FOREVER TOGETHER TAKES DIANA

Adam Coglianesse

Three starts after being switched to the turf, Forever Together (Belong to Me) took down a top-class field to land the GI Diana S. at Saratoga yesterday afternoon. "As far as depth goes, this race was solid," said winning trainer Jonathan Sheppard. "I picked up the paper, and she had beaten four of the horses picked over her in her last start." Champion Wait a While (Maria's Mon), sent off as the 3-1 favorite in her first start since January, loomed in the stretch, but flattened out to finish seventh. "She didn't run like we thought she was going to," said trainer Todd Pletcher. "We're going to take her back to the barn and make sure everything is okay." Cont. p2

DANDY IS RIGHT

The GI Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga is a traditional jumping-off point for sophomores embarking on the second half of their season, but today's renewal is deeper than most. Among those looking to put the luster back on their spring reputations are Pyro (Pulpit) and Tale of Ekati (Tale of the Cat), while Da' Tara (Tiznow) will attempt to show his wire job in the GI Belmont S. was no fluke. Cont. p10

THE YEAR OF THE DUKE

Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's Duke of Marmalade (Ire) (Danehill) made it four Group 1s in a row yesterday when getting the better of Papal Bull (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) after a thrilling tussle in Ascot's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. Attempting the mile and a half for the first time, the 4-6 favorite looked set to surrender his winning sequence as Olivier Peslier swooped on the 14-1 shot inside the final furlong, but Duke of Marmalade rallied under Johnny Murtagh to prove his stamina and provide Ballydoyle with a 14th success at this level in 2008. Passing the £1-million mark in the process, he dragged the runner-up a huge nine lengths clear of the next best Youmzain (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}). "It's another huge win for me and a huge win for the team," Murtagh said. "I would rate this horse as good as Dylan Thomas (Ire), if not better, and he doesn't lack for anything. He probably won't get the plaudits, as he doesn't look spectacular, but he's always got loads in hand. He's a true champion and one of the best I've ridden." Cont. p3

A $27,000 KEESEP yearling who matured into a $240,000 OBSMAR juvenile, Forever Together kicked off her career with three straight victories, including the GII Forward Gal S. at Gulfstream. Her perfect record came to an end when she missed by a neck in the GII Stonerside Beaumont S. at Keeneland. The grey hit the board just once in her next four outings, all on the main track, and trainer Jonathan Sheppard opted to freshen her up following a fourth in a seven-furlong optional claimer at Gulfstream Feb. 15. Forever Together resurfaced on the lawn at Arlington to annex the one-mile Reluctant Guest S. May 17, and gave a very good account of herself when third at 44-1 in the GI Just a Game S. on the Belmont undercard June 7. She arrived in Saratoga earlier this month and signaled her readiness for this contest with a bullet five-furlong breeze in 1:01 2/5 over the Oklahoma track July 23.

Longshot Bayou's Lassie (Outflanker) opened a lonely lead as 9-1 Forever Together caboosed the field along with Rutherienne. The field began to gather on the far turn, with Dynaforce getting first run on the tiring pace-setter. Forever Together moved to the center of the course in the lane, set her sights on second-choice Dynaforce and forged past her in the final strides. "I was last [early], but it was nothing spectacular," said winning rider Julien Leparoux. "I mean, she was last, relaxed, and around the stretch I thought to make a move and come inside. When I got her out, she just took off. So, that was very good." The Diana winner earns an automatic berth in the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf Oct. 24 at Santa Anita, and that looks to be the path for Forever Together. "Going from a mile and an eighth to 11 furlongs, you would like a mile and a quarter race somewhere in between," Sheppard added. "The [GI] Flower Bowl [at Belmont Sept. 27] might be such a race." As for his charge's newfound stardom on grass, Sheppard offered, "We seemed to have a preponderance of turf horses in the barn, and if we find one that seems to be doing okay on the dirt, it gives us some diversity. Mr. [George] Strawbridge jokes, 'Why do we have nothing but turf horses?' and now we have another one. Whatever we do, we seem to wind up in the same spot." It was the second Diana trophy for Strawbridge and Sheppard, who teamed up with Ratings to take the 1993 renewal as part of jockey Julie Krone's historic five-win day. Dr. John Chandler's homebred Dynaforce stayed on for second following a similar effort in her U.S. bow in the GII New York H. She was bidding to give trainer Bill Mott his fourth consecutive Diana, following My Typhoon (Ire), Angara (GB) and Sand Springs. "She ran her heart out," said Mott. "She was in great position. She was where we wanted her, right behind the pace. She just got caught in the end."

While nobody questioned the ability of Duke of Marmalade following his four-length score in the June 18 G1 Prince of Wales's S. at the Royal meeting on his latest start, his staying power for this stiff test remained an unknown. For much of last year, the strapping bay had tackled the top mile events, and he had only raced beyond 10 furlongs on one occasion, when annexing the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup over an extra 110 yards at The Curragh May 25. The pace factor had become the main issue leading up to this showpiece, but that was settled when the stable's third-string Red Rock Canyon (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) was sent on by Colm O'Donoghue. Restrained in fifth off the solid tempo, Duke of Marmalade was unleashed widest of all at the top of the stretch and appeared to have settled the result with a dramatic turn of acceleration. Papal Bull matched that burst and, by the time they had reached the furlong marker, the mercurial character held a definite advantage, but the Duke dug in against the fence to get back in front in the final 50 yards.

"We knew we had the best horse, so we wanted no hard-luck stories," winning jockey Johnny Murtagh said. "He settled well and that gave him every chance of staying. When I went to the front very easily and quickened up very well, I was surprised to see a horse come with me. He got a neck up on me, but my horse has all the qualities of a great horse and soon had the measure of him. He's a great battler with a will to win, and I love the way he gets his head down and eats the ground. The race worked out very well for me, and to go nine lengths clear of the third tells you what the first two are capable of." Aidan O'Brien, now looking to return the winner to a mile and a quarter, added, "We weren't sure he would stay a mile and a half, but we wanted a strong, evenly run race to find out. It is very unusual to get a horse to show the class he has over a mile and a mile and a half. Johnny hadn't really gone for everything when the runner-up came at him and, when he picked him up, he really answered and won snug in the end." Looking head, O'Brien remarked, "Everything is an option, but I'd love to drop him back to a mile and a quarter and train him positively, rather than keeping him asleep. The G1 Juddmonte International S. [at York Aug. 19] and G1 Irish Champion S. [at Leopardstown Sept. 6] are there for him." The Bull Run...

So far in 2008, Papal Bull is the only horse to have given Duke of Marmalade a serious worry, but jockey Olivier Peslier was left ruing having taken that rival on as early as the furlong pole. Peslier suggested that the result may have been different had he not committed so soon, but added, "The owners have asked me to ride him in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe [Oct. 5] and I have agreed. I also feel he could do well in the Japan Cup." Trainer Mick Channon confirmed that last year's Arc runner-up Youmzain will be back at Longchamp in a bid to go one better. "He's run another solid race, but he didn't get the best of luck and it cost us momentum," Channon said. "He got turned round sideways a furlong and a half out, but he will be back for the Arc and will have a little break beforehand."

Left alone on the lead, Commentator made every pole a winning one to add another Whitney trophy following his memorable success in 2005, when he defeated eventual Horse of the Year Saint Liam by a neck. In doing so, he became the first runner to win two renewals of this marquee affair since the venerable Kelso, who won in 1961, 1963 and 1965. "This is a special win for me," exclaimed winning trainer Nick Zito. "This has to be up there with the greatest of them all. I am thankful to have a horse of this caliber." Zito added, "He gets in that league with Kelso and Forego, which I wanted him to be in so they couldn't take him out." At age seven, Commentator is second only to Kelso, who was eight when he won his third Whitney.

Commentator was limited to just two starts at five in 2006, dusting New York-breds in the Mugatea S. before faltering to 10th as the 4-5 chalk in the GI Forego S. After another triumph against state-breds to kick off 2007, the chestnut came up short against the nation's best sprinters, finishing sixth in the GI Alfred G. Vanderbilt H. and seventh in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint Oct. 27. But he seems to have discovered the fountain of youth this season. The New York-bred set a track record at Gulfstream in a one-mile optional claimer in his Jan. 17 return; his 119 Beyer Speed Figure remains the highest achieved to date in 2008. A 13 3/4-length winner of the GII Richter Scale H. at 1-5 Mar. 8, he battled through a :44 2/5 half in the GI Met Mile before succumbing late to Divine Park, and settled for second. Commentator continued to train smartly on the Oklahoma track, and went postward as the 4-1 second choice to Solar Flare (Salt Lake). The 120-pound highweight scampered away from his rail post and was allowed a cushion through splits of :24.16 and :47.73. Solar Flare tried to cut into that margin on the far turn, but began to fade in the lane, and Commentator opened up once more under a few unnecessary taps from John Velazquez. "He got to the front, and that was it," said Velazquez. "He ran just as big as he did three years ago." Zito added, "He's an amazing horse. I think the theme should be, 'If you get old, don't give up.' This is a seven-year-old gelding winning this kind of race against this kind of field--

there were 11 horses in this field. This was no easy race, and he was carrying the top weight." Student Council, well back early, put in a solid five-wide rally to finish second best. "We ran a very good race," said trainer Steve Asmussen. "Commentator, as usual at Saratoga, was very effective. Everybody made a run at him, but when he cut the corner, he was just gone."

Beaten just once in her last five starts, Eclipse Award and GI Breeders' Cup Distaff winner Ginger Punch bounced back from a third-place finished behind unbeaten Zenyatta in the Apr. 5 GI Apple Blossom H. with a 3 3/4-length victory in the May 2 GII Louisville H. The chestnut romped by 7 3/4 lengths in the June 14 GI Ogden Phipps H., and was a deserving 1-5 favorite to successfully defend her Go for Wand title yesterday. Jockey Rafael Bejarano tucked the champ in at the rail as she tracked Moon Catcher (Malibu Moon) through a leisurely six panels in 1:14.04. It looked like the ground-saving tactics might prove costly, as Ginger Punch found herself boxed in on the far turn, but she shouldered her way between horses after they turned into the lane and spurted clear to assert her authority when it counted. "My filly showed me a big kick because she was a little mad, you know?" Bejarano said. The mare goes next in the Sept. 27 GI Beldame S. Storm Mesa needed five tries to finally get her picture taken, but has been unstoppable in five subsequent outings. Her first stakes success came courtesy of a 13 1/2-length romp in the Cinemine S. at Lone Star May 26--earning a 108 Beyer Speed Figure--and she added a wire-to-wire score in the GIII Iowa Oaks June 27 at Prairie Meadows in her latest. Sent to California and trying turf for the first time, the dark bay had a good spot early from post two, but lost ground on the backstretch. She shifted to the outside turning for home and rallied smartly up the center of the course to keep her winning streak alive. "There's a good chance she'll stay [for the GI Del Mar Oaks Aug. 16]," said winning trainer Bret Calhoun. "There's a plane leaving here on July 30, so we'll make a decision by then on whether we'll take her back or leave her here. Off this race, I don't know why we wouldn't run in the Oaks." Abraaj made his stakes debut in last year's renewal of this contest, but bobbed at the start, then was bumped en route to an eighth-place effort, and found himself on the sidelines. The bay returned to action with a towering six-length score over Stormin Normandy and Bishop Court Hill in an optional claimer May 2, and came up just a half-length short when third to Benny the Bull in the GII True North H. June 7 at Belmont. The lightly raced Sammarco (Johannesburg) outbroke the field and hustled through a :22.06 opening quarter while chased by Black Seventeen (Is It True) and, further back, First Defence. Abraaj raced in fourth, but looked to be under a ride on the turn. While First Defence had first run on the pacesetter when Black Seventeen began to tire, he looked reluctant to take over. Abraaj shifted into gear, rallying past the leaders in midstretch for his first stakes success. He joins Shadwell's Lucky Island (Arg) as another sharp sprinter in the Kiaran McLaughlin barn. "We might run them both in the [GI] Forego [Aug. 30] ," said McLaughlin. [Click for the brisnet.com chart, the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. 'Stones Out of Luck...

Morning-line favorite Bustin Stones (City Zip) was scratched due to an apparent stone bruise in his foot, according to trainer Bruce Levine. "We schooled him in the paddock [Friday] morning around 11:30 and he came back with a little heat in his foot," Levine said. "He's had that before--it comes and goes--so it didn't really bother me then. This morning, however, his foot was on fire with a pretty good pulse. He's got some sensitivity. He's not lame or anything, but we couldn't run him." Bustin Stones is undefeated in six starts, including a win in the GI Carter H. last out Apr. 5.

Current Residence: Manton, Wilshire, England

What is your biggest accomplishment since you've been involved in the business? Winning the Breeders' Cup

Turf with Red Rocks. Beating Curlin in the Man o' War was special. David Junior winning the Dubai Duty Free. Any Group 1 winner, really. First win as a trainer? 1993 at Brighton. It was a two-year-old maiden called Connect.

Of all the horses you've been around, who has been your favorite?

I couldn't say a favorite. My first stakes winner was a horse called Tumbleweed Ridge and that was my third year of training, so that was very special.

How has racing change since you first got involved?

The world is a much smaller place. With mobile phones and e-mail and BlackBerries and things like that, you're in constant contact. We travel more these days. We race in the U.S., Dubai, Hong Kong and Europe.

If you could change one thing in our sport, what would it be?

On the domestic front, we should have a dark day. We race seven days a week. On the international front, quarantine regulations can be a nightmare.

What is your favorite racetrack and why? Belmont Park because I'm two-for-two in Grade 1s there.

If you could have dinner with one historical figure, who would it be, and why? Michael Collins. He was a great leader at a difficult time.

What is your favorite vacation spot? St. Barts in the Carribean.

Where would you like to go that you haven't already been? Venice.

Favorite food or meal? Beef. And home-cooked food.

What's your favorite film? "Any Given Sunday."

Glass of fine wine or mug of ice-cold beer? A good glass of claret.

What would you do if you weren't in horse racing? God knows. It never crossed my mind.

Childhood ambition? To train.

Proudest moment? No doubt about it: My two kids and meeting my wife.

First job? I worked at the Irish National Stud for three years after finishing school. I was a student for a while and then I ran a broodmare barn.

Last purchase? I always go shopping with (bloodstock agent) Jamie McCalmot when we make our trips with Red Rocks. T-shirts probably.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Pipedreamer closed out 2007 with a pair of handicap wins, including the prestigious Cambridgeshire H. at Newmarket in October. He returned this year to finish third in the Apr. 17 G3 Earl of Sefton S. back at the Rowley Mile track. Third in the May 29 G3 Brigadier Gerard S. at Sandown, he filled the same spot in both the June 18 G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot and in the G1 Eclipse S. at Sandown last time July 5. Settled with one horse behind him early, the bay was asked to close after turning for home. He tackled Campanologist at the two-furlong marker, edged into the lead under a drive at the eighth pole and stuck on well to notch a first stakes-race score. "The pace was a bit steady and I had [Campanologist's rider] Frankie [Dettori] on my mind, as I knew it would suit him," said winning rider Seb Sanders. "I wanted him covered early in the straight, but I probably got there too soon. It took me by surprise how well he picked up and he idled when he got there. Mr. Gosden said he'd gone a bit more laid back, but, once he got into his stride, he gave me a lovely feel all the way up the straight." African Skies lost out by 1 1/4 lengths to subsequent listed winner Honest Quality in a York maiden on debut May 31 before tackling the G3 Albany S. at the Royal meeting last time June 20. Far from disgraced when fourth there, the bay took a step forward here to shed her maiden tag in style. Held up behind the leading group early, she launched her challenge near the stands side and, after grabbing the lead before the eighth pole, stuck it out well despite the attentions of Rosabee. "She was quite a raw filly, but from Royal Ascot she has done marvelously physically," said trainer Kevin Ryan. "She's grown up an awful lot and needs another furlong--I would have taken an easier route, but [owner] Stephen [Hillen] thought she wouldn't be out of the first three and she has taken everything great today. I just feel that she will need seven furlongs or a mile by the autumn. She's going to be nice to look forward to next year." Click for Racing Post chart. Video courtesy of attheraces.com.

Rocks Off made an instant impression with a striking performance on his winning debut at Scottsville June 22, and lost little caste in defeat behind Vertical Takeoff (SAf) in a juvenile plate at this track last time July 13. Reserved off the fast early fractions by Kevin Shea, the bay delivered his rally up the inside rail to lead passing the eighth pole and surged away from the perpetual bridesmaid Cerise Cherry. Trainer Mike de Kock told sahorseracing.com, "We've been quietly confident about this horse being the real deal. I was disappointed [when beaten] last time, but he was a little soft that day. I was pretty confident about the mile here. I think he's going to get better and better."

Buy and Sell turned the form of the July 5 G1 Durban July on its head over this shorter trip with a battling success from Pocket Power. The runner-up had shared the spoils in Greyville's highlight with Dancer's Daughter (GB) (Act One {GB}), only fourth in this contest. Buy and Sell entered the July with claims, having finished fourth in the Jan. 26 G1 J & B Met at Kenilworth and third in the G1 Gold Challenge here June 14, but was left trailing in 14th in the main event and had questions to answer. Racing close to the early pace under Weichong Marwing here, he hooked Surfin' USA as they gained first run on Pocket Power inside the final quarter. The bay mastered the eventual third with 100 yards remaining, and the line came in time as Pocket Power arrived too late under the burden of his impost. Trainer Sean Tarry told sahorseracing.com, "He ran a bad race in the July, six lengths behind, but if you watch closely he overraced early on--he was doing too much. I've always thought him a proper horse; he's always done what he's had to do."

At Saratoga, it's actions, not words!

Settled towards the rear of the main group throughout the early stages, the bay was produced with a sustained spell of acceleration down the outside to collar Zirconium in the shade of the post.

Street Boss has compiled a four-race winning streak on the Cushion Tracks of Santa Anita and Hollywood, capped by a score in the GI Triple Bend H. July 5 at the Inglewood oval. The chestnut rallied five wide that day, and he will face a similar scenario here. "He'll be well off the pace," trainer Bruce Headley confirmed. "That's the way he likes to run, and I don't try to change a horse's style. He has a great disposition and he has a big kick. A horse has to have a big kick if you want him to be in there with the big boys."

Defending champion In Summation added victories in the GIII El Conejo H. Jan. 1 and GII Palos Verdes H. Jan. 21 to his trophy case, but was freshened up following a sixth in the Turf Sprint H. Apr. 26 at Calder. "He has trained well and he's breezed well over the track," said Nicholas Bachalard, assistant to trainer Christophe Clement. "We're looking for a good race out of him. We know it's not easy to come back in a race like this, but you have to come back somewhere."

The Jim Dandy also features emerging faces Tiz Now and Tiz Then, winner of three straight; and GII Dwyer S. hero Mint Lane. "People have knocked him because he's had everything his own way, but I don't agree with that," said Jimmy Jerkens, who will saddle Mint Lane. "A lot of horses took shots at him, and they finished up the track while he kept going." An honest second to Casino Drive in the GII Peter Pan S. at Belmont May 10, Mint Lane earned a 106 Beyer Speed Figure--tops in this field--for his front-running score in the Postponed S. June 13. He had to work a bit harder to pull off the same type of success in the GII Dwyer S. July 6, and his class will be tested once again here. "I don't see any point in waiting; he's in shape, he's on a run," trainer Jimmy Jerkens told Daily Racing Form. Nick Zito, meanwhile, will saddle Da' Tara and Anak Nakal, who are each making their first starts since finishing first and third, respectively, in the GI Belmont S. June 7. The GI Travers S. Aug. 23 is their main summer goal. "Both horses need to run in the Jim Dandy, and they need to run well," said Zito. "They are both a bit behind [2004 Travers winner] Birdstone as far as training goes at this point, but if they can both run well, it would put them right where they should be to be sharp for the Travers." Tale of Ekati, a hard-fought winner of the GI Wood Memorial S., finished fourth in the GI Kentucky Derby, but was sixth in the Belmont after the rodeo run to the first turn in that 12-furlong affair.

Though trainer Barclay Tagg mulled waiting for next week's GI Haskell, he opted to lead the Saratoga-based bay over for this one. "This might set him better for the Travers than a hard race, a ship that might take too much out of him for the Travers," Tagg told DRF. Derby Trial S. hero Macho Again, runner-up in Big Brown's GI Preakness S. May 17, gets back on track after finishing fifth in the Belmont. "We didn't give him total time off, but he jogged and galloped," trainer Dallas Stewart explained. "He got his energy back up. He kind of picked his way back up, and he's certainly enjoying himself up here."

Last year, Saoirse Abu ended Coolmore's run of domination of this contest when upsetting Henrythe-navigator in desperate conditions. Phoenix S. cont.

On the face of his short-head defeat of Alhaban in that course-and-distance June 29 contest, which has thrown up two of the last four winners of this, he needs to improve to trouble the British raider Art Connoisseur. Also unbeaten, he used his electric acceleration to win the G2 Coventry S. at Royal Ascot June 17, and that marks him as the one to beat. Trainer Michael Bell believes he has the right credentials to loosen the domestic stronghold. "He's very easy to deal with at home and took all the preliminaries and razzamatazz of Ascot very well," he commented. "Bearing in mind the miles on the clock and his temperament, the travelling doesn't worry me too much. He's a very smart horse who looked the real deal at Ascot and he's done nothing but please us at home since, so we've got no reason not to be confident. He's won on soft, but will be suited by fast ground." David Wachman, who stopped the Aidan O'Brien run of success with the filly Damson (Ire) four years ago, relies on Bushranger. Second when running away from the stands-rail bias in the Listed Windsor Castle S. at Royal Ascot June 17, he beat Mastercraftsman's well-touted stable companion Westphalia (Ire) by 2 1/2 lengths in the July 12 G3 Anglesey S. here last time. "He seems to be in really good form, so we decided we would let him take his chance," his conditioner told PA Sport. "He was really impressive last time, but it was only a fortnight ago and we haven't done an awful lot with him since. This does look a seriously hot race, and time will tell if he is up to this class."

Twice Over ships in for this class drop, which was won by Henry Cecil courtesy of Dr Fong 10 years ago and Burning Sun in 2002. Having beaten Raven's Pass in the G3 Craven S. at Newmarket Apr. 17, Khalid Abdullah's homebred ran into the subsequent G1 Epsom Derby runner-up Tartan Bearer (Ire) and G1 Irish Derby hero Frozen Fire (Ger) in the G2 Dante S. at York May 15. Third behind Henrythenavigator and Raven's Pass in the June 17 G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot, he arrives here off a break, and the owner/breeder's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe is expecting a bold show. "He is in good form and we think 10 furlongs is his trip now," he told PA Sport. "He did run well over a mile in the St James's Palace S., but the Dante form is now looking quite smart." Abdullah has an able deputy in Ideal World, a son of Banks Hill (GB) from the Andre Fabre stable successful an impressive 13 times since 1983. He comes here off a brace of conditions successes at Longchamp June 10 and Compiègne July 7, and bids to add to a haul of his trainer's past winners which includes Arcangues, Carnegie (Ire) and Valixir (Ire). Collection had the subsequent G3 Meld S. winner King of Rome back in third when taking the Listed Hampton Court S. at Royal Ascot on his latest outing June 19, and Highclere Thoroughbred Racing's Harry Herbert told Racing Post, "He's a horse we have a lot of faith in and he deserves to take his chance in a race worth a lot of money and plenty of prestige."

BIG BROWN SIZZLES IN SIX-FURLONG DRILL

GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness S. hero Big Brown (Boundary), looking to rebound from a desultory GI Belmont S. in the GI Haskell at Monmouth next

Sarah K Andrew

Sunday, sizzled six furlongs in 1:10 4/5 yesterday at Aqueduct. Exercise rider Michelle Nevin was aboard as usual. "Every work since he's come back has been better than the one before it," said Michael Sherack, vice president of co-owner IEAH Stables. "From everything we've been told--from [trainer] Rick [Dutrow], Michelle, the clockers--it was an exceptional move. Michelle didn't ask him for much of anything, and he finished up strong and galloped out strong." The big bay will ship to the Jersey Shore several days before the $1-million affair. "With the Haskell eight days out, if the work was a little fast, he's got plenty of time," Sherack continued. "Rick had talked about sending him down a little early and doing something with him there, but I don't know if today's work changed that or not."

Looking to Atone...

Hoping to leave his bridesmaid reputation behind him, Atoned (Repent) was equipped with blinkers for his Haskell tune-up, covering a half-mile in :50 at Monmouth yesterday morning. The Dogwood colorbearer picked up steam through the work, getting his second quarter in :23 3/5 before galloping out in 1:01 3/5. "I don't know how much the blinkers helped," said Anthony Sciametta, assistant to trainer Todd Pletcher. "He always works good. Todd will decide whether he wears them in the Haskell." Winner of the Continental S. at Monmouth last season, the dark bay has three seconds from five starts in 2008, including his last two at Monmouth. He was second by a neck in the Spend a Buck S. June 14 and by a head in the Long Branch S. July 12.

Munnings, a $150,000 FTSAUG yearling, drilled an eighth in :10 at the FTFEB under-tack show and was acquired for $1.7 million, the second highest-priced juvenile at the sale behind GII Sanford S. winner Desert Party. The handsome chestnut had been in steady training at Todd Pletcher's Belmont Park base since late May, most recently working four furlongs in :48 3/5 July 13 and five furlongs in 1:00 3/5 July 21. Favored at even-money, Munnings broke seventh, but was rushed up quickly along the rail by John Velazquez to set a pressured pace. Mixing it up with Just a Coincidence (Forestry) through a half mile in :44.92, Munnings began to shake clear in the stretch and finished up strongly to win by 4 1/4 lengths. Just a Coincidence stayed on to complete the exacta. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $37,200. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Sidelined for six months after that effort, she returned to be second in the May 26 Decoration Day S. at Mountaineer. Fellow Crasher, third at Delaware Park June 2, was coming off a maiden win at Philly Park July 6. He tracked the heavy favorite through a half in :44.48, then responded when jockey Joe Bravo asked the question down the lane, collaring the leader in the final furlong and drawing clear. "I didn't know what I was sitting on until the gates opened," Bravo said. "He broke well and relaxed for a bit. He really turned it on for me in the lane when I got into him. Though still a maiden, Northern Kraze made three of her first six starts in stakes company, finishing fourth against colts in the turfy Cup and Saucer S. last year and again in the May 18 GIII Selene S. on the Woodbine main track in her third appearance this season. The bay filly could do no better than 10th as a 46-1 shot in the June 8 Woodbine Oaks and was returned to easier company. Switched back to the grass for a special weight affair July 1, Northern Kraze finally got her picture taken, and she was the fourth choice to duplicate that form in the final leg of Canada's Triple Tiara. The Bob Anderson homebred stalked Roses 'n' Wine through a mile in 1:40.26 over the rain-softened course and just managed to fight her way to the front in the waning strides to take a narrow decision. "I couldn't get a bid on this one at the sale," Anderson explained. "I threw my arm up, trying to get [the bidding] started, and I ended up with her. [Trainer and co-owner Mark Frostad] said, 'I quite like her--I'll take half.' Early on, he said this filly was special." It was a long way back to favored Money My Honey in third. SPIRIT MISSES NUNTHORPE

Jeremy Noseda has given up the race against time to get his star sprinter Fleeting Spirit (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) to York's G1 Coolmore Nunthorpe S. The Searchers Syndicate's G2 Temple S. winner and G1 King's Stand S. third will bypass the five-furlong contest Aug. 22. "She wasn't right after Royal Ascot and hasn't yet bounced back in a manner in which I'd be happy to start off her preparations for the Nunthorpe," Noseda explained. "We will give her all the time in the world and she'll show us when she is ready again."

Talking Hands took three outings to hit the bullseye and only managed it by a short head at odds of 1-2 in a Wolverhampton maiden June 30. Doubling his tally in a course-and-distance nursery July 12, the bay continued his progression with a last-to-first effort under Jamie Spencer here. That rider is happiest anchoring his mounts in rear and allowing the early pace to unfold, and this proved a tour de force as he crept Talking Hands into contention and dropped him in front in the final strides to deny a shock win for The Legal Blonde.

Sixth in the May 31 Listed On The House S. at Goodwood, Laa Rayb finished a creditable fifth in the Buckingham Palace H. over track and trip at the Royal meeting June 20. He was settled towards the rear this time. Shaken up with 2 1/2 furlongs remaining, he pushed through a gap to hit the front at the eighth pole and was driven clear to secure this valuable purse. "I was always confident that I was travelling, and he's done it well in the end," said winning rider Royston Ffrench. "When I asked him to go, it looked like the gap was going to close, but I was able to open my own. He's a typical Mark Johnston horse, very tough. With the turn of foot he's shown here, there's no reason why he shouldn't go on to better things." Video courtesy of attheraces.com.

He made smooth headway to take the lead inside the quarter pole, and one backhand saw the 135,000gns TATDEC foal and 440,000gns TATOCT yearling stride away to win by three lengths as the 4-1 second favorite. "He got overheated and ran too free in the Guineas," commented winning trainer Sir Michael Stoute. "We've left him alone, unwound him and brought him along very gradually. MURTAGH ON CLOUD NINE

Johnny Murtagh yesterday reflected on his recent run of success in his first season as Ballydoyle's retained jockey. Murtagh has already equaled his previous tally of 12 Group 1 wins in a single year. Speaking at Ascot, where he steered Duke of Marmalade (Ire) to victory in the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. for the stable's 14th such win this year, he said, "I'm just a small part of a very big team and I know what has to be done every day. I enjoy working there and all I can do is my best, so with the results we've been having it looks like it's working very well. Winning four Group 1s at Royal Ascot was a great week and, since then, the horses have continued in good form. It is going great and I seem to have clicked into gear very early in the year and it's continued on all the way through it. When you look at the horses we have, there are so many good ones, and you have to be on top of your game every time you go out there and not take your foot off the gas." Of Duke of Marmalade, he added, "He's one of my favorites; I've ridden Sinndar (Ire), High Chaparral (Ire) and Dylan Thomas (Ire), but he's on a par with them all."
