MACHO AGAIN FIGHTS OFF PYRO IN 'DANDY'

West Point Thoroughbred's Macho Again (Macho Uno) was given little chance in yesterday's GII Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga, going postward as the second-longest shot in the seven-horse field. But the gray mustered a career-best effort and was able to hold off favored Pyro (Pulpit) to earn the half-length tally. "This is my first stakes win as a trainer at Saratoga, so I am very excited," Dallas Stewart said after the race. Reunited with Julien Leparoux, who guided him to victory in the Derby Trial S. in April, Macho Again was able to angle in and save ground as GI Belmont S. hero Da' Tara (Tiznow) and Mint Lane (Marian's Mon) sped out and dueled through :23 2/5 and :46 4/5 splits. The former had had enough by the far turn, and Mint Lane was soon tackled by Tale of Ekai (Tale of the Cat) and Tiz Now Tiz Then (Tizow). Gearing up his challenge in upper stretch, Macho Again found clear running down the center of the track, surged to lead at the furlong grounds and was never in serious danger as Pyro ran on for place honors.

MASTERS OF THEIR DOMAIN

After Mastercraftsman (Ire) (Daneshill Dancer {Ire}) and Johnny Murtagh had passed the post 4 1/2 lengths clear in yesterday's G1 Phoenix S. at The Curragh, the only surprise was the starting price of 4-1, as Aidan O'Brien notched up a 15th success at this level in 2008. Allowed to drift in the market by the Kildare faithful, Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's G2 Railway S. scorer made a mockery of the doubts when sweeping to the front before the furlong marker and into daylight, as the even-money favorite Art Connoisseur (Ire) (Lucky Story) was left treading water behind. Cont. p3

FANTASTIC FIFTH FOR STREET BOSS

In search of his fifth straight victory, Street Boss (Street Cry {Ire}) was outsprinted up the backstretch in yesterday's GI Bing Crosby H. at Del Mar, but unleashed a dazzling nine-wide move off the turn and sprinted home a length clear of In Summation (Put it Back). Cont. p2

AMSTERDAM UP FOR GRABS

The morning line says it all. With five horses at 5-1 or less, today's GII Amsterdam S. at Saratoga is a wide-open affair. The six-furlong affair has attracted seven three-year-old sprinters, including the 5-2 favorite Desert Key (E Dubai), Grade II winner Eaton's Gift (Johannesburg), and last year's champion juvenile in Canada, Kodiak Kowboy (Posse). Cont. p9

Street Boss knocked off successive allowance races at Santa Anita this spring, then rallied to take the GIII Los Angeles H. at Hollywood May 10. He was odds-on when victorious in the GI Triple Bend H. July 5 and was offered at relatively generous 2-1 odds here. The plucky chestnut was last of nine as second favorite Barbecue Eddie (Stormy Atlantic) set contested :22 1/5 and :44 3/5 splits. Jockey David Flores opted to go the overland route with Street Boss--the way overland route--and despite coming widest of all the pair finished strongly to register a second Grade I triumph. "I waited and I waited with him," said Flores. "I wasn't going to get him in any trouble. I waited until the corner, then I went straight out with him. And, oh, he finished; did he finish. I've never ridden one that finishes like that. Not on the main track. He's something. He's not a Cadillac; he's a Ferrari." Macho Mans Up...

"He's a good horse, but he needed to step up," trainer Dallas Stewart said just after his colt Macho Again did just that in yesterday's Jim Dandy. Kept relatively busy this year, Macho Again won a Fair Grounds allowance in February, then, after a lackluster effort in the GII Lane's End S. at Turfway, captured the Derby Trial at Churchill Apr. 27. He was a 39-1 bomb when he finished runner-up to Big Brown in the GI Preakness S. May 17, but he was unable to replicate that effort in the GI Belmont S., coming home a well-beaten fifth to Da' Tara. Regarding future plans, Stewart added "The [GI] Travers [S. at Saratoga Aug. 23] would be great if he comes out of this good and everything is good." Steve Asmussen, trainer of runner-up Pryo, said after the race, "We finished second. There is nothing more I can say. Go talk to the winner." Nick Zito, trainer of Da' Tara, blamed the quick early fractions for his colt's last-place effort "That was a suicide mission," he said. "It didn't work. I don't know what that was all about." ## CRAFTING A DYNASTY

Mastercraftsman's victory provided Ballydoyle with a ninth Phoenix win since 1998 and his jockey, Johnny Murtagh, was quick to pay tribute to trainer Aidan O'Brien, who was taking a day off for his son's eventing competition. "He's a genius," Murtagh said. "The way they come out every day for every race --they are 100 percent and never lose a battle." Reached by phone, O'Brien said of the winner, "He has come forward very well over the last few weeks and we're looking forward to stepping him up to seven furlongs now. He could go for the G1 National S. [at The Curragh Sept. 14] and [G3 Tyros S. winner] Rip van Winkle (Ire) could go for the G2 Futurity S. [at The Curragh Aug. 23]."

How the Race Was Won...

Mastercraftsman started out with a hard-fought win over six furlongs at The Curragh May 5 and was pitched into the G2 Railway S. over the same track and trip last time June 29. While his workmanlike short-head victory over of Alhaban (Ire) (Verglas {Ire}) there did not convince all that he had star potential, his presence as the stable's chosen representative in that important staging post indicated that he was held in high regard. Confirming that here, the chestnut recovered from a tardy break to follow the strong fractions carved out by the aggressively ridden Sea of Marmara (Johannesburg), who was over five lengths clear by halfway. Rolling by his domestique before the furlong marker, it was plain sailing after he had turned back the brief threat of Art Connoisseur and Jamie Spencer on the outside. "We wanted to make sure it was a solid race as we always felt a step up to seven would be ideal," jockey Johnny Murtagh said. "His work during the week suggested he was ready and he's a good, progressive horse that is going the right way. The good pace today brought out the best in him--over six furlongs I thought there wouldn't be much between him and Bushranger, but Aidan said this colt had really needed his last race and would go forward from it, so I opted for him. He has a huge stride, covers a lot of ground and gets horses in trouble, but although he might look like he would get a mile, I wouldn't be so sure as he has loads of speed." Jamie Spencer admitted he was disappointed with the effort of Art Connoisseur and said, "I was happy enough until I moved out and, after quickening nicely, he emptied out very quickly in the final furlong. That was the disappointing part of the race and time will tell whether he has run his race or not. The winner was the better horse and looks the best two-year-old out, but in all of his races up to now he has finished well and he was walking in the last 100 yards."

Moulin at Longchamp, he dropped to ninth in the Oct. 6 G1 Prix de la Foret back at the Bois de Boulogne track before claiming a career high in the Oct. 21 Premio Vittorio di Capua at Milan. Returned to Herman Brown for a Spring campaign at Nad Al Sheba in Dubai, he won a Jan. 24 conditions event, ran fourth in the Feb. 21 G2 Al Fahidi Fort and was 14th in the Mar. 29 G1 Dubai Duty Free. He was reacquainted with Stoute for another European campaign and was beaten under four lengths by Haradasun (Aus) in the June 17 G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot last time, but rebounded in style to register a second top-level score here. Reserved off the pace in eighth from the outset, Linngari made smooth progress off the home turn to challenge approaching the final furlong and found extra gears under a drive in the closing stages to best a quality field. "I was quite sure he would manage the trip," said winning part-owner Rupert Plersch. "He had an excellent race and the jockey did everything just perfectly right," he added. With a brace of juvenile scores at his home track Newmarket, Twice Over entered winter quarters with a Classic campaign very much on the itinerary. Hopes were raised by a brave victory at the expense of Raven's Pass in the G3 Craven S. back at the Rowley Mile course on seasonal return Apr. 17, but G1 Epsom Derby aspirations were dashed by defeat, albeit a valiant one, in the May 15 G2 Dante S. at York in his penultimate start. He came back to finish a commendable third behind Henrythenavigator and old foe Raven's Pass in the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot last time June 17 and regained the winning thread with a career high here. Twice Over was restrained in midfield and remained on the inside through the early fractions. Making rapid headway once into the straight, he quickened to the front with 350 meters remaining and refused to surrender thereafter, running on strongly under a drive to hold the late thrust of City Leader. Trainer Henry Cecil, responsible for previous winners Dr Fong and Burning Sun, said, "He ran well in the [one-mile] St James's Palace S. last time when they broke the track record and he needed a little bit further than that. He's [still] very immature and will be a better horse next year. We will take our time to decide on his program from here, but he's in everything and I'll feel my way with him. It was my turn to win, as it was only my third victory, whereas Andre Fabre has already won it 11 times. This was an important victory today." City Leader filled the exacta for the British raiding party and conditioner Brian Meehan was gracious in defeat, "Twice Over is a very good horse and it's no bad thing to finish second to him," he said. "City Leader is back on track and kept on well in the straight. He ran well over 10 furlongs here and I don't think going further will be a problem. He will be better in time, but we have yet to decide where he goes next." Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Italy has enjoyed a creditable record in this contest since Rolly Polly (Ire)'s victory at the turn of the millennium and can boast runner-up finishes for Slap Shot (Ire) in 2001, Shifting Place (GB) in 2004, Golden Titus (Ire) for Armando Renzoni in 2006 and Magritte (Ity) last year. Renzoni continued the trend here and improved upon his own personal record by saddling Lui Rei to claim the prize at the expense of Britain's speed-ball Percolator in a thrilling renewal. Opening his account in a Rome conditions event Apr. 27, Lui Rei ran second in the Listed Premio Alberto Giubilo back at the Capannelle June 2 and benefitted from Sweet Hearth's spectacular exit through the rails when going one better in the G3 Premio Primi Passi at Milan's San Siro last time June 22. Occupying an open lane in third after the break here, he inched ever closer from halfway and would not be denied under a final-furlong drive to deny the trailblazing Percolator in the dying strides. "We have always thought he was a good horse and his easy win in Italy last time encouraged us to come for this race," explained Renzoni. "He is just about the best I have trained, even better than Golden Titus, I think. The G1 Prix Morny [at Deauville Aug. 24] is a possibility and he will be entered for that. However, he is not a certain runner as we want to avoid too much traveling, so he might remain in Italy for his next run." Paul Cole's dual record-breaker Percolator lost no caste in defeat, but the trainer conceded a fourth journey across the English Channel may have taken its toll, saying, "The ground was also a little too fast I think, but she still ran a very good race. She is undoubtedly feeling the effects of so much traveling between England and France, so she will have a break now for sure." Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

PACIFIC CLASSIC A POSSIBLE FOR CURLIN?

Hollywood Park notes yesterday said that the owners of reigning Horse of the Year Curlin (Smart Strike), who ran second in his grass debut in the GI Man o'War S. at Belmont July 12, have indicated interest in sending the four-year-old to Del Mar for the track's signature event, the GI Pacific Classic on Sunday, Aug. 24. Director of Racing Tom Robbins said Curlin is considered a possible for the race.

MASSCAP START FOR COMMENTATOR?

Hall of Fame trainer Nick Zito said yesterday that Commentator (Distorted Humor), an impressive wire-to-wire winner of Saturday's GI Whitney H. at Saratoga, is under consideration for the $500,000 Massachusetts H. at Suffolk Downs Sept. 20. Zito was still enthused a day after his veteran charge's second victory in the Whitney, which put him in the same company as three-time winner Kelso. "This was one of our main goals," Zito said. "After he won the Richter Scale by 13 lengths [at Gulfstream earlier this year], there were a lot of good races to look ahead at. Then Mr. [Tracy] Farmer and I talked about winning the Whitney again. With the tradition of the Whitney, him winning the race again in three years, and now being in the circle of the likes of Kelso, it was great."

STREET CRY

If you think A.P. Indy, Distorted Humor and Kingmambo are the best around, think again.

And if you reckon Danzig, Storm Cat and Mr. P. were as good as it gets, we beg to differ.

There's a new order – and Street Cry's at the top.

Number of G1 winners, with first foals midway through their four-year-old season:

SUPER SATURDAY: THE DAY AFTER

Hall of Fame trainer Jonathan Sheppard reported that Augustin Stables' Forever Together (Belong to Me) came out of her victory in Saturday's GI Diana H. at

Forever Together A Coglianese

Saratoga in good shape. Forever Together improved her record to two-for-three on the grass in the Diana. "She seemed to do remarkably well," Sheppard said. "She didn't seem too distressed at all. It's amazing what she has done. She goes from finishing fourth in an allowance race at Gulfstream to winning a Grade I race." Sheppard is now trying to establish a schedule for Forever Together, who earned an automatic bid to the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf at Santa Anita Oct. 24. Two races under consideration are the GI Flower Bowl Invitational at Belmont Sept. 27 and the GI E.P. Taylor S. at Woodbine Oct. 4. "Regarding future plans, we haven't completely finalized anything," Sheppard said. "We are still trying to map out a campaign for her. We are looking at one or two races before the Breeders' Cup."

Hall of Fame trainer Bobby Frankel admitted to some nervous moments as he watched Ginger Punch (Awesome Again) defend her title in the GI Go for Wand H. Saturday. Last year's champion older mare was boxed in two furlongs out before muscling her way between horses en route to victory. "I was nervous watching the race live," Frankel said yesterday. "I didn't know what was going to happen. I thought I was dead. I couldn't believe it. I don't like to be that excited. She's fine and everything was all right this morning." Frankel added that Ginger Punch "probably" will run in the GI Beldame S. at Belmont Sept. 27. Frankel said that Spring Waltz (Silver Charm), scratched from the Go For Wand, is a possible for the GI Personal Ensign S. at Saratoga Aug. 22, but said things weren't set in stone. "Who knows? I could change my mind and run [Ginger Punch] in the Personal Ensign," he said. "There's good money. I think she [Spring Waltz] could have won that race yesterday. She's a nice filly." Frankel said Juddmonte Farms' First Defence (Unbridled's Song), second to Abraaj in the GI Alfred G. Vanderbilt, may run in the GI Forego H. on Aug. 30. "I thought he ran okay," Frankel said. "He lost position down the backside in the first eighth of a mile. I don't know if he would have won the race, but I think it did cost him a length or two when he checked out. If he gets the lead, he can go from there."

DESORMEAUX HITS THE 5,000 PLATEAU Jockey Kent Desormeaux won the 5,000th race of his career after guiding Bella Attrice (Tomorrows Cat) to victory in the driving rain in yesterday's seventh race at Saratoga. "Last week, I was thinking it was just another number, but I got to dwell upon it and to think about it all week," said Desormeaux, who had reached win No. 4,999 on Saratoga's opening day, July 23. "I'm in awe of the number. Five thousand--wow! It's a long way from 10,000 [Russell Baze, all-time leading rider]. Those numbers were attained in California and New York, the "A" league, so I am proud of that." Of all his victories, Desormeaux was able to select two that meant the most to him. "My first win [aboard Miss Tavern at Evangeline Downs on July 13, 1986 and my first Kentucky Derby [on Real Quiet in 1998] are the two I hold close to my heart," said Desormeaux, 38, who is the 23rd jockey to reach the mark. The native of Maurice, La., has twice come within one race of sweeping the Triple Crown, winning the GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness S. with Real Quiet in 1998 and with Big Brown this year. Between those wins was his 2000 Derby triumph aboard Fusaichi Pegasus. Desormeaux has three Breeders' Cup victories to his credit, most recently the Dirt Mile aboard Corinthian. He has received three Eclipse Awards, earning outstanding apprentice jockey honors in 1987 and was the outstanding jockey award of 1989 and 1992. He continues to hold the record for the most number of wins in a year, having captured 599 races in 1989, shattering Chris McCarron's previous mark of 546. In 1995, at the age of 25, he became the youngest rider to win 3,000 races. Wherever he has gone, Desormeaux has found success, having won riding titles at Oak Tree, Santa Anita, Hollywood Park, Del Mar, Laurel, Pimlico, and Tokyo. He finished one win behind Cornelio Velasquez at last year's Saratoga meet. During his 2001 stint in Japan, Desormeaux became the first foreign rider to win a Japanese classic, guiding Lady Pastel (Jpn) to victory in the Japanese Oaks. He was elected into the Racing Hall of Fame in 2004. Desormeaux and his wife, Sonia, have two sons, Joshua and Jacob.

Bongard Room Dedicated at Museum of Racing:

Ellen Bongard saluted her late father and many other pioneers of the New York Thoroughbred breeding industry yesterday with the dedication of the Bertram F. Bongard Room at the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame. Bertram F. Bongard, was a founding director of the Eastern New York Thoroughbred Breeders' Association, a forerunner of the New York Thoroughbred Breeders' Association, Inc., and, with his family, developed Rojan Farms. Ellen Bongard, who owns and operates Rojan Farms, which is now based in Saratoga County, provided the endowment for the Bongard Room. "This is to recognize many of the people who started in the beginning, the '60s, the '70s and the '80s," Bongard said. "We re-did old farms. We created open space. It's always something we need to do, something that the New York breeding program did very well. It was a success story and a very good one."

Still 'No Decision' On Lava Man's Future:

Trainer Doug O'Neill said Sunday that the owners of Lava Man (Slew City Slew) are still at the "no decision" point in discussions on the future of the earner of $5.2 million. Lava Man ran his losing streak to six when he finished sixth and last in Del Mar's GI Eddie Read H. July 19. His last win came in the 2007 GI Hollywood Gold Cup, the third straight time he won the race. "They may wait for another week," O'Neill said.

Shirreffs Trying to Find Answer to Tiago's Struggles:

Multiple Grade I stakes winner Tiago (Pleasant Tap), sixth beaten five lengths in the GI Hollywood Gold Cup June 28, has managed just one win in six starts this term and continues to struggle as he prepares for the GI Pacific Classic at Del Mar Aug. 24. The four-year-old was on the track for a workout Saturday, but was pulled up shortly after breaking off at the half-mile pole for the work. "He just has not felt good on the track," said trainer John Shirreffs. "Right now we think it's a foot [problem]. It certainly puts the Pacific Classic in doubt, but we don't have all the information on him yet, so we're going to wait and see."

Perfect Drift Tackles Nine in Turf Allowance:

The nine-year-old gelding Perfect Drift (Dynaformer) looks to get back on track in an optional claimer this afternoon after finishing a well-beaten eighth in the GI Hollywood Gold Cup June 28. The veteran is among a 10-horse field going 1 1/16 miles on the Jimmy Durante Turf Course in the featured seventh race on the card. Perfect Drift will start from the outside post and will carry 118 pounds, including jockey Victor Espinoza. In his first start of the year, and his first with trainer Richard Mandella, Perfect Drift finished fourth in the GI Shoemaker Mile on the Hollywood Park turf May 26.

Successful on debut at Deauville last August, Alnadana garnered prizemoney in each of five subsequent starts, including when second on her stakes bow in the June 26 Listed Prix La Sorellina at La Teste de Buch last time. Settled sixth after the initial exchanges here, she made smooth headway in the straight to challenge approaching the final furlong and was ridden out late to assert for a lifetime best. "She missed the early part of the season because I wanted to give her more time," said winning trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre. "She had encountered races where she was held up off a steady tempo, but today they went a decent pace which helped her. She can now go to Deauville to tackle group company."
