8 Wins in 4 Days, including a SW

BETTER THAN HONOUR TO BE SOLD

The 2007 Broodmare of the Year Better Than Honour (Deputy Minister--Blush With Pride, by Blushing Groom {Fr}), the only mare of the modern era to produce two consecutive Classic winners, will be offered for sale at the Fasig-Tipton November Sale as part of a dispersal of the joint holdings of Southern Equine and Hill 'n' Dale Farms. "We have each recognized our own differing goals within the Thoroughbred business," John G. Sikura, president of Hill 'n' Dale, cited of the reason for the dispersal.

Better Than Honour L. Thomas

The 12-year-old Better Than Honour is the dam of 2006 GI Belmont S. hero Jazil (Seeking the Gold) and last year's Belmont heroine and subsequent champion three-year-old filly Rags to Riches (A.P. Indy), in addition to being the dam of this year's GII Peter Pan S. winner, the three-year-old Casino Drive (Mineshaft). The latter was the morning-line second choice in the Belmont, but was withdrawn on the eve of the race with a foot bruise. A graded stakes winner, Better Than Honour is a daughter of GI Kentucky Oaks winner Blush With Pride, who in turn is a daughter of Broodmare of the Year Best in Show. Better Than Honour's 2006 foal, the Giant's Causeway colt Man of Iron, has made one start in Ireland. She produced a Giant's Causeway colt last year and, after losing an A.P. Indy foal late in her term this spring, was not bred back.

The split between Southern Equine and Hill 'n' Dale represents the end of a prominent buying force in recent years. At the 2007 Keeneland January Sale, they teamed to purchase the sale-topping Grade I winner Point Ashley (Point Given) for $1.8 million. Two months before that, at Keeneland November, they acquired Grade I winner Madcap Escapade (Hennessy) for $6 million. Both mares will be offered in November. In all, eight mares and five weanlings will be sold. The other mares include: Crystal Current (A.P. Indy), Last Song (Unbridled's Song), Promenade Colony (Pleasant Colony), Sensation (Dixie Union), and Surprises Welcome (Storm Cat).

TEAM ASMUSSEN HIT TRACK AT SPA

Trainer Steve Asmussen sent out several of his stable stars yesterday at Saratoga, including Horse of the Year Curlin (Smart Strike). Asmussen intended to work the big chestnut on the main track, but called an audible after overnight rains and instead opted for the Oklahoma training track. Curlin breezed an easy six furlongs in 1:14.67 in company with stable-mate Hawaii Calls.

Curlin working earlier in the meet
Sarah K. Andrew

Sitting chilly just off the flank of that rival, Curlin set splits of :13.04, :25.47, :37.82, and :49.75 and was well in hand late. He galloped out seven panels in 1:28.68 under exercise rider Carmen Rosas.

"I think he's a lot more relaxed earlier in a work when he's in company," Asmussen said of Curlin, ranked by Timeform of England as the world's best Thoroughbred last week. "In company, he gets smoother works. They went a little quicker than I was expecting them to, but they did it really easily. We were hoping to get a work on the main track, and this morning would have been good because we would have gotten that done and over with. Now, we will really have to watch the weather, but if the main track is muddy [next week], we'll work him here."

Curlin is targeting the $500,000 GI Woodward S. at Saratoga Aug. 30.

Asmussen also sent out GII Jim Dandy S. runner-up Pyro (Pulpit) and GI Whitney H. second Student Council (Kingmambo) to six-furlong works yesterday. The former, who goes next in the Aug. 23 GI Travers S.-Presented by Shadwell Farm, got the distance in 1:16.01, while Student Council, who is set to defend his title in the Aug. 24 GI Pacific Classic at Del Mar, stopped the clock in 1:14.46.

"Pyro had a solid race last time, and his work this morning was nice and steady," Asmussen said. "He galloped out real big and came back good."

Tanta Honra posted her first Group 1 tally as she pounced on the pacesetter at the top of the stretch and prevailed over third choice Square Dance in the opening leg of Sao Paulo's Triple Crown series for sophomore fillies on turf. Favorite and champion two-year-old female Cores do Brasil (Brz) (First American) placed seventh in the 11-horse field. The winner survived a jockey's claim of foul. Tanta Honra entered off a 2 3/4-length victory in the G3 GP Adhemar e Nelson de Almeida Prado July 13. At two, she captured the G2 Grande Premio Francisco Vilella de Paula Machado over 7 1/2 furlongs on turf May 25. The series continues with the G1 Grande Premio Henrique de Toledo Lara over 2000 meters on the turf on Sept. 6.

The number of positive steroid tests at the Aug. 4-5 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Selected Sale. A total of 122 head sold for an average of $295,738. From those, there were 30 requested tests.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

AZUL LEON, 'BARON' TO FUTURITY?

Though trainer Doug O'Neill indicated following Sunday's GII Best Pal S. that the winner by disqualification, Joseph LaCombe Stables' Azul Leon (Lion Heart), might bypass the upcoming Sept. 3 GI Del Mar Futurity, he was a little less definitive about that Monday morning.

"The original game plan was to skip the Futurity," O'Neill said, "but maybe now we'll play it by ear. The decision belongs to the LaCombe family and Joe, here, will be talking to his dad about what to do next."

O'Neill was referring to San Diego County resident Joseph LaCombe Jr., who keeps track of his father's horses in Southern California.

Azul Leon was awarded the Best Pal victory when Kelly Leak (Runaway Groom), first across the wire, was disqualified to fourth for causing interference in the stretch. His disappointed trainer, Mike Machowsky, said the chances of running in the Futurity are slim, but he would give the matter a week to shake out and then make a final decision.

"I would love it if the Best Pal was two weeks ago, then the timing would be right, in my view," Machowsky said.

Darley's Coronet of a Baron (Pure Prize), who was moved up to second in the Best Pal, is likely for the Futurity, said trainer Eoin Harty. Harty also indicated that the colt's East Coast-based stablemate, GII Sanford S. winner Desert Party (Street Cry {Ire}), is also possible for the Futurity. Harty said weather and track conditions at Saratoga would play the deciding factor. Darley's Desert Party is currently at the Spa, where he could instead contest the GI Hopeful S. Sept. 1.

BAZE EARNS BAN SHIFT

Jockey Russell Baze, who incurred the wrath of Ascot's stewards at last Saturday's Shergar Cup meeting, has had an application to alter the dates of his suspension accepted by the British Horseracing Authority. Baze was handed a four-day ban for using his whip with excessive frequency and for not allowing his mount Mac Gille Eoin (GB) (Bertolini) sufficient time to respond in the Shergar Cup Dash. He was originally slated to be out of action Aug. 23 through Aug. 26, but the BHA have agreed to switching those dates so Baze can ride at Saratoga Aug. 23 and Del Mar Aug. 24. The record-breaking jockey will now be off Aug. 25 through Aug. 28.

CURRAGH STAKES TO LEOPARDSTOWN

Sunday's meeting at The Curragh, which was called off due to waterlogging, will not be rescheduled, Horse Racing Ireland announced yesterday. However, the three main races on the card--the G2 Debutante S., the G2 Royal Whip S. and the G3 Phoenix Sprint S.--have been saved and will be staged as part of an eight-race fixture at Leopardstown this coming Sunday, Aug. 17.

FASIG-TIPTON OPEN YEARLINGS TODAY Fasig-Tipton holds its single-session Saratoga Open Yearlings sale today at the Humphrey S. Finney pavilion beginning at 2 p.m. A total of 80 head has been cataloged. Included are members of the first crops of Eurosilver (Unbridled's Song), Fantasticat (Storm Cat), Here's Zealous (Dehere), Oratory (Pulpit) and Unforgettable Max (Northern Afleet). In 2007, this sale saw 73 horses sell for $523,600 and an average of $7,173. The median was $4,500. Fifty-four horses failed to sell, equating to a RNA rate of 42.5 percent.

The sale follows on the heels of the two-day Saratoga New York-bred Preferred Sale, which enjoyed solid gains in median and average, but which was marked by an exceptionally high RNA rate of nearly 50 percent. For complete catalog and results, visit www.fasigtipton.com.

Bustin Stones Back on Track:

Bustin Stones (City Zip), forced to skip the July 26 GII Alfred G. Vanderbilt S. because of a bruised foot, returned to the track Sunday morning for a one-mile jog on Saratoga's Oklahoma oval. The colt will have a week of light training before his first gallop, but, according to Daily Racing Form, trainer Bruce Levine is hoping to have him ready in time for the Sept. 27 GI Vosburgh S. at Belmont Park. Levine is also considering the GI Ancient Title S. on the synthetic surface at Santa Anita the same afternoon. "That might be kinder on his feet," Levine told DRF. The ultimate goal for the undefeated four-year-old is the Oct. 25 GI Breeders' Cup Sprint. Perfect in six starts, Bustin Stones has not been out since taking the Apr. 5 GI Carter H. at Aqueduct. He has earned $480,150 for owner/breeder Roddy Valente.

Ferocious Fires reeled off five straight victories during the 2006 season, including the restricted Mr. Leader S. at the Big A. Making a single start in 2007, the chestnut crossed the wire in second, but inherited the victory via disqualification in the state-bred Hudson H. in October. A disappointing sixth versus open company on the turf in the six-furlong Inside the Beltway S. at Belmont July 9, the five-year-old rebounded to score in the 6 1/2-furlong John Morrissey S. here July 31. Looking to remain undefeated in four starts over this track, Ferocious Fires broke sharply and pressed the pace through early fractions of :22.62 and :45.88. Ready to roll at the head of the stretch, he forged to the front and inched clear to get his second win of the meet. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

3--Sumthingtotalkabt, 119, m, 5, Mutakddim--Nannetta, by Falstaff. ($28,000 wlng '03 BESNOV). Margins: 1, 6HF, 1 1/4. Odds: 7.10, 2.80, 9.50.

Are We Dreamin, third for trainer Atreo Persaud in the Happy Prince S. at the Big A in January, added another win three starts later against allowance company Mar. 30. On the board in her next five starts--including a win in a one-mile Belmont allowance July 18--the bay was fifth most recently in the restricted Lillian Russell S. over this track and trip July 28. Content to stalk three wide in the early going, the bay closed the gap on the leaders turning for home, surged to the front at midstretch and drew clear under mild urging.

Petter to Serve as Kentucky Horse Park Consultant:

Owner/breeder and bloodstock agent Stanley Petter Jr. has been hired as a consultant by the Kentucky Horse Park Foundation. Petter's role will be to introduce the Thoroughbred community to the Horse Park facilities, and to inform them about the events being held there. The Kentucky Horse Park was opened in 1978, and received a Special Eclipse Award in 2007 for its achievements. For more information on the park, go to www.kyhorsepark.com.

Tyler Baze Chooses Awesome Gem for Pacific Classic:

Tyler Baze, second in the rider standings at Del Mar, will partner with West Point Thoroughbreds' Awesome Gem (Awesome Again) in the Aug. 24 GI Pacific Classic, choosing last year's runner-up over recent GI Hollywood Gold Cup winner Mast Track (Mizzen Mast). "It was a tough decision [getting off of Mast Track], but Tyler has a good chance to stay with the horse," Ron Ebanks, Baze's agent, said yesterday morning. "The horse has great credentials--second in last year's Pacific Classic, third in the [GI] Breeders' Cup Classic and a terrific race last time out." Baze was aboard the gelding in his first start since the Breeders' Cup, the July 25 Wickerr H. over Del Mar's lawn, when the pair just missed by a nose to One Union. In addition to Awesome Gem and Mast Track, the Pacific Classic field could include: Go Between (Point Given), McCann's Mojave (Memo {Chi}), Mostacolli Mort (Hold for Gold), defending champion Student Council (Kingmambo), Surf Cat (Sir Cat), Zappa (Afternoon Deelites), Delosvientos (Siphon {Brz}), Barcola (Old Triest), Tres Borrachos (Ecton Park) and Well Armed (Tiznow). Zappa worked five furlongs yesterday in 1:00.60 and Mostacolli Mort went six furlongs in 1:11.60.

McAnally Recovering from Kick:

Hall of Fame trainer Ron McAnally is recovering at his Rancho Santa Fe home from a kick he received from a horse Sunday morning as he walked through the backstretch to his barn. A horse being ponied to the track kicked McAnally in the left hip while passing the trainer in the pre-dawn darkness. Assistant trainer Dan Landers said the incident occurred about 5:30 a.m. Landers said McAnally got his normal cup of coffee and mentioned being kicked by a horse. Soon after the kicked spot began bleeding and McAnally checked with track first aid before seeing a doctor. Landers said McAnally was expected to see the doctor again yesterday morning because the wound continued to bleed.

Margins: 2 3/4, 1 1/4, 1 3/4. Odds: 1.30, 3.70, 2.10.

Bahama Mama, winner of the Dragon S. at two, was third in the G2 Golden Peitsche at Baden Baden last August before adding victory in the Flieger-Preis over that course later in October. A winner in her state-side debut in the 6 1/2-furlong GIII Las Cinegas H. at Santa Anita Apr. 13, the Irish-bred won emerged victorious again in the restricted Lawndale S. at Hollywood May 9. Runner-up in the Great Lady M H. at the Inglewood oval June 11, the bay showed early speed but faded late to be third in the restricted Osunitas H. over 1 1/16 miles here July 19. Well supported here, Bahama Mama assumed her customary place at the front of the pace early, led at every call and was comfortably in front late to post her first win at the seaside course.

GRIMWADE NAMED TWEENHILLS ASSISTANT STUD MANAGER

Kate Grimwade will join Tweenhills Farm & Stud as assistant stud manager to David Redvers, beginning Aug. 18. Grimwade, who was the Gold Medal winner on the Irish National Stud Breeding Course in 2002, graduated with the inaugural Darley Flying Start program in 2005 and has spent the last three seasons as yearling manager for Darley Australia. Her responsibilities at Tweenhills include overseeing the entire operation from nominations to the day-to-day management of the stud, alongside stud groom Roisin Close, as well as client liason and continued development of the Tweenhills EIS syndicates.
