ALABAMA SLAMMER! 'SPELL' TRIUMPHANT

It'll go down as one of the best stretch runs of the season. Proud Spell (Proud Citizen) looked to be in trouble as Music Note (A.P. Indy) ranged up on her outside, but the GI Kentucky Oaks heroine pinned her ears back and resolutely kept her head in front all the way to the wire. "This filly of ours has never been passed down the stretch the entire time we've had her," exalted winning trainer Larry Jones. "I told [jockey Gabriel [Saez], 'Do not let Music Note in front. I don't care if you have to ride her all the way to the barn area, down Nelson Avenue, or what, she don't get in front.'" Cont. p2

MAGICAL FANTASY SURPRISES AT DEL MAR

Let go at 42-1, Magical Fantasy (Diesis {GB}) enjoyed a ground-saving trip before kicking on for home to take the GI Del Mar Oaks. The Unusual Heat fillies Bel Air Sizzle and Lethal Heat, both trained by Barry Abrams, filled the next two spots. Cont. p2-3

'COUTURIER DEFENDS SWORD DANCER

Forced to take up sharply in midstretch, Grand Couturier (GB) (Grand Lodge) burst through an opening to successfully defend his GI Sword Dancer Invitational S. title at Saratoga yesterday afternoon. Veteran Better Talk Now (Talkin Man) was second. "I had nowhere to go," rider Alan Garcia said after getting shut off. "I was thinking, 'Oh my God, my horse lost all of his momentum,' but after that, he kept trying, so I said, 'Let me keep riding.'" Cont. p3

SHADWELL SHOPPING AT DEAUVILLE

Shadwell signed the ticket for yesterday's two highest-priced yearlings--both fillies--at the Arqana August Sale. At €570,000, the session's topper was hip 148, a daughter of Muhtathir (GB), who landed the 2000 G1 Prix Jacques le Marois in Sheikh Hamdan's blue and white colors. "We rate her sire highly and he seems to upgrade his runners," said Angus Gold, advisor to Sheikh Hamdan. Arqana cont. p10-13

OFFLEE WILD

Trulee madlee speedee...

...and what a pedigree. A big-price yearling by the sire of Wild Rush and out of Dynaformer's half-sister, Offlee Wild had a lot to live up to, but he did precisely that, winning every year from two to five, including a superquick Suburban and the Mass Cap ahead of four G1 winners. His first crop are yearlings of 2008. Offlee Wild. He's awfully good.

After three straight seconds to Indian Blessing, Proud Spell turned the tables on that rival in the GII Fair Grounds Oaks Mar. 8, but ran third to Little Belle in the GI Ashland S. Apr. 5 at Keeneland. After handily defeating that rival in the GI Kentucky Oaks May 2, the compact bay tackled Music Note in the GI Mother Goose S. June 28 at Belmont. She suffered a horror trip en route to crossing the line in second, but insult was added to injury when she was demoted to third. Having recovered from some minor cuts incurred that day, the Brereton Jones homebred returned two weeks later to post a workmanlike triumph in the GII Delaware Oaks, and the battle was joined for a Saratoga showdown.

With no one eager to take the lead, Rajiv Maragh opted to put Little Belle in front, and the Godolphin filly led comfortably through splits of :24.97, :50.22 and 1:14.70 as Proud Spell sat just off her flank. The second choice engaged the pacesetter on the turn for home and poked her head in front, only to be joined by Music Note in front of the stands. That big filly looked set to go by, but Proud Spell kept fighting on the inside as the two gave the on-track crowd of 32,344 their money's worth down the stretch. Trainer Larry Jones was jubilant after the race. "In my mind, there's no doubt she's the best three-year-old filly in the country and, hopefully, we showed it here today," said the man in the white hat. "It came down to an eyeball-to-eyeball contest, and Proud Spell was actually getting away from her at the end." Jones will savor this score before setting Proud Spell's next target. "We'll see how she comes out of this," he added. "We'll try to enjoy this win a little more than the Kentucky Oaks, because that got short-tailed. We'll plan something for her later." Campaigned in Britain as a juvenile, Magical Fantasy placed in a pair of all-weather runs last fall at Kempton and Wolverhampton for trainer James Nicol. She broke through on Lingfield's version Nov. 26, but found herself headed to sunnier climes soon afterward. After rallying to be second by a nose to Sweeter Still (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) in the GIII Senorita S. May 10, the chestnut finished 2 1/2 lengths behind

Misty Ocean (Stormy Atlantic) and Bel Air Sizzle when fifth in the GII Honeymoon H. June 7. She split the field in her latest, a sixth-place finish in the GI American Oaks July 5 at Hollywood, and found no love at the windows today. Regular rider Alex Solis settled her along the fence as Misty Ocean cued the tempo up front. The longshot took closer order on the far turn, and Lethal Heat--who set a track record on the main surface last Friday--put her head in front. Magical Fantasy came through an inviting opening and surged clear for a surprise first stakes victory. "I was back there [behind horses] sitting and waiting," said Solis. "I thought I was going to have to go outside; there were too many horses in front of me. And then it opened. The hole opened inside and it was time to go--and she went. Felt great. She's been training so well in the mornings here. Today she ran just like she's been training." Trainer Paddy Gallagher offered, "I know she was a long shot, but I guess we were hopeful because of the way she was training. I think you have to take a shot when they're doing as well as she was." Gallagher added, "We put earmuffs on her today for the first time in a race. We hoped the earmuffs would help her relax." Magical Fantasy's dam is a half-sister to 1991 G1 Prix de l'Abbaye hero Keen Hunter (Diesis {GB}). Paying $87.00 to win, she became the longest-priced winner in 52 renewals.

Also Ran: Presious Passion, Dancing Forever, Equitable. Scratched: Red Rocks (Ire), Champs Elysees (GB).

Third in the 2006 Sword Dancer, Grand Couturier skimmed the rail to defeat champion English Channel in last year's renewal, but hadn't visited the winner's circle in four subsequent starts. He came into this contest off a sixth in the GI Man o' War S. won by Red Rocks (Ire) over Curlin at Belmont July 12. With Alan Garcia in the irons for the first time, the dark bay saved ground in fifth while Presious Passion (Royal Anthem) showed the way. Grand Couturier attempted to get through on the rail in the stretch, but the tiring pacesetter would not give up his ground. Garcia angled his mount to the outside; the five-year-old nimbly recovered from a stumble, went between rivals willingly and outfinished Better Talk Now with a flourish. "It is unbelievable! It's a great habit to get into," said winning trainer Robert Ribaudo. "What do we do next year? That's what I want to know. It's not going to be easy, but we intend to come back next year." Honest Man didn't make it to the races until September 2007, but has been pretty consistent since graduating in his third try at Philly Park Nov. 4. After rattling off three straight scores, the dark bay ran fifth in the Maxxam Gold Cup Jan. 26 at Sam Houston, but rebounded to take an optional claimer at Fair Grounds Mar. 7. He was freshened up and came back to notch a similar contest at Delaware June 1, then ran third over this surface in the GIII Salvator Mile July 5. Allowed to settle into stride just off the pace set by Gottcha Gold (Coronado's Quest), the Fox Hill colorbearer rallied three wide turning for home, struck the front in front of the stands and finished up willingly for his first stakes success. "It sure looks like the Salvator Mile set him up perfectly for this," said winning trainer Larry Jones via telephone from Saratoga, where he was getting ready to saddle Proud Spell. Jones said the colt's next start could be the Sept. 27 GII Kentucky Cup Classic at Turfway. Honest Man's dam is a half-sister to champion War Pass. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Margins: 4HF, 3HF, 3/4. Odds: 21.30, 5.40, 3.40. Also Ran: Fancy Fusaichi, Kathleens Reel, Miss Atlantic. Scratched: Windyindy.

Swift Temper's first forays into graded company were topped by fourth-place finishes in the 2007 GII Bonnie Miss S. and GII Fantasy S. for trainer Bobby Barnett, but she failed to build on that, and her final outing for Barnett was a fifth in the Prairie Meadows Oaks in September. Turned over to Kiaran McLaughlin, the chestnut ran second in an Aqueduct optional claimer Apr. 17, then ran fifth in the Winter Melody S. May 17 at Delaware and found herself in yet another new barn. Fifth in her first outing for Dale Romans, an optional claimer at Belmont July 10, she went postward as the longest shot on the board. But how things change! In the thick of things from the start, Swift Temper assumed command turning for home and kicked into gear, striding out an impressive winner. Her second dam is MGISW Gorgeous, and her third dam, Kamar, was the 1990 Broodmare of the Year. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs.

Sixties Icon failed to sparkle after winning last term's G2 Jockey Club S. at Newmarket's Rowley Mile and was booked in for a wind operation and some shelf time after running 10th in the G2 Princess of Wales's S. at the July course. Back to grab second in this year's renewal of the G2 Jockey Club S. May 4, he took out the Listed Festival S. at Goodwood May 22 before folding to finish last of 12 in the June 18 G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot. The 2006 G1 St Leger hero bounced back to form once again last time with victory in the Aug. 1 G3 Glorious S. at Goodwood. Racing in rear after a sluggish exit, Sixties Icon was ridden with patience throughout. He was coaxed closer passing the three-furlong marker and stayed on strongly under a power drive to nail Tempelstern on the nod. "He's been a grand servant, he's a tough horse who's had his issues, but he's back running at a good level and I couldn't ask for anything more," said winning trainer Jeremy Nosedá. Jockey Johnny Murtagh added, "I was a bit further back than I should have been, but he cruised into the race nicely. He probably wasted a bit of energy getting there, but, in all fairness to him, he was very brave in the last 100 yards and really responded well." Click for the Racing Post chart.

Boris de Deauville was victorious in last term's G2 Prix d'Harcourt at Longchamp and has earned prizemoney in each of seven subsequent pattern-race starts, including a third in November's G1 Premio Roma. Lining up off a third in the July 23 G3 Grand Prix de Vichy, he adopted different tactics and was afforded an uncontested lead from the break here. He was shaken up off the home turn, poached a decisive advantage approaching the final eighth and was ridden out to comfortably hold the late rally of crowd choice Crossharbour. "He runs well fresh and it is sometimes good not to burden jockeys with strict orders," said trainer Stephane Wattel. "The horse was somewhat surprised to be in front, but, in hindsight, it was a good tactic. He quickened nicely when asked on ground with some cut, which he especially likes. We will probably go to Longchamp next for the [Oct. 4] G2 Prix Dollar and later on we might go to Italy again for the [Nov. 9] G1 Premio Roma." Click for the Racing Post chart.

Successful in two of three juvenile starts, Paco Boy came back this year to land Lingfield's Listed Spring Cup Mar. 15 before winning the G3 Greenham S. over this course and distance Apr. 19. He endured a troubled trip when seventh in the May 11 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp, but was rejuvenated when bounding to success in the G2 Lennox S. at Goodwood last time and added to that score with another impressive performance in this. Paco Boy was reserved off the pace in a share of fifth through the early strides and loomed large on the outside approaching the final furlong. He put the race to bed in a matter of strides soon after and quickened clear to easily outclass his rivals. "He's a serious horse; he settled lovely and, when I asked him to pick up, he just went through the gears," enthused jockey Ryan Moore. "I changed my hands, he took off and just pulled away from them. Seven furlongs is his ideal trip and, over that distance, he'd be as good as any I have ridden." As for future plans, trainer's assistant Richard Hannon Jr. added, "I suppose we'll go to the G1 Prix de la Foret [at Longchamp Oct. 4] now, but if we go up to a mile it opens the book up. We could consider Hong Kong or even America for a race on the Polytrack, but we'll have to sit down with the owners to see where we go."

TDN presents
STAR OF THE WEEK
 Brought to you by Fasig-Tipton

Freddy Head

Accomplishment: Picked up his fourth Group 1 win of the summer when saddling Marchand d'Or (Fr) to victory in last Sunday's Prix Maurice de Gheest.
Birthdate: June 19, 1947
Birthplace: Neuilly, France
Current Residence: Gouvieux, France
First win as a trainer? Mulahen (GB) (owned by Sheikh Hamdan Al Maktoum), Fontainebleau, 1998.

What is your biggest accomplishment since you've been training? Winning the 2008 G1 July Cup at Newmarket.

Biggest accomplishment as a jockey? Winning the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at age 19.

If you could change one thing about our sport, what would it be? More friendly and appropriate conditions for the fans, and improve the quality of the courses for the horses.

What is your favorite track? Longchamp. You can apply all tactics, go in front or wait behind, and it is very selective--the best in the world.

Most fascinating backstretch character you've met? My father Alec.

Who do you think is the most underrated stallion? Marchand de Sable.

If you could name a stakes for anybody, who would it be? Willie Head, my grandfather, who has been exceptional to me.

If you could have a conversation with one horse, who would it be, and what would you ask him? Marchand d'Or. I'd ask why he does so much early on and why he can't learn to keep more energy for his finish.

Who inspires you the most? (The late) François Boutin.

Who was your biggest idol growing up? Winston Churchill.

Favorite music? Rock.

What's playing on your CD player right now? The Beatles.

If you could have dinner with one historical figure, who would it be, and why? Napoleon; I'd ask him how he managed to become emperor starting from nothing from his small island in Corsica.

Where would you like to go that you haven't yet been? Greece.

What is your favorite vacation spot? Megeve for skiing and the Bahamas for the sun.

What's the funniest movie you've ever seen? "La Grande Vadrouille" (a French hit about a middle class worker and a famed music conductor teaming up involuntarily to escape the Germans during WW II).

What's your favorite film? "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest."

CONGRATULATIONS!

8	4	Natagora (Fr)	Divine Light (Jpn)	Bary	120

Freddy Head bids to continue his current hot streak with the G1 Prix Jean Prat winner Tamayuz, who will be aided by his pacemaker Racinger here. Successful in the saddle in this race on Carabella (Fr) in 1967, Lyphard in 1972, Northjet (Ire) nine years later, the dual heroine Miesque in 1987 and 1988 and Hector Protector in 1991, Head is beginning to show a similar prowess in the training profession. Tamayuz flopped in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains following a win in the Apr. 13 G3 Prix de Fontainebleau, but there were a host of hard-luck stories which emerged from that May 11 Longchamp Classic, and he put matters right with a defeat of Raven's Pass in Chantilly's Prix Jean Prat last time July 13. Cont. p8

Racinger is no back-number following his success in the G3 Prix Messidor over Maisons-Laffitte's straight mile last time July 19. "Tamayuz has been very well since winning at Chantilly last time--in fact he couldn't be better," Head told PA Sport. "He was very impressive in the Prix Jean Prat and my only worry is that the ground at Deauville is going to be on the soft side. I am using Racinger as a lead-horse, but that is the way he likes to run as he is a galloper--I hope he can be placed too." Natagora represents the Pascal Bary stable which has excelled with fillies in recent times; he saddled one of the best in Six Perfections (Fr) to win this five years ago. Natagora's last three runs have resulted in a win in the May 4 G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket and thirds in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly June 1 and G1 Prix Rothschild over this track and trip a fortnight ago. "She is in great form and things didn't quite go her way on her last run," owner Stefan Friberg's Racing Manager Patrick Barbe told PA Sport. "She had to make the running and the race wasn't run to suit, so we are hoping for better this weekend." Alain de Royer-Dupre has yet to collect this prize and puts forward Sageburg in a bid to end the drought. Having won the G1 Prix d'Ispahan at Longchamp May 18, he was a shade below par when only sixth in the June 17 G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot last time.

Papal Bull bids for an elusive Group 1 and need only turn up if in the same mood as when he gave Duke of Marmalade (Ire) a scare in Ascot's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. on his latest start July 26. Many felt that he would have got the better of Ballydoyle's giant had his run been timed later, and the nine-length margin back to Youmzain (Ire) in third underlines the quality of that effort. The bay has his quirks, too, and connections will be hoping that he is on his best behavior as he tackles the G1 Deutsches Derby hero Kamsin, who relished testing conditions when registering a three-length success in the Hamburg Classic last time July 6. "All we can do is hope for the best," the Papal Bull syndicate's David Stack told PA Sport. "We're giving a lot of weight to this year's German Derby winner. In the ratings they rate us 126, him 116 and that would be giving 10 pounds. But if he runs like he did at Ascot and proves that he's rated 132, then he would show his Timeform rating wasn't a fluke."

All carry 126 pounds bar Alarazi, 135.

Johnny Murtagh was initially on Zulu Chief when the declarations were made for this race at The Curragh last Sunday, but the testing ground may have swayed him to switch to King of Rome for the rescheduled event. While Zulu Chief's reputation precedes him and his 20-length maiden win at Naas July 9 was visually impressive, he beat little of merit there and has improvement to find to trouble his stable companion. Sixth in the G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg July 6, King of Rome rebounded with a comfortable success in the course-and-distance G3 Meld S. 18 days later and has King of Westphalia to set the fractions again here.

All carry 124 pounds.

Seven fillies that were declared for the abandoned Curragh contest a week ago line up here and the most important of them is G3 Swordlestown Stud Sprint S. and G3 Albany S. winner Cuis Ghaire, who lost her unbeaten tag with a second to Rip Van Winkle (Ire) in the G3 Tyros S. in contrasting conditions over course and distance last time July 24. Trainer Jim Bolger, who seeks a fourth renewal of this contest, was critical of the prevalent fast surface on that occasion, and the homebred should be more at home with give underfoot. Dermot Weld won this with Low Key Affair in 1993, Dance Design (Ire) two years later, Saranac Lake in 2001 and Campfire Glow (Ire) 12 months ago and relies on Rare Ransom, who was an impressive seven-length winner of a Galway maiden 12 days ago. After the rain came, Aidan O'Brien halved his team to one and that is Dr Fong and Lucky Story's half-sister Spira, who is obviously expected to show a lot more than her unplaced debut effort in a mile maiden at The Curragh three weeks ago. She bids to provide Ballydoyle with a seventh victory.

August Yearling Sale

SHADWELL RULING THE ROOST Shadwell had been one of the leading players on Day 1 of Arqana's August Yearling Sale, and stepped it up during yesterday's session when purchasing the top two lots. Buoyed by the success of his daughter Mauralakana (Fr) in the previous weekend's GI Beverley D. S., demand was high among the international crowd for Haras du Mezeray's offering by Shadwell's own Muhtathir (GB). Hip 148 is a February-foaled daughter of the useful stakes performer Princess d'Orange (Fr) (Anabaa) and hails from the family of the smart Sign of the Wolf (GB) and the 2006 and 2007 G2

Hip 148 - Muhtathir filly

Grand Prix de Deauville winner Irish Wells (Fr), who was also runner-up to Dylan Thomas (Ire) in last year's G1 Prix Ganay. Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum, seated beside advisor Angus Gold, made certain to secure the big prize of the day with a final bid of €570,000. "She was lovely and had a great attitude and a good eye," Gold explained. "It is certainly a lot of money, but obviously two people rated her highly and that's how it goes. She is as nice as any filly I have seen here and we are delighted to have her. Muhtathir was even better at five than at three, and so are many of his horses like Satwa Queen (Fr), Mauralakana and Doctor Dino (Fr). They are sound and keep going, and we hope she can do the same." Later in the session, Shadwell struck again for Haras de Grandcamp's hip 224, a Green Tune half-sister to the SP Garden City (Fr) (Majorien {GB}) and GSP Balin's Sword (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}). The filly traces back to Burghclere (GB), who is responsible for the 1994 G1 Epsom Oaks runner-up and following year's G1 Aral-Pokal winner Wind in Her Hair (Ire), dam of Deep Impact (Jpn). With that to commend her, Gold was forced to go to €540,000 to deny trainer Jean de Roualle and his client Steve Lamprell of Satwa Queen fame. After being underbidder on the top lot when going to €550,000, that duo were denied again as they narrowly missed the Grandcamp offering.

Jean de Roualle, although not in the best mood afterwards, was nevertheless gallant in defeat. "The Muhtahir filly I regret a lot," de Roualle said. "I think she was the most beautiful filly in the sale, and Mr. Lamprell really wanted her as she is bred on the same cross as Satwa Queen. The market is very professional, and it is hard to buy. When the pedigree matches the conformation, you need a lot of money. But we haven't had our last word yet." Eric Lhermite of Haras de Grandcamp outlined the story behind hip 224, explaining, "I was a stud groom at Haras d'Etream for four years and have been on my own for the last four years. The dam of this filly was a gift from Marc de Chambure, as she was barren for a few years, and Marc decided to give her away. I took her, and we were partners on the first foal to be born from her and that was the speedy Garden City, while the Linamix (Fr) brother we sold last year for €300,000 was a foal sharing with His Highness the Aga Khan. I own this one outright, and it is a dream come true. I consigned 11 yearlings on my first year at Haras de Grandcamp, and we now have 40 for various owners who trust me. So far, we have sold nine in this sale, some well, some more moderately, but this will be a day to remember." Earlier, Shadwell used their clout to secure hip 176, a son of Red Ransom from the draft of current leading consignors Haras d'Etream for €280,000. His 3/4-sister Toupie (GB) (Intikhab) took the 2004 G3 Prix d'Arenberg before holding her own at a higher level and finishing runner-up in the following year's G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches and G2 Prix de Sandringham.

Look Who's Back...

After returning to the fold for the first time in five years on Friday, John Ferguson stands at the top of the buyer's list after a second session in which he was particularly active. He was responsible for the top-priced colt of the day, a son of Dalakhani (Ire) who proved a stand-out. His Highness the Aga Khan's resident has enjoyed recent Classic success from his first crop via G1 Irish Oaks heroine Moonstone (GB), who featured in the pedigree of hip 158. From the consignment of Haras de la Louviere, the filly is represented by third dam Solo de Lune (Ire), also the dam of the 1999 G1 Prix Saint-Alary heroine Cerulean Sky (Ire). She in turn produced last year's G1 St Leger third Honolulu (Ire) and the 2003 G1 Irish Oaks and GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf runner-up L'Anresse (Ire). Ferguson, not to be denied for the grey, prevailed when the bidding hit the €500,000 mark. He later secured two colts by King's Best, with the first being d'Etream's hip 216, whose dam is a sister to the Argentine stakes winners Evenly Halo (Arg) and Evenk (Arg) from the extended family of Rio de la Plata (Rahy).

Twelve lots after paying €240,000 for that offering, Ferguson went to €280,000 to secure Newsells Park Stud's half-brother to the top-class Preachinathebar (Silver Charm) and Nolas Lolly (Ire) (Lomitas {GB}), who was recently third in the G3 Hamburger Stutenpreis. Paul Nataf was underbidder on hip 158. "Haras de La Louviere is my favourite farm, as I have been very lucky with them especially with the French Oaks winner Lattice (Ire) and French Derby winner Lawman (Ire)," said Nataf. "They do a fantastic job there, but now everybody wants to buy from them and the horses are getting more expensive. Initially, I was prepared to go to €200,000 for that horse, but my client Enrico Ciampi just loved him, and pushed me to €480,000 before we stopped. We had John Ferguson against us, and that is too much." For Lady Chriss O'Reilly, the result of this private duel was heaven sent as she owned the Dalakhani colt in partnership with Edouard de Rothschild. "This was a very nice colt and a great walker--the only thing was that he had a very funny colour; in fact, he looked like he was a tricolour colt and I thought beforehand that this might scare some people away," said O'Reilly. "I knew also that a lot of people liked him, but I didn't know to what extent. Obviously, we have sold him well and we have a good sale since the first day; I couldn't be happier."

Not-So-Hidden Treasure...

Alec Head had enjoyed success on the track earlier in the afternoon courtesy of his homebred juvenile filly Treasure (Fr) (Anabaa) in the Listed Prix de la Vallee d'Auge and was later selling her full-sister named Trissa (Fr) as hip 172. Her second dam is graded-stakes winner Tresoriere, who is from the family of a host of black-type performers in the United States, including the high-class Heritage of Gold. The bay filly was knocked down to Marc-Antoine Berghgracht's MAB Agency for €380,000. Fifteen lots later, the same organization paid €195,000 for a son of Oasis Dream (GB), who is from the draft of Haras de la Perelle. Hip 187 was the subject of a recent update when his full-sister Afya (GB) finished third in the Listed Prix de Bagatelle at Maisons-Laffitte. "I bought these horses for Mr. Valentin Bukhtoyazov of Russia," Berghgracht said. "He had owned some horses in partnership in the past, but wishes to go on his own now and develop a breeding operation later. The horses will be trained in Chantilly by Nicolas Clement, Richard Gibson and Jean de Roualle."

Greeley Gold...

Mr. Greeley's impact continues to resonate around the world, and the sire of the high-class Coolcullen pair Finsceal Beo (Ire) and Saoirse Abu was represented by another potentially smart filly yesterday. Consigned by Haras du Cadran as hip 211, the March-foaled daughter of stakes winner Diana My Love (Siberian Express)--from the extended family of Silver Hawk--was snapped up by Paul Nataf for €300,000 on behalf of owner Gerald Lapoureau. "I could not have dreamt of a such a perfect day," Pierre Talvard of Haras du Cadran said. "I bought the Mr. Greeley filly as a foal last year at Keeneland for $125,000 with some partners, so we are really happy." Her price matched the earlier purchase of hip 141 by Demi O'Byrne, who has been selective so far, but was keen to secure the daughter of Montjeu (Ire). Consigned by Haras des Capucines, the filly--bred on the same cross as this year's G1 Irish Derby hero Frozen Fire (Ger)--is out of GSP Nuriva (Woodman), a full sister to MGSP Mujtahid.

The Story Behind SKAS...

After appearing for the first time in the buyers column on Friday, all were keen to know what SKAS stood for and the man who signed the slips, Irish veterinarian Franck McGovern, was on hand to explain. "SKAS stands for Stables King Abdullah & Sons," he said. "I personally manage the operation in Saudi Arabia for the King and his sons. It is now a big breeding and racing operation in the country, but it is our first venture into the yearling market. There is a very close relationship between French racing and the Family of King Abdullah, and he has great respect for Andre Fabre. They know that Prince Khalid Abdullah enjoys racing in France, and that helped. There was a wide range of quality pedigrees to choose from and we had no problems in making that choice. The sale is good and strong. The horses will be broken at Haras du Mezeray before being sent to Andre Fabre. This is a test, really, and we hope we will have fun."

Feeling the Pressure...

Despite his high-profile purchases, sale regular Marc-Antoine Berghgracht was quick to point out that this renewal was as tough as any in recent years. "It was awfully hard to buy on the first day and I was three times underbidder to Sheikh Mohammed," he said. "The market is very selective--people are ready to pay the price for good quality and there is a lot of it in the catalogue this year. The market didn't slow down on the second day and that is the result of the excellent selection work done by the Arqana Team." Charlie Gordon-Watson was of the same opinion, "It is hard to buy," said Gordon-Watson. "I bought four last year, and luckily one, Silver Frost (Fr), is very good and won a Group 3 and is one of the favorites for the G1 Prix Morny next week. So far, I have bought only two just because it is a better catalogue and, therefore, there are a lot of determined buyers. Sheikh Mohammed is back for the first time in a long time, and Arqana has done a really good job to get all these good horses here. That explains why it is such a strong market." John Magnier also gave his seal of approval. "Everybody seems happy and it is a very satisfactory sale," said Magnier. "There are really nice horses here, and we are very happy with those that we bought so far. We might go for a few more. The average went up so much, and that tells all about the quality of the sale."

Not All Glory...

While the market is strong in Deauville, with a glut of excellent yearlings and potential buyers, some breeders have nevertheless been forced to buy their horses back. That was the case yesterday with Alec Head, who failed to reach more than €340,000 for hip 220, a half-brother by Numerous to last year's G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud winner Full of Gold (Fr) (Gold Away {Ire}). Alain Brandebourger also bought back hip 130, a Key of Luck half-sister to Muhtathir (GB) (Elmaamul) for €210,000. "She is a half-sister to a top sire who was a top performer on the course," said Brandebourger. "She has produced six winners and was perfect in her conformation. Maybe the fact that she is by Key of Luck has frightened some, but I don't understand why, and she is also a fantastic broodmare prospect. I was not ready to let her go for that kind of money on this market, and my partners agreed to that. It's too bad, and I can't really understand why that happened."

The Magic Cross...

Some were finding their way in the middle market and Australian Peter Maher managed to tap into the time-honored Sadler's Wells--Darshaan cross when securing hip 157 from Haras du Buff. By Coolmore stallion Montjeu (Ire) and out of a sister to the 1996 G1 Yorkshire Oaks winner Key Change (Ire), the filly may prove a bargain after agent Laurent Benoit won the day at €130,000. "Magic has always worked out nicely for me in France," Maher said after revealing that she will join the stable of Andre Fabre. "First, when I won the French 1000 Guineas with Valentine Waltz (Ire) back in 1999 from the stable of John Gosden. Then I bought a yearling two years ago called Angelo Minny (Fr) and he is now a listed winner with Andre Fabre. I bought another one last year, Cafe Racer (Ire) and he won at Chantilly on his last run and will run in September in the G3 Prix de la Rochette. I loved racing in France and always wanted to come back one day--it is good, clean and straight. To me, it is the perfect place to race. Coming to Paris in the summer in the middle of an Australian winter is a thrill and I just love it here. I am really happy and I might try to find one more to buy here in Deauville."

Tale of the Tape...

The statistics were not lying at the end of the second session, with the average of €130,316 up by 5 percent on last year and the median up by 11 percent at €100,000. "Again the figures are up from last year on the day's trade, but also over the first two days of this sale," Executive President Eric Hoyeau said. "It is a real consolidation of the 2007 market. The market remains very international, with new buyers from Russia, Bulgaria and Japan and people from the Emirates and Middle East buying many horses again. We can only be delighted at such results and to have installed Deauville as a truly international place."

APPROACH GETS GREEN LIGHT Trainer Jim Bolger will saddle Princess Haya of Jordan's New Approach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in Tuesday's G1 Juddmonte International at York. After deliberations about the comeback target of the G1 Epsom Derby hero following a setback, connections have opted for a clash with Duke of Marmalade (Ire) in the extended 10-furlong contest. "I have spoken to the owners and we have decided he will run," Bolger told PA Sport yesterday. "He worked well on Friday, so he will go to York and I think the ground there will be fine for him." Drying conditions changed the description at the Northern venue to good-to-soft yesterday from soft, with a mixed forecast up to the opening day of the four-day Ebor Festival.

MACHO ON TRACK West Point's Macho Again (Macho Uno) breezed a half in :50.15 over the Oklahoma training track at Saratoga yesterday morning. Winner of the GII Jim Dandy S. July 27, he will run in Saturday's GI Travers S. The grey had been slated to work Friday, but had a bad reaction to a Lasix shot, and later wound up getting loose in the barn area. "It was quite the rodeo," joked trainer Dallas Stewart. "He just got loose; you know, these horses get loose--they get loose no matter who they are. He was hard to catch. He just loves it up here. [But] he's fine. He worked good. So, all went well." Jim Dandy third- and fourth-place finishers Tiz Now Tiz

EQUIANO GEARED UP FOR NUNTHORPE James Acheson's G1 King's Stand S. winner Equiano (Fr) (Acclamation {GB}) is set to contest Friday's G1 Coolmore Nunthorpe S., for which 17 sprinters remained at yesterday's stage. Trained by Mauricio Delcher-Sanchez to win the June 17 Royal Ascot contest, the sophomore will race for the Barry Hills stable for the first time in York's five-furlong contest. "Equiano has been in really good form and we've got to know him," jockey Michael Hills told PA Sport. "Obviously, he's new to us, but he's run well on soft ground in France and won on fast ground, so I don't think the ground is an issue." John Best is set to saddle John Mayne's G1 Golden Jubilee S. hero Kingsgate Native (Ire) (Mujadil), who will be bidding for back-to-back renewals; and Listed Windsor Castle S. scorer Flashmans Papers (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}). Bridget Swire's 2007 G1 July Cup hero Sakhee's Secret (GB) (Sakhee) is set to revert to the minimum trip after disappointing in the Golden Jubilee.

BOB BENOIT DIES Robert P. (Bob) Benoit died Friday at Centinela Valley Hospital after a length illness. He was 81. Involved in racing since 1953, the Indiana native founded and was president of Benoit and Associates, the track photographers of the Southern California circuit. Benoit served in the U.S. Army until 1947, when he was discharged, and attended U.C.L.A. He left that Los Angeles university in 1951 to become sports editor of the Inglewood Daily News. After joining Hollywood Park's staff in 1953, Benoit became assistant publicity director in 1955, and was named director of publicity in 1969. He was elected to Hollywood's Board of Directors in 1977 and was tabbed as chief operating officer and general manager of the Inglewood oval. Benoit was also involved in setting up the Racetrack Chaplaincy of California, and encouraged riders such as Sandy Hawley, Chris McCarron, Eddie Delahoussaye and Darrel McHargue to move their tack to Southern California. Also director of publicity at Playfair Race Course in Spokane, Washington, Benoit served as an auxiliary steward for the Washington Horse Racing Commission. In 2004, he became the first recipient of the Laffit Pincay Jr. Award, given to a person who has served the sport with integrity, extraordinary dedication, determination and distinction. "To be the inaugural winner of an indescribable honor, the high point of my career of more than a half-century, I'm truly overwhelmed," Benoit said at the time. Funeral services are pending.

MISS CHALLENGE (f, 3, More Than Ready--Full Figure, by Polish Numbers) captured her three-year-old bow, returning after more than eight months on the shelf to break her maiden on the turf at Monmouth June 18. The dark bay closed ground after a rough start to be third in a Belmont allowance July 17, but was overlooked at 8-1 at the Spa. In traffic on the first turn, she settled in the middle of the pack down the backstretch. The $100,000 KEENOV weanling and a $150,000 KEESEP yearling was fanned wide as she launched her bid in the stretch and had to be steadied when lugging in as they approached the eighth pole, but she kicked into gear once straightened away and outfinished Meriwether Jessica (Freud) for a 3/4-length score. Purchased privately by Godolphin after that effort, the chestnut colt was sidelined after that effort. He made his return as the 9-5 favorite in an allowance test at Saratoga Aug. 2, but showed little after stumbling at the break, and was sent off at 3-1 this time. Content to sit at the back of the pack early, National Pride made a bold move on the final bend, found running room between horses at the top of the lane and outfinished Posse Cat (Posse) to take it by a head. Bunker Hill was in for a $50,000 tag when facing maiden claimers at Monmouth Aug. 7, and wired the field to win by 2 1/2 lengths. Trying the turf and stakes company in his second appearance, the Florida-bred was let go at double-digit odds, but posted the narrow upset. The bay was up to press Beacon Hill Road (Forestry) through a quarter in :23.71 and put a head in front after a half in :47.61. Uncle T Seven came after him in the stretch and held a brief advantage at the eighth pole, but Bunker Hill would not be denied. Beacon Hill Road, the 5-2 chalk, faded to fourth.

TRA Board Endorses Safety Measures:

The Thoroughbred Racing Association (TRA) Board of Directors has endorsed the recommendations of the Thoroughbred Safety Committee of The Jockey Club regarding the elimination of androgenic anabolic steroids and other equine safety measures. In addition, the TRA is following the recommendation that jockeys use only those crops approved by the Racing Commissioners' International Model Rules Committee, and is hoping to adopt a ban on toe grabs in conjunction with local commission regulations. The TRA also announced that Tom Chuckas and Will Alempijevic were elected to its Board representing the Maryland Jockey Club and Portland Meadows, respectively.

The Jockey Club Projects 2009 Foal Crop:

The Jockey Club announced yesterday that it is projecting a 2009 foal crop of 35,400 for North American registered Thoroughbreds. That figure marks a decrease of 3.3 percent from the revised estimate of 36,600 registered foals from 2008. Estimates are based on the Reports of Mares Bred, which have to be filed by Aug. 1 of the breeding season. "After mirroring historical trends during the first three weeks of August last year, the pace of 2007 RMB submissions slowed noticeably thereafter, and that prompted us to reduce our previously announced forecast for 2008 by 900 foals," said Matt Iuliano, The Jockey Club's vice president of registration services. "Based on RMB returns to date for the 2008 breeding season, the foal crop contraction is likely to continue in 2009."

Cry of Freedom recorded a convincing 3 1/2-length win on debut at Sandown July 23 and continued in similar vein in this black-type bow with another dominant score. Front and center from the outset, he was shaken up with 1 1/2 furlongs to go and kept on strongly under minimal encouragement in the closing stages to win unchallenged. "Frankie rode the horse who finished second to him on his first run at Sandown and said he looked like a good horse," stable representative Jock Bennett told PA Sport. "He seems versatile and I'm sure the boss has some tasty entries for him." Trainer Mark Johnston has indeed made tasty entries for the bay juvenile and they include the Oct. 18 G1 Dewhurst S. at Newmarket and the Oct. 25 G1 Racing Post Trophy at Doncaster. GLEN MOLLY (IRE) (f, 2, Danetime {Ire}--Sonorous {Ire}, by Ashkalani {Ire}) went postward as the 5-4 pick off a course-and-distance second Aug. 3. Settled in fourth after a smart break, the €110,000 GOFMIL yearling was pushed along approaching the final quarter mile quickened to take a slight lead at the distance and was driven out thereafter to best Forward Feline (Ire) (One Cool Cat) by a half length. Suba (Seeking the Gold), who raced in mid division, ran on well in the closing stages--without being unduly punished--to finish third. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, £7,562.
O-John C Grant; B-Noel O'Callaghan; T-Barry Hills.

2.15 Leopardstown, Mdn, €20,000, 2yo, c/g, 7fT
SIRGARFIELD SOBERS (IRE) (Montjeu {Ire}), a full-brother to last year's G1 Epsom Derby and G1 Juddmonte International S. hero Authorized (Ire), debuts for Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor and the Ballydoyle team here. He will have to possess marked ability to conquer Christopher Tsui's Sea the Stars (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}). Trained by John Oxx, the half-brother to Galileo (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), et al, was fourth in the July 13 Curragh maiden, which has already spawned impressive subsequent winner Black Bear Island (Ire).

“he could become a truly effective sire in the future.”

GREENSWARD (GB) (c, 2, Green Desert--Frizzante {GB}, by Efisio {GB}), a debut fifth at Newbury July 18, shadowed the leaders in fourth after the initial strides of this second go. Coming under pressure once inside the final quarter mile, the even-money favorite required a forceful drive up the hill to overhaul Miss Tango Hotel (GB) (Green Desert) for a neck success. Larkham (Action This Day) chased the leaders from the bell and ran on well in the closing stages to finish third. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £5,181.
 O-Lady Rothschild; B-Kincorth Investments Inc; T-Brian Meehan.

+ MORE THAN MANY (c, 2, More Than Ready--Slewnami {Aus}, by Seattle Slew), a $20,000 FTKOCT yearling and a £15,000 DONAPR breezer, was roused from the gate to chase the leaders on the far side rail. Responding to continued urging to challenge with 150 yards to go, the 8-1 chance kept on well under a drive to deny Our Apolonoa (Ire) (Intikhab) by 3/4-of a length. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £3,886.
 O-The Rumpole Partnership; B-Wall Street Thoroughbreds; T-Richard Fahey.

Treasure was a one-length winner of a July 19 newcomers' event at Maisons-Laffitte and continued her education with a thoroughly competent score in this stakes bow. Settled last of the five runners after the break, she eased into contention with 300 meters remaining and ran on well in the closing stages to hold off the vain bid of Raggle Taggle in cozy fashion. "This really is my little treasure and I take great care of her because she is so nice," admitted trainer Criquette Head-Maarek. The programme usually leads to the G3 Prix d'Arenberg [at Chantilly Sept. 11] and that is where she will probably go, but it is not certain yet. She is also in the G1 Cheveley Park S. [at Newmarket Oct. 3] and she might go straight to that instead."
