday. [Assistant] Virginia De Pasquale will be there with him." David Flores has the call back on the colt, who has won three of five starts. "We decided to pass on the Kentucky Derby," explained Pletcher of the lengthy layoff. "We entered him in the Preakness, but he bruised a foot and we scratched him. We have been pointing him to the Swaps since." Other probable starters are Colonel John (Tiznow), Dixie Chatter (Dixie Union), Madeo (Mizzen Mast), Nownownow (Whywhywhy), Tres Borrachos (Ecton Park), Trevor's Clever (Stephen Got Even) and Two Step Salsa (Petionville). Nownownow, a recent addition to the Jason Orman stable at Santa Anita, received the green light for the Swaps after a Sunday work. "I had him in 1:12 and four in company," said Orman of the colt's drill under Aaron Gryder, his second at Santa Anita since joining his barn three weeks ago. Nownownow won the inaugural Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf at Monmouth Park in October for Patrick Biancone in his final 2007 start. He was shipped to Ireland this spring and finished fifth in the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas May 24 before Fab Oak Stable turned him over to Orman.

Congo Kaye belied her experience to give her freshman sire Congaree (by Arazi) his first stakes winner, in addition to his third individual winner. It was hard to fault the bettors who sent Congo Kaye postward as a rank 23-1 outsider. After all, her trainer, John Anderson, hadn't saddled a first-timer to victory in his last 28 attempts and was hitting at a modest seven-percent clip on the year with all his runners. What's more, trainer Jerry Hollendorfer's Broadway Hennessey earned a 100 BRIS fig winning at first asking at Golden Gate June 14 and looked imposing at 1-5 odds. The heavy favorite was lured into a hot speed duel, however, as she and Got Tobe Rio sped through :21 2/5 and :44 3/5 splits. Taking advantage, Congo Kaye, who had broken last of nine, closed into contention with an inside move on the turn and was full of run late to be up in time. AQLAAM SIDELINED Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's G3 Jersey S. winner Aqlaam (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) will be on the shelf for "the next couple of months," connections announced yesterday. The owner-breeder's Racing Manager Angus Gold revealed that the William Haggas-trained winner of the June 18 Royal Ascot contest had sustained a pelvic injury. "He's had a bit of a setback," he told PA Sport. "Long-term, it's not serious--it's just very bad timing. He's got a tiny crack somewhere in his pelvis, which we are going to re-scan tomorrow just to have it confirmed. We are told it's not too bad as these things go. Until we know the details, we don't know enough, but he's out of action for the next couple of months."

ABBEY'S MORNY ROAD Carmen Burrell's Abbeyside (GB) (Daneshill Dancer {Ire}), the cozy winner of Saturday's Listed Prix Yacowlef at Deauville, is likely to return to France for his next start and will point to the Aug. 24 G1 Prix Morny back on the Normandy coast, according to conditioner Paul Cole. "He's a big horse who will be better over six furlongs and even better over seven," the trainer said at Maisons-Laffitte yesterday. "He's a horse I think a lot of and if he comes out of the Yacowlef well, he may come back in the Prix Morny."
