THE SCHUY'S THE LIMIT

The punters had it right...sort of. They wagered that trainer Steve Asmussen would get his picture taken following Wednesday's GIII Schuylerville S. at Saratoga, and so it was. However, it was not favored Ocean Colors (Orientate), but rather stable-mate Jardin (Montbrook) who sat a wide trip, hit the front in upper stretch and sprinted home an easy winner. "She ran great," said winning jockey Robby Albarado. "She didn't break well but she has enough speed to be forwardly placed. The best part of the race was that she handled the course, unlike some of the other fillies." Schuylerville cont. p2

TOGA PARTY?

Darley Stable's Desert Party (Street Cry {Ire}) will try to take this next step towards validating his $2.1-million pricetag from this year's Fasig-Tipton Calder sale in what has become a competitive renewal of the

Desert Party Four-Footed Fotos

GII Sanford S. at Saratoga. The complexion of the race changed dramatically Wednesday morning when

Notonthesamepage

(Catienus), a track-record setter and 6-5 morning-line favorite, was declared with a temperature. "He'll probably be all right in a couple of days, but we can't run him like that," owner Kenneth Ramsey told Daily Racing Form about the "TDN Rising Star". The scratch will result in the coming-out party for one of the six other entrants. Desert Party was a much-the-best winner of his June 22 debut over the Arlington Polytrack, but has also trained strongly over the local strip. His five-furlong work in 1:00.07 July 19 was the second-fastest of 27 moves. Only GISW Fabulous Strike (:59.84) was quicker. Vineyard Haven (Lido Palace {Chi}) owns the field's highest speed figure in the absence of Notonthesamepage. A 4 1/4-length winner at Calder for owner/breeder/trainer Lynne Scace June 28, but has since been purchased by Bobby Frankel for a group including Los Angeles Dodgers manager Joe Torre. Sanford field p2

Rain Dance...

Bred by Michael O'Farrell's Ocala Stud from a half-sister to GISW Outofthebox, Jardin was sent through the ring at this year's OBS February Sale and was knocked down to Satish Sanan's Padua Stables for $425,000 after breezing a quarter-mile in a swift :21.2. Brought along in a typically steady manner by Asmussen, the bay was no secret at 3-2 for her June 22 debut at Churchill Downs and lived up to her advanced billing, tracking the pace three wide before pulling away late to score by three lengths. A descendant of prominent mud influences Buckaroo and In Reality, she figured to love Wednesday's off going, but was let go at juicy odds of 12-1. Ocean Colors, the daughter of GI Kentucky Derby winner Winning

Colors, was a bit fractious in the stalls and bobbed slightly at the break, but recovered to set the pace in advance of Cameron Craziess (Lion Heart) while Jardin monitored the proceedings while trapped out four deep. About the same time the front-runner was hoisting the white flag, her stablemate was staying on and took aim at Cameron Craziess as they raced to the eighth pole. Jardin asserted under hand encouragement from Albarado and was going away late. Girlfrienontheside (Indian Charlie) closed well from fourth to earn the show spot. "I was concerned with Jardin being on the outside," Asmussen admitted. "As the day went on, it looked like that's where she needed to be. She was comfortable the whole way." Of the beaten favorite, he added, "like she's going to be fine. She was tying up a bit. We want to make sure she gets back okay." The winner is likely to make her next start in the GI Spinaway S. Aug. 31. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Hapsburg registered an upset under the floodlights when denying Kocab to add this prestigious prize to her previous stakes score in Longchamp's Listed Prix de Liancourt in September. Fourth after that effort in the G3 Prix de Flore at Saint-Cloud the following month, the bay returned to be fifth in the G3 Prix Allez France at Chantilly Apr. 29 and fourth again on her latest outing in the May 29 G2 Prix Corrida back at Saint-Cloud. Arriving with a flourish from rear to lead approaching the eighth pole, she dug in to ward off the favorite's threat in the drive to the line. Hapsburg's second dam is U.S. graded stakes winner Sum, a half-sister to English juvenile champ Bakharoff and Group 2 winner Emperor Jones. Click for the Racing Post chart.

Jim Bolger has won this for the last two years with his stable giants Teofilo (Ire) and New Approach (Ire) and puts forward his filly Cuis Ghaire this time. Successful over six furlongs in the G3 Swordlestown Stud Sprint S. at Naas June 2 and Royal Ascot's G3 Albany S. last time June 20, she is bred to relish this longer trip and sets the standard. One drawback is the fact that has to defy a penalty against Ballydoyle's promising Rip Van Winkle, who was awarded a Curragh maiden on debut June 27 after appearing an unlucky loser on that occasion.

GISW Fabulous Strike (Smart Strike), who had been scheduled to make his next start in Saturday's GII Alfred G. Vanderbilt S. at Saratoga, will be forced to miss the race, Daily Racing Form reports. The five-year-old gelding suffered a foot injury Tuesday morning, tearing a chunk out of his left front frog. "He must have stepped on something training," conditioner Todd Beattie told DRF. "I don't know what else it could be. It's very unusual, being right in the middle of his foot.

We thought we'd be all right; we'd desensitize it, get it where it wasn't so sensitive. But you go up to the track and he gets a little sole pressure, and sand gets up into it and irritates him pretty good." The dark bay, stabled at Saratoga since July 14, will head back to his home base at Penn National, but could return to the Spa for the Aug. 30 GI Forego S. From 15 career starts, Fabulous Strike has 10 wins and a second, including victories in the GI Vosburgh S. and GIII Aristides BC S. He was sidelined after his Vosburgh score last September, returning to take the Vincent A. Moscarelli Memorial S. at Delaware June 21. His earnings stand at $677,832.

HENRY LEADS O'BRIEN GOODWOOD SQUAD

Aidan O'Brien is preparing his team for next week's Glorious Goodwood meeting and gave a positive bulletin on Wednesday's G1 Sussex S. contender Henrythenavigator (Kingmambo) yesterday. While Susan Magnier's G1 English and Irish 2000 Guineas and G1 St James's Palace S. hero is certain to line up in the mile contest, the three-times G1 Ascot Gold Cup winner Yeats (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) may miss the following day's G2 Goodwood Cup. "We have Henry going to the Sussex, while Yeats is not a definite for the two-miler and Honolulu (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) is looking more likely for that at the moment," O'Brien told AttheRaces. "Halfway to Heaven (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) is going for the [Aug. 2] G1 Nassau S. and a few others in between. Henry is a very classy horse and likes his work with a good companion, but it is very hard to get one to match strides with him." Of the juveniles, he added, "We have some nice ones, but more for the second half of the season and I'm not sure we'll have a lot for Goodwood."

WHY TDN ALERTS?

"With all the excitement of two-year-old racing, I need my TDN Alerts not only to keep up with race-by-race news, but urgent information in the breeding world."

PESLIER RIDES THE BULL Olivier Peslier will partner Papal Bull (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) in Saturday's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. at Ascot. Trainer Sir Michael Stoute approached the French jockey after Ryan Moore decided to stick with Patrick Fahey's Ask (GB) (Sadler's Wells) in the mile-and-a-half contest. The Papal Bull Syndicate's Gary Patchett told Racing Post, "When Sir Michael told us who he had booked, we were thrilled." Stoute added that Ask is not a certain starter if the ground is riding as fast as it was for the G1 Prince of Wales's S. "Obviously, we don't want the ground as firm as it was at Royal Ascot for Ask, although he ran there," he told the trade daily. "I'll have to check with [Clerk of the Course] Chris Stickels, but we're hoping to run. We'll see what happens later in the week."

FANS BRAVE THE WEATHER AT THE SPA Despite steady, often heavy, rain throughout the day, opening day of the 140th Saratoga Race Course season still drew 18,127 through the turnstiles. With ideal weather in 2007, the opener drew 30,052 patrons. With all five scheduled turf races switched to the sloppy main track and numerous scratches throughout the card, the opening-day handle was well off last year's record on-track number of $3,994,487, totaling a respectable $2,813,981 for the 10-race card. All-sources handle for Wednesday was $11,431,845, down from last year's all sources Opening Day handle of $15,282,907. "Despite poor weather conditions and more than 35 scratches on the card, the 2008 Saratoga race meeting got off to its usual rousing start," said New York Racing Association President and CEO Charles Hayward. "As a result, attendance and handle were off substantially, but we have 35 more race days to make it up. We very much appreciate the resiliency of our fans, horsemen and jockeys who made today a great day of racing."

BALLINDAGGIN EUTHANIZED New York-bred Ballindaggin (Noble Nashua--Can't Be Bothered, by Stop the Music), who swept the three legs of the New York Stallion Series in 1987, beating Fourstardave, and captured the 1988 Molson Export Challenge, was euthanized July 22 at Hagyard Equine Medical Institute in Lexington due to severe back problems. The 23-year-old had been a resident of the Old Friends, a Thoroughbred retirement facility in Georgetown, Kentucky, for two years. He suffered from degenerative arthritis. Raced by George Layman Jr. and trained by John Hertler, the chestnut was purchased from breeders Eaton and Thorne for $63,000 as a KEESEP yearling. After compiling a record of 14-4-2-3 and earning $946,894, he was retired to Singletree Meadow in Idaho in 1989, and had 14 crops to race. He produced just 63 named foals, 32 starters and 21 winners. Bob and Robbie Waters, owners of Singletree, donated Ballindaggin to the Old Friends in 2006. "Ballindaggin was one of our kindest, most intelligent residents," said the Old Friends President Michael Blowen. "He was farm manager Janet Beyersdorfer's favorite retiree. But he told us it was time."

ACCREDIT (c, 3, E Dubai--Pocketbrook, by Montbrook) hit the board in a trio of stakes over Aqueduct's inner track during the winter before heading out of town. Disqualified from victory and placed second in a Polytrack allowance at Keeneland Apr. 24, the Triple Crown nominee returned to the Big Apple to run second in an allowance on Belmont Day in his latest appearance. Bet down to 4-5 here, the dark bay assumed command early under Alan Garcia and never looked back, coming home 4 3/4 lengths clear of Golden Age (Seeking the Gold) under a hand ride. Accredit was a $32,000 OBSOCT weanling and $160,000 KEESEP yearling. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Lifetime Record: MSP, 8-2-4-1, $131,149.

The Ontario-bred came back to finish fifth in an allowance at Presque Isle July 2, but was bred to relish the off going and was the second choice here at 2-1. Away alertly, the blinkered bay pressed the pace and came off the turn a bit wide, but quickly asserted himself and splashed home a 3 1/2-length winner to give jockey Kent Desormeaux his 4,999th career tally. COGNITO (c, 2, Langfuhr--Coral Sea, by Rubiano), a May 22 foal, brought $135,000 as a yearling at KEESEP, but his maturity over the winter--coupled with the emergence of his half-brother Cool Coal Man (Mineshaft), GSW, $349,531--saw him top KEEAPR's opening session at $700,000. The grey debuted with a second to subsequent stakes winner Proud Jefe at Churchill June 27, and that experience saw him go postward as the 6-5 chalk in this sloppy affair. Breaking from the rail, the Stonestreet colorbearer came away smoothly to hold a narrow advantage over Gone Astray (Dixie Union) and Brave Victory (Lion Heart). The favorite shook loose in the lane, but dug in late to deny a resurgent Brave Victory by a half-length as Gone Astray rounded out the triple 2 3/4 lengths behind the top two. Hailing from the family of champions Storm Bird and Northernette, Cognito is also a half-brother to Kathleens Reel (Lemon Drop Kid), SW & MGSP, $192,709. His dam has a yearling Mineshaft colt and foaled a Pleasantly Perfect filly this season. The Zayat entry of Pious David (Aldebaran) and Zensational (Unbridled's Song) was scratched. Grasshopper on Whitney Fence:

William S. Farish's Grasshopper (Dixie Union) went a half-mile over the wet-fast main track at Saratoga yesterday morning in :50.17, but connections remain undecided on whether the four-year-old, a bang-up second to Street Sense in last year's GI Travers S., would line up for Saturday's GI Whitney H. at the Spa. "The weather has nothing to do with whether we run in the Whitney or not," commented trainer Neil Howard. "I want to talk to Mr. Farish and look over our options. We might go in the Whitney, but we may decide on an overnight race instead. We'll just wait and see." Winner of the Gill Mineshaft H. in his seasonal debut Feb. 9, the dark bay was most recently fourth to Curlin in the GI Stephen Foster H. at Churchill June 14.

Tale of Ekati Works; Haskell Next?:

Tale of Ekati (Tale of the Cat), who upset champion War Pass in this year's GI Wood Memorial S., was out for a breeze Wednesday morning at Saratoga, covering five-eighths of a mile in 1:00.07, the best of 10 works at the distance. He galloped out six furlongs in a strong 1:13 1/5. Exercise rider Kristin Troxell was in the irons aboard the Charles Fipke runner, who has been recovering from an injury suffered during his sixth-place effort in the GI Belmont S. "He was pretty sore after that race," said Robin Smullen, assistant to trainer Barclay Tagg. "It has been a problem for him for a while. I was glad he went out there early instead of later because the track became sloppy." Tale of Ekati could resume his season against Big Brown in the GI Haskell Invitational S. Aug. 3.

Curlin Fine After Monday Move:

Trainer Steve Asmussen reports that while Horse of the Year Curlin (Smart Strike) came out of his four-furlong workout Monday in good shape, no decisions have been made about where or when his next start may come. "I have no idea if anything is eliminated," the conditioner commented. Monday's breeze, accomplished in :51.47 over a sloppy and sealed main track at Saratoga, was Curlin's first since his runner-up finish to Red Rocks (Ire) in the GI Man O'War S. at Belmont Park.

Turf Racing Cancelled Thursday:

The daylong rains at Saratoga yesterday have forced the cancellation of the four turf races scheduled for today's live program. This includes the first steeplechase race of the meet, which has been rescheduled and will be contested as the first race of the July 30 program. Because the steeplechase race was carded as today's first race, live racing will begin at 1:30 p.m. In 2007, all but six of the races scheduled for the turf were run on that surface.

Atoned to Add Blinkers for Haskell:

Dogwood Stable's Atoned (Repent) has lost six of his 12 career starts by a head, a neck or a nose. In an attempt to remedy that case of seconditis, trainer Todd Pletcher is thinking about experimenting with a set of blinkers when the colt makes his next start, likely to come in the $1-million GI Haskell Invitational S. at Monmouth Park Aug. 3. "It's amazing that he's run as well as he has and finished second as many times as he has," Pletcher said yesterday from the Oceanport oval, where he was overseeing his string. "And he's been second a variety of ways. He's gone to the front too soon at times, and then been too late other times. He's shown hints of moving forward in his races, but he's been kind of a bridesmaid. We think he needs a little edge, and maybe blinkers will be that edge. We're thinking of working him in blinkers to see how he responds." Pletcher has taken the last two runnings of the Haskell, with Bluegrass Cat in 2006 and last year with Any Given Saturday. Atoned, who won the 2007 Continental Mile S. over the Monmouth surface, was runner-up to Cool Coal Man in the June 14 Spend a Buck S. and most recently to Truth Rules in the Long Branch S. July 12.

Boulet Named Racing Secretary at Fair Grounds:

Louisiana native Jason Boulet has been tabbed to replace Sam Abbey as the racing secretary at the Fair Grounds. Boulet, 39, has occupied the same position at Evangeline Downs since 2005, and returns to New Orleans, where he spent three seasons in a variety of roles prior to Churchill Downs Incorporated's purchase of the facility. "We are excited to have Jason Boulet rejoin our staff at Fair Grounds," commented track president Randy Soth. "Jason brings to us a unique blend of experience and a great relationship with horsemen, both nationwide and in Louisiana." Added Boulet, "Going back to Fair Grounds is like coming home. The four years I was at Evangeline was a great experience that has helped get me ready for this challenge. I'm really excited about this opportunity. This is like a dream come true."

Woodlands to Cease Operations:

Officials at the Woodlands Race Course located near Kansas City, Kansas, have announced that the facility will be closing and that it will not host a Thoroughbred or Quarter Horse meet in 2008. Spawr, McAnally Pay Homage to Craig:

Trainers Bill Spawr and Ron McAnally yesterday remembered their client Sid Craig, who passed away Monday at his Del Mar home following a lengthy illness. Leading the list of the many horses trained by Spawr on behalf of Craig and his wife Jenny was Exchange, claimed on the couple's behalf for $50,000. She went on to bankroll $1.1 million for the Craigs in four racing seasons. "Spawr called Craig, "a wonderful guy, a real loyal guy and really nice to be around. He was a dream owner." He also recalled Craig as a man with a "funny" sense of humor. "Sometimes it took me a while to catch on," Spawr said. McAnally had tremendous success for the Craigs, conditioning the likes of two-time Eclipse Award winner Paseana (Arg), Different (Arg) and Candy Ride (Arg). "He was the classiest guy you'd ever want to know," McAnally said Wednesday morning. "The best times my wife, Debbie, and I have had were those times with Sid and Jenny. I remember, especially, a trip to France where we bought a horse named Voyager's Quest [a Group 3 winner]." Both trainers believe that Mrs. Craig will remain in the game. "She does like the business and I would expect her to stay in," McAnally said. Spawr agreed. "She is as interested in the game as he was. I would be surprised if she got out."

SIEGFRIED HEADS MILLION ENTRY

David Brownlow's impressive Salisbury maiden winner Prince Siegfried (Fr) (Royal Applause {GB}) yesterday featured among the 94 two-year-olds remaining in the Tattersalls Timeform Million. Trainer Andrew Balding has issued an upbeat bulletin on the five-length scorer of his July 12 debut as he prepares for the July 23 seven-furlong contest at Newmarket. "The Tattersalls Timeform Million is a race that I'm certainly looking to target with Prince Siegfried," he said yesterday. "The massive prize money is very much the attraction; there is nowhere else that you can race with two-year-olds for that kind of prize money, and he looks the right type for it." The Oct. 4 Tattersalls Timeform Fillies' 800, which also takes place at Newmarket, has a total of 69 fillies still entered after the latest forfeit stage, with trainer Mark Wallace targeting the seven-furlong contest with Sheikh Rashid bin Mohammed's Vitoria (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}). Runner-up on debut at Kempton July 16, she has the valuable prize as her objective. "The long-term plan is to go for the Tattersalls Timeform Fillies' 800," her conditioner explained. "It looks like we've got a nice filly, so we'd be mad not to go for the race, as the prize money is huge." A total of 144 are remaining in the £250,000 Tattersalls October Auction S. over six furlongs again at Newmarket Oct. 2.

The Queen's unbeaten Free Agent (GB) (Dr Fong) could run in Doncaster's G2 Champagne S., connections revealed yesterday. The Richard Hannon-trained Listed Chesham S. winner featured among 117 juveniles entered for the £100,000 seven-furlong contest Sept. 13. John Warren, the owner-breeder's racing and bloodstock advisor, commented yesterday, "Free Agent has been entered in the Champagne S. and he could line up at Doncaster. He's come out of Royal Ascot fine, but he's very much a horse for next year and we expect to have a couple more runs this season and set him up for a three-year-old campaign. He's so mature and strong that he's been able to do everything that we have asked of him so far, and that's the sign of a decent horse. He's a very good individual with a lot of scope about him." Among the entries are Khalid Abdullah's ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Zacinto (GB) (Dansili {GB}), who registered an eight-length success for the Sir Michael Stoute stable in a Sandown maiden on debut July 4; and Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's G2 Railway S. winner Mastercraftsman (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), one of 21 entries from the Aidan O'Brien barn.

BISHAARA (IRE) (Alhaarth {Ire}) will carry the blue-and-white silks of Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum in this racecourse bow. The bay homebred, a half-sister to 1999 G1 Premio Vittorio di Capua and 2000 G1 Prix Jacques le Marois hero Muthathir (GB), hails from the John Gosden yard. Her opponents include Cheveley Park Stud's Floodlit (GB) (Fantastic Light), a stablemate who is out of a half-sister to 1998 G1 Epsom Oaks placegetter Midnight Line.

8.10 Folkestone, Mdn, £6,500, 2yo, f, 7fT

CASTER SUGAR (Cozzene), a March-foaled bay, is a daughter of Only Royale (Ire), who won the G1 Yorkshire Oaks in 1993 and 1994. Representing Luca Cumani's Newmarket barn in this opening show, she faces a dozen rivals, which include Bobbie Soxer (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}), a John Dunlop-trained half-sister to MSW Big Bad Bob (Ire).

NEWMARKET FEATURES ATTRACT BUMPER ENTRIES

Newmarket's G1 Cheveley Park S. and G1 Shadwell Middle Park S. have attracted entries of 77 and 57 juveniles, respectively, it was announced yesterday. Worth £170,000 apiece, the six-furlong fall highlights run on Oct. 3 are already in the minds of trainers Mick Quinlan and Marcus Tregoning. The former is responsible for the Keeneland-based EHR Partnership's G2 Queen Mary S. heroine Langs Lash (Ire) (Noverre). "The first part of the plan for Langs Lash is the G2 Lowther S. [at York Aug. 21]," said the trainer's assistant and brother Noel Quinlan. "Depending how that goes, and I suspect it will go well, she will be a definite for the Cheveley Park S. She ran a fantastic race at Royal Ascot, and it's great to have a filly like her. We didn't run her quick after Ascot purposely, to give her time to mature more and get stronger. She is going the right way, so we're very happy with her and she seems to take her races well." Tregoning is targeting the Middle Park with Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Finjaan (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}), last seen when runner-up in Sandown's Listed National S. May 29. "I hope Finjaan will run in the Shadwell Middle Park Stakes," he said. "He's got to get through Goodwood first, where he will run in either [Tuesday's] G3 Molecomb S. over five furlongs or the G2 Richmond S. over six furlongs on the Friday. He's sure to run well at Newmarket as long as we get a trouble free run between now and then."

Hooking up with that 8-13 favorite at the three-furlong marker, he asserted to record a convincing 3 1/2-length success. The 90,000gns TATOCT yearling is a half to Lickety Lemon (Lemon Drop Kid), GSP, $151,346. Racing close to the early pace, the €145,000 GOFMIL yearling worked his way to the front with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and ground his way clear of that 11-10 pick to score by a convincing three-length margin.
